⁵⁷ As evening approached, Joseph, a rich man from Arimathea who had become a follower of Jesus, ⁵⁸ went to Pilate and asked for Jesus' body. And Pilate issued an order to release it to him. ⁵⁹ Joseph took the body and wrapped it in a long sheet of clean linen cloth. ⁶⁰ He placed it in his own new tomb, which had been carved out of the rock. Then he rolled a great stone across the entrance and left. ⁶¹ Both Mary Magdalene and the other Mary were sitting across from the tomb and watching.

⁶² The next day, on the Sabbath,* the leading priests and Pharisees went to see Pilate. ⁶³ They told him, "Sir, we remember what that deceiver once said while he was still alive: 'After three days I will rise from the dead.' ⁶⁴ So we request that you seal the tomb until the third day. This will prevent his disciples from coming and stealing his body and then telling everyone he was raised from the dead! If that happens, we'll be worse off than we were at first."

⁶⁵ Pilate replied, "Take guards and secure it the best you can." ⁶⁶ So they sealed the tomb and posted guards to protect it.

Chapter 28

The Resurrection

Early on Sunday morning,* as the new day was dawning, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went out to visit the tomb.

² Suddenly there was a great earthquake! For an angel of the Lord came down from heaven, rolled aside the stone, and sat on it. ³ His face shone like lightning, and his clothing was as white as snow. ⁴ The guards shook with fear when they saw him, and they fell into a dead faint.

HOPEFORTODAY

Never Alone

My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?
(Matthew 27:46).

As Jesus hung on the cross, He cried out, “My God, My God. Why have You forsaken Me?” As Jesus bore our sin, sickness, and shame, He paid the ultimate price—separation from Almighty God. Romans tells us that the wages of sin is death. The Good News is that Jesus died the death of a sinner so that we don’t have to. As believers, we don’t ever have to be separated from God. He has promised to never leave us, nor forsake us!

We all have times in life when we pray and it seems that Heaven is silent. But remember, during those difficult times, you have a promise that God is with you. You are never alone. You’re not forgotten. In fact, no matter what you may feel like, you can have hope and confidence today because God is working behind the scenes on your behalf. He is faithful to His Word and He is working in your life. He is leading and guiding you in paths of righteousness for His Name sake. He's leading you beside quiet waters and He is restoring your soul.

Aren't you so thankful for what Jesus did? Aren't you thankful for His love? He chose to lay down His life so that you and I could have eternal, abundant life, so that we could be connected to the Father now and forever.

⁵ Then the angel spoke to the women. "Don't be afraid!" he said. "I know you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified. ⁶ He isn't here! He is risen from the dead, just as he said would happen. Come, see where his body was lying. ⁷ And now, go quickly and tell his disciples that he has risen from the dead, and he is going ahead of you to Galilee. You will see him there. Remember what I have told you."

Celebrate New Beginnings

He isn't here! He is risen from the dead, just as he said would happen. Come, see where his body was lying (Matthew 28:6).

Jesus is risen! That's what we celebrate today and every day! The cross is bare, and the tomb is empty—forever. His victory over sin and death provides each of us the opportunity to start over, to make a fresh, new beginning.

As Christians, we believe in new beginnings. Jesus gave us unconditional love and unlimited possibilities. He doesn't care what you've done in the past; He only cares about your future.

For believers, hope has its deepest roots in the reality of Jesus' resurrection. The Apostle Paul made this very clear when he wrote, "And if Christ has not been raised, then all our preaching is useless, and your faith is useless. . . . And if our hope in Christ is only for this life, we are more to be pitied than anyone in the world" (1 Corinthians 15:14, 19). He was reminding us that our faith rests on the fact that Jesus defeated death, the last great enemy we face. Because Jesus left the tomb, our hope transcends life and makes eternity possible.

When we put our trust and hope in Jesus and depend on His power in our lives, we are relying on the very same power that not only created the universe, but also raised Jesus from the dead. That same power that resurrected Jesus from the grave can resurrect your dreams; it can resurrect your marriage, your health, your future. The power behind a new beginning with Jesus is the power of the Resurrection!

⁸ The women ran quickly from the tomb. They were very frightened but also filled with great joy, and they rushed to give the disciples the angel's message. ⁹ And as they went, Jesus met them and greeted them. And they ran to him, grasped his feet, and worshiped him. ¹⁰ Then Jesus said to them, “Don’t be afraid! Go tell my brothers to leave for Galilee, and they will see me there.”

The Report of the Guard

¹¹ As the women were on their way, some of the guards went into the city and told the leading priests what had happened. ¹² A meeting with the elders was called, and they decided to give the soldiers a large bribe. ¹³ They told the soldiers, “You must say, ‘Jesus’ disciples came during the night while we were sleeping, and they stole his body.’” ¹⁴ If the governor hears about it, we’ll stand up for you so you won’t get in trouble.” ¹⁵ So the guards accepted the bribe and said what they were told to say. Their story spread widely among the Jews, and they still tell it today.

The Great Commission

Therefore, go and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit (Matthew 28:19).

The Great Commission was not the “Great Suggestion.” Jesus told His disciples, and He requires each of us, to go out and share the Good News! You are a part of something special today—part of a historic time when Christians have unprecedented ways to reach the lost. Various forms of communication have made the world very accessible. Communication circles the globe almost instantly.

You have the opportunity, and even the responsibility, to help change the path that someone is on. You may be the very person that God wants to use to change someone’s eternal destiny. That’s something to get excited about today! You will be blessed and rewarded beyond measure for sharing with someone else the reality of God. You are God’s voice on this earth. When you invite others into relationship with Jesus, you are making an eternal difference in their life.

The Great Commission

¹⁶ Then the eleven disciples left for Galilee, going to the mountain where Jesus had told them to go. ¹⁷ When they saw him, they worshiped him—but some of them doubted!

¹⁸ Jesus came and told his disciples, “I have been given all authority in heaven and on earth. ¹⁹ Therefore, go and make disciples of all the nations,* baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. ²⁰ Teach these new disciples to obey all the commands I have given you. And be sure of this: I am with you always, even to the end of the age.”

Finding Hope and Encouragement in Mark

Most New Testament scholars agree that Mark's Gospel is the earliest written account of Jesus' life and ministry. It shows Jesus' accomplishments and calls us to follow in His steps of servitude, even if it means suffering.

Mark was not one of the original twelve apostles, but he was a companion of both Peter and Paul. He accompanied Paul and Barnabas on their first missionary journey. Unfortunately, Paul had a falling out with Mark, who then went with Barnabas, his cousin, to Cyprus. Paul and Mark were later reconciled. Mark, therefore, is linked to the two most prominent apostles, Paul and Peter.

It is believed that Peter provided much of the information in Mark's Gospel. In fact, the outline of events in Mark's Gospel follows the outline of Peter's sermon to Cornelius in Acts 10:34-43.

Mark wrote to a Gentile, rather than a Jewish, audience. This may be the reason the genealogy of Jesus is not included, the Sermon on the Mount is not reported, and the condemnation of the Pharisees and other Jewish sects receives little attention. He included Latin words not found in other Gospels. And there are only 63 quotations or allusions from the Old Testament, compared to 128 in Matthew's Gospel and between 90 and 100 in Luke. He wanted to encourage and strengthen Roman believers who were suffering under Nero's terrible persecution.

The key verse, 10:45 (as mentioned above), provides the dividing line for the two sections of this book: the service of the Servant (chapters 1–10) and the sacrifice of the Servant (chapters 11–16). Christ the Servant is the main theme of this biography of Jesus, calling us to a life of service.

Mark communicates through vivid pictures of Jesus in action. Eighteen miracles are reported, but only four parables, emphasizing what Jesus did as opposed to what Jesus said. It is a book of action (the word immediately is used more than forty times).

Mark portrays Jesus as the Servant that we should follow. He wants us to believe in and feel the emotions of Jesus. He calls us to a life of service and action.

Chapter 1

John the Baptist Prepares the Way

This is the Good News about Jesus the Messiah, the Son of God.* It began ² just as the prophet Isaiah had written:

“Look, I am sending my messenger ahead of you, and he will prepare your way.*”

³ He is a voice shouting in the wilderness,
“Prepare the way for the LORD’s coming!
Clear the road for him!”*”

⁴ This messenger was John the Baptist. He was in the wilderness and preached that people should be baptized to show that they had repented of their sins and turned to God to be forgiven.⁵ All of Judea, including all the people of Jerusalem, went out to see and hear John. And when they confessed their sins, he baptized them in the Jordan River.⁶ His clothes were woven from coarse camel hair, and he wore a leather belt around his waist. For food he ate locusts and wild honey.

⁷ John announced: “Someone is coming soon who is greater than I am—so much greater that I’m not even worthy to stoop down like a slave and untie the straps of his sandals. ⁸ I baptize you with* water, but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit!”

The Baptism and Temptation of Jesus

⁹ One day Jesus came from Nazareth in Galilee, and John baptized him in the Jordan River. ¹⁰ As Jesus came up out of the water, he saw the heavens splitting apart and the Holy Spirit descending on him* like a dove.¹¹ And a voice from heaven said, “You are my dearly loved Son, and you bring me great joy.”

¹² The Spirit then compelled Jesus to go into the wilderness,¹³ where he was tempted by Satan for forty days. He was out among the wild animals, and angels took care of him.

¹⁴ Later on, after John was arrested, Jesus went into Galilee, where he preached God’s Good News.* ¹⁵ “The time promised by God has come at last!” he announced. “The Kingdom of God is near! Repent of your sins and believe the Good News!”

Prepare the Way

John announced: “Someone is coming soon who is greater than I am—so much greater that I’m not even worthy to stoop down like a slave and untie the straps of his sandals” (Mark 1:7).

Mark’s Gospel begins with the ministry of John the Baptist. There he was, out in the wilderness, preaching and baptizing people. Crowds were flocking to hear him. Someone finally asked him, “John, are you the Messiah, or should we keep looking?” Without missing a beat he said, “No, I am not the Messiah.” Then he briefly described the One who would follow him.

John knew his mission. He knew who he was. He understood his calling, and he was fulfilling it. John’s purpose was to prepare the way for the Christ’s arrival. He planted seeds everywhere he went so that the people would be ready to receive Jesus. In the same way, our lives should always plant seeds that point the way to Christ.

John also shows us that when you know who you are, when you know your purpose, other people can’t make you into something you’re not. When you know who you are, the opinions of others, their ideas, misperceptions, and criticisms won’t distract you. When you’re focused on what you’re good at and what you’re called to do, you won’t be tempted to commit to things that will waste your time or drain your energy—even if they look important, even if they look impressive, even if they will make you look good. Like a laser, focused energy is power. As you live the life God’s called you to, you will be a testimony that prepares the way for others to know Him, too!

¹⁹ A little farther up the shore Jesus saw Zebedee's sons, James and John, in a boat repairing their nets. ²⁰ He called them at once, and they also followed him, leaving their father, Zebedee, in the boat with the hired men.

Jesus Casts Out an Evil Spirit

²¹ Jesus and his companions went to the town of Capernaum. When the Sabbath day came, he went into the synagogue and began to teach. ²² The people were amazed at his teaching, for he taught with real authority—quite unlike the teachers of religious law.

²³ Suddenly, a man in the synagogue who was possessed by an evil* spirit began shouting, ²⁴ “Why are you interfering with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!”

²⁵ Jesus cut him short. “Be quiet! Come out of the man,” he ordered. ²⁶ At that, the evil spirit screamed, threw the man into a convulsion, and then came out of him.

²⁷ Amazement gripped the audience, and they began to discuss what had happened. “What sort of new teaching is this?” they asked excitedly. “It has such authority! Even evil spirits obey his orders!” ²⁸ The news about Jesus spread quickly throughout the entire region of Galilee.

Jesus Heals Many People

²⁹ After Jesus left the synagogue with James and John, they went to Simon and Andrew's home. ³⁰ Now Simon's mother-in-law was sick in bed with a high fever. They told Jesus about her right away. ³¹ So he went to her bedside, took her by the hand, and helped her sit up. Then the fever left her, and she prepared a meal for them.

³² That evening after sunset, many sick and demon-possessed people were brought to Jesus. ³³ The whole town gathered at the door to watch. ³⁴ So Jesus healed many people who were sick with various diseases, and he cast out many demons. But because the demons knew who he was, he did not allow them to speak.

³⁵ Before daybreak the next morning, Jesus got up and went out to an isolated place to pray. ³⁶ Later Simon and the others went out to find him. ³⁷ When they found him, they said, “Everyone is looking for you.”

³⁸ But Jesus replied, “We must go on to other towns as well, and I will preach to them, too. That is why I came.” ³⁹ So he traveled throughout the region of Galilee, preaching in the synagogues and casting out demons.

Jesus Heals a Man with Leprosy

⁴⁰ A man with leprosy came and knelt in front of Jesus, begging to be healed. “If you are willing, you can heal me and make me clean,” he said.

⁴¹ Moved with compassion,* Jesus reached out and touched him. “I am willing,” he said. “Be healed!” ⁴² Instantly the leprosy disappeared, and the man was healed. ⁴³ Then Jesus sent him on his way with a stern warning: ⁴⁴ “Don’t tell anyone about this. Instead, go to the priest and let him examine you. Take along the offering required in the law of Moses for those who have been healed of leprosy.* This will be a public testimony that you have been cleansed.”

⁴⁵ But the man went and spread the word, proclaiming to everyone what had happened. As a result, large crowds soon surrounded Jesus, and he couldn’t publicly enter a town anywhere. He had to stay out in the secluded places, but people from everywhere kept coming to him.

Jesus Heals a Paralyzed Man

When Jesus returned to Capernaum several days later, the news spread quickly that he was back home.² Soon the house where he was staying was so packed with visitors that there was no more room, even outside the door. While he was preaching God’s word to them,³ four men arrived carrying a paralyzed man on a mat.⁴ They couldn’t bring him to Jesus because of the crowd, so they dug a hole through the roof above his head. Then they lowered the man on his mat, right down in front of Jesus.⁵ Seeing their faith, Jesus said to the paralyzed man, “My child, your sins are forgiven.”

⁶ But some of the teachers of religious law who were sitting there thought to themselves,⁷ “What is he saying? This is blasphemy! Only God can forgive sins!”

⁸ Jesus knew immediately what they were thinking, so he asked them, “Why do you question this in your hearts? ⁹ Is it easier to say to the paralyzed man ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or ‘Stand up, pick up your mat, and walk’? ¹⁰ So I will prove to you that the Son of Man* has the authority on earth to forgive sins.” Then Jesus turned to the paralyzed man and said, ¹¹ “Stand up, pick up your mat, and go home!”

HOPENOTE

Look Beyond

Seeing their faith, Jesus said to the paralyzed man, “My child, your sins are forgiven” (Mark 2:5).

There’s always more to what people need than meets the eye. If we only respond to the obvious, we may miss helping someone with their deepest hurt or need. When we read the story of the four friends who invented the first “service elevator,” of course we expect Jesus to respond to their faith by healing the man of his paralysis. But Jesus saw the deeper need of this man, the need for forgiveness. Sure, the man wanted to walk, but he needed spiritual freedom as well.

When you encounter people throughout the day, don’t just look at their external condition; be sensitive to what may be going on inside. You can make a difference in the world around you. You can offer a simple word of encouragement or hope. You can offer a smile or offer to pray with someone in their time of need. Wherever Jesus went, He asked people, “What do you want Me to do for you?” Asking people how we can help them is a great place to start. You never know how you can impact a person’s life when you look beyond their external condition. You can be that beacon of hope, that light in their dark hour. You can be the hands and feet of Jesus in this world.

¹² And the man jumped up, grabbed his mat, and walked out through the stunned onlookers. They were all amazed and praised God, exclaiming, “We’ve never seen anything like this before!”

Jesus Calls Levi (Matthew)

¹³ Then Jesus went out to the lakeshore again and taught the crowds that were coming to him. ¹⁴ As he walked along, he saw Levi son of Alphaeus sitting at his tax collector’s booth. “Follow me and be my disciple,” Jesus said to him. So Levi got up and followed him.

¹⁵ Later, Levi invited Jesus and his disciples to his home as dinner guests, along with many tax collectors and other disreputable sinners. (There were many people of this kind among Jesus’ followers.) ¹⁶ But when the teachers of religious law who were Pharisees* saw him eating with tax collectors and other sinners, they asked his disciples, “Why does he eat with such scum?*

¹⁷ When Jesus heard this, he told them, “Healthy people don't need a doctor—sick people do. I have come to call not those who think they are righteous, but those who know they are sinners.”

A Discussion about Fasting

¹⁸ Once when John's disciples and the Pharisees were fasting, some people came to Jesus and asked, “Why don't your disciples fast like John's disciples and the Pharisees do?”

²¹ “Besides, who would patch old clothing with new cloth? For the new patch would shrink and rip away from the old cloth, leaving an even bigger tear than before.

²² “And no one puts new wine into old wineskins. For the wine would burst the wineskins, and the wine and the skins would both be lost. New wine calls for new wineskins.”

A Discussion about the Sabbath

²³ One Sabbath day as Jesus was walking through some grainfields, his disciples began breaking off heads of grain to eat. ²⁴ But the Pharisees said to Jesus, “Look, why are they breaking the law by harvesting grain on the Sabbath?”

²⁵ Jesus said to them, “Haven't you ever read in the Scriptures what David did when he and his companions were hungry? ²⁶ He went into the house of God (during the days when Abiathar was high priest) and broke the law by eating the sacred loaves of bread that only the priests are allowed to eat. He also gave some to his companions.”

27 Then Jesus said to them, “The Sabbath was made to meet the needs of people, and not people to meet the requirements of the Sabbath. 28 So the Son of Man is Lord, even over the Sabbath!”

Chapter 3

Jesus Heals on the Sabbath

Jesus went into the synagogue again and noticed a man with a deformed hand. 2 Since it was the Sabbath, Jesus’ enemies watched him closely. If he healed the man’s hand, they planned to accuse him of working on the Sabbath.

3 Jesus said to the man with the deformed hand, “Come and stand in front of everyone.” 4 Then he turned to his critics and asked, “Does the law permit good deeds on the Sabbath, or is it a day for doing evil? Is this a day to save life or to destroy it?” But they wouldn’t answer him.

5 He looked around at them angrily and was deeply saddened by their hard hearts. Then he said to the man, “Hold out your hand.” So the man held out his hand, and it was restored! 6 At once the Pharisees went away and met with the supporters of Herod to plot how to kill Jesus.

Crowds Follow Jesus

7 Jesus went out to the lake with his disciples, and a large crowd followed him. They came from all over Galilee, Judea, 8 Jerusalem, Idumea, from east of the Jordan River, and even from as far north as Tyre and Sidon. The news about his miracles had spread far and wide, and vast numbers of people came to see him.

⁹ Jesus instructed his disciples to have a boat ready so the crowd would not crush him. ¹⁰ He had healed many people that day, so all the sick people eagerly pushed forward to touch him. ¹¹ And whenever those possessed by evil* spirits caught sight of him, the spirits would throw them to the ground in front of him shrieking, “You are the Son of God!” ¹² But Jesus sternly commanded the spirits not to reveal who he was.

Jesus Chooses the Twelve Apostles

¹³ Afterward Jesus went up on a mountain and called out the ones he wanted to go with him. And they came to him. ¹⁴ Then he appointed twelve of them and called them his apostles.* They were to accompany him, and he would send them out to preach, ¹⁵ giving them authority to cast out demons. ¹⁶ These are the twelve he chose:

- Simon (whom he named Peter),
- ¹⁷ James and John (the sons of Zebedee, but Jesus nicknamed them “Sons of Thunder”*),
- ¹⁸ Andrew,
- Philip,
- Bartholomew,
- Matthew,
- Thomas,
- James (son of Alphaeus),
- Thaddaeus,

Simon (the zealot*),
19 Judas Iscariot (who later betrayed him).

Jesus and the Prince of Demons

20 One time Jesus entered a house, and the crowds began to gather again. Soon he and his disciples couldn't even find time to eat. 21 When his family heard what was happening, they tried to take him away. "He's out of his mind," they said.

22 But the teachers of religious law who had arrived from Jerusalem said, "He's possessed by Satan,* the prince of demons. That's where he gets the power to cast out demons."

23 Jesus called them over and responded with an illustration. "How can Satan cast out Satan?" he asked. 24 "A kingdom divided by civil war will collapse. 25 Similarly, a family splintered by feuding will fall apart. 26 And if Satan is divided and fights against himself, how can he stand? He would never survive. 27 Let me illustrate this further. Who is powerful enough to enter the house of a strong man like Satan and plunder his goods? Only someone even stronger—someone who could tie him up and then plunder his house.

28 "I tell you the truth, all sin and blasphemy can be forgiven, 29 but anyone who blasphemes the Holy Spirit will never be forgiven. This is a sin with eternal consequences." 30 He told them this because they were saying, "He's possessed by an evil spirit."

Sent with a Message

Then he appointed twelve of them and called them his apostles. They were to accompany him, and he would send them out to preach (Mark 3:14).

“Apostle” sounds like an important title. Over the centuries, it has come to be perceived that way. But to the original readers of the Bible, the term apostle simply meant “messenger” or “spokesman.” We are all called to be Jesus’ messengers on this earth. We are all His apostles. The term might make you think, “I’m not someone God could ever send as His spokesperson.” But, actually, you’re just the kind of person God loves to use.

At the time when Jesus chose His original twelve disciples, there were very influential schools where people studied religion and all the Jewish laws and traditions. The people who attended these schools were called the Sadducees and the Pharisees. They were prestigious religious leaders of that day. They walked around the city in distinguished robes. They had the best seats at the city functions. But it’s interesting; Jesus didn’t choose any of them. He didn’t choose the most qualified, the most educated, the best dressed, or the most influential. And certainly God can use people like that. It's good to have education. It's good to have influence. But in God's kingdom, what matters most is your heart condition. When Jesus chose His team of twelve, He ended up with some fishermen, a tax collector, a rebel, and assorted others—just typical, everyday people. He went outside of what the world expected and used these ordinary men to do extraordinary things. First, they spent a lot of time with Him. Then, He sent them out with a message that changed the world.

Now the baton has been passed to you and me. We are called to impact the world around us. You don't have to go very far to find those who need hope and encouragement, the message of the gospel. In fact, you can probably think of people right now who need what you have. Why don't you reach out with an encouraging word? Sow a seed of kindness. Why don't you invite them to church? Remember, you are Christ's apostle. You have been called to make a difference. You have a message that can change the world.

The True Family of Jesus

³¹ Then Jesus' mother and brothers came to see him. They stood outside and sent word for him to come out and talk with them. ³² There was a crowd sitting around Jesus, and someone said, "Your mother and your brothers * are outside asking for

³³ Jesus replied, “Who is my mother? Who are my brothers?” ³⁴ Then he looked at those around him and said, “Look, these are my mother and brothers. ³⁵ Anyone who does God’s will is my brother and sister and mother.”

Chapter 4

Parable of the Farmer Scattering Seed

Once again Jesus began teaching by the lakeshore. A very large crowd soon gathered around him, so he got into a boat. Then he sat in the boat while all the people remained on the shore. ² He taught them by telling many stories in the form of parables, such as this one:

³ “Listen! A farmer went out to plant some seed. ⁴ As he scattered it across his field, some of the seed fell on a footpath, and the birds came and ate it. ⁵ Other seed fell on shallow soil with underlying rock. The seed sprouted quickly because the soil was shallow. ⁶ But the plant soon wilted under the hot sun, and since it didn’t have deep roots, it died. ⁷ Other seed fell among thorns that grew up and choked out the tender plants so they produced no grain. ⁸ Still other seeds fell on fertile soil, and they sprouted, grew, and produced a crop that was thirty, sixty, and even a hundred times as much as had been planted!” ⁹ Then he said, “Anyone with ears to hear should listen and understand.”

¹⁰ Later, when Jesus was alone with the twelve disciples and with the others who were gathered around, they asked him

¹¹ He replied, “You are permitted to understand the secret* of the Kingdom of God. But I use parables for everything I say to outsiders, ¹² so that the Scriptures might be fulfilled:

‘When they see what I do,
they will learn nothing.
When they hear what I say,
they will not understand.
Otherwise, they will turn to me and be forgiven.’*”

¹³ Then Jesus said to them, “If you can’t understand the meaning of this parable, how will you understand all the other parables? ¹⁴ The farmer plants seed by taking God’s word to others. ¹⁵ The seed that fell on the footpath represents those who hear the message, only to have Satan come at once and take it away. ¹⁶ The seed on the rocky soil represents those who hear the message and immediately receive it with joy. ¹⁷ But since they don’t have deep roots, they don’t last long. They fall away as soon as they have problems or are persecuted for believing God’s word. ¹⁸ The seed that fell among the thorns represents others who hear God’s word, ¹⁹ but all too quickly the message is crowded out by the worries of this life, the lure of wealth, and the desire for other things, so no fruit is produced. ²⁰ And the seed that fell on good soil represents those who hear and accept God’s word and produce a harvest of thirty, sixty, or even a hundred times as much as had been planted!”

Parable of the Lamp

²¹ Then Jesus asked them, “Would anyone light a lamp and then put it under a basket or under a bed? Of course not! A lamp is placed on a stand, where its light will shine. ²² For everything that is hidden will eventually be brought into the open, and every secret will be brought to light. ²³ Anyone with ears to hear should listen and understand.”

²⁴ Then he added, “Pay close attention to what you hear. The closer you listen, the more understanding you will be given*—and you will receive even more. ²⁵ To those who listen to my teaching, more understanding will be given. But for those who are not listening, even what little understanding they have will be taken away from them.”

²⁶ Jesus also said, “The Kingdom of God is like a farmer who scatters seed on the ground. ²⁷ Night and day, while he’s asleep or awake, the seed sprouts and grows, but he does not understand how it happens. ²⁸ The earth produces the crops on its own. First a leaf blade pushes through, then the heads of wheat are formed, and finally the grain ripens. ²⁹ And as soon as the grain is ready, the farmer comes and harvests it with a sickle, for the harvest time has come.”

Parable of the Mustard Seed

³⁰ Jesus said, “How can I describe the Kingdom of God? What story should I use to illustrate it? ³¹ It is like a mustard seed planted in the ground. It is the smallest of all seeds, ³² but it becomes the largest of all garden plants; it grows long branches, and birds can make nests in its shade.”

³³ Jesus used many similar stories and illustrations to teach the people as much as they could understand. ³⁴ In fact, in his public ministry he never taught without using parables; but afterward, when he was alone with his disciples, he explained everything to them.

Jesus Calms the Storm

³⁵ As evening came, Jesus said to his disciples, “Let’s cross to the other side of the lake.” ³⁶ So they took Jesus in the boat and started out, leaving the crowds behind (although other boats followed). ³⁷ But soon a fierce storm came up. High waves were breaking into the boat, and it began to fill with water.

³⁸ Jesus was sleeping at the back of the boat with his head on a cushion. The disciples woke him up, shouting, “Teacher, don’t you care that we’re going to drown?”

³⁹ When Jesus woke up, he rebuked the wind and said to the waves, “Silence! Be still!” Suddenly the wind stopped, and there was a great calm. ⁴⁰ Then he asked them, “Why are you afraid? Do you still have no faith?”

⁴¹ The disciples were absolutely terrified. “Who is this man?” they asked each other. “Even the wind and waves obey him!”

Peace, Be Still

When Jesus woke up, he rebuked the wind and said to the waves, “Silence! Be still!” Suddenly the wind stopped, and there was a great calm (Mark 4:39).

What do you do when the storms of life seem to be raging against you? Here we see Jesus with His disciples in a boat out on the water when they encountered a great storm. The disciples were very afraid, but Jesus, on the other hand, was fast asleep. When the disciples woke Him up to see if He could help them, Jesus got up and simply spoke to the storm, “Silence! Be still.” And the seas were calm again.

When difficult times come, you don’t have to be overwhelmed by the waves of worry or fear. Just as Jesus stood up and spoke to the storm, you have power in your words, too. As a believer, the Bible tells us that the same Spirit that raised Christ from the dead dwells in you. That means God’s miracle-working power literally lives on the inside of you. He’s given you His authority to declare peace to your storms. He’s given you His authority to declare peace over your home, over your mind, and over your family. Remember, no matter what may come against you, the Greater One lives on the inside of you. Rise up and embrace all He has for you today!

Chapter 5

Jesus Heals a Demon-Possessed Man

So they arrived at the other side of the lake, in the region of the Gerasenes.* ² When Jesus climbed out of the boat, a man possessed by an evil* spirit came out from a cemetery to meet him. ³ This man lived among the burial caves and could no longer be restrained, even with a chain. ⁴ Whenever he was put into chains and shackles—as he often was—he snapped the chains from his wrists and smashed the shackles. No one was strong enough to subdue him. ⁵ Day and night he wandered among the burial caves and in the hills, howling and cutting himself with sharp stones.

⁶ When Jesus was still some distance away, the man saw him, ran to meet him, and bowed low before him. ⁷ With a shriek, he screamed, “Why are you interfering with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? In the name of God, I beg you, don’t torture me!” ⁸ For Jesus had already said to the spirit, “Come out of the man, you evil spirit.”

⁹ Then Jesus demanded, “What is your name?”

And he replied, “My name is Legion, because there are many of us inside this man.” ¹⁰ Then the evil spirits begged him again and again not to send them to some distant place.

¹¹ There happened to be a large herd of pigs feeding on the hillside nearby. ¹² “Send us into those pigs,” the spirits begged. “Let us enter them.”

¹³ So Jesus gave them permission. The evil spirits came out of the man and entered the pigs, and the entire herd of about 2,000 pigs plunged down the steep hillside into the lake and drowned in the water.

¹⁴ The herdsmen fled to the nearby town and the surrounding countryside, spreading the news as they ran. People rushed out to see what had happened. ¹⁵ A crowd soon gathered around Jesus, and they saw the man who had been possessed by the legion of demons. He was sitting there fully clothed and perfectly sane, and they were all afraid. ¹⁶ Then those who had seen what happened told the others about the demon-possessed man and the pigs. ¹⁷ And the crowd began pleading with Jesus to go away and leave them alone.

¹⁸ As Jesus was getting into the boat, the man who had been demon possessed begged to go with him. ¹⁹ But Jesus said, “No, go home to your family, and tell them everything the Lord has done for you and how merciful he has been.” ²⁰ So the man started off to visit the Ten Towns * of that region and began to proclaim the great things Jesus had done for him; and everyone was amazed at what he told them.

Jesus Heals in Response to Faith

²¹ Jesus got into the boat again and went back to the other side of the lake, where a large crowd gathered around him on the shore. ²² Then a leader of the local synagogue, whose name was Jairus, arrived. When he saw Jesus, he fell at his feet, ²³

pleading fervently with him. “My little daughter is dying,” he said. “Please come and lay your hands on her; heal her so she can live.”

24 Jesus went with him, and all the people followed, crowding around him. 25 A woman in the crowd had suffered for twelve years with constant bleeding. 26 She had suffered a great deal from many doctors, and over the years she had spent everything she had to pay them, but she had gotten no better. In fact, she had gotten worse. 27 She had heard about Jesus, so she came up behind him through the crowd and touched his robe. 28 For she thought to herself, “If I can just touch his robe, I will be healed.” 29 Immediately the bleeding stopped, and she could feel in her body that she had been healed of her terrible condition.

30 Jesus realized at once that healing power had gone out from him, so he turned around in the crowd and asked, “Who touched my robe?”

31 His disciples said to him, “Look at this crowd pressing around you. How can you ask, ‘Who touched me?’”

32 But he kept on looking around to see who had done it. 33 Then the frightened woman, trembling at the realization of what had happened to her, came and fell to her knees in front of him and told him what she had done. 34 And he said to her, “Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace. Your suffering is over.”

35 While he was still speaking to her, messengers arrived from the home of Jairus, the leader of the synagogue. They told him, “Your daughter is dead. There’s no use troubling the

36 But Jesus overheard* them and said to Jairus, “Don’t be afraid. Just have faith.”

HOPEFORTODAY

Press Through

And he said to her, “Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace. Your suffering is over” (Mark 5:34).

Mark 5:25-34 describes a woman who had been sick for twelve years. The doctors took her money but gave her no help and no hope. In fact, she suffered from their treatment as much as she suffered from her problem. But one day, she heard that Jesus was coming to her town. I’m sure something deep on the inside of her said, “This is your season. This is your time to get well.” When she saw all the people around Him, she thought, “I’ll never get to Him. It’s so crowded, and I’m so weak. I just don’t think I can do this.” She almost missed her season. But instead of dwelling on those negative thoughts, she started reminding herself, “If I can just get close enough to touch His robe, I know I will be whole.” She kept pressing her way through the crowd until she got just close enough to Jesus to reach out and touch the edge of

His robe. Instantly, she was made whole.

What's interesting is that Jesus actually felt her touch of faith. Now, He was in a crowd of people. People were bumping into Him and touching Him left and right. But this woman's contact wasn't just an ordinary touch. It was a touch of faith and expectancy, and it impacted Jesus. This woman released her faith, expecting to get healed. Notice, it's our faith that opens the door to activate God's power. What have you been believing God for? Don't give up! Press through! Years may have passed, but just like this woman, keep praying! Keep asking! Keep seeking! God is faithful! As you press through, He'll meet your faith with His miraculous power, and you'll step forward in the victory He has planned for you!

³⁷ Then Jesus stopped the crowd and wouldn't let anyone go with him except Peter, James, and John (the brother of James). ³⁸ When they came to the home of the synagogue leader, Jesus saw much commotion and weeping and wailing. ³⁹ He went inside and asked, "Why all this commotion and weeping? The child isn't dead; she's only asleep."

⁴⁰ The crowd laughed at him. But he made them all leave, and he took the girl's father and mother and his three disciples into the room where the girl was lying. ⁴¹ Holding her hand, he said to her, "Talitha kum," which means "Little girl, get up!" ⁴² And the girl, who was twelve years old, immediately stood up and walked around! They were overwhelmed and totally amazed.⁴³ Jesus gave them strict orders not to tell anyone what had happened, and then he told them to give her something to eat.

Chapter 6

Jesus Rejected at Nazareth

Jesus left that part of the country and returned with his disciples to Nazareth, his hometown.² The next Sabbath he began teaching in the synagogue, and many who heard him were amazed. They asked, “Where did he get all this wisdom and the power to perform such miracles?”³ Then they scoffed, “He’s just a carpenter, the son of Mary* and the brother of James, Joseph,* Judas, and Simon. And his sisters live right here among us.” They were deeply offended and refused to believe in him.

⁴ Then Jesus told them, “A prophet is honored everywhere except in his own hometown and among his relatives and his own family.”⁵ And because of their unbelief, he couldn’t do any miracles among them except to place his hands on a few sick people and heal them.⁶ And he was amazed at their unbelief.

Jesus Sends Out the Twelve Disciples

Then Jesus went from village to village, teaching the people.⁷ And he called his twelve disciples together and began sending them out two by two, giving them authority to cast out evil* spirits.⁸ He told them to take nothing for their journey except a walking stick—no food, no traveler's bag, no money.* ⁹ He allowed them to wear sandals but not to take a change of clothes.

¹⁰ “Wherever you go,” he said, “stay in the same house until you leave town. ¹¹ But if any place refuses to welcome you or listen to you, shake its dust from your feet as you leave to show that you have abandoned those people to their fate.”

Faith and Honor

Then Jesus told them, “A prophet is honored everywhere except in his own hometown and among his relatives and his own family” (Mark 6:4).

Honor and faith work together. Where you find one, you will usually find the other. When Jesus walked the earth, the people in His own hometown couldn't believe that He was the Son of God because they were too familiar with Him. They didn't honor Him, which affected their ability to have faith in Him.

When you honor the Lord, when you respect and make room for Him in your life by following the Word of God, it impacts your faith in Him. And part of honoring the Lord is honoring the people He's placed in your life. God works through people, and the Bible says that the way you treat others is the way you treat Him. Choose to honor people and make room for the Lord to work in your life, today. Look for the greatness in the people around you: your spouse, your children, your friends, and family. Treat others with respect, knowing that God is building His character in you. As you choose honor, you open the door for faith to grow, and you'll see the hand of God working mightily in your life.

¹² So the disciples went out, telling everyone they met to repent of their sins and turn to God. ¹³ And they cast out many demons and healed many sick people, anointing them with olive oil.

The Death of John the Baptist

¹⁴ Herod Antipas, the king, soon heard about Jesus, because everyone was talking about him. Some were saying,* “This must be John the Baptist raised from the dead. That is why he can do such miracles.” ¹⁵ Others said, “He’s the prophet Elijah.” Still others said, “He’s a prophet like the other great prophets of the past.”

¹⁶ When Herod heard about Jesus, he said, “John, the man I beheaded, has come back from the dead.”

¹⁷ For Herod had sent soldiers to arrest and imprison John as a favor to Herodias. She had been his brother Philip’s wife, but Herod had married her. ¹⁸ John had been telling Herod, “It is against God’s law for you to marry your brother’s wife.” ¹⁹ So Herodias bore a grudge against John and wanted to kill him.

But without Herod's approval she was powerless, ²⁰ for Herod respected John; and knowing that he was a good and holy man, he protected him. Herod was greatly disturbed whenever he talked with John, but even so, he liked to listen to him.

²¹ Herodias's chance finally came on Herod's birthday. He gave a party for his high government officials, army officers, and the leading citizens of Galilee. ²² Then his daughter, also named Herodias,* came in and performed a dance that greatly pleased Herod and his guests. "Ask me for anything you like," the king said to the girl, "and I will give it to you." ²³ He even vowed, "I will give you whatever you ask, up to half my kingdom!"

²⁴ She went out and asked her mother, "What should I ask for?"

Her mother told her, "Ask for the head of John the Baptist!"

²⁵ So the girl hurried back to the king and told him, "I want the head of John the Baptist, right now, on a tray!"

²⁶ Then the king deeply regretted what he had said; but because of the vows he had made in front of his guests, he couldn't refuse her. ²⁷ So he immediately sent an executioner to the prison to cut off John's head and bring it to him. The soldier beheaded John in the prison, ²⁸ brought his head on a tray, and gave it to the girl, who took it to her mother. ²⁹ When John's disciples heard what had happened, they came to get his body and buried it in a tomb.

Jesus Feeds Five Thousand

³⁰ The apostles returned to Jesus from their ministry tour and told him all they had done and taught.³¹ Then Jesus said, “Let’s go off by ourselves to a quiet place and rest awhile.” He said this because there were so many people coming and going that Jesus and his apostles didn’t even have time to eat.

³² So they left by boat for a quiet place, where they could be alone.³³ But many people recognized them and saw them leaving, and people from many towns ran ahead along the shore and got there ahead of them.³⁴ Jesus saw the huge crowd as he stepped from the boat, and he had compassion on them because they were like sheep without a shepherd. So he began teaching them many things.

Good News Travels Fast

Jesus saw the huge crowd as he stepped from the boat, and he had compassion on them because they were like sheep without a shepherd (Mark 6:34).

Early in Mark’s Gospel, we read about Simon’s mother-in-law who was lying in bed, sick with a fever (Mark 1:30-31). Jesus visited her and took her by the hand. He raised her up, and the fever immediately left. The news spread like wildfire! Mark notes, “That evening after sunset, many sick and demon-possessed people were brought to Jesus. The whole town gathered at the door to watch” (Mark

Amazing things happen when we share testimonies of what God has done in our lives. People who were lost and hopeless find life and purpose. People who were depressed and discouraged receive encouragement and renewed strength. Those who were sick and hurting are healed in their bodies and their minds. And individuals who once believed they were failures discover the champions that God made them to be.

³⁵ Late in the afternoon his disciples came to him and said, “This is a remote place, and it’s already getting late. ³⁶ Send the crowds away so they can go to the nearby farms and villages and buy something to eat.”

³⁷ But Jesus said, “You feed them.”

“With what?” they asked. “We’d have to work for months to earn enough money* to buy food for all these people!”

³⁸ “How much bread do you have?” he asked. “Go and find out.”

They came back and reported, “We have five loaves of bread and two fish.”

³⁹ Then Jesus told the disciples to have the people sit down in groups on the green grass. ⁴⁰ So they sat down in groups of fifty or a hundred.

⁴¹ Jesus took the five loaves and two fish, looked up toward heaven, and blessed them. Then, breaking the loaves into pieces, he kept giving the bread to the disciples so they could distribute it to the people. He also divided the fish for everyone to share.⁴² They all ate as much as they wanted,⁴³ and afterward, the disciples picked up twelve baskets of leftover bread and fish.⁴⁴ A total of 5,000 men and their families were fed from those loaves!

Jesus Walks on Water

⁴⁷ Late that night, the disciples were in their boat in the middle of the lake, and Jesus was alone on land.⁴⁸ He saw that they were in serious trouble, rowing hard and struggling against the wind and waves. About three o'clock in the morning* Jesus came toward them, walking on the water. He intended to go past them,⁴⁹ but when they saw him walking on the water, they cried out in terror, thinking he was a ghost.⁵⁰ They were all terrified when they saw him.

But Jesus spoke to them at once. “Don’t be afraid,” he said. “Take courage! I am here!*”⁵¹ Then he climbed into the boat, and the wind stopped. They were totally amazed,⁵² for they still didn’t understand the significance of the miracle of the loaves. Their hearts were too hard to take it in.

⁵³ After they had crossed the lake, they landed at Gennesaret. They brought the boat to shore⁵⁴ and climbed out. The people recognized Jesus at once,⁵⁵ and they ran throughout the whole area, carrying sick people on mats to wherever they heard he was.⁵⁶ Wherever he went—in villages, cities, or the countryside—they brought the sick out to the marketplaces. They begged him to let the sick touch at least the fringe of his robe, and all who touched him were healed.

Chapter 7

Jesus Teaches about Inner Purity

One day some Pharisees and teachers of religious law arrived from Jerusalem to see Jesus.² They noticed that some of his disciples failed to follow the Jewish ritual of hand washing before eating.³ (The Jews, especially the Pharisees, do not eat until they have poured water over their cupped hands,* as required by their ancient traditions.⁴ Similarly, they don't eat anything from the market until they immerse their hands* in water. This is but one of many traditions they have clung to—such as their ceremonial washing of cups, pitchers, and kettles.*)

⁵ So the Pharisees and teachers of religious law asked him, “Why don't your disciples follow our age-old tradition? They eat without first performing the hand-washing ceremony.”

⁶ Jesus replied, “You hypocrites! Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you, for he wrote, “These people honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me.

⁷ Their worship is a farce,
for they teach man-made ideas as commands from God.”*

⁸ For you ignore God's law and substitute your own tradition.”

9 Then he said, “You skillfully sidestep God’s law in order to hold on to your own tradition. 10 For instance, Moses gave you this law from God: ‘Honor your father and mother,’* and ‘Anyone who speaks disrespectfully of father or mother must be put to death.’* 11 But you say it is all right for people to say to their parents, ‘Sorry, I can’t help you. For I have vowed to give to God what I would have given to you.’* 12 In this way, you let them disregard their needy parents. 13 And so you cancel the word of God in order to hand down your own tradition. And this is only one example among many others.”

14 Then Jesus called to the crowd to come and hear. “All of you listen,” he said, “and try to understand. 15 It’s not what goes into your body that defiles you; you are defiled by what comes from your heart.*”

17 Then Jesus went into a house to get away from the crowd, and his disciples asked him what he meant by the parable he had just used. 18 “Don’t you understand either?” he asked. “Can’t you see that the food you put into your body cannot defile you? 19 Food doesn’t go into your heart, but only passes through the stomach and then goes into the sewer.” (By saying this, he declared that every kind of food is acceptable in God’s eyes.)

20 And then he added, “It is what comes from inside that defiles you. 21 For from within, out of a person’s heart, come evil thoughts, sexual immorality, theft, murder, 22 adultery, greed, wickedness, deceit, lustful desires, envy, slander, pride, and foolishness. 23 All these vile things come from within; they are what defile you.”

The Faith of a Gentile Woman

24 Then Jesus left Galilee and went north to the region of Tyre.* He didn't want anyone to know which house he was staying in, but he couldn't keep it a secret. 25 Right away a woman who had heard about him came and fell at his feet. Her little girl was possessed by an evil* spirit, 26 and she begged him to cast out the demon from her daughter.

Since she was a Gentile, born in Syrian Phoenicia, 27 Jesus told her, "First I should feed the children—my own family, the Jews.* It isn't right to take food from the children and throw it to the dogs."

28 She replied, "That's true, Lord, but even the dogs under the table are allowed to eat the scraps from the children's plates."

29 "Good answer!" he said. "Now go home, for the demon has left your daughter." 30 And when she arrived home, she found her little girl lying quietly in bed, and the demon was gone.

Jesus Heals a Deaf Man

31 Jesus left Tyre and went up to Sidon before going back to the Sea of Galilee and the region of the Ten Towns.* 32 A deaf man with a speech impediment was brought to him, and the people begged Jesus to lay his hands on the man to heal him.

33 Jesus led him away from the crowd so they could be alone. He put his fingers into the man's ears. Then, spitting on his own fingers, he touched the man's tongue. 34 Looking up to heaven, he sighed and said, "Ephphatha," which means,

“Be opened!”³⁵ Instantly the man could hear perfectly, and his tongue was freed so he could speak plainly!

³⁶ Jesus told the crowd not to tell anyone, but the more he told them not to, the more they spread the news.³⁷ They were completely amazed and said again and again, “Everything he does is wonderful. He even makes the deaf to hear and gives speech to those who cannot speak.”

Chapter 8

Jesus Feeds Four Thousand

About this time another large crowd had gathered, and the people ran out of food again. Jesus called his disciples and told them,² “I feel sorry for these people. They have been here with me for three days, and they have nothing left to eat.³ If I send them home hungry, they will faint along the way. For some of them have come a long distance.”

⁴ His disciples replied, “How are we supposed to find enough food to feed them out here in the wilderness?”

⁵ Jesus asked, “How much bread do you have?”

⁶ So Jesus told all the people to sit down on the ground. Then he took the seven loaves, thanked God for them, and broke them into pieces. He gave them to his disciples, who distributed the bread to the crowd.⁷ A few small fish were found, too, so Jesus also blessed these and told the disciples to distribute them.

⁸ They ate as much as they wanted. Afterward, the disciples picked up seven large baskets of leftover food.⁹ There were about 4,000 people in the crowd that day, and Jesus sent them home after they had eaten.¹⁰ Immediately after this, he got into a boat with his disciples and crossed over to the region of Dalmanutha.

Pharisees Demand a Miraculous Sign

¹¹ When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had arrived, they came and started to argue with him. Testing him, they demanded that he show them a miraculous sign from heaven to prove his authority.

¹² When he heard this, he sighed deeply in his spirit and said, “Why do these people keep demanding a miraculous sign? I tell you the truth, I will not give this generation any such sign.”¹³ So he got back into the boat and left them, and he crossed to the other side of the lake.

Yeast of the Pharisees and Herod

¹⁶ At this they began to argue with each other because they hadn’t brought any bread.¹⁷ Jesus knew what they were saying, so he said, “Why are you arguing about having no bread? Don’t you know or understand even yet? Are your hearts too hard to take it in? ¹⁸ ‘You have eyes—can’t you see? You have ears—can’t you hear?’* Don’t you remember anything at all? ¹⁹ When I fed the 5,000 with five loaves of bread, how many baskets of leftovers did you pick up afterward?”

“Twelve,” they said.

²⁰ “And when I fed the 4,000 with seven loaves, how many large baskets of leftovers did you pick up?”

“Seven,” they said.

²¹ “Don’t you understand yet?” he asked them.

Jesus Heals a Blind Man

²² When they arrived at Bethsaida, some people brought a blind man to Jesus, and they begged him to touch the man and heal him. ²³ Jesus took the blind man by the hand and led him out of the village. Then, spitting on the man’s eyes, he laid his hands on him and asked, “Can you see anything now?”

²⁴ The man looked around. “Yes,” he said, “I see people, but I can’t see them very clearly. They look like trees walking around.”

²⁵ Then Jesus placed his hands on the man’s eyes again, and his eyes were opened. His sight was completely restored, and he could see everything clearly. ²⁶ Jesus sent him away, saying, “Don’t go back into the village on your way home.”

Peter’s Declaration about Jesus

²⁷ Jesus and his disciples left Galilee and went up to the villages near Caesarea Philippi. As they were walking along, he asked them, “Who do people say I am?”

²⁸ “Well,” they replied, “some say John the Baptist, some say Elijah, and others say you are one of the other prophets.”

29 Then he asked them, “But who do you say I am?”

Peter replied, “You are the Messiah.*”

30 But Jesus warned them not to tell anyone about him.

Jesus Predicts His Death

31 Then Jesus began to tell them that the Son of Man* must suffer many terrible things and be rejected by the elders, the leading priests, and the teachers of religious law. He would be killed, but three days later he would rise from the dead. 32 As he talked about this openly with his disciples, Peter took him aside and began to reprimand him for saying such things.*

33 Jesus turned around and looked at his disciples, then reprimanded Peter. “Get away from me, Satan!” he said. “You are seeing things merely from a human point of view, not from God’s.”

34 Then, calling the crowd to join his disciples, he said, “If any of you wants to be my follower, you must turn from your selfish ways, take up your cross, and follow me. 35 If you try to hang on to your life, you will lose it. But if you give up your life for my sake and for the sake of the Good News, you will save it. 36 And what do you benefit if you gain the whole world but lose your own soul? 37 Is anything worth more than your soul? 38 If anyone is ashamed of me and my message in these adulterous and sinful days, the Son of Man will be ashamed of that person when he returns in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.”

Jesus went on to say, “I tell you the truth, some standing here right now will not die before they see the Kingdom of God arrive in great power!”

The Transfiguration

² Six days later Jesus took Peter, James, and John, and led them up a high mountain to be alone. As the men watched, Jesus’ appearance was transformed, ³ and his clothes became dazzling white, far whiter than any earthly bleach could ever make them. ⁴ Then Elijah and Moses appeared and began talking with Jesus.

⁵ Peter exclaimed, “Rabbi, it’s wonderful for us to be here! Let’s make three shelters as memorials*—one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.” ⁶ He said this because he didn’t really know what else to say, for they were all terrified.

⁷ Then a cloud overshadowed them, and a voice from the cloud said, “This is my dearly loved Son. Listen to him.” ⁸ Suddenly, when they looked around, Moses and Elijah were gone, and they saw only Jesus with them.

⁹ As they went back down the mountain, he told them not to tell anyone what they had seen until the Son of Man* had risen from the dead. ¹⁰ So they kept it to themselves, but they often asked each other what he meant by “rising from the dead.”

¹¹ Then they asked him, “Why do the teachers of religious law insist that Elijah must return before the Messiah comes?*”

¹² Jesus responded, “Elijah is indeed coming first to get everything ready. Yet why do the Scriptures say that the Son of Man must suffer greatly and be treated with utter contempt?

¹³ But I tell you, Elijah has already come, and they chose to abuse him, just as the Scriptures predicted.”

Jesus Heals a Demon-Possessed Boy

¹⁴ When they returned to the other disciples, they saw a large crowd surrounding them, and some teachers of religious law were arguing with them. ¹⁵ When the crowd saw Jesus, they were overwhelmed with awe, and they ran to greet him.

¹⁶ “What is all this arguing about?” Jesus asked.

¹⁷ One of the men in the crowd spoke up and said, “Teacher, I brought my son so you could heal him. He is possessed by an evil spirit that won’t let him talk. ¹⁸ And whenever this spirit seizes him, it throws him violently to the ground. Then he foams at the mouth and grinds his teeth and becomes rigid.* So I asked your disciples to cast out the evil spirit, but they couldn’t do it.”

¹⁹ Jesus said to them,* “You faithless people! How long must I be with you? How long must I put up with you? Bring the boy to me.”

²⁰ So they brought the boy. But when the evil spirit saw Jesus, it threw the child into a violent convulsion, and he fell to the ground, writhing and foaming at the mouth.

²¹ “How long has this been happening?” Jesus asked the boy’s father.

He replied, “Since he was a little boy. ²² The spirit often throws him into the fire or into water, trying to kill him. Have mercy on us and help us, if you can.”

23 “What do you mean, ‘If I can’?” Jesus asked. “Anything is possible if a person believes.”

24 The father instantly cried out, “I do believe, but help me overcome my unbelief!”

25 When Jesus saw that the crowd of onlookers was growing, he rebuked the evil* spirit. “Listen, you spirit that makes this boy unable to hear and speak,” he said. “I command you to come out of this child and never enter him again!”

26 Then the spirit screamed and threw the boy into another violent convulsion and left him. The boy appeared to be dead. A murmur ran through the crowd as people said, “He’s dead.”

27 But Jesus took him by the hand and helped him to his feet, and he stood up.

28 Afterward, when Jesus was alone in the house with his disciples, they asked him, “Why couldn’t we cast out that evil spirit?”

29 Jesus replied, “This kind can be cast out only by prayer.*”

Jesus Again Predicts His Death

30 Leaving that region, they traveled through Galilee. Jesus didn’t want anyone to know he was there,³¹ for he wanted to spend more time with his disciples and teach them. He said to them, “The Son of Man is going to be betrayed into the hands of his enemies. He will be killed, but three days later he will rise from the dead.”³² They didn’t understand what he was saying, however, and they were afraid to ask him what he meant.

The Greatest in the Kingdom

³³ After they arrived at Capernaum and settled in a house, Jesus asked his disciples, “What were you discussing out on the road?” ³⁴ But they didn’t answer, because they had been arguing about which of them was the greatest. ³⁵ He sat down, called the twelve disciples over to him, and said, “Whoever wants to be first must take last place and be the servant of everyone else.”

³⁶ Then he put a little child among them. Taking the child in his arms, he said to them, ³⁷ “Anyone who welcomes a little child like this on my behalf* welcomes me, and anyone who welcomes me welcomes not only me but also my Father who sent me.”

Using the Name of Jesus

³⁸ John said to Jesus, “Teacher, we saw someone using your name to cast out demons, but we told him to stop because he wasn’t in our group.”

³⁹ “Don’t stop him!” Jesus said. “No one who performs a miracle in my name will soon be able to speak evil of me. ⁴⁰ Anyone who is not against us is for us. ⁴¹ If anyone gives you even a cup of water because you belong to the Messiah, I tell you the truth, that person will surely be rewarded.

hell* with two hands.* 45 If your foot causes you to sin, cut it off. It's better to enter eternal life with only one foot than to be thrown into hell with two feet.* 47 And if your eye causes you to sin, gouge it out. It's better to enter the Kingdom of God with only one eye than to have two eyes and be thrown into hell, 48 'where the maggots never die and the fire never goes out.'*

49 "For everyone will be tested with fire.* 50 Salt is good for seasoning. But if it loses its flavor, how do you make it salty again? You must have the qualities of salt among yourselves and live in peace with each other."

Chapter 10

Discussion about Divorce and Marriage

Then Jesus left Capernaum and went down to the region of Judea and into the area east of the Jordan River. Once again crowds gathered around him, and as usual he was teaching them.

2 Some Pharisees came and tried to trap him with this question: "Should a man be allowed to divorce his wife?"

3 Jesus answered them with a question: "What did Moses say in the law about divorce?"

4 "Well, he permitted it," they replied. "He said a man can give his wife a written notice of divorce and send her away."*

5 But Jesus responded, "He wrote this commandment only as a concession to your hard hearts. 6 But 'God made them male and female'* from the beginning of creation. 7 'This explains why a man leaves his father and mother and is joined to his wife,* ⁸ and the two are united into one.* Since they are no longer two but one, ⁹ let no one split apart what God has joined together.”

¹⁰ Later, when he was alone with his disciples in the house, they brought up the subject again. ¹¹ He told them, “Whoever divorces his wife and marries someone else commits adultery against her. ¹² And if a woman divorces her husband and marries someone else, she commits adultery.”

Jesus Blesses the Children

¹⁴ When Jesus saw what was happening, he was angry with his disciples. He said to them, “Let the children come to me. Don’t stop them! For the Kingdom of God belongs to those who are like these children. ¹⁵ I tell you the truth, anyone who doesn’t receive the Kingdom of God like a child will never enter it.” ¹⁶ Then he took the children in his arms and placed his hands on their heads and blessed them.

The Rich Man

¹⁸ “Why do you call me good?” Jesus asked. “Only God is truly good. ¹⁹ But to answer your question, you know the commandments: ‘You must not murder. You must not commit adultery. You must not steal. You must not testify falsely. You must not cheat anyone. Honor your father and mother.’*”

20 “Teacher,” the man replied, “I’ve obeyed all these commandments since I was young.”

21 Looking at the man, Jesus felt genuine love for him. “There is still one thing you haven’t done,” he told him. “Go and sell all your possessions and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me.”

22 At this the man’s face fell, and he went away sad, for he had many possessions.

23 Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, “How hard it is for the rich to enter the Kingdom of God!” 24 This amazed them. But Jesus said again, “Dear children, it is very hard* to enter the Kingdom of God. 25 In fact, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the Kingdom of God!”

26 The disciples were astounded. “Then who in the world can be saved?” they asked.

27 Jesus looked at them intently and said, “Humanly speaking, it is impossible. But not with God. Everything is possible with God.”

28 Then Peter began to speak up. “We’ve given up everything to follow you,” he said.

29 “Yes,” Jesus replied, “and I assure you that everyone who has given up house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or property, for my sake and for the Good News, 30 will receive now in return a hundred times as many houses, brothers, sisters, mothers, children, and property—along with persecution. And in the world to come that person will have eternal life.³¹ But many who are the greatest now will be least important then, and those who seem least important now will be the greatest then.*”

Jesus Again Predicts His Death

³² They were now on the way up to Jerusalem, and Jesus was walking ahead of them. The disciples were filled with awe, and the people following behind were overwhelmed with fear. Taking the twelve disciples aside, Jesus once more began to describe everything that was about to happen to him.³³ “Listen,” he said, “we’re going up to Jerusalem, where the Son of Man* will be betrayed to the leading priests and the teachers of religious law. They will sentence him to die and hand him over to the Romans.*³⁴ They will mock him, spit on him, flog him with a whip, and kill him, but after three days he will rise again.”

HOPENOTE

With God

Jesus looked at them intently and said, “Humanly speaking, it is impossible. But not with God. Everything is possible with God” (Mark 10:27).

“Everything is possible with God” doesn’t mean you can just do anything you want. You have to get with God first. In order to get with God, or align yourself with Him, you have to obey His Word. You have to submit yourself to Him and His plan for your life. You must turn your back on your old life and your old way of doing things. When you are in agreement with God and His Word, then all things will be possible. When you make your thoughts agreeable to His Word, then your plans will be established and you will succeed!

Make whatever changes are necessary in your life today so that you can align yourself with God. Don’t hang around people that will try to drag you down. Guard what you watch on TV and what you listen to. Be determined every day to spend time in prayer and studying the Word. The Bible promises that as you draw near to God, He will draw near to you. As you are in agreement with God, you will see things come true for you that you never thought possible!

Jesus Teaches about Serving Others

³⁵ Then James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came over and spoke to him. “Teacher,” they said, “we want you to do us a favor.”

³⁶ “What is your request?” he asked.

³⁷ They replied, “When you sit on your glorious throne, we want to sit in places of honor next to you, one on your right and the other on your left.”

³⁸ But Jesus said to them, “You don’t know what you are asking! Are you able to drink from the bitter cup of suffering I am about to drink? Are you able to be baptized with the baptism of suffering I must be baptized with?”

Then Jesus told them, “You will indeed drink from my bitter cup and be baptized with my baptism of suffering. ⁴⁰ But I have no right to say who will sit on my right or my left. God has prepared those places for the ones he has chosen.”

⁴¹ When the ten other disciples heard what James and John had asked, they were indignant. ⁴² So Jesus called them together and said, “You know that the rulers in this world lord it over their people, and officials flaunt their authority over those under them. ⁴³ But among you it will be different. Whoever wants to be a leader among you must be your servant, ⁴⁴ and whoever wants to be first among you must be the slave of everyone else. ⁴⁵ For even the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve others and to give his life as a ransom for many.”

Jesus Heals Blind Bartimaeus

⁴⁶ Then they reached Jericho, and as Jesus and his disciples left town, a large crowd followed him. A blind beggar named Bartimaeus (son of Timaeus) was sitting beside the road. ⁴⁷ When Bartimaeus heard that Jesus of Nazareth was nearby, he began to shout, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!”

⁴⁸ “Be quiet!” many of the people yelled at him.

But he only shouted louder, “Son of David, have mercy on me!”

49 When Jesus heard him, he stopped and said, “Tell him to come here.”

So they called the blind man. “Cheer up,” they said. “Come on, he’s calling you!” 50 Bartimaeus threw aside his coat, jumped up, and came to Jesus.

51 “What do you want me to do for you?” Jesus asked.

“My rabbi,*” the blind man said, “I want to see!”

52 And Jesus said to him, “Go, for your faith has healed you.” Instantly the man could see, and he followed Jesus down the road.*

HOPENOTE

Serve Others

For even the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve others and to give his life as a ransom for many (Mark 10:45).

The best way to ease stress in your life is to get your mind off of the pressures by reaching out to help somebody else. Sow good seeds in someone else’s life with a kind word or a helping hand, and you will begin to reap a harvest of blessing. Most times, when we see the challenges that others face, it puts our own difficulties

Do you know why God asks you to serve? Why He asks you to give to others? He does it because He wants to give you wonderful opportunities. God is encouraging you to plant good seeds so that you can reap the harvest of blessing in your own life. If you're faithful to do your part, He will be faithful to do His. Don't let the enemy deceive you into thinking that you can't sow seeds of blessing in someone else's life. Get that seed into the ground so it can grow into a harvest of blessing and victory! Remember, what you sow, you shall reap. When you sow life and strength into others, you will be refreshed and renewed in return.

Jesus' Triumphant Entry

As Jesus and his disciples approached Jerusalem, they came to the towns of Bethphage and Bethany on the Mount of Olives. Jesus sent two of them on ahead. ² “Go into that village over there,” he told them. “As soon as you enter it, you will see a young donkey tied there that no one has ever ridden. Untie it and bring it here. ³ If anyone asks, ‘What are you doing?’ just say, ‘The Lord needs it and will return it soon.’”

⁴ The two disciples left and found the colt standing in the street, tied outside the front door. ⁵ As they were untying it, some bystanders demanded, “What are you doing, untying that colt?" ⁶ They said what Jesus had told them to say, and they were permitted to take it. ⁷ Then they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their garments over it, and he sat on it.

⁸ Many in the crowd spread their garments on the road ahead of him, and others spread leafy branches they had cut in the fields. ⁹ Jesus was in the center of the procession, and the people all around him were shouting,

"Praise God!"*

Blessings on the one who comes in the name of the LORD!

¹⁰ Blessings on the coming Kingdom of our ancestor David!

Praise God in highest heaven!"*

¹¹ So Jesus came to Jerusalem and went into the Temple. After looking around carefully at everything, he left because it was late in the afternoon. Then he returned to Bethany with the twelve disciples.

Jesus Curses the Fig Tree

HOPEFORTODAY

The God Kind of Faith

Then Jesus said to the disciples, "Have faith in God" (Mark 11:22).

When we hear the word faith, many times we think of it in a general sense. But there are different types of faith. There's a faith for our everyday life, where we have faith to get to work safely, faith to provide for our family, faith to be healthy. That's the way we typically think of faith. But Jesus said in Mark 11, "Have faith in God." This can mean a God-centered faith, or as one translation reads, "the faith of God."

Notice that little word, "of" in the phrase "of God." It tells us where faith originates. I know that people who have faith in God believe that God can do anything. But this is saying to have the faith of God. In other words, God wants to take some of His faith and deposit it on the inside of you. Ephesians tells us this kind of faith is a gift of God. It's a faith that doesn't originate with us. One possible translation of this passage is, "Have the God kind of faith." What type of faith is this? It's a faith that stretches, a faith that makes us believe we can accomplish things that we once thought were impossible. It's a faith that challenges us to go beyond the barriers of our past and do things that we've never done before. You know it's the faith of God when something rises up in you and you don't really know why you are thinking and feeling that way. This trust is totally over your head. It seems like it's out of your reach, but deep down something keeps telling you, "No, it's going to happen. God is going to bring this to pass." That's the God kind of faith, a faith that tells you that you're going to get well even though medical science says it's impossible.

Where did you get that faith? It didn't originate with you. It was a gift that God deposited on the inside of you. The God kind of faith will tell you, "You're going to accomplish your dreams," even though you may not think you have the connections, the resources, or the education. It's a faith that says, "Even though no one in my family is doing right, as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord." The God kind of faith gives you a spark of hope, a reason to believe you can accomplish every dream and overcome every obstacle. When you have the faith of God, it's as if you're allowing God to believe through you. He takes some of His faith and puts it on the inside. And because you are in agreement with Him, it opens the door for Him to bring those things to pass.

¹² The next morning as they were leaving Bethany, Jesus was hungry. ¹³ He noticed a fig tree in full leaf a little way off, so he went over to see if he could find any figs. But there were only leaves because it was too early in the season for fruit. ¹⁴ Then Jesus said to the tree, "May no one ever eat your fruit again!" And the disciples heard him say it.

HOPENOTE

Believe and Receive

I tell you, you can pray for anything, and if you believe that you've received it, it will be yours (Mark 11:24).

Has God spoken things to your heart that haven't come to pass yet? Sometimes, when we are believing for things, it's easy to let circumstances and the pressures of life drag us down. But when we make the choice to receive our promise by picturing it in our mind's eye and declaring it with the words of our mouth, our faith becomes stronger. We begin to feel more confident. We begin to feel more settled. We begin to have joy and peace because we know God is working behind the scenes on our behalf.

What are you believing God to do in your life today? Can you see it in your mind's eye? Can you see yourself healed? Can you see yourself paying off that last debt? Can you see yourself at your ideal weight? Can you see yourself sharing the gospel with a family member or co-worker? Ask the Lord to give you a picture of what He sees when He looks at you. As you open your heart and allow God's thoughts to become your thoughts and you receive His promises by faith, just like it says in the above verse, whatever you ask for in prayer will be yours!

Jesus Clears the Temple

15 When they arrived back in Jerusalem, Jesus entered the Temple and began to drive out the people buying and selling animals for sacrifices. He knocked over the tables of the money changers and the chairs of those selling doves,¹⁶ and he stopped everyone from using the Temple as a marketplace.¹⁷ He said to them, “The Scriptures declare, ‘My Temple will be called a house of prayer for all nations,’ but you have turned it into a den of thieves.”

¹⁸ When the leading priests and teachers of religious law heard what Jesus had done, they began planning how to kill him. But they were afraid of him because the people were so amazed at his teaching.

¹⁹ That evening Jesus and the disciples left* the city.

²⁰ The next morning as they passed by the fig tree he had cursed, the disciples noticed it had withered from the roots up.

²² Then Jesus said to the disciples, “Have faith in God. ²³ I tell you the truth, you can say to this mountain, ‘May you be lifted up and thrown into the sea,’ and it will happen. But you must really believe it will happen and have no doubt in your heart. ²⁴ I tell you, you can pray for anything, and if you believe that you’ve received it, it will be yours. ²⁵ But when you are praying, first forgive anyone you are holding a grudge against, so that your Father in heaven will forgive your sins, too.*”

The Authority of Jesus Challenged

²⁷ Again they entered Jerusalem. As Jesus was walking through the Temple area, the leading priests, the teachers of religious law, and the elders came up to him. ²⁸ They demanded, “By what authority are you doing all these things? Who gave you the right to do them?”

²⁹ “I’ll tell you by what authority I do these things if you answer one question,” Jesus replied. ³⁰ “Did John’s authority to baptize come from heaven, or was it merely human? Answer me!”

³¹ They talked it over among themselves. “If we say it was from heaven, he will ask why we didn’t believe John. ³² But do we dare say it was merely human?” For they were afraid of what the people would do, because everyone believed that John was a prophet. ³³ So they finally replied, “We don’t know.”

And Jesus responded, “Then I won’t tell you by what authority I do these things.”

HOPENOTE

When You Pray

But when you are praying, first forgive anyone you are holding a grudge against, so that your Father in heaven will forgive your sins, too (Mark 11:25).

Everyone has been hurt, offended, betrayed, and mistreated at some point. Sometimes those wounds are small and easy to move past, but other times they are deep and take time to heal. The important thing is that we choose to forgive so that we can open the door to God's forgiveness in our own lives.

Forgiveness is such a powerful tool. Forgiveness sets you free and draws you closer to your Heavenly Father. One of the first things my mother, Dodie, did when she found out she had stage four cancer of the liver was to ask the Lord to search her heart for any unforgiveness. She didn't want anything to block her prayers for God's healing. And now more than twenty years later, she has a perfectly clean bill of health!

Whenever you pray, invite the Lord to search your heart. Choose to forgive anyone who has hurt you. As you walk in forgiveness, you'll experience God's hand of blessing in ways you never thought possible, and you will move forward in the abundant life He has in store for you.

Chapter 12

Parable of the Evil Farmers

Then Jesus began teaching them with stories: “A man planted a vineyard. He built a wall around it, dug a pit for pressing out the grape juice, and built a lookout tower. Then he leased the vineyard to tenant farmers and moved to another country. ² At the time of the grape harvest, he sent one of his servants to collect his share of the crop. ³ But the farmers grabbed the servant, beat him up, and sent him back empty-handed. ⁴ The owner then sent another servant, but they insulted him and beat him over the head. ⁵ The next servant he sent was killed. Others he sent were either beaten or killed, ⁶ until there was only one left—his son whom he loved dearly. The owner finally sent him, thinking, ‘Surely they will respect my son.’

⁷ “But the tenant farmers said to one another, ‘Here comes the heir to this estate. Let’s kill him and get the estate for ourselves!’ ⁸ So they grabbed him and murdered him and threw his body out of the vineyard.

⁹ “What do you suppose the owner of the vineyard will do?” Jesus asked. “I’ll tell you—he will come and kill those farmers and lease the vineyard to others. ¹⁰ Didn’t you ever read this in the Scriptures?

‘The stone that the builders rejected
has now become the cornerstone.

¹¹ This is the LORD’s doing, and it is wonderful to see.’*”

¹² The religious leaders* wanted to arrest Jesus because they realized he was telling the story against them—they were the wicked farmers. But they were afraid of the crowd, so they left him and went away.

Taxes for Caesar

¹³ Later the leaders sent some Pharisees and supporters of

Herod to trap Jesus into saying something for which he could be arrested. ¹⁴ “Teacher,” they said, “we know how honest you are. You are impartial and don’t play favorites. You teach the way of God truthfully. Now tell us—is it right to pay taxes to Caesar or not? ¹⁵ Should we pay them, or shouldn’t we?”

Jesus saw through their hypocrisy and said, “Why are you trying to trap me? Show me a Roman coin,* and I’ll tell you.” ¹⁶ When they handed it to him, he asked, “Whose picture and title are stamped on it?”

“Caesar’s,” they replied.

¹⁷ “Well, then,” Jesus said, “give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar, and give to God what belongs to God.”

His reply completely amazed them.

Discussion about Resurrection

¹⁸ Then Jesus was approached by some Sadducees—religious leaders who say there is no resurrection from the dead. They posed this question: ¹⁹ “Teacher, Moses gave us a law that if a man dies, leaving a wife without children, his brother should marry the widow and have a child who will carry on the brother’s name.* ²⁰ Well, suppose there were seven brothers. The oldest one married and then died without children. ²¹ So the second brother married the widow, but he also died without children. Then the third brother married her. ²² This continued with all seven of them, and still there were no children. Last of all, the woman also died. ²³ So tell us, whose wife will she be in the resurrection? For all seven were married to her.”

²⁴ Jesus replied, “Your mistake is that you don’t know the Scriptures, and you don't know the power of God.²⁵ For when the dead rise, they will neither marry nor be given in marriage. In this respect they will be like the angels in heaven.

²⁶ “But now, as to whether the dead will be raised—haven't you ever read about this in the writings of Moses, in the story of the burning bush? Long after Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob had died, God said to Moses,* ‘I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.’*²⁷ So he is the God of the living, not the dead. You have made a serious error.”

The Most Important Commandment

²⁸ One of the teachers of religious law was standing there listening to the debate. He realized that Jesus had answered well, so he asked, “Of all the commandments, which is the most important?”

²⁹ Jesus replied, “The most important commandment is this: ‘Listen, O Israel! The LORD our God is the one and only LORD.³⁰ And you must love the LORD your God with all your heart, all your soul, all your mind, and all your strength.’³¹ The second is equally important: ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’ No other commandment is greater than these.”

³² The teacher of religious law replied, “Well said, Teacher. You have spoken the truth by saying that there is only one God and no other.³³ And I know it is important to love him with all my heart and all my understanding and all my strength, and to love my neighbor as myself. This is more important than to offer all of the burnt offerings and sacrifices required in the law.”

³⁴ Realizing how much the man understood, Jesus said to him, “You are not far from the Kingdom of God.” And after that, no one dared to ask him any more questions.

Whose Son Is the Messiah?

³⁵ Later, as Jesus was teaching the people in the Temple, he asked, “Why do the teachers of religious law claim that the Messiah is the son of David? ³⁶ For David himself, speaking under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, said,

‘The LORD said to my Lord,
Sit in the place of honor at my right hand
until I humble your enemies beneath your feet.’*

³⁷ Since David himself called the Messiah ‘my Lord,’ how can the Messiah be his son?” The large crowd listened to him with great delight.

³⁸ Jesus also taught: “Beware of these teachers of religious law! For they like to parade around in flowing robes and receive respectful greetings as they walk in the marketplaces. ³⁹ And how they love the seats of honor in the synagogues and the head table at banquets. ⁴⁰ Yet they shamelessly cheat widows out of their property and then pretend to be pious by making long prayers in public. Because of this, they will be more severely punished.”

The Widow’s Offering

⁴¹ Jesus sat down near the collection box in the Temple and watched as the crowds dropped in their money. Many rich people put in large amounts. ⁴² Then a poor widow came and dropped in two small coins.*

⁴³ Jesus called his disciples to him and said, “I tell you the truth, this poor widow has given more than all the others who are making contributions. ⁴⁴ For they gave a tiny part of their surplus, but she, poor as she is, has given everything she had to live on.”

Chapter 13

Jesus Foretells the Future

As Jesus was leaving the Temple that day, one of his disciples said, “Teacher, look at these magnificent buildings! Look at the impressive stones in the walls.”

² Jesus replied, “Yes, look at these great buildings. But they will be completely demolished. Not one stone will be left on top of another!”

³ Later, Jesus sat on the Mount of Olives across the valley from the Temple. Peter, James, John, and Andrew came to him privately and asked him, ⁴ “Tell us, when will all this happen? What sign will show us that these things are about to be fulfilled?”

⁵ Jesus replied, “Don’t let anyone mislead you, ⁶ for many will come in my name, claiming, ‘I am the Messiah.’* They will deceive many. ⁷ And you will hear of wars and threats of wars, but don’t panic. Yes, these things must take place, but the end won’t follow immediately. ⁸ Nation will go to war against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be earthquakes in many parts of the world, as well as famines. But this is only the first of the birth pains, with more to come.

9 “When these things begin to happen, watch out! You will be handed over to the local councils and beaten in the synagogues. You will stand trial before governors and kings because you are my followers. But this will be your opportunity to tell them about me.* 10 For the Good News must first be preached to all nations.* 11 But when you are arrested and stand trial, don’t worry in advance about what to say. Just say what God tells you at that time, for it is not you who will be speaking, but the Holy Spirit.

12 “A brother will betray his brother to death, a father will betray his own child, and children will rebel against their parents and cause them to be killed. 13 And everyone will hate you because you are my followers.* But the one who endures to the end will be saved.

14 “The day is coming when you will see the sacrilegious object that causes desecration* standing where he* should not be.” (Reader, pay attention!) “Then those in Judea must flee to the hills. 15 A person out on the deck of a roof must not go down into the house to pack. 16 A person out in the field must not return even to get a coat. 17 How terrible it will be for pregnant women and for nursing mothers in those days. 18 And pray that your flight will not be in winter. 19 For there will be greater anguish in those days than at any time since God created the world. And it will never be so great again. 20 In fact, unless the Lord shortens that time of calamity, not a single person will survive. But for the sake of his chosen ones he has shortened those days.

21 “Then if anyone tells you, ‘Look, here is the Messiah,’ or ‘There he is,’ don’t believe it. 22 For false messiahs and false prophets will rise up and perform signs and wonders so as to deceive, if possible, even God’s chosen ones. 23 Watch out! I have warned you about this ahead of time!

24 “At that time, after the anguish of those days, the sun will be darkened,
the moon will give no light, 25 the stars will fall from the sky,
and the powers in the heavens will be shaken.*

26 Then everyone will see the Son of Man* coming on the clouds with great power and glory.* 27 And he will send out his angels to gather his chosen ones from all over the world*—from the farthest ends of the earth and heaven.

28 “Now learn a lesson from the fig tree. When its branches bud and its leaves begin to sprout, you know that summer is near. 29 In the same way, when you see all these things taking place, you can know that his return is very near, right at the door. 30 I tell you the truth, this generation* will not pass from the scene before all these things take place. 31 Heaven and earth will disappear, but my words will never disappear.

32 “However, no one knows the day or hour when these things will happen, not even the angels in heaven or the Son himself. Only the Father knows. 33 And since you don’t know when that time will come, be on guard! Stay alert*!

34 “The coming of the Son of Man can be illustrated by the story of a man going on a long trip. When he left home, he gave each of his slaves instructions about the work they were to do, and he told the gatekeeper to watch for his return. ³⁵ You, too, must keep watch! For you don't know when the master of the household will return—in the evening, at midnight, before dawn, or at daybreak. ³⁶ Don't let him find you sleeping when he arrives without warning. ³⁷ I say to you what I say to everyone: Watch for him!"

Chapter 14

Jesus Anointed at Bethany

It was now two days before Passover and the Festival of Unleavened Bread. The leading priests and the teachers of religious law were still looking for an opportunity to capture Jesus secretly and kill him. ² "But not during the Passover celebration," they agreed, "or the people may riot."

⁴ Some of those at the table were indignant. "Why waste such expensive perfume?" they asked. ⁵ "It could have been sold for a year's wages ^{*} and the money given to the poor!" So they scolded her harshly.

⁶ But Jesus replied, "Leave her alone. Why criticize her for doing such a good thing to me? ⁷ You will always have the poor among you, and you can help them whenever you want to. But you will not always have me. ⁸ She has done what she could and has anointed my body for burial ahead of time. ⁹ I tell you the truth, wherever the Good News is preached throughout the world, this woman's deed will be remembered and discussed."

Judas Agrees to Betray Jesus

¹⁰ Then Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve disciples, went to the leading priests to arrange to betray Jesus to them. ¹¹ They were delighted when they heard why he had come, and they promised to give him money. So he began looking for an opportunity to betray Jesus.

The Last Supper

¹² On the first day of the Festival of Unleavened Bread, when the Passover lamb is sacrificed, Jesus' disciples asked him, "Where do you want us to go to prepare the Passover meal for you?"

¹³ So Jesus sent two of them into Jerusalem with these instructions: "As you go into the city, a man carrying a pitcher of water will meet you. Follow him. ¹⁴ At the house he enters, say to the owner, 'The Teacher asks: Where is the guest room where I can eat the Passover meal with my disciples?'" ¹⁵ He will take you upstairs to a large room that is already set up. That is where you should prepare our meal." ¹⁶ So the two disciples went into the city and found everything just as Jesus had said, and they prepared the Passover meal there.

¹⁷ In the evening Jesus arrived with the twelve disciples.* ¹⁸

As they were at the table* eating, Jesus said, “I tell you the truth, one of you eating with me here will betray me.”

19 Greatly distressed, each one asked in turn, “Am I the one?”

20 He replied, “It is one of you twelve who is eating from this bowl with me. 21 For the Son of Man* must die, as the Scriptures declared long ago. But how terrible it will be for the one who betrays him. It would be far better for that man if he had never been born!”

22 As they were eating, Jesus took some bread and blessed it. Then he broke it in pieces and gave it to the disciples, saying, “Take it, for this is my body.”

23 And he took a cup of wine and gave thanks to God for it. He gave it to them, and they all drank from it. 24 And he said to them, “This is my blood, which confirms the covenant* between God and his people. It is poured out as a sacrifice for many. 25 I tell you the truth, I will not drink wine again until the day I drink it new in the Kingdom of God.”

26 Then they sang a hymn and went out to the Mount of Olives.

Jesus Predicts Peter's Denial

27 On the way, Jesus told them, “All of you will desert me. For the Scriptures say, ‘God will strike* the Shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.’

28 But after I am raised from the dead, I will go ahead of you to Galilee and meet you there.”

29 Peter said to him, “Even if everyone else deserts you, I never will.”

30 Jesus replied, “I tell you the truth, Peter—this very night, before the rooster crows twice, you will deny three times that you even know me.”

31 “No!” Peter declared emphatically. “Even if I have to die with you, I will never deny you!” And all the others vowed the same.

Jesus Prays in Gethsemane

32 They went to the olive grove called Gethsemane, and Jesus said, “Sit here while I go and pray.” 33 He took Peter, James, and John with him, and he became deeply troubled and distressed. 34 He told them, “My soul is crushed with grief to the point of death. Stay here and keep watch with me.”

35 He went on a little farther and fell to the ground. He prayed that, if it were possible, the awful hour awaiting him might pass him by. 36 “Abba, Father,”* he cried out, “everything is possible for you. Please take this cup of suffering away from me. Yet I want your will to be done, not mine.”

37 Then he returned and found the disciples asleep. He said to Peter, “Simon, are you asleep? Couldn’t you watch with me even one hour? 38 Keep watch and pray, so that you will not give in to temptation. For the spirit is willing, but the body is weak.”

39 Then Jesus left them again and prayed the same prayer as before.⁴⁰ When he returned to them again, he found them sleeping, for they couldn't keep their eyes open. And they didn't know what to say.

⁴¹ When he returned to them the third time, he said, “Go ahead and sleep. Have your rest. But no—the time has come. The Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.”⁴² Up, let's be going. Look, my betrayer is here!”

Jesus Is Betrayed and Arrested

⁴³ And immediately, even as Jesus said this, Judas, one of the twelve disciples, arrived with a crowd of men armed with swords and clubs. They had been sent by the leading priests, the teachers of religious law, and the elders.⁴⁴ The traitor, Judas, had given them a prearranged signal: “You will know which one to arrest when I greet him with a kiss. Then you can take him away under guard.”⁴⁵ As soon as they arrived, Judas walked up to Jesus. “Rabbi!” he exclaimed, and gave him the kiss.

Humble Prayer

Peter said to him, “Even if everyone else deserts you, I never will” (Mark 14:29).

Peter certainly had plenty of weaknesses. And most of them were obvious. He was kind of hot headed, impulsive, and proud. From time to time, he would say things that he probably should have kept to himself.

One day, Jesus was talking to His disciples about what was going to happen in the days ahead and how He was going to be crucified. He said, “You’re going to be tempted to deny Me and tempted to go the wrong way, so here’s what you need to do. Pray that you don’t give in to this temptation.” And you would think Peter, since he had some obvious weaknesses, would be the first one to say, “You’re right, Jesus. I’m going to take a few extra minutes to pray.” But no, Peter was proud. He thought he could overcome anything in his own strength. He said in effect, “Jesus, what are you talking about? I’m not going to deny you. I know better than that.” Jesus looked at him and said, “Peter, before the rooster crows, you’ll deny me three times.” He did just that. He not only denied Christ, but he started cursing, had a fit, and had to walk away feeling guilty and condemned.

Now that might have been avoided if Peter would have just had a more humble attitude and said, “You know what Jesus? This is going to be difficult. I can’t do this in my own strength. I’m going to take Your advice and ask God to help me. I’m going to spend an extra few minutes in prayer.”

The Scripture tells us that God opposes the proud but gives grace to the humble (see James 4:6). Let Peter’s example serve as a reminder to keep yourself humble before the Lord.

⁴⁶ Then the others grabbed Jesus and arrested him. ⁴⁷ But one of the men with Jesus pulled out his sword and struck the high priest's slave, slashing off his ear.

⁴⁸ Jesus asked them, "Am I some dangerous revolutionary, that you come with swords and clubs to arrest me? ⁴⁹ Why didn't you arrest me in the Temple? I was there among you teaching every day. But these things are happening to fulfill what the Scriptures say about me."

⁵⁰ Then all his disciples deserted him and ran away. ⁵¹ One young man following behind was clothed only in a long linen shirt. When the mob tried to grab him, ⁵² he slipped out of his shirt and ran away naked.

Jesus before the Council

⁵⁵ Inside, the leading priests and the entire high council* were trying to find evidence against Jesus, so they could put him to death. But they couldn't find any. ⁵⁶ Many false witnesses spoke against him, but they contradicted each other. ⁵⁷ Finally, some men stood up and gave this false testimony: ⁵⁸

“We heard him say, ‘I will destroy this Temple made with human hands, and in three days I will build another, made without human hands.’” ⁵⁹ But even then they didn’t get their stories straight!

⁶⁰ Then the high priest stood up before the others and asked Jesus, “Well, aren’t you going to answer these charges? What do you have to say for yourself?” ⁶¹ But Jesus was silent and made no reply. Then the high priest asked him, “Are you the Messiah, the Son of the Blessed One?”

⁶² Jesus said, “I AM.* And you will see the Son of Man seated in the place of power at God’s right hand* and coming on the clouds of heaven.*”

⁶³ Then the high priest tore his clothing to show his horror and said, “Why do we need other witnesses? ⁶⁴ You have all heard his blasphemy. What is your verdict?”

“Guilty!” they all cried. “He deserves to die!”

⁶⁵ Then some of them began to spit at him, and they blindfolded him and beat him with their fists. “Prophecy to us,” they jeered. And the guards slapped him as they took him away.

Peter Denies Jesus

⁶⁶ Meanwhile, Peter was in the courtyard below. One of the servant girls who worked for the high priest came by ⁶⁷ and noticed Peter warming himself at the fire. She looked at him closely and said, “You were one of those with Jesus of Nazareth.*”

⁶⁸ But Peter denied it. “I don’t know what you’re talking about,” he said, and he went out into the entryway. Just then, a rooster crowed.*

A little later some of the other bystanders confronted Peter and said, “You must be one of them, because you are a Galilean.”

⁷¹ Peter swore, “A curse on me if I’m lying—I don’t know this man you’re talking about!” ⁷² And immediately the rooster crowed the second time.

Suddenly, Jesus’ words flashed through Peter’s mind: “Before the rooster crows twice, you will deny three times that you even know me.” And he broke down and wept.

Chapter 15

Jesus’ Trial before Pilate

Very early in the morning the leading priests, the elders, and the teachers of religious law—the entire high council*—met to discuss their next step. They bound Jesus, led him away, and took him to Pilate, the Roman governor.

² Pilate asked Jesus, “Are you the king of the Jews?”

Jesus replied, “You have said it.”

³ Then the leading priests kept accusing him of many crimes, ⁴ and Pilate asked him, “Aren’t you going to answer them? What about all these charges they are bringing against you?” ⁵ But Jesus said nothing, much to Pilate’s surprise.

⁹ “Would you like me to release to you this ‘King of the Jews’?” Pilate asked. ¹⁰ (For he realized by now that the leading priests had arrested Jesus out of envy.) ¹¹ But at this point the leading priests stirred up the crowd to demand the release of Barabbas instead of Jesus. ¹² Pilate asked them, “Then what should I do with this man you call the king of the Jews?”

¹³ They shouted back, “Crucify him!”

¹⁴ “Why?” Pilate demanded. “What crime has he committed?”

But the mob roared even louder, “Crucify him!”

¹⁵ So to pacify the crowd, Pilate released Barabbas to them. He ordered Jesus flogged with a lead-tipped whip, then turned him over to the Roman soldiers to be crucified.

The Soldiers Mock Jesus

¹⁶ The soldiers took Jesus into the courtyard of the governor's headquarters (called the Praetorium) and called out the entire regiment. ¹⁷ They dressed him in a purple robe, and they wove thorn branches into a crown and put it on his head. ¹⁸ Then they saluted him and taunted, “Hail! King of the Jews!” ¹⁹ And they struck him on the head with a reed stick, spit on him, and dropped to their knees in mock worship. ²⁰ When they were finally tired of mocking him, they took off the purple robe and put his own clothes on him again. Then they led him away to be crucified.

The Crucifixion

²¹ A passerby named Simon, who was from Cyrene,* was coming in from the countryside just then, and the soldiers forced him to carry Jesus' cross. (Simon was the father of Alexander and Rufus.)²² And they brought Jesus to a place called Golgotha (which means "Place of the Skull").²³ They offered him wine drugged with myrrh, but he refused it.

²⁴ Then the soldiers nailed him to the cross. They divided his clothes and threw dice* to decide who would get each piece.²⁵ It was nine o'clock in the morning when they crucified him.²⁶ A sign announced the charge against him. It read, "The King of the Jews."²⁷ Two revolutionaries* were crucified with him, one on his right and one on his left.*

²⁹ The people passing by shouted abuse, shaking their heads in mockery. "Ha! Look at you now!" they yelled at him. "You said you were going to destroy the Temple and rebuild it in three days.³⁰ Well then, save yourself and come down from the cross!"

³¹ The leading priests and teachers of religious law also mocked Jesus. "He saved others," they scoffed, "but he can't save himself!"³² Let this Messiah, this King of Israel, come down from the cross so we can see it and believe him!" Even the men who were crucified with Jesus ridiculed him.

The Death of Jesus

³³ At noon, darkness fell across the whole land until three o'clock. ³⁴ Then at three o'clock Jesus called out with a loud voice, "Eloi, Eloi, lema sabachthani?" which means "My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?"*

³⁵ Some of the bystanders misunderstood and thought he was calling for the prophet Elijah. ³⁶ One of them ran and filled a sponge with sour wine, holding it up to him on a reed stick so he could drink. "Wait!" he said. "Let's see whether Elijah comes to take him down!"

³⁹ When the Roman officer* who stood facing him* saw how he had died, he exclaimed, "This man truly was the Son of God!"

⁴⁰ Some women were there, watching from a distance, including Mary Magdalene, Mary (the mother of James the younger and of Joseph*), and Salome. ⁴¹ They had been followers of Jesus and had cared for him while he was in Galilee. Many other women who had come with him to Jerusalem were also there.

The Burial of Jesus

⁴² This all happened on Friday, the day of preparation,* the day before the Sabbath. As evening approached, ⁴³ Joseph of Arimathea took a risk and went to Pilate and asked for Jesus' body. (Joseph was an honored member of the high council, and he was waiting for the Kingdom of God to come.)⁴⁴ Pilate couldn't believe that Jesus was already dead, so he called for the Roman officer and asked if he had died yet.⁴⁵ The officer confirmed that Jesus was dead, so Pilate told Joseph he could have the body.⁴⁶ Joseph bought a long sheet of linen cloth. Then he took Jesus' body down from the cross, wrapped it in the cloth, and laid it in a tomb that had been carved out of the rock. Then he rolled a stone in front of the entrance.⁴⁷ Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joseph saw where Jesus' body was laid.

The Resurrection

Saturday evening, when the Sabbath ended, Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome went out and purchased burial spices so they could anoint Jesus' body.² Very early on Sunday morning,* just at sunrise, they went to the tomb.³ On the way they were asking each other, "Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?"⁴ But as they arrived, they looked up and saw that the stone, which was very large, had already been rolled aside.

⁵ When they entered the tomb, they saw a young man clothed in a white robe sitting on the right side. The women were shocked,⁶ but the angel said, "Don't be alarmed. You are looking for Jesus of Nazareth,* who was crucified. He isn't here! He is risen from the dead! Look, this is where they laid his body."⁷ Now go and tell his disciples, including Peter, that Jesus is going ahead of you to Galilee. You will see him there, just as he told you before he died.”

⁸ The women fled from the tomb, trembling and bewildered, and they said nothing to anyone because they were too frightened.*

[Shorter Ending of Mark]

Then they briefly reported all this to Peter and his companions. Afterward Jesus himself sent them out from east to west with the sacred and unfailing message of salvation that gives eternal life. Amen.

[Longer Ending of Mark]

⁹ After Jesus rose from the dead early on Sunday morning, the first person who saw him was Mary Magdalene, the woman from whom he had cast out seven demons. ¹⁰ She went to the disciples, who were grieving and weeping, and told them what had happened. ¹¹ But when she told them that Jesus was alive and she had seen him, they didn’t believe her.

¹² Afterward he appeared in a different form to two of his followers who were walking from Jerusalem into the country. ¹³ They rushed back to tell the others, but no one believed them.

¹⁵ And then he told them, “Go into all the world and preach the Good News to everyone. ¹⁶ Anyone who believes and is baptized will be saved. But anyone who refuses to believe will be condemned. ¹⁷ These miraculous signs will accompany those who believe: They will cast out demons in my name, and they will speak in new languages.* ¹⁸ They will be able to handle snakes with safety, and if they drink anything poisonous, it won't hurt them. They will be able to place their hands on the sick, and they will be healed."

¹⁹ When the Lord Jesus had finished talking with them, he was taken up into heaven and sat down in the place of honor at God's right hand. ²⁰ And the disciples went everywhere and preached, and the Lord worked through them, confirming what they said by many miraculous signs.

INTRO TO THE BOOK OF

Luke

Author:

Luke, a doctor

Original Audience:

Theophilus (a Gentile believer whose name means “Lover of God”), Gentiles

Date of Writing:

AD 60

Setting:

Luke probably wrote from Caesarea or Rome.

Key People:

Jesus, Elizabeth, Zechariah, John the Baptist, Mary, the disciples, Herod the Great, Pilate, Mary Magdalene

Key Verses:

Jesus responded, “Salvation has come to this home today, for this man has shown himself to be a true son of Abraham. For the Son of Man came to seek and save those who are lost” (19:9-10).

Finding Hope and Encouragement in Luke

The third Gospel, Luke, was written by a Gentile (the only known Gentile author in the New Testament) who had never met Jesus. A close friend and traveling companion of Paul, Luke was a doctor by profession (see Colossians 4:14) and an evangelist by avocation. He wrote as a historian who paid close attention to detail. This book used Mark's older Gospel as a structural background. It also has a sequel, the book of Acts.

While Luke affirms the divinity of Jesus, the theme of Luke's Gospel is the humanity of Jesus. Jesus is not only the Son of God; He is the Son of Man, too. Luke writes to non-Jewish readers, emphasizing that Jesus became fully human, identifying with our human condition.

Luke is unique in many ways. Luke's Gospel is the longest of the Gospels, containing material not found in the others. For example, Jesus' childhood, many parables (chapters 10–19), and His one-year ministry through Samaria and Berea, leading to His final journey to Jerusalem, are all unique to Luke's Gospel. As a physician, he gives special attention to medical matters. He elaborates on the events surrounding the birth of Jesus. Prayer is given a prominent place. The book preserves four beautiful hymns (1:46-55; 1:67-79; 2:14; 2:29-32). No other biblical author includes or sympathizes with as many women as Luke does.

Luke invites us to see the humanity of Jesus through His birth, His childhood, His ministry of compassion and healing, His horrific death, and His glorious resurrection. Read and be blessed by this doctor's caring biography of Jesus.

Chapter 1

Introduction

Many people have set out to write accounts about the events that have been fulfilled among us.² They used the eyewitness reports circulating among us from the early disciples.*³

Having carefully investigated everything from the beginning, I also have decided to write a careful account for you, most honorable Theophilus, ⁴ so you can be certain of the truth of everything you were taught.

The Birth of John the Baptist Foretold

⁵ When Herod was king of Judea, there was a Jewish priest named Zechariah. He was a member of the priestly order of Abijah, and his wife, Elizabeth, was also from the priestly line of Aaron. ⁶ Zechariah and Elizabeth were righteous in God's eyes, careful to obey all of the Lord's commandments and regulations. ⁷ They had no children because Elizabeth was unable to conceive, and they were both very old.

⁸ One day Zechariah was serving God in the Temple, for his order was on duty that week. ⁹ As was the custom of the priests, he was chosen by lot to enter the sanctuary of the Lord and burn incense. ¹⁰ While the incense was being burned, a great crowd stood outside, praying.

¹¹ While Zechariah was in the sanctuary, an angel of the Lord appeared to him, standing to the right of the incense altar. ¹² Zechariah was shaken and overwhelmed with fear when he saw him. ¹³ But the angel said, "Don't be afraid, Zechariah! God has heard your prayer. Your wife, Elizabeth, will give you a son, and you are to name him John. ¹⁴ You will have great joy and gladness, and many will rejoice at his birth, ¹⁵ for he will be great in the eyes of the Lord. He must never touch wine or other alcoholic drinks. He will be filled with the Holy Spirit, even before his birth.* ¹⁶ And he will turn many Israelites to the Lord their God. ¹⁷ He will be a man with the spirit and power of Elijah. He will prepare the people for the coming of the Lord. He will turn the hearts of the fathers to their children,* and he will cause those who are rebellious to accept the wisdom of the godly.”

¹⁹ Then the angel said, “I am Gabriel! I stand in the very presence of God. It was he who sent me to bring you this good news! ²⁰ But now, since you didn’t believe what I said, you will be silent and unable to speak until the child is born. For my words will certainly be fulfilled at the proper time.”

Planned Events

But the angel said, “Don’t be afraid, Zechariah! God has heard your prayer. Your wife, Elizabeth, will give you a son, and you are to name him John” (Luke 1:13).

All through the Scripture we can see how God planned out each person’s life. He told Elizabeth, “You’re going to have a baby. You’re to call him John. He’ll be a forerunner of Christ.” That was her assignment and her son’s purpose. In the Old Testament, an angel appeared to Samson's mother and told her she was going to have a baby and that he would be a deliverer. The angel told how he was to be raised and that his hair was never to be cut—a very specific plan.

God knew John's name before he was born, and He knew yours before your parents held you for the first time. Just like the great men and women of the Bible, God has a purpose for your life, too! He will continue to work through events in your life to draw you to Him. If you aren't sure what that plan is today, He promises to make His ways known (Acts 2:28). Come to Him with an open heart, and trust that the answer is on the way.

21 Meanwhile, the people were waiting for Zechariah to come out of the sanctuary, wondering why he was taking so long. 22 When he finally did come out, he couldn't speak to them. Then they realized from his gestures and his silence that he must have seen a vision in the sanctuary.

23 When Zechariah's week of service in the Temple was over, he returned home. 24 Soon afterward his wife, Elizabeth, became pregnant and went into seclusion for five months. 25 "How kind the Lord is!" she exclaimed. "He has taken away my disgrace of having no children."

The Birth of Jesus Foretold

26 In the sixth month of Elizabeth's pregnancy, God sent the angel Gabriel to Nazareth, a village in Galilee, 27 to a virgin named Mary. She was engaged to be married to a man named Joseph, a descendant of King David.²⁸ Gabriel appeared to her and said, “Greetings, favored woman! The Lord is with you!*

²⁹ Confused and disturbed, Mary tried to think what the angel could mean.³⁰ “Don’t be afraid, Mary,” the angel told her, “for you have found favor with God! ³¹ You will conceive and give birth to a son, and you will name him Jesus. ³² He will be very great and will be called the Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give him the throne of his ancestor David. ³³ And he will reign over Israel* forever; his Kingdom will never end!”

HOPENOTE

Highly Favored

Gabriel appeared to her and said, “Greetings, favored woman! The Lord is with you!” (Luke 1:28).

Did you know that as a child of God, you are highly favored? No matter what you may have done in the past, as soon as you make Jesus Christ your Lord and Savior, you have favor with God! You matter to Him.

Mary didn’t understand how or why she had God’s favor, or what that favor was for. At that moment, she didn’t know that she was chosen as a pure and holy vessel to bring Christ to the world. Friend, you have God’s favor for the very same reason as Mary—because God chose you and made you a pure and holy vessel to bring Christ to your home, workplace, and even the world.

Stay focused on sharing “the message” of God’s love with all those that you come into contact with as you go through life. And remember that today, and every day, you are highly favored, and the Lord is with you!

34 Mary asked the angel, “But how can this happen? I am a virgin.”

35 The angel replied, “The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. So the baby to be born will be holy, and he will be called the Son of God.³⁶ What’s more, your relative Elizabeth has become pregnant in her old age! People used to say she was barren, but she has conceived a son and is now in her sixth month.³⁷ For nothing is impossible with God.*”

38 Mary responded, “I am the Lord’s servant. May everything you have said about me come true.” And then the angel left her.

Mary Visits Elizabeth

³⁹ A few days later Mary hurried to the hill country of Judea, to the town ⁴⁰ where Zechariah lived. She entered the house and greeted Elizabeth.⁴¹ At the sound of Mary’s greeting, Elizabeth’s child leaped within her, and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit.

⁴² Elizabeth gave a glad cry and exclaimed to Mary, “God has blessed you above all women, and your child is blessed.⁴³ Why am I so honored, that the mother of my Lord should visit me? ⁴⁴ When I heard your greeting, the baby in my womb jumped for joy. ⁴⁵ You are blessed because you believed that the Lord would do what he said.”

The Magnificat: Mary’s Song of Praise

⁴⁶ Mary responded,

“Oh, how my soul praises the Lord.

⁴⁷ How my spirit rejoices in God my Savior!

⁴⁸ For he took notice of his lowly servant girl, and from now on all generations will call me blessed.

⁴⁹ For the Mighty One is holy,
and he has done great things for me.

⁵⁰ He shows mercy from generation to generation to all who fear him.

⁵¹ His mighty arm has done tremendous things!
He has scattered the proud and haughty ones.

⁵² He has brought down princes from their thrones and exalted the humble.

⁵³ He has filled the hungry with good things and sent the rich away with empty hands.

⁵⁴ He has helped his servant Israel and remembered to be merciful.

⁵⁵ For he made this promise to our ancestors, to Abraham and his children forever.”

⁵⁶ Mary stayed with Elizabeth about three months and then went back to her own home.

The Birth of John the Baptist

57 When it was time for Elizabeth's baby to be born, she gave birth to a son. 58 And when her neighbors and relatives heard that the Lord had been very merciful to her, everyone rejoiced with her.

59 When the baby was eight days old, they all came for the circumcision ceremony. They wanted to name him Zechariah, after his father. 60 But Elizabeth said, "No! His name is John!"

HOPEFORTODAY

Simple Trust

Mary responded, "Oh, how my soul praises the Lord. How my spirit rejoices in God my Savior!" (Luke 1:46-47).

Mary, the mother of Jesus, was just a teenage girl living in a town called Nazareth. This was one of the poorest, most rundown cities of that region. You would think that if God was going to choose someone to give birth to His Son, surely He would choose someone from a better location or a more prestigious environment. But once again, God went outside the expectations of man. He didn't choose a prominent, influential young lady. Mary was just a common girl living in an average family in a lower income neighborhood. In Luke 1:30, an angel appeared to her and he said, “Mary, you have found favor with God. You’re going to give birth to a son. You’re to call Him Jesus.”

And of course, Mary was startled by it all, and she asked a question, “But how can this happen? I am a virgin.” She was saying in effect, “That’s impossible. That defies the laws of nature. I can’t have a baby without a man.”

The angel answered back, “The power of the Most High will come upon you and cause you to conceive.”

And I love what Mary said; as odd as it all seemed, as impossible as it looked, Mary simply said, “I am the Lord’s servant. May everything you have said about me come true.” She received the word by faith, and at that moment the seed took root in her heart.

When God gives us a promise, it may not make sense to our mind. It may be out of the ordinary. But if we will just do what Mary did and say, “God, I receive this. It may look impossible, but God, I know you can do the impossible,” we’ll open the door for God to do great things in our lives.

It’s interesting what Mary asked: “How could it happen without a man?” She was asking in the physical, but I believe there’s a deeper meaning. God is saying you don’t have to have certain people in your life to see your dreams come to pass. Your friends may not believe in your dreams. Your co-workers may not think you have what it takes. Your own family may just think you’re wasting your time, but the good news is, God does not need them to bring that promise to fulfillment. Don't allow people to talk you out of what you know you feel on the inside. Your dream is not dependent on other people. God is saying it can happen without a man. It can happen without a banker. It can happen without a doctor. It can happen without the right boss. It can happen in spite of what people are saying. Simply trust in God; for with God, all things are possible!

⁶¹ “What?” they exclaimed. “There is no one in all your family by that name.” ⁶² So they used gestures to ask the baby's father what he wanted to name him. ⁶³ He motioned for a writing tablet, and to everyone's surprise he wrote, “His name is John.” ⁶⁴ Instantly Zechariah could speak again, and he began praising God.

⁶⁵ Awe fell upon the whole neighborhood, and the news of what had happened spread throughout the Judean hills. ⁶⁶ Everyone who heard about it reflected on these events and asked, “What will this child turn out to be?” For the hand of the Lord was surely upon him in a special way.

Zechariah's Prophecy

⁶⁷ Then his father, Zechariah, was filled with the Holy Spirit and gave this prophecy:

⁶⁸ “Praise the Lord, the God of Israel, because he has visited and redeemed his people.

- 69 He has sent us a mighty Savior*
from the royal line of his servant David, 70 just as he promised through his holy prophets long ago.
71 Now we will be saved from our enemies and from all who hate us.
72 He has been merciful to our ancestors by remembering his sacred covenant—73 the covenant he swore with an oath to our ancestor Abraham.
74 We have been rescued from our enemies
so we can serve God without fear, 75 in holiness and righteousness for as long as we live.
76 “And you, my little son, will be called the prophet of the Most High,
because you will prepare the way for the Lord.
77 You will tell his people how to find salvation through forgiveness of their sins.
78 Because of God’s tender mercy, the morning light from heaven is about to break upon us,* 79 to give light to those who sit in darkness and in the shadow of death,
and to guide us to the path of peace.”

80 John grew up and became strong in spirit. And he lived in the wilderness until he began his public ministry to Israel.

Chapter 2

The Birth of Jesus

At that time the Roman emperor, Augustus, decreed that a census should be taken throughout the Roman Empire. ² (This was the first census taken when Quirinius was governor of Syria.) ³ All returned to their own ancestral towns to register for this census. ⁴ And because Joseph was a descendant of King David, he had to go to Bethlehem in Judea, David's ancient home. He traveled there from the village of Nazareth in Galilee. ⁵ He took with him Mary, his fiancée, who was now obviously pregnant.

⁶ And while they were there, the time came for her baby to be born. ⁷ She gave birth to her first child, a son. She wrapped him snugly in strips of cloth and laid him in a manger, because there was no lodging available for them.

The Shepherds and Angels

⁸ That night there were shepherds staying in the fields nearby, guarding their flocks of sheep. ⁹ Suddenly, an angel of the Lord appeared among them, and the radiance of the Lord's glory surrounded them. They were terrified, ¹⁰ but the angel reassured them. "Don't be afraid!" he said. "I bring you good news that will bring great joy to all people. ¹¹ The Savior—yes, the Messiah, the Lord—has been born today in Bethlehem, the city of David! ¹² And you will recognize him by this sign: You will find a baby wrapped snugly in strips of cloth, lying in a manger."

¹³ Suddenly, the angel was joined by a vast host of others—the armies of heaven—praising God and saying,

and peace on earth to those with whom God is pleased.”

¹⁵ When the angels had returned to heaven, the shepherds said to each other, “Let’s go to Bethlehem! Let’s see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has told us about.”

¹⁶ They hurried to the village and found Mary and Joseph. And there was the baby, lying in the manger. ¹⁷ After seeing him, the shepherds told everyone what had happened and what the angel had said to them about this child. ¹⁸ All who heard the shepherds’ story were astonished, ¹⁹ but Mary kept all these things in her heart and thought about them often. ²⁰ The shepherds went back to their flocks, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen. It was just as the angel had told them.

Jesus Is Presented in the Temple

²¹ Eight days later, when the baby was circumcised, he was named Jesus, the name given him by the angel even before he was conceived.

²² Then it was time for their purification offering, as required by the law of Moses after the birth of a child; so his parents took him to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord. ²³ The law of the Lord says, “If a woman’s first child is a boy, he must be dedicated to the LORD.”* ²⁴ So they offered the sacrifice required in the law of the Lord—“either a pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons.”*

The Prophecy of Simeon

²⁵ At that time there was a man in Jerusalem named Simeon. He was righteous and devout and was eagerly waiting for the Messiah to come and rescue Israel. The Holy Spirit was upon him²⁶ and had revealed to him that he would not die until he had seen the Lord’s Messiah. ²⁷ That day the Spirit led him to the Temple. So when Mary and Joseph came to present the baby Jesus to the Lord as the law required,²⁸ Simeon was there. He took the child in his arms and praised God, saying,

²⁹ “Sovereign Lord, now let your servant die in peace, as you have promised.

³⁰ I have seen your salvation,

³¹ which you have prepared for all people.

³² He is a light to reveal God to the nations, and he is the glory of your people Israel!”

HOPEFORTODAY

Outside the System

And while they were there, the time came for her baby to be born (Luke 2:6).

When it finally came time for Mary to have her baby, it’s interesting that the Scripture says there was no room for her in the inn. In today's language, that means there was no hospital available, no clinic that had any space, no hotel, not even a home. But Mary was so full of promise that she knew great things could be birthed outside the system. She basically went to a barn with the animals, and there she gave birth to the Son of the Living God.

At times, you may feel as though the system of the world is shutting you out. You worked so hard, but you didn't get the promotion you deserved. You got overlooked. Or a good friend betrayed you. That's how Mary must have felt. But God said, "Mary, don't worry about it. I'm still in control. They don't have to let my Son in. I'll go outside the system, and you can still give birth to that baby."

When it comes time for your promise to be born, all the forces of darkness cannot stop it from coming. The system may not let you in, but God will go outside the system to bring it to pass.

Sometimes, the system is too small for your dream. Sometimes, God has to move you away from the people you're around because they're limiting you. It may be a little uncomfortable. You may not like it. But God knows He has to get you out of that narrow-minded environment so you can give birth to the great things He's put in your heart. You may not be birthing a baby, but you're birthing a dream, birthing a vision, birthing a ministry, birthing a business. Be willing to get outside your system. It may be too small. Trust God because He has greater things in store for you!

³³ Jesus' parents were amazed at what was being said about him. ³⁴ Then Simeon blessed them, and he said to Mary, the baby's mother, "This child is destined to cause many in Israel to fall, but he will be a joy to many others. He has been sent as a sign from God, but many will oppose him. ³⁵ As a result, the deepest thoughts of many hearts will be revealed. And a sword will pierce your very soul."

Hold on to Peace

Suddenly, the angel was joined by a vast host of others—the armies of heaven—praising God and saying, “Glory to God in highest heaven, and peace on earth to those with whom God is pleased” (Luke 2:13-14).

When the angels appeared to announce the birth of the Messiah to the shepherds, they spoke “peace” to the earth. It’s interesting that at the time of the year we are supposed to be celebrating this gift of peace, people are the most stressed, worried, and agitated. Christmas is a time that should be filled with peace and love, but you have to know that the enemy doesn't like that; he's going to try to distract you. He will try everything he can to take away your joy. He'll try to turn your focus to the little things that irritate you most—relatives, shopping, decorations.

Don't fall into his trap! Instead, make the effort to hold on to your peace. One way to do that is to take your focus off of your needs and your problems and think about how you can be a blessing to someone who doesn't expect it.

Leave some cash in an unmarked envelope on the desk of a co-worker who is struggling this Christmas. At a restaurant, you can buy somebody's dinner and leave them a note wishing them a "Merry Christmas." Clean up the kitchen at the office and don't tell anybody that you did it. When you do good things in secret, God will reward you in the open. When no one thanks you and you don't get any credit, you are honoring God and opening up the windows of blessing for Him to do great things in your life.

The Prophecy of Anna

³⁶ Anna, a prophet, was also there in the Temple. She was the daughter of Phanuel from the tribe of Asher, and she was very old. Her husband died when they had been married only seven years. ³⁷ Then she lived as a widow to the age of eighty-four.* She never left the Temple but stayed there day and night, worshipping God with fasting and prayer. ³⁸ She came along just as Simeon was talking with Mary and Joseph, and she began praising God. She talked about the child to everyone who had been waiting expectantly for God to rescue Jerusalem.

³⁹ When Jesus' parents had fulfilled all the requirements of the law of the Lord, they returned home to Nazareth in Galilee. ⁴⁰ There the child grew up healthy and strong. He was filled with wisdom, and God's favor was on him.

Jesus Speaks with the Teachers

⁴¹ Every year Jesus' parents went to Jerusalem for the Passover festival. ⁴² When Jesus was twelve years old, they attended the festival as usual. ⁴³ After the celebration was over, they started home to Nazareth, but Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem. His parents didn't miss him at first, ⁴⁴ because they assumed he was among the other travelers. But when he didn't show up that evening, they started looking for him among their relatives and friends.

⁴⁵ When they couldn't find him, they went back to Jerusalem to search for him there. ⁴⁶ Three days later they finally discovered him in the Temple, sitting among the religious teachers, listening to them and asking questions. ⁴⁷ All who heard him were amazed at his understanding and his answers.

⁴⁸ His parents didn't know what to think. "Son," his mother said to him, "why have you done this to us? Your father and I have been frantic, searching for you everywhere."

⁴⁹ "But why did you need to search?" he asked. "Didn't you know that I must be in my Father's house?"* ⁵⁰ But they didn't understand what he meant.

51 Then he returned to Nazareth with them and was obedient to them. And his mother stored all these things in her heart.

52 Jesus grew in wisdom and in stature and in favor with God and all the people.

HOPEFORTODAY

He Fulfills His Promises

I have seen your salvation, which you have prepared for all people (Luke 2:30-31).

God promised Simeon, “You will not die until you see the birth of Christ.” Simeon didn’t understand it all, but he let those words take root deep down on the inside. He didn’t tell anybody about it. It was just between him and God.

Some scholars say that he waited up to twenty years. I can imagine the older he got, the more he was tempted to think, “I must not have heard God right. It’s never going to happen in my lifetime. It’s been years.” No, Simeon had to do just what you and I have to do today. When those negative thoughts came, Simeon had to shake them off and say, “No, my time is coming. The promise is in me. God put it in my heart. And I will not go to my grave until I see it fulfilled.” I’m sure he got up every morning hoping, believing, expecting. Sure enough, some twenty years later, he saw that promise come to pass.

I believe God has spoken something like that to each one of us. Deep down on the inside, you have dreams that you know are going to come to pass before you leave this earth. It may be a promise that a child is going to get back on the right path, even if it's been five, ten, or fifteen years. It's good to do what Simeon did. Just remind God, "God, You put this promise in me—as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord. And I believe I will not go to my grave until I see my whole family serving You." Maybe God's put a promise in you that one day you're going to get married. You've been through some disappointments, some broken relationships. You're getting a little older. You're tempted to think it's not going to happen. No, God already has the right person picked out. And you're never too old. Recently, I met a couple in their nineties who had just gotten married. They were on their honeymoon. And I know you don't want to wait until you're in your nineties! I'm just emphasizing that God is faithful to those who put their hope in Him. It doesn't matter your age. It doesn't matter your background. It doesn't matter your social status. God is a faithful God!

I'm asking you to do what Simeon did. No matter how long it's been, no matter how tempted you are to get discouraged, get up every morning and just declare it by faith. "My time is coming. The promise is in me, and I will not die until I see it come to pass.”

Be a prisoner of hope today. I want you to know deep down on the inside of you that no matter where you are in life, your time is coming! Just like Simeon, I believe that before you leave this earth, God will bring every dream, every desire to pass.

Chapter 3

John the Baptist Prepares the Way

It was now the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius, the Roman emperor. Pontius Pilate was governor over Judea; Herod Antipas was ruler* over Galilee; his brother Philip was ruler* over Iturea and Traconitis; Lysanias was ruler over Abilene.² Annas and Caiaphas were the high priests. At this time a message from God came to John son of Zechariah, who was living in the wilderness.³ Then John went from place to place on both sides of the Jordan River, preaching that people should be baptized to show that they had repented of their sins and turned to God to be forgiven.⁴ Isaiah had spoken of John when he said, “He is a voice shouting in the wilderness,

‘Prepare the way for the LORD’s coming!

Clear the road for him!

⁵ The valleys will be filled, and the mountains and hills made level.

The curves will be straightened, and the rough places made smooth.

6 And then all people will see the salvation sent from God.’”*

7 When the crowds came to John for baptism, he said, “You brood of snakes! Who warned you to flee God’s coming wrath? 8 Prove by the way you live that you have repented of your sins and turned to God. Don’t just say to each other, ‘We’re safe, for we are descendants of Abraham.’ That means nothing, for I tell you, God can create children of Abraham from these very stones. 9 Even now the ax of God’s judgment is poised, ready to sever the roots of the trees. Yes, every tree that does not produce good fruit will be chopped down and thrown into the fire.”

10 The crowds asked, “What should we do?”

11 John replied, “If you have two shirts, give one to the poor. If you have food, share it with those who are hungry.”

12 Even corrupt tax collectors came to be baptized and asked, “Teacher, what should we do?”

13 He replied, “Collect no more taxes than the government requires.”

14 “What should we do?” asked some soldiers.

John replied, “Don’t extort money or make false accusations. And be content with your pay.”

15 Everyone was expecting the Messiah to come soon, and they were eager to know whether John might be the Messiah.

16 John answered their questions by saying, “I baptize you with* water; but someone is coming soon who is greater than I am—so much greater that I’m not even worthy to be his slave and untie the straps of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire.* ¹⁷ He is ready to separate the chaff from the wheat with his winnowing fork. Then he will clean up the threshing area, gathering the wheat into his barn but burning the chaff with never-ending fire.” ¹⁸ John used many such warnings as he announced the Good News to the people.

¹⁹ John also publicly criticized Herod Antipas, the ruler of Galilee,* for marrying Herodias, his brother’s wife, and for many other wrongs he had done. ²⁰ So Herod put John in prison, adding this sin to his many others.

The Baptism of Jesus

²¹ One day when the crowds were being baptized, Jesus himself was baptized. As he was praying, the heavens opened, ²² and the Holy Spirit, in bodily form, descended on him like a dove. And a voice from heaven said, “You are my dearly loved Son, and you bring me great joy.*”

Chapter 4

The Temptation of Jesus

Then Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan River. He was led by the Spirit in the wilderness,* ² where he was tempted by the devil for forty days. Jesus ate nothing all that time and became very hungry.

³ Then the devil said to him, “If you are the Son of God, tell this stone to become a loaf of bread.”

⁴ But Jesus told him, “No! The Scriptures say, ‘People do not live by bread alone.’*”

⁵ Then the devil took him up and revealed to him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time. ⁶ “I will give you the glory of these kingdoms and authority over them,” the devil said, “because they are mine to give to anyone I please. ⁷ I will give it all to you if you will worship me.”

HOPENOTE

The Power of the Word

Jesus replied, “The Scriptures say, ‘You must worship the LORD your God and serve only him’” (Luke 4:8).

The devil tried to tempt Jesus to bow down to him. Here He was in the desert to pray. He’d been fasting. He was alone and probably weak in His body. Along comes Satan to offer Him an easy way out of the Cross. “You can gain the world by letting me give it to You,” he said. But Jesus knew that the mission wasn’t just to gain the world. He knew that the real victory was to gain the world and defeat temptation, death, hell, and the grave. This would require a cross.

Notice how Jesus answered. Each time Satan tempted Him, Jesus responded by saying, “The Scriptures say. . . .” Jesus fought the enemy with the Word of God. The Scripture tells us that the Word of God is sharper than a double-edged sword (Hebrews 4:12). It is your weapon. When you feel the pressure of temptation, when you feel like giving in, when you think you’re not going to make it, fight those negative, self-defeating thoughts by declaring the Word of God. Declare, “I am strong in the Lord and in the power of His might! No weapon formed against me shall prosper. I am an overcomer through Christ who strengthens me.” The Bible tells us that God watches over His Word to perform it in your life. When you speak the Word, you invite Him to exercise His power on your behalf, and He will lead you in the path of victory!

8 Jesus replied, “The Scriptures say,

‘You must worship the LORD your God and serve only him.’*”

9 Then the devil took him to Jerusalem, to the highest point of the Temple, and said, “If you are the Son of God, jump off! 10 For the Scriptures say,

‘He will order his angels to protect and guard you.

11 And they will hold you up with their hands so you won’t even hurt your foot on a stone.’*”

12 Jesus responded, “The Scriptures also say, ‘You must not test the LORD your God.’*”

13 When the devil had finished tempting Jesus, he left him until the next opportunity came.

Jesus Rejected at Nazareth

14 Then Jesus returned to Galilee, filled with the Holy Spirit’s power. Reports about him spread quickly through the whole region.¹⁵ He taught regularly in their synagogues and was praised by everyone.

¹⁶ When he came to the village of Nazareth, his boyhood home, he went as usual to the synagogue on the Sabbath and stood up to read the Scriptures.¹⁷ The scroll of Isaiah the prophet was handed to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where this was written:

¹⁸ “The Spirit of the LORD is upon me, for he has anointed me to bring Good News to the poor.
He has sent me to proclaim that captives will be released, that the blind will see, that the oppressed will be set free,
¹⁹ and that the time of the LORD’s favor has come.*”

²⁰ He rolled up the scroll, handed it back to the attendant, and sat down. All eyes in the synagogue looked at him intently.²¹ Then he began to speak to them. “The Scripture you’ve just heard has been fulfilled this very day!”

²² Everyone spoke well of him and was amazed by the gracious words that came from his lips. “How can this be?” they asked. “Isn’t this Joseph’s son?”

HOPENOTE

The Season of Favor

The Spirit of the LORD is upon me, for he has anointed me to bring Good News to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim that captives will be released, that the blind will see, that the oppressed will be set free, and that the time of the LORD's favor has come (Luke 4:18-19).

Jesus said, "The Spirit of the Lord is on Me to help the poor, to comfort the hurting, and to declare the year of God's favor." Up until that time, there had been years of famine, years of fighting, and years of judgment. But God was saying, "This is the season of My favor." He announced it to people just like I'm announcing it to you. But do you know not everyone received it? Some people thought, "Oh, I've been through too much. I'll never get well. I'll never get out of debt. I'll never accomplish my dreams." You know what happened? They missed their season of favor. Don't let that be you!

You may feel like you've been rowing upstream. Life's been a constant struggle, and all kinds of things have come against you. But God is saying, "Things are about to start shifting in your favor." You're about to enter into an anointing of ease. You may have had disappointments in the past, but God's going to turn it around and open up new doors for you. And for all the unfair things that have happened—people talking about you at work, trying to bring you down—don't get discouraged, because this is your season of vindication. The Scripture says, "The trap the enemy set for you, they will fall in themselves." You don't have to worry. You don't have to fight. Stay on the high road, and watch God pour out His favor on every area of your life!

²³ Then he said, “You will undoubtedly quote me this proverb: ‘Physician, heal yourself’—meaning, ‘Do miracles here in your hometown like those you did in Capernaum.’ ²⁴ But I tell you the truth, no prophet is accepted in his own hometown.

²⁵ “Certainly there were many needy widows in Israel in Elijah’s time, when the heavens were closed for three and a half years, and a severe famine devastated the land. ²⁶ Yet Elijah was not sent to any of them. He was sent instead to a foreigner—a widow of Zarephath in the land of Sidon. ²⁷ And there were many lepers in Israel in the time of the prophet Elisha, but the only one healed was Naaman, a Syrian.”

²⁸ When they heard this, the people in the synagogue were furious. ²⁹ Jumping up, they mobbed him and forced him to the edge of the hill on which the town was built. They intended to push him over the cliff, ³⁰ but he passed right through the crowd and went on his way.

Jesus Casts Out a Demon

³¹ Then Jesus went to Capernaum, a town in Galilee, and taught there in the synagogue every Sabbath day. ³² There, too, the people were amazed at his teaching, for he spoke with authority.

³³ Once when he was in the synagogue, a man possessed by a demon—an evil* spirit—began shouting at Jesus, ³⁴ “Go away! Why are you interfering with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!”

³⁵ Jesus cut him short. “Be quiet! Come out of the man,” he ordered. At that, the demon threw the man to the floor as the crowd watched; then it came out of him without hurting him further.

³⁶ Amazed, the people exclaimed, “What authority and power this man’s words possess! Even evil spirits obey him, and they flee at his command!” ³⁷ The news about Jesus spread through every village in the entire region.

Jesus Heals Many People

⁴⁰ As the sun went down that evening, people throughout the village brought sick family members to Jesus. No matter what their diseases were, the touch of his hand healed every one. ⁴¹ Many were possessed by demons; and the demons came out at his command, shouting, “You are the Son of God!” But because they knew he was the Messiah, he rebuked them and refused to let them speak.

Jesus Continues to Preach

⁴² Early the next morning Jesus went out to an isolated place.

The crowds searched everywhere for him, and when they finally found him, they begged him not to leave them.⁴³ But he replied, “I must preach the Good News of the Kingdom of God in other towns, too, because that is why I was sent.”⁴⁴ So he continued to travel around, preaching in synagogues throughout Judea.*

Chapter 5

The First Disciples

One day as Jesus was preaching on the shore of the Sea of Galilee,* great crowds pressed in on him to listen to the word of God.² He noticed two empty boats at the water’s edge, for the fishermen had left them and were washing their nets.³ Stepping into one of the boats, Jesus asked Simon,* its owner, to push it out into the water. So he sat in the boat and taught the crowds from there.

⁴ When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, “Now go out where it is deeper, and let down your nets to catch some fish.”

⁵ “Master,” Simon replied, “we worked hard all last night and didn’t catch a thing. But if you say so, I’ll let the nets down again.”⁶ And this time their nets were so full of fish they began to tear! ⁷ A shout for help brought their partners in the other boat, and soon both boats were filled with fish and on the verge of sinking.

⁸ When Simon Peter realized what had happened, he fell to his knees before Jesus and said, “Oh, Lord, please leave me—

I'm too much of a sinner to be around you.”⁹ For he was awestruck by the number of fish they had caught, as were the others with him.¹⁰ His partners, James and John, the sons of Zebedee, were also amazed.

HOPENOTE

One More Time

When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, “Now go out where it is deeper, and let down your nets to catch some fish” (Luke 5:4).

Several times in Peter's life, Jesus asked him to go the extra mile, to toss his fishing net over the other side of the boat—one more time. And these fishing nets weren't small. They weren't easy to move from side to side. They were cumbersome and very heavy. Peter was reluctant to try again; after all, they just spent a whole night of fruitless fishing. He had good reason to think that one more time was a waste of time. But he did it anyway because Jesus asked him to, and the results were amazing.

It's easy to get tired and discouraged when you've tried and tried and aren't seeing the results you had hoped for. But, when you hear the voice of the Master deep down inside saying, “Try it again,” know that things are about to change. I know it may be hard. It may not make sense. You may be tired, but that “one more time” can be the breakthrough you’ve been waiting for! That relationship where forgiving “one more time” doesn’t seem like it will make a difference, can suddenly be turned around. That presentation of your dream “one more time” after a long line of disappointments can suddenly swing the door of opportunity wide open. When everything and everyone else says it’s time to give up, that’s when it’s time to go with God. When you obey Him, He’ll take the impossible and turn it into a miracle. You can trust that God is ordering your steps. He’s taking you down a path of victory and increase. Just like Peter, you’ll be amazed what will happen when you follow His commands, just one more time!

Jesus replied to Simon, “Don’t be afraid! From now on you’ll be fishing for people!” ¹¹ And as soon as they landed, they left everything and followed Jesus.

¹² In one of the villages, Jesus met a man with an advanced case of leprosy. When the man saw Jesus, he bowed with his face to the ground, begging to be healed. “Lord,” he said, “if you are willing, you can heal me and make me clean.”

¹³ Jesus reached out and touched him. “I am willing,” he said. “Be healed!” And instantly the leprosy disappeared. ¹⁴ Then Jesus instructed him not to tell anyone what had happened. He said, “Go to the priest and let him examine you.

Take along the offering required in the law of Moses for those who have been healed of leprosy.* This will be a public testimony that you have been cleansed.”

¹⁵ But despite Jesus’ instructions, the report of his power spread even faster, and vast crowds came to hear him preach and to be healed of their diseases. ¹⁶ But Jesus often withdrew to the wilderness for prayer.

Jesus Heals a Paralyzed Man

¹⁷ One day while Jesus was teaching, some Pharisees and teachers of religious law were sitting nearby. (It seemed that these men showed up from every village in all Galilee and Judea, as well as from Jerusalem.) And the Lord’s healing power was strongly with Jesus.

²² Jesus knew what they were thinking, so he asked them, “Why do you question this in your hearts? ²³ Is it easier to say ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or ‘Stand up and walk’? ²⁴ So I will prove to you that the Son of Man has the authority on earth to forgive sins.” Then Jesus turned to the paralyzed man and said, “Stand up, pick up your mat, and go home!”

²⁵ And immediately, as everyone watched, the man jumped up, picked up his mat, and went home praising God. ²⁶ Everyone was gripped with great wonder and awe, and they praised God, exclaiming, “We have seen amazing things today!”

Jesus Calls Levi (Matthew)

³¹ Jesus answered them, “Healthy people don’t need a doctor—sick people do. ³² I have come to call not those who think they are righteous, but those who know they are sinners and need to repent.”

A Discussion about Fasting

³³ One day some people said to Jesus, “John the Baptist’s disciples fast and pray regularly, and so do the disciples of the Pharisees. Why are your disciples always eating and drinking?”

34 Jesus responded, “Do wedding guests fast while celebrating with the groom? Of course not. 35 But someday the groom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast.”

36 Then Jesus gave them this illustration: “No one tears a piece of cloth from a new garment and uses it to patch an old garment. For then the new garment would be ruined, and the new patch wouldn’t even match the old garment.

37 “And no one puts new wine into old wineskins. For the new wine would burst the wineskins, spilling the wine and ruining the skins. 38 New wine must be stored in new wineskins. 39 But no one who drinks the old wine seems to want the new wine. ‘The old is just fine,’ they say.”

Chapter 6

A Discussion about the Sabbath

One Sabbath day as Jesus was walking through some grainfields, his disciples broke off heads of grain, rubbed off the husks in their hands, and ate the grain.² But some Pharisees said, “Why are you breaking the law by harvesting grain on the Sabbath?”

³ Jesus replied, “Haven’t you read in the Scriptures what David did when he and his companions were hungry? ⁴ He went into the house of God and broke the law by eating the sacred loaves of bread that only the priests can eat. He also gave some to his companions.” ⁵ And Jesus added, “The Son of Man* is Lord, even over the Sabbath.”

⁸ But Jesus knew their thoughts. He said to the man with the deformed hand, "Come and stand in front of everyone." So the man came forward. ⁹ Then Jesus said to his critics, "I have a question for you. Does the law permit good deeds on the Sabbath, or is it a day for doing evil? Is this a day to save life or to destroy it?"

¹⁰ He looked around at them one by one and then said to the man, "Hold out your hand." So the man held out his hand, and it was restored! ¹¹ At this, the enemies of Jesus were wild with rage and began to discuss what to do with him.

Jesus Chooses the Twelve Apostles

¹² One day soon afterward Jesus went up on a mountain to pray, and he prayed to God all night. ¹³ At daybreak he called together all of his disciples and chose twelve of them to be apostles. Here are their names:

¹⁴ Simon (whom he named Peter),

Andrew (Peter's brother),

James,

John,

Philip,

Bartholomew,

¹⁵ Matthew,

Thomas,
James (son of Alphaeus),
Simon (who was called the zealot),
¹⁶ Judas (son of James),
Judas Iscariot (who later betrayed him).

Crowds Follow Jesus

¹⁷ When they came down from the mountain, the disciples stood with Jesus on a large, level area, surrounded by many of his followers and by the crowds. There were people from all over Judea and from Jerusalem and from as far north as the seacoasts of Tyre and Sidon. ¹⁸ They had come to hear him and to be healed of their diseases; and those troubled by evil* spirits were healed. ¹⁹ Everyone tried to touch him, because healing power went out from him, and he healed everyone.

The Beatitudes

²⁰ Then Jesus turned to his disciples and said,

“God blesses you who are poor, for the Kingdom of God is yours.

²¹ God blesses you who are hungry now, for you will be satisfied.

God blesses you who weep now, for in due time you will laugh.

²² What blessings await you when people hate you and exclude you and mock you and curse you as evil because you follow the Son of Man. ²³ When that happens, be happy! Yes, leap for joy! For a great reward awaits you in heaven. And remember, their ancestors treated the ancient prophets that same way.

Sorrows Foretold

- ²⁴ “What sorrow awaits you who are rich, for you have your only happiness now.
- ²⁵ What sorrow awaits you who are fat and prosperous now, for a time of awful hunger awaits you.
- What sorrow awaits you who laugh now, for your laughing will turn to mourning and sorrow.
- ²⁶ What sorrow awaits you who are praised by the crowds, for their ancestors also praised false prophets.

Love for Enemies

²⁷ “But to you who are willing to listen, I say, love your enemies! Do good to those who hate you. ²⁸ Bless those who curse you. Pray for those who hurt you. ²⁹ If someone slaps you on one cheek, offer the other cheek also. If someone demands your coat, offer your shirt also. ³⁰ Give to anyone who asks; and when things are taken away from you, don’t try to get them back. ³¹ Do to others as you would like them to do to you.

HOPENOTE

Freedom through Forgiveness

Do not judge others, and you will not be judged. Do not condemn others, or it will all come back against you. Forgive others, and you will be forgiven (Luke 6:37).

Did you know that the ability to forgive others is a gift from God? The Bible tells us that if we don't forgive others, we cannot be forgiven. Unforgiveness blocks God's ability to work in your life. When you choose to forgive, you are choosing God's way and opening the door for Him to heal you. Forgiveness does not mean that what the other person did was right or even that you have to have a relationship with that person. Forgiveness is simply releasing the debt someone owes you so that God can release the debt you owe Him. Forgiveness removes the bitterness, anger, and resentment that block God's blessing and increase in your life.

Ask the Lord to search your heart and show you if there is any unforgiveness blocking His blessing in your life. Remember, forgiveness is a choice. Ask God to show you more about this gift of forgiveness so that you can walk in the freedom and blessing He has for you today.

32 "If you love only those who love you, why should you get credit for that? Even sinners love those who love them! 33 And if you do good only to those who do good to you, why should you get credit? Even sinners do that much! 34 And if you lend money only to those who can repay you, why should you get credit? Even sinners will lend to other sinners for a full return.

³⁵ “Love your enemies! Do good to them. Lend to them without expecting to be repaid. Then your reward from heaven will be very great, and you will truly be acting as children of the Most High, for he is kind to those who are unthankful and wicked. ³⁶ You must be compassionate, just as your Father is compassionate.

Do Not Judge Others

³⁷ “Do not judge others, and you will not be judged. Do not condemn others, or it will all come back against you. Forgive others, and you will be forgiven. ³⁸ Give, and you will receive. Your gift will return to you in full—pressed down, shaken together to make room for more, running over, and poured into your lap. The amount you give will determine the amount you get back.*”

⁴¹ “And why worry about a speck in your friend’s eye* when you have a log in your own? ⁴² How can you think of saying, ‘Friend,* let me help you get rid of that speck in your eye,’ when you can’t see past the log in your own eye? Hypocrite! First get rid of the log in your own eye; then you will see well enough to deal with the speck in your friend’s eye.

The Tree and Its Fruit

⁴³ “A good tree can’t produce bad fruit, and a bad tree can’t produce good fruit. ⁴⁴ A tree is identified by its fruit. Figs are never gathered from thornbushes, and grapes are not picked from bramble bushes. ⁴⁵ A good person produces good things from the treasury of a good heart, and an evil person produces evil things from the treasury of an evil heart. What you say flows from what is in your heart.

Building on a Solid Foundation

⁴⁶ “So why do you keep calling me ‘Lord, Lord!’ when you don’t do what I say? ⁴⁷ I will show you what it’s like when someone comes to me, listens to my teaching, and then follows it. ⁴⁸ It is like a person building a house who digs deep and lays the foundation on solid rock. When the floodwaters rise and break against that house, it stands firm because it is well built. ⁴⁹ But anyone who hears and doesn’t obey is like a person who builds a house without a foundation. When the floods sweep down against that house, it will collapse into a heap of ruins.”

HOPENOTE

An Overflow Mentality

Give, and you will receive. Your gift will return to you in full—pressed down, shaken together to make room for more, running over, and poured into your lap. The amount you give will determine the amount you get back (Luke 6:38).

God is a God of abundance! He wants to pour out His abundance on you until you are so full that you are running over with God's goodness. And notice how this verse starts. It says, "Give, and it will be given to you." Your giving sets the blessing of God into motion in your life. Giving is like a seed. When you plant an apple seed, it doesn't just grow a single fruit. That one seed grows a tree that produces an abundance of apples. That's what happens when you obey God in your giving. You get an abundant harvest in return. And when the blessing is "running over," you have so much that you want to give more, and the cycle just keeps repeating itself! Is there something the Lord is telling you to give today? It could be financial, material, or even your gifts and service to others.

What do you have in your hand that you can use to bless someone else? Take a step today and set the blessing of God into motion in your life. Open the door for His blessing to be running over in every area of your life today!

The Faith of a Roman Officer

When Jesus had finished saying all this to the people, he returned to Capernaum.² At that time the highly valued slave of a Roman officer* was sick and near death.³ When the officer heard about Jesus, he sent some respected Jewish elders to ask him to come and heal his slave.⁴ So they earnestly begged Jesus to help the man. “If anyone deserves your help, he does,” they said,⁵ “for he loves the Jewish people and even built a synagogue for us.”

⁶ So Jesus went with them. But just before they arrived at the house, the officer sent some friends to say, “Lord, don’t trouble yourself by coming to my home, for I am not worthy of such an honor.”⁷ I am not even worthy to come and meet you. Just say the word from where you are, and my servant will be healed.⁸ I know this because I am under the authority of my superior officers, and I have authority over my soldiers. I only need to say, ‘Go,’ and they go, or ‘Come,’ and they come. And if I say to my slaves, ‘Do this,’ they do it.”

⁹ When Jesus heard this, he was amazed. Turning to the crowd that was following him, he said, “I tell you, I haven’t seen faith like this in all Israel!”¹⁰ And when the officer’s friends returned to his house, they found the slave completely healed.

Jesus Raises a Widow’s Son

¹¹ Soon afterward Jesus went with his disciples to the village of Nain, and a large crowd followed him.¹² A funeral procession was coming out as he approached the village gate. The young man who had died was a widow’s only son, and a large crowd from the village was with her. ¹³ When the Lord saw her, his heart overflowed with compassion. “Don’t cry!” he said. ¹⁴ Then he walked over to the coffin and touched it, and the bearers stopped. “Young man,” he said, “I tell you, get up.” ¹⁵ Then the dead boy sat up and began to talk! And Jesus gave him back to his mother.

¹⁶ Great fear swept the crowd, and they praised God, saying, “A mighty prophet has risen among us,” and “God has visited his people today.” ¹⁷ And the news about Jesus spread throughout Judea and the surrounding countryside.

Jesus and John the Baptist

¹⁸ The disciples of John the Baptist told John about everything Jesus was doing. So John called for two of his disciples, ¹⁹ and he sent them to the Lord to ask him, “Are you the Messiah we’ve been expecting,* or should we keep looking for someone else?”

²⁰ John’s two disciples found Jesus and said to him, “John the Baptist sent us to ask, ‘Are you the Messiah we’ve been expecting, or should we keep looking for someone else?’”

24 After John's disciples left, Jesus began talking about him to the crowds. "What kind of man did you go into the wilderness to see? Was he a weak reed, swayed by every breath of wind? 25 Or were you expecting to see a man dressed in expensive clothes? No, people who wear beautiful clothes and live in luxury are found in palaces. 26 Were you looking for a prophet? Yes, and he is more than a prophet. 27 John is the man to whom the Scriptures refer when they say,

'Look, I am sending my messenger ahead of you,
and he will prepare your way before you.'*

28 I tell you, of all who have ever lived, none is greater than John. Yet even the least person in the Kingdom of God is greater than he is!"

29 When they heard this, all the people—even the tax collectors—agreed that God's way was right,* for they had been baptized by John. 30 But the Pharisees and experts in religious law rejected God's plan for them, for they had refused John's baptism.

31 "To what can I compare the people of this generation?" Jesus asked. "How can I describe them? 32 They are like children playing a game in the public square. They complain to their friends,

'We played wedding songs, and you didn't dance,
so we played funeral songs,
and you didn't weep.'

³³ For John the Baptist didn't spend his time eating bread or drinking wine, and you say, 'He's possessed by a demon.' ³⁴ The Son of Man,* on the other hand, feasts and drinks, and you say, 'He's a glutton and a drunkard, and a friend of tax collectors and other sinners!' ³⁵ But wisdom is shown to be right by the lives of those who follow it.*"

Jesus Anointed by a Sinful Woman

³⁶ One of the Pharisees asked Jesus to have dinner with him, so Jesus went to his home and sat down to eat.* ³⁷ When a certain immoral woman from that city heard he was eating there, she brought a beautiful alabaster jar filled with expensive perfume. ³⁸ Then she knelt behind him at his feet, weeping. Her tears fell on his feet, and she wiped them off with her hair. Then she kept kissing his feet and putting perfume on them.

³⁹ When the Pharisee who had invited him saw this, he said to himself, "If this man were a prophet, he would know what kind of woman is touching him. She's a sinner!"

HOPEFORTODAY

A Right Heart

I tell you, her sins—and they are many—have been forgiven, so she has shown me much love. But a person who is forgiven little shows only little love (Luke 7:47).

I remember vividly a little episode that involved my favorite car and my then three-year-old son, Jonathan. I had spent several hours washing then buffing the paint to make the finish look like glass. I could see my reflection. A few hours later, little Jonathan took my dirtiest towel, the one I use for my tires, and “cleaned” my whole car with that gritty, grimy rag. He was so proud of helping his Dad, but I felt sick to my stomach when I saw it. I just said, “Oh, Jonathan. Thank you so much.” Then I got the hose, started over, and cleaned up the mess. What’s my point? Jonathan’s heart was right. He thought he was helping by doing me a favor. I’ve asked him since not to do me any more “favors.” But even though I was frustrated, I didn’t get on to him or say, “Jonathan, why did you do that?” No, I just cleaned up the mess and didn’t say a word about it.

I wonder how many times God does that for us? We make a mess, we make some poor choices, but because our heart is right, God causes everything to work out for us. He doesn’t say anything about it. What would have been a big mess, God in His mercy cleans up and causes to work out for our good. That’s the way God is. When your heart is right, He’ll clean up the mess and not even condemn you for it.

The story found here in Luke chapter seven is the perfect example of how God looks at our heart and not our mistakes. When Mary showed up, everyone at the dinner knew that she lived in the “red light district,” and they knew her past. She had a jar of expensive perfume, and she poured it on Jesus’ feet, washing them and kissing them. Then she dried them with her hair.

The religious leaders began to complain about her unworthiness. But Jesus answered them back with a story.

Mary had had a rough past, but because her heart was right, she didn’t have to have a rough future. God had a plan. Here she had spent years making wrong choices, going down the wrong path. Most people in her shoes wouldn’t dare approach God. But somehow, Mary understood the mercy of God. She understood that her present circumstances didn’t need to be her permanent destiny. She knew she could come to Jesus just as she was, and that day she left there a changed woman.

God is not nearly as concerned about your past as He is your future. Where you’ve been is not nearly as important as where you’re going. If God can cause Mary to fulfill her destiny and play such an important role in history, surely God can make miracles out of your mistakes, too. With a right heart, He’ll bring you out of your mess and cause you to rise up higher into the destiny He has for you!

40 Then Jesus answered his thoughts. “Simon,” he said to the Pharisee, “I have something to say to you.”

“Go ahead, Teacher,” Simon replied.

41 Then Jesus told him this story: “A man loaned money to two people—500 pieces of silver* to one and 50 pieces to the other. 42 But neither of them could repay him, so he kindly forgave them both, canceling their debts. Who do you suppose loved him more after that?”

43 Simon answered, “I suppose the one for whom he canceled the larger debt.”

“That’s right,” Jesus said. 44 Then he turned to the woman and said to Simon, “Look at this woman kneeling here. When I entered your home, you didn’t offer me water to wash the dust from my feet, but she has washed them with her tears and wiped them with her hair. 45 You didn’t greet me with a kiss, but from the time I first came in, she has not stopped kissing my feet. 46 You neglected the courtesy of olive oil to anoint my head, but she has anointed my feet with rare perfume.

47 “I tell you, her sins—and they are many—have been forgiven, so she has shown me much love. But a person who is forgiven little shows only little love.” 48 Then Jesus said to the woman, “Your sins are forgiven.”

49 The men at the table said among themselves, “Who is this man, that he goes around forgiving sins?”

50 And Jesus said to the woman, “Your faith has saved you; go in peace.”

Chapter 8

Women Who Followed Jesus

Soon afterward Jesus began a tour of the nearby towns and villages, preaching and announcing the Good News about the Kingdom of God. He took his twelve disciples with him,² along with some women who had been cured of evil spirits and diseases. Among them were Mary Magdalene, from whom he had cast out seven demons;³ Joanna, the wife of Chuza, Herod's business manager; Susanna; and many others who were contributing from their own resources to support Jesus and his disciples.

Parable of the Farmer Scattering Seed

⁴ One day Jesus told a story in the form of a parable to a large crowd that had gathered from many towns to hear him:⁵ “A farmer went out to plant his seed. As he scattered it across his field, some seed fell on a footpath, where it was stepped on, and the birds ate it.⁶ Other seed fell among rocks. It began to grow, but the plant soon wilted and died for lack of moisture.⁷ Other seed fell among thorns that grew up with it and choked out the tender plants.⁸ Still other seed fell on fertile soil. This seed grew and produced a crop that was a hundred times as much as had been planted!” When he had said this, he called out, “Anyone with ears to hear should listen and understand.”

⁹ His disciples asked him what this parable meant.¹⁰ He replied, “You are permitted to understand the secrets* of the Kingdom of God. But I use parables to teach the others so that the Scriptures might be fulfilled:

When they hear, they won’t understand.’* ”

¹¹ “This is the meaning of the parable: The seed is God’s word. ¹² The seeds that fell on the footpath represent those who hear the message, only to have the devil come and take it away from their hearts and prevent them from believing and being saved. ¹³ The seeds on the rocky soil represent those who hear the message and receive it with joy. But since they don’t have deep roots, they believe for a while, then they fall away when they face temptation. ¹⁴ The seeds that fell among the thorns represent those who hear the message, but all too quickly the message is crowded out by the cares and riches and pleasures of this life. And so they never grow into maturity. ¹⁵ And the seeds that fell on the good soil represent honest, good-hearted people who hear God’s word, cling to it, and patiently produce a huge harvest.

¹⁶ “No one lights a lamp and then covers it with a bowl or hides it under a bed. A lamp is placed on a stand, where its light can be seen by all who enter the house. ¹⁷ For all that is secret will eventually be brought into the open, and everything that is concealed will be brought to light and made known to all.

¹⁸ “So pay attention to how you hear. To those who listen to my teaching, more understanding will be given. But for those who are not listening, even what they think they understand will be taken away from them.”

The True Family of Jesus

¹⁹ Then Jesus’ mother and brothers came to see him, but they couldn't get to him because of the crowd.²⁰ Someone told Jesus, "Your mother and your brothers are outside, and they want to see you."

²¹ Jesus replied, "My mother and my brothers are all those who hear God's word and obey it."

Jesus Calms the Storm

²² One day Jesus said to his disciples, "Let's cross to the other side of the lake." So they got into a boat and started out. ²³ As they sailed across, Jesus settled down for a nap. But soon a fierce storm came down on the lake. The boat was filling with water, and they were in real danger.

²⁴ The disciples went and woke him up, shouting, "Master, Master, we're going to drown!"

When Jesus woke up, he rebuked the wind and the raging waves. Suddenly the storm stopped and all was calm. ²⁵ Then he asked them, "Where is your faith?"

The disciples were terrified and amazed. "Who is this man?" they asked each other. "When he gives a command, even the wind and waves obey him!"

Jesus Heals a Demon-Possessed Man

²⁶ So they arrived in the region of the Gerasenes,* across the lake from Galilee. ²⁷ As Jesus was climbing out of the boat, a man who was possessed by demons came out to meet him. For a long time he had been homeless and naked, living in a cemetery outside the town.

²⁸ As soon as he saw Jesus, he shrieked and fell down in front of him. Then he screamed, “Why are you interfering with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? Please, I beg you, don’t torture me!”²⁹ For Jesus had already commanded the evil* spirit to come out of him. This spirit had often taken control of the man. Even when he was placed under guard and put in chains and shackles, he simply broke them and rushed out into the wilderness, completely under the demon’s power.

“Legion,” he replied, for he was filled with many demons.³¹ The demons kept begging Jesus not to send them into the bottomless pit.*

HOPENOTE

Go and Tell

“No, go back to your family, and tell them everything God has done for you.” So he went all through the town proclaiming the great things Jesus had done for him (Luke 8:39).

It’s not easy to go home and tell people you have changed. People who have known you as a difficult person may not be ready to believe that God has done a special work in your heart and life. Jesus asked this man to follow Him by going home. But to him, that was a harder task than joining Jesus in the boat.

Jesus didn't promise him that everyone would be impressed by his new life. He didn't promise him that people would believe him or accept him back. After all, he had quite a reputation in the area. But he did what Jesus asked and traveled throughout the area, "proclaiming the great things Jesus had done for him."

Remember, when Jesus changes your life, talk about Him. Live differently. "Let your good deeds shine out for all to see, so that everyone will praise your heavenly Father" (Matthew 5:16). It will take time, and it might be difficult at times, but don't give up! God always rewards the faithful, so go tell what He has done for you!

³² There happened to be a large herd of pigs feeding on the hillside nearby, and the demons begged him to let them enter into the pigs.

So Jesus gave them permission. ³³ Then the demons came out of the man and entered the pigs, and the entire herd plunged down the steep hillside into the lake and drowned.

³⁴ When the herdsmen saw it, they fled to the nearby town and the surrounding countryside, spreading the news as they ran. ³⁵ People rushed out to see what had happened. A crowd soon gathered around Jesus, and they saw the man who had been freed from the demons. He was sitting at Jesus' feet, fully clothed and perfectly sane, and they were all afraid. ³⁶ Then those who had seen what happened told the others how the demon-possessed man had been healed. ³⁷ And all the people in the region of the Gerasenes begged Jesus to go away and leave them alone, for a great wave of fear swept over them.

So Jesus returned to the boat and left, crossing back to the other side of the lake. ³⁸ The man who had been freed from the demons begged to go with him. But Jesus sent him home, saying, ³⁹ “No, go back to your family, and tell them everything God has done for you.” So he went all through the town proclaiming the great things Jesus had done for him.

Jesus Heals in Response to Faith

⁴⁰ On the other side of the lake the crowds welcomed Jesus, because they had been waiting for him. ⁴¹ Then a man named Jairus, a leader of the local synagogue, came and fell at Jesus’ feet, pleading with him to come home with him. ⁴² His only daughter, * who was about twelve years old, was dying.

As Jesus went with him, he was surrounded by the crowds. ⁴³ A woman in the crowd had suffered for twelve years with constant bleeding, * and she could find no cure. ⁴⁴ Coming up behind Jesus, she touched the fringe of his robe. Immediately, the bleeding stopped.

Everyone denied it, and Peter said, “Master, this whole crowd is pressing up against you.”

⁴⁶ But Jesus said, “Someone deliberately touched me, for I felt healing power go out from me.” ⁴⁷ When the woman realized that she could not stay hidden, she began to tremble and fell to her knees in front of him. The whole crowd heard her explain why she had touched him and that she had been immediately healed. ⁴⁸ “Daughter,” he said to her, “your faith has made you well. Go in peace.”

⁴⁹ While he was still speaking to her, a messenger arrived from the home of Jairus, the leader of the synagogue. He told him, “Your daughter is dead. There’s no use troubling the Teacher now.”

⁵⁰ But when Jesus heard what had happened, he said to Jairus, “Don’t be afraid. Just have faith, and she will be healed.”

⁵¹ When they arrived at the house, Jesus wouldn’t let anyone go in with him except Peter, John, James, and the little girl’s father and mother. ⁵² The house was filled with people weeping and wailing, but he said, “Stop the weeping! She isn’t dead; she’s only asleep.”

⁵³ But the crowd laughed at him because they all knew she had died. ⁵⁴ Then Jesus took her by the hand and said in a loud voice, “My child, get up!” ⁵⁵ And at that moment her life* returned, and she immediately stood up! Then Jesus told them to give her something to eat. ⁵⁶ Her parents were overwhelmed, but Jesus insisted that they not tell anyone what had happened.

Chapter 9

Jesus Sends Out the Twelve Disciples

One day Jesus called together his twelve disciples* and gave them power and authority to cast out all demons and to heal all diseases. ² Then he sent them out to tell everyone about the Kingdom of God and to heal the sick. ³ “Take nothing for your journey,” he instructed them. “Don’t take a walking stick, a traveler’s bag, food, money, * or even a change of clothes. ⁴ Wherever you go, stay in the same house until you leave town. ⁵ And if a town refuses to welcome you, shake its dust from your feet as you leave to show that you have abandoned those people to their fate.”

⁶ So they began their circuit of the villages, preaching the Good News and healing the sick.

Herod’s Confusion

⁷ When Herod Antipas, the ruler of Galilee, * heard about everything Jesus was doing, he was puzzled. Some were saying that John the Baptist had been raised from the dead. ⁸ Others thought Jesus was Elijah or one of the other prophets risen from the dead.

⁹ “I beheaded John,” Herod said, “so who is this man about whom I hear such stories?” And he kept trying to see him.

Jesus Feeds Five Thousand

¹⁰ When the apostles returned, they told Jesus everything they had done. Then he slipped quietly away with them toward the town of Bethsaida. ¹¹ But the crowds found out where he was going, and they followed him. He welcomed them and taught them about the Kingdom of God, and he healed those who were sick.

¹² Late in the afternoon the twelve disciples came to him and said, “Send the crowds away to the nearby villages and farms, so they can find food and lodging for the night. There is nothing to eat here in this remote place.”

¹³ But Jesus said, “You feed them.”

“But we have only five loaves of bread and two fish,” they answered. “Or are you expecting us to go and buy enough food for this whole crowd?” ¹⁴ For there were about 5,000 men there.

Jesus replied, “Tell them to sit down in groups of about fifty each.” ¹⁵ So the people all sat down. ¹⁶ Jesus took the five loaves and two fish, looked up toward heaven, and blessed them. Then, breaking the loaves into pieces, he kept giving the bread and fish to the disciples so they could distribute it to the people. ¹⁷ They all ate as much as they wanted, and afterward, the disciples picked up twelve baskets of leftovers!

Peter’s Declaration about Jesus

¹⁸ One day Jesus left the crowds to pray alone. Only his disciples were with him, and he asked them, “Who do people say I am?”

¹⁹ “Well,” they replied, “some say John the Baptist, some say Elijah, and others say you are one of the other ancient prophets risen from the dead.”

²⁰ Then he asked them, “But who do you say I am?”

Peter replied, “You are the Messiah* sent from God!”

Jesus Predicts His Death

²¹ Jesus warned his disciples not to tell anyone who he was. ²² “The Son of Man* must suffer many terrible things,” he said.

“He will be rejected by the elders, the leading priests, and the teachers of religious law. He will be killed, but on the third day he will be raised from the dead.”

²³ Then he said to the crowd, “If any of you wants to be my follower, you must turn from your selfish ways, take up your cross daily, and follow me. ²⁴ If you try to hang on to your life, you will lose it. But if you give up your life for my sake, you will save it. ²⁵ And what do you benefit if you gain the whole world but are yourself lost or destroyed? ²⁶ If anyone is ashamed of me and my message, the Son of Man will be ashamed of that person when he returns in his glory and in the glory of the Father and the holy angels. ²⁷ I tell you the truth, some standing here right now will not die before they see the Kingdom of God.”

The Transfiguration

²⁸ About eight days later Jesus took Peter, John, and James up on a mountain to pray. ²⁹ And as he was praying, the appearance of his face was transformed, and his clothes became dazzling white. ³⁰ Suddenly, two men, Moses and Elijah, appeared and began talking with Jesus. ³¹ They were glorious to see. And they were speaking about his exodus from this world, which was about to be fulfilled in Jerusalem.

³² Peter and the others had fallen asleep. When they woke up, they saw Jesus’ glory and the two men standing with him. ³³ As Moses and Elijah were starting to leave, Peter, not even knowing what he was saying, blurted out, “Master, it’s wonderful for us to be here! Let’s make three shelters as memorials*—one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.”

³⁴ But even as he was saying this, a cloud overshadowed them, and terror gripped them as the cloud covered them.

³⁵ Then a voice from the cloud said, “This is my Son, my Chosen One.* Listen to him.” ³⁶ When the voice finished, Jesus was there alone. They didn’t tell anyone at that time what they had seen.

Jesus Heals a Demon-Possessed Boy

³⁷ The next day, after they had come down the mountain, a large crowd met Jesus. ³⁸ A man in the crowd called out to him, “Teacher, I beg you to look at my son, my only child. ³⁹ An evil spirit keeps seizing him, making him scream. It throws him into convulsions so that he foams at the mouth. It batters him and hardly ever leaves him alone. ⁴⁰ I begged your disciples to cast out the spirit, but they couldn’t do it.”

⁴¹ Jesus said, “You faithless and corrupt people! How long must I be with you and put up with you?” Then he said to the man, “Bring your son here.”

⁴² As the boy came forward, the demon knocked him to the ground and threw him into a violent convulsion. But Jesus rebuked the evil* spirit and healed the boy. Then he gave him back to his father. ⁴³ Awe gripped the people as they saw this majestic display of God’s power.

Jesus Again Predicts His Death

While everyone was marveling at everything he was doing, Jesus said to his disciples, ⁴⁴ “Listen to me and remember what I say. The Son of Man is going to be betrayed into the hands of his enemies.”⁴⁵ But they didn’t know what he meant. Its significance was hidden from them, so they couldn’t understand it, and they were afraid to ask him about it.

The Greatest in the Kingdom

⁴⁶ Then his disciples began arguing about which of them was the greatest. ⁴⁷ But Jesus knew their thoughts, so he brought a little child to his side. ⁴⁸ Then he said to them, “Anyone who welcomes a little child like this on my behalf* welcomes me, and anyone who welcomes me also welcomes my Father who sent me. Whoever is the least among you is the greatest.”

Using the Name of Jesus

⁴⁹ John said to Jesus, “Master, we saw someone using your name to cast out demons, but we told him to stop because he isn’t in our group.”

⁵⁰ But Jesus said, “Don’t stop him! Anyone who is not against you is for you.”

Opposition from Samaritans

⁵¹ As the time drew near for him to ascend to heaven, Jesus resolutely set out for Jerusalem. ⁵² He sent messengers ahead to a Samaritan village to prepare for his arrival. ⁵³ But the people of the village did not welcome Jesus because he was on his way to Jerusalem. ⁵⁴ When James and John saw this, they said to Jesus, “Lord, should we call down fire from heaven to burn them up*?” ⁵⁵ But Jesus turned and rebuked them.* ⁵⁶ So they went on to another village.

The Cost of Following Jesus

57 As they were walking along, someone said to Jesus, “I will follow you wherever you go.”

58 But Jesus replied, “Foxes have dens to live in, and birds have nests, but the Son of Man has no place even to lay his head.”

HOPENOTE

Set Your Face

As the time drew near for him to ascend to heaven, Jesus resolutely set out for Jerusalem (Luke 9:51).

Halfway through Luke, we read that Jesus began to set His face toward Jerusalem. This phrase describes Jesus' resolute journey toward the Cross, and it appears several times in the next chapters. Jesus knew where He was going and what was going to happen. He began to focus Himself way in advance. He kept His eye on the prize and experienced the victory.

Where is your focus in life? Are you determined to see your victory? When the hard times come, where do you “set your face”? Oftentimes, people set their focus on the problem, worrying and trying to find the solution. But when you set your face on God, He is the solution! When your eyes are fixed or set on something, you won't be easily distracted. And where your focus is, your actions will follow. Decide today to turn your eyes upon Him. Set your focus and don't look back. As you do, you'll move forward in the victory He has prepared for you!

59 He said to another person, “Come, follow me.”

The man agreed, but he said, “Lord, first let me return home and bury my father.”

60 But Jesus told him, “Let the spiritually dead bury their own dead! * Your duty is to go and preach about the Kingdom of God.”

61 Another said, “Yes, Lord, I will follow you, but first let me say good-bye to my family.”

62 But Jesus told him, “Anyone who puts a hand to the plow and then looks back is not fit for the Kingdom of God.”

Chapter 10

Jesus Sends Out His Disciples

The Lord now chose seventy-two* other disciples and sent them ahead in pairs to all the towns and places he planned to visit. ² These were his instructions to them: “The harvest is great, but the workers are few. So pray to the Lord who is in charge of the harvest; ask him to send more workers into his fields. ³ Now go, and remember that I am sending you out as lambs among wolves. ⁴ Don't take any money with you, nor a traveler's bag, nor an extra pair of sandals. And don't stop to greet anyone on the road.

⁵ “Whenever you enter someone’s home, first say, ‘May God’s peace be on this house.’ ⁶ If those who live there are peaceful, the blessing will stand; if they are not, the blessing will return to you. ⁷ Don’t move around from home to home. Stay in one place, eating and drinking what they provide. Don’t hesitate to accept hospitality, because those who work deserve their pay.

⁸ “If you enter a town and it welcomes you, eat whatever is set before you. ⁹ Heal the sick, and tell them, ‘The Kingdom of God is near you now.’ ¹⁰ But if a town refuses to welcome you, go out into its streets and say, ¹¹ ‘We wipe even the dust of your town from our feet to show that we have abandoned you to your fate. And know this—the Kingdom of God is near!’ ¹² I assure you, even wicked Sodom will be better off than such a town on judgment day.

¹³ “What sorrow awaits you, Korazin and Bethsaida! For if the miracles I did in you had been done in wicked Tyre and Sidon, their people would have repented of their sins long ago, clothing themselves in burlap and throwing ashes on their heads to show their remorse. ¹⁴ Yes, Tyre and Sidon will be better off on judgment day than you. ¹⁵ And you people of Capernaum, will you be honored in heaven? No, you will go down to the place of the dead.*”

¹⁶ Then he said to the disciples, “Anyone who accepts your message is also accepting me. And anyone who rejects you is rejecting me. And anyone who rejects me is rejecting God, who sent me.”

17 When the seventy-two disciples returned, they joyfully reported to him, “Lord, even the demons obey us when we use your name!”

18 “Yes,” he told them, “I saw Satan fall from heaven like lightning! 19 Look, I have given you authority over all the power of the enemy, and you can walk among snakes and scorpions and crush them. Nothing will injure you. 20 But don’t rejoice because evil spirits obey you; rejoice because your names are registered in heaven.”

Jesus’ Prayer of Thanksgiving

21 At that same time Jesus was filled with the joy of the Holy Spirit, and he said, “O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, thank you for hiding these things from those who think themselves wise and clever, and for revealing them to the childlike. Yes, Father, it pleased you to do it this way.

22 “My Father has entrusted everything to me. No one truly knows the Son except the Father, and no one truly knows the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.”

23 Then when they were alone, he turned to the disciples and said, “Blessed are the eyes that see what you have seen. 24 I tell you, many prophets and kings longed to see what you see, but they didn’t see it. And they longed to hear what you hear, but they didn’t hear it.”

The Most Important Commandment

25 One day an expert in religious law stood up to test Jesus by asking him this question: “Teacher, what should I do to inherit eternal life?”

26 Jesus replied, “What does the law of Moses say? How do you read it?”

27 The man answered, “‘You must love the LORD your God with all your heart, all your soul, all your strength, and all your mind.’ And, ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’”*

28 “Right!” Jesus told him. “Do this and you will live!”

29 The man wanted to justify his actions, so he asked Jesus, “And who is my neighbor?”

Parable of the Good Samaritan

30 Jesus replied with a story: “A Jewish man was traveling from Jerusalem down to Jericho, and he was attacked by bandits. They stripped him of his clothes, beat him up, and left him half dead beside the road.

31 “By chance a priest came along. But when he saw the man lying there, he crossed to the other side of the road and passed him by. 32 A Temple assistant * walked over and looked at him lying there, but he also passed by on the other side.

33 “Then a despised Samaritan came along, and when he saw the man, he felt compassion for him. 34 Going over to him, the Samaritan soothed his wounds with olive oil and wine and bandaged them. Then he put the man on his own donkey and took him to an inn, where he took care of him. 35 The next day he handed the innkeeper two silver coins,* telling him, ‘Take care of this man. If his bill runs higher than this, I’ll pay you the next time I’m here.’

Just One Thing

There is only one thing worth being concerned about. Mary has discovered it, and it will not be taken away from her (Luke 10:42).

You can learn a lot from the story of Jesus' visit to the home of Martha and Mary. While Martha busied herself in the kitchen, cooking and cleaning, Mary sat at Jesus' feet, absorbing every word of His teaching. When Martha realized that Mary wasn't coming back in to help her, she marched over, interrupted Jesus, and said, "Lord, this isn't fair. I'm in here doing all the work, and she's doing nothing!" Jesus' reply must have stunned her. He said, "Martha, you're stressed out about so many different things. Only one thing really matters, and Mary has chosen what's best."

In essence, Jesus was telling Martha that she needed to slow down and focus on eternal things. Cleaning the kitchen wasn't going to matter in eternity. Cooking a pie wasn't going to help her get to heaven. But Jesus was in her midst, and focusing on His words was the most important thing. He could easily be saying the same thing to you today! Perhaps you're so busy serving God that you aren't really enjoying the blessing of His presence in your life. Don't confuse being busy with being spiritually productive. Take a moment and truly listen to and enjoy the presence of God. Open His Word and let it soak into your heart like a sponge. Look at your schedule today and choose to slow down a little bit and rest at His feet, just like Mary!

³⁶ “Now which of these three would you say was a neighbor to the man who was attacked by bandits?” Jesus asked.

³⁷ The man replied, “The one who showed him mercy.”

Then Jesus said, “Yes, now go and do the same.”

Jesus Visits Martha and Mary

³⁸ As Jesus and the disciples continued on their way to Jerusalem, they came to a certain village where a woman named Martha welcomed him into her home. ³⁹ Her sister, Mary, sat at the Lord's feet, listening to what he taught. ⁴⁰ But Martha was distracted by the big dinner she was preparing. She came to Jesus and said, “Lord, doesn't it seem unfair to you that my sister just sits here while I do all the work? Tell her to come and help me.”

⁴¹ But the Lord said to her, “My dear Martha, you are worried and upset over all these details! ⁴² There is only one thing worth being concerned about. Mary has discovered it, and it will not be taken away from her.”

Chapter 11

Teaching about Prayer

Once Jesus was in a certain place praying. As he finished, one of his disciples came to him and said, “Lord, teach us to pray, just as John taught his disciples.”

² Jesus said, “This is how you should pray:*

“Father, may your name be kept holy.

May your Kingdom come soon.

³ Give us each day the food we need,*

⁴ and forgive us our sins,

as we forgive those who sin against us.

And don’t let us yield to temptation.*”

⁵ Then, teaching them more about prayer, he used this story: “Suppose you went to a friend’s house at midnight, wanting to borrow three loaves of bread. You say to him, ⁶ ‘A friend of mine has just arrived for a visit, and I have nothing for him to eat.’ ⁷ And suppose he calls out from his bedroom, ‘Don’t bother me. The door is locked for the night, and my family and I are all in bed. I can’t help you.’ ⁸ But I tell you this—though he won’t do it for friendship’s sake, if you keep knocking long enough, he will get up and give you whatever you need because of your shameless persistence.*

⁹ “And so I tell you, keep on asking, and you will receive what you ask for. Keep on seeking, and you will find. Keep on knocking, and the door will be opened to you. ¹⁰ For everyone who asks, receives. Everyone who seeks, finds. And to everyone who knocks, the door will be opened.

¹¹ “You fathers—if your children ask* for a fish, do you give them a snake instead? ¹² Or if they ask for an egg, do you give them a scorpion? Of course not! ¹³ So if you sinful people know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him.”

Jesus and the Prince of Demons

¹⁷ He knew their thoughts, so he said, “Any kingdom divided by civil war is doomed. A family splintered by feuding will fall apart. ¹⁸ You say I am empowered by Satan. But if Satan is divided and fighting against himself, how can his kingdom survive? ¹⁹ And if I am empowered by Satan, what about your own exorcists? They cast out demons, too, so they will condemn you for what you have said. ²⁰ But if I am casting out demons by the power of God,* then the Kingdom of God has arrived among you. ²¹ For when a strong man like Satan is fully armed and guards his palace, his possessions are safe—²² until someone even stronger attacks and overpowers him, strips him of his weapons, and carries off his belongings.

23 “Anyone who isn’t with me opposes me, and anyone who isn’t working with me is actually working against me.

24 “When an evil* spirit leaves a person, it goes into the desert, searching for rest. But when it finds none, it says, ‘I will return to the person I came from.’ 25 So it returns and finds that its former home is all swept and in order. 26 Then the spirit finds seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they all enter the person and live there. And so that person is worse off than before.”

27 As he was speaking, a woman in the crowd called out, “God bless your mother—the womb from which you came, and the breasts that nursed you!”

28 Jesus replied, “But even more blessed are all who hear the word of God and put it into practice.”

The Sign of Jonah

29 As the crowd pressed in on Jesus, he said, “This evil generation keeps asking me to show them a miraculous sign. But the only sign I will give them is the sign of Jonah. 30 What happened to him was a sign to the people of Nineveh that God had sent him. What happens to the Son of Man* will be a sign to these people that he was sent by God.

31 “The queen of Sheba* will stand up against this generation on judgment day and condemn it, for she came from a distant land to hear the wisdom of Solomon. Now someone greater than Solomon is here—but you refuse to listen. 32 The people of Nineveh will also stand up against this generation on judgment day and condemn it, for they repented of their sins at the preaching of Jonah. Now someone greater than Jonah is here—but you refuse to repent.

Receiving the Light

³³ “No one lights a lamp and then hides it or puts it under a basket.* Instead, a lamp is placed on a stand, where its light can be seen by all who enter the house.

³⁴ “Your eye is a lamp that provides light for your body. When your eye is good, your whole body is filled with light. But when it is bad, your body is filled with darkness. ³⁵ Make sure that the light you think you have is not actually darkness. ³⁶ If you are filled with light, with no dark corners, then your whole life will be radiant, as though a floodlight were filling you with light.”

Jesus Criticizes the Religious Leaders

³⁷ As Jesus was speaking, one of the Pharisees invited him home for a meal. So he went in and took his place at the table.*

³⁸ His host was amazed to see that he sat down to eat without first performing the hand-washing ceremony required by Jewish custom. ³⁹ Then the Lord said to him, “You Pharisees are so careful to clean the outside of the cup and the dish, but inside you are filthy—full of greed and wickedness! ⁴⁰ Fools! Didn’t God make the inside as well as the outside? ⁴¹ So clean the inside by giving gifts to the poor, and you will be clean all over.

⁴² “What sorrow awaits you Pharisees! For you are careful to tithe even the tiniest income from your herb gardens,* but you ignore justice and the love of God. You should tithe, yes, but do not neglect the more important things.

43 “What sorrow awaits you Pharisees! For you love to sit in the seats of honor in the synagogues and receive respectful greetings as you walk in the marketplaces. 44 Yes, what sorrow awaits you! For you are like hidden graves in a field. People walk over them without knowing the corruption they are stepping on.”

45 “Teacher,” said an expert in religious law, “you have insulted us, too, in what you just said.”

46 “Yes,” said Jesus, “what sorrow also awaits you experts in religious law! For you crush people with unbearable religious demands, and you never lift a finger to ease the burden. 47 What sorrow awaits you! For you build monuments for the prophets your own ancestors killed long ago. 48 But in fact, you stand as witnesses who agree with what your ancestors did. They killed the prophets, and you join in their crime by building the monuments! 49 This is what God in his wisdom said about you: * ‘I will send prophets and apostles to them, but they will kill some and persecute the others.’

50 “As a result, this generation will be held responsible for the murder of all God’s prophets from the creation of the world —51 from the murder of Abel to the murder of Zechariah, who was killed between the altar and the sanctuary. Yes, it will certainly be charged against this generation.

52 “What sorrow awaits you experts in religious law! For you remove the key to knowledge from the people. You don’t enter the Kingdom yourselves, and you prevent others from entering.”

⁵³ As Jesus was leaving, the teachers of religious law and the Pharisees became hostile and tried to provoke him with many questions. ⁵⁴ They wanted to trap him into saying something they could use against him.

Chapter 12

A Warning against Hypocrisy

Meanwhile, the crowds grew until thousands were milling about and stepping on each other. Jesus turned first to his disciples and warned them, “Beware of the yeast of the Pharisees—their hypocrisy. ² The time is coming when everything that is covered up will be revealed, and all that is secret will be made known to all. ³ Whatever you have said in the dark will be heard in the light, and what you have whispered behind closed doors will be shouted from the housetops for all to hear!

HOPENOTE

He Takes Good Care

So don't be afraid; you are more valuable to God than a whole flock of sparrows (Luke 12:7).

When we take a look at creation, we see the trees, the grass, the animals, and all living things. All are cared for by the hand of God. He loves all of His creation. But the Scripture tells us He is especially mindful of you and me. If God provides for all of creation—the birds of the air, the beasts of the fields, the lilies, and the fish of the sea—and they don't have to struggle, worry, or fret, why should you? Why should you be afraid of anything? God wants to help you in every area of your life, not just in the big matters.

He keeps track of sparrows, and He has no problem keeping track of you. Find rest knowing that He takes good care of His creation, and He is well able to take good care of you.

4 “Dear friends, don't be afraid of those who want to kill your body; they cannot do any more to you after that. 5 But I'll tell you whom to fear. Fear God, who has the power to kill you and then throw you into hell.* Yes, he's the one to fear.

6 “What is the price of five sparrows—two copper coins*? Yet God does not forget a single one of them. 7 And the very hairs on your head are all numbered. So don't be afraid; you are more valuable to God than a whole flock of sparrows.

8 “I tell you the truth, everyone who acknowledges me publicly here on earth, the Son of Man* will also acknowledge in the presence of God's angels. 9 But anyone who denies me here on earth will be denied before God's angels. 10 Anyone who speaks against the Son of Man can be forgiven, but anyone who blasphemes the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven.

¹¹ “And when you are brought to trial in the synagogues and before rulers and authorities, don’t worry about how to defend yourself or what to say, ¹² for the Holy Spirit will teach you at that time what needs to be said.”

Parable of the Rich Fool

¹³ Then someone called from the crowd, “Teacher, please tell my brother to divide our father’s estate with me.”

¹⁴ Jesus replied, “Friend, who made me a judge over you to decide such things as that?” ¹⁵ Then he said, “Beware! Guard against every kind of greed. Life is not measured by how much you own.”

¹⁶ Then he told them a story: “A rich man had a fertile farm that produced fine crops. ¹⁷ He said to himself, ‘What should I do? I don’t have room for all my crops.’ ¹⁸ Then he said, ‘I know! I’ll tear down my barns and build bigger ones. Then I’ll have room enough to store all my wheat and other goods. ¹⁹ And I’ll sit back and say to myself, ‘My friend, you have enough stored away for years to come. Now take it easy! Eat, drink, and be merry!’”

²⁰ “But God said to him, ‘You fool! You will die this very night. Then who will get everything you worked for?’

²¹ “Yes, a person is a fool to store up earthly wealth but not have a rich relationship with God.”

Teaching about Money and Possessions

²² Then, turning to his disciples, Jesus said, “That is why I tell you not to worry about everyday life—whether you have enough food to eat or enough clothes to wear. ²³ For life is more than food, and your body more than clothing. ²⁴ Look at the ravens. They don't plant or harvest or store food in barns, for God feeds them. And you are far more valuable to him than any birds! ²⁵ Can all your worries add a single moment to your life? ²⁶ And if worry can't accomplish a little thing like that, what's the use of worrying over bigger things?

²⁷ “Look at the lilies and how they grow. They don't work or make their clothing, yet Solomon in all his glory was not dressed as beautifully as they are. ²⁸ And if God cares so wonderfully for flowers that are here today and thrown into the fire tomorrow, he will certainly care for you. Why do you have so little faith?

³² “So don't be afraid, little flock. For it gives your Father great happiness to give you the Kingdom.

³³ “Sell your possessions and give to those in need. This will store up treasure for you in heaven! And the purses of heaven never get old or develop holes. Your treasure will be safe; no thief can steal it and no moth can destroy it. ³⁴ Wherever your treasure is, there the desires of your heart will also be.

Be Ready for the Lord's Coming

³⁵ “Be dressed for service and keep your lamps burning, ³⁶ as though you were waiting for your master to return from the wedding feast. Then you will be ready to open the door and let him in the moment he arrives and knocks. ³⁷ The servants who are ready and waiting for his return will be rewarded. I tell you the truth, he himself will seat them, put on an apron, and serve them as they sit and eat! ³⁸ He may come in the middle of the night or just before dawn.* But whenever he comes, he will reward the servants who are ready.

Kingdom Living

So don't be afraid, little flock. For it gives your Father great happiness to give you the Kingdom (Luke 12:32).

Our God is an extravagant God. He loves to do exceedingly beyond anything we can hope for or imagine! It gives Him pleasure to pour out His abundance and goodness in your life. It gives Him pleasure to give you His Kingdom. What is the Kingdom of God? It is simply God's operating system, or His way of doing things. Throughout the Word of God, He reveals His principles and precepts for living the abundant life He has in store.

When you follow His Word, when you do things God's way, you get God's results; you get His success and blessing.

Choose God's Kingdom today by following the Word of God. Romans 14 tells us that the Kingdom of God is righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit. Do you need more joy and peace in your life? Follow the Word of God in everything you do, and open your heart to His Kingdom.

39 "Understand this: If a homeowner knew exactly when a burglar was coming, he would not permit his house to be broken into. 40 You also must be ready all the time, for the Son of Man will come when least expected."

41 Peter asked, "Lord, is that illustration just for us or for everyone?"

42 And the Lord replied, "A faithful, sensible servant is one to whom the master can give the responsibility of managing his other household servants and feeding them. 43 If the master returns and finds that the servant has done a good job, there will be a reward. 44 I tell you the truth, the master will put that servant in charge of all he owns. 45 But what if the servant thinks, 'My master won't be back for a while,' and he begins beating the other servants, partying, and getting drunk? 46 The master will return unannounced and unexpected, and he will cut the servant in pieces and banish him with the unfaithful.

47 "And a servant who knows what the master wants, but isn't prepared and doesn't carry out those instructions, will be severely punished. ⁴⁸ But someone who does not know, and then does something wrong, will be punished only lightly. When someone has been given much, much will be required in return; and when someone has been entrusted with much, even more will be required.

Jesus Causes Division

⁴⁹ "I have come to set the world on fire, and I wish it were already burning! ⁵⁰ I have a terrible baptism of suffering ahead of me, and I am under a heavy burden until it is accomplished. ⁵¹ Do you think I have come to bring peace to the earth? No, I have come to divide people against each other! ⁵² From now on families will be split apart, three in favor of me, and two against—or two in favor and three against.

HOPENOTE

Give of What You Have

When someone has been given much, much will be required in return; and when someone has been entrusted with much, even more will be required (Luke 12:48).

Don't put off generosity. Don't say, "As soon as God gives me an abundance, I'm going to share with others."

Don't wait until you have more; start now. Start with what you have in your hand, because giving generously is the way to receive an abundant harvest of God's blessing in your life. When you sow seed, then God will bless you with more. Then you can sow a little more seed, and on and on. It's a cycle that brings increase!

But remember, the cycle doesn't start with you. It started with God. God has already given you something. Probably more than you think. Are you doing your part to put that seed in the ground? If you are faithful with what you have right now, then God will entrust you with more. If God can get it through you, God will get it to you. Start practicing generosity today. Find some way to be a blessing to others. As you do, you will see that abundant harvest of blessing in return.

53 'Father will be divided against son and son against father; mother against daughter and daughter against mother; and mother-in-law against daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law.'*

54 Then Jesus turned to the crowd and said, "When you see clouds beginning to form in the west, you say, 'Here comes a shower.' And you are right. 55 When the south wind blows, you say, 'Today will be a scorcher.' And it is. 56 You fools! You know how to interpret the weather signs of the earth and sky, but you don't know how to interpret the present times.

⁵⁷ “Why can't you decide for yourselves what is right? ⁵⁸ When you are on the way to court with your accuser, try to settle the matter before you get there. Otherwise, your accuser may drag you before the judge, who will hand you over to an officer, who will throw you into prison. ⁵⁹ And if that happens, you won't be free again until you have paid the very last penny.*”

Chapter 13

A Call to Repentance

About this time Jesus was informed that Pilate had murdered some people from Galilee as they were offering sacrifices at the Temple. ² “Do you think those Galileans were worse sinners than all the other people from Galilee?” Jesus asked. “Is that why they suffered? ³ Not at all! And you will perish, too, unless you repent of your sins and turn to God. ⁴ And what about the eighteen people who died when the tower in Siloam fell on them? Were they the worst sinners in Jerusalem? ⁵ No, and I tell you again that unless you repent, you will perish, too.”

Parable of the Barren Fig Tree

⁶ Then Jesus told this story: “A man planted a fig tree in his garden and came again and again to see if there was any fruit on it, but he was always disappointed. ⁷ Finally, he said to his gardener, ‘I’ve waited three years, and there hasn’t been a single fig! Cut it down. It’s just taking up space in the garden.’

8 “The gardener answered, ‘Sir, give it one more chance. Leave it another year, and I’ll give it special attention and plenty of fertilizer. 9 If we get figs next year, fine. If not, then you can cut it down.’”

Jesus Heals on the Sabbath

10 One Sabbath day as Jesus was teaching in a synagogue, 11 he saw a woman who had been crippled by an evil spirit. She had been bent double for eighteen years and was unable to stand up straight. 12 When Jesus saw her, he called her over and said, “Dear woman, you are healed of your sickness!” 13 Then he touched her, and instantly she could stand straight. How she praised God!

14 But the leader in charge of the synagogue was indignant that Jesus had healed her on the Sabbath day. “There are six days of the week for working,” he said to the crowd. “Come on those days to be healed, not on the Sabbath.”

15 But the Lord replied, “You hypocrites! Each of you works on the Sabbath day! Don’t you untie your ox or your donkey from its stall on the Sabbath and lead it out for water? 16 This dear woman, a daughter of Abraham, has been held in bondage by Satan for eighteen years. Isn’t it right that she be released, even on the Sabbath?”

17 This shamed his enemies, but all the people rejoiced at the wonderful things he did.

Parable of the Mustard Seed

18 Then Jesus said, “What is the Kingdom of God like? How can I illustrate it? ¹⁹ It is like a tiny mustard seed that a man planted in a garden; it grows and becomes a tree, and the birds make nests in its branches.”

Parable of the Yeast

²⁰ He also asked, “What else is the Kingdom of God like? ²¹ It is like the yeast a woman used in making bread. Even though she put only a little yeast in three measures of flour, it permeated every part of the dough.”

The Narrow Door

²² Jesus went through the towns and villages, teaching as he went, always pressing on toward Jerusalem. ²³ Someone asked him, “Lord, will only a few be saved?”

He replied, ²⁴ “Work hard to enter the narrow door to God’s Kingdom, for many will try to enter but will fail. ²⁵ When the master of the house has locked the door, it will be too late. You will stand outside knocking and pleading, ‘Lord, open the door for us!’ But he will reply, ‘I don’t know you or where you come from.’ ²⁶ Then you will say, ‘But we ate and drank with you, and you taught in our streets.’ ²⁷ And he will reply, ‘I tell you, I don’t know you or where you come from. Get away from me, all you who do evil.’

²⁸ “There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth, for you will see Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and all the prophets in the Kingdom of God, but you will be thrown out. ²⁹ And people will come from all over the world—from east and west, north and south—to take their places in the Kingdom of God. ³⁰ And note this: Some who seem least important now will be the greatest then, and some who are the greatest now will be least important then.*”

Jesus Grieves over Jerusalem

³¹ At that time some Pharisees said to him, “Get away from here if you want to live! Herod Antipas wants to kill you!”

³² Jesus replied, “Go tell that fox that I will keep on casting out demons and healing people today and tomorrow; and the third day I will accomplish my purpose. ³³ Yes, today, tomorrow, and the next day I must proceed on my way. For it wouldn’t do for a prophet of God to be killed except in Jerusalem!

³⁴ “O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the city that kills the prophets and stones God’s messengers! How often I have wanted to gather your children together as a hen protects her chicks beneath her wings, but you wouldn’t let me. ³⁵ And now, look, your house is abandoned. And you will never see me again until you say, ‘Blessings on the one who comes in the name of the LORD!’*”

Chapter 14

Jesus Heals on the Sabbath

HOPEFORTODAY

Family Privileges

This dear woman, a daughter of Abraham, has been held in bondage by Satan for eighteen years. Isn't it right that she be released, even on the Sabbath? (Luke 13:16).

In Luke 13, a lady had been bent over with some kind of sickness for 18 years. Jesus saw her and said something interesting. "Should not this woman be loosed from this sickness, seeing that she is a daughter of Abraham?" Notice, it was significant that she came from the right family line. Jesus drew attention to the fact that she was a part of the covenant. She had rights and privileges. She had God's favor simply because of her bloodline.

It says in Galatians, "If you belong to Christ, then you are the seed of Abraham and heirs according to the promise." In other words, because of what God has done, we now have a right to have total blessing and victory. We have a right to the blessings of Abraham. It doesn't matter where you've come from or who your family is in the natural. When Jesus died and rose again, He made a way for all people to enter into His covenant. He expanded the covenant by adopting us into His family.

That's why you can't listen to those lies that are telling you, "You come from the wrong family. You're never going to be successful. You're depressed because your mother was depressed." Or, "You've got a problem with alcohol because of your father, your grandfather. You'll never change." Or maybe, "There is divorce all through your family line. Now you're headed down that same direction." No, those things don't matter anymore once you accept Jesus as your Lord and Savior. You've entered into a new bloodline. You have a right to be free.

One Sabbath day Jesus went to eat dinner in the home of a leader of the Pharisees, and the people were watching him closely. ² There was a man there whose arms and legs were swollen.* ³ Jesus asked the Pharisees and experts in religious law, "Is it permitted in the law to heal people on the Sabbath day, or not?" ⁴ When they refused to answer, Jesus touched the sick man and healed him and sent him away. ⁵ Then he turned to them and said, "Which of you doesn't work on the Sabbath? If your son* or your cow falls into a pit, don't you rush to get him out?" ⁶ Again they could not answer.

Jesus Teaches about Humility

⁷ When Jesus noticed that all who had come to the dinner were trying to sit in the seats of honor near the head of the table, he gave them this advice: ⁸ "When you are invited to a wedding feast, don't sit in the seat of honor. What if someone who is more distinguished than you has also been invited? ⁹ The host will come and say, 'Give this person your seat.' Then you will be embarrassed, and you will have to take whatever seat is left at the foot of the table!

¹⁰ “Instead, take the lowest place at the foot of the table. Then when your host sees you, he will come and say, ‘Friend, we have a better place for you!’ Then you will be honored in front of all the other guests. ¹¹ For those who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted.”

¹² Then he turned to his host. “When you put on a luncheon or a banquet,” he said, “don’t invite your friends, brothers, relatives, and rich neighbors. For they will invite you back, and that will be your only reward. ¹³ Instead, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind. ¹⁴ Then at the resurrection of the righteous, God will reward you for inviting those who could not repay you.”

¹⁵ Hearing this, a man sitting at the table with Jesus exclaimed, “What a blessing it will be to attend a banquet* in the Kingdom of God!”

¹⁶ Jesus replied with this story: “A man prepared a great feast and sent out many invitations. ¹⁷ When the banquet was ready, he sent his servant to tell the guests, ‘Come, the banquet is ready.’ ¹⁸ But they all began making excuses. One said, ‘I have just bought a field and must inspect it. Please excuse me.’ ¹⁹ Another said, ‘I have just bought five pairs of oxen, and I want to try them out. Please excuse me.’ ²⁰ Another said, ‘I now have a wife, so I can’t come.’

²¹ “The servant returned and told his master what they had said. His master was furious and said, ‘Go quickly into the streets and alleys of the town and invite the poor, the crippled, the blind, and the lame.’²² After the servant had done this, he reported, ‘There is still room for more.’²³ So his master said, ‘Go out into the country lanes and behind the hedges and urge anyone you find to come, so that the house will be full.’²⁴ For none of those I first invited will get even the smallest taste of my banquet.’”

The Cost of Being a Disciple

²⁵ A large crowd was following Jesus. He turned around and said to them,²⁶ “If you want to be my disciple, you must hate everyone else by comparison—your father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters—yes, even your own life. Otherwise, you cannot be my disciple.”²⁷ And if you do not carry your own cross and follow me, you cannot be my disciple.

²⁸ “But don’t begin until you count the cost. For who would begin construction of a building without first calculating the cost to see if there is enough money to finish it?²⁹ Otherwise, you might complete only the foundation before running out of money, and then everyone would laugh at you.”³⁰ They would say, ‘There’s the person who started that building and couldn’t afford to finish it!’

away.³³ So you cannot become my disciple without giving up everything you own.

³⁴ “Salt is good for seasoning. But if it loses its flavor, how do you make it salty again? ³⁵ Flavorless salt is good neither for the soil nor for the manure pile. It is thrown away. Anyone with ears to hear should listen and understand!”

Chapter 15

Parable of the Lost Sheep

Tax collectors and other notorious sinners often came to listen to Jesus teach.² This made the Pharisees and teachers of religious law complain that he was associating with such sinful people—even eating with them!

³ So Jesus told them this story:⁴ “If a man has a hundred sheep and one of them gets lost, what will he do? Won’t he leave the ninety-nine others in the wilderness and go to search for the one that is lost until he finds it? ⁵ And when he has found it, he will joyfully carry it home on his shoulders. ⁶ When he arrives, he will call together his friends and neighbors, saying, ‘Rejoice with me because I have found my lost sheep.’ ⁷ In the same way, there is more joy in heaven over one lost sinner who repents and returns to God than over ninety-nine others who are righteous and haven’t strayed away!

⁸ “Or suppose a woman has ten silver coins* and loses one. Won’t she light a lamp and sweep the entire house and search carefully until she finds it? ⁹ And when she finds it, she will call in her friends and neighbors and say, ‘Rejoice with me because I have found my lost coin.’ ¹⁰ In the same way, there is joy in the presence of God’s angels when even one sinner repents.”

Parable of the Lost Son

¹¹ To illustrate the point further, Jesus told them this story: “A man had two sons. ¹² The younger son told his father, ‘I want my share of your estate now before you die.’ So his father agreed to divide his wealth between his sons.

¹³ “A few days later this younger son packed all his belongings and moved to a distant land, and there he wasted all his money in wild living. ¹⁴ About the time his money ran out, a great famine swept over the land, and he began to starve. ¹⁵ He persuaded a local farmer to hire him, and the man sent him into his fields to feed the pigs. ¹⁶ The young man became so hungry that even the pods he was feeding the pigs looked good to him. But no one gave him anything.

¹⁷ “When he finally came to his senses, he said to himself, ‘At home even the hired servants have food enough to spare, and here I am dying of hunger! ¹⁸ I will go home to my father and say, “Father, I have sinned against both heaven and you, ¹⁹ and I am no longer worthy of being called your son. Please take me on as a hired servant.”’”

HOPENOTE

A “Fattened Calf” Mentality

And kill the calf we have been fattening. We must celebrate with a feast (Luke 15:23).

I love the story of the prodigal son. When the young man came back home after wasting all of his money and living a wild life, the father was so excited he said, “Go kill the fattened calf. Go get the best robe.” Notice, he didn’t say, “Go get me any old calf or just one of those sick ones that’s about to die anyway. Go get me that old robe that I’ll never wear anymore.” That’s because we serve a God of abundance!

The older brother who had been faithful the whole time got kind of jealous. He said, “Dad, I don’t understand it. I’ve been here all this time, but you’ve never even given me a skinny goat.” That’s the way a lot of people look at things. They think, “I’ll never rise any higher. I’ll never get out of this mess. I’ve gone as far as I can go.” They have a “skinny goat” mentality.

If that’s you today, take the limits off and begin to see God the way He truly is. He wants to do exceedingly, abundantly above all you can ask, think, or imagine. But you have to dare to ask, think, and imagine. Ask the Lord to show you His abundant, extravagant love. Get your faith up. Get your hope up. Dare to have a “fattened calf” mentality. And when you see others being blessed, rising higher, and experiencing victory, don’t allow a jealous attitude to come in. Instead say, “I may not see how it’s going to happen, but I know God’s a supernatural God, and I’m coming into new seasons of increase.”

20 “So he returned home to his father. And while he was still a long way off, his father saw him coming. Filled with love and compassion, he ran to his son, embraced him, and kissed him. 21 His son said to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against both heaven and you, and I am no longer worthy of being called your son.*’

22 “But his father said to the servants, ‘Quick! Bring the finest robe in the house and put it on him. Get a ring for his finger and sandals for his feet. 23 And kill the calf we have been fattening. We must celebrate with a feast, 24 for this son of mine was dead and has now returned to life. He was lost, but now he is found.’ So the party began.

25 “Meanwhile, the older son was in the fields working. When he returned home, he heard music and dancing in the house, 26 and he asked one of the servants what was going on. 27 ‘Your brother is back,’ he was told, ‘and your father has killed the fattened calf. We are celebrating because of his safe return.’

28 “The older brother was angry and wouldn’t go in. His father came out and begged him, 29 but he replied, ‘All these years I’ve slaved for you and never once refused to do a single thing you told me to. And in all that time you never gave me even one young goat for a feast with my friends. 30 Yet when this son of yours comes back after squandering your money on prostitutes, you celebrate by killing the fattened calf!’

31 “His father said to him, ‘Look, dear son, you have always stayed by me, and everything I have is yours. 32 We had to celebrate this happy day. For your brother was dead and has come back to life! He was lost, but now he is found!’”

Chapter 16

Parable of the Shrewd Manager

Jesus told this story to his disciples: “There was a certain rich man who had a manager handling his affairs. One day a report came that the manager was wasting his employer’s money. 2 So the employer called him in and said, ‘What’s this I hear about you? Get your report in order, because you are going to be fired.’

3 “The manager thought to himself, ‘Now what? My boss has fired me. I don’t have the strength to dig ditches, and I’m too proud to beg. 4 Ah, I know how to ensure that I’ll have plenty of friends who will give me a home when I am fired.’

5 “So he invited each person who owed money to his employer to come and discuss the situation. He asked the first one, ‘How much do you owe him?’ 6 The man replied, ‘I owe him 800 gallons of olive oil.’ So the manager told him, ‘Take the bill and quickly change it to 400 gallons.*’

7 “‘And how much do you owe my employer?’ he asked the next man. ‘I owe him 1,000 bushels of wheat,’ was the reply. ‘Here,’ the manager said, ‘take the bill and change it to 800 bushels.*’

8 “The rich man had to admire the dishonest rascal for being so shrewd. And it is true that the children of this world are more shrewd in dealing with the world around them than are the children of the light. 9 Here’s the lesson: Use your worldly resources to benefit others and make friends. Then, when your earthly possessions are gone, they will welcome you to an eternal home.*

10 “If you are faithful in little things, you will be faithful in large ones. But if you are dishonest in little things, you won’t be honest with greater responsibilities. 11 And if you are untrustworthy about worldly wealth, who will trust you with the true riches of heaven? 12 And if you are not faithful with other people’s things, why should you be trusted with things of your own?

13 “No one can serve two masters. For you will hate one and love the other; you will be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and money.”

14 The Pharisees, who dearly loved their money, heard all this and scoffed at him. 15 Then he said to them, “You like to appear righteous in public, but God knows your hearts. What this world honors is detestable in the sight of God.

16 “Until John the Baptist, the law of Moses and the messages of the prophets were your guides. But now the Good News of the Kingdom of God is preached, and everyone is eager to get in.* 17 But that doesn’t mean that the law has lost its force. It is easier for heaven and earth to disappear than for the smallest point of God’s law to be overturned.

18 “For example, a man who divorces his wife and marries someone else commits adultery. And anyone who marries a woman divorced from her husband commits adultery.”

Parable of the Rich Man and Lazarus

19 Jesus said, “There was a certain rich man who was splendidly clothed in purple and fine linen and who lived each day in luxury. 20 At his gate lay a poor man named Lazarus who was covered with sores. 21 As Lazarus lay there longing for scraps from the rich man’s table, the dogs would come and lick his open sores.

22 “Finally, the poor man died and was carried by the angels to be with Abraham.* The rich man also died and was buried, 23 and his soul went to the place of the dead.* There, in torment, he saw Abraham in the far distance with Lazarus at his side.

24 “The rich man shouted, ‘Father Abraham, have some pity! Send Lazarus over here to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue. I am in anguish in these flames.’

25 “But Abraham said to him, ‘Son, remember that during your lifetime you had everything you wanted, and Lazarus had nothing. So now he is here being comforted, and you are in anguish. 26 And besides, there is a great chasm separating us. No one can cross over to you from here, and no one can cross over to us from there.’

27 “Then the rich man said, ‘Please, Father Abraham, at least send him to my father’s home. 28 For I have five brothers, and I want him to warn them so they don’t end up in this place of torment.’

29 “But Abraham said, ‘Moses and the prophets have warned them. Your brothers can read what they wrote.’

30 “The rich man replied, ‘No, Father Abraham! But if someone is sent to them from the dead, then they will repent of their sins and turn to God.’

31 “But Abraham said, ‘If they won’t listen to Moses and the prophets, they won’t listen even if someone rises from the dead.’”

Chapter 17

Teachings about Forgiveness and Faith

One day Jesus said to his disciples, “There will always be temptations to sin, but what sorrow awaits the person who does the tempting! ² It would be better to be thrown into the sea with a millstone hung around your neck than to cause one of these little ones to fall into sin. ³ So watch yourselves!

HOPEFORTODAY

Don't Take the Bait

One day Jesus said to his disciples, “There will always be temptations to sin, but what sorrow awaits the person who does the tempting!” (Luke 17:1).

The word temptation is often translated “offense” in the Scripture and comes from a Greek term that means “bait.” It’s used in reference to how people used to trap animals. It was actually the bait that lured the animal into the trap. The enemy wants to trap us today, too. We are tempted, or baited, when we are provoked, hurt, or mistreated. If we respond by becoming offended, we have taken the bait.

You can’t stop offenses from coming, but you can keep them from dragging you down. If somebody is rude to you, or somebody is inconsiderate, or somebody ignores you, recognize that's the enemy luring you into a trap. He's saying, "Come on. Get upset. Get angry. Argue. Let it sour your day." Many people don't know any better. They swallow that bait hook, line, and sinker. And then they go around day after day upset, bitter, and offended. But we need to be aware of what's happening. The next time you have an opportunity to be offended, instead of falling into that same trap, just say, "No, thanks. I'm not going to take the bait. I'm smarter than that. I'm going to live my life in freedom. I'm going to enjoy this day."

One of the best things you can learn to do is forgive quickly. When somebody does you wrong, choose immediately to let it go. Don't play that offense over and over in your mind and dissect it, trying to figure out what it was all about. Don't go call your friends and get their take on it. No, just drop it. The quicker you let it go, the easier it will be. You will see your life go to a whole new level when you practice this simple principle—forgive quickly. Don't allow the offense to take root. Don't take the bait. Release the weight of offense, and you'll see yourself rise higher into the place God has prepared for you.

"If another believer* sins, rebuke that person; then if there is repentance, forgive. ⁴ Even if that person wrongs you seven times a day and each time turns again and asks forgiveness, you must forgive.”

⁵ The apostles said to the Lord, “Show us how to increase our faith.”

⁶ The Lord answered, “If you had faith even as small as a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, ‘May you be uprooted and thrown into the sea,’ and it would obey you!

HOPENOTE

Mustard Seed Faith

The Lord answered, “If you had faith even as small as a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, ‘May you be uprooted and thrown into the sea,’ and it would obey you!” (Luke 17:6).

A mustard seed is a very small thing. But when it’s planted, it grows into a tree. In the same way, Jesus is saying that a little bit of faith can bring tremendous results! As a believer in Him, you already have enough faith on the inside of you to overcome any obstacle. The same Spirit that raised Christ from the dead actually dwells in you!

It doesn’t matter if you grew up in church or not; it doesn’t matter what you know or don’t know; God wants to work in your life today. And you may not see how, but all you have to do is believe God. With God, all things are possible. Do you have mustard seed faith today? The Bible says that faith without works is dead. When you have faith, your words and actions reflect it. Take a step of faith today and declare your trust in Him. Even if you don't see how, declare that God is working behind the scenes in your life.

⁷ “When a servant comes in from plowing or taking care of sheep, does his master say, ‘Come in and eat with me’? ⁸ No, he says, ‘Prepare my meal, put on your apron, and serve me while I eat. Then you can eat later.’ ⁹ And does the master thank the servant for doing what he was told to do? Of course not. ¹⁰ In the same way, when you obey me you should say, ‘We are unworthy servants who have simply done our duty.’”

Ten Healed of Leprosy

¹¹ As Jesus continued on toward Jerusalem, he reached the border between Galilee and Samaria. ¹² As he entered a village there, ten lepers stood at a distance, ¹³ crying out, “Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!”

¹⁴ He looked at them and said, “Go show yourselves to the priests.”* And as they went, they were cleansed of their leprosy.

¹⁵ One of them, when he saw that he was healed, came back to Jesus, shouting, “Praise God!” ¹⁶ He fell to the ground at Jesus’ feet, thanking him for what he had done. This man was a Samaritan.

¹⁷ Jesus asked, “Didn’t I heal ten men? Where are the other nine? ¹⁸ Has no one returned to give glory to God except this foreigner?” ¹⁹ And Jesus said to the man, “Stand up and go. Your faith has healed you.*”

The Coming of the Kingdom

²⁰ One day the Pharisees asked Jesus, “When will the Kingdom of God come?”

Jesus replied, “The Kingdom of God can’t be detected by visible signs.* ²¹ You won’t be able to say, ‘Here it is!’ or ‘It’s over there!’ For the Kingdom of God is already among you.*”

²² Then he said to his disciples, “The time is coming when you will long to see the day when the Son of Man returns,* but you won’t see it. ²³ People will tell you, ‘Look, there is the Son of Man,’ or ‘Here he is,’ but don’t go out and follow them. ²⁴ For as the lightning flashes and lights up the sky from one end to the other, so it will be on the day when the Son of Man comes. ²⁵ But first the Son of Man must suffer terribly* and be rejected by this generation.

²⁶ “When the Son of Man returns, it will be like it was in Noah’s day. ²⁷ In those days, the people enjoyed banquets and parties and weddings right up to the time Noah entered his boat and the flood came and destroyed them all.

²⁸ “And the world will be as it was in the days of Lot. People went about their daily business—eating and drinking, buying and selling, farming and building—²⁹ until the morning Lot left Sodom. Then fire and burning sulfur rained down from heaven and destroyed them all. ³⁰ Yes, it will be ‘business as usual’ right up to the day when the Son of Man is revealed. ³¹ On that day a person out on the deck of a roof must not go down into the house to pack. A person out in the field must not return home. ³² Remember what happened to Lot’s wife! ³³ If you cling to your life, you will lose it, and if you let your life go, you will save it. ³⁴ That night two people will be asleep in one bed; one will be taken, the other left. ³⁵ Two women will be grinding flour together at the mill; one will be taken, the other left.*”

³⁷ “Where will this happen, Lord?”* the disciples asked.

Jesus replied, “Just as the gathering of vultures shows there is a carcass nearby, so these signs indicate that the end is near.”*

Chapter 18

Parable of the Persistent Widow

One day Jesus told his disciples a story to show that they should always pray and never give up. ² “There was a judge in a certain city,” he said, “who neither feared God nor cared about people. ³ A widow of that city came to him repeatedly, saying, ‘Give me justice in this dispute with my enemy.’ ⁴ The judge ignored her for a while, but finally he said to himself, ‘I don’t fear God or care about people, ⁵ but this woman is driving me crazy. I’m going to see that she gets justice, because she is wearing me out with her constant requests!’”

⁶ Then the Lord said, “Learn a lesson from this unjust judge. ⁷ Even he rendered a just decision in the end. So don’t you think God will surely give justice to his chosen people who cry out to him day and night? Will he keep putting them off? ⁸ I tell you, he will grant justice to them quickly! But when the Son of Man* returns, how many will he find on the earth who have faith?"

Parable of the Pharisee and Tax Collector

⁹ Then Jesus told this story to some who had great confidence in their own righteousness and scorned everyone else: ¹⁰ "Two men went to the Temple to pray. One was a Pharisee, and the other was a despised tax collector. ¹¹ The Pharisee stood by himself and prayed this prayer*: 'I thank you, God, that I am not a sinner like everyone else. For I don't cheat, I don't sin, and I don't commit adultery. I'm certainly not like that tax collector! ¹² I fast twice a week, and I give you a tenth of my income.'

¹³ "But the tax collector stood at a distance and dared not even lift his eyes to heaven as he prayed. Instead, he beat his chest in sorrow, saying, 'O God, be merciful to me, for I am a sinner.' ¹⁴ I tell you, this sinner, not the Pharisee, returned home justified before God. For those who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted."

¹⁵ One day some parents brought their little children to Jesus so he could touch and bless them. But when the disciples saw this, they scolded the parents for bothering him.

16 Then Jesus called for the children and said to the disciples, “Let the children come to me. Don’t stop them! For the Kingdom of God belongs to those who are like these children. 17 I tell you the truth, anyone who doesn’t receive the Kingdom of God like a child will never enter it.”

The Rich Man

18 Once a religious leader asked Jesus this question: “Good Teacher, what should I do to inherit eternal life?”

19 “Why do you call me good?” Jesus asked him. “Only God is truly good. 20 But to answer your question, you know the commandments: ‘You must not commit adultery. You must not murder. You must not steal. You must not testify falsely. Honor your father and mother.’*”

21 The man replied, “I’ve obeyed all these commandments since I was young.”

22 When Jesus heard his answer, he said, “There is still one thing you haven’t done. Sell all your possessions and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me.”

23 But when the man heard this he became very sad, for he was very rich.

HOPENOTE

Childlike Faith

Then Jesus called for the children and said to the disciples, “Let the children come to me. Don’t stop them! For the Kingdom of God belongs to those who are like these children” (Luke 18:16).

Jesus was always surrounded by crowds of people, but on this particular day, the crowd was a little bit shorter, a little bit more playful, a little bit younger. On this day, the parents sent their children to Jesus to receive a hands-on blessing. But the disciples thought Jesus was too important and too busy to waste His time playing with little kids, so they turned them away. But Jesus quickly intervened and invited the children to come. I can just imagine His warm smile and open arms as the children ran up to hug Him.

We learn a lot from Jesus’ words, “For the kingdom of God belongs to those who are like these children.” What does it mean to be like these little children? First of all, children are innocent, trusting, and carefree. They are not worried about how they are going to pay their taxes or wondering what’s happening in the stock market. They just enjoy every moment of life. Little children are inquisitive. They want to learn and understand. Finally, these little children were running to Jesus! When we run to Him with open arms, casting our cares aside, He will embrace us. By having simple, childlike faith, we don’t have to figure everything out. We don’t have to have all the answers. We just trust Him. Won’t you let that be you today?

24 When Jesus saw this,* he said, “How hard it is for the rich to enter the Kingdom of God! 25 In fact, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the Kingdom of God!”

26 Those who heard this said, “Then who in the world can be saved?”

27 He replied, “What is impossible for people is possible with God.”

28 Peter said, “We’ve left our homes to follow you.”

29 “Yes,” Jesus replied, “and I assure you that everyone who has given up house or wife or brothers or parents or children, for the sake of the Kingdom of God, 30 will be repaid many times over in this life, and will have eternal life in the world to come.”

Jesus Again Predicts His Death

31 Taking the twelve disciples aside, Jesus said, “Listen, we’re going up to Jerusalem, where all the predictions of the prophets concerning the Son of Man will come true. 32 He will be handed over to the Romans,* and he will be mocked, treated shamefully, and spit upon. 33 They will flog him with a whip and kill him, but on the third day he will rise again.”

34 But they didn’t understand any of this. The significance of his words was hidden from them, and they failed to grasp what he was talking about.

Jesus Heals a Blind Beggar

³⁵ As Jesus approached Jericho, a blind beggar was sitting beside the road. ³⁶ When he heard the noise of a crowd going past, he asked what was happening. ³⁷ They told him that Jesus the Nazarene* was going by. ³⁸ So he began shouting, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!”

³⁹ “Be quiet!” the people in front yelled at him.

But he only shouted louder, “Son of David, have mercy on me!”

⁴⁰ When Jesus heard him, he stopped and ordered that the man be brought to him. As the man came near, Jesus asked him, ⁴¹ “What do you want me to do for you?”

“Lord,” he said, “I want to see!”

⁴² And Jesus said, “All right, receive your sight! Your faith has healed you.” ⁴³ Instantly the man could see, and he followed Jesus, praising God. And all who saw it praised God, too.

Chapter 19

Jesus and Zacchaeus

Jesus entered Jericho and made his way through the town. ² There was a man there named Zacchaeus. He was the chief tax collector in the region, and he had become very rich. ³ He tried to get a look at Jesus, but he was too short to see over the crowd. ⁴ So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore-fig tree beside the road, for Jesus was going to pass that way.

⁵ When Jesus came by, he looked up at Zacchaeus and called him by name. “Zacchaeus!” he said. “Quick, come down!

I must be a guest in your home today.”

⁶ Zacchaeus quickly climbed down and took Jesus to his house in great excitement and joy. ⁷ But the people were displeased. “He has gone to be the guest of a notorious sinner,” they grumbled.

⁸ Meanwhile, Zacchaeus stood before the Lord and said, “I will give half my wealth to the poor, Lord, and if I have cheated people on their taxes, I will give them back four times as much!”

⁹ Jesus responded, “Salvation has come to this home today, for this man has shown himself to be a true son of Abraham. ¹⁰ For the Son of Man* came to seek and save those who are lost.”

Parable of the Ten Servants

¹¹ The crowd was listening to everything Jesus said. And because he was nearing Jerusalem, he told them a story to correct the impression that the Kingdom of God would begin right away. ¹² He said, “A nobleman was called away to a distant empire to be crowned king and then return. ¹³ Before he left, he called together ten of his servants and divided among them ten pounds of silver,* saying, ‘Invest this for me while I am gone.’ ¹⁴ But his people hated him and sent a delegation after him to say, ‘We do not want him to be our king.’

¹⁵ “After he was crowned king, he returned and called in the servants to whom he had given the money. He wanted to find out what their profits were. ¹⁶ The first servant reported, ‘Master, I invested your money and made ten times the original amount!’

17 “ ‘Well done!’ the king exclaimed. ‘You are a good servant. You have been faithful with the little I entrusted to you, so you will be governor of ten cities as your reward.’

18 “The next servant reported, ‘Master, I invested your money and made five times the original amount.’

A Life of Integrity

“Well done!” the king exclaimed. “You are a good servant. You have been faithful with the little I entrusted to you, so you will be governor of ten cities as your reward” (Luke 19:17).

Having integrity is important to God. Integrity is the foundation upon which God builds a successful life. What is integrity? It’s being who you say you are and doing what you say you are going to do. We serve a God of integrity, and He expects us to have integrity, too.

Integrity and prosperity go hand in hand. Just like the servant in the story in Luke 19, if you are faithful with small things, God can then make you responsible for bigger and better things! That’s living in integrity. God will bless you when you maintain honesty, integrity, and faithfulness to Him in all things you do, whether great or small.

19 “ ‘Well done!’ the king said. ‘You will be governor over five cities.’

20 “But the third servant brought back only the original amount of money and said, ‘Master, I hid your money and kept it safe. ²¹ I was afraid because you are a hard man to deal with, taking what isn’t yours and harvesting crops you didn’t plant.’

22 “ ‘You wicked servant!’ the king roared. ‘Your own words condemn you. If you knew that I’m a hard man who takes what isn’t mine and harvests crops I didn’t plant, ²³ why didn’t you deposit my money in the bank? At least I could have gotten some interest on it.’

24 “Then, turning to the others standing nearby, the king ordered, ‘Take the money from this servant, and give it to the one who has ten pounds.’

25 “ ‘But, master,’ they said, ‘he already has ten pounds!’

26 “ ‘Yes,’ the king replied, ‘and to those who use well what they are given, even more will be given. But from those who do nothing, even what little they have will be taken away. ²⁷ And as for these enemies of mine who didn’t want me to be their king—bring them in and execute them right here in front of me.’”

Jesus’ Triumphant Entry

28 After telling this story, Jesus went on toward Jerusalem, walking ahead of his disciples. ²⁹ As he came to the towns of Bethphage and Bethany on the Mount of Olives, he sent two disciples ahead. ³⁰ “Go into that village over there,” he told them. “As you enter it, you will see a young donkey tied there that no one has ever ridden. Untie it and bring it here. ³¹ If anyone asks, ‘Why are you untying that colt?’ just say, ‘The Lord needs it.’”

³² So they went and found the colt, just as Jesus had said. ³³ And sure enough, as they were untying it, the owners asked them, “Why are you untying that colt?”

³⁴ And the disciples simply replied, “The Lord needs it.” ³⁵ So they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their garments over it for him to ride on.

⁴⁰ He replied, “If they kept quiet, the stones along the road would burst into cheers!”

Jesus Weeps over Jerusalem

⁴¹ But as he came closer to Jerusalem and saw the city ahead, he began to weep. ⁴² “How I wish today that you of all people would understand the way to peace. But now it is too late, and peace is hidden from your eyes. ⁴³ Before long your enemies will build ramparts against your walls and encircle you and close in on you from every side. ⁴⁴ They will crush you into the ground, and your children with you. Your enemies will not leave a single stone in place, because you did not accept your opportunity for salvation.”

HOPEFORTODAY

Marked Moments

But as he came closer to Jerusalem and saw the city ahead, he began to weep (Luke 19:41).

The Scripture talks about how Jesus wept over Jerusalem because they missed their opportunity for salvation. He was right there in their midst, and they did not receive Him. God gives nations and cities moments and even seasons of visitation. These are God-ordained moments when His presence manifests itself and His favor is released in a special way.

All throughout life, we have these marked moments. You may go five years and nothing big happens. Then all of a sudden, a God-ordained moment comes along: We meet a divine connection, a position at a new company comes our way, or a supernatural door opens. In a split second, we're thrust years ahead.

I can look back over my own life and see the moments that altered my destiny, moments that propelled me to a higher level. When I was in my early twenties, I walked into a jewelry store to buy a battery for my watch. That's where I met Victoria—it was a marked moment for me. Think about all the things that had to fall into place. There are hundreds of jewelry stores here in Houston. My watch battery had to die. Victoria had to be working that day. That wasn't a coincidence. That wasn't a lucky break. That was God bringing time and chance together. He ordained that moment before the foundation of the world. That's why we don't have to worry. We don't have to go around frustrated because things aren't happening as fast as we would like. Our job is to remain steadfast and keep expecting. All we have to do is stay in faith, knowing that God is directing our steps. As long as we keep believing, our marked moments are on their way.

Jesus Clears the Temple

⁴⁵ Then Jesus entered the Temple and began to drive out the people selling animals for sacrifices. ⁴⁶ He said to them, “The Scriptures declare, ‘My Temple will be a house of prayer,’ but you have turned it into a den of thieves.”*

⁴⁷ After that, he taught daily in the Temple, but the leading priests, the teachers of religious law, and the other leaders of the people began planning how to kill him. ⁴⁸ But they could think of nothing, because all the people hung on every word he said.

Chapter 20

The Authority of Jesus Challenged

One day as Jesus was teaching the people and preaching the Good News in the Temple, the leading priests, the teachers of religious law, and the elders came up to him. ² They demanded, “By what authority are you doing all these things? Who gave you the right?”

³ “Let me ask you a question first,” he replied. ⁴ “Did John’s authority to baptize come from heaven, or was it merely human?”

⁵ They talked it over among themselves. “If we say it was from heaven, he will ask why we didn’t believe John. ⁶ But if we say it was merely human, the people will stone us because they are convinced John was a prophet.” ⁷ So they finally replied that they didn’t know.

⁸ And Jesus responded, “Then I won’t tell you by what authority I do these things.”

Parable of the Evil Farmers

⁹ Now Jesus turned to the people again and told them this story: “A man planted a vineyard, leased it to tenant farmers, and moved to another country to live for several years. ¹⁰ At the time of the grape harvest, he sent one of his servants to collect his share of the crop. But the farmers attacked the servant, beat him up, and sent him back empty-handed. ¹¹ So the owner sent another servant, but they also insulted him, beat him up, and sent him away empty-handed. ¹² A third man was sent, and they wounded him and chased him away.

¹³ “‘What will I do?’ the owner asked himself. ‘I know! I’ll send my cherished son. Surely they will respect him.’

“What do you suppose the owner of the vineyard will do to them?” Jesus asked. ¹⁶ “I’ll tell you—he will come and kill those farmers and lease the vineyard to others.”

¹⁷ Jesus looked at them and said, “Then what does this Scripture mean?

‘The stone that the builders rejected
has now become the cornerstone.’*

¹⁸ Everyone who stumbles over that stone will be broken to pieces, and it will crush anyone it falls on.”

¹⁹ The teachers of religious law and the leading priests wanted to arrest Jesus immediately because they realized he was telling the story against them—they were the wicked farmers. But they were afraid of the people’s reaction.

Taxes for Caesar

²⁰ Watching for their opportunity, the leaders sent spies pretending to be honest men. They tried to get Jesus to say something that could be reported to the Roman governor so he would arrest Jesus. ²¹ “Teacher,” they said, “we know that you speak and teach what is right and are not influenced by what others think. You teach the way of God truthfully. ²² Now tell us—is it right for us to pay taxes to Caesar or not?”

²³ He saw through their trickery and said, ²⁴ “Show me a Roman coin.* Whose picture and title are stamped on it?”

“Caesar’s,” they replied.

²⁵ “Well then,” he said, “give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar, and give to God what belongs to God.”

²⁶ So they failed to trap him by what he said in front of the people. Instead, they were amazed by his answer, and they became silent.

Discussion about Resurrection

²⁷ Then Jesus was approached by some Sadducees—religious leaders who say there is no resurrection from the dead. ²⁸ They posed this question: “Teacher, Moses gave us a law that if a man dies, leaving a wife but no children, his brother should marry the widow and have a child who will carry on the brother’s name.* ²⁹ Well, suppose there were seven brothers. The oldest one married and then died without children. ³⁰ So the second brother married the widow, but he also died. ³¹ Then the third brother married her. This continued with all seven of them, who died without children. ³² Finally, the woman also died. ³³ So tell us, whose wife will she be in the resurrection? For all seven were married to her!”

³⁴ Jesus replied, “Marriage is for people here on earth. ³⁵ But in the age to come, those worthy of being raised from the dead will neither marry nor be given in marriage. ³⁶ And they will never die again. In this respect they will be like angels. They are children of God and children of the resurrection.

³⁷ “But now, as to whether the dead will be raised—even Moses proved this when he wrote about the burning bush. Long after Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob had died, he referred to the Lord* as ‘the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.’* ³⁸ So he is the God of the living, not the dead, for they are all alive to him.”

³⁹ “Well said, Teacher!” remarked some of the teachers of religious law who were standing there. ⁴⁰ And then no one dared to ask him any more questions.

Whose Son Is the Messiah?

⁴¹ Then Jesus presented them with a question. “Why is it,” he asked, “that the Messiah is said to be the son of David? ⁴² For David himself wrote in the book of Psalms:

‘The LORD said to my Lord,
Sit in the place of honor at my right hand
⁴³ until I humble your enemies, making them a footstool under your feet.’*
⁴⁴ Since David called the Messiah ‘Lord,’ how can the Messiah be his son?”

⁴⁵ Then, with the crowds listening, he turned to his disciples and said, ⁴⁶ “Beware of these teachers of religious law! For they like to parade around in flowing robes and love to receive respectful greetings as they walk in the marketplaces. And how they love the seats of honor in the synagogues and the head table at banquets.⁴⁷ Yet they shamelessly cheat widows out of their property and then pretend to be pious by making long prayers in public. Because of this, they will be severely punished.”

Chapter 21

The Widow's Offering

While Jesus was in the Temple, he watched the rich people dropping their gifts in the collection box.² Then a poor widow came by and dropped in two small coins.*

³ “I tell you the truth,” Jesus said, “this poor widow has given more than all the rest of them.⁴ For they have given a tiny part of their surplus, but she, poor as she is, has given everything she has.”

Jesus Foretells the Future

⁵ Some of his disciples began talking about the majestic stonework of the Temple and the memorial decorations on the walls. But Jesus said,⁶ “The time is coming when all these things will be completely demolished. Not one stone will be left on top of another!”

⁷ “Teacher,” they asked, “when will all this happen? What sign will show us that these things are about to take place?”

⁸ He replied, “Don’t let anyone mislead you, for many will come in my name, claiming, ‘I am the Messiah,’* and saying, ‘The time has come!’ But don’t believe them.⁹ And when you hear of wars and insurrections, don't panic. Yes, these things must take place first, but the end won't follow immediately.” ¹⁰ Then he added, “Nation will go to war against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. ¹¹ There will be great earthquakes, and there will be famines and plagues in many lands, and there will be terrifying things and great miraculous signs from heaven.

¹² “But before all this occurs, there will be a time of great persecution. You will be dragged into synagogues and prisons, and you will stand trial before kings and governors because you are my followers. ¹³ But this will be your opportunity to tell them about me.* ¹⁴ So don't worry in advance about how to answer the charges against you, ¹⁵ for I will give you the right words and such wisdom that none of your opponents will be able to reply or refute you! ¹⁶ Even those closest to you—your parents, brothers, relatives, and friends—will betray you. They will even kill some of you. ¹⁷ And everyone will hate you because you are my followers.* ¹⁸ But not a hair of your head will perish! ¹⁹ By standing firm, you will win your souls.

Real Generosity

“I tell you the truth,” Jesus said, “this poor widow has given more than all the rest of them” (Luke 21:3).

In the natural, we try to measure generosity by the size of the gift. We often assume a large amount is a sign of real generosity. But Jesus wasn't impressed by amounts then, and He's not impressed by amounts now. Instead, He notices the heart and attitude behind the gift. Are you doing it to be seen, or are you doing it because you love and trust God?

Later, when the apostle Paul was discussing generosity, he pointed out that God takes delight in cheerful giving. Can you picture this woman in the Temple dropping two copper coins in the huge brass urns and doing it with a little smile on her face? Giving up those two coins was a sign of trust. Once they left her hand, she had nothing in the natural. The rich people around her could afford to put in large amounts without the risk of running out. They still had plenty. Giving is always an opportunity for a reality check. The next time you give your tithes and offering, ask yourself, "What's my heart condition? Why am I doing this? Where does my trust rest?" Remember, God loves a cheerful giver. He'll always give back in good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over.

- 20 "And when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then you will know that the time of its destruction has arrived.
- 21 Then those in Judea must flee to the hills. Those in Jerusalem must get out, and those out in the country should not return to the city. ²² For those will be days of God's vengeance, and the prophetic words of the Scriptures will be fulfilled. ²³ How terrible it will be for pregnant women and for nursing mothers in those days. For there will be disaster in the land and great anger against this people. ²⁴ They will be killed by the sword or sent away as captives to all the nations of the world. And Jerusalem will be trampled down by the Gentiles until the period of the Gentiles comes to an end.

²⁵ "And there will be strange signs in the sun, moon, and stars. And here on earth the nations will be in turmoil, perplexed by the roaring seas and strange tides. ²⁶ People will be terrified at what they see coming upon the earth, for the powers in the heavens will be shaken. ²⁷ Then everyone will see the Son of Man* coming on a cloud with power and great glory.* ²⁸ So when all these things begin to happen, stand and look up, for your salvation is near!"

²⁹ Then he gave them this illustration: "Notice the fig tree, or any other tree. ³⁰ When the leaves come out, you know without being told that summer is near. ³¹ In the same way, when you see all these things taking place, you can know that the Kingdom of God is near. ³² I tell you the truth, this generation will not pass from the scene until all these things have taken place. ³³ Heaven and earth will disappear, but my words will never disappear.

³⁴ "Watch out! Don't let your hearts be dulled by carousing and drunkenness, and by the worries of this life. Don't let that day catch you unaware, ³⁵ like a trap. For that day will come upon everyone living on the earth. ³⁶ Keep alert at all times.

And pray that you might be strong enough to escape these coming horrors and stand before the Son of Man.”

³⁷ Every day Jesus went to the Temple to teach, and each evening he returned to spend the night on the Mount of Olives. ³⁸ The crowds gathered at the Temple early each morning to hear him.

Chapter 22

Judas Agrees to Betray Jesus

The Festival of Unleavened Bread, which is also called Passover, was approaching. ² The leading priests and teachers of religious law were plotting how to kill Jesus, but they were afraid of the people’s reaction.

³ Then Satan entered into Judas Iscariot, who was one of the twelve disciples, ⁴ and he went to the leading priests and captains of the Temple guard to discuss the best way to betray Jesus to them. ⁵ They were delighted, and they promised to give him money. ⁶ So he agreed and began looking for an opportunity to betray Jesus so they could arrest him when the crowds weren’t around.

The Last Supper

⁷ Now the Festival of Unleavened Bread arrived, when the Passover lamb is sacrificed. ⁸ Jesus sent Peter and John ahead and said, “Go and prepare the Passover meal, so we can eat it together.”

⁹ “Where do you want us to prepare it?” they asked him.

¹⁰ He replied, “As soon as you enter Jerusalem, a man carrying a pitcher of water will meet you. Follow him. At the house he enters, ¹¹ say to the owner, ‘The Teacher asks: Where is the guest room where I can eat the Passover meal with my disciples?’ ¹² He will take you upstairs to a large room that is already set up. That is where you should prepare our meal.” ¹³ They went off to the city and found everything just as Jesus had said, and they prepared the Passover meal there.

¹⁴ When the time came, Jesus and the apostles sat down together at the table.* ¹⁵ Jesus said, “I have been very eager to eat this Passover meal with you before my suffering begins. ¹⁶ For I tell you now that I won’t eat this meal again until its meaning is fulfilled in the Kingdom of God.”

¹⁷ Then he took a cup of wine and gave thanks to God for it. Then he said, “Take this and share it among yourselves. ¹⁸ For I will not drink wine again until the Kingdom of God has come.”

¹⁹ He took some bread and gave thanks to God for it. Then he broke it in pieces and gave it to the disciples, saying, “This is my body, which is given for you. Do this to remember me.”

²⁰ After supper he took another cup of wine and said, “This cup is the new covenant between God and his people—an agreement confirmed with my blood, which is poured out as a sacrifice for you.*

²¹ “But here at this table, sitting among us as a friend, is the man who will betray me. ²² For it has been determined that the Son of Man* must die. But what sorrow awaits the one who betrays him.” ²³ The disciples began to ask each other which of them would ever do such a thing.

²⁴ Then they began to argue among themselves about who would be the greatest among them. ²⁵ Jesus told them, “In this world the kings and great men lord it over their people, yet they are called ‘friends of the people.’ ²⁶ But among you it will be different. Those who are the greatest among you should take the lowest rank, and the leader should be like a servant. ²⁷ Who is more important, the one who sits at the table or the one who serves? The one who sits at the table, of course. But not here! For I am among you as one who serves.

²⁸ “You have stayed with me in my time of trial. ²⁹ And just as my Father has granted me a Kingdom, I now grant you the right ³⁰ to eat and drink at my table in my Kingdom. And you will sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

Jesus Predicts Peter’s Denial

³¹ “Simon, Simon, Satan has asked to sift each of you like wheat. ³² But I have pleaded in prayer for you, Simon, that your faith should not fail. So when you have repented and turned to me again, strengthen your brothers.”

³³ Peter said, “Lord, I am ready to go to prison with you, and even to die with you.”

³⁴ But Jesus said, “Peter, let me tell you something. Before the rooster crows tomorrow morning, you will deny three times that you even know me.”

³⁵ Then Jesus asked them, “When I sent you out to preach the Good News and you did not have money, a traveler’s bag, or an extra pair of sandals, did you need anything?”

“No,” they replied.

³⁶ “But now,” he said, “take your money and a traveler’s

bag. And if you don't have a sword, sell your cloak and buy one! ³⁷ For the time has come for this prophecy about me to be fulfilled: 'He was counted among the rebels.'* Yes, everything written about me by the prophets will come true."

HOPEFORTODAY

Resisting Temptation

There he told them, "Pray that you will not give in to temptation" (Luke 22:40).

When Jesus told His disciples to pray about temptation, He didn't say, "Pray that you'll never be tempted." No, we all face temptation. But God says, "When temptation comes, ask Me for help." In any area that you're trying to change, even small things, just simply pray, "God, I'm asking You to help me make the best choice. Help me stay on Your best plan."

Yes, resisting temptation takes effort. It takes discipline. But the benefits far outweigh the work. It's so much worse to live in bondage. It's hard feeling bad about yourself, living below your potential. There is nothing worse than going through the day weighed down by habits that used to be temptations but now are part of your life.

Today you may be struggling with addictions or with your temper or with being impatient. Truthfully, you may have given up the struggle. Now you are dragging around in mediocrity, allowing something so small to control you. Let me tell you what you already know—you are better than that. You're a child of the Most High God. You have His royal blood flowing through your veins. Don't you dare just sit back and settle where you are. There is not an obstacle in your life that you cannot overcome, large or small. It doesn't matter if it's a critical spirit or if you're addicted to cocaine, the Power that's in you is greater than the power that's trying to hold you back. Dig your heels in and fight the good fight of faith. Don't let that thing master you. Keep the attitude, "That's it. I'm not staying where I am. I'm coming up higher. I know I'm better than this. God has a much better life for me to live."

38 "Look, Lord," they replied, "we have two swords among us."

"That's enough," he said.

Jesus Prays on the Mount of Olives

39 Then, accompanied by the disciples, Jesus left the upstairs room and went as usual to the Mount of Olives. 40 There he told them, "Pray that you will not give in to temptation."

41 He walked away, about a stone's throw, and knelt down and prayed, ⁴² “Father, if you are willing, please take this cup of suffering away from me. Yet I want your will to be done, not mine.” ⁴³ Then an angel from heaven appeared and strengthened him. ⁴⁴ He prayed more fervently, and he was in such agony of spirit that his sweat fell to the ground like great drops of blood.*

⁴⁵ At last he stood up again and returned to the disciples, only to find them asleep, exhausted from grief. ⁴⁶ “Why are you sleeping?” he asked them. “Get up and pray, so that you will not give in to temptation.”

Jesus Is Betrayed and Arrested

⁴⁷ But even as Jesus said this, a crowd approached, led by Judas, one of the twelve disciples. Judas walked over to Jesus to greet him with a kiss. ⁴⁸ But Jesus said, “Judas, would you betray the Son of Man with a kiss?”

⁴⁹ When the other disciples saw what was about to happen, they exclaimed, “Lord, should we fight? We brought the swords!” ⁵⁰ And one of them struck at the high priest’s slave, slashing off his right ear.

⁵¹ But Jesus said, “No more of this.” And he touched the man’s ear and healed him.

⁵² Then Jesus spoke to the leading priests, the captains of the Temple guard, and the elders who had come for him. “Am I some dangerous revolutionary,” he asked, “that you come with swords and clubs to arrest me? ⁵³ Why didn’t you arrest me in the Temple? I was there every day. But this is your moment, the time when the power of darkness reigns.”

Peter Denies Jesus

⁵⁴ So they arrested him and led him to the high priest's home. And Peter followed at a distance. ⁵⁵ The guards lit a fire in the middle of the courtyard and sat around it, and Peter joined them there. ⁵⁶ A servant girl noticed him in the firelight and began staring at him. Finally she said, "This man was one of Jesus' followers!"

⁵⁸ After a while someone else looked at him and said, "You must be one of them!"

"No, man, I'm not!" Peter retorted.

⁵⁹ About an hour later someone else insisted, "This must be one of them, because he is a Galilean, too."

⁶⁰ But Peter said, "Man, I don't know what you are talking about." And immediately, while he was still speaking, the rooster crowed.

⁶³ The guards in charge of Jesus began mocking and beating him. ⁶⁴ They blindfolded him and said, "Prophecy to us! Who hit you that time?" ⁶⁵ And they hurled all sorts of terrible insults at him.

66 At daybreak all the elders of the people assembled, including the leading priests and the teachers of religious law. Jesus was led before this high council,* 67 and they said, “Tell us, are you the Messiah?”

But he replied, “If I tell you, you won’t believe me. 68 And if I ask you a question, you won’t answer. 69 But from now on the Son of Man will be seated in the place of power at God’s right hand.*”

70 They all shouted, “So, are you claiming to be the Son of God?”

And he replied, “You say that I am.”

71 “Why do we need other witnesses?” they said. “We ourselves heard him say it.”

Chapter 23

Jesus’ Trial before Pilate

Then the entire council took Jesus to Pilate, the Roman governor. 2 They began to state their case: “This man has been leading our people astray by telling them not to pay their taxes to the Roman government and by claiming he is the Messiah, a king.”

3 So Pilate asked him, “Are you the king of the Jews?”

Jesus replied, “You have said it.”

4 Pilate turned to the leading priests and to the crowd and said, “I find nothing wrong with this man!”

5 Then they became insistent. “But he is causing riots by his teaching wherever he goes—all over Judea, from Galilee to Jerusalem!”

⁶ “Oh, is he a Galilean?” Pilate asked. ⁷ When they said that he was, Pilate sent him to Herod Antipas, because Galilee was under Herod’s jurisdiction, and Herod happened to be in Jerusalem at the time.

⁸ Herod was delighted at the opportunity to see Jesus, because he had heard about him and had been hoping for a long time to see him perform a miracle. ⁹ He asked Jesus question after question, but Jesus refused to answer. ¹⁰ Meanwhile, the leading priests and the teachers of religious law stood there shouting their accusations. ¹¹ Then Herod and his soldiers began mocking and ridiculing Jesus. Finally, they put a royal robe on him and sent him back to Pilate. ¹² (Herod and Pilate, who had been enemies before, became friends that day.)

¹³ Then Pilate called together the leading priests and other religious leaders, along with the people, ¹⁴ and he announced his verdict. “You brought this man to me, accusing him of leading a revolt. I have examined him thoroughly on this point in your presence and find him innocent. ¹⁵ Herod came to the same conclusion and sent him back to us. Nothing this man has done calls for the death penalty. ¹⁶ So I will have him flogged, and then I will release him.”*

¹⁸ Then a mighty roar rose from the crowd, and with one voice they shouted, “Kill him, and release Barabbas to us!” ¹⁹ (Barabbas was in prison for taking part in an insurrection in Jerusalem against the government, and for murder.) ²⁰ Pilate argued with them, because he wanted to release Jesus. ²¹ But they kept shouting, “Crucify him! Crucify him!”

22 For the third time he demanded, “Why? What crime has he committed? I have found no reason to sentence him to death. So I will have him flogged, and then I will release him.”

23 But the mob shouted louder and louder, demanding that Jesus be crucified, and their voices prevailed. 24 So Pilate sentenced Jesus to die as they demanded. 25 As they had requested, he released Barabbas, the man in prison for insurrection and murder. But he turned Jesus over to them to do as they wished.

The Crucifixion

26 As they led Jesus away, a man named Simon, who was from Cyrene,* happened to be coming in from the countryside. The soldiers seized him and put the cross on him and made him carry it behind Jesus. 27 A large crowd trailed behind, including many grief-stricken women. 28 But Jesus turned and said to them, “Daughters of Jerusalem, don’t weep for me, but weep for yourselves and for your children. 29 For the days are coming when they will say, ‘Fortunate indeed are the women who are childless, the wombs that have not borne a child and the breasts that have never nursed.’ 30 People will beg the mountains, ‘Fall on us,’ and plead with the hills, ‘Bury us.’* 31 For if these things are done when the tree is green, what will happen when it is dry?*

32 Two others, both criminals, were led out to be executed with him. 33 When they came to a place called The Skull,* they nailed him to the cross. And the criminals were also crucified—

³⁹ One of the criminals hanging beside him scoffed, “So you’re the Messiah, are you? Prove it by saving yourself—and us, too, while you’re at it!”

⁴⁰ But the other criminal protested, “Don’t you fear God even when you have been sentenced to die? ⁴¹ We deserve to die for our crimes, but this man hasn’t done anything wrong.”

⁴² Then he said, “Jesus, remember me when you come into your Kingdom.”

Painful Forgiveness

Jesus said, “Father, forgive them, for they don’t know what they are doing” (Luke 23:34).

After everything Jesus went through on the way to the Cross—after being beaten, mocked, rejected, humiliated, scorned, whipped and nailed to a tree—the first words out of His mouth were words of forgiveness. He certainly didn't forgive because it was easy or painless. He was setting the example for us and all of humanity.

When you've been hurt or offended, sometimes it's tempting to hold on to unforgiveness. But we have to remember, when people wrong us, our battle is not against flesh and blood. In other words, that person who hurt you is not the real enemy. The Bible says that your adversary is the devil, and he knows that if you don't forgive, then your prayers won't be effective. Unforgiveness puts up a barrier in your life to the power of God. In fact, if we don't forgive others, we can't be forgiven by God. We acknowledge that every time we pray the Lord's Prayer—"Forgive our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us."

But when you choose forgiveness, you open the door for God's healing power to flow through your life. Disarm the enemy in your life today by choosing forgiveness. Bless those who curse you, and pray for those who wrong you. Look at what Jesus did—when He was betrayed, beaten, mocked, and disrespected, He chose forgiveness. That was the beginning of His victory!

43 And Jesus replied, "I assure you, today you will be with me in paradise.”

The Death of Jesus

⁴⁴ By this time it was about noon, and darkness fell across the whole land until three o'clock. ⁴⁵ The light from the sun was gone. And suddenly, the curtain in the sanctuary of the Temple was torn down the middle. ⁴⁶ Then Jesus shouted, “Father, I entrust my spirit into your hands!”* And with those words he breathed his last.

⁴⁷ When the Roman officer* overseeing the execution saw what had happened, he worshiped God and said, “Surely this man was innocent.” ⁴⁸ And when all the crowd that came to see the crucifixion saw what had happened, they went home in deep sorrow. ⁴⁹ But Jesus’ friends, including the women who had followed him from Galilee, stood at a distance watching.

The Burial of Jesus

⁵⁰ Now there was a good and righteous man named Joseph. He was a member of the Jewish high council, ⁵¹ but he had not agreed with the decision and actions of the other religious leaders. He was from the town of Arimathea in Judea, and he was waiting for the Kingdom of God to come. ⁵² He went to Pilate and asked for Jesus’ body. ⁵³ Then he took the body down from the cross and wrapped it in a long sheet of linen cloth and laid it in a new tomb that had been carved out of rock. ⁵⁴ This was done late on Friday afternoon, the day of preparation,* as the Sabbath was about to begin.

⁵⁵ As his body was taken away, the women from Galilee followed and saw the tomb where his body was placed. ⁵⁶ Then they went home and prepared spices and ointments to anoint his body. But by the time they were finished the Sabbath had begun, so they rested as required by the law.

Chapter 24

The Resurrection

But very early on Sunday morning* the women went to the tomb, taking the spices they had prepared. ² They found that the stone had been rolled away from the entrance. ³ So they went in, but they didn't find the body of the Lord Jesus. ⁴ As they stood there puzzled, two men suddenly appeared to them, clothed in dazzling robes.

⁵ The women were terrified and bowed with their faces to the ground. Then the men asked, "Why are you looking among the dead for someone who is alive? ⁶ He isn't here! He is risen from the dead! Remember what he told you back in Galilee, ⁷ that the Son of Man* must be betrayed into the hands of sinful men and be crucified, and that he would rise again on the third day."

⁸ Then they remembered that he had said this. ⁹ So they rushed back from the tomb to tell his eleven disciples—and everyone else—what had happened. ¹⁰ It was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and several other women who told the apostles what had happened. ¹¹ But the story sounded like nonsense to the men, so they didn't believe it. ¹² However, Peter jumped up and ran to the tomb to look. Stooping, he peered in and saw the empty linen wrappings; then he went home again, wondering what had happened.

The Walk to Emmaus

¹³ That same day two of Jesus' followers were walking to the village of Emmaus, seven miles* from Jerusalem. ¹⁴ As they walked along they were talking about everything that had happened. ¹⁵ As they talked and discussed these things, Jesus himself suddenly came and began walking with them. ¹⁶ But God kept them from recognizing him.

¹⁷ He asked them, "What are you discussing so intently as you walk along?"

They stopped short, sadness written across their faces. ¹⁸ Then one of them, Cleopas, replied, "You must be the only person in Jerusalem who hasn't heard about all the things that have happened there the last few days."

¹⁹ "What things?" Jesus asked.

"The things that happened to Jesus, the man from Nazareth," they said. "He was a prophet who did powerful miracles, and he was a mighty teacher in the eyes of God and all the people. ²⁰ But our leading priests and other religious leaders handed him over to be condemned to death, and they crucified him. ²¹ We had hoped he was the Messiah who had come to rescue Israel. This all happened three days ago.

²² "Then some women from our group of his followers were at his tomb early this morning, and they came back with an amazing report. ²³ They said his body was missing, and they had seen angels who told them Jesus is alive! ²⁴ Some of our men ran out to see, and sure enough, his body was gone, just as the women had said.”

²⁵ Then Jesus said to them, “You foolish people! You find it so hard to believe all that the prophets wrote in the Scriptures. ²⁶ Wasn’t it clearly predicted that the Messiah would have to suffer all these things before entering his glory?” ²⁷ Then Jesus took them through the writings of Moses and all the prophets, explaining from all the Scriptures the things concerning himself.

²⁸ By this time they were nearing Emmaus and the end of their journey. Jesus acted as if he were going on, ²⁹ but they begged him, “Stay the night with us, since it is getting late.” So he went home with them. ³⁰ As they sat down to eat, * he took the bread and blessed it. Then he broke it and gave it to them. ³¹ Suddenly, their eyes were opened, and they recognized him. And at that moment he disappeared!

³² They said to each other, “Didn’t our hearts burn within us as he talked with us on the road and explained the Scriptures to us?” ³³ And within the hour they were on their way back to Jerusalem. There they found the eleven disciples and the others who had gathered with them, ³⁴ who said, “The Lord has really risen! He appeared to Peter.*”

³⁵ Then the two from Emmaus told their story of how Jesus had appeared to them as they were walking along the road, and how they had recognized him as he was breaking the bread. ³⁶

And just as they were telling about it, Jesus himself was suddenly standing there among them. “Peace be with you,” he said.³⁷ But the whole group was startled and frightened, thinking they were seeing a ghost!

³⁸ “Why are you frightened?” he asked. “Why are your hearts filled with doubt? ³⁹ Look at my hands. Look at my feet. You can see that it’s really me. Touch me and make sure that I am not a ghost, because ghosts don’t have bodies, as you see that I do.” ⁴⁰ As he spoke, he showed them his hands and his feet.

⁴¹ Still they stood there in disbelief, filled with joy and wonder. Then he asked them, “Do you have anything here to eat?” ⁴² They gave him a piece of broiled fish, ⁴³ and he ate it as they watched.

HOPENOTE

Hearts Ablaze

They said to each other, “Didn’t our hearts burn within us as he talked with us on the road and explained the Scriptures to us?” (Luke 24:32).

What a privilege these two disciples had on the road to Emmaus to spend hours listening to Jesus talk about the Scriptures. His words were so powerful they ignited the hearts of the hearers. It’s easy to think, “Oh, they had Jesus in their midst. Of course, it was powerful.” Yet every time you open God’s Word or meditate on the Scripture, God’s Spirit is in you and walking with you to lead you into that same intimate experience of His presence.

Those moments of inner fire happen when we make our relationship with God top priority. If we treat God like a stranger in our lives, we shouldn’t be surprised when He feels like a stranger. But if we make a daily practice of welcoming Him into our activities, if we begin our days by telling Him how much we love Him and that we long to see Him walking with us every step of the way, then we can expect to have those moments that set our hearts ablaze.

44 Then he said, “When I was with you before, I told you that everything written about me in the law of Moses and the prophets and in the Psalms must be fulfilled.” 45 Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures. 46 And he said, “Yes, it was written long ago that the Messiah would suffer and die and rise from the dead on the third day. 47 It was also written that this message would be proclaimed in the authority of his name to all the nations,* beginning in Jerusalem: ‘There is forgiveness of sins for all who repent.’ 48 You are witnesses of all these things.

49 “And now I will send the Holy Spirit, just as my Father promised. But stay here in the city until the Holy Spirit comes and fills you with power from heaven.”

The Ascension

⁵⁰ Then Jesus led them to Bethany, and lifting his hands to heaven, he blessed them. ⁵¹ While he was blessing them, he left them and was taken up to heaven. ⁵² So they worshiped him and then returned to Jerusalem filled with great joy. ⁵³ And they spent all of their time in the Temple, praising God.

INTRO TO THE BOOK OF

John

Author:

John, the disciple of Jesus

Original Audience:

New Christians and searching non-Christians

Date of Writing:

AD 85–90

Setting:

Written after the destruction of Jerusalem in AD 70

Key People:

Jesus, John the Baptist, Mary, the disciples, Martha, Lazarus, Jesus' mother, Pilate, Mary Magdalene

Key Verses:

For God loved the world so much that he gave his one and only Son, so that everyone who believes in him will not perish but have eternal life (3:16).

The disciples saw Jesus do many other miraculous signs in addition to the ones recorded in this book. But these are written so that you may continue to believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that by believing in him you will have life by the power of his name (20:30-31).

Finding Hope and Encouragement in John

John's Gospel is not so much about the life of Jesus as it is a theological presentation of the deity of Jesus. John uses every event, every statement, every miracle, and every title to show us that Jesus is God. He makes the audacious claim by stating the purpose for his writing: "But these are written so that you may continue to believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that by believing in him you will have life by the power of his name" (20:31). John wants us to believe Jesus is God.

To accomplish this, John, the younger brother of James, meticulously recorded seven statements that Jesus made that can only be attributed to God Himself. Jesus said, "I am the bread of life" (6:35, 48); "I am the light of the world" (8:12; 9:5); "I am the gate" (10:7, 9); "I am the good shepherd" (10:11, 14); "I am the resurrection and the life" (11:25); "I am the way, the truth, and the life" (14:6), and "I am the true grapevine" (15:1). The "I am" recalls God's revelation of His name, "I AM" to Moses (Exodus 3:14). Please note that Jesus did not say He gave bread, but that He is bread, etc. These are clear statements and claims to His deity.

Furthermore, John recorded seven miracles or signs pointing to Jesus' divine nature. They are: changing water into wine (2:1-11), healing a man's son (4:46-54), healing a lame man (5:1-9), multiplying bread and fish (6:1-14), walking on water (6:16-21), healing a blind man (9:1-7), and raising Lazarus from the dead (11:38-44). Jesus possessed power over nature, something only God could do. By the way, this Gospel is sometimes referred to as "The Book of the Seven Signs" because of these seven miracles.

The greatest sign is the resurrection of Jesus from the tomb. John provides a stirring eyewitness account. He was one of the disciples to see the empty tomb. He recorded several post-resurrection appearances by Jesus.

John wanted to be unmistakably clear that Jesus is the divine Son of God in whom we should believe. He offers convincing and compelling proof that Jesus should be our God.

Chapter 1

Prologue: Christ, the Eternal Word

¹ In the beginning the Word already existed.

The Word was with God, and the Word was God.

² He existed in the beginning with God.

³ God created everything through him, and nothing was created except through him.

⁴ The Word gave life to everything that was created,* and his life brought light to everyone.

⁵ The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness can never extinguish it.*

⁶ God sent a man, John the Baptist,* ⁷ to tell about the light so that everyone might believe because of his testimony. ⁸ John himself was not the light; he was simply a witness to tell about the light. ⁹ The one who is the true light, who gives light to everyone, was coming into the world.

¹⁰ He came into the very world he created, but the world didn't recognize him. ¹¹ He came to his own people, and even they rejected him. ¹² But to all who believed him and accepted him, he gave the right to become children of God. ¹³ They are reborn—not with a physical birth resulting from human passion or plan, but a birth that comes from God.

14 So the Word became human* and made his home among us. He was full of unfailing love and faithfulness.* And we have seen his glory, the glory of the Father's one and only Son.

15 John testified about him when he shouted to the crowds, "This is the one I was talking about when I said, 'Someone is coming after me who is far greater than I am, for he existed long before me.'"

16 From his abundance we have all received one gracious blessing after another.* 17 For the law was given through Moses, but God's unfailing love and faithfulness came through Jesus Christ. 18 No one has ever seen God. But the unique One, who is himself God,* is near to the Father's heart. He has revealed God to us.

The Testimony of John the Baptist

19 This was John's testimony when the Jewish leaders sent priests and Temple assistants* from Jerusalem to ask John, "Who are you?" 20 He came right out and said, "I am not the Messiah."

HOPENOTE

Unfailing Love and Faithfulness

So the Word became human and made his home among us. He was full of unfailing love and faithfulness. And we have seen his glory, the glory of the Father's one and only Son (John 1:14).

The Word, who is God, became flesh and took up residence among people. Now, as amazing as this concept is, here is the kind of human being God turned out to be: full of unfailing love, faithfulness, and glory. Jesus was both a channel and source of God's unfailing, steadfast love. The Gospels repeatedly point out that He looked at people with compassion. He didn't just feel sorry for them, He did something about their needs! Compassion feels a need, mercy fills it. Jesus perfectly reflected the mercy and faithfulness of God. He was faithful to God's plan of salvation, and He was faithful to us. Without that love and faithfulness that filled Jesus, we would be without hope, lost in our sin. When we see all this, we are like John—overwhelmed with Jesus' glory.

When you are thinking of Jesus, keep reminding yourself that He is at home among us. He experienced the same joys and sorrows and the same victories and defeats that you and I do. He knows what you are facing from the inside out. He's been here and experienced what you experience. You can trust Him with everything you are because of His unfailing love and faithfulness.

21 “Well then, who are you?” they asked. “Are you Elijah?”

“No,” he replied.

“Are you the Prophet we are expecting?”*

“No.”

22 “Then who are you? We need an answer for those who sent us. What do you have to say about yourself?”

23 John replied in the words of the prophet Isaiah:

“I am a voice shouting in the wilderness, ‘Clear the way for the LORD’s coming!’”*

24 Then the Pharisees who had been sent 25 asked him, “If you aren’t the Messiah or Elijah or the Prophet, what right do you have to baptize?”

26 John told them, “I baptize with* water, but right here in the crowd is someone you do not recognize. 27 Though his ministry follows mine, I’m not even worthy to be his slave and untie the straps of his sandal.”

28 This encounter took place in Bethany, an area east of the Jordan River, where John was baptizing.

Jesus, the Lamb of God

29 The next day John saw Jesus coming toward him and said, “Look! The Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world!

30 He is the one I was talking about when I said, ‘A man is coming after me who is far greater than I am, for he existed long before me.’ 31 I did not recognize him as the Messiah, but I have been baptizing with water so that he might be revealed to Israel.”

32 Then John testified, “I saw the Holy Spirit descending like a dove from heaven and resting upon him.³³ I didn't know he was the one, but when God sent me to baptize with water, he told me, 'The one on whom you see the Spirit descend and rest is the one who will baptize with the Holy Spirit.'³⁴ I saw this happen to Jesus, so I testify that he is the Chosen One of God.*"

The First Disciples

³⁵ The following day John was again standing with two of his disciples.³⁶ As Jesus walked by, John looked at him and declared, "Look! There is the Lamb of God!"³⁷ When John's two disciples heard this, they followed Jesus.

³⁸ Jesus looked around and saw them following. "What do you want?" he asked them.

They replied, "Rabbi" (which means "Teacher"), "where are you staying?"

³⁹ "Come and see," he said. It was about four o'clock in the afternoon when they went with him to the place where he was staying, and they remained with him the rest of the day.

⁴² Then Andrew brought Simon to meet Jesus. Looking intently at Simon, Jesus said, "Your name is Simon, son of John—but you will be called Cephas" (which means "Peter"*).

⁴³ The next day Jesus decided to go to Galilee. He found Philip and said to him, "Come, follow me."⁴⁴ Philip was from Bethsaida, Andrew and Peter's hometown.

45 Philip went to look for Nathanael and told him, "We have found the very person Moses* and the prophets wrote about! His name is Jesus, the son of Joseph from Nazareth."

46 "Nazareth!" exclaimed Nathanael. "Can anything good come from Nazareth?"

"Come and see for yourself," Philip replied.

47 As they approached, Jesus said, "Now here is a genuine son of Israel—a man of complete integrity."

48 "How do you know about me?" Nathanael asked.

Jesus replied, "I could see you under the fig tree before Philip found you."

49 Then Nathanael exclaimed, "Rabbi, you are the Son of God—the King of Israel!"

50 Jesus asked him, "Do you believe this just because I told you I had seen you under the fig tree? You will see greater things than this." 51 Then he said, "I tell you the truth, you will all see heaven open and the angels of God going up and down on the Son of Man, the one who is the stairway between heaven and earth.*"

Chapter 2

The Wedding at Cana

The next day* there was a wedding celebration in the village of Cana in Galilee. Jesus' mother was there,² and Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the celebration.³ The wine supply ran out during the festivities, so Jesus' mother told him,

⁴ “Dear woman, that’s not our problem,” Jesus replied. “My time has not yet come.”

⁵ But his mother told the servants, “Do whatever he tells you.”

⁶ Standing nearby were six stone water jars, used for Jewish ceremonial washing. Each could hold twenty to thirty gallons.*

⁷ Jesus told the servants, “Fill the jars with water.” When the jars had been filled, ⁸ he said, “Now dip some out, and take it to the master of ceremonies.” So the servants followed his instructions.

Just Do It

Do whatever he tells you (John 2:5).

In this passage, we read about Jesus’ first recorded miracle, turning water into wine. Jesus’ mother, Mary, presented the problem to her son that the wedding party did not have enough wine. Then she turned to the servants and said, “Do whatever He tells you.” Mary already knew the importance of obeying God. Notice that Mary didn’t question Jesus, “How are You going to fix the problem?” She just trusted that obedience would bring the answer.

Notice in verses 6-7 that Jesus commanded the servants to fill the jars—and those jars held twenty to thirty gallons! But the servants filled them to the brim. What jars in your life is He asking you to fill so He can pour out abundant blessing?

“Filling the jars” in your life can mean giving it all you have on the job. “Filling the jars” can mean pouring into the people around you—speaking life-giving words. It can mean being faithful with your tithe and then giving over and above. Friend, you can’t out-give God—He’s setting you up for a miracle! Remember, whatever He says, do it! And then step back and watch the power of God perform amazing works in your life!

⁹ When the master of ceremonies tasted the water that was now wine, not knowing where it had come from (though, of course, the servants knew), he called the bridegroom over. ¹⁰ “A host always serves the best wine first,” he said. “Then, when everyone has had a lot to drink, he brings out the less expensive wine. But you have kept the best until now!”

¹¹ This miraculous sign at Cana in Galilee was the first time Jesus revealed his glory. And his disciples believed in him.

¹² After the wedding he went to Capernaum for a few days with his mother, his brothers, and his disciples.

Jesus Clears the Temple

¹³ It was nearly time for the Jewish Passover celebration, so Jesus went to Jerusalem. ¹⁴ In the Temple area he saw merchants selling cattle, sheep, and doves for sacrifices; he also saw dealers at tables exchanging foreign money. ¹⁵ Jesus made a whip from some ropes and chased them all out of the Temple. He drove out the sheep and cattle, scattered the money changers' coins over the floor, and turned over their tables. ¹⁶ Then, going over to the people who sold doves, he told them, "Get these things out of here. Stop turning my Father's house into a marketplace!"

¹⁷ Then his disciples remembered this prophecy from the Scriptures: "Passion for God's house will consume me."*

¹⁹ "All right," Jesus replied. "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up."

²⁰ "What!" they exclaimed. "It has taken forty-six years to build this Temple, and you can rebuild it in three days?" ²¹ But when Jesus said "this temple," he meant his own body. ²² After he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered he had said this, and they believed both the Scriptures and what Jesus had said.

Jesus and Nicodemus

²³ Because of the miraculous signs Jesus did in Jerusalem at the Passover celebration, many began to trust in him. ²⁴ But Jesus didn't trust them, because he knew human nature. ²⁵ No one needed to tell him what mankind is really like.

Chapter 3

There was a man named Nicodemus, a Jewish religious leader who was a Pharisee.² After dark one evening, he came to speak with Jesus. “Rabbi,” he said, “we all know that God has sent you to teach us. Your miraculous signs are evidence that God is with you.”

³ Jesus replied, “I tell you the truth, unless you are born again,* you cannot see the Kingdom of God.”

⁴ “What do you mean?” exclaimed Nicodemus. “How can an old man go back into his mother’s womb and be born again?”

⁵ Jesus replied, “I assure you, no one can enter the Kingdom of God without being born of water and the Spirit.* ⁶ Humans can reproduce only human life, but the Holy Spirit gives birth to spiritual life.* ⁷ So don’t be surprised when I say, ‘You * must be born again.’ ⁸ The wind blows wherever it wants. Just as you can hear the wind but can’t tell where it comes from or where it is going, so you can’t explain how people are born of the Spirit.”

⁹ “How are these things possible?” Nicodemus asked.

¹⁰ Jesus replied, “You are a respected Jewish teacher, and yet you don’t understand these things? ¹¹ I assure you, we tell you what we know and have seen, and yet you won’t believe our testimony. ¹² But if you don’t believe me when I tell you about earthly things, how can you possibly believe if I tell you about heavenly things? ¹³ No one has ever gone to heaven and returned. But the Son of Man* has come down from heaven. ¹⁴ And as Moses lifted up the bronze snake on a pole in the wilderness, so the Son of Man must be lifted up, ¹⁵ so that everyone who believes in him will have eternal life.*

¹⁶ “For God loved the world so much that he gave his one and only Son, so that everyone who believes in him will not perish but have eternal life. ¹⁷ God sent his Son into the world not to judge the world, but to save the world through him.

HOPENOTE

Everyone

For God loved the world so much that he gave his one and only Son, so that everyone who believes in him will not perish but have eternal life (John 3:16).

When God sent His Son to the earth, He opened the door of salvation to everyone who would believe. That means anyone can become His child and have everlasting life! Aren't you glad He didn't just come to save certain kinds of people? Aren't you glad He didn't have a bunch of rules and conditions for salvation? The good news is that everyone who believes in Him will have eternal life.

Before Jesus came, people had to observe many laws in order to be holy enough to enter the Temple. They were constantly performing sacrifices to pay for their sins just so they could come near to the presence of God. And even then, their sins were only covered up. But when Jesus came, He was the final sacrifice. His blood that was shed on the cross didn't just cover our sins, it washed us clean. Now, instead of just going to the Temple to be near God, the Bible says we are the Temple, and He chooses to live inside of us (1 Corinthians 3:16). Thank Him today for His mercy and for extending the gift of salvation to “everyone who believes.”

Are you one of the everyone? Have you believed and received? If you've never asked Him into your life, there's no better time than right now. Simply open your heart and invite Him in.

¹⁸ “There is no judgment against anyone who believes in him. But anyone who does not believe in him has already been judged for not believing in God's one and only Son. ¹⁹ And the judgment is based on this fact: God's light came into the world, but people loved the darkness more than the light, for their actions were evil. ²⁰ All who do evil hate the light and refuse to go near it for fear their sins will be exposed. ²¹ But those who do what is right come to the light so others can see that they are doing what God wants.*”

John the Baptist Exalts Jesus

²² Then Jesus and his disciples left Jerusalem and went into the Judean countryside. Jesus spent some time with them there, baptizing people.

²³ At this time John the Baptist was baptizing at Aenon, near Salim, because there was plenty of water there; and people kept coming to him for baptism.²⁴ (This was before John was thrown into prison.)²⁵ A debate broke out between John's disciples and a certain Jew* over ceremonial cleansing.²⁶ So John's disciples came to him and said, "Rabbi, the man you met on the other side of the Jordan River, the one you identified as the Messiah, is also baptizing people. And everybody is going to him instead of coming to us."

27 John replied, "No one can receive anything unless God gives it from heaven.²⁸ You yourselves know how plainly I told you, 'I am not the Messiah. I am only here to prepare the way for him.'²⁹ It is the bridegroom who marries the bride, and the best man is simply glad to stand with him and hear his vows. Therefore, I am filled with joy at his success.³⁰ He must become greater and greater, and I must become less and less.

31 "He has come from above and is greater than anyone else. We are of the earth, and we speak of earthly things, but he has come from heaven and is greater than anyone else.*³² He testifies about what he has seen and heard, but how few believe what he tells them!³³ Anyone who accepts his testimony can affirm that God is true.³⁴ For he is sent by God. He speaks God's words, for God gives him the Spirit without limit.³⁵ The Father loves his Son and has put everything into his hands.³⁶ And anyone who believes in God's Son has eternal life. Anyone who doesn't obey the Son will never experience eternal life but remains under God's angry judgment."

Chapter 4

Jesus and the Samaritan Woman

Jesus* knew the Pharisees had heard that he was baptizing and making more disciples than John ² (though Jesus himself didn't baptize them—his disciples did).³ So he left Judea and returned to Galilee.

⁴ He had to go through Samaria on the way. ⁵ Eventually he came to the Samaritan village of Sychar, near the field that Jacob gave to his son Joseph. ⁶ Jacob's well was there; and Jesus, tired from the long walk, sat wearily beside the well about noontime. ⁷ Soon a Samaritan woman came to draw water, and Jesus said to her, "Please give me a drink."⁸ He was alone at the time because his disciples had gone into the village to buy some food.

⁹ The woman was surprised, for Jews refuse to have anything to do with Samaritans.* She said to Jesus, "You are a Jew, and I am a Samaritan woman. Why are you asking me for a drink?"

¹⁰ Jesus replied, "If you only knew the gift God has for you and who you are speaking to, you would ask me, and I would give you living water."

¹¹ "But sir, you don't have a rope or a bucket," she said, "and this well is very deep. Where would you get this living water?" ¹² And besides, do you think you're greater than our ancestor Jacob, who gave us this well? How can you offer better water than he and his sons and his animals enjoyed?"

¹³ Jesus replied, "Anyone who drinks this water will soon become thirsty again. ¹⁴ But those who drink the water I give will never be thirsty again. It becomes a fresh, bubbling spring within them, giving them eternal life.”

15 “Please, sir,” the woman said, “give me this water! Then I’ll never be thirsty again, and I won’t have to come here to get water.”

16 “Go and get your husband,” Jesus told her.

17 “I don’t have a husband,” the woman replied.

Jesus said, “You’re right! You don’t have a husband—¹⁸ for you have had five husbands, and you aren’t even married to the man you’re living with now. You certainly spoke the truth!”

19 “Sir,” the woman said, “you must be a prophet. ²⁰ So tell me, why is it that you Jews insist that Jerusalem is the only place of worship, while we Samaritans claim it is here at Mount Gerizim,* where our ancestors worshiped?”

21 Jesus replied, “Believe me, dear woman, the time is coming when it will no longer matter whether you worship the Father on this mountain or in Jerusalem. ²² You Samaritans know very little about the one you worship, while we Jews know all about him, for salvation comes through the Jews. ²³ But the time is coming—indeed it’s here now—when true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and in truth. The Father is looking for those who will worship him that way. ²⁴ For God is Spirit, so those who worship him must worship in spirit and in truth.”

HOPENOTE

A Bubbling Spring of Life

But those who drink the water I give will never be thirsty again. It becomes a fresh, bubbling spring within them, giving them eternal life (John 4:14).

When you make Jesus the Lord of your life, God puts within you an eternal spring that will never run dry. And when you have a bubbling spring of life on the inside, it changes you. When that life inside “bubbles up,” it’ll make a difference on your face. It’ll make a difference in the way you talk. It’ll make a difference in the way you approach people.

But the enemy doesn’t want your joy, happiness, or laughter to flow freely. He knows that your river of life is going to draw others to Jesus. So he comes along and tries to throw stones in your spring. Maybe it’s a stone of worry. Or a stone of offense. Somebody hurt your feelings. Somebody cut you off in traffic. Then you start throwing your own rocks in—a little stone of self-pity and a few pebbles of complaining. Before long, you’re all stopped up. Instead of that bubbling spring flowing out of you, there’s bitterness, anger, frustration, and negativity.

Friend, today is the day to get that spring of life flowing again! Give those rocks to Jesus and let Him fill you with His joy and peace. As you let that fresh, bubbling spring flow freely from within, you’ll be refreshing others.

25 The woman said, “I know the Messiah is coming—the one who is called Christ. When he comes, he will explain everything to us.”

26 Then Jesus told her, “I AM the Messiah!”

27 Just then his disciples came back. They were shocked to find him talking to a woman, but none of them had the nerve to ask, “What do you want with her?” or “Why are you talking to her?” 28 The woman left her water jar beside the well and ran back to the village, telling everyone, 29 “Come and see a man who told me everything I ever did! Could he possibly be the Messiah?” 30 So the people came streaming from the village to see him.

31 Meanwhile, the disciples were urging Jesus, “Rabbi, eat something.”

32 But Jesus replied, “I have a kind of food you know nothing about.”

33 “Did someone bring him food while we were gone?” the disciples asked each other.

34 Then Jesus explained: “My nourishment comes from doing the will of God, who sent me, and from finishing his work. 35 You know the saying, ‘Four months between planting and harvest.’ But I say, wake up and look around. The fields are already ripe* for harvest. 36 The harvesters are paid good wages, and the fruit they harvest is people brought to eternal life. What joy awaits both the planter and the harvester alike! 37 You know the saying, ‘One plants and another harvests.’ And it’s true. 38 I sent you to harvest where you didn’t plant; others had already done the work, and now you will get to gather the

Many Samaritans Believe

³⁹ Many Samaritans from the village believed in Jesus because the woman had said, “He told me everything I ever did!” ⁴⁰ When they came out to see him, they begged him to stay in their village. So he stayed for two days, ⁴¹ long enough for many more to hear his message and believe. ⁴² Then they said to the woman, “Now we believe, not just because of what you told us, but because we have heard him ourselves. Now we know that he is indeed the Savior of the world.”

Jesus Heals an Official's Son

⁴³ At the end of the two days, Jesus went on to Galilee. ⁴⁴ He himself had said that a prophet is not honored in his own hometown. ⁴⁵ Yet the Galileans welcomed him, for they had been in Jerusalem at the Passover celebration and had seen everything he did there.

HOPENOTE

Unexpected Harvest

I sent you to harvest where you didn't plant; others had already done the work, and now you will get to gather the harvest (John 4:38).

Many of the natural systems and principles that we see in the world also parallel spiritual systems and principles. After the woman of Samaria invited her neighbors to meet Jesus, He talked to His disciples about the principle of the spiritual harvest. In the natural world, we know that the farmer plants seeds and reaps a harvest based on what he sowed. But Jesus told His disciples that sometimes they could expect to harvest where they hadn't sown, and other times they'd sow where they might not see the harvest.

For example, I recognize that the harvest we are experiencing at Lakewood Church is a result of seeds that were planted years ago by my father and mother in this ministry. Their faithful sowing continues to bring in an abundant harvest even today. I pray this of any ministry and every life—that we enjoy the harvest of what others have selflessly worked for; and that we make every effort to leave behind many fields sown in faith for others to one day harvest.

⁴⁶ As he traveled through Galilee, he came to Cana, where he had turned the water into wine. There was a government official in nearby Capernaum whose son was very sick.⁴⁷ When he heard that Jesus had come from Judea to Galilee, he went and begged Jesus to come to Capernaum to heal his son, who was about to die.

⁴⁸ Jesus asked, “Will you never believe in me unless you see miraculous signs and wonders?”

49 The official pleaded, “Lord, please come now before my little boy dies.”

50 Then Jesus told him, “Go back home. Your son will live!” And the man believed what Jesus said and started home.

51 While the man was on his way, some of his servants met him with the news that his son was alive and well. 52 He asked them when the boy had begun to get better, and they replied, “Yesterday afternoon at one o’clock his fever suddenly disappeared!” 53 Then the father realized that that was the very time Jesus had told him, “Your son will live.” And he and his entire household believed in Jesus. 54 This was the second miraculous sign Jesus did in Galilee after coming from Judea.

Chapter 5

Jesus Heals a Lame Man

Afterward Jesus returned to Jerusalem for one of the Jewish holy days. 2 Inside the city, near the Sheep Gate, was the pool of Bethesda,* with five covered porches. 3 Crowds of sick people—blind, lame, or paralyzed—lay on the porches.* 5 One of the men lying there had been sick for thirty-eight years. 6 When Jesus saw him and knew he had been ill for a long time, he asked him, “Would you like to get well?”

7 “I can’t, sir,” the sick man said, “for I have no one to put me into the pool when the water bubbles up. Someone else always gets there ahead of me.”

8 Jesus told him, “Stand up, pick up your mat, and walk!”

⁹ Instantly, the man was healed! He rolled up his sleeping mat and began walking! But this miracle happened on the Sabbath,¹⁰ so the Jewish leaders objected. They said to the man who was cured, “You can’t work on the Sabbath! The law doesn’t allow you to carry that sleeping mat!”

¹¹ But he replied, “The man who healed me told me, ‘Pick up your mat and walk.’”

¹² “Who said such a thing as that?” they demanded.

¹³ The man didn’t know, for Jesus had disappeared into the crowd. ¹⁴ But afterward Jesus found him in the Temple and told him, “Now you are well; so stop sinning, or something even worse may happen to you.” ¹⁵ Then the man went and told the Jewish leaders that it was Jesus who had healed him.

HOPENOTE

Right Where You Are

When Jesus saw him and knew he had been ill for a long time, he asked him, “Would you like to get well?” (John 5:6).

Jesus asked the sick man at the pool of Bethesda a simple, yes-or-no question. The man answered Jesus, but he didn’t say “yes” or “no.” Instead, he started explaining why he couldn’t get into the healing waters; he didn’t have anyone who could help him into the pool when the angel stirred the waters. Jesus, with a heart of compassion, simply replied, “Stand up, pick up your mat, and walk.” By healing the man a few steps away from the water, Jesus showed that the healing power was in Him not in the water.

There’s no circumstance, obstacle, or limitation that can stand in the way of God’s miracle-working power. We may get frustrated when things are not happening on our timetable. Things may look impossible, but God can move in a different way than you thought. This man thought there was only one way to get his healing, but God healed him a different way. This man got as far as he could on his own, and Jesus met him right where he was. Wherever you are today, remember, you serve a faithful, compassionate, loving God. He desires to make you whole physically, spiritually, and emotionally. Open the eyes of your heart and keep an attitude of expectancy because God will meet you right where you are.

Jesus Claims to Be the Son of God

¹⁶ So the Jewish leaders began harassing* Jesus for breaking the Sabbath rules. ¹⁷ But Jesus replied, “My Father is always working, and so am I.” ¹⁸ So the Jewish leaders tried all the harder to find a way to kill him. For he not only broke the Sabbath, he called God his Father, thereby making himself equal with God.

¹⁹ So Jesus explained, “I tell you the truth, the Son can do nothing by himself. He does only what he sees the Father doing. Whatever the Father does, the Son also does.²⁰ For the Father loves the Son and shows him everything he is doing. In fact, the Father will show him how to do even greater works than healing this man. Then you will truly be astonished.²¹ For just as the Father gives life to those he raises from the dead, so the Son gives life to anyone he wants.²² In addition, the Father judges no one. Instead, he has given the Son absolute authority to judge,²³ so that everyone will honor the Son, just as they honor the Father. Anyone who does not honor the Son is certainly not honoring the Father who sent him.

24 “I tell you the truth, those who listen to my message and believe in God who sent me have eternal life. They will never be condemned for their sins, but they have already passed from death into life.

25 “And I assure you that the time is coming, indeed it’s here now, when the dead will hear my voice—the voice of the Son of God. And those who listen will live.²⁶ The Father has life in himself, and he has granted that same life-giving power to his Son.²⁷ And he has given him authority to judge everyone because he is the Son of Man.*²⁸ Don’t be so surprised! Indeed, the time is coming when all the dead in their graves will hear the voice of God’s Son,²⁹ and they will rise again. Those who have done good will rise to experience eternal life, and those who have continued in evil will rise to experience judgment.³⁰ I can do nothing on my own. I judge as God tells me. Therefore, my judgment is just, because I carry out the will of the one who sent me, not my own will.

³¹ “If I were to testify on my own behalf, my testimony would not be valid. ³² But someone else is also testifying about me, and I assure you that everything he says about me is true. ³³ In fact, you sent investigators to listen to John the Baptist, and his testimony about me was true. ³⁴ Of course, I have no need of human witnesses, but I say these things so you might be saved. ³⁵ John was like a burning and shining lamp, and you were excited for a while about his message. ³⁶ But I have a greater witness than John—my teachings and my miracles. The Father gave me these works to accomplish, and they prove that he sent me. ³⁷ And the Father who sent me has testified about me himself. You have never heard his voice or seen him face to face, ³⁸ and you do not have his message in your hearts, because you do not believe me—the one he sent to you.

³⁹ “You search the Scriptures because you think they give you eternal life. But the Scriptures point to me! ⁴⁰ Yet you refuse to come to me to receive this life.

⁴¹ “Your approval means nothing to me, ⁴² because I know you don’t have God’s love within you. ⁴³ For I have come to you in my Father’s name, and you have rejected me. Yet if others come in their own name, you gladly welcome them. ⁴⁴ No wonder you can’t believe! For you gladly honor each other, but you don’t care about the honor that comes from the one who alone is God.*

⁴⁵ “Yet it isn’t I who will accuse you before the Father. Moses will accuse you! Yes, Moses, in whom you put your hopes. ⁴⁶ If you really believed Moses, you would believe me, because he wrote about me. ⁴⁷ But since you don't believe what he wrote, how will you believe what I say?"

Chapter 6

Jesus Feeds Five Thousand

After this, Jesus crossed over to the far side of the Sea of Galilee, also known as the Sea of Tiberias. ² A huge crowd kept following him wherever he went, because they saw his miraculous signs as he healed the sick. ³ Then Jesus climbed a hill and sat down with his disciples around him. ⁴ (It was nearly time for the Jewish Passover celebration.) ⁵ Jesus soon saw a huge crowd of people coming to look for him. Turning to Philip, he asked, "Where can we buy bread to feed all these people?" ⁶ He was testing Philip, for he already knew what he was going to do.

⁸ Then Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, spoke up. ⁹ "There's a young boy here with five barley loaves and two fish. But what good is that with this huge crowd?"

HOPENOTE

Nothing Wasted

After everyone was full, Jesus told his disciples, “Now gather the leftovers, so that nothing is wasted” (John 6:12).

To the people who wonder how on earth Jesus fed a crowd of five thousand with five loaves and two fish I say, “Did you notice how many leftovers there were?” That’s because we serve a God of abundance! That day, everyone had more than enough to eat, and there were still twelve baskets full of bread and fish remaining. I love that Jesus told the disciples to collect all the leftovers, “so that nothing is wasted.” With God, nothing is ever wasted. He’ll never waste an experience; He’ll never waste a hurt; He’ll never waste a dream; He’ll never waste a single piece of bread.

God is still in the miracle-working business. He is a Creator and a Restorer. If you’ve felt like you’ve wasted years of your life in the wrong job, hanging around the wrong people, doing the wrong things, God will gather those years and restore them back to you. He’ll take those experiences that the enemy meant for your harm and He’ll turn them around for your good. He’ll make you stronger, wiser, and better off than you were before. He can launch you further into your destiny than you thought possible. Be encouraged today because with God all things are possible and nothing is ever wasted!

10 “Tell everyone to sit down,” Jesus said. So they all sat down on the grassy slopes. (The men alone numbered about 5,000.) ¹¹ Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks to God, and distributed them to the people. Afterward he did the same with the fish. And they all ate as much as they wanted. ¹² After everyone was full, Jesus told his disciples, “Now gather the leftovers, so that nothing is wasted.” ¹³ So they picked up the pieces and filled twelve baskets with scraps left by the people who had eaten from the five barley loaves.

¹⁴ When the people saw him* do this miraculous sign, they exclaimed, “Surely, he is the Prophet we have been expecting!”* ¹⁵ When Jesus saw that they were ready to force him to be their king, he slipped away into the hills by himself.

Jesus Walks on Water

¹⁶ That evening Jesus’ disciples went down to the shore to wait for him. ¹⁷ But as darkness fell and Jesus still hadn’t come back, they got into the boat and headed across the lake toward Capernaum. ¹⁸ Soon a gale swept down upon them, and the sea grew very rough. ¹⁹ They had rowed three or four miles* when suddenly they saw Jesus walking on the water toward the boat. They were terrified, ²⁰ but he called out to them, “Don’t be afraid. I am here!”* ²¹ Then they were eager to let him in the boat, and immediately they arrived at their destination!

Jesus, the Bread of Life

²² The next day the crowd that had stayed on the far shore saw that the disciples had taken the only boat, and they realized Jesus had not gone with them. ²³ Several boats from Tiberias landed near the place where the Lord had blessed the bread and the people had eaten.²⁴ So when the crowd saw that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they got into the boats and went across to Capernaum to look for him.²⁵ They found him on the other side of the lake and asked, “Rabbi, when did you get here?”

²⁶ Jesus replied, “I tell you the truth, you want to be with me because I fed you, not because you understood the miraculous signs.²⁷ But don’t be so concerned about perishable things like food. Spend your energy seeking the eternal life that the Son of Man* can give you. For God the Father has given me the seal of his approval.”

²⁹ Jesus told them, “This is the only work God wants from you: Believe in the one he has sent.”

³² Jesus said, “I tell you the truth, Moses didn’t give you bread from heaven. My Father did. And now he offers you the true bread from heaven.³³ The true bread of God is the one who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.”

³⁴ “Sir,” they said, “give us that bread every day.”

³⁵ Jesus replied, “I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry again. Whoever believes in me will never be thirsty. ³⁶ But you haven't believed in me even though you have seen me. ³⁷ However, those the Father has given me will come to me, and I will never reject them. ³⁸ For I have come down from heaven to do the will of God who sent me, not to do my own will. ³⁹ And this is the will of God, that I should not lose even one of all those he has given me, but that I should raise them up at the last day. ⁴⁰ For it is my Father's will that all who see his Son and believe in him should have eternal life. I will raise them up at the last day."

⁴¹ Then the people* began to murmur in disagreement because he had said, "I am the bread that came down from heaven." ⁴² They said, "Isn't this Jesus, the son of Joseph? We know his father and mother. How can he say, 'I came down from heaven'?"

⁴³ But Jesus replied, "Stop complaining about what I said. ⁴⁴ For no one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws them to me, and at the last day I will raise them up. ⁴⁵ As it is written in the Scriptures,* 'They will all be taught by God.' Everyone who listens to the Father and learns from him comes to me. ⁴⁶ (Not that anyone has ever seen the Father; only I, who was sent from God, have seen him.)

⁴⁷ "I tell you the truth, anyone who believes has eternal life. ⁴⁸ Yes, I am the bread of life! ⁴⁹ Your ancestors ate manna in the wilderness, but they all died. ⁵⁰ Anyone who eats the bread from heaven, however, will never die. ⁵¹ I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Anyone who eats this bread will live forever; and this bread, which I will offer so the world may live, is my flesh."

52 Then the people began arguing with each other about what he meant. “How can this man give us his flesh to eat?” they asked.

53 So Jesus said again, “I tell you the truth, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you cannot have eternal life within you. 54 But anyone who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise that person at the last day. 55 For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. 56 Anyone who eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me, and I in him. 57 I live because of the living Father who sent me; in the same way, anyone who feeds on me will live because of me. 58 I am the true bread that came down from heaven. Anyone who eats this bread will not die as your ancestors did (even though they ate the manna) but will live forever.”

59 He said these things while he was teaching in the synagogue in Capernaum.

Many Disciples Desert Jesus

60 Many of his disciples said, “This is very hard to understand. How can anyone accept it?”

61 Jesus was aware that his disciples were complaining, so he said to them, “Does this offend you? 62 Then what will you think if you see the Son of Man ascend to heaven again? 63 The Spirit alone gives eternal life. Human effort accomplishes nothing. And the very words I have spoken to you are spirit and life. 64 But some of you do not believe me.” (For Jesus knew from the beginning which ones didn’t believe, and he knew who would betray him.)⁶⁵ Then he said, “That is why I said that people can’t come to me unless the Father gives them to me.”

⁶⁶ At this point many of his disciples turned away and deserted him.⁶⁷ Then Jesus turned to the Twelve and asked, “Are you also going to leave?”

⁶⁸ Simon Peter replied, “Lord, to whom would we go? You have the words that give eternal life.⁶⁹ We believe, and we know you are the Holy One of God.*”

⁷⁰ Then Jesus said, “I chose the twelve of you, but one is a devil.”⁷¹ He was speaking of Judas, son of Simon Iscariot, one of the Twelve, who would later betray him.

Chapter 7

Jesus and His Brothers

After this, Jesus traveled around Galilee. He wanted to stay out of Judea, where the Jewish leaders were plotting his death.² But soon it was time for the Jewish Festival of Shelters,³ and Jesus’ brothers said to him, “Leave here and go to Judea, where your followers can see your miracles!”⁴ You can’t become famous if you hide like this! If you can do such wonderful things, show yourself to the world!”⁵ For even his brothers didn’t believe in him.

⁶ Jesus replied, “Now is not the right time for me to go, but you can go anytime.⁷ The world can’t hate you, but it does hate me because I accuse it of doing evil.⁸ You go on. I’m not going* to this festival, because my time has not yet come.”⁹

After saying these things, Jesus remained in Galilee.

Jesus Teaches Openly at the Temple

¹⁴ Then, midway through the festival, Jesus went up to the Temple and began to teach. ¹⁵ The people* were surprised when they heard him. “How does he know so much when he hasn’t been trained?” they asked.

¹⁶ So Jesus told them, “My message is not my own; it comes from God who sent me. ¹⁷ Anyone who wants to do the will of God will know whether my teaching is from God or is merely my own. ¹⁸ Those who speak for themselves want glory only for themselves, but a person who seeks to honor the one who sent him speaks truth, not lies. ¹⁹ Moses gave you the law, but none of you obeys it! In fact, you are trying to kill me.”

²⁰ The crowd replied, “You’re demon possessed! Who’s trying to kill you?”

²¹ Jesus replied, “I did one miracle on the Sabbath, and you were amazed. ²² But you work on the Sabbath, too, when you obey Moses’ law of circumcision. (Actually, this tradition of circumcision began with the patriarchs, long before the law of Moses.)²³ For if the correct time for circumcising your son falls on the Sabbath, you go ahead and do it so as not to break the law of Moses. So why should you be angry with me for healing a man on the Sabbath?²⁴ Look beneath the surface so you can judge correctly.”

Is Jesus the Messiah?

²⁵ Some of the people who lived in Jerusalem started to ask each other, “Isn’t this the man they are trying to kill?”²⁶ But here he is, speaking in public, and they say nothing to him. Could our leaders possibly believe that he is the Messiah?²⁷ But how could he be? For we know where this man comes from. When the Messiah comes, he will simply appear; no one will know where he comes from.”

²⁸ While Jesus was teaching in the Temple, he called out, “Yes, you know me, and you know where I come from. But I’m not here on my own. The one who sent me is true, and you don’t know him.”²⁹ But I know him because I come from him, and he sent me to you.”³⁰ Then the leaders tried to arrest him; but no one laid a hand on him, because his time* had not yet come.

³¹ Many among the crowds at the Temple believed in him. “After all,” they said, “would you expect the Messiah to do more miraculous signs than this man has done?”

³² When the Pharisees heard that the crowds were whispering such things, they and the leading priests sent Temple guards to arrest Jesus.³³ But Jesus told them, “I will be with you only a little longer. Then I will return to the one who sent me. ³⁴ You will search for me but not find me. And you cannot go where I am going.”

HOPEFORTODAY

Look Beneath the Surface

Look beneath the surface so you can judge correctly (John 7:24).

Confronted with continual distortions of His words and actions, Jesus pointed people to God as the source of His message. Accused of being demon possessed, Jesus reminded His accusers that they needed to think again. He basically told them, “Be honest in your judgment of people. Do not decide at a glance, superficially, and by appearances.”

We don’t realize how many times we look at someone and, in a split second, we decide if we’re going to like that person or not. The Scripture says that people look at the outward appearance of others while God looks at the heart. When the prophet Samuel was sent to anoint a new king for Israel, he met several of Jesse’s handsome sons, only to be told by God, “The LORD doesn’t see things the way you see them. People judge by outward appearance, but the LORD looks at the heart” (1 Samuel 16:7).

Now, you might be thinking, “Of course, God looks at the heart; He’s God. How am I supposed to look at another person’s heart?” You may not exactly know a person’s heart, but as Jesus said in this verse, you can look beneath the surface. You can take time to get to know someone who might look or act differently than you. Don’t just write others off because they don’t measure up to your standards. We never know how God will use relationships in our lives. Remember that Jesus said that what you do for “the least of [His] brothers and sisters,” you were doing for Him (Matthew 25:40). In other words, when we make quick judgments about people, it’s as if we are making quick judgments about God.

Don’t let that be you. Look beneath the surface. Look for the good in others and find some common ground. Before you know it, you’ll be blessing others, and in return, you yourself will be blessed.

35 The Jewish leaders were puzzled by this statement. “Where is he planning to go?” they asked. “Is he thinking of leaving the country and going to the Jews in other lands? * Maybe he will even teach the Greeks! 36 What does he mean when he says, ‘You will search for me but not find me,’ and ‘You cannot go where I am going’?”

Jesus Promises Living Water

37 On the last day, the climax of the festival, Jesus stood and shouted to the crowds, “Anyone who is thirsty may come to me!” 38 Anyone who believes in me may come and drink! For the Scriptures declare, ‘Rivers of living water will flow from his heart.’” 39 (When he said “living water,” he was speaking of the Spirit, who would be given to everyone believing in him. But the Spirit had not yet been given,* because Jesus had not yet entered into his glory.)

Division and Unbelief

40 When the crowds heard him say this, some of them declared, “Surely this man is the Prophet we’ve been expecting.”* 41 Others said, “He is the Messiah.” Still others said, “But he can’t be! Will the Messiah come from Galilee?” 42 For the Scriptures clearly state that the Messiah will be born of the royal line of David, in Bethlehem, the village where King David was born.”* 43 So the crowd was divided about him. 44 Some even wanted him arrested, but no one laid a hand on him.

45 When the Temple guards returned without having arrested Jesus, the leading priests and Pharisees demanded, “Why didn’t you bring him in?”

46 “We have never heard anyone speak like this!” the guards responded.

47 “Have you been led astray, too?” the Pharisees mocked. 48 “Is there a single one of us rulers or Pharisees who believes in him?” 49 This foolish crowd follows him, but they are ignorant of the law. God’s curse is on them!”

50 Then Nicodemus, the leader who had met with Jesus earlier, spoke up. 51 “Is it legal to convict a man before he is given a hearing?” he asked.

52 They replied, “Are you from Galilee, too? Search the Scriptures and see for yourself—no prophet ever comes* from Galilee!”

[The most ancient Greek manuscripts do not include John 7:53–8:11.]

53 Then the meeting broke up, and everybody went home.

Chapter 8

A Woman Caught in Adultery

Jesus returned to the Mount of Olives,² but early the next morning he was back again at the Temple. A crowd soon gathered, and he sat down and taught them.³ As he was speaking, the teachers of religious law and the Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught in the act of adultery. They put her in front of the crowd.

4 “Teacher,” they said to Jesus, “this woman was caught in the act of adultery. 5 The law of Moses says to stone her. What do you say?”

6 They were trying to trap him into saying something they could use against him, but Jesus stooped down and wrote in the dust with his finger. 7 They kept demanding an answer, so he stood up again and said, “All right, but let the one who has never sinned throw the first stone!” 8 Then he stooped down again and wrote in the dust.

⁹ When the accusers heard this, they slipped away one by one, beginning with the oldest, until only Jesus was left in the middle of the crowd with the woman. ¹⁰ Then Jesus stood up again and said to the woman, “Where are your accusers? Didn’t even one of them condemn you?”

¹¹ “No, Lord,” she said.

And Jesus said, “Neither do I. Go and sin no more.”

Jesus, the Light of the World

¹² Jesus spoke to the people once more and said, “I am the light of the world. If you follow me, you won’t have to walk in darkness, because you will have the light that leads to life.”

¹³ The Pharisees replied, “You are making those claims about yourself! Such testimony is not valid.”

¹⁴ Jesus told them, “These claims are valid even though I make them about myself. For I know where I came from and where I am going, but you don’t know this about me. ¹⁵ You judge me by human standards, but I do not judge anyone. ¹⁶ And if I did, my judgment would be correct in every respect because I am not alone. The Father* who sent me is with me. ¹⁷ Your own law says that if two people agree about something, their witness is accepted as fact.* ¹⁸ I am one witness, and my Father who sent me is the other.”

¹⁹ “Where is your father?” they asked.

Jesus answered, “Since you don’t know who I am, you don’t know who my Father is. If you knew me, you would also know my Father.” ²⁰ Jesus made these statements while he was teaching in the section of the Temple known as the Treasury. But he was not arrested, because his time* had not yet come.

The Unbelieving People Warned

²¹ Later Jesus said to them again, “I am going away. You will search for me but will die in your sin. You cannot come where I am going.”

²² The people* asked, “Is he planning to commit suicide? What does he mean, ‘You cannot come where I am going’?”

²³ Jesus continued, “You are from below; I am from above. You belong to this world; I do not. ²⁴ That is why I said that you will die in your sins; for unless you believe that I AM who I claim to be,* you will die in your sins.”

²⁵ “Who are you?” they demanded.

Jesus replied, “The one I have always claimed to be.* ²⁶ I have much to say about you and much to condemn, but I won’t. For I say only what I have heard from the one who sent me, and he is completely truthful.” ²⁷ But they still didn’t understand that he was talking about his Father.

²⁸ So Jesus said, “When you have lifted up the Son of Man on the cross, then you will understand that I AM he.* I do nothing on my own but say only what the Father taught me. ²⁹ And the one who sent me is with me—he has not deserted me. For I always do what pleases him.” ³⁰ Then many who heard him say these things believed in him.

Jesus and Abraham

³¹ Jesus said to the people who believed in him, “You are truly my disciples if you remain faithful to my teachings. ³² And you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free.”

³³ “But we are descendants of Abraham,” they said. “We have never been slaves to anyone. What do you mean, ‘You will be set free’?”

³⁴ Jesus replied, “I tell you the truth, everyone who sins is a slave of sin. ³⁵ A slave is not a permanent member of the family, but a son is part of the family forever. ³⁶ So if the Son sets you free, you are truly free. ³⁷ Yes, I realize that you are descendants of Abraham. And yet some of you are trying to kill me because there’s no room in your hearts for my message. ³⁸ I am telling you what I saw when I was with my Father. But you are following the advice of your father.”

HOPENOTE

Know the Truth

And you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free (John 8:32).

Have you experienced the truth today? In the natural world, we don’t normally think of truth as something we experience, but Jesus said, “I am the way, the truth, and the life” (John 14:6). Truth is the very essence of who God is. It’s empowering. It will make you free! Truth comes from the Word of God. When you accept and believe

God's Word, something liberating happens inside you. The lies of the enemy are broken in your life. You begin to experience freedom you never thought was possible!

You see, there's a difference between truth and facts. The facts are what you see and the truth is what God sees. If you are in a situation where the facts of this world contradict the truth of God's Word, be encouraged because that situation can change!

If you are feeling burdened about something today, ask God to show you His truth about that situation. Study His Word until you find His promise for that area of your life. Meditate on His promises and declare His truth in your life. As you declare God's truth, you will experience the freedom He promised and have peace about the situation you are facing.

39 "Our father is Abraham!" they declared.

HOPENOTE

Truly Free

So if the Son sets you free, you are truly free (John 8:36).

Are you free today? Are you truly free? So many people hear that God wants to set them free, but yet they still walk around feeling defeated and carrying unnecessary burdens. Don't let that be you! Embrace the freedom that Jesus paid for. You are set free from the bondage of sin, fear, lack, sickness, worry, and cares.

Think about freedom for a minute. How would you feel if you never had to worry about money? God wants to set you free. How would you feel if you never had to be concerned about sickness? God wants to set you free. How would you feel if you never had fear? God wants to set you free! God has a plan for you to be "truly free" in every area of your life. He wants to show you the way of life, granting you the joy of His presence and the pleasures of living with Him forever (Psalm 16:11). Accept His freedom and follow His path for you. You can trust that He is moving you into a place of victory and peace.

"No," Jesus replied, "for if you were really the children of Abraham, you would follow his example.* ⁴⁰ Instead, you are trying to kill me because I told you the truth, which I heard from God. Abraham never did such a thing. ⁴¹ No, you are imitating your real father."

They replied, "We aren't illegitimate children! God himself is our true Father."

⁴² Jesus told them, "If God were your Father, you would love me, because I have come to you from God. I am not here on my own, but he sent me. ⁴³ Why can't you understand what I am saying? It's because you can't even hear me! ⁴⁴ For you are the children of your father the devil, and you love to do the evil things he does. He was a murderer from the beginning. He has always hated the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, it is consistent with his character; for he is a liar and the father of lies. ⁴⁵ So when I tell the truth, you just naturally don't believe me! ⁴⁶ Which of you can truthfully accuse me of sin? And since I am telling you the truth, why don't you believe me? ⁴⁷ Anyone who belongs to God listens gladly to the words of God. But you don't listen because you don't belong to God."

⁴⁸ The people retorted, "You Samaritan devil! Didn't we say all along that you were possessed by a demon?"

⁴⁹ "No," Jesus said, "I have no demon in me. For I honor my Father—and you dishonor me. ⁵⁰ And though I have no wish to glorify myself, God is going to glorify me. He is the true judge. ⁵¹ I tell you the truth, anyone who obeys my teaching will never die!"

⁵² The people said, "Now we know you are possessed by a demon. Even Abraham and the prophets died, but you say, 'Anyone who obeys my teaching will never die!' ⁵³ Are you greater than our father Abraham? He died, and so did the prophets. Who do you think you are?"

⁵⁴ Jesus answered, "If I want glory for myself, it doesn't count. But it is my Father who will glorify me. You say, 'He is our God,*' ⁵⁵ but you don't even know him. I know him. If I said otherwise, I would be as great a liar as you! But I do know him and obey him. ⁵⁶ Your father Abraham rejoiced as he looked forward to my coming. He saw it and was glad."

57 The people said, “You aren’t even fifty years old. How can you say you have seen Abraham?*

58 Jesus answered, “I tell you the truth, before Abraham was even born, I AM!*” 59 At that point they picked up stones to throw at him. But Jesus was hidden from them and left the Temple.

Chapter 9

Jesus Heals a Man Born Blind

As Jesus was walking along, he saw a man who had been blind from birth. 2 “Rabbi,” his disciples asked him, “why was this man born blind? Was it because of his own sins or his parents’ sins?”

3 “It was not because of his sins or his parents’ sins,” Jesus answered. “This happened so the power of God could be seen in him. 4 We must quickly carry out the tasks assigned us by the one who sent us.* The night is coming, and then no one can work. 5 But while I am here in the world, I am the light of the world.”

6 Then he spit on the ground, made mud with the saliva, and spread the mud over the blind man’s eyes. 7 He told him, “Go wash yourself in the pool of Siloam” (Siloam means “sent”). So the man went and washed and came back seeing!

8 His neighbors and others who knew him as a blind beggar asked each other, “Isn’t this the man who used to sit and beg?” 9 Some said he was, and others said, “No, he just looks like him!”

But the beggar kept saying, “Yes, I am the same one!”

¹⁰ They asked, “Who healed you? What happened?”

¹¹ He told them, “The man they call Jesus made mud and spread it over my eyes and told me, ‘Go to the pool of Siloam and wash yourself.’ So I went and washed, and now I can see!”

¹² “Where is he now?” they asked.

“I don’t know,” he replied.

¹³ Then they took the man who had been blind to the Pharisees, ¹⁴ because it was on the Sabbath that Jesus had made the mud and healed him. ¹⁵ The Pharisees asked the man all about it. So he told them, “He put the mud over my eyes, and when I washed it away, I could see!”

¹⁶ Some of the Pharisees said, “This man Jesus is not from God, for he is working on the Sabbath.” Others said, “But how could an ordinary sinner do such miraculous signs?” So there was a deep division of opinion among them.

¹⁷ Then the Pharisees again questioned the man who had been blind and demanded, “What’s your opinion about this man who healed you?”

The man replied, “I think he must be a prophet.”

¹⁸ The Jewish leaders still refused to believe the man had been blind and could now see, so they called in his parents. ¹⁹ They asked them, “Is this your son? Was he born blind? If so, how can he now see?”

²⁰ His parents replied, “We know this is our son and that he was born blind, ²¹ but we don’t know how he can see or who healed him. Ask him. He is old enough to speak for himself.” ²² His parents said this because they were afraid of the Jewish leaders, who had announced that anyone saying Jesus was the Messiah would be expelled from the synagogue. ²³ That's why they said, "He is old enough. Ask him."

HOPENOTE

I Can See

"I don't know whether he is a sinner," the man replied. "But I know this: I was blind, and now I can see!" (John 9:25).

Jesus healed a blind man and the religious crowd got all upset. They started arguing over why the man was healed and how he was healed and who was to blame for him being blind in the first place, and on and on. They were hounding the man with questions. Finally, the man said, "Listen, guys. You are all confusing me. I can't answer all of your questions. All I can tell you is this: I was blind, but now I can see." He was saying, in effect, the proof of the pudding is in the eating. He was saying, "You can argue all day long, but I know the reason I can see is because of God's healing in my life."

There are people today who don't think we are supposed to be blessed. But a person with an experience is never at the mercy of a person with an argument. Some people don't believe that God can still heal, but it's too late to convince me. I've already seen how God healed my mother of terminal cancer in 1981. Some people don't think that your dreams can come to pass. "Joel, you're just getting people's hopes up." It's too late to convince me. I've seen God do more than I could even ask or think. And I believe He will do the same for you!

24 So for the second time they called in the man who had been blind and told him, "God should get the glory for this,* because we know this man Jesus is a sinner."

25 "I don't know whether he is a sinner," the man replied. "But I know this: I was blind, and now I can see!"

26 "But what did he do?" they asked. "How did he heal you?"

27 "Look!" the man exclaimed. "I told you once. Didn't you listen? Why do you want to hear it again? Do you want to become his disciples, too?"

28 Then they cursed him and said, "You are his disciple, but we are disciples of Moses! 29 We know God spoke to Moses, but we don't even know where this man comes from."

30 "Why, that's very strange!" the man replied. "He healed my eyes, and yet you don't know where he comes from? 31 We know that God doesn't listen to sinners, but he is ready to hear those who worship him and do his will. 32 Ever since the world began, no one has been able to open the eyes of someone born blind. 33 If this man were not from God, he couldn't have done it."

34 “You were born a total sinner!” they answered. “Are you trying to teach us?” And they threw him out of the synagogue.

Spiritual Blindness

35 When Jesus heard what had happened, he found the man and asked, “Do you believe in the Son of Man?”

36 The man answered, “Who is he, sir? I want to believe in him.”

37 “You have seen him,” Jesus said, “and he is speaking to you!”

38 “Yes, Lord, I believe!” the man said. And he worshiped Jesus.

39 Then Jesus told him,* “I entered this world to render judgment—to give sight to the blind and to show those who think they see* that they are blind.”

40 Some Pharisees who were standing nearby heard him and asked, “Are you saying we’re blind?”

41 “If you were blind, you wouldn’t be guilty,” Jesus replied. “But you remain guilty because you claim you can see.”

Chapter 10

The Good Shepherd and His Sheep

“I tell you the truth, anyone who sneaks over the wall of a sheepfold, rather than going through the gate, must surely be a thief and a robber! ² But the one who enters through the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. ³ The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep recognize his voice and come to him. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. ⁴ After he has gathered his own flock, he walks ahead of them, and they follow him because they know his voice. ⁵ They won't follow a stranger; they will run from him because they don't know his voice."

HOPENOTE

Today!

The thief's purpose is to steal and kill and destroy. My purpose is to give them a rich and satisfying life (John 10:10).

Are you living the rich, satisfying, and abundant life Jesus desires for you? You may not have the biggest house or newest car, but God promises an abundant life for you. His abundant life goes way beyond the material things that this world offers. His abundant life means that you can have peace in the midst of a storm. You can have joy when things are uncertain. You can have hope when circumstances seem hopeless. You can live and enjoy life to the fullest every single day because you have the Creator of Life on the inside of you.

A lot of times, as believers, it's easy to look at that verse and think, "God is going to give me abundant life someday." But the truth is, God wants you to have an abundant life today. Ask the Lord to show you His true abundance today. Ask Him to show you His overflowing favor, blessing, and peace. As you focus on God's abundance today and every day, your life will feel rich and satisfying the way God intended!

6 Those who heard Jesus use this illustration didn't understand what he meant, ⁷ so he explained it to them: "I tell you the truth, I am the gate for the sheep. ⁸ All who came before me* were thieves and robbers. But the true sheep did not listen to them. ⁹ Yes, I am the gate. Those who come in through me will be saved.* They will come and go freely and will find good pastures. ¹⁰ The thief's purpose is to steal and kill and destroy. My purpose is to give them a rich and satisfying life.

¹¹ "I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd sacrifices his life for the sheep. ¹² A hired hand will run when he sees a wolf coming. He will abandon the sheep because they don't belong to him and he isn't their shepherd. And so the wolf attacks them and scatters the flock. ¹³ The hired hand runs away because he's working only for the money and doesn't really care about the sheep.

¹⁴ "I am the good shepherd; I know my own sheep, and they know me, ¹⁵ just as my Father knows me and I know the Father. So I sacrifice my life for the sheep. ¹⁶ I have other sheep, too, that are not in this sheepfold. I must bring them also. They will listen to my voice, and there will be one flock with one shepherd.

17 “The Father loves me because I sacrifice my life so I may take it back again. 18 No one can take my life from me. I sacrifice it voluntarily. For I have the authority to lay it down when I want to and also to take it up again. For this is what my Father has commanded.”

19 When he said these things, the people* were again divided in their opinions about him. 20 Some said, “He’s demon possessed and out of his mind. Why listen to a man like that?” 21 Others said, “This doesn’t sound like a man possessed by a demon! Can a demon open the eyes of the blind?”

Jesus Claims to Be the Son of God

22 It was now winter, and Jesus was in Jerusalem at the time of Hanukkah, the Festival of Dedication. 23 He was in the Temple, walking through the section known as Solomon’s Colonnade. 24 The people surrounded him and asked, “How long are you going to keep us in suspense? If you are the Messiah, tell us plainly.”

25 Jesus replied, “I have already told you, and you don’t believe me. The proof is the work I do in my Father’s name. 26 But you don’t believe me because you are not my sheep. 27 My sheep listen to my voice; I know them, and they follow me. 28 I give them eternal life, and they will never perish. No one can snatch them away from me, 29 for my Father has given them to me, and he is more powerful than anyone else.* No one can snatch them from the Father’s hand. 30 The Father and I are one.”

Hear His Voice

My sheep listen to my voice; I know them, and they follow me (John 10:27).

Many believers wonder if it's possible for them to hear the voice of God. I can tell you without any doubt that it is possible! Do you belong to Him today? Then you can hear His voice. The very fact that you made Jesus your Lord and Savior is evidence of that. Scripture says that He chose you. He called you and you responded. God is now at work in you. The great journey of faith is about working out your salvation. You work out what He works in. That means you are on a journey of growth, learning to know Him, learning to reflect Him, learning to hear His voice more clearly. Most times, we don't hear God in an audible voice, we hear Him in our spirit or heart. If you look at the word heart, you'll see the word ear. The ear that you hear God with is in the center of your heart. God put it there, and He will amplify it. He'll teach you to hear Him more clearly. You'll know His voice, and you will follow Him down the good path He has for you.

Jesus said, “At my Father’s direction I have done many good works. For which one are you going to stone me?”

³³ They replied, “We’re stoning you not for any good work, but for blasphemy! You, a mere man, claim to be God.”

³⁴ Jesus replied, “It is written in your own Scriptures* that God said to certain leaders of the people, ‘I say, you are gods!’* ³⁵ And you know that the Scriptures cannot be altered. So if those people who received God’s message were called ‘gods,’ ³⁶ why do you call it blasphemy when I say, ‘I am the Son of God’? After all, the Father set me apart and sent me into the world. ³⁷ Don’t believe me unless I carry out my Father’s work. ³⁸ But if I do his work, believe in the evidence of the miraculous works I have done, even if you don’t believe me. Then you will know and understand that the Father is in me, and I am in the Father.”

³⁹ Once again they tried to arrest him, but he got away and left them. ⁴⁰ He went beyond the Jordan River near the place where John was first baptizing and stayed there awhile. ⁴¹ And many followed him. “John didn’t perform miraculous signs,” they remarked to one another, “but everything he said about this man has come true.” ⁴² And many who were there believed in Jesus.

The Raising of Lazarus

A man named Lazarus was sick. He lived in Bethany with his sisters, Mary and Martha. ² This is the Mary who later poured the expensive perfume on the Lord's feet and wiped them with her hair.* Her brother, Lazarus, was sick. ³ So the two sisters sent a message to Jesus telling him, "Lord, your dear friend is very sick."

⁴ But when Jesus heard about it he said, "Lazarus's sickness will not end in death. No, it happened for the glory of God so that the Son of God will receive glory from this." ⁵ So although Jesus loved Martha, Mary, and Lazarus, ⁶ he stayed where he was for the next two days. ⁷ Finally, he said to his disciples, "Let's go back to Judea."

⁸ But his disciples objected. "Rabbi," they said, "only a few days ago the people* in Judea were trying to stone you. Are you going there again?"

⁹ Jesus replied, "There are twelve hours of daylight every day. During the day people can walk safely. They can see because they have the light of this world. ¹⁰ But at night there is danger of stumbling because they have no light." ¹¹ Then he said, "Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep, but now I will go and wake him up."

¹² The disciples said, "Lord, if he is sleeping, he will soon get better!" ¹³ They thought Jesus meant Lazarus was simply sleeping, but Jesus meant Lazarus had died.

¹⁴ So he told them plainly, "Lazarus is dead. ¹⁵ And for your sakes, I'm glad I wasn't there, for now you will really believe. Come, let's go see him."

¹⁶ Thomas, nicknamed the Twin,* said to his fellow disciples, "Let's go, too—and die with Jesus."

¹⁷ When Jesus arrived at Bethany, he was told that Lazarus had already been in his grave for four days.¹⁸ Bethany was only a few miles* down the road from Jerusalem,¹⁹ and many of the people had come to console Martha and Mary in their loss.²⁰ When Martha got word that Jesus was coming, she went to meet him. But Mary stayed in the house.²¹ Martha said to Jesus, “Lord, if only you had been here, my brother would not have died.²² But even now I know that God will give you whatever you ask.”

²³ Jesus told her, “Your brother will rise again.”

²⁴ “Yes,” Martha said, “he will rise when everyone else rises, at the last day.”

²⁵ Jesus told her, “I am the resurrection and the life.* Anyone who believes in me will live, even after dying. ²⁶ Everyone who lives in me and believes in me will never ever die. Do you believe this, Martha?”

²⁷ “Yes, Lord,” she told him. “I have always believed you are the Messiah, the Son of God, the one who has come into the world from God.”²⁸ Then she returned to Mary. She called Mary aside from the mourners and told her, “The Teacher is here and wants to see you.”²⁹ So Mary immediately went to him.

³⁰ Jesus had stayed outside the village, at the place where Martha met him.³¹ When the people who were at the house consoling Mary saw her leave so hastily, they assumed she was going to Lazarus’s grave to weep. So they followed her there.³² When Mary arrived and saw Jesus, she fell at his feet and said, “Lord, if only you had been here, my brother would not have died.”

Have A “Now” Mentality

Everyone who lives in me and believes in me will never ever die. Do you believe this, Martha? (John 11:26).

You remember when Mary and Martha were at the tomb of their brother Lazarus? Lazarus had been dead for four days. They were there crying and so distraught. They had summoned their friend Jesus when Lazarus fell ill. Mary and Martha knew that Jesus could heal their sick brother. But instead of coming immediately, Jesus stayed where He was. In the meantime, Lazarus died.

The sisters were heartbroken. Why hadn't Jesus come? Why had He delayed? Jesus could have healed their brother but instead, Lazarus was now beyond healing. He was dead. All hope was gone . . . or so they thought.

But Jesus had this planned all along. He knew Lazarus would die—and in fact had waited for that very event to occur. “Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep, but now I will go and wake him up. . . . Lazarus is dead. And for your sakes I'm glad I wasn't there, for now you will really believe” (John 11:11, 14-15).

Then Jesus finally showed up and spoke to the heartsick Martha, “I am the resurrection and the life. Anyone who believes in me will live, even after dying” (John 11:25).

Martha understood that someday Jesus would raise her brother Lazarus when they all went to heaven. Her faith was strong—but not strong enough to believe that Jesus could do a miracle right then and there, right in the middle of an impossible situation.

Jesus said in effect, “I’m not talking about the last days. I’m talking about today. If you’ll roll away the stone, I will raise your brother right now.” He was saying, “I am a ‘right now’ God.”

And that’s exactly what He did. With the stone rolled aside, Lazarus walked out of the grave and back into his sisters’ welcoming arms.

A lot of times, like these ladies, we believe “One day God is going to do something great in my life.” “One day God is going to resurrect my dead dreams.” But the truth is, we have to get out of that someday mentality and start believing that today God is going to do something great. Today God is going to open up supernatural doors. Have a now mentality and watch what God will do for you today!

33 When Jesus saw her weeping and saw the other people wailing with her, a deep anger welled up within him,* and he was deeply troubled. 34 “Where have you put him?” he asked them.

They told him, “Lord, come and see.” ³⁵ Then Jesus wept. ³⁶ The people who were standing nearby said, “See how much he loved him!” ³⁷ But some said, “This man healed a blind man. Couldn’t he have kept Lazarus from dying?”

³⁸ Jesus was still angry as he arrived at the tomb, a cave with a stone rolled across its entrance. ³⁹ “Roll the stone aside,” Jesus told them.

But Martha, the dead man’s sister, protested, “Lord, he has been dead for four days. The smell will be terrible.”

⁴⁰ Jesus responded, “Didn’t I tell you that you would see God’s glory if you believe?” ⁴¹ So they rolled the stone aside. Then Jesus looked up to heaven and said, “Father, thank you for hearing me. ⁴² You always hear me, but I said it out loud for the sake of all these people standing here, so that they will believe you sent me.” ⁴³ Then Jesus shouted, “Lazarus, come out!” ⁴⁴ And the dead man came out, his hands and feet bound in graveclothes, his face wrapped in a headcloth. Jesus told them, “Unwrap him and let him go!”

The Plot to Kill Jesus

⁴⁵ Many of the people who were with Mary believed in Jesus when they saw this happen. ⁴⁶ But some went to the Pharisees and told them what Jesus had done. ⁴⁷ Then the leading priests and Pharisees called the high council* together. “What are we going to do?” they asked each other. “This man certainly performs many miraculous signs. ⁴⁸ If we allow him to go on like this, soon everyone will believe in him. Then the Roman army will come and destroy both our Temple* and our nation.”

⁴⁹ Caiaphas, who was high priest at that time,* said, “You don’t know what you’re talking about! ⁵⁰ You don’t realize that it’s better for you that one man should die for the people than for the whole nation to be destroyed.”

⁵³ So from that time on, the Jewish leaders began to plot Jesus’ death. ⁵⁴ As a result, Jesus stopped his public ministry among the people and left Jerusalem. He went to a place near the wilderness, to the village of Ephraim, and stayed there with his disciples.

⁵⁵ It was now almost time for the Jewish Passover celebration, and many people from all over the country arrived in Jerusalem several days early so they could go through the purification ceremony before Passover began. ⁵⁶ They kept looking for Jesus, but as they stood around in the Temple, they said to each other, “What do you think? He won’t come for Passover, will he?” ⁵⁷ Meanwhile, the leading priests and Pharisees had publicly ordered that anyone seeing Jesus must report it immediately so they could arrest him.

Chapter 12

Jesus Anointed at Bethany

Six days before the Passover celebration began, Jesus arrived in Bethany, the home of Lazarus—the man he had raised from the dead.² A dinner was prepared in Jesus’ honor. Martha served, and Lazarus was among those who ate* with him.³ Then Mary took a twelve-ounce jar* of expensive perfume made from essence of nard, and she anointed Jesus’ feet with it, wiping his feet with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance.

⁴ But Judas Iscariot, the disciple who would soon betray him, said,⁵ “That perfume was worth a year’s wages.* It should have been sold and the money given to the poor.”⁶ Not that he cared for the poor—he was a thief, and since he was in charge of the disciples’ money, he often stole some for himself.

⁷ Jesus replied, “Leave her alone. She did this in preparation for my burial.⁸ You will always have the poor among you, but you will not always have me.”

⁹ When all the people* heard of Jesus’ arrival, they flocked to see him and also to see Lazarus, the man Jesus had raised from the dead.¹⁰ Then the leading priests decided to kill Lazarus, too,¹¹ for it was because of him that many of the people had deserted them* and believed in Jesus.

Jesus’ Triumphant Entry

¹² The next day, the news that Jesus was on the way to Jerusalem swept through the city. A large crowd of Passover visitors¹³ took palm branches and went down the road to meet him. They shouted, “Praise God!*

Blessings on the one who comes in the name of the LORD!
Hail to the King of Israel!”*

14 Jesus found a young donkey and rode on it, fulfilling the prophecy that said:

15 “Don’t be afraid, people of Jerusalem.*
Look, your King is coming, riding on a donkey’s colt.”*

16 His disciples didn’t understand at the time that this was a fulfillment of prophecy. But after Jesus entered into his glory, they remembered what had happened and realized that these things had been written about him.

17 Many in the crowd had seen Jesus call Lazarus from the tomb, raising him from the dead, and they were telling others* about it. 18 That was the reason so many went out to meet him—because they had heard about this miraculous sign. 19 Then the Pharisees said to each other, “There’s nothing we can do. Look, everyone* has gone after him!”

Jesus Predicts His Death

20 Some Greeks who had come to Jerusalem for the Passover celebration 21 paid a visit to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee. They said, “Sir, we want to meet Jesus.” 22 Philip told Andrew about it, and they went together to ask Jesus.

23 Jesus replied, “Now the time has come for the Son of Man* to enter into his glory. 24 I tell you the truth, unless a kernel of wheat is planted in the soil and dies, it remains alone. But its death will produce many new kernels—a plentiful harvest of new lives.²⁵ Those who love their life in this world will lose it. Those who care nothing for their life in this world will keep it for eternity.²⁶ Anyone who wants to be my disciple must follow me, because my servants must be where I am. And the Father will honor anyone who serves me.

27 “Now my soul is deeply troubled. Should I pray, ‘Father, save me from this hour’? But this is the very reason I came! 28 Father, bring glory to your name.”

Then a voice spoke from heaven, saying, “I have already brought glory to my name, and I will do so again.”²⁹ When the crowd heard the voice, some thought it was thunder, while others declared an angel had spoken to him.

30 Then Jesus told them, “The voice was for your benefit, not mine.³¹ The time for judging this world has come, when Satan, the ruler of this world, will be cast out.³² And when I am lifted up from the earth, I will draw everyone to myself.”³³ He said this to indicate how he was going to die.

34 The crowd responded, “We understood from Scripture* that the Messiah would live forever. How can you say the Son of Man will die? Just who is this Son of Man, anyway?”

35 Jesus replied, “My light will shine for you just a little longer. Walk in the light while you can, so the darkness will not overtake you. Those who walk in the darkness cannot see where they are going.³⁶ Put your trust in the light while there is still time; then you will become children of the light.”

After saying these things, Jesus went away and was hidden from them.

The Unbelief of the People

³⁷ But despite all the miraculous signs Jesus had done, most of the people still did not believe in him. ³⁸ This is exactly what Isaiah the prophet had predicted:

“LORD, who has believed our message?

To whom has the LORD revealed his powerful arm?”*

³⁹ But the people couldn’t believe, for as Isaiah also said, ⁴⁰ “The Lord has blinded their eyes and hardened their hearts—

so that their eyes cannot see,

and their hearts cannot understand,

and they cannot turn to me

and have me heal them.”*

⁴¹ Isaiah was referring to Jesus when he said this, because he saw the future and spoke of the Messiah’s glory. ⁴² Many people did believe in him, however, including some of the Jewish leaders. But they wouldn’t admit it for fear that the Pharisees would expel them from the synagogue. ⁴³ For they loved human praise more than the praise of God.

⁴⁴ Jesus shouted to the crowds, “If you trust me, you are trusting not only me, but also God who sent me. ⁴⁵ For when you see me, you are seeing the one who sent me. ⁴⁶ I have come as a light to shine in this dark world, so that all who put their trust in me will no longer remain in the dark. ⁴⁷ I will not judge those who hear me but don’t obey me, for I have come to save the world and not to judge it. ⁴⁸ But all who reject me and my message will be judged on the day of judgment by the truth I have spoken. ⁴⁹ I don't speak on my own authority. The Father who sent me has commanded me what to say and how to say it. ⁵⁰ And I know his commands lead to eternal life; so I say whatever the Father tells me to say."

Jesus Washes His Disciples' Feet

Before the Passover celebration, Jesus knew that his hour had come to leave this world and return to his Father. He had loved his disciples during his ministry on earth, and now he loved them to the very end. ^{} ² It was time for supper, and the devil had already prompted Judas, ^{} son of Simon Iscariot, to betray Jesus. ³ Jesus knew that the Father had given him authority over everything and that he had come from God and would return to God. ⁴ So he got up from the table, took off his robe, wrapped a towel around his waist, ⁵ and poured water into a basin. Then he began to wash the disciples' feet, drying them with the towel he had around him.

⁶ When Jesus came to Simon Peter, Peter said to him, "Lord, are you going to wash my feet?"

⁷ Jesus replied, "You don't understand now what I am doing, but someday you will."

⁸ "No," Peter protested, "you will never ever wash my feet!"

Jesus replied, "Unless I wash you, you won't belong to me."

¹⁰ Jesus replied, “A person who has bathed all over does not need to wash, except for the feet,* to be entirely clean. And you disciples are clean, but not all of you.” ¹¹ For Jesus knew who would betray him. That is what he meant when he said, “Not all of you are clean.”

¹² After washing their feet, he put on his robe again and sat down and asked, “Do you understand what I was doing? ¹³ You call me ‘Teacher’ and ‘Lord,’ and you are right, because that’s what I am. ¹⁴ And since I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you ought to wash each other’s feet. ¹⁵ I have given you an example to follow. Do as I have done to you. ¹⁶ I tell you the truth, slaves are not greater than their master. Nor is the messenger more important than the one who sends the message. ¹⁷ Now that you know these things, God will bless you for doing them.

Jesus Predicts His Betrayal

¹⁸ “I am not saying these things to all of you; I know the ones I have chosen. But this fulfills the Scripture that says, ‘The one who eats my food has turned against me.’* ¹⁹ I tell you this beforehand, so that when it happens you will believe that I AM the Messiah.* ²⁰ I tell you the truth, anyone who welcomes my messenger is welcoming me, and anyone who welcomes me is welcoming the Father who sent me.”

²¹ Now Jesus was deeply troubled,* and he exclaimed, “I tell you the truth, one of you will betray me!”

²² The disciples looked at each other, wondering whom he could mean. ²³ The disciple Jesus loved was sitting next to Jesus at the table.* ²⁴ Simon Peter motioned to him to ask, “Who’s he talking about?” ²⁵ So that disciple leaned over to Jesus and asked, “Lord, who is it?”

HOPENOTE

Unity of Faith

Your love for one another will prove to the world that you are my disciples (John 13:35).

People aren’t going to know we’re His disciples by how many times we go to church or how many Bible verses we can quote. People will know we’re His disciples by the love we show one another. The enemy tries to bring division throughout the body of Christ by keeping us focused on our differences. When we’re critical and judgmental, we build walls that separate us. Ephesians 4:13 says that we should “come to such unity in our faith and knowledge of God’s Son that we will be mature in the Lord, measuring up to the full and complete standard of Christ.” We can find unity in faith even if we can’t find unity in doctrine. There’s great power in unity! The Bible tells us that when we live together in harmony, God pronounces His blessing (see Psalm 133:1, 3).

We can do a whole lot more together as born-again believers than we can do apart. Let’s decide to lay down our differences and come together in the unity of our faith in Jesus Christ.

²⁶ Jesus responded, “It is the one to whom I give the bread I dip in the bowl.” And when he had dipped it, he gave it to Judas, son of Simon Iscariot. ²⁷ When Judas had eaten the bread, Satan entered into him. Then Jesus told him, “Hurry and do what you’re going to do.” ²⁸ None of the others at the table knew what Jesus meant. ²⁹ Since Judas was their treasurer, some thought Jesus was telling him to go and pay for the food or to give some money to the poor. ³⁰ So Judas left at once, going out into the night.

Jesus Predicts Peter’s Denial

³¹ As soon as Judas left the room, Jesus said, “The time has come for the Son of Man* to enter into his glory, and God will be glorified because of him. ³² And since God receives glory because of the Son,* he will soon give glory to the Son. ³³ Dear children, I will be with you only a little longer. And as I told the Jewish leaders, you will search for me, but you can’t come where I am going. ³⁴ So now I am giving you a new commandment: Love each other. Just as I have loved you, you should love each other. ³⁵ Your love for one another will prove to the world that you are my disciples.”

³⁶ Simon Peter asked, “Lord, where are you going?”

And Jesus replied, “You can’t go with me now, but you will follow me later.”

³⁷ “But why can’t I come now, Lord?” he asked. “I’m ready to die for you.”

³⁸ Jesus answered, “Die for me? I tell you the truth, Peter—before the rooster crows tomorrow morning, you will deny three times that you even know me.

Chapter 14

Jesus, the Way to the Father

“Don’t let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God, and trust also in me.² There is more than enough room in my Father’s home.* If this were not so, would I have told you that I am going to prepare a place for you?*”³ When everything is ready, I will come and get you, so that you will always be with me where I am.⁴ And you know the way to where I am going.”

⁵ “No, we don’t know, Lord,” Thomas said. “We have no idea where you are going, so how can we know the way?”

⁶ Jesus told him, “I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one can come to the Father except through me.⁷ If you had really known me, you would know who my Father is.* From now on, you do know him and have seen him!”

HOPENOTE

The Way

Jesus told him, “I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one can come to the Father except through me” (John 14:6).

Do you need direction in your life today? Not only is Jesus the way to life in eternity, but Jesus is the way to everything you need in this life here on earth. Do you need to know the way out of debt? Look to the Father through Jesus. Do you need to know the way to have better relationships, the way to overcome an addiction, the way to live in peace and joy? When you know Jesus, you know the Way.

No matter what you are facing today, no matter what challenges or obstacles are in your life, He will make a way for you, even when you don't see how. God loves you so much that He wants to strengthen and empower you to live in total victory. That's why He sent His Son, Jesus, to this earth—to show you the way to live an abundant life! Open your heart today and receive all that God has given you through Jesus.

⁸ Philip said, “Lord, show us the Father, and we will be satisfied.”

⁹ Jesus replied, “Have I been with you all this time, Philip, and yet you still don't know who I am? Anyone who has seen me has seen the Father! So why are you asking me to show him to you? ¹⁰ Don't you believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words I speak are not my own, but my Father who lives in me does his work through me. ¹¹ Just believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me. Or at least believe because of the work you have seen me do.

¹² “I tell you the truth, anyone who believes in me will do the same works I have done, and even greater works, because I am going to be with the Father. ¹³ You can ask for anything in my name, and I will do it, so that the Son can bring glory to the Father. ¹⁴ Yes, ask me for anything in my name, and I will do it!

HOPENOTE

Move toward God's Will

I tell you the truth, anyone who believes in me will do the same works I have done, and even greater works, because I am going to be with the Father (John 14:12).

God is always providing opportunities for you to advance in life. He desires that you constantly learn and grow. Have you ever been afraid to step out and take an opportunity set before you because you weren't sure it was the right thing to do? Has your life become stagnant and mediocre because you're afraid to try new things? In order to experience the abundant life God has in store for you, you have to begin moving forward and exploring the open doors on your path.

The enemy will try anything to keep you living in mediocrity. He knows that once you start moving forward,

God will be able to lead you in His perfect will. Sometimes you may come to some closed doors before you find the open doors, but as you keep moving, you'll be one step closer to fulfilling God's plan of victory for your life. Once you make the decision to step out, you'll learn to follow the Lord's leading, and God will open supernatural opportunities before you!

Keep your heart humble before the Lord, seek after Him every day, and be willing to make adjustments in your life. As you do, you'll begin to discover stronger confidence in your ability to follow the Lord, and you will be amazed over what God is able to do through you!

Jesus Promises the Holy Spirit

¹⁵ “If you love me, obey* my commandments. ¹⁶ And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate,* who will never leave you. ¹⁷ He is the Holy Spirit, who leads into all truth. The world cannot receive him, because it isn't looking for him and doesn't recognize him. But you know him, because he lives with you now and later will be in you.* ¹⁸ No, I will not abandon you as orphans—I will come to you. ¹⁹ Soon the world will no longer see me, but you will see me. Since I live, you also will live. ²⁰ When I am raised to life again, you will know that I am in my Father, and you are in me, and I am in you. ²¹ Those who accept my commandments and obey them are the ones who love me. And because they love me, my Father will love them. And I will love them and reveal myself to each of them.”

HOPENOTE

Living in Peace

I am leaving you with a gift—peace of mind and heart. And the peace I give is a gift the world cannot give. So don't be troubled or afraid (John 14:27).

Because God has given us a gift of peace, we don't ever need to be troubled or afraid! Notice that living in peace is a decision we have to make. One of the best things I've ever learned is that I don't have to have my way in order to be happy. The world is never going to go out of its way to give me peace. My plans don't have to work out in order for me to have a good day. I've already made up my mind I'm going to enjoy this day even if things don't go my way. I'm going to be happy even if somebody doesn't like my last sermon. I'm going to have a good attitude even if I have a flat tire on the way home.

When we have this kind of approach, all the things that have the potential to upset us will lose power. Maybe at one time they used to frustrate you; they won't upset you any more. Maybe you need to draw that line in the sand and say, "That's it. I'm done with letting people and circumstances and traffic and neighbors and disappointments always upset me. I refuse to give away my joy anymore. I'm going to live my life happy. I'm going to enjoy the peace Jesus paid so much to provide for me!"

22 Judas (not Judas Iscariot, but the other disciple with that name) said to him, "Lord, why are you going to reveal yourself only to us and not to the world at large?"

23 Jesus replied, "All who love me will do what I say. My Father will love them, and we will come and make our home with each of them. 24 Anyone who doesn't love me will not obey me. And remember, my words are not my own. What I am telling you is from the Father who sent me. 25 I am telling you these things now while I am still with you. 26 But when the Father sends the Advocate as my representative—that is, the Holy Spirit—he will teach you everything and will remind you of everything I have told you.

27 "I am leaving you with a gift—peace of mind and heart. And the peace I give is a gift the world cannot give. So don't be troubled or afraid. 28 Remember what I told you: I am going away, but I will come back to you again. If you really loved me, you would be happy that I am going to the Father, who is greater than I am. 29 I have told you these things before they happen so that when they do happen, you will believe.

30 "I don't have much more time to talk to you, because the ruler of this world approaches. He has no power over me, 31 but I will do what the Father requires of me, so that the world will know that I love the Father. Come, let's be going.

Chapter 15

Jesus, the True Vine

“I am the true grapevine, and my Father is the gardener. ² He cuts off every branch of mine that doesn’t produce fruit, and he prunes the branches that do bear fruit so they will produce even more. ³ You have already been pruned and purified by the message I have given you. ⁴ Remain in me, and I will remain in you. For a branch cannot produce fruit if it is severed from the vine, and you cannot be fruitful unless you remain in me.

⁵ “Yes, I am the vine; you are the branches. Those who remain in me, and I in them, will produce much fruit. For apart from me you can do nothing. ⁶ Anyone who does not remain in me is thrown away like a useless branch and withers. Such branches are gathered into a pile to be burned. ⁷ But if you remain in me and my words remain in you, you may ask for anything you want, and it will be granted! ⁸ When you produce much fruit, you are my true disciples. This brings great glory to my Father.

HOPENOTE

Stay Connected

Yes, I am the vine; you are the branches. Those who remain in me, and I in them, will produce much fruit. For apart from me you can do nothing (John 15:5).

Do you need more power and strength in your life today? When you are connected to the Father through Jesus, you are connected to your life source. Just as a branch is sustained by the vine it's attached to, we are sustained by being attached to Him.

If you think about how fruit grows, it doesn't just happen overnight; it takes time and the right conditions. It hangs from a branch that is connected to the vine. In the same way, the spiritual fruit in your own life develops over time, too. You might be tempted to get discouraged if you aren't seeing "fruit" as quickly as you'd like, but be encouraged! If you'll keep your heart humble before the Lord and stay connected to Him through prayer and studying His Word, you'll see that fruit begin to form in your life just as He promised! You'll see the fruit of joy, which is strength. You'll see the fruit of love and peace, which will sustain you in the midst of difficulty. As you stay connected to Him, you'll be empowered and equipped for every circumstance, and you'll truly live as an overcomer!

⁹ "I have loved you even as the Father has loved me. Remain in my love. ¹⁰ When you obey my commandments, you remain in my love, just as I obey my Father's commandments and remain in his love. ¹¹ I have told you these things so that you will be filled with my joy. Yes, your joy will overflow! ¹²

This is my commandment: Love each other in the same way I have loved you. ¹³ There is no greater love than to lay down one's life for one's friends. ¹⁴ You are my friends if you do what I command. ¹⁵ I no longer call you slaves, because a master doesn't confide in his slaves. Now you are my friends, since I have told you everything the Father told me. ¹⁶ You didn't choose me. I chose you. I appointed you to go and produce lasting fruit, so that the Father will give you whatever you ask for, using my name. ¹⁷ This is my command: Love each other.

HOPENOTE

You Are Chosen

The world would love you as one of its own if you belonged to it, but you are no longer part of the world. I chose you to come out of the world, so it hates you (John 15:19).

Being chosen for a special role or task feels good. Being a part of something that is greater and bigger than yourself makes you feel wanted, needed, and accepted. God chose you to be His child and share in the blessings of His family. You have been chosen out of the world, so you don't have to live by the world's expectations anymore. You don't have to look a certain way to be accepted, you don't have to drive a certain car or live in a certain neighborhood to be accepted; instead, you are accepted by God just the way you are. You are special because you have been personally and individually chosen by God to be His representative and witness in this world. God is working His purposes in you. He has given you gifts, talents, and abilities to fulfill your destiny. If you've experienced rejection in your past, know that you are important and needed right where you are. So go out and live like a chosen child of God—today!

The World's Hatred

¹⁸ “If the world hates you, remember that it hated me first. ¹⁹ The world would love you as one of its own if you belonged to it, but you are no longer part of the world. I chose you to come out of the world, so it hates you. ²⁰ Do you remember what I told you? ‘A slave is not greater than the master.’ Since they persecuted me, naturally they will persecute you. And if they had listened to me, they would listen to you. ²¹ They will do all this to you because of me, for they have rejected the one who sent me. ²² They would not be guilty if I had not come and spoken to them. But now they have no excuse for their sin. ²³ Anyone who hates me also hates my Father. ²⁴ If I hadn't done such miraculous signs among them that no one else could do, they would not be guilty. But as it is, they have seen everything I did, yet they still hate me and my Father. ²⁵ This fulfills what is written in their Scriptures*: ‘They hated me

26 “But I will send you the Advocate*—the Spirit of truth. He will come to you from the Father and will testify all about me. 27 And you must also testify about me because you have been with me from the beginning of my ministry.

Chapter 16

“I have told you these things so that you won’t abandon your faith. 2 For you will be expelled from the synagogues, and the time is coming when those who kill you will think they are doing a holy service for God. 3 This is because they have never known the Father or me. 4 Yes, I’m telling you these things now, so that when they happen, you will remember my warning. I didn’t tell you earlier because I was going to be with you for a while longer.

The Work of the Holy Spirit

5 “But now I am going away to the one who sent me, and not one of you is asking where I am going. 6 Instead, you grieve because of what I’ve told you. 7 But in fact, it is best for you that I go away, because if I don’t, the Advocate* won’t come. If I do go away, then I will send him to you. 8 And when he comes, he will convict the world of its sin, and of God’s righteousness, and of the coming judgment. 9 The world’s sin is that it refuses to believe in me. 10 Righteousness is available because I go to the Father, and you will see me no more. 11 Judgment will come because the ruler of this world has already been judged.

¹² “There is so much more I want to tell you, but you can’t bear it now. ¹³ When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all truth. He will not speak on his own but will tell you what he has heard. He will tell you about the future. ¹⁴ He will bring me glory by telling you whatever he receives from me. ¹⁵ All that belongs to the Father is mine; this is why I said, ‘The Spirit will tell you whatever he receives from me.’

HOPENOTE

Getting to Know God

When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all truth. He will not speak on his own but will tell you what he has heard. He will tell you about the future (John 16:13).

God wants to help us make the right decisions. As believers, His Spirit lives within us to guide us and warn us when we’re about to make a mistake or wrong choice. Most times, the Holy Spirit speaks through an inner prompting, an impression, not in your head but in your heart. It’s just like an alarm clock going off on the inside of you. If you have that nervous feeling or an uneasiness about a decision you are about to make, that’s a pretty good sign that it’s time to go back and seek God for direction. It’s time to take another route. The Scripture tells us that we go out with joy and we are led by peace (see Isaiah 55:12). When God's blessing is on your decisions, you'll have peace and joy in your inner being even when the decisions are difficult. The more time you spend with God, the more you will be able to discern His voice guiding and directing you and leading you into the abundant life He has for you.

HOPENOTE

Keep the Joy

So you have sorrow now, but I will see you again; then you will rejoice, and no one can rob you of that joy (John 16:22).

It's so easy to get caught up in the hustle and bustle of everyday life. In the midst of a hectic schedule, there are plenty of opportunities to lose your joy. But you don't have to let circumstances rob you of the joy that is rightfully yours in Christ. True joy isn't based on circumstances; it's based on Christ and His goodness. Once you decide to follow God and listen to Him alone, nothing can take away that joy that is on the inside of you. Remember, the Scripture tells us that the joy of the Lord is our strength. Make the decision to hold onto the joy that God has placed in your heart!

Sadness Will Be Turned to Joy

¹⁶ “In a little while you won’t see me anymore. But a little while after that, you will see me again.”

¹⁷ Some of the disciples asked each other, “What does he mean when he says, ‘In a little while you won’t see me, but then you will see me,’ and ‘I am going to the Father’? ¹⁸ And what does he mean by ‘a little while’? We don’t understand.”

²¹ It will be like a woman suffering the pains of labor. When her child is born, her anguish gives way to joy because she has brought a new baby into the world. ²² So you have sorrow now, but I will see you again; then you will rejoice, and no one can rob you of that joy. ²³ At that time you won’t need to ask me for anything. I tell you the truth, you will ask the Father directly, and he will grant your request because you use my name. ²⁴ You haven’t done this before. Ask, using my name, and you will receive, and you will have abundant joy.

HOPENOTE

Peace during Trials

I have told you all this so that you may have peace in me. Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world (John 16:33).

When trials and challenges come, it's easy to feel frustrated or discouraged that things aren't going the way you planned. You might even feel overwhelmed by what's happening around you. But no matter what you may be facing, you can have God's perfect peace in your heart and mind. When life seems uncertain, you can have confidence because He has already overcome the world! God has already fought your battle and conquered your enemies! He's already paved the way to victory. When you maintain an attitude of faith and expectancy, you are moving forward on that path.

Remember, when difficulties arise, focus on the fact that the Greater One lives inside of you. As the Scripture says, "Take heart!" because what you are going through will eventually be over, and you'll come through stronger, wiser, more alive, and better off than you were before.

25 “I have spoken of these matters in figures of speech, but soon I will stop speaking figuratively and will tell you plainly all about the Father. 26 Then you will ask in my name. I’m not saying I will ask the Father on your behalf, 27 for the Father himself loves you dearly because you love me and believe that I came from God.* 28 Yes, I came from the Father into the world, and now I will leave the world and return to the Father.”

29 Then his disciples said, “At last you are speaking plainly and not figuratively. 30 Now we understand that you know everything, and there’s no need to question you. From this we believe that you came from God.”

31 Jesus asked, “Do you finally believe? 32 But the time is coming—indeed it’s here now—when you will be scattered, each one going his own way, leaving me alone. Yet I am not alone because the Father is with me. 33 I have told you all this so that you may have peace in me. Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world.”

Chapter 17

The Prayer of Jesus

After saying all these things, Jesus looked up to heaven and said, “Father, the hour has come. Glorify your Son so he can give glory back to you. 2 For you have given him authority over everyone. He gives eternal life to each one you have given him. 3 And this is the way to have eternal life—to know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, the one you sent to earth. ⁴ I brought glory to you here on earth by completing the work you gave me to do. ⁵ Now, Father, bring me into the glory we shared before the world began.

⁶ “I have revealed you* to the ones you gave me from this world. They were always yours. You gave them to me, and they have kept your word. ⁷ Now they know that everything I have is a gift from you, ⁸ for I have passed on to them the message you gave me. They accepted it and know that I came from you, and they believe you sent me.

⁹ “My prayer is not for the world, but for those you have given me, because they belong to you. ¹⁰ All who are mine belong to you, and you have given them to me, so they bring me glory. ¹¹ Now I am departing from the world; they are staying in this world, but I am coming to you. Holy Father, you have given me your name;* now protect them by the power of your name so that they will be united just as we are. ¹² During my time here, I protected them by the power of the name you gave me.* I guarded them so that not one was lost, except the one headed for destruction, as the Scriptures foretold.

¹³ “Now I am coming to you. I told them many things while I was with them in this world so they would be filled with my joy. ¹⁴ I have given them your word. And the world hates them because they do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world. ¹⁵ I’m not asking you to take them out of the world, but to keep them safe from the evil one. ¹⁶ They do not belong to this world any more than I do. ¹⁷ Make them holy by your truth; teach them your word, which is truth. ¹⁸ Just as you sent me into the world, I am sending them into the world.

²⁰ “I am praying not only for these disciples but also for all who will ever believe in me through their message. ²¹ I pray that they will all be one, just as you and I are one—as you are in me, Father, and I am in you. And may they be in us so that the world will believe you sent me.

Jesus Prayed for You

I am praying not only for these disciples but also for all who will ever believe in me through their message (John 17:20).

From time to time, I've had people tell me they were praying for me, and it does something on the inside. It encourages me and feeds my hope. There's just something wonderful about knowing that someone is praying for you.

Did you know that Jesus prayed for you? On the night before He died on the cross, He prayed for you. As He was on the cross, you were on His mind and in His heart. Now, I don't know about you, but that makes me smile. That's something worth meditating on. Anytime you feel alone, wondering if anyone you know is there for you, remember, He is, was, and forever will be your Advocate before the throne of grace. Hebrews tells us that He's in heaven, still praying for you. Because of that, you can live fully and freely confident that He's watching over you!

22 "I have given them the glory you gave me, so they may be one as we are one. 23 I am in them and you are in me. May they experience such perfect unity that the world will know that you sent me and that you love them as much as you love me. 24 Father, I want these whom you have given me to be with me where I am. Then they can see all the glory you gave me because you loved me even before the world began!

25 "O righteous Father, the world doesn't know you, but I do; and these disciples know you sent me. 26 I have revealed you to them, and I will continue to do so. Then your love for me will be in them, and I will be in them."

Chapter 18

Jesus Is Betrayed and Arrested

After saying these things, Jesus crossed the Kidron Valley with his disciples and entered a grove of olive trees. 2 Judas, the betrayer, knew this place, because Jesus had often gone there with his disciples. 3 The leading priests and Pharisees had given Judas a contingent of Roman soldiers and Temple guards to accompany him. Now with blazing torches, lanterns, and weapons, they arrived at the olive grove.

4 Jesus fully realized all that was going to happen to him, so he stepped forward to meet them. “Who are you looking for?” he asked.

5 “Jesus the Nazarene,”* they replied.

“I AM he,”* Jesus said. (Judas, who betrayed him, was standing with them.)⁶ As Jesus said “I AM he,” they all drew back and fell to the ground! ⁷ Once more he asked them, “Who are you looking for?”

And again they replied, “Jesus the Nazarene.”

8 “I told you that I AM he,” Jesus said. “And since I am the one you want, let these others go.” ⁹ He did this to fulfill his own statement: “I did not lose a single one of those you have given me.”*

¹⁰ Then Simon Peter drew a sword and slashed off the right ear of Malchus, the high priest’s slave. ¹¹ But Jesus said to Peter, “Put your sword back into its sheath. Shall I not drink from the cup of suffering the Father has given me?”

Jesus at the High Priest’s House

¹² So the soldiers, their commanding officer, and the Temple guards arrested Jesus and tied him up. ¹³ First they took him to Annas, the father-in-law of Caiaphas, the high priest at that time.* ¹⁴ Caiaphas was the one who had told the other Jewish leaders, “It’s better that one man should die for the people.”

Peter’s First Denial

¹⁵ Simon Peter followed Jesus, as did another of the disciples. That other disciple was acquainted with the high priest, so he was allowed to enter the high priest’s courtyard with Jesus. ¹⁶

Peter had to stay outside the gate. Then the disciple who knew the high priest spoke to the woman watching at the gate, and she let Peter in. ¹⁷ The woman asked Peter, “You’re not one of that man’s disciples, are you?”

“No,” he said, “I am not.”

¹⁸ Because it was cold, the household servants and the guards had made a charcoal fire. They stood around it, warming themselves, and Peter stood with them, warming himself.

The High Priest Questions Jesus

¹⁹ Inside, the high priest began asking Jesus about his followers and what he had been teaching them. ²⁰ Jesus replied, “Everyone knows what I teach. I have preached regularly in the synagogues and the Temple, where the people* gather. I have not spoken in secret. ²¹ Why are you asking me this question? Ask those who heard me. They know what I said.”

²² Then one of the Temple guards standing nearby slapped Jesus across the face. “Is that the way to answer the high priest?” he demanded.

²³ Jesus replied, “If I said anything wrong, you must prove it. But if I’m speaking the truth, why are you beating me?”

²⁴ Then Annas bound Jesus and sent him to Caiaphas, the high priest.

Peter’s Second and Third Denials

²⁵ Meanwhile, as Simon Peter was standing by the fire warming himself, they asked him again, “You’re not one of his disciples, are you?”

He denied it, saying, “No, I am not.”

²⁶ But one of the household slaves of the high priest, a relative of the man whose ear Peter had cut off, asked, “Didn’t I see you out there in the olive grove with Jesus?” ²⁷ Again Peter denied it. And immediately a rooster crowed.

Jesus’ Trial before Pilate

²⁸ Jesus’ trial before Caiaphas ended in the early hours of the morning. Then he was taken to the headquarters of the Roman governor.* His accusers didn’t go inside because it would defile them, and they wouldn’t be allowed to celebrate the Passover. ²⁹ So Pilate, the governor, went out to them and asked, “What is your charge against this man?”

³¹ “Then take him away and judge him by your own law,” Pilate told them.

“Only the Romans are permitted to execute someone,” the Jewish leaders replied. ³² (This fulfilled Jesus’ prediction about the way he would die.*)

³³ Then Pilate went back into his headquarters and called for Jesus to be brought to him. “Are you the king of the Jews?” he asked him.

³⁴ Jesus replied, “Is this your own question, or did others tell you about me?”

³⁵ “Am I a Jew?” Pilate retorted. “Your own people and their leading priests brought you to me for trial. Why? What have you done?"

³⁶ Jesus answered, "My Kingdom is not an earthly kingdom. If it were, my followers would fight to keep me from being handed over to the Jewish leaders. But my Kingdom is not of this world."

³⁷ Pilate said, "So you are a king?"

Jesus responded, "You say I am a king. Actually, I was born and came into the world to testify to the truth. All who love the truth recognize that what I say is true."

³⁸ "What is truth?" Pilate asked. Then he went out again to the people and told them, "He is not guilty of any crime. ³⁹ But you have a custom of asking me to release one prisoner each year at Passover. Would you like me to release this 'King of the Jews'?"

⁴⁰ But they shouted back, "No! Not this man. We want Barabbas!" (Barabbas was a revolutionary.)

Chapter 19

Jesus Sentenced to Death

Then Pilate had Jesus flogged with a lead-tipped whip. ² The soldiers wove a crown of thorns and put it on his head, and they put a purple robe on him. ³ "Hail! King of the Jews!" they mocked, as they slapped him across the face.

⁴ Pilate went outside again and said to the people, "I am going to bring him out to you now, but understand clearly that I find him not guilty." ⁵ Then Jesus came out wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. And Pilate said, “Look, here is the man!”

6 When they saw him, the leading priests and Temple guards began shouting, “Crucify him! Crucify him!”

“Take him yourselves and crucify him,” Pilate said. “I find him not guilty.”

7 The Jewish leaders replied, “By our law he ought to die because he called himself the Son of God.”

8 When Pilate heard this, he was more frightened than ever. 9 He took Jesus back into the headquarters* again and asked him, “Where are you from?” But Jesus gave no answer. 10 “Why don’t you talk to me?” Pilate demanded. “Don’t you realize that I have the power to release you or crucify you?”

11 Then Jesus said, “You would have no power over me at all unless it were given to you from above. So the one who handed me over to you has the greater sin.”

12 Then Pilate tried to release him, but the Jewish leaders shouted, “If you release this man, you are no ‘friend of Caesar.’* Anyone who declares himself a king is a rebel against Caesar.”

13 When they said this, Pilate brought Jesus out to them again. Then Pilate sat down on the judgment seat on the platform that is called the Stone Pavement (in Hebrew, Gabbatha) . 14 It was now about noon on the day of preparation for the Passover. And Pilate said to the people,* “Look, here is your king!”

15 “Away with him,” they yelled. “Away with him! Crucify him!”

“What? Crucify your king?” Pilate asked.

“We have no king but Caesar,” the leading priests shouted back.

¹⁶ Then Pilate turned Jesus over to them to be crucified.

The Crucifixion

So they took Jesus away. ¹⁷ Carrying the cross by himself, he went to the place called Place of the Skull (in Hebrew, Golgotha). ¹⁸ There they nailed him to the cross. Two others were crucified with him, one on either side, with Jesus between them. ¹⁹ And Pilate posted a sign on the cross that read, “Jesus of Nazareth,* the King of the Jews.” ²⁰ The place where Jesus was crucified was near the city, and the sign was written in Hebrew, Latin, and Greek, so that many people could read it.

²¹ Then the leading priests objected and said to Pilate, “Change it from ‘The King of the Jews’ to ‘He said, I am King of the Jews.’”

²² Pilate replied, “No, what I have written, I have written.”

²³ When the soldiers had crucified Jesus, they divided his clothes among the four of them. They also took his robe, but it was seamless, woven in one piece from top to bottom. ²⁴ So they said, “Rather than tearing it apart, let’s throw dice* for it.” This fulfilled the Scripture that says, “They divided my garments among themselves and threw dice for my clothing.”* So that is what they did.

²⁵ Standing near the cross were Jesus’ mother, and his mother’s sister, Mary (the wife of Clopas), and Mary Magdalene. ²⁶ When Jesus saw his mother standing there beside the disciple he loved, he said to her, “Dear woman, here is your son.”²⁷ And he said to this disciple, “Here is your mother.” And from then on this disciple took her into his home.

The Death of Jesus

²⁸ Jesus knew that his mission was now finished, and to fulfill Scripture he said, “I am thirsty.”*²⁹ A jar of sour wine was sitting there, so they soaked a sponge in it, put it on a hyssop branch, and held it up to his lips.³⁰ When Jesus had tasted it, he said, “It is finished!” Then he bowed his head and released his spirit.

³¹ It was the day of preparation, and the Jewish leaders didn’t want the bodies hanging there the next day, which was the Sabbath (and a very special Sabbath, because it was the Passover). So they asked Pilate to hasten their deaths by ordering that their legs be broken. Then their bodies could be taken down.³² So the soldiers came and broke the legs of the two men crucified with Jesus.³³ But when they came to Jesus, they saw that he was already dead, so they didn’t break his legs.³⁴ One of the soldiers, however, pierced his side with a spear, and immediately blood and water flowed out.³⁵ (This report is from an eyewitness giving an accurate account. He speaks the truth so that you also can believe.*)³⁶ These things happened in fulfillment of the Scriptures that say, “Not one of his bones will be broken,”³⁷ and “They will look on the one they pierced.”

HOPENOTE

It Is Finished

When Jesus had tasted it, he said, “It is finished!” Then he bowed his head and released his spirit (John 19:30).

No words in the history of humankind have ever been as powerful as these three: “It is finished.” Jesus is King of kings and Lord of lords, yet He undertook a 33-year mission here on earth on behalf of you and me. You might say He invaded the devil’s domain and took the keys of death, hell, and the grave. The enemy came to bring death; Jesus came to bring eternal life. He came to bring restoration to all of creation. Colossians 1:13 tells us that He was on a rescue mission to free us from the kingdom of darkness and transfer us to His kingdom, a kingdom of light. That mission came to a successful conclusion on the cross the moment He declared it finished.

There’s nothing you and I can add to what Jesus did for us. What we can do is live our lives gratefully and fully. We can enjoy all the blessings that God has in store for us along with His Son, the greatest blessing of all. He died for you. Won’t you live for Him?

The Burial of Jesus

38 Afterward Joseph of Arimathea, who had been a secret disciple of Jesus (because he feared the Jewish leaders), asked Pilate for permission to take down Jesus' body. When Pilate gave permission, Joseph came and took the body away. 39 With him came Nicodemus, the man who had come to Jesus at night. He brought about seventy-five pounds* of perfumed ointment made from myrrh and aloes. 40 Following Jewish burial custom, they wrapped Jesus' body with the spices in long sheets of linen cloth. 41 The place of crucifixion was near a garden, where there was a new tomb, never used before. 42 And so, because it was the day of preparation for the Jewish Passover* and since the tomb was close at hand, they laid Jesus there.

Chapter 20

The Resurrection

Early on Sunday morning,* while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and found that the stone had been rolled away from the entrance. 2 She ran and found Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved. She said, "They have taken the Lord's body out of the tomb, and we don't know where they have put him!"

3 Peter and the other disciple started out for the tomb. 4 They were both running, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. 5 He stooped and looked in and saw the linen wrappings lying there, but he didn't go in. 6 Then Simon Peter arrived and went inside. He also noticed the linen wrappings lying there,⁷ while the cloth that had covered Jesus' head was folded up and lying apart from the other wrappings.⁸ Then the disciple who had reached the tomb first also went in, and he saw and believed—⁹ for until then they still hadn't understood the Scriptures that said Jesus must rise from the dead.¹⁰ Then they went home.

Jesus Appears to Mary Magdalene

¹¹ Mary was standing outside the tomb crying, and as she wept, she stooped and looked in.¹² She saw two white-robed angels, one sitting at the head and the other at the foot of the place where the body of Jesus had been lying.¹³ “Dear woman, why are you crying?” the angels asked her.

“Because they have taken away my Lord,” she replied, “and I don't know where they have put him.”

¹⁴ She turned to leave and saw someone standing there. It was Jesus, but she didn't recognize him.¹⁵ “Dear woman, why are you crying?” Jesus asked her. “Who are you looking for?”

HOPENOTE

Faith to Believe

Then Jesus told him, “You believe because you have seen me. Blessed are those who believe without seeing me” (John 20:29).

Thomas wanted proof that Jesus was risen from the dead. He wanted to see and touch His hands before he would believe it. “Unless I check Jesus’ wounds with my own fingers,” he said, “I won’t believe Jesus has risen from the dead.” We all know people like “Doubting” Thomas. They think they need more proof, but what they really need is to exercise more faith. Notice that when Jesus showed up and offered to let Thomas touch His wounds, suddenly Thomas didn’t need that much proof any more!

I believe there are basically two kinds of doubters: those who have honest questions and want to believe, and those who have decided not to believe and just want to argue. Thomas had a tendency to doubt, but he wanted to believe. He was in the first group. Other people hide behind their doubts. They have made up their minds not to believe, but they feel they need to keep asking questions so they appear to be open minded.

Because God loves us, He offers each of us enough evidence to ignite our faith. Faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the Word of God (Romans 10:17). God won’t ever override our will. We have to make the choice to respond to Him. If you are waiting for more proof, remember what Jesus told Thomas: “Blessed are those who believe without seeing.” Take the step of faith, and He’ll show Himself to you.

She thought he was the gardener. “Sir,” she said, “if you have taken him away, tell me where you have put him, and I will go and get him.”

16 “Mary!” Jesus said.

She turned to him and cried out, “Rabboni!” (which is Hebrew for “Teacher”).

17 “Don’t cling to me,” Jesus said, “for I haven’t yet ascended to the Father. But go find my brothers and tell them, ‘I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.’”

18 Mary Magdalene found the disciples and told them, “I have seen the Lord!” Then she gave them his message.

Jesus Appears to His Disciples

19 That Sunday evening* the disciples were meeting behind locked doors because they were afraid of the Jewish leaders. Suddenly, Jesus was standing there among them! “Peace be with you,” he said.²⁰ As he spoke, he showed them the wounds in his hands and his side. They were filled with joy when they saw the Lord! ²¹ Again he said, “Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I am sending you.” ²² Then he breathed on them and said, “Receive the Holy Spirit. ²³ If you forgive anyone’s sins, they are forgiven. If you do not forgive them, they are not forgiven.”

Jesus Appears to Thomas

²⁴ One of the twelve disciples, Thomas (nicknamed the Twin),* was not with the others when Jesus came. ²⁵ They told him, “We have seen the Lord!”

But he replied, “I won’t believe it unless I see the nail wounds in his hands, put my fingers into them, and place my hand into the wound in his side.”

²⁶ Eight days later the disciples were together again, and this time Thomas was with them. The doors were locked; but suddenly, as before, Jesus was standing among them. “Peace be with you,” he said. ²⁷ Then he said to Thomas, “Put your finger here, and look at my hands. Put your hand into the wound in my side. Don’t be faithless any longer. Believe!”

²⁸ “My Lord and my God!” Thomas exclaimed.

²⁹ Then Jesus told him, “You believe because you have seen me. Blessed are those who believe without seeing me.”

Purpose of the Book

³⁰ The disciples saw Jesus do many other miraculous signs in addition to the ones recorded in this book. ³¹ But these are written so that you may continue to believe* that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that by believing in him you will have life by the power of his name.

HOPENOTE

Life by His Power

But these are written so that you may continue to believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that by believing in him you will have life by the power of his name (John 20:31).

John came to the end of his Gospel and inserted a little note for all of us. Basically he said, “Folks, if you’ve gotten this far and have missed it, let me make sure you understand that I’ve written all this so that you would really know who Jesus is.” He pointed out that there was a lot more that he could have said, but the Spirit was telling him this was enough. He had included enough eyewitness evidence to give us good enough reason to believe in Jesus and have eternal life by the power of His name.

This is why, at the end of our worship services, we always like to give people an opportunity to make their lives right with Christ. Romans 10:9-10 tells us, “If you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved.” When we recognize our sin and acknowledge Jesus as our Savior, that is the first step into a new relationship with God, a relationship that will transform all of life. Have you taken that step?

Chapter 21

Epilogue: Jesus Appears to Seven Disciples

Later, Jesus appeared again to the disciples beside the Sea of Galilee.* This is how it happened.² Several of the disciples were there—Simon Peter, Thomas (nicknamed the Twin),*

Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two other disciples.

3 Simon Peter said, “I’m going fishing.”

“We’ll come, too,” they all said. So they went out in the boat, but they caught nothing all night.

4 At dawn Jesus was standing on the beach, but the disciples couldn’t see who he was. 5 He called out, “Fellows, have you caught any fish?”

“No,” they replied.

6 Then he said, “Throw out your net on the right-hand side of the boat, and you’ll get some!” So they did, and they couldn’t haul in the net because there were so many fish in it.

7 Then the disciple Jesus loved said to Peter, “It’s the Lord!” When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on his tunic (for he had stripped for work), jumped into the water, and headed to shore. 8 The others stayed with the boat and pulled the loaded net to the shore, for they were only about a hundred yards* from shore. 9 When they got there, they found breakfast waiting for them—fish cooking over a charcoal fire, and some bread.

10 “Bring some of the fish you’ve just caught,” Jesus said.

11 So Simon Peter went aboard and dragged the net to the shore. There were 153 large fish, and yet the net hadn’t torn.

12 “Now come and have some breakfast!” Jesus said. None of the disciples dared to ask him, “Who are you?” They knew it was the Lord. 13 Then Jesus served them the bread and the fish. 14 This was the third time Jesus had appeared to his disciples since he had been raised from the dead.

15 After breakfast Jesus asked Simon Peter, “Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?*

“Yes, Lord,” Peter replied, “you know I love you.”

“Then feed my lambs,” Jesus told him.

16 Jesus repeated the question: “Simon son of John, do you love me?”

“Yes, Lord,” Peter said, “you know I love you.”

“Then take care of my sheep,” Jesus said.

17 A third time he asked him, “Simon son of John, do you love me?”

Peter was hurt that Jesus asked the question a third time. He said, “Lord, you know everything. You know that I love you.”

HOPEFORTODAY

Lessons from the Life of Peter

After breakfast Jesus asked Simon Peter, “Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?” “Yes, Lord,” Peter replied, “you know I love you.” “Then feed my lambs,” Jesus told him (John 21:15).

Jesus didn’t focus on people’s faults. He didn’t look at what they didn’t have or didn’t do. He saw their potential. Jesus looked beyond all of Peter’s denial and betrayal, and He asked him three times if he loved Him in order to reinstate and restore Peter. Jesus helped Peter get a vision of rising higher and overcoming those obstacles of failure. Jesus' encouragement helped Peter become what he was created to be.

Sure, Peter had some shocking failures. The biggest one was that He denied knowing Jesus three times. And Peter was devastated by his weakness. The Bible says that he wept when he realized how far he'd fallen. Maybe you are remembering a time when your faith in Christ seemed like the most sure thing in your life. Now you wonder where it went. Or maybe you see failure in other areas where you made serious promises to a spouse or a child or a friend, and you didn't follow through. They were counting on you, and you let them down. If that's you, Jesus wants to restore you just like He restored Peter. Don't allow the failures or disappointments of your past keep you from reaching the promise of your future.

Peter had denied Him three times, yet Jesus gave him three times to declare his love, reinstating him and restoring him. Jesus' first and last words to Peter were "Follow Me." Jesus extends that same invitation to you today. Whether you are strong in faith or feeling like a total failure, Jesus looks at you and says, "As for you, follow Me."

Jesus said, "Then feed my sheep.

18 "I tell you the truth, when you were young, you were able to do as you liked; you dressed yourself and went wherever you wanted to go. But when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and others* will dress you and take you where you don't want to go.”¹⁹ Jesus said this to let him know by what kind of death he would glorify God. Then Jesus told him, “Follow me.”

²⁰ Peter turned around and saw behind them the disciple Jesus loved—the one who had leaned over to Jesus during supper and asked, “Lord, who will betray you?”²¹ Peter asked Jesus, “What about him, Lord?”

²² Jesus replied, “If I want him to remain alive until I return, what is that to you? As for you, follow me.”²³ So the rumor spread among the community of believers* that this disciple wouldn't die. But that isn't what Jesus said at all. He only said, “If I want him to remain alive until I return, what is that to you?”

²⁴ This disciple is the one who testifies to these events and has recorded them here. And we know that his account of these things is accurate.

²⁵ Jesus also did many other things. If they were all written down, I suppose the whole world could not contain the books that would be written.

INTRO TO THE BOOK OF

Acts

Author:

Luke

Original Audience:

Theophilus

Date of Writing:

AD 63–70

Setting:

Acts is the connecting link between Christ's life and the life of the church, between the Gospels and the Epistles, and between the Gospel in Israel and the Gospel in the world.

Key People:

Peter, Stephen, Philip, Barnabas, James, Paul

Key Verses:

But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you. And you will be my witnesses, telling people about me everywhere—in Jerusalem, throughout Judea, in Samaria, and to the ends of the earth (1:8).

Finding Hope and Encouragement in Acts

The sequel to Luke's Gospel is Acts, short for the Acts of the Apostles. Luke continues his historical account with the focus on the apostles and the spread of the early church. These men, whom we last found huddled together in the upper room, fearing for their lives, are now boldly proclaiming the message of Christ. As a result, Christianity spreads at a remarkable rate (in less than 35 years) from Jerusalem to Rome, from Jew to Gentile.

Luke begins his book with a retelling of Jesus' commission and the strategy for its fulfillment (1:8). The commission not only ties the book of Acts to the Gospel of Luke, but it also provides an outline for the book: the witness in Jerusalem and Judea (1:1–6:7), the witness in Judea and Samaria (6:8–9:31), and the witness to the ends of the earth (9:32–28:31). In chapter 11, the focus of the story line moves from Peter's ministry to the Jews to Saul (later renamed Paul) and his ministry to the Gentiles. The book records three of Paul's missionary journeys, as well as Paul's voyage to Rome to face trial.

Laced throughout this narrative is the empowering by the Holy Spirit, as the followers of Christ share about Jesus everywhere they go. The book is sometimes called "The Acts of the Holy Spirit." It reminds us of the vital role the Holy Spirit has in believers' lives as we continue the primary task of the church—world evangelization. The power that changed their lives and motivated these people to share about the living Christ, even in the face of persecution, is available to us. With great boldness, we are to extend the witness of Christ everywhere we go.

The Promise of the Holy Spirit

In my first book* I told you, Theophilus, about everything Jesus began to do and teach ² until the day he was taken up to heaven after giving his chosen apostles further instructions through the Holy Spirit. ³ During the forty days after his crucifixion, he appeared to the apostles from time to time, and he proved to them in many ways that he was actually alive. And he talked to them about the Kingdom of God.

⁴ Once when he was eating with them, he commanded them, “Do not leave Jerusalem until the Father sends you the gift he promised, as I told you before. ⁵ John baptized with* water, but in just a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.”

The Ascension of Jesus

⁶ So when the apostles were with Jesus, they kept asking him, “Lord, has the time come for you to free Israel and restore our kingdom?”

⁷ He replied, “The Father alone has the authority to set those dates and times, and they are not for you to know. ⁸ But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you. And you will be my witnesses, telling people about me everywhere—in Jerusalem, throughout Judea, in Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.”

⁹ After saying this, he was taken up into a cloud while they were watching, and they could no longer see him. ¹⁰ As they strained to see him rising into heaven, two white-robed men suddenly stood among them. ¹¹ “Men of Galilee,” they said, “why are you standing here staring into heaven? Jesus has been taken from you into heaven, but someday he will return from heaven in the same way you saw him go!”

Matthias Replaces Judas

12 Then the apostles returned to Jerusalem from the Mount of Olives, a distance of half a mile.* 13 When they arrived, they went to the upstairs room of the house where they were staying.

HOPENOTE

Be His Witnesses

But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you. And you will be my witnesses, telling people about me everywhere—in Jerusalem, throughout Judea, in Samaria, and to the ends of the earth (Acts 1:8).

In this day and age, people are desperate to hear the gospel. They may not realize what they need, but people everywhere are searching for spiritual healing and restoration. As believers, it's our job to be God's witnesses and share the Good News about Him. At a recent outreach event, 20,000 people attended and experienced God's unconditional love to the fullest. When the invitation was given at the end of the service, over 7,000 people stood to their feet to indicate their decision to follow the Lord either for the first time or to rededicate their life.

If you are a follower of Jesus, you are part of the body of Christ; you are His church, chosen to be His witness. It is the church's mission to share the Good News of Jesus Christ with a lost and hurting world. You can have an eternal impact on the lives of people in your own hometown and around the world.

Here are the names of those who were present: Peter, John, James, Andrew, Philip, Thomas, Bartholomew, Matthew, James (son of Alphaeus), Simon (the Zealot), and Judas (son of James). ¹⁴ They all met together and were constantly united in prayer, along with Mary the mother of Jesus, several other women, and the brothers of Jesus.

¹⁵ During this time, when about 120 believers* were together in one place, Peter stood up and addressed them. ¹⁶ "Brothers," he said, "the Scriptures had to be fulfilled concerning Judas, who guided those who arrested Jesus. This was predicted long ago by the Holy Spirit, speaking through King David. ¹⁷ Judas was one of us and shared in the ministry with us."

¹⁸ (Judas had bought a field with the money he received for his treachery. Falling headfirst there, his body split open, spilling out all his intestines. ¹⁹ The news of his death spread to all the people of Jerusalem, and they gave the place the Aramaic name Akeldama, which means "Field of Blood.")

HOPENOTE

The Right Place

During this time, when about 120 believers were together in one place, Peter stood up and addressed them (Acts 1:15).

The apostle Paul tells us in 1 Corinthians 15 that at least five hundred people gathered when Jesus ascended to heaven. In the book of Acts, Jesus instructed His followers to go to the upper room to wait for the promise of the Holy Spirit. But do you know only 120 showed up? Five hundred could have been blessed, but only 120 were in the right location.

Being at the right place is so important. You can't just work at any job and hang out at any place or move to any city and expect to have God's best. You have to be in the place where He has prepared your blessing. You have to be sensitive to what you're feeling inside and follow His leading. Throughout life, the Holy Spirit will lead you and guide you. Take the time to pay attention to your location. Ask yourself, "Is this where I am supposed to be? Is this the job I have peace about? Is this where I should be spending my free time?" Remember, when you're in the place God ordained, you'll be ready to receive the blessing He has uniquely prepared for you!

20 Peter continued, “This was written in the book of Psalms, where it says, ‘Let his home become desolate, with no one living in it.’ It also says, ‘Let someone else take his position.’* ”

21 “So now we must choose a replacement for Judas from among the men who were with us the entire time we were traveling with the Lord Jesus—22 from the time he was baptized by John until the day he was taken from us. Whoever is chosen will join us as a witness of Jesus’ resurrection.”

23 So they nominated two men: Joseph called Barsabbas (also known as Justus) and Matthias. 24 Then they all prayed, “O Lord, you know every heart. Show us which of these men you have chosen 25 as an apostle to replace Judas in this ministry, for he has deserted us and gone where he belongs.”

26 Then they cast lots, and Matthias was selected to become an apostle with the other eleven.

Chapter 2

The Holy Spirit Comes

On the day of Pentecost* all the believers were meeting together in one place. 2 Suddenly, there was a sound from heaven like the roaring of a mighty windstorm, and it filled the house where they were sitting. 3 Then, what looked like flames or tongues of fire appeared and settled on each of them. 4 And everyone present was filled with the Holy Spirit and began speaking in other languages,* as the Holy Spirit gave them this ability.

⁵ At that time there were devout Jews from every nation living in Jerusalem. ⁶ When they heard the loud noise, everyone came running, and they were bewildered to hear their own languages being spoken by the believers.

¹³ But others in the crowd ridiculed them, saying, “They’re just drunk, that’s all!”

Peter Preaches to the Crowd

¹⁴ Then Peter stepped forward with the eleven other apostles and shouted to the crowd, “Listen carefully, all of you, fellow Jews and residents of Jerusalem! Make no mistake about this. ¹⁵ These people are not drunk, as some of you are assuming. Nine o’clock in the morning is much too early for that. ¹⁶ No, what you see was predicted long ago by the prophet Joel:

HOPENOTE

The Breath of God

Suddenly, there was a sound from heaven like the roaring of a mighty windstorm, and it filled the house where they were sitting (Acts 2:2).

Sometimes, we think of a breath as just a little puff of air. But that's not the way God breathes. The Scripture talks about when the Holy Spirit came, it was like a rushing, mighty wind. That's what I envision behind every one of us, the power and force of Almighty God. Everywhere you go, remember the most powerful force in the universe is breathing in your direction. What happens when God breathes your way? Every enemy will be defeated, and obstacles will be overcome. Favor will increase, and dreams will come to pass. What happened? God breathed in your direction. A rushing, mighty wind is backing you up. You've got to rise up in the authority Christ gives you and say, "You know what? This is my season. I can hear the wind starting to blow, so I'm going to step into the flow."

The moment you are open to God's breath, His Spirit, things begin to shift in your favor. Your future is filled with marked moments of blessing, increase, and promotion. God has already ordained before the foundation of the world the right people, the right opportunities to come across your path. Time and chance are coming together for you. Can you get a vision for it? Can you get your hopes up? Choose to live each day with expectancy, knowing that God is breathing His mighty wind in your direction. He's taking you up higher, and He's pouring out His power and blessing in every area of your life.

- 17 'In the last days,' God says,
 'I will pour out my Spirit upon all people.
Your sons and daughters will prophesy.
 Your young men will see visions, and your old men will dream dreams.
- 18 In those days I will pour out my Spirit even on my servants—men and women alike—and they will prophesy.
- 19 And I will cause wonders in the heavens above and signs on the earth below—blood and fire and clouds of smoke.
- 20 The sun will become dark, and the moon will turn blood red before that great and glorious day of the LORD arrives.
- 21 But everyone who calls on the name of the LORD will be saved.*
- 22 "People of Israel, listen! God publicly endorsed Jesus the Nazarene* by doing powerful miracles, wonders, and signs through him, as you well know. ²³ But God knew what would happen, and his prearranged plan was carried out when Jesus was betrayed. With the help of lawless Gentiles, you nailed him to a cross and killed him. ²⁴ But God released him from the horrors of death and raised him back to life, for death could not keep him in its grip. ²⁵ King David said this about him:

‘I see that the LORD is always with me.

I will not be shaken, for he is right beside me.

²⁶ No wonder my heart is glad,
and my tongue shouts his praises!
My body rests in hope.

²⁷ For you will not leave my soul among the dead* or allow your Holy One to rot in the grave.

²⁸ You have shown me the way of life, and you will fill me with the joy of your presence.’*

²⁹ “Dear brothers, think about this! You can be sure that the patriarch David wasn’t referring to himself, for he died and was buried, and his tomb is still here among us. ³⁰ But he was a prophet, and he knew God had promised with an oath that one of David’s own descendants would sit on his throne. ³¹ David was looking into the future and speaking of the Messiah’s resurrection. He was saying that God would not leave him among the dead or allow his body to rot in the grave.

Take It with You

When they heard the loud noise, everyone came running, and they were bewildered to hear their own languages being spoken by the believers (Acts 2:6).

Early in the book of Acts, the disciples and about 120 people were in the upper room there in Jerusalem waiting for the promise of the Holy Spirit. It finally came, and there was a great outpouring of God's Spirit—a big celebration. They were all rejoicing. People heard it from all over, and they came to see what was happening. That day, 3,000 people received the message of the Gospel. It was the biggest thing that had ever happened to the early church.

Then those disciples decided to stay around Jerusalem. After all, that's where it all got started. That's where they were comfortable. But understand, where something starts is not always where it finishes. I can imagine those disciples, anytime they had a problem, anytime they got discouraged, might have said, "Let's go back to that upper room. Let's go back and sing those same songs that we sang 20 years ago." What they were saying is, "Let's see if we can get God to do the same thing here once again.”

But God’s purpose for the gift of the Holy Spirit wasn’t just to hang out in the upper room and have a party all the time. He sent the Holy Spirit to be our comforter, strength, counselor, and friend. He is our source of power on this earth. Power for what? Power to be His witness. Power to live life. Power to set people free, to overcome addictions, to bring healing. He gave us the Holy Spirit so that we could have everything we need to do the work He’s called us to. God’s gifts and blessings are for us, but they are to equip us to keep moving forward. When you have an experience with the Holy Spirit, it’s not meant to keep you where you are; it’s meant to launch you further into the destiny God has for you. Don’t long for the “good old days,” because these are the “good old days,” and God is doing a new thing in you. Keep moving forward because God wants to take you to higher heights than you’ve ever dreamed.

32 “God raised Jesus from the dead, and we are all witnesses of this. 33 Now he is exalted to the place of highest honor in heaven, at God’s right hand. And the Father, as he had promised, gave him the Holy Spirit to pour out upon us, just as you see and hear today. 34 For David himself never ascended into heaven, yet he said,

‘The LORD said to my Lord,

“Sit in the place of honor at my right hand

³⁵ until I humble your enemies, making them a footstool under your feet.”^{}

³⁶ “So let everyone in Israel know for certain that God has made this Jesus, whom you crucified, to be both Lord and Messiah!”

³⁷ Peter’s words pierced their hearts, and they said to him and to the other apostles, “Brothers, what should we do?”

³⁸ Peter replied, “Each of you must repent of your sins and turn to God, and be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins. Then you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. ³⁹ This promise is to you, and to your children, and even to the Gentiles*—all who have been called by the Lord our God.” ⁴⁰ Then Peter continued preaching for a long time, strongly urging all his listeners, “Save yourselves from this crooked generation!”

⁴¹ Those who believed what Peter said were baptized and added to the church that day—about 3,000 in all.

The Believers Form a Community

⁴² All the believers devoted themselves to the apostles’ teaching, and to fellowship, and to sharing in meals (including the Lord’s Supper*), and to prayer.

HOPENOTE

Resting in Hope

No wonder my heart is glad, and my tongue shouts his praises! My body rests in hope (Acts 2:26).

Peter quoted a psalm written by David to help make his case about the resurrection of Jesus. David understood that our hope lies in the Lord. We can find safety; we can rest, dwell, and live in hope. As a shepherd, David found rest in the natural wherever he stopped and pitched his tent. In a spiritual sense, it was as if he “pitched his tent” in the land of hope.

Where have you “pitched your tent” today? Are you resting in hope? What are you expecting to happen in your life? What kind of attitude do you have? If you’re focused on what’s wrong or what’s not working, it’s time to dig up your tent stakes! It’s time to pack up your belongings and move out of the land of discouragement. Move out of the “Not-going-to-happen” subdivision. Move out of “Can’t-do-it-ville.” It’s time to leave “Self-pity Estates.” Get out of those areas and move into the land of hope. Maybe you don’t quite know how to get there, but now’s the time to start looking for that new place. Open your heart to the Lord and ask Him to direct your thoughts and expectations. The Bible says that those who hope in the Lord will never be put to shame. You can trust God to order your steps. You can trust Him to move you from the land of disappointment to the land of hope today!

⁴³ A deep sense of awe came over them all, and the apostles performed many miraculous signs and wonders. ⁴⁴ And all the believers met together in one place and shared everything they had. ⁴⁵ They sold their property and possessions and shared the money with those in need. ⁴⁶ They worshiped together at the Temple each day, met in homes for the Lord's Supper, and shared their meals with great joy and generosity*—⁴⁷ all the while praising God and enjoying the goodwill of all the people. And each day the Lord added to their fellowship those who were being saved.

Chapter 3

Peter Heals a Crippled Beggar

Peter and John went to the Temple one afternoon to take part in the three o'clock prayer service. ² As they approached the Temple, a man lame from birth was being carried in. Each day he was put beside the Temple gate, the one called the Beautiful Gate, so he could beg from the people going into the Temple. ³ When he saw Peter and John about to enter, he asked them for some money.

⁴ Peter and John looked at him intently, and Peter said, "Look at us!" ⁵ The lame man looked at them eagerly, expecting some money. ⁶ But Peter said, "I don't have any silver or gold for you. But I'll give you what I have. In the name of Jesus Christ the Nazarene,* get up and* walk!"

⁷ Then Peter took the lame man by the right hand and helped him up. And as he did, the man's feet and ankles were instantly healed and strengthened. ⁸ He jumped up, stood on his feet, and began to walk! Then, walking, leaping, and praising God, he went into the Temple with them.

⁹ All the people saw him walking and heard him praising God. ¹⁰ When they realized he was the lame beggar they had seen so often at the Beautiful Gate, they were absolutely astounded! ¹¹ They all rushed out in amazement to Solomon's Colonnade, where the man was holding tightly to Peter and John.

Peter Preaches in the Temple

¹² Peter saw his opportunity and addressed the crowd. "People of Israel," he said, "what is so surprising about this? And why stare at us as though we had made this man walk by our own power or godliness? ¹³ For it is the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob—the God of all our ancestors—who has brought glory to his servant Jesus by doing this. This is the same Jesus whom you handed over and rejected before Pilate, despite Pilate's decision to release him. ¹⁴ You rejected this holy, righteous one and instead demanded the release of a murderer. ¹⁵ You killed the author of life, but God raised him from the dead. And we are witnesses of this fact!

Give What You Have

But Peter said, “I don’t have any silver or gold for you. But I’ll give you what I have. In the name of Jesus Christ the Nazarene, get up and walk!” (Acts 3:6).

Generosity isn’t about money; it’s about an attitude of the heart. Generosity is fueled by compassion and mercy. Peter and John didn’t have money to give that day, and they knew the man who had approached them ultimately didn’t need money, he needed healing.

When Peter said to him, “Look at us,” the man looked with anticipation, but Peter immediately challenged him to look higher, to take a literal step of faith and stand up. Peter even took his hand and gave him a pull. Those words and that touch of faith filled that man with strength.

Just like Peter and John, you always have something to give the people around you. It may not be what they ask for at first, but you do have something that people need because the Source of all things lives on the inside of you. You can give an encouraging word and ignite hope in someone. You can pray for people in their hour of need. Remember, the same Spirit that raised Christ from the dead dwells in you (Romans 8:11). You are His representative on this earth, and He’s given you all authority in Jesus’ name. When you see people in need, give what you have because what you have may be all they really need.

16 “Through faith in the name of Jesus, this man was healed—and you know how crippled he was before. Faith in Jesus’ name has healed him before your very eyes.

17 “Friends,* I realize that what you and your leaders did to Jesus was done in ignorance. 18 But God was fulfilling what all the prophets had foretold about the Messiah—that he must suffer these things. 19 Now repent of your sins and turn to God, so that your sins may be wiped away. 20 Then times of refreshment will come from the presence of the Lord, and he will again send you Jesus, your appointed Messiah. 21 For he must remain in heaven until the time for the final restoration of all things, as God promised long ago through his holy prophets. 22 Moses said, ‘The LORD your God will raise up for you a Prophet like me from among your own people. Listen carefully to everything he tells you.’* 23 Then Moses said, ‘Anyone who will not listen to that Prophet will be completely cut off from God’s people.’*

24 “Starting with Samuel, every prophet spoke about what is happening today. 25 You are the children of those prophets, and you are included in the covenant God promised to your ancestors. For God said to Abraham, ‘Through your descendants* all the families on earth will be blessed.’ 26 When God raised up his servant, Jesus, he sent him first to you people of Israel, to bless you by turning each of you back from your sinful ways.”

Peter and John before the Council

While Peter and John were speaking to the people, they were confronted by the priests, the captain of the Temple guard, and some of the Sadducees.² These leaders were very disturbed that Peter and John were teaching the people that through Jesus there is a resurrection of the dead.³ They arrested them and, since it was already evening, put them in jail until morning.⁴ But many of the people who heard their message believed it, so the number of believers now totaled about 5,000 men, not counting women and children.*

⁵ The next day the council of all the rulers and elders and teachers of religious law met in Jerusalem.⁶ Annas the high priest was there, along with Caiaphas, John, Alexander, and other relatives of the high priest.⁷ They brought in the two disciples and demanded, “By what power, or in whose name, have you done this?”

⁸ Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, “Rulers and elders of our people,⁹ are we being questioned today because we’ve done a good deed for a crippled man? Do you want to know how he was healed?¹⁰ Let me clearly state to all of you and to all the people of Israel that he was healed by the powerful name of Jesus Christ the Nazarene,* the man you crucified but whom God raised from the dead.¹¹ For Jesus is the one referred to in the Scriptures, where it says,

has now become the cornerstone.’*

¹² There is salvation in no one else! God has given no other name under heaven by which we must be saved.”

¹³ The members of the council were amazed when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, for they could see that they were ordinary men with no special training in the Scriptures. They also recognized them as men who had been with Jesus. ¹⁴ But since they could see the man who had been healed standing right there among them, there was nothing the council could say. ¹⁵ So they ordered Peter and John out of the council chamber* and conferred among themselves.

¹⁶ “What should we do with these men?” they asked each other. “We can’t deny that they have performed a miraculous sign, and everybody in Jerusalem knows about it. ¹⁷ But to keep them from spreading their propaganda any further, we must warn them not to speak to anyone in Jesus’ name again.” ¹⁸ So they called the apostles back in and commanded them never again to speak or teach in the name of Jesus.

¹⁹ But Peter and John replied, “Do you think God wants us to obey you rather than him? ²⁰ We cannot stop telling about everything we have seen and heard.”

²¹ The council then threatened them further, but they finally let them go because they didn’t know how to punish them without starting a riot. For everyone was praising God ²² for this miraculous sign—the healing of a man who had been lame for more than forty years.

The Believers Pray for Courage

²³ As soon as they were freed, Peter and John returned to the other believers and told them what the leading priests and elders had said. ²⁴ When they heard the report, all the believers lifted their voices together in prayer to God: “O Sovereign Lord, Creator of heaven and earth, the sea, and everything in them—²⁵ you spoke long ago by the Holy Spirit through our ancestor David, your servant, saying,

HOPENOTE

No Other Name

There is salvation in no one else! God has given no other name under heaven by which we must be saved (Acts 4:12).

Aren't you glad we don't have to earn our salvation? We don't have to try to be "good enough" to get to heaven. All we have to do is accept Jesus as Lord and Savior. Our salvation can only be found in the name of Jesus. He is our Redeemer. He paid the price to restore us to God.

Man has developed many religions and systems to try to earn a way to God, but no one is able to be righteous enough on their own. The book of Romans tells us that "everyone has sinned; we all fall short of God's glorious standard" (Romans 3:23). But God made Him who knew no sin, to be sin for us so that we might become the righteousness of God (see 2 Corinthians 5:21). Of all the religions, of all of the gods people have worshiped throughout time, Jesus is the only God who died and rose again. Jesus said, “I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one can come to the Father except through Me” (John 14:6). You can come to the Father any time, at any place. Hope of salvation is a free gift found in Jesus alone!

‘Why were the nations so angry?

Why did they waste their time with futile plans?

²⁶ The kings of the earth prepared for battle;

the rulers gathered together against the LORD

and against his Messiah.’*

²⁷ “In fact, this has happened here in this very city! For Herod Antipas, Pontius Pilate the governor, the Gentiles, and the people of Israel were all united against Jesus, your holy servant, whom you anointed. ²⁸ But everything they did was determined beforehand according to your will. ²⁹ And now, O Lord, hear their threats, and give us, your servants, great boldness in preaching your word. ³⁰ Stretch out your hand with healing power; may miraculous signs and wonders be done through the name of your holy servant Jesus.”

³¹ After this prayer, the meeting place shook, and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit. Then they preached the word of God with boldness.

Show His Love

There were no needy people among them, because those who owned land or houses would sell them and bring the money to the apostles to give to those in need (Acts 4:34-35).

God's love prompts giving. John 3:16 tells us, "God so loved the world that he gave. . . ." Because His love is in us, we should also give. The church in Acts set the example of how we show His love by giving to meet the needs of others. These Christians were so full of God's love that they cared more about helping others than anything else! They constantly gave whatever they could to the work of the ministry, and God blessed them in return. They understood the power of investing in God's kingdom, knowing that God would supply their needs in return. They understood they were the hands and feet of Jesus, the body of Christ working together. When hardship came, they didn't have the attitude "Every man for himself." No, they had the attitude "Let's make sure everyone is taken care of." They took to heart the words of Jesus when He said, "The world will know you are My disciples by the way you love one another" (see John ³² All the believers were united in heart and mind. And they felt that what they owned was not their own, so they shared everything they had. ³³ The apostles testified powerfully to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and God's great blessing was upon them all. ³⁴ There were no needy people among them, because those who owned land or houses would sell them ³⁵ and bring the money to the apostles to give to those in need.

The Believers Share Their Possessions

³⁶ For instance, there was Joseph, the one the apostles nicknamed Barnabas (which means "Son of Encouragement"). He was from the tribe of Levi and came from the island of Cyprus. ³⁷ He sold a field he owned and brought the money to the apostles.

Chapter 5

Ananias and Sapphira

But there was a certain man named Ananias who, with his wife, Sapphira, sold some property. ² He brought part of the money to the apostles, claiming it was the full amount. With his wife's consent, he kept the rest.

³ Then Peter said, "Ananias, why have you let Satan fill your heart? You lied to the Holy Spirit, and you kept some of the money for yourself. ⁴ The property was yours to sell or not sell, as you wished. And after selling it, the money was also yours to give away. How could you do a thing like this? You weren't lying to us but to God!"

⁵ As soon as Ananias heard these words, he fell to the floor and died. Everyone who heard about it was terrified. ⁶ Then some young men got up, wrapped him in a sheet, and took him out and buried him.

⁷ About three hours later his wife came in, not knowing what had happened. ⁸ Peter asked her, "Was this the price you and your husband received for your land?"

"Yes," she replied, "that was the price."

⁹ And Peter said, "How could the two of you even think of conspiring to test the Spirit of the Lord like this? The young men who buried your husband are just outside the door, and they will carry you out, too."

¹⁰ Instantly, she fell to the floor and died. When the young men came in and saw that she was dead, they carried her out and buried her beside her husband. ¹¹ Great fear gripped the entire church and everyone else who heard what had happened.

The Apostles Heal Many

¹² The apostles were performing many miraculous signs and wonders among the people. And all the believers were meeting regularly at the Temple in the area known as Solomon's Colonnade. ¹³ But no one else dared to join them, even though all the people had high regard for them. ¹⁴ Yet more and more people believed and were brought to the Lord—crowds of both men and women. ¹⁵ As a result of the apostles' work, sick people were brought out into the streets on beds and mats so that Peter's shadow might fall across some of them as he went by. ¹⁶ Crowds came from the villages around Jerusalem, bringing their sick and those possessed by evil* spirits, and they were all healed.

The Apostles Meet Opposition

¹⁷ The high priest and his officials, who were Sadducees, were filled with jealousy. ¹⁸ They arrested the apostles and put them in the public jail. ¹⁹ But an angel of the Lord came at night, opened the gates of the jail, and brought them out. Then he told them, ²⁰ "Go to the Temple and give the people this message of life!"

²¹ So at daybreak the apostles entered the Temple, as they were told, and immediately began teaching.

When the high priest and his officials arrived, they convened the high council*—the full assembly of the elders of Israel. Then they sent for the apostles to be brought from the jail for trial. ²² But when the Temple guards went to the jail, the men were gone. So they returned to the council and reported, ²³ "The jail was securely locked, with the guards standing outside, but when we opened the gates, no one was there!"

²⁴ When the captain of the Temple guard and the leading priests heard this, they were perplexed, wondering where it would all end. ²⁵ Then someone arrived with startling news: "The men you put in jail are standing in the Temple, teaching the people!"

²⁶ The captain went with his Temple guards and arrested the apostles, but without violence, for they were afraid the people would stone them.²⁷ Then they brought the apostles before the high council, where the high priest confronted them.²⁸ “Didn’t we tell you never again to teach in this man’s name?” he demanded. “Instead, you have filled all Jerusalem with your teaching about him, and you want to make us responsible for his death!”

HOPENOTE

He Fights Our Battles

But if it is from God, you will not be able to overthrow them. You may even find yourselves fighting against God! (Acts 5:39).

If God is for you, who dare be against you! When God is on your side, you don’t need to worry about the outcome; He has victory in store for the upright. God can make your enemies realize that it’s better to leave you alone than to fight against the plan of God.

Gamaliel, who was the teacher of Apostle Paul, was a very wise man (Acts 22:3). The Scripture doesn’t tell us if he was a follower of Jesus, but he understood that sometimes the worst thing you can do is fight against a false claim. Movements and ideas can be very popular, but just because something is successful doesn’t mean it's right. Sooner or later, the truth comes out. Gamaliel gave some examples of how momentary popularity can fall, while resisting something God has established is futile. Gamaliel knew better than to fight against God.

Once again, God worked through an “outsider” to accomplish His will. Down through history from Pharaoh in Egypt to Cyrus in Persia; from Herod the Great to Gamaliel, God has accomplished His will by using “unaware” servants. Even today, we have examples of secular leaders who have no interest in Christianity but whose decision God uses to bring about His purposes.

29 But Peter and the apostles replied, “We must obey God rather than any human authority. 30 The God of our ancestors raised Jesus from the dead after you killed him by hanging him on a cross.* 31 Then God put him in the place of honor at his right hand as Prince and Savior. He did this so the people of Israel would repent of their sins and be forgiven. 32 We are witnesses of these things and so is the Holy Spirit, who is given by God to those who obey him.”

33 When they heard this, the high council was furious and decided to kill them. 34 But one member, a Pharisee named Gamaliel, who was an expert in religious law and respected by all the people, stood up and ordered that the men be sent outside the council chamber for a while. 35 Then he said to his colleagues, “Men of Israel, take care what you are planning to do to these men! 36 Some time ago there was that fellow

Theudas, who pretended to be someone great. About 400 others joined him, but he was killed, and all his followers went their various ways. The whole movement came to nothing.³⁷ After him, at the time of the census, there was Judas of Galilee. He got people to follow him, but he was killed, too, and all his followers were scattered.

³⁸ “So my advice is, leave these men alone. Let them go. If they are planning and doing these things merely on their own, it will soon be overthrown.³⁹ But if it is from God, you will not be able to overthrow them. You may even find yourselves fighting against God!”

⁴⁰ The others accepted his advice. They called in the apostles and had them flogged. Then they ordered them never again to speak in the name of Jesus, and they let them go.

⁴¹ The apostles left the high council rejoicing that God had counted them worthy to suffer disgrace for the name of Jesus.*

⁴² And every day, in the Temple and from house to house, they continued to teach and preach this message: “Jesus is the Messiah.”

Chapter 6

Seven Men Chosen to Serve

But as the believers* rapidly multiplied, there were rumblings of discontent. The Greek-speaking believers complained about the Hebrew-speaking believers, saying that their widows were being discriminated against in the daily distribution of food.

² So the Twelve called a meeting of all the believers. They said, “We apostles should spend our time teaching the word of God, not running a food program.³ And so, brothers, select seven men who are well respected and are full of the Spirit and wisdom. We will give them this responsibility.⁴ Then we apostles can spend our time in prayer and teaching the word.”

HOPENOTE

Valued Service

And so, brothers, select seven men who are well respected and are full of the Spirit and wisdom. We will give them this responsibility (Acts 6:3).

If you read this passage too quickly, you might get the impression that the apostles thought they were too important to serve tables. But notice the type of people they selected for this responsibility. They chose men who were full of the Spirit and wisdom. None of them were considered “second string.” This shows us that serving isn’t about having the “important” people doing “important” jobs; it’s about doing what you are called to do. The apostles couldn’t do everything. They knew what they were called to do and they knew how to delegate. They understood their role, and they weren’t going to do something outside of that role. If they did, they wouldn’t be doing what Jesus actually assigned them to do. This need created an opportunity for more people to come alongside them in leadership and service.

In the same way, we need to stay focused on what we're called to do. We need to know when to delegate. All service to God is important, and He rewards our faithfulness to Him.

⁷ So God's message continued to spread. The number of believers greatly increased in Jerusalem, and many of the Jewish priests were converted, too.

Stephen Is Arrested

⁸ Stephen, a man full of God's grace and power, performed amazing miracles and signs among the people.⁹ But one day some men from the Synagogue of Freed Slaves, as it was called, started to debate with him. They were Jews from Cyrene, Alexandria, Cilicia, and the province of Asia.¹⁰ None of them could stand against the wisdom and the Spirit with which Stephen spoke.

¹¹ So they persuaded some men to lie about Stephen, saying, "We heard him blaspheme Moses, and even God."¹² This roused the people, the elders, and the teachers of religious law. So they arrested Stephen and brought him before the high council.*

¹³ The lying witnesses said, “This man is always speaking against the holy Temple and against the law of Moses. ¹⁴ We have heard him say that this Jesus of Nazareth* will destroy the Temple and change the customs Moses handed down to us.”

¹⁵ At this point everyone in the high council stared at Stephen, because his face became as bright as an angel’s.

Chapter 7

Stephen Addresses the Council

Then the high priest asked Stephen, “Are these accusations true?”

² This was Stephen’s reply: “Brothers and fathers, listen to me. Our glorious God appeared to our ancestor Abraham in Mesopotamia before he settled in Haran.* ³ God told him, ‘Leave your native land and your relatives, and come into the land that I will show you.’* ⁴ So Abraham left the land of the Chaldeans and lived in Haran until his father died. Then God brought him here to the land where you now live.

⁵ “But God gave him no inheritance here, not even one square foot of land. God did promise, however, that eventually the whole land would belong to Abraham and his descendants—even though he had no children yet. ⁶ God also told him that his descendants would live in a foreign land, where they would be oppressed as slaves for 400 years. ⁷ ‘But I will punish the nation that enslaves them,' God said, 'and in the end they will come out and worship me here in this place.'*

8 "God also gave Abraham the covenant of circumcision at that time. So when Abraham became the father of Isaac, he circumcised him on the eighth day. And the practice was continued when Isaac became the father of Jacob, and when Jacob became the father of the twelve patriarchs of the Israelite nation.

9 "These patriarchs were jealous of their brother Joseph, and they sold him to be a slave in Egypt. But God was with him¹⁰ and rescued him from all his troubles. And God gave him favor before Pharaoh, king of Egypt. God also gave Joseph unusual wisdom, so that Pharaoh appointed him governor over all of Egypt and put him in charge of the palace.

11 "But a famine came upon Egypt and Canaan. There was great misery, and our ancestors ran out of food. ¹² Jacob heard that there was still grain in Egypt, so he sent his sons—our ancestors—to buy some. ¹³ The second time they went, Joseph revealed his identity to his brothers,* and they were introduced to Pharaoh. ¹⁴ Then Joseph sent for his father, Jacob, and all his relatives to come to Egypt, seventy-five persons in all. ¹⁵ So Jacob went to Egypt. He died there, as did our ancestors. ¹⁶ Their bodies were taken to Shechem and buried in the tomb Abraham had bought for a certain price from Hamor's sons in Shechem.

17 "As the time drew near when God would fulfill his promise to Abraham, the number of our people in Egypt greatly increased. ¹⁸ But then a new king came to the throne of Egypt who knew nothing about Joseph.¹⁹ This king exploited our people and oppressed them, forcing parents to abandon their newborn babies so they would die.

²⁰ “At that time Moses was born—a beautiful child in God’s eyes. His parents cared for him at home for three months.²¹ When they had to abandon him, Pharaoh’s daughter adopted him and raised him as her own son.²² Moses was taught all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and he was powerful in both speech and action.

²³ “One day when Moses was forty years old, he decided to visit his relatives, the people of Israel.²⁴ He saw an Egyptian mistreating an Israelite. So Moses came to the man’s defense and avenged him, killing the Egyptian.²⁵ Moses assumed his fellow Israelites would realize that God had sent him to rescue them, but they didn’t.

²⁶ “The next day he visited them again and saw two men of Israel fighting. He tried to be a peacemaker. ‘Men,’ he said, ‘you are brothers. Why are you fighting each other?’

²⁷ “But the man in the wrong pushed Moses aside. ‘Who made you a ruler and judge over us?’ he asked.²⁸ ‘Are you going to kill me as you killed that Egyptian yesterday?’²⁹ When Moses heard that, he fled the country and lived as a foreigner in the land of Midian. There his two sons were born.

³⁰ “Forty years later, in the desert near Mount Sinai, an angel appeared to Moses in the flame of a burning bush.³¹ When Moses saw it, he was amazed at the sight. As he went to take a closer look, the voice of the LORD called out to him,³² ‘I am the God of your ancestors—the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.’ Moses shook with terror and did not dare to look.

33 “Then the LORD said to him, ‘Take off your sandals, for you are standing on holy ground. 34 I have certainly seen the oppression of my people in Egypt. I have heard their groans and have come down to rescue them. Now go, for I am sending you back to Egypt.’* ”

35 “So God sent back the same man his people had previously rejected when they demanded, ‘Who made you a ruler and judge over us?’ Through the angel who appeared to him in the burning bush, God sent Moses to be their ruler and savior. 36 And by means of many wonders and miraculous signs, he led them out of Egypt, through the Red Sea, and through the wilderness for forty years.

37 “Moses himself told the people of Israel, ‘God will raise up for you a Prophet like me from among your own people.’* 38 Moses was with our ancestors, the assembly of God’s people in the wilderness, when the angel spoke to him at Mount Sinai. And there Moses received life-giving words to pass on to us.* ”

39 “But our ancestors refused to listen to Moses. They rejected him and wanted to return to Egypt. 40 They told Aaron, ‘Make us some gods who can lead us, for we don’t know what has become of this Moses, who brought us out of Egypt.’ 41 So they made an idol shaped like a calf, and they sacrificed to it and celebrated over this thing they had made. 42 Then God turned away from them and abandoned them to serve the stars of heaven as their gods! In the book of the prophets it is written, during those forty years in the wilderness, Israel?

‘Was it to me you were bringing sacrifices and offerings

43 No, you carried your pagan gods—
the shrine of Molech,
the star of your god Rephan,
and the images you made to worship them.
So I will send you into exile
as far away as Babylon.’*

44 “Our ancestors carried the Tabernacle* with them through the wilderness. It was constructed according to the plan God had shown to Moses. 45 Years later, when Joshua led our ancestors in battle against the nations that God drove out of this land, the Tabernacle was taken with them into their new territory. And it stayed there until the time of King David.

46 “David found favor with God and asked for the privilege of building a permanent Temple for the God of Jacob.* 47 But it was Solomon who actually built it. 48 However, the Most High doesn’t live in temples made by human hands. As the prophet says,

49 ‘Heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool.
Could you build me a temple as good as that?’
asks the LORD.

‘Could you build me such a resting place?

50 Didn’t my hands make both heaven and earth?’*

51 “You stubborn people! You are heathen* at heart and deaf to the truth. Must you forever resist the Holy Spirit? That’s what your ancestors did, and so do you! 52 Name one prophet your ancestors didn't persecute! They even killed the ones who predicted the coming of the Righteous One—the Messiah whom you betrayed and murdered. ⁵³ You deliberately disobeyed God's law, even though you received it from the hands of angels."

Turning Tragedy to Triumph

As they stoned him, Stephen prayed, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit." He fell to his knees, shouting, "Lord, don't charge them with this sin!" And with that, he died. Saul was one of the witnesses, and he agreed completely with the killing of Stephen (Acts 7:59–8:1a).

Stephen finished preaching a great sermon, and his audience gave him a standing rejection. They didn't want to hear Stephen's message. Instead, they decided to kill the messenger. As they stoned Stephen, he faithfully followed Jesus' pattern of praying for those who were against him.

In the natural, we would call this an unfair and terrible tragedy. But from God's perspective, it was a transition. Stephen planted a seed in Saul's life that would later grow into an amazing harvest! Stephen's friends were devastated, but God's plan was not derailed. We know that God takes what the enemy means for evil and turns it around for our good and His glory. Saul would later become Paul, one of the most influential people in the Bible.

Since the beginning of time, the enemy has tried to stop the people of God. We have to know that when the enemy comes against us, God is still working for us behind the scenes. We have to do our part and pray and trust God during the difficult times. It's not easy to lose a loved one. It's not easy to battle sickness. It's not easy to face broken relationships. But we have to continually surrender those things to Him so that He can work healing and restoration into our lives. With God, your tragedies can turn into triumphs. With God, all things are possible. With God, your best days are ahead.

⁵⁴ The Jewish leaders were infuriated by Stephen's accusation, and they shook their fists at him in rage.* ⁵⁵ But Stephen, full of the Holy Spirit, gazed steadily into heaven and saw the glory of God, and he saw Jesus standing in the place of honor at God's right hand. ⁵⁶ And he told them, "Look, I see the heavens opened and the Son of Man standing in the place of honor at God's right hand!"

⁵⁹ As they stoned him, Stephen prayed, “Lord Jesus, receive my spirit.” ⁶⁰ He fell to his knees, shouting, “Lord, don’t charge them with this sin!” And with that, he died.

Chapter 8

Saul was one of the witnesses, and he agreed completely with the killing of Stephen.

Persecution Scatters the Believers

A great wave of persecution began that day, sweeping over the church in Jerusalem; and all the believers except the apostles were scattered through the regions of Judea and Samaria.² (Some devout men came and buried Stephen with great mourning.)³ But Saul was going everywhere to destroy the church. He went from house to house, dragging out both men and women to throw them into prison.

Philip Preaches in Samaria

⁴ But the believers who were scattered preached the Good News about Jesus wherever they went.⁵ Philip, for example, went to the city of Samaria and told the people there about the Messiah.⁶ Crowds listened intently to Philip because they were eager to hear his message and see the miraculous signs he did.⁷ Many evil* spirits were cast out, screaming as they left their victims. And many who had been paralyzed or lame were healed.⁸ So there was great joy in that city.

⁹ A man named Simon had been a sorcerer there for many years, amazing the people of Samaria and claiming to be someone great.¹⁰ Everyone, from the least to the greatest, often spoke of him as “the Great One—the Power of God.”¹¹ They listened closely to him because for a long time he had astounded them with his magic.

HOPEFORTODAY

He Closes Doors

Philip, for example, went to the city of Samaria and told the people there about the Messiah (Acts 8:5).

The Scripture tells us that persecution arose in Jerusalem, so Philip went down to Samaria. It doesn't say that Philip prayed about it and decided to go to Samaria. He didn't have a choice. The persecution forced him out of Jerusalem. He got pushed out of his comfort zone. And don't you know the same God that poured out His Spirit in Jerusalem could have stopped the persecution? God closed the mouths of the lions for Daniel; He could certainly have derailed the plans of the persecutors. Surely, God could have stopped those people from killing His followers. No, that persecution was for a purpose. That persecution didn't just scatter the believers; it also scattered the Gospel! God used it to get Philip where He wanted him to be. It was in Samaria that Philip saw his greatest days of ministry. That's where he saw God do things that he had never seen before.

But I often wonder if Philip was a little hardheaded. Maybe he thought, "I'm not leaving Jerusalem. This is where it started. This is my comfort zone. I'm going to fight this opposition." And I realize there are times we have to dig our heels in. But sometimes we've got to step back and just say, "God, what are You trying to do in my life? I am not going to be hardheaded and hold onto this job, this ministry, this attitude if I can clearly see that You are trying to close the door." We have to stay open for change. God will use pressure, disappointment, loss, and even persecution to help us out of our comfort zones. Sometimes, the discomfort we feel because we think a situation or some people are pushing us down is actually pressure from God to move us along. As an old saying puts it, we have to be willing to bloom where we're planted, but we also have to be open to God transplanting us anywhere He wishes.

12 But now the people believed Philip's message of Good News concerning the Kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ. As a result, many men and women were baptized. 13 Then Simon himself believed and was baptized. He began following Philip wherever he went, and he was amazed by the signs and great miracles Philip performed.

14 When the apostles in Jerusalem heard that the people of Samaria had accepted God's message, they sent Peter and John there. ¹⁵ As soon as they arrived, they prayed for these new believers to receive the Holy Spirit. ¹⁶ The Holy Spirit had not yet come upon any of them, for they had only been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. ¹⁷ Then Peter and John laid their hands upon these believers, and they received the Holy Spirit.

¹⁸ When Simon saw that the Spirit was given when the apostles laid their hands on people, he offered them money to buy this power. ¹⁹ "Let me have this power, too," he exclaimed, "so that when I lay my hands on people, they will receive the Holy Spirit!"

²⁰ But Peter replied, "May your money be destroyed with you for thinking God's gift can be bought! ²¹ You can have no part in this, for your heart is not right with God. ²² Repent of your wickedness and pray to the Lord. Perhaps he will forgive your evil thoughts, ²³ for I can see that you are full of bitter jealousy and are held captive by sin."

²⁵ After testifying and preaching the word of the Lord in Samaria, Peter and John returned to Jerusalem. And they stopped in many Samaritan villages along the way to preach the Good News.

Philip and the Ethiopian Eunuch

²⁶ As for Philip, an angel of the Lord said to him, "Go south* down the desert road that runs from Jerusalem to Gaza." ²⁷ So he started out, and he met the treasurer of Ethiopia, a eunuch of great authority under the Kandake, the queen of Ethiopia. The eunuch had gone to Jerusalem to worship,²⁸ and he was now returning. Seated in his carriage, he was reading aloud from the book of the prophet Isaiah.

29 The Holy Spirit said to Philip, “Go over and walk along beside the carriage.”

30 Philip ran over and heard the man reading from the prophet Isaiah. Philip asked, “Do you understand what you are reading?”

31 The man replied, “How can I, unless someone instructs me?” And he urged Philip to come up into the carriage and sit with him.

32 The passage of Scripture he had been reading was this:

“He was led like a sheep to the slaughter.
And as a lamb is silent before the shearers,
he did not open his mouth.

33 He was humiliated and received no justice.

Who can speak of his descendants?
For his life was taken from the earth.”*

34 The eunuch asked Philip, “Tell me, was the prophet talking about himself or someone else?”³⁵ So beginning with this same Scripture, Philip told him the Good News about Jesus.

36 As they rode along, they came to some water, and the eunuch said, “Look! There’s some water! Why can’t I be baptized?”*³⁸ He ordered the carriage to stop, and they went down into the water, and Philip baptized him.

39 When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord snatched Philip away. The eunuch never saw him again but went on his way rejoicing.⁴⁰ Meanwhile, Philip found himself farther north at the town of Azotus. He preached the Good News there and in every town along the way until he came to Caesarea.

Chapter 9

Saul's Conversion

Meanwhile, Saul was uttering threats with every breath and was eager to kill the Lord's followers.* So he went to the high priest.² He requested letters addressed to the synagogues in Damascus, asking for their cooperation in the arrest of any followers of the Way he found there. He wanted to bring them—both men and women—back to Jerusalem in chains.

³ As he was approaching Damascus on this mission, a light from heaven suddenly shone down around him.⁴ He fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to him, "Saul! Saul! Why are you persecuting me?"

⁵ "Who are you, lord?" Saul asked.

And the voice replied, "I am Jesus, the one you are persecuting! ⁶ Now get up and go into the city, and you will be told what you must do."

⁷ The men with Saul stood speechless, for they heard the sound of someone's voice but saw no one!⁸ Saul picked himself up off the ground, but when he opened his eyes he was blind. So his companions led him by the hand to Damascus.⁹

He remained there blind for three days and did not eat or drink.

¹⁰ Now there was a believer* in Damascus named Ananias. The Lord spoke to him in a vision, calling, “Ananias!”

“Yes, Lord!” he replied.

¹¹ The Lord said, “Go over to Straight Street, to the house of Judas. When you get there, ask for a man from Tarsus named Saul. He is praying to me right now. ¹² I have shown him a vision of a man named Ananias coming in and laying hands on him so he can see again.”

¹³ “But Lord,” exclaimed Ananias, “I’ve heard many people talk about the terrible things this man has done to the believers* in Jerusalem! ¹⁴ And he is authorized by the leading priests to arrest everyone who calls upon your name.”

¹⁵ But the Lord said, “Go, for Saul is my chosen instrument to take my message to the Gentiles and to kings, as well as to the people of Israel. ¹⁶ And I will show him how much he must suffer for my name’s sake.”

¹⁷ So Ananias went and found Saul. He laid his hands on him and said, “Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus, who appeared to you on the road, has sent me so that you might regain your sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit.” ¹⁸ Instantly something like scales fell from Saul’s eyes, and he regained his sight. Then he got up and was baptized. ¹⁹ Afterward he ate some food and regained his strength.

Saul in Damascus and Jerusalem

Saul stayed with the believers* in Damascus for a few days. ²⁰ And immediately he began preaching about Jesus in the synagogues, saying, “He is indeed the Son of God!”

²¹ All who heard him were amazed. “Isn’t this the same man who caused such devastation among Jesus’ followers in Jerusalem?” they asked. “And didn’t he come here to arrest them and take them in chains to the leading priests?”

²² Saul’s preaching became more and more powerful, and the Jews in Damascus couldn’t refute his proofs that Jesus was indeed the Messiah. ²³ After a while some of the Jews plotted together to kill him. ²⁴ They were watching for him day and night at the city gate so they could murder him, but Saul was told about their plot. ²⁵ So during the night, some of the other believers* lowered him in a large basket through an opening in the city wall.

²⁶ When Saul arrived in Jerusalem, he tried to meet with the believers, but they were all afraid of him. They did not believe he had truly become a believer! ²⁷ Then Barnabas brought him to the apostles and told them how Saul had seen the Lord on the way to Damascus and how the Lord had spoken to Saul. He also told them that Saul had preached boldly in the name of Jesus in Damascus.

²⁸ So Saul stayed with the apostles and went all around Jerusalem with them, preaching boldly in the name of the Lord. ²⁹ He debated with some Greek-speaking Jews, but they tried to murder him. ³⁰ When the believers* heard about this, they took him down to Caesarea and sent him away to Tarsus, his hometown.

It Only Takes One

Then Barnabas brought him to the apostles and told them how Saul had seen the Lord on the way to Damascus and how the Lord had spoken to Saul. He also told them that Saul had preached boldly in the name of Jesus in Damascus (Acts 9:27).

The man named Saul spent years persecuting Christians. One day, God supernaturally turned his life around, and now he had a message to share with God's people. Overnight, he became the apostle Paul. But the problem was that nobody would have anything to do with Paul. Because of his past, they were all afraid of him. Scripture tells us God brought Barnabas across Paul's path and they developed a friendship. Barnabas went back to the people and said, "Listen, it's okay. Let Paul come. He's for real." In other words, he used his influence to open a door for Paul to a whole new group of people. Paul went on to write over half of the New Testament.

What if Barnabas had not come along and put his stamp of approval on Paul? Paul might not have had the impact that he had. But no, God always has a plan. God already had Barnabas lined up. And you may think at times, “How can I fulfill my dreams? How can I get that promotion?” Listen, all God has to do is send a Barnabas across your path. He did it for Paul. He can do it for you! Remember, all it takes is one touch of God’s favor. One person putting in the right word for you at the right time, and you’ll go to a whole new level. One person introducing you to their friend, and all of a sudden you’ve met the man or woman of your dreams. Just one Barnabas coming across your path to say, “Hey, let me use my influence.” Now all these other doors open up. I don’t know about you, but I’m believing for some Barnabases in my life, people who will want to help me, people who will open up doors that would not have normally been open. And when God gives you a Barnabas, when He gives you one touch of His favor, He will do more in a split second than you can do in your whole lifetime.

³¹ The church then had peace throughout Judea, Galilee, and Samaria, and it became stronger as the believers lived in the fear of the Lord. And with the encouragement of the Holy Spirit, it also grew in numbers.

Peter Heals Aeneas and Raises Dorcas

³² Meanwhile, Peter traveled from place to place, and he came down to visit the believers in the town of Lydda. ³³ There he met a man named Aeneas, who had been paralyzed and bedridden for eight years. ³⁴ Peter said to him, “Aeneas, Jesus Christ heals you! Get up, and roll up your sleeping mat!” And he was healed instantly. ³⁵ Then the whole population of Lydda and Sharon saw Aeneas walking around, and they turned to the Lord.

³⁶ There was a believer in Joppa named Tabitha (which in Greek is Dorcas*). She was always doing kind things for others and helping the poor. ³⁷ About this time she became ill and died. Her body was washed for burial and laid in an upstairs room. ³⁸ But the believers had heard that Peter was nearby at Lydda, so they sent two men to beg him, “Please come as soon as possible!”

³⁹ So Peter returned with them; and as soon as he arrived, they took him to the upstairs room. The room was filled with widows who were weeping and showing him the coats and other clothes Dorcas had made for them. ⁴⁰ But Peter asked them all to leave the room; then he knelt and prayed. Turning to the body he said, “Get up, Tabitha.” And she opened her eyes! When she saw Peter, she sat up! ⁴¹ He gave her his hand and helped her up. Then he called in the widows and all the believers, and he presented her to them alive.

⁴² The news spread through the whole town, and many believed in the Lord. ⁴³ And Peter stayed a long time in Joppa, living with Simon, a tanner of hides.

Chapter 10

Cornelius Calls for Peter

In Caesarea there lived a Roman army officer* named Cornelius, who was a captain of the Italian Regiment. ² He was a devout, God-fearing man, as was everyone in his household. He gave generously to the poor and prayed regularly to God. ³ One afternoon about three o'clock, he had a vision in which he saw an angel of God coming toward him. "Cornelius!" the angel said.

⁴ Cornelius stared at him in terror. "What is it, sir?" he asked the angel.

And the angel replied, "Your prayers and gifts to the poor have been received by God as an offering! ⁵ Now send some men to Joppa, and summon a man named Simon Peter. ⁶ He is staying with Simon, a tanner who lives near the seashore."

⁷ As soon as the angel was gone, Cornelius called two of his household servants and a devout soldier, one of his personal attendants. ⁸ He told them what had happened and sent them off to Joppa.

Peter Visits Cornelius

⁹ The next day as Cornelius's messengers were nearing the town, Peter went up on the flat roof to pray. It was about noon, ¹⁰ and he was hungry. But while a meal was being prepared, he fell into a trance. ¹¹ He saw the sky open, and something like a large sheet was let down by its four corners. ¹² In the sheet were all sorts of animals, reptiles, and birds. ¹³ Then a voice said to him, "Get up, Peter; kill and eat them."

¹⁴ "No, Lord," Peter declared. "I have never eaten anything that our Jewish laws have declared impure and unclean.*"

15 But the voice spoke again: “Do not call something unclean if God has made it clean.” 16 The same vision was repeated three times. Then the sheet was suddenly pulled up to heaven.

17 Peter was very perplexed. What could the vision mean? Just then the men sent by Cornelius found Simon’s house. Standing outside the gate, 18 they asked if a man named Simon Peter was staying there.

19 Meanwhile, as Peter was puzzling over the vision, the Holy Spirit said to him, “Three men have come looking for you. 20 Get up, go downstairs, and go with them without hesitation. Don’t worry, for I have sent them.”

21 So Peter went down and said, “I’m the man you are looking for. Why have you come?”

22 They said, “We were sent by Cornelius, a Roman officer. He is a devout and God-fearing man, well respected by all the Jews. A holy angel instructed him to summon you to his house so that he can hear your message.” 23 So Peter invited the men to stay for the night. The next day he went with them, accompanied by some of the brothers from Joppa.

24 They arrived in Caesarea the following day. Cornelius was waiting for them and had called together his relatives and close friends. 25 As Peter entered his home, Cornelius fell at his feet and worshiped him. 26 But Peter pulled him up and said, “Stand up! I’m a human being just like you!” 27 So they talked together and went inside, where many others were assembled.

28 Peter told them, “You know it is against our laws for a Jewish man to enter a Gentile home like this or to associate with you. But God has shown me that I should no longer think of anyone as impure or unclean. ²⁹ So I came without objection as soon as I was sent for. Now tell me why you sent for me.”

³⁰ Cornelius replied, “Four days ago I was praying in my house about this same time, three o’clock in the afternoon. Suddenly, a man in dazzling clothes was standing in front of me. ³¹ He told me, ‘Cornelius, your prayer has been heard, and your gifts to the poor have been noticed by God! ³² Now send messengers to Joppa, and summon a man named Simon Peter. He is staying in the home of Simon, a tanner who lives near the seashore.’ ³³ So I sent for you at once, and it was good of you to come. Now we are all here, waiting before God to hear the message the Lord has given you.”

The Gentiles Hear the Good News

³⁴ Then Peter replied, “I see very clearly that God shows no favoritism. ³⁵ In every nation he accepts those who fear him and do what is right. ³⁶ This is the message of Good News for the people of Israel—that there is peace with God through Jesus Christ, who is Lord of all. ³⁷ You know what happened throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee, after John began preaching his message of baptism. ³⁸ And you know that God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power. Then Jesus went around doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him.

HOPENOTE

Free for All

Then Peter replied, “I see very clearly that God shows no favoritism. In every nation he accepts those who fear him and do what is right (Acts 10:34-35).

Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom—and God’s freedom is free for everyone! It doesn’t matter what your nationality or heritage is, or who your family is. It doesn’t matter how much money you have or don’t have, God wants you free from every type of bondage so that He can have a close and pure relationship with you. God wants to pour out His abundant blessing on all who honor Him and do what is right. There is no favoritism in God’s kingdom.

In fact, the Bible says in Galatians that in Christ, there is no Jew or Greek or even male or female. That means God is not judging you based on external conditions. He’s looking at your heart. He’s looking at the giftings He’s placed inside of you. He’s looking at your potential. Don’t let the enemy lie to you and tell you that God is blessing everyone else but you. Look for the ways God is pouring out blessing in your life. Thank Him for His acceptance and love. Thank Him for the gift of life and freedom! Focus on the goodness of God with an open heart. And remember, God is no respecter of persons. If you'll trust Him with your life, He will make a way for you where there seems to be no way, and He will open doors for you that no one can shut!

39 “And we apostles are witnesses of all he did throughout Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a cross,* 40 but God raised him to life on the third day. Then God allowed him to appear, 41 not to the general public,* but to us whom God had chosen in advance to be his witnesses. We were those who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. 42 And he ordered us to preach everywhere and to testify that Jesus is the one appointed by God to be the judge of all—the living and the dead. 43 He is the one all the prophets testified about, saying that everyone who believes in him will have their sins forgiven through his name.”

Christ's Representatives

And you know that God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power. Then Jesus went around doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him (Acts 10:38).

When Jesus walked the earth, He was on a mission. Not only did He come to die on the cross and save us from our sins, He had a mission to set people free from every kind of brokenness and oppression. He was anointed and empowered to fulfill His mission. Notice it doesn't say that He went around doing good to some people or healing some people. No. It says that He went around doing good and healing all. That was His mission, and He is still fulfilling that mission on the earth today.

When you accept Jesus as your Lord and Savior, the Bible says that you become an ambassador of His. That means you are His representative. As His representative, you have access to the same power and authority that He has. You are empowered and anointed to fulfill His mission in the earth. You are anointed to do good and heal those who are oppressed by the enemy. Is there someone in your life who needs a touch from God today? You are the hands and feet of Jesus on the earth. You are anointed to do good. You are empowered to pray for the sick. As you reach out to others and allow God to use you, you will see His power flow through you.

The Gentiles Receive the Holy Spirit

⁴⁴ Even as Peter was saying these things, the Holy Spirit fell upon all who were listening to the message.⁴⁵ The Jewish believers* who came with Peter were amazed that the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out on the Gentiles, too.⁴⁶ For they heard them speaking in other tongues* and praising God.

Then Peter asked,⁴⁷ “Can anyone object to their being baptized, now that they have received the Holy Spirit just as we did?”⁴⁸ So he gave orders for them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Afterward Cornelius asked him to stay with them for several days.

Chapter 11

Peter Explains His Actions

Soon the news reached the apostles and other believers* in Judea that the Gentiles had received the word of God.² But when Peter arrived back in Jerusalem, the Jewish believers* criticized him.³ “You entered the home of Gentiles* and even ate with them!” they said.

⁴ Then Peter told them exactly what had happened.⁵ “I was in the town of Joppa,” he said, “and while I was praying, I went into a trance and saw a vision. Something like a large sheet was let down by its four corners from the sky. And it came right down to me.⁶ When I looked inside the sheet, I saw all sorts of tame and wild animals, reptiles, and birds.⁷ And I heard a voice say, ‘Get up, Peter; kill and eat them.’

⁹ “But the voice from heaven spoke again: ‘Do not call something unclean if God has made it clean.’¹⁰ This happened three times before the sheet and all it contained was pulled back up to heaven.

¹¹ “Just then three men who had been sent from Caesarea arrived at the house where we were staying. ¹² The Holy Spirit told me to go with them and not to worry that they were Gentiles. These six brothers here accompanied me, and we soon entered the home of the man who had sent for us. ¹³ He told us how an angel had appeared to him in his home and had told him, ‘Send messengers to Joppa, and summon a man named Simon Peter. ¹⁴ He will tell you how you and everyone in your household can be saved!’

¹⁵ “As I began to speak,” Peter continued, “the Holy Spirit fell on them, just as he fell on us at the beginning. ¹⁶ Then I thought of the Lord’s words when he said, ‘John baptized with* water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.’ ¹⁷ And since God gave these Gentiles the same gift he gave us when we believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I to stand in God’s way?”

¹⁸ When the others heard this, they stopped objecting and began praising God. They said, “We can see that God has also given the Gentiles the privilege of repenting of their sins and receiving eternal life.”

The Church in Antioch of Syria

¹⁹ Meanwhile, the believers who had been scattered during the persecution after Stephen’s death traveled as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch of Syria. They preached the word of God, but only to Jews. ²⁰ However, some of the believers who went to Antioch from Cyprus and Cyrene began preaching to the Gentiles* about the Lord Jesus.²¹ The power of the Lord was with them, and a large number of these Gentiles believed and turned to the Lord.

²² When the church at Jerusalem heard what had happened, they sent Barnabas to Antioch. ²³ When he arrived and saw this evidence of God's blessing, he was filled with joy, and he encouraged the believers to stay true to the Lord. ²⁴ Barnabas was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and strong in faith. And many people were brought to the Lord.

²⁵ Then Barnabas went on to Tarsus to look for Saul. ²⁶ When he found him, he brought him back to Antioch. Both of them stayed there with the church for a full year, teaching large crowds of people. (It was at Antioch that the believers* were first called Christians.)

²⁷ During this time some prophets traveled from Jerusalem to Antioch. ²⁸ One of them named Agabus stood up in one of the meetings and predicted by the Spirit that a great famine was coming upon the entire Roman world. (This was fulfilled during the reign of Claudius.) ²⁹ So the believers in Antioch decided to send relief to the brothers and sisters* in Judea, everyone giving as much as they could. ³⁰ This they did, entrusting their gifts to Barnabas and Saul to take to the elders of the church in Jerusalem.

Chapter 12

James Is Killed and Peter Is Imprisoned

About that time King Herod Agrippa* began to persecute some believers in the church.² He had the apostle James (John's brother) killed with a sword.³ When Herod saw how much this pleased the Jewish people, he also arrested Peter. (This took place during the Passover celebration.*)⁴ Then he imprisoned him, placing him under the guard of four squads of four soldiers each. Herod intended to bring Peter out for public trial after the Passover.⁵ But while Peter was in prison, the church prayed very earnestly for him.

Peter's Miraculous Escape from Prison

⁶ The night before Peter was to be placed on trial, he was asleep, fastened with two chains between two soldiers. Others stood guard at the prison gate.⁷ Suddenly, there was a bright light in the cell, and an angel of the Lord stood before Peter. The angel struck him on the side to awaken him and said, "Quick! Get up!" And the chains fell off his wrists.⁸ Then the angel told him, "Get dressed and put on your sandals." And he did. "Now put on your coat and follow me," the angel ordered.

⁹ So Peter left the cell, following the angel. But all the time he thought it was a vision. He didn't realize it was actually happening.¹⁰ They passed the first and second guard posts and came to the iron gate leading to the city, and this opened for them all by itself. So they passed through and started walking down the street, and then the angel suddenly left him.

¹¹ Peter finally came to his senses. "It's really true!" he said. "The Lord has sent his angel and saved me from Herod and from what the Jewish leaders* had planned to do to me!"

¹² When he realized this, he went to the home of Mary, the mother of John Mark, where many were gathered for prayer. ¹³ He knocked at the door in the gate, and a servant girl named Rhoda came to open it. ¹⁴ When she recognized Peter's voice, she was so overjoyed that, instead of opening the door, she ran back inside and told everyone, "Peter is standing at the door!"

¹⁵ "You're out of your mind!" they said. When she insisted, they decided, "It must be his angel."

HOPEFORTODAY

Unbelievable Answer

Meanwhile, Peter continued knocking. When they finally opened the door and saw him, they were amazed (Acts 12:16).

Our understanding of prayer moves to a whole new level when we see God do the impossible in our lives! The church was being persecuted. The apostle James was killed. Peter was thrown in jail. And it suddenly seemed that not even Jesus' intimate circle of followers were safe anymore. The church gathered and began to pray fervently. They thought for sure that they were about to lose Peter, too.

Meanwhile, not far from the prayer meeting, God was already freeing Peter. Now, when an angel helps you break out of prison, I don't know if that's considered an inside job or an outside job, but the angel certainly got the job done! The chains were loosed, the guards slept, and the iron gates opened on their own. Peter didn't really believe it was happening until he was actually out on the street. He went straight to Mary's house where they were praying for him. There was Peter, banging on the door in the middle of the night, trying to get someone to believe it was really him!

When we pray, do we really expect God to answer, or are we just going through the motions? Are we counting on Him to act or talking to Him like we're simply keeping Him informed? A prayer of faith isn't so much insisting that we know how God should answer but rather a confident anticipation that God will answer! I wonder how often we are still praying while God's answer is banging on the door of our lives!

Think about the things you've been praying about recently. Check your expectations and anticipation. Make sure you're expressing those prayers with confidence. "Lord, You are welcome to surprise me with Your answers. I am eagerly expecting Your response to my prayer. My eyes are open, my mind is alert, my faith is activated, and I know Your answers are on the way!"

16 Meanwhile, Peter continued knocking. When they finally opened the door and saw him, they were amazed.¹⁷ He motioned for them to quiet down and told them how the Lord had led him out of prison. “Tell James and the other brothers what happened,” he said. And then he went to another place.

¹⁸ At dawn there was a great commotion among the soldiers about what had happened to Peter. ¹⁹ Herod Agrippa ordered a thorough search for him. When he couldn’t be found, Herod interrogated the guards and sentenced them to death. Afterward Herod left Judea to stay in Caesarea for a while.

The Death of Herod Agrippa

²⁰ Now Herod was very angry with the people of Tyre and Sidon. So they sent a delegation to make peace with him because their cities were dependent upon Herod’s country for food. The delegates won the support of Blastus, Herod’s personal assistant,²¹ and an appointment with Herod was granted. When the day arrived, Herod put on his royal robes, sat on his throne, and made a speech to them. ²² The people gave him a great ovation, shouting, “It’s the voice of a god, not of a man!”

²³ Instantly, an angel of the Lord struck Herod with a sickness, because he accepted the people’s worship instead of giving the glory to God. So he was consumed with worms and died.

²⁴ Meanwhile, the word of God continued to spread, and there were many new believers.

²⁵ When Barnabas and Saul had finished their mission to Jerusalem, they returned,* taking John Mark with them.

Chapter 13

Barnabas and Saul Are Commissioned

Among the prophets and teachers of the church at Antioch of Syria were Barnabas, Simeon (called “the black man”), Lucius (from Cyrene), Manaen (the childhood companion of King Herod Antipas), and Saul.² One day as these men were worshiping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, “Dedicate Barnabas and Saul for the special work to which I have called them.”³ So after more fasting and prayer, the men laid their hands on them and sent them on their way.

Paul’s First Missionary Journey

⁴ So Barnabas and Saul were sent out by the Holy Spirit. They went down to the seaport of Seleucia and then sailed for the island of Cyprus.⁵ There, in the town of Salamis, they went to the Jewish synagogues and preached the word of God. John Mark went with them as their assistant.

⁶ Afterward they traveled from town to town across the entire island until finally they reached Paphos, where they met a Jewish sorcerer, a false prophet named Bar-Jesus.⁷ He had attached himself to the governor, Sergius Paulus, who was an intelligent man. The governor invited Barnabas and Saul to visit him, for he wanted to hear the word of God.⁸ But Elymas, the sorcerer (as his name means in Greek), interfered and urged the governor to pay no attention to what Barnabas and Saul said. He was trying to keep the governor from believing.

and he looked the sorcerer in the eye. ¹⁰ Then he said, “You son of the devil, full of every sort of deceit and fraud, and enemy of all that is good! Will you never stop perverting the true ways of the Lord? ¹¹ Watch now, for the Lord has laid his hand of punishment upon you, and you will be struck blind. You will not see the sunlight for some time.” Instantly mist and darkness came over the man’s eyes, and he began groping around begging for someone to take his hand and lead him.

¹² When the governor saw what had happened, he became a believer, for he was astonished at the teaching about the Lord.

Paul Preaches in Antioch of Pisidia

On the Sabbath they went to the synagogue for the services. ¹⁵ After the usual readings from the books of Moses* and the prophets, those in charge of the service sent them this message: “Brothers, if you have any word of encouragement for the people, come and give it.”

¹⁶ So Paul stood, lifted his hand to quiet them, and started speaking. “Men of Israel,” he said, “and you God-fearing Gentiles, listen to me.

wilderness. ¹⁹ Then he destroyed seven nations in Canaan and gave their land to Israel as an inheritance. ²⁰ All this took about 450 years.

“After that, God gave them judges to rule until the time of Samuel the prophet. ²¹ Then the people begged for a king, and God gave them Saul son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, who reigned for forty years. ²² But God removed Saul and replaced him with David, a man about whom God said, ‘I have found David son of Jesse, a man after my own heart. He will do everything I want him to do.’*

²³ “And it is one of King David’s descendants, Jesus, who is God’s promised Savior of Israel! ²⁴ Before he came, John the Baptist preached that all the people of Israel needed to repent of their sins and turn to God and be baptized. ²⁵ As John was finishing his ministry he asked, ‘Do you think I am the Messiah? No, I am not! But he is coming soon—and I’m not even worthy to be his slave and untie the sandals on his feet.’

²⁶ “Brothers—you sons of Abraham, and also you God-fearing Gentiles—this message of salvation has been sent to us! ²⁷ The people in Jerusalem and their leaders did not recognize Jesus as the one the prophets had spoken about. Instead, they condemned him, and in doing this they fulfilled the prophets’ words that are read every Sabbath. ²⁸ They found no legal reason to execute him, but they asked Pilate to have him killed anyway.

²⁹ “When they had done all that the prophecies said about him, they took him down from the cross* and placed him in a tomb. ³⁰ But God raised him from the dead! ³¹ And over a period of many days he appeared to those who had gone with him from Galilee to Jerusalem. They are now his witnesses to the people of Israel.

³² “And now we are here to bring you this Good News. The promise was made to our ancestors,³³ and God has now fulfilled it for us, their descendants, by raising Jesus. This is what the second psalm says about Jesus:

‘You are my Son.

Today I have become your Father.*’

³⁴ For God had promised to raise him from the dead, not leaving him to rot in the grave. He said, ‘I will give you the sacred blessings I promised to David.’* ³⁵ Another psalm explains it more fully: ‘You will not allow your Holy One to rot in the grave.’* ³⁶ This is not a reference to David, for after David had done the will of God in his own generation, he died and was buried with his ancestors, and his body decayed. ³⁷ No, it was a reference to someone else—someone whom God raised and whose body did not decay.

³⁸*“Brothers, listen! We are here to proclaim that through this man Jesus there is forgiveness for your sins. ³⁹ Everyone who believes in him is declared right with God—something the law of Moses could never do. ⁴⁰ Be careful! Don’t let the prophets’ words apply to you. For they said, be amazed and die!

⁴¹ ‘Look, you mockers,

For I am doing something in your own day, something you wouldn’t believe even if someone told you about it.’”

42 As Paul and Barnabas left the synagogue that day, the people begged them to speak about these things again the next week. 43 Many Jews and devout converts to Judaism followed Paul and Barnabas, and the two men urged them to continue to rely on the grace of God.

Paul Turns to the Gentiles

44 The following week almost the entire city turned out to hear them preach the word of the Lord. 45 But when some of the Jews saw the crowds, they were jealous; so they slandered Paul and argued against whatever he said.

HOPENOTE

Stay True to Your Calling

But when some of the Jews saw the crowds, they were jealous; so they slandered Paul and argued against whatever he said (Acts 13:45).

All through his ministry, Paul ran into people who disagreed with him. Some of those people Paul boldly tried to convince of the truth of the Gospel; others, Paul had to walk away from because they were trying to stop him from carrying out God’s plan for his life. Fortunately for us,

Paul knew he didn't have to please everyone. Otherwise, the Gospel might have taken a lot longer to reach people like us! He stayed true to His calling to preach the Good News of the gospel.

As we can see in Paul's situation, criticism sometimes starts with a simple disagreement, but it can also begin with jealousy. Paul never gave up on his Jewish countrymen, but he shook off their rejection of his message and saw it as God's permission to bring the Gospel to the Gentiles. Paul did listen to and learn from his critics, but he never let criticism steer him away from the vision God had given him for ministry. We learn from Paul that even when people reject you, even when they criticize you, even when they are jealous, you can stay true to your calling. Like Paul, keep your eyes on Jesus, the Author and Finisher of your faith.

46 Then Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly and declared, "It was necessary that we first preach the word of God to you Jews. But since you have rejected it and judged yourselves unworthy of eternal life, we will offer it to the Gentiles. 47 For the Lord gave us this command when he said,

'I have made you a light to the Gentiles, to bring salvation to the farthest corners of the earth.'*

48 When the Gentiles heard this, they were very glad and thanked the Lord for his message; and all who were chosen for eternal life became believers. 49 So the Lord's message spread throughout that region.

⁵⁰ Then the Jews stirred up the influential religious women and the leaders of the city, and they incited a mob against Paul and Barnabas and ran them out of town. ⁵¹ So they shook the dust from their feet as a sign of rejection and went to the town of Iconium. ⁵² And the believers * were filled with joy and with the Holy Spirit.

Chapter 14

Paul and Barnabas in Iconium

The same thing happened in Iconium.* Paul and Barnabas went to the Jewish synagogue and preached with such power that a great number of both Jews and Greeks became believers. ² Some of the Jews, however, spurned God's message and poisoned the minds of the Gentiles against Paul and Barnabas. ³ But the apostles stayed there a long time, preaching boldly about the grace of the Lord. And the Lord proved their message was true by giving them power to do miraculous signs and wonders. ⁴ But the people of the town were divided in their opinion about them. Some sided with the Jews, and some with the apostles.

⁵ Then a mob of Gentiles and Jews, along with their leaders, decided to attack and stone them. ⁶ When the apostles learned of it, they fled to the region of Lycaonia—to the towns of Lystra and Derbe and the surrounding area. ⁷ And there they preached the Good News.

Paul and Barnabas in Lystra and Derbe

8 While they were at Lystra, Paul and Barnabas came upon a man with crippled feet. He had been that way from birth, so he had never walked. He was sitting⁹ and listening as Paul preached. Looking straight at him, Paul realized he had faith to be healed.¹⁰ So Paul called to him in a loud voice, “Stand up!” And the man jumped to his feet and started walking.

¹¹ When the crowd saw what Paul had done, they shouted in their local dialect, “These men are gods in human form!”¹² They decided that Barnabas was the Greek god Zeus and that Paul was Hermes, since he was the chief speaker.¹³ Now the temple of Zeus was located just outside the town. So the priest of the temple and the crowd brought bulls and wreaths of flowers to the town gates, and they prepared to offer sacrifices to the apostles.

¹⁴ But when the apostles Barnabas and Paul heard what was happening, they tore their clothing in dismay and ran out among the people, shouting,¹⁵ “Friends,* why are you doing this? We are merely human beings—just like you! We have come to bring you the Good News that you should turn from these worthless things and turn to the living God, who made heaven and earth, the sea, and everything in them.¹⁶ In the past he permitted all the nations to go their own ways,¹⁷ but he never left them without evidence of himself and his goodness. For instance, he sends you rain and good crops and gives you food and joyful hearts.”¹⁸ But even with these words, Paul and Barnabas could scarcely restrain the people from sacrificing to them.

¹⁹ Then some Jews arrived from Antioch and Iconium and won the crowds to their side. They stoned Paul and dragged him out of town, thinking he was dead. ²⁰ But as the believers* gathered around him, he got up and went back into the town. The next day he left with Barnabas for Derbe.

Paul and Barnabas Return to Antioch of Syria

²¹ After preaching the Good News in Derbe and making many disciples, Paul and Barnabas returned to Lystra, Iconium, and Antioch of Pisidia, ²² where they strengthened the believers. They encouraged them to continue in the faith, reminding them that we must suffer many hardships to enter the Kingdom of God. ²³ Paul and Barnabas also appointed elders in every church. With prayer and fasting, they turned the elders over to the care of the Lord, in whom they had put their trust. ²⁴ Then they traveled back through Pisidia to Pamphylia. ²⁵ They preached the word in Perga, then went down to Attalia.

²⁶ Finally, they returned by ship to Antioch of Syria, where their journey had begun. The believers there had entrusted them to the grace of God to do the work they had now completed. ²⁷ Upon arriving in Antioch, they called the church together and reported everything God had done through them and how he had opened the door of faith to the Gentiles, too. ²⁸ And they stayed there with the believers for a long time.

Chapter 15

The Council at Jerusalem

While Paul and Barnabas were at Antioch of Syria, some men from Judea arrived and began to teach the believers*: “Unless you are circumcised as required by the law of Moses, you cannot be saved.”² Paul and Barnabas disagreed with them, arguing vehemently. Finally, the church decided to send Paul and Barnabas to Jerusalem, accompanied by some local believers, to talk to the apostles and elders about this question.³ The church sent the delegates to Jerusalem, and they stopped along the way in Phoenicia and Samaria to visit the believers. They told them—much to everyone’s joy—that the Gentiles, too, were being converted.

⁴ When they arrived in Jerusalem, Barnabas and Paul were welcomed by the whole church, including the apostles and elders. They reported everything God had done through them.⁵ But then some of the believers who belonged to the sect of the Pharisees stood up and insisted, “The Gentile converts must be circumcised and required to follow the law of Moses.”

⁶ So the apostles and elders met together to resolve this issue.⁷ At the meeting, after a long discussion, Peter stood and addressed them as follows: “Brothers, you all know that God chose me from among you some time ago to preach to the Gentiles so that they could hear the Good News and believe.⁸ God knows people’s hearts, and he confirmed that he accepts Gentiles by giving them the Holy Spirit, just as he did to us.⁹ He made no distinction between us and them, for he cleansed their hearts through faith.¹⁰ So why are you now challenging God by burdening the Gentile believers* with a yoke that neither we nor our ancestors were able to bear?¹¹ We believe that we are all saved the same way, by the undeserved grace of the Lord Jesus.”

12 Everyone listened quietly as Barnabas and Paul told about the miraculous signs and wonders God had done through them among the Gentiles.

13 When they had finished, James stood and said, “Brothers, listen to me. 14 Peter* has told you about the time God first visited the Gentiles to take from them a people for himself. 15 And this conversion of Gentiles is exactly what the prophets predicted. As it is written:

16 ‘Afterward I will return and restore the fallen house* of David.
I will rebuild its ruins and restore it,
17 so that the rest of humanity might seek the LORD, including the Gentiles—
all those I have called to be mine.
The LORD has spoken—
18 he who made these things known so long ago.’*

19 “And so my judgment is that we should not make it difficult for the Gentiles who are turning to God. 20 Instead, we should write and tell them to abstain from eating food offered to idols, from sexual immorality, from eating the meat of strangled animals, and from consuming blood. 21 For these laws of Moses have been preached in Jewish synagogues in every city on every Sabbath for many generations.”

The Letter for Gentile Believers

22 Then the apostles and elders together with the whole church in Jerusalem chose delegates, and they sent them to Antioch of Syria with Paul and Barnabas to report on this decision. The men chosen were two of the church leaders*—Judas (also called Barsabbas) and Silas.²³ This is the letter they took with them:

“This letter is from the apostles and elders, your brothers in Jerusalem. It is written to the Gentile believers in Antioch, Syria, and Cilicia. Greetings!

²⁴ “We understand that some men from here have troubled you and upset you with their teaching, but we did not send them! ²⁵ So we decided, having come to complete agreement, to send you official representatives, along with our beloved Barnabas and Paul,²⁶ who have risked their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. ²⁷ We are sending Judas and Silas to confirm what we have decided concerning your question.

²⁸ “For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit and to us to lay no greater burden on you than these few requirements: ²⁹ You must abstain from eating food offered to idols, from consuming blood or the meat of strangled animals, and from sexual immorality. If you do this, you will do well. Farewell.”

HOPENOTE

Seasonal Relationships

Their disagreement was so sharp that they separated. Barnabas took John Mark with him and sailed for Cyprus (Acts 15:39).

Earlier in Acts, we read about Barnabas' key role in the life of Paul among the Christians (Acts 9:26-31). They made a great team on their first missionary journey. They experienced tremendous success and gathered others like Timothy, Silas, and John Mark to travel with them. But Paul and Barnabas had a disagreement over the failure of John Mark. Paul believed John Mark messed up his opportunity for ministry. But Barnabas, true to his nature as an encourager, stuck by John Mark and wanted to give him another chance. The original team broke up over this disagreement, but God was able to bring good out of that situation. First, John Mark wasn't ready for Paul's intense ministry. Barnabas was able to bring him along more slowly. Then later, Paul changed his mind about Mark and realized he had a lot to offer (see 2 Timothy 4:11). Also by splitting up the team, they were able to spread the Gospel more widely than as a single group.

This separation reminds us that life is made up of seasons. What was effective in one season can become limiting in another. It's great when friendships last a lifetime or when ministry partnerships carry on for years. But sometimes relationships are temporary, and sometimes God brings them back around to us. Sometimes, there needs to be separation so that individuals can grow and continue to follow the path God is leading them on in life.

³⁰ The messengers went at once to Antioch, where they called a general meeting of the believers and delivered the letter. ³¹ And there was great joy throughout the church that day as they read this encouraging message.

³⁵ Paul and Barnabas stayed in Antioch. They and many others taught and preached the word of the Lord there.

Paul and Barnabas Separate

³⁶ After some time Paul said to Barnabas, “Let’s go back and visit each city where we previously preached the word of the Lord, to see how the new believers are doing.” ³⁷ Barnabas agreed and wanted to take along John Mark. ³⁸ But Paul disagreed strongly, since John Mark had deserted them in Pamphylia and had not continued with them in their work. ³⁹ Their disagreement was so sharp that they separated. Barnabas took John Mark with him and sailed for Cyprus. ⁴⁰ Paul chose Silas, and as he left, the believers entrusted him to the Lord’s gracious care. ⁴¹ Then he traveled throughout Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the churches there.

Chapter 16

Paul's Second Missionary Journey

Paul went first to Derbe and then to Lystra, where there was a young disciple named Timothy. His mother was a Jewish believer, but his father was a Greek.² Timothy was well thought of by the believers* in Lystra and Iconium,³ so Paul wanted him to join them on their journey. In deference to the Jews of the area, he arranged for Timothy to be circumcised before they left, for everyone knew that his father was a Greek.⁴ Then they went from town to town, instructing the believers to follow the decisions made by the apostles and elders in Jerusalem.⁵ So the churches were strengthened in their faith and grew larger every day.

A Call from Macedonia

⁶ Next Paul and Silas traveled through the area of Phrygia and Galatia, because the Holy Spirit had prevented them from preaching the word in the province of Asia at that time.⁷ Then coming to the borders of Mysia, they headed north for the province of Bithynia,* but again the Spirit of Jesus did not allow them to go there.⁸ So instead, they went on through Mysia to the seaport of Troas.

⁹ That night Paul had a vision: A man from Macedonia in northern Greece was standing there, pleading with him, "Come over to Macedonia and help us!"¹⁰ So we* decided to leave for Macedonia at once, having concluded that God was calling us to preach the Good News there.

Lydia of Philippi Believes in Jesus

¹¹ We boarded a boat at Troas and sailed straight across to the island of Samothrace, and the next day we landed at Neapolis.

¹³ On the Sabbath we went a little way outside the city to a riverbank, where we thought people would be meeting for prayer, and we sat down to speak with some women who had gathered there. ¹⁴ One of them was Lydia from Thyatira, a merchant of expensive purple cloth, who worshiped God. As she listened to us, the Lord opened her heart, and she accepted what Paul was saying. ¹⁵ She was baptized along with other members of her household, and she asked us to be her guests. “If you agree that I am a true believer in the Lord,” she said, “come and stay at my home.” And she urged us until we agreed.

Paul and Silas in Prison

¹⁶ One day as we were going down to the place of prayer, we met a demon-possessed slave girl. She was a fortune-teller who earned a lot of money for her masters. ¹⁷ She followed Paul and the rest of us, shouting, “These men are servants of the Most High God, and they have come to tell you how to be saved.”

¹⁸ This went on day after day until Paul got so exasperated that he turned and said to the demon within her, “I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her.” And instantly it left her.

HOPENOTE

Breaking Down Barriers

She was baptized along with other members of her household, and she asked us to be her guests. “If you agree that I am a true believer in the Lord,” she said, “come and stay at my home.” And she urged us until we agreed (Acts 16:15).

The gospel has a way of shattering social and cultural barriers. Lydia was a Gentile. She was like the Proverbs 31 woman. She was comfortable in the boardroom as well as at home. She ran a business in fine cloth and purple dye, the most exquisite of the time. But Lydia wanted to know God, so she spent her Sabbaths outside of town with a group praying together. When Paul and Silas showed up with the Gospel message, Lydia’s life was changed with a giant spiritual step forward.

After she and her family were baptized, she offered her home to Paul and Silas. In order to accept her invitation, Paul and Silas had to disregard several “rules” that were part of their upbringing. They were taught not to accept hospitality from a Gentile. But Lydia wouldn’t take “no” for an answer!

Basically, Lydia helped further clarify the freedom Paul had in preaching the Gospel. She understood that sharing Christ with others means sharing life with them. By accepting Lydia's offer of hospitality, Paul and Silas demonstrated that they really considered her an equal recipient of Christ's grace. Another barrier was shattered by the Gospel.

¹⁹ Her masters' hopes of wealth were now shattered, so they grabbed Paul and Silas and dragged them before the authorities at the marketplace. ²⁰ "The whole city is in an uproar because of these Jews!" they shouted to the city officials. ²¹ "They are teaching customs that are illegal for us Romans to practice."

²² A mob quickly formed against Paul and Silas, and the city officials ordered them stripped and beaten with wooden rods. ²³ They were severely beaten, and then they were thrown into prison. The jailer was ordered to make sure they didn't escape. ²⁴ So the jailer put them into the inner dungeon and clamped their feet in the stocks.

²⁵ Around midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the other prisoners were listening. ²⁶ Suddenly, there was a massive earthquake, and the prison was shaken to its foundations. All the doors immediately flew open, and the chains of every prisoner fell off! ²⁷ The jailer woke up to see the prison doors wide open. He assumed the prisoners had escaped, so he drew his sword to kill himself. ²⁸ But Paul shouted to him, "Stop! Don't kill yourself! We are all here!"

²⁹ The jailer called for lights and ran to the dungeon and fell down trembling before Paul and Silas. ³⁰ Then he brought them out and asked, “Sirs, what must I do to be saved?”

³¹ They replied, “Believe in the Lord Jesus and you will be saved, along with everyone in your household.” ³² And they shared the word of the Lord with him and with all who lived in his household. ³³ Even at that hour of the night, the jailer cared for them and washed their wounds. Then he and everyone in his household were immediately baptized. ³⁴ He brought them into his house and set a meal before them, and he and his entire household rejoiced because they all believed in God.

³⁵ The next morning the city officials sent the police to tell the jailer, “Let those men go!” ³⁶ So the jailer told Paul, “The city officials have said you and Silas are free to leave. Go in peace.”

³⁷ But Paul replied, “They have publicly beaten us without a trial and put us in prison—and we are Roman citizens. So now they want us to leave secretly? Certainly not! Let them come themselves to release us!”

³⁸ When the police reported this, the city officials were alarmed to learn that Paul and Silas were Roman citizens. ³⁹ So they came to the jail and apologized to them. Then they brought them out and begged them to leave the city. ⁴⁰ When Paul and Silas left the prison, they returned to the home of Lydia. There they met with the believers and encouraged them once more. Then they left town.

Chapter 17

Paul Preaches in Thessalonica

Paul and Silas then traveled through the towns of Amphipolis and Apollonia and came to Thessalonica, where there was a Jewish synagogue.² As was Paul's custom, he went to the synagogue service, and for three Sabbaths in a row he used the Scriptures to reason with the people.³ He explained the prophecies and proved that the Messiah must suffer and rise from the dead. He said, "This Jesus I'm telling you about is the Messiah."⁴ Some of the Jews who listened were persuaded and joined Paul and Silas, along with many God-fearing Greek men and quite a few prominent women.*

⁵ But some of the Jews were jealous, so they gathered some troublemakers from the marketplace to form a mob and start a riot. They attacked the home of Jason, searching for Paul and Silas so they could drag them out to the crowd.* ⁶ Not finding them there, they dragged out Jason and some of the other believers* instead and took them before the city council. "Paul and Silas have caused trouble all over the world," they shouted, "and now they are here disturbing our city, too."⁷ And Jason has welcomed them into his home. They are all guilty of treason against Caesar, for they profess allegiance to another king, named Jesus."

⁸ The people of the city, as well as the city council, were thrown into turmoil by these reports.⁹ So the officials forced Jason and the other believers to post bond, and then they released them.

Paul and Silas in Berea

¹⁰ That very night the believers sent Paul and Silas to Berea. When they arrived there, they went to the Jewish synagogue.

¹³ But when some Jews in Thessalonica learned that Paul was preaching the word of God in Berea, they went there and stirred up trouble. ¹⁴ The believers acted at once, sending Paul on to the coast, while Silas and Timothy remained behind. ¹⁵ Those escorting Paul went with him all the way to Athens; then they returned to Berea with instructions for Silas and Timothy to hurry and join him.

HOPEFORTODAY

Stay on the High Road

And the people of Berea were more open-minded than those in Thessalonica, and they listened eagerly to Paul's message. They searched the Scriptures day after day to see if Paul and Silas were teaching the truth (Acts 17:11).

Anytime you start making a difference in your family, in your neighborhood, or in your workplace, you will encounter your share of critics. But you can't allow them to get you off course. You have to recognize that the higher you go in life, the more critics will want to tear you down.

The apostle Paul had great crowds following him. But time and time again, people became jealous; they got all stirred up. On several occasions, they ran him out of town. What did Paul do? Did he get depressed and say, "God, I'm trying to do my best, but nobody understands me"? No, he shook the dust off his feet. He was saying in effect, "It's your loss, not mine, because I'm going to do great things for God. I'm not going to allow your rejection or your negative words to keep me from my destiny." His attitude was, "Sling all the mud you want to. I have a cover on my well. I'm not going to let you poison my life." I heard somebody say, "If people run you out of town, just get to the front of the line and act like you're leading the parade."

I love the Scripture in Isaiah that says, "But in that coming day no weapon turned against you will succeed. You will silence every voice raised up to accuse you" (Isaiah 54:17a). Notice that it doesn't say that no weapon will be turned against you. But when it comes, stay on the high road, and keep doing your best. God will be your vindicator. God promises that there is nothing that will come against you that will ever prosper. Moreover, God will pour out His favor on you, in spite of your critics.

He'll keep taking you higher and higher into the place of victory.

Paul Preaches in Athens

¹⁶ While Paul was waiting for them in Athens, he was deeply troubled by all the idols he saw everywhere in the city. ¹⁷ He went to the synagogue to reason with the Jews and the God-fearing Gentiles, and he spoke daily in the public square to all who happened to be there.

¹⁸ He also had a debate with some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers. When he told them about Jesus and his resurrection, they said, "What's this babbler trying to say with these strange ideas he's picked up?" Others said, "He seems to be preaching about some foreign gods."

¹⁹ Then they took him to the high council of the city.* "Come and tell us about this new teaching," they said. ²⁰ "You are saying some rather strange things, and we want to know what it's all about." ²¹ (It should be explained that all the Athenians as well as the foreigners in Athens seemed to spend all their time discussing the latest ideas.)

²² So Paul, standing before the council,* addressed them as follows: "Men of Athens, I notice that you are very religious in every way, ²³ for as I was walking along I saw your many shrines. And one of your altars had this inscription on it: 'To an Unknown God.' This God, whom you worship without knowing, is the one I'm telling you about.

Since he is Lord of heaven and earth, he doesn't live in man-made temples, ²⁵ and human hands can't serve his needs—for he has no needs. He himself gives life and breath to everything, and he satisfies every need. ²⁶ From one man* he created all the nations throughout the whole earth. He decided beforehand when they should rise and fall, and he determined their boundaries.

HOPENOTE

The Hope Connection

So Paul, standing before the council, addressed them as follows: “Men of Athens, I notice that you are very religious in every way” (Acts 17:22).

Paul did three important things before he got up to speak to a large audience in the Areopagus in Athens, Greece. First, he observed the lives of his audience. He spent time watching them in their marketplace. Second, he had conversations with them. And third, he approached them with a right attitude, giving them the benefit of the doubt. When Paul spoke, he met the people right where they were. He started with something that could have caused him a great offense and turned it into a compliment. The city was filled with pagan shrines, altars, and temples, so He started by saying, “I couldn’t help but notice that you are very religious!”

Do you want to be effective when you tell others about Jesus? Meet them where they are. Show them that you care. Find a connection of hope within them. People don't care how much you know until they know how much you care. People close their hearts to judgment and criticism. That's not our job anyway. But people open their hearts to love, encouragement, and hope. And when their hearts are open, the seed of the Truth will take root. Instead of telling someone who is looking for God that they are searching in the wrong place, tell them how good it is that they are serious about finding the right answer! Remember, Jesus didn't come into the world to condemn it; He came to save it (John 3:17). It's His kindness that leads people to repentance (Romans 2:4). As you make connections with people and show them kindness, you'll open their hearts to the Gospel and fulfill your mission as an ambassador of Christ.

27 “His purpose was for the nations to seek after God and perhaps feel their way toward him and find him—though he is not far from any one of us. 28 For in him we live and move and exist. As some of your* own poets have said, ‘We are his offspring.’ 29 And since this is true, we shouldn't think of God as an idol designed by craftsmen from gold or silver or stone.

30 “God overlooked people's ignorance about these things in earlier times, but now he commands everyone everywhere to repent of their sins and turn to him.³¹ For he has set a day for judging the world with justice by the man he has appointed, and he proved to everyone who this is by raising him from the dead.”

³² When they heard Paul speak about the resurrection of the dead, some laughed in contempt, but others said, “We want to hear more about this later.” ³³ That ended Paul’s discussion with them,³⁴ but some joined him and became believers. Among them were Dionysius, a member of the council,* a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

Chapter 18

Paul Meets Priscilla and Aquila in Corinth

Then Paul left Athens and went to Corinth.* ² There he became acquainted with a Jew named Aquila, born in Pontus, who had recently arrived from Italy with his wife, Priscilla. They had left Italy when Claudius Caesar deported all Jews from Rome. ³ Paul lived and worked with them, for they were tentmakers* just as he was.

⁴ Each Sabbath found Paul at the synagogue, trying to convince the Jews and Greeks alike.⁵ And after Silas and Timothy came down from Macedonia, Paul spent all his time preaching the word. He testified to the Jews that Jesus was the Messiah.⁶ But when they opposed and insulted him, Paul shook the dust from his clothes and said, “Your blood is upon your own heads—I am innocent. From now on I will go preach to the Gentiles.”

HOPENOTE

Press Past Resistance

One night the Lord spoke to Paul in a vision and told him, “Don’t be afraid! Speak out! Don’t be silent!” (Acts 18:9).

When you live for God, there is a possibility that you will experience some resistance. Since the world is moving away from God, when you turn toward Him, it may feel like you are swimming upstream. The feeling can be scary. It can be a little lonely at times. You might feel overwhelmed when you try to change some things in your life or tell others about your new relationship with Jesus. But be encouraged because you are in good company! You can face each day with these words from the apostle Paul ringing in your ears. God is saying to each of us, “Don’t be afraid! Speak out! Don’t be silent!”

We have God’s encouragement as we move through life. Notice that the Lord didn’t say to Paul, “Paul, now that you’re following Me, everything is going to be perfect. Everyone is going to like you. No one will ever argue with you.” No, He was saying that in the midst of all the opposition, God would be with Him, and God is still with us today. When Paul wrote to the Corinthians, he repeated this lesson for them: “We are pressed on every side by troubles, but we are not crushed. We are perplexed, but not driven to despair. We are hunted down, but never abandoned by God. We get knocked down, but we are not destroyed” (2 Corinthians 4:8-9). Let God’s encouragement fill your heart and bring a harvest of boldness and joy as you live for Him.

⁷ Then he left and went to the home of Titius Justus, a Gentile who worshiped God and lived next door to the synagogue. ⁸ Crispus, the leader of the synagogue, and everyone in his household believed in the Lord. Many others in Corinth also heard Paul, became believers, and were baptized.

⁹ One night the Lord spoke to Paul in a vision and told him, “Don’t be afraid! Speak out! Don’t be silent! ¹⁰ For I am with you, and no one will attack and harm you, for many people in this city belong to me.” ¹¹ So Paul stayed there for the next year and a half, teaching the word of God.

¹⁴ But just as Paul started to make his defense, Gallio turned to Paul’s accusers and said, “Listen, you Jews, if this were a case involving some wrongdoing or a serious crime, I would have a reason to accept your case. ¹⁵ But since it is merely a question of words and names and your Jewish law, take care of it yourselves. I refuse to judge such matters.” ¹⁶ And he threw them out of the courtroom.

¹⁷ The crowd* then grabbed Sosthenes, the leader of the synagogue, and beat him right there in the courtroom. But Gallio paid no attention.

Paul Returns to Antioch of Syria

¹⁸ Paul stayed in Corinth for some time after that, then said good-bye to the brothers and sisters* and went to nearby Cenchrea. There he shaved his head according to Jewish custom, marking the end of a vow. Then he set sail for Syria, taking Priscilla and Aquila with him.

¹⁹ They stopped first at the port of Ephesus, where Paul left the others behind. While he was there, he went to the synagogue to reason with the Jews. ²⁰ They asked him to stay longer, but he declined. ²¹ As he left, however, he said, “I will come back later,* God willing.” Then he set sail from Ephesus. ²² The next stop was at the port of Caesarea. From there he went up and visited the church at Jerusalem* and then went back to Antioch.

²³ After spending some time in Antioch, Paul went back through Galatia and Phrygia, visiting and strengthening all the believers.*

Apollos Instructed at Ephesus

²⁴ Meanwhile, a Jew named Apollos, an eloquent speaker who knew the Scriptures well, had arrived in Ephesus from Alexandria in Egypt.²⁵ He had been taught the way of the Lord, and he taught others about Jesus with an enthusiastic spirit* and with accuracy. However, he knew only about John's baptism.²⁶ When Priscilla and Aquila heard him preaching boldly in the synagogue, they took him aside and explained the way of God even more accurately.

²⁷ Apollos had been thinking about going to Achaia, and the brothers and sisters in Ephesus encouraged him to go. They wrote to the believers in Achaia, asking them to welcome him. When he arrived there, he proved to be of great benefit to those who, by God's grace, had believed.²⁸ He refuted the Jews with powerful arguments in public debate. Using the Scriptures, he explained to them that Jesus was the Messiah.

Chapter 19

Paul's Third Missionary Journey

While Apollos was in Corinth, Paul traveled through the interior regions until he reached Ephesus, on the coast, where he found several believers.*² "Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?" he asked them.

"No," they replied, "we haven't even heard that there is a Holy Spirit."

³ "Then what baptism did you experience?" he asked.

And they replied, "The baptism of John."

⁴ Paul said, "John's baptism called for repentance from sin. But John himself told the people to believe in the one who would come later, meaning Jesus."

⁵ As soon as they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. ⁶ Then when Paul laid his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came on them, and they spoke in other tongues* and prophesied. ⁷ There were about twelve men in all.

Paul Ministers in Ephesus

¹³ A group of Jews was traveling from town to town casting out evil spirits. They tried to use the name of the Lord Jesus in their incantation, saying, “I command you in the name of Jesus, whom Paul preaches, to come out!” ¹⁴ Seven sons of Sceva, a leading priest, were doing this. ¹⁵ But one time when they tried it, the evil spirit replied, “I know Jesus, and I know Paul, but who are you?” ¹⁶ Then the man with the evil spirit leaped on them, overpowered them, and attacked them with such violence that they fled from the house, naked and battered.

¹⁷ The story of what happened spread quickly all through Ephesus, to Jews and Greeks alike. A solemn fear descended on the city, and the name of the Lord Jesus was greatly honored. ¹⁸ Many who became believers confessed their sinful practices. ¹⁹ A number of them who had been practicing sorcery brought their incantation books and burned them at a public bonfire. The value of the books was several million dollars.* ²⁰ So the message about the Lord spread widely and had a powerful effect.

²¹ Afterward Paul felt compelled by the Spirit* to go over to Macedonia and Achaia before going to Jerusalem. “And after that,” he said, “I must go on to Rome!” ²² He sent his two assistants, Timothy and Erastus, ahead to Macedonia while he stayed awhile longer in the province of Asia.

The Riot in Ephesus

²³ About that time, serious trouble developed in Ephesus concerning the Way. ²⁴ It began with Demetrius, a silversmith who had a large business manufacturing silver shrines of the Greek goddess Artemis.* He kept many craftsmen busy. ²⁵ He called them together, along with others employed in similar trades, and addressed them as follows:

“Gentlemen, you know that our wealth comes from this business. ²⁶ But as you have seen and heard, this man Paul has persuaded many people that handmade gods aren’t really gods at all. And he’s done this not only here in Ephesus but throughout the entire province! ²⁷ Of course, I’m not just talking about the loss of public respect for our business. I'm also concerned that the temple of the great goddess Artemis will lose its influence and that Artemis—this magnificent goddess worshiped throughout the province of Asia and all around the world—will be robbed of her great prestige!”

²⁸ At this their anger boiled, and they began shouting, “Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!” ²⁹ Soon the whole city was filled with confusion. Everyone rushed to the amphitheater, dragging along Gaius and Aristarchus, who were Paul’s traveling companions from Macedonia. ³⁰ Paul wanted to go in, too, but the believers wouldn’t let him. ³¹ Some of the officials of the province, friends of Paul, also sent a message to him, begging him not to risk his life by entering the amphitheater.

³² Inside, the people were all shouting, some one thing and some another. Everything was in confusion. In fact, most of them didn’t even know why they were there. ³³ The Jews in the crowd pushed Alexander forward and told him to explain the situation. He motioned for silence and tried to speak. ³⁴ But when the crowd realized he was a Jew, they started shouting again and kept it up for about two hours: “Great is Artemis of the Ephesians! Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!”

³⁵ At last the mayor was able to quiet them down enough to speak. “Citizens of Ephesus,” he said. “Everyone knows that Ephesus is the official guardian of the temple of the great Artemis, whose image fell down to us from heaven. ³⁶ Since this is an undeniable fact, you should stay calm and not do anything rash. ³⁷ You have brought these men here, but they have stolen nothing from the temple and have not spoken against our goddess.

38 “If Demetrius and the craftsmen have a case against them, the courts are in session and the officials can hear the case at once. Let them make formal charges.³⁹ And if there are complaints about other matters, they can be settled in a legal assembly.⁴⁰ I am afraid we are in danger of being charged with rioting by the Roman government, since there is no cause for all this commotion. And if Rome demands an explanation, we won’t know what to say.”⁴¹* Then he dismissed them, and they dispersed.

Chapter 20

Paul Goes to Macedonia and Greece

When the uproar was over, Paul sent for the believers* and encouraged them. Then he said good-bye and left for Macedonia.² While there, he encouraged the believers in all the towns he passed through. Then he traveled down to Greece,³ where he stayed for three months. He was preparing to sail back to Syria when he discovered a plot by some Jews against his life, so he decided to return through Macedonia.

⁴ Several men were traveling with him. They were Sopater son of Pyrrhus from Berea; Aristarchus and Secundus from Thessalonica; Gaius from Derbe; Timothy; and Tychicus and Trophimus from the province of Asia.⁵ They went on ahead and waited for us at Troas.⁶ After the Passover* ended, we boarded a ship at Philippi in Macedonia and five days later joined them in Troas, where we stayed a week.

Paul's Final Visit to Troas

⁷ On the first day of the week, we gathered with the local believers to share in the Lord's Supper.* Paul was preaching to them, and since he was leaving the next day, he kept talking until midnight. ⁸ The upstairs room where we met was lighted with many flickering lamps. ⁹ As Paul spoke on and on, a young man named Eutychus, sitting on the windowsill, became very drowsy. Finally, he fell sound asleep and dropped three stories to his death below. ¹⁰ Paul went down, bent over him, and took him into his arms. "Don't worry," he said, "he's alive!" ¹¹ Then they all went back upstairs, shared in the Lord's Supper,* and ate together. Paul continued talking to them until dawn, and then he left. ¹² Meanwhile, the young man was taken home unhurt, and everyone was greatly relieved.

Paul Meets the Ephesian Elders

¹³ Paul went by land to Assos, where he had arranged for us to join him, while we traveled by ship. ¹⁴ He joined us there, and we sailed together to Mitylene. ¹⁵ The next day we sailed past the island of Kios. The following day we crossed to the island of Samos, and* a day later we arrived at Miletus.

¹⁶ Paul had decided to sail on past Ephesus, for he didn't want to spend any more time in the province of Asia. He was hurrying to get to Jerusalem, if possible, in time for the Festival of Pentecost. ¹⁷ But when we landed at Miletus, he sent a message to the elders of the church at Ephesus, asking them to come and meet him.

18 When they arrived he declared, “You know that from the day I set foot in the province of Asia until now 19 I have done the Lord’s work humbly and with many tears. I have endured the trials that came to me from the plots of the Jews. 20 I never shrank back from telling you what you needed to hear, either publicly or in your homes. 21 I have had one message for Jews and Greeks alike—the necessity of repenting from sin and turning to God, and of having faith in our Lord Jesus.

22 “And now I am bound by the Spirit* to go to Jerusalem. I don’t know what awaits me, 23 except that the Holy Spirit tells me in city after city that jail and suffering lie ahead. 24 But my life is worth nothing to me unless I use it for finishing the work assigned me by the Lord Jesus—the work of telling others the Good News about the wonderful grace of God.

25 “And now I know that none of you to whom I have preached the Kingdom will ever see me again. 26 I declare today that I have been faithful. If anyone suffers eternal death, it’s not my fault,* 27 for I didn’t shrink from declaring all that God wants you to know.

28 “So guard yourselves and God’s people. Feed and shepherd God’s flock—his church, purchased with his own blood*—over which the Holy Spirit has appointed you as elders.* 29 I know that false teachers, like vicious wolves, will come in among you after I leave, not sparing the flock. 30 Even some men from your own group will rise up and distort the truth in order to draw a following. 31 Watch out! Remember the three years I was with you—my constant watch and care over you night and day, and my many tears for you.

32 “And now I entrust you to God and the message of his grace that is able to build you up and give you an inheritance with all those he has set apart for himself.

33 “I have never coveted anyone’s silver or gold or fine clothes. 34 You know that these hands of mine have worked to supply my own needs and even the needs of those who were with me. 35 And I have been a constant example of how you can help those in need by working hard. You should remember the words of the Lord Jesus: ‘It is more blessed to give than to receive.’”

HOPENOTE

Live to Give

And I have been a constant example of how you can help those in need by working hard. You should remember the words of the Lord Jesus: “It is more blessed to give than to receive” (Acts 20:35).

Most people think they will be happy when they get everything they want. But the opposite is true! The more we live for ourselves, the more miserable we become. We are the happiest when we are giving to others—and you can truly “live to give” every day. When you sow life into others, you will reap life in return. And sowing life into others can be something quite simple. You can give a word of encouragement to a family member or friend, or buy groceries for a needy family. You can visit someone in the hospital or pay for someone's gas at the pump. As you give of yourself—your time, energy, and resources, watch what God will do. The enemy wants you to think that you can't help others until you're just about perfect, but that's just not true! Decide to be a giver. Look for ways to bless others, and watch for the return of an abundant harvest in your own life.

³⁶ When he had finished speaking, he knelt and prayed with them. ³⁷ They all cried as they embraced and kissed him good-bye. ³⁸ They were sad most of all because he had said that they would never see him again. Then they escorted him down to the ship.

Chapter 21

Paul's Journey to Jerusalem

After saying farewell to the Ephesian elders, we sailed straight to the island of Cos. The next day we reached Rhodes and then went to Patara. ² There we boarded a ship sailing for Phoenicia. ³ We sighted the island of Cyprus, passed it on our left, and landed at the harbor of Tyre, in Syria, where the ship was to unload its cargo.

⁴ We went ashore, found the local believers,* and stayed with them a week. These believers prophesied through the Holy Spirit that Paul should not go on to Jerusalem. ⁵ When we returned to the ship at the end of the week, the entire congregation, including women* and children, left the city and came down to the shore with us. There we knelt, prayed, ⁶ and said our farewells. Then we went aboard, and they returned home.

⁷ The next stop after leaving Tyre was Ptolemais, where we greeted the brothers and sisters* and stayed for one day. ⁸ The next day we went on to Caesarea and stayed at the home of Philip the Evangelist, one of the seven men who had been chosen to distribute food. ⁹ He had four unmarried daughters who had the gift of prophecy.

¹⁰ Several days later a man named Agabus, who also had the gift of prophecy, arrived from Judea. ¹¹ He came over, took Paul's belt, and bound his own feet and hands with it. Then he said, "The Holy Spirit declares, 'So shall the owner of this belt be bound by the Jewish leaders in Jerusalem and turned over to the Gentiles.' " ¹² When we heard this, we and the local believers all begged Paul not to go on to Jerusalem.

¹³ But he said, "Why all this weeping? You are breaking my heart! I am ready not only to be jailed at Jerusalem but even to die for the sake of the Lord Jesus." ¹⁴ When it was clear that we couldn't persuade him, we gave up and said, "The Lord's will be done."

Paul Arrives at Jerusalem

¹⁵ After this we packed our things and left for Jerusalem. ¹⁶ Some believers from Caesarea accompanied us, and they took us to the home of Mnason, a man originally from Cyprus and one of the early believers.¹⁷ When we arrived, the brothers and sisters in Jerusalem welcomed us warmly.

¹⁸ The next day Paul went with us to meet with James, and all the elders of the Jerusalem church were present.¹⁹ After greeting them, Paul gave a detailed account of the things God had accomplished among the Gentiles through his ministry.

²⁰ After hearing this, they praised God. And then they said, “You know, dear brother, how many thousands of Jews have also believed, and they all follow the law of Moses very seriously.²¹ But the Jewish believers here in Jerusalem have been told that you are teaching all the Jews who live among the Gentiles to turn their backs on the laws of Moses. They’ve heard that you teach them not to circumcise their children or follow other Jewish customs.²² What should we do? They will certainly hear that you have come.

²³ “Here’s what we want you to do. We have four men here who have completed their vow.²⁴ Go with them to the Temple and join them in the purification ceremony, paying for them to have their heads ritually shaved. Then everyone will know that the rumors are all false and that you yourself observe the Jewish laws.

²⁵ “As for the Gentile believers, they should do what we already told them in a letter: They should abstain from eating food offered to idols, from consuming blood or the meat of strangled animals, and from sexual immorality.”

Paul Is Arrested

26 So Paul went to the Temple the next day with the other men. They had already started the purification ritual, so he publicly announced the date when their vows would end and sacrifices would be offered for each of them.

27 The seven days were almost ended when some Jews from the province of Asia saw Paul in the Temple and roused a mob against him. They grabbed him, 28 yelling, “Men of Israel, help us! This is the man who preaches against our people everywhere and tells everybody to disobey the Jewish laws. He speaks against the Temple—and even defiles this holy place by bringing in Gentiles.” 29 (For earlier that day they had seen him in the city with Trophimus, a Gentile from Ephesus, and they assumed Paul had taken him into the Temple.)

30 The whole city was rocked by these accusations, and a great riot followed. Paul was grabbed and dragged out of the Temple, and immediately the gates were closed behind him. 31 As they were trying to kill him, word reached the commander of the Roman regiment that all Jerusalem was in an uproar. 32 He immediately called out his soldiers and officers* and ran down among the crowd. When the mob saw the commander and the troops coming, they stopped beating Paul.

33 Then the commander arrested him and ordered him bound with two chains. He asked the crowd who he was and what he had done. 34 Some shouted one thing and some another. Since he couldn’t find out the truth in all the uproar and confusion, he ordered that Paul be taken to the fortress. 35 As Paul reached the stairs, the mob grew so violent the soldiers had to lift him to their shoulders to protect him.³⁶ And the crowd followed behind, shouting, “Kill him, kill him!”

Paul Speaks to the Crowd

³⁷ As Paul was about to be taken inside, he said to the commander, “May I have a word with you?”

“Do you know Greek?” the commander asked, surprised.³⁸ “Aren’t you the Egyptian who led a rebellion some time ago and took 4,000 members of the Assassins out into the desert?”

³⁹ “No,” Paul replied, “I am a Jew and a citizen of Tarsus in Cilicia, which is an important city. Please, let me talk to these people.”⁴⁰ The commander agreed, so Paul stood on the stairs and motioned to the people to be quiet. Soon a deep silence enveloped the crowd, and he addressed them in their own language, Aramaic.*

“Brothers and esteemed fathers,” Paul said, “listen to me as I offer my defense.”² When they heard him speaking in their own language,* the silence was even greater.

³ Then Paul said, “I am a Jew, born in Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, and I was brought up and educated here in Jerusalem under Gamaliel. As his student, I was carefully trained in our Jewish laws and customs. I became very zealous to honor God in everything I did, just like all of you today.⁴ And I persecuted the followers of the Way, hounding some to death, arresting both men and women and throwing them in prison.⁵ The high priest and the whole council of elders can testify that this is so. For I received letters from them to our Jewish brothers in Damascus, authorizing me to bring the Christians from there to Jerusalem, in chains, to be punished.

6 “As I was on the road, approaching Damascus about noon, a very bright light from heaven suddenly shone down around me. 7 I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, ‘Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?’

8 “‘Who are you, lord?’ I asked.

“And the voice replied, ‘I am Jesus the Nazarene,* the one you are persecuting.’ 9 The people with me saw the light but didn’t understand the voice speaking to me.

10 “I asked, ‘What should I do, Lord?’

“And the Lord told me, ‘Get up and go into Damascus, and there you will be told everything you are to do.’

11 “I was blinded by the intense light and had to be led by the hand to Damascus by my companions. 12 A man named Ananias lived there. He was a godly man, deeply devoted to the law, and well regarded by all the Jews of Damascus. 13 He came and stood beside me and said, ‘Brother Saul, regain your sight.’ And that very moment I could see him!

14 “Then he told me, ‘The God of our ancestors has chosen you to know his will and to see the Righteous One and hear him speak. 15 For you are to be his witness, telling everyone what you have seen and heard. 16 What are you waiting for? Get up and be baptized. Have your sins washed away by calling on the name of the Lord.’

17 “After I returned to Jerusalem, I was praying in the Temple and fell into a trance. 18 I saw a vision of Jesus* saying to me, ‘Hurry! Leave Jerusalem, for the people here won’t accept your testimony about me.’

19 “‘But Lord,’ I argued, ‘they certainly know that in every synagogue I imprisoned and beat those who believed in you.
20 And I was in complete agreement when your witness Stephen was killed. I stood by and kept the coats they took off when they stoned him.’

21 “But the Lord said to me, ‘Go, for I will send you far away to the Gentiles!’”

22 The crowd listened until Paul said that word. Then they all began to shout, “Away with such a fellow! He isn’t fit to live!”
23 They yelled, threw off their coats, and tossed handfuls of dust into the air.

Paul Reveals His Roman Citizenship

24 The commander brought Paul inside and ordered him lashed with whips to make him confess his crime. He wanted to find out why the crowd had become so furious.
25 When they tied Paul down to lash him, Paul said to the officer* standing there, “Is it legal for you to whip a Roman citizen who hasn’t even been tried?”

26 When the officer heard this, he went to the commander and asked, “What are you doing? This man is a Roman citizen!”

27 So the commander went over and asked Paul, “Tell me, are you a Roman citizen?”

“Yes, I certainly am,” Paul replied.

28 “I am, too,” the commander muttered, “and it cost me plenty!”

Paul answered, “But I am a citizen by birth!”

29 The soldiers who were about to interrogate Paul quickly withdrew when they heard he was a Roman citizen, and the commander was frightened because he had ordered him bound and whipped.

Paul before the High Council

30 The next day the commander ordered the leading priests into session with the Jewish high council.* He wanted to find out what the trouble was all about, so he released Paul to have him stand before them.

Chapter 23

Gazing intently at the high council,* Paul began: “Brothers, I have always lived before God with a clear conscience!”

2 Instantly Ananias the high priest commanded those close to Paul to slap him on the mouth. 3 But Paul said to him, “God will slap you, you corrupt hypocrite!* What kind of judge are you to break the law yourself by ordering me struck like that?”

4 Those standing near Paul said to him, “Do you dare to insult God’s high priest?”

5 “I’m sorry, brothers. I didn’t realize he was the high priest,” Paul replied, “for the Scriptures say, ‘You must not speak evil of any of your rulers.’*”

6 Paul realized that some members of the high council were Sadducees and some were Pharisees, so he shouted, “Brothers, I am a Pharisee, as were my ancestors! And I am on trial because my hope is in the resurrection of the dead!”

7 This divided the council—the Pharisees against the Sadducees—8 for the Sadducees say there is no resurrection or angels or spirits, but the Pharisees believe in all of these. 9 So there was a great uproar. Some of the teachers of religious law who were Pharisees jumped up and began to argue forcefully. “We see nothing wrong with him,” they shouted. “Perhaps a spirit or an angel spoke to him.” 10 As the conflict grew more violent, the commander was afraid they would tear Paul apart. So he ordered his soldiers to go and rescue him by force and take him back to the fortress.

11 That night the Lord appeared to Paul and said, “Be encouraged, Paul. Just as you have been a witness to me here in Jerusalem, you must preach the Good News in Rome as well.”

The Plan to Kill Paul

12 The next morning a group of Jews* got together and bound themselves with an oath not to eat or drink until they had killed Paul. 13 There were more than forty of them in the conspiracy. 14 They went to the leading priests and elders and told them, “We have bound ourselves with an oath to eat nothing until we have killed Paul. 15 So you and the high council should ask the commander to bring Paul back to the council again. Pretend you want to examine his case more fully. We will kill him on the way.”

16 But Paul’s nephew—his sister’s son—heard of their plan and went to the fortress and told Paul. 17 Paul called for one of the Roman officers* and said, “Take this young man to the commander. He has something important to tell him.”

18 So the officer did, explaining, “Paul, the prisoner, called me over and asked me to bring this young man to you because he has something to tell you.”

HOPEFORTODAY

Living with a Clear Conscience

Gazing intently at the high council, Paul began: “Brothers, I have always lived before God with a clear conscience!” (Acts 23:1).

Paul began his presentation to the high council in Jerusalem by talking about his clear conscience. It’s worth remembering that Paul wasn’t claiming he was perfect or hadn’t done anything wrong. When it came to sharing his faith, Paul understood that he had committed sins in the past. But he also understood that our conscience is an active part of God’s gift of awareness. When our conscience speaks up, it’s our job to take it to the Father in prayer.

But many people today live with a heaviness hanging over their lives. They have a nagging feeling; something’s always bothering them. They’re not happy.

The problem is they don't have a clear conscience. They've ignored the warnings of the Spirit for too long. They've gotten hard and cold in certain areas.

If that's you today, here's what the Scripture says: "Even if we feel guilty, God is greater than our feelings, and he knows everything" (1 John 3:20). Friend, God wants to give you a "reset" today. He wants to clear your heart and mind of the guilt and condemnation of the past. If there are things that you are doing now that you know you shouldn't, make some adjustments. Or if there are things that you should be doing and you're not, then make those changes. The word repent means to turn around. We have to repent, or turn around, from the wrong things in our lives. And maybe you have tried before, but you can't do it on your own. We need God to help us. His Spirit gives us strength in our weakness (Romans 8:26). Whatever that may be, surrender it to the Father today.

I like what the apostle Paul said in Acts 23:1. "I have always lived before God with a clear conscience." That should be our goal as well. When our conscience is clear, condemnation flees. When we have a clear conscience, we can be happy, healthy, and whole.

19 The commander took his hand, led him aside, and asked, "What is it you want to tell me?"

20 Paul's nephew told him, "Some Jews are going to ask you to bring Paul before the high council tomorrow, pretending they want to get some more information.²¹ But don't do it! There are more than forty men hiding along the way ready to ambush him. They have vowed not to eat or drink anything until they have killed him. They are ready now, just waiting for your consent."

²² "Don't let anyone know you told me this," the commander warned the young man.

Paul Is Sent to Caesarea

²³ Then the commander called two of his officers and ordered, "Get 200 soldiers ready to leave for Caesarea at nine o'clock tonight. Also take 200 spearmen and 70 mounted troops. ²⁴ Provide horses for Paul to ride, and get him safely to Governor Felix." ²⁵ Then he wrote this letter to the governor:

²⁶ "From Claudius Lysias, to his Excellency, Governor Felix: Greetings!

²⁷ "This man was seized by some Jews, and they were about to kill him when I arrived with the troops. When I learned that he was a Roman citizen, I removed him to safety. ²⁸ Then I took him to their high council to try to learn the basis of the accusations against him. ²⁹ I soon discovered the charge was something regarding their religious law—certainly nothing worthy of imprisonment or death. ³⁰ But when I was informed of a plot to kill him, I immediately sent him on to you. I have told his accusers to bring their charges before you."

³¹ So that night, as ordered, the soldiers took Paul as far as Antipatris. ³² They returned to the fortress the next morning, while the mounted troops took him on to Caesarea. ³³ When they arrived in Caesarea, they presented Paul and the letter to Governor Felix. ³⁴ He read it and then asked Paul what province he was from. “Cilicia,” Paul answered.

³⁵ “I will hear your case myself when your accusers arrive,” the governor told him. Then the governor ordered him kept in the prison at Herod’s headquarters.*

Chapter 24

Paul Appears before Felix

Five days later Ananias, the high priest, arrived with some of the Jewish elders and the lawyer* Tertullus, to present their case against Paul to the governor. ² When Paul was called in, Tertullus presented the charges against Paul in the following address to the governor:

“You have provided a long period of peace for us Jews and with foresight have enacted reforms for us. ³ For all of this, Your Excellency, we are very grateful to you. ⁴ But I don’t want to bore you, so please give me your attention for only a moment. ⁵ We have found this man to be a troublemaker who is constantly stirring up riots among the Jews all over the world. He is a ringleader of the cult known as the Nazarenes. ⁶ Furthermore, he was trying to desecrate the Temple when we arrested him.* ⁸ You can find out the truth of our accusations by examining him yourself.” ⁹ Then the other Jews chimed in, declaring that everything Tertullus said was true.

¹⁰ The governor then motioned for Paul to speak. Paul said, “I know, sir, that you have been a judge of Jewish affairs for many years, so I gladly present my defense before you. ¹¹ You can quickly discover that I arrived in Jerusalem no more than twelve days ago to worship at the Temple. ¹² My accusers never found me arguing with anyone in the Temple, nor stirring up a riot in any synagogue or on the streets of the city. ¹³ These men cannot prove the things they accuse me of doing.

¹⁴ “But I admit that I follow the Way, which they call a cult. I worship the God of our ancestors, and I firmly believe the Jewish law and everything written in the prophets. ¹⁵ I have the same hope in God that these men have, that he will raise both the righteous and the unrighteous. ¹⁶ Because of this, I always try to maintain a clear conscience before God and all people.

¹⁷ “After several years away, I returned to Jerusalem with money to aid my people and to offer sacrifices to God. ¹⁸ My accusers saw me in the Temple as I was completing a purification ceremony. There was no crowd around me and no rioting. ¹⁹ But some Jews from the province of Asia were there—and they ought to be here to bring charges if they have anything against me! ²⁰ Ask these men here what crime the Jewish high council* found me guilty of, ²¹ except for the one time I shouted out, ‘I am on trial before you today because I believe in the resurrection of the dead!’”

²² At that point Felix, who was quite familiar with the Way, adjourned the hearing and said, “Wait until Lysias, the garrison commander, arrives. Then I will decide the case.” ²³ He ordered an officer* to keep Paul in custody but to give him some freedom and allow his friends to visit him and take care of his needs.

²⁴ A few days later Felix came back with his wife, Drusilla, who was Jewish. Sending for Paul, they listened as he told them about faith in Christ Jesus. ²⁵ As he reasoned with them about righteousness and self-control and the coming day of judgment, Felix became frightened. “Go away for now,” he replied. “When it is more convenient, I’ll call for you again.” ²⁶ He also hoped that Paul would bribe him, so he sent for him quite often and talked with him.

²⁷ After two years went by in this way, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus. And because Felix wanted to gain favor with the Jewish people, he left Paul in prison.

Chapter 25

Paul Appears before Festus

Three days after Festus arrived in Caesarea to take over his new responsibilities, he left for Jerusalem, ² where the leading priests and other Jewish leaders met with him and made their accusations against Paul. ³ They asked Festus as a favor to transfer Paul to Jerusalem (planning to ambush and kill him on the way). ⁴ But Festus replied that Paul was at Caesarea and he himself would be returning there soon. ⁵ So he said, “Those of you in authority can return with me. If Paul has done anything wrong, you can make your accusations.”

⁶ About eight or ten days later Festus returned to Caesarea, and on the following day he took his seat in court and ordered that Paul be brought in.⁷ When Paul arrived, the Jewish leaders from Jerusalem gathered around and made many serious accusations they couldn't prove.

⁸ Paul denied the charges. "I am not guilty of any crime against the Jewish laws or the Temple or the Roman government," he said.

⁹ Then Festus, wanting to please the Jews, asked him, "Are you willing to go to Jerusalem and stand trial before me there?"

¹⁰ But Paul replied, "No! This is the official Roman court, so I ought to be tried right here. You know very well I am not guilty of harming the Jews. ¹¹ If I have done something worthy of death, I don't refuse to die. But if I am innocent, no one has a right to turn me over to these men to kill me. I appeal to Caesar!"

¹⁸ But the accusations made against him weren't any of the crimes I expected. ¹⁹ Instead, it was something about their religion and a dead man named Jesus, who Paul insists is alive. ²⁰ I was at a loss to know how to investigate these things, so I asked him whether he would be willing to stand trial on these charges in Jerusalem. ²¹ But Paul appealed to have his case decided by the emperor. So I ordered that he be held in custody until I could arrange to send him to Caesar."

²² "I'd like to hear the man myself," Agrippa said.

And Festus replied, "You will—tomorrow!"

Paul Speaks to Agrippa

²³ So the next day Agrippa and Bernice arrived at the auditorium with great pomp, accompanied by military officers and prominent men of the city. Festus ordered that Paul be brought in. ²⁴ Then Festus said, "King Agrippa and all who are here, this is the man whose death is demanded by all the Jews, both here and in Jerusalem. ²⁵ But in my opinion he has done nothing deserving death. However, since he appealed his case to the emperor, I have decided to send him to Rome.

²⁶ "But what shall I write the emperor? For there is no clear charge against him. So I have brought him before all of you, and especially you, King Agrippa, so that after we examine him, I might have something to write. ²⁷ For it makes no sense to send a prisoner to the emperor without specifying the charges against him!"

Then Agrippa said to Paul, “You may speak in your defense.”

So Paul, gesturing with his hand, started his defense: ² “I am fortunate, King Agrippa, that you are the one hearing my defense today against all these accusations made by the Jewish leaders, ³ for I know you are an expert on all Jewish customs and controversies. Now please listen to me patiently!

⁴ “As the Jewish leaders are well aware, I was given a thorough Jewish training from my earliest childhood among my own people and in Jerusalem. ⁵ If they would admit it, they know that I have been a member of the Pharisees, the strictest sect of our religion. ⁶ Now I am on trial because of my hope in the fulfillment of God’s promise made to our ancestors. ⁷ In fact, that is why the twelve tribes of Israel zealously worship God night and day, and they share the same hope I have. Yet, Your Majesty, they accuse me for having this hope! ⁸ Why does it seem incredible to any of you that God can raise the dead?

⁹ “I used to believe that I ought to do everything I could to oppose the very name of Jesus the Nazarene.* ¹⁰ Indeed, I did just that in Jerusalem. Authorized by the leading priests, I caused many believers* there to be sent to prison. And I cast my vote against them when they were condemned to death. ¹¹ Many times I had them punished in the synagogues to get them to curse Jesus.* I was so violently opposed to them that I even chased them down in foreign cities.

¹² “One day I was on such a mission to Damascus, armed with the authority and commission of the leading priests. ¹³ About noon, Your Majesty, as I was on the road, a light from heaven brighter than the sun shone down on me and my companions. ¹⁴ We all fell down, and I heard a voice saying to me in Aramaic, * ‘Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me? It is useless for you to fight against my will.*’

“And the Lord replied, ‘I am Jesus, the one you are persecuting. ¹⁶ Now get to your feet! For I have appeared to you to appoint you as my servant and witness. You are to tell the world what you have seen and what I will show you in the future. ¹⁷ And I will rescue you from both your own people and the Gentiles. Yes, I am sending you to the Gentiles ¹⁸ to open their eyes, so they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God. Then they will receive forgiveness for their sins and be given a place among God’s people, who are set apart by faith in me.’

¹⁹ “And so, King Agrippa, I obeyed that vision from heaven. ²⁰ I preached first to those in Damascus, then in Jerusalem and throughout all Judea, and also to the Gentiles, that all must repent of their sins and turn to God—and prove they have changed by the good things they do. ²¹ Some Jews arrested me in the Temple for preaching this, and they tried to kill me. ²² But God has protected me right up to this present time so I can testify to everyone, from the least to the greatest. I teach nothing except what the prophets and Moses said would happen—²³ that the Messiah would suffer and be the first to rise from the dead, and in this way announce God’s light to Jews and Gentiles alike.”

much study has made you crazy!”

²⁵ But Paul replied, “I am not insane, Most Excellent Festus. What I am saying is the sober truth.²⁶ And King Agrippa knows about these things. I speak boldly, for I am sure these events are all familiar to him, for they were not done in a corner!²⁷ King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know you do —”

²⁸ Agrippa interrupted him. “Do you think you can persuade me to become a Christian so quickly?”*

²⁹ Paul replied, “Whether quickly or not, I pray to God that both you and everyone here in this audience might become the same as I am, except for these chains.”

³⁰ Then the king, the governor, Bernice, and all the others stood and left.³¹ As they went out, they talked it over and agreed, “This man hasn’t done anything to deserve death or imprisonment.”

³² And Agrippa said to Festus, “He could have been set free if he hadn’t appealed to Caesar.”

Chapter 27

Paul Sails for Rome

When the time came, we set sail for Italy. Paul and several other prisoners were placed in the custody of a Roman officer* named Julius, a captain of the Imperial Regiment.² Aristarchus, a Macedonian from Thessalonica, was also with us. We left on a ship whose home port was Adramyttium on the northwest coast of the province of Asia;* it was scheduled to make several stops at ports along the coast of the province.

³ The next day when we docked at Sidon, Julius was very kind to Paul and let him go ashore to visit with friends so they could provide for his needs. ⁴ Putting out to sea from there, we encountered strong headwinds that made it difficult to keep the ship on course, so we sailed north of Cyprus between the island and the mainland. ⁵ Keeping to the open sea, we passed along the coast of Cilicia and Pamphylia, landing at Myra, in the province of Lycia. ⁶ There the commanding officer found an Egyptian ship from Alexandria that was bound for Italy, and he put us on board.

¹⁰ "Men," he said, "I believe there is trouble ahead if we go on—shipwreck, loss of cargo, and danger to our lives as well." ¹¹ But the officer in charge of the prisoners listened more to the ship's captain and the owner than to Paul. ¹² And since Fair Havens was an exposed harbor—a poor place to spend the winter—most of the crew wanted to go on to Phoenix, farther up the coast of Crete, and spend the winter there. Phoenix was a good harbor with only a southwest and northwest exposure.

The Storm at Sea

¹³ When a light wind began blowing from the south, the sailors thought they could make it. So they pulled up anchor and sailed close to the shore of Crete. ¹⁴ But the weather changed abruptly, and a wind of typhoon strength (called a “northeaster”) burst across the island and blew us out to sea. ¹⁵ The sailors couldn’t turn the ship into the wind, so they gave up and let it run before the gale.

¹⁶ We sailed along the sheltered side of a small island named Cauda,* where with great difficulty we hoisted aboard the lifeboat being towed behind us. ¹⁷ Then the sailors bound ropes around the hull of the ship to strengthen it. They were afraid of being driven across to the sandbars of Syrtis off the African coast, so they lowered the sea anchor to slow the ship and were driven before the wind.

²¹ No one had eaten for a long time. Finally, Paul called the crew together and said, “Men, you should have listened to me in the first place and not left Crete. You would have avoided all this damage and loss. ²² But take courage! None of you will lose your lives, even though the ship will go down. ²³ For last night an angel of the God to whom I belong and whom I serve stood beside me, ²⁴ and he said, ‘Don’t be afraid, Paul, for you will surely stand trial before Caesar! What's more, God in his goodness has granted safety to everyone sailing with you.' ²⁵ So take courage! For I believe God. It will be just as he said. ²⁶ But we will be shipwrecked on an island."

The Shipwreck

²⁷ About midnight on the fourteenth night of the storm, as we were being driven across the Sea of Adria, * the sailors sensed land was near. ²⁸ They dropped a weighted line and found that the water was 120 feet deep. But a little later they measured again and found it was only 90 feet deep. * ²⁹ At this rate they were afraid we would soon be driven against the rocks along the shore, so they threw out four anchors from the back of the ship and prayed for daylight.

³⁰ Then the sailors tried to abandon the ship; they lowered the lifeboat as though they were going to put out anchors from the front of the ship. ³¹ But Paul said to the commanding officer and the soldiers, "You will all die unless the sailors stay aboard." ³² So the soldiers cut the ropes to the lifeboat and let it drift away.

³³ Just as day was dawning, Paul urged everyone to eat. "You have been so worried that you haven't touched food for two weeks," he said. ³⁴ "Please eat something now for your own good. For not a hair of your heads will perish." ³⁵ Then he took some bread, gave thanks to God before them all, and broke off a piece and ate it. ³⁶ Then everyone was encouraged and began to eat—³⁷ all 276 of us who were on board. ³⁸ After eating, the crew lightened the ship further by throwing the cargo of wheat overboard.

³⁹ When morning dawned, they didn't recognize the coastline, but they saw a bay with a beach and wondered if they could get to shore by running the ship aground. ⁴⁰ So they cut off the anchors and left them in the sea. Then they lowered the rudders, raised the foresail, and headed toward shore. ⁴¹ But they hit a shoal and ran the ship aground too soon. The bow of the ship stuck fast, while the stern was repeatedly smashed by the force of the waves and began to break apart.

⁴² The soldiers wanted to kill the prisoners to make sure they didn't swim ashore and escape. ⁴³ But the commanding officer wanted to spare Paul, so he didn't let them carry out their plan. Then he ordered all who could swim to jump overboard first and make for land. ⁴⁴ The others held on to planks or debris from the broken ship.* So everyone escaped safely to shore.

Paul on the Island of Malta

Once we were safe on shore, we learned that we were on the island of Malta. ² The people of the island were very kind to us. It was cold and rainy, so they built a fire on the shore to welcome us.

³ As Paul gathered an armful of sticks and was laying them on the fire, a poisonous snake, driven out by the heat, bit him on the hand. ⁴ The people of the island saw it hanging from his hand and said to each other, “A murderer, no doubt! Though he escaped the sea, justice will not permit him to live.”⁵ But Paul shook off the snake into the fire and was unharmed.⁶ The people waited for him to swell up or suddenly drop dead. But when they had waited a long time and saw that he wasn’t harmed, they changed their minds and decided he was a god.

⁷ Near the shore where we landed was an estate belonging to Publius, the chief official of the island. He welcomed us and treated us kindly for three days.⁸ As it happened, Publius’s father was ill with fever and dysentery. Paul went in and prayed for him, and laying his hands on him, he healed him.⁹ Then all the other sick people on the island came and were healed.¹⁰ As a result we were showered with honors, and when the time came to sail, people supplied us with everything we would need for the trip.

Paul Arrives at Rome

¹¹ It was three months after the shipwreck that we set sail on another ship that had wintered at the island—an Alexandrian ship with the twin gods* as its figurehead.¹² Our first stop was Syracuse,* where we stayed three days.¹³ From there we sailed across to Rhegium.* A day later a south wind began blowing, so the following day we sailed up the coast to Puteoli.¹⁴ There we found some believers,* who invited us to spend a week with them. And so we came to Rome.

Unharmred by Poison

But Paul shook off the snake into the fire and was unharmred (Acts 28:5).

On his journey to stand trial in Rome, the apostle Paul was shipwrecked on a small island. He went to pick up some firewood, and a poisonous snake bit him. The people thought he would surely die immediately. But Paul wasn't fazed. He simply shook off the viper and went about his business.

Now how many of us would have reacted that way?

The Scripture tells us in Mark 16:17-18 that signs will follow those who believe. One of those signs is that neither serpents nor deadly poison will harm them. Paul knew this promise. He had no fear. He was completely secure in the promises of God. It was as though he was saying, "No big deal. I'm not going to let this thing bother me. It may be poisonous, it may look bad, but I know God is bigger than that. I know God can take care of me." Miraculously, that snakebite didn't harm him. Although it was dangerous and poisonous, Paul knew the purpose and plan for his life was stronger.

How many "snakebites" do we encounter every day?

How often do we encounter unexpected things that try to nip at us and take us off course? Did you get into an argument with someone at work? Did you have a flat tire? Were you late for an important meeting? Shake it off. How often do other people show up with the poison of gossip and bitterness and try to get us to partake? Don't allow those things to poison your day. Be like Paul. Stand on the promises of God—He is bigger than all that—knowing that God has a plan for you to fulfill. Stay focused and keep moving forward because He is able to overcome every obstacle that may come against you.

15 The brothers and sisters* in Rome had heard we were coming, and they came to meet us at the Forum* on the Appian Way. Others joined us at The Three Taverns. * When Paul saw them, he was encouraged and thanked God.

16 When we arrived in Rome, Paul was permitted to have his own private lodging, though he was guarded by a soldier.

Paul Preaches at Rome under Guard

17 Three days after Paul's arrival, he called together the local Jewish leaders. He said to them, "Brothers, I was arrested in Jerusalem and handed over to the Roman government, even though I had done nothing against our people or the customs of our ancestors. 18 The Romans tried me and wanted to release me, because they found no cause for the death sentence. 19 But when the Jewish leaders protested the decision, I felt it necessary to appeal to Caesar, even though I had no desire to press charges against my own people. ²⁰ I asked you to come here today so we could get acquainted and so I could explain to you that I am bound with this chain because I believe that the hope of Israel—the Messiah—has already come.”

²¹ They replied, “We have had no letters from Judea or reports against you from anyone who has come here. ²² But we want to hear what you believe, for the only thing we know about this movement is that it is denounced everywhere.”

²³ So a time was set, and on that day a large number of people came to Paul’s lodging. He explained and testified about the Kingdom of God and tried to persuade them about Jesus from the Scriptures. Using the law of Moses and the books of the prophets, he spoke to them from morning until evening. ²⁴ Some were persuaded by the things he said, but others did not believe. ²⁵ And after they had argued back and forth among themselves, they left with this final word from Paul: “The Holy Spirit was right when he said to your ancestors through Isaiah the prophet,

²⁶ ‘Go and say to this people:

When you hear what I say,
you will not understand.

When you see what I do,
you will not comprehend.

²⁷ For the hearts of these people are hardened,
and their ears cannot hear,
and they have closed their eyes—
so their eyes cannot see,

and their ears cannot hear,
and their hearts cannot understand,
and they cannot turn to me
and let me heal them.’*

28 So I want you to know that this salvation from God has also been offered to the Gentiles, and they will accept it.”*

30 For the next two years, Paul lived in Rome at his own expense.* He welcomed all who visited him,³¹ boldly proclaiming the Kingdom of God and teaching about the Lord Jesus Christ. And no one tried to stop him.

Therefore, since we have been made right in God's sight by faith, we have peace with God because of what Jesus Christ our Lord has done for us (5:1).

So now there is no condemnation for those who belong to Christ Jesus (8:1).

Finding Hope and Encouragement in Romans

The book of Romans is a synopsis of the Christian faith. It was written by Paul, formerly a persecutor of Christians, now an ardent follower of Jesus Christ.

Like a skilled and intellectual attorney, Paul presents a clear case for the gospel in this letter addressed to the vibrant church in the city of Rome. Normally, as we will discover in other letters, Paul addresses a specific concern. This is not the case with the letter to the church at Rome. He did not establish the church in Rome, nor had he visited Rome when he wrote this letter, but he was planning on calling on the church as he journeyed to Spain. In this letter, he introduces himself and gives the clearest and fullest explanation of the gospel in the Bible. Scholars have referred to it as a masterpiece.

The book has great depth, insight, and logic. Paul seeks to prepare the Roman Christians for his coming to Rome. He sought to ground the readers in the faith with a systematic presentation of theology that included the meaning of the Cross, the universality of sin, justification by faith, union with Christ, the doctrine of election, an understanding of spiritual gifts, and respect for government. Also, he encourages Jewish and Gentile believers to live in harmony.

The book of Romans is the most doctrinal book in the Bible. It provides a systematic outline of the essentials of the Christian faith. It is shallow enough for the youngest of believers to wade through and deep enough for the most mature of believers to dive into without touching bottom. Read it to experience your hope deepened and enlightened.

Chapter 1

Greetings from Paul

This letter is from Paul, a slave of Christ Jesus, chosen by God to be an apostle and sent out to preach his Good News.² God promised this Good News long ago through his prophets in the holy Scriptures.³ The Good News is about his Son. In his earthly life he was born into King David's family line,⁴ and he was shown to be* the Son of God when he was raised from the dead by the power of the Holy Spirit.* He is Jesus Christ our Lord.⁵ Through Christ, God has given us the privilege* and authority as apostles to tell Gentiles everywhere what God has done for them, so that they will believe and obey him, bringing glory to his name.

⁶ And you are included among those Gentiles who have been called to belong to Jesus Christ.⁷ I am writing to all of you in Rome who are loved by God and are called to be his own holy people.

May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give you grace and peace.

God's Good News

⁸ Let me say first that I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you, because your faith in him is being talked about all over the world.⁹ God knows how often I pray for you. Day and night I bring you and your needs in prayer to God, whom I serve with all my heart* by spreading the Good News about his Son.

¹⁰ One of the things I always pray for is the opportunity, God willing, to come at last to see you.¹¹ For I long to visit you so I can bring you some spiritual gift that will help you grow strong in the Lord.¹² When we get together, I want to encourage you in your faith, but I also want to be encouraged

¹³ I want you to know, dear brothers and sisters,* that I planned many times to visit you, but I was prevented until now. I want to work among you and see spiritual fruit, just as I have seen among other Gentiles. ¹⁴ For I have a great sense of obligation to people in both the civilized world and the rest of the world,* to the educated and uneducated alike. ¹⁵ So I am eager to come to you in Rome, too, to preach the Good News.

¹⁶ For I am not ashamed of this Good News about Christ. It is the power of God at work, saving everyone who believes—the Jew first and also the Gentile.* ¹⁷ This Good News tells us how God makes us right in his sight. This is accomplished from start to finish by faith. As the Scriptures say, “It is through faith that a righteous person has life.”*

Receive Grace

Through Christ, God has given us the privilege and authority as apostles to tell Gentiles everywhere what God has done for them, so that they will believe and obey him, bringing glory to his name (Romans 1:5).

Do you want to see more of God's favor in your life? Receive His grace. Grace is God's favor, but it's also His supernatural empowerment. When you have God's grace and favor, it enables you to accomplish more and be more effective both in your own life and in building the kingdom of God.

This verse says that God's grace enables us to let people everywhere know they can also have access to grace and live under God's guidance. Maybe you can't go to all the nations in the world today, but you can make a difference in the lives of the people around you. You can "spread faith" by living a life of love. God wants to empower you with His grace so that you can show love and encourage the people in your life—your co-workers, your family, your friends. Receive His grace today by simply opening your heart and thanking Him. Thank Him for His grace that empowers you. Thank Him for His love. Thank Him for the gift of faith in your life. As you receive His grace today, you will feel His empowerment and walk forward in the favor and blessing Christ has provided for you!

God's Anger at Sin

¹⁸ But God shows his anger from heaven against all sinful, wicked people who suppress the truth by their wickedness.* ¹⁹ They know the truth about God because he has made it obvious to them.²⁰ For ever since the world was created, people have seen the earth and sky. Through everything God made, they can clearly see his invisible qualities—his eternal power and divine nature. So they have no excuse for not knowing God.

²¹ Yes, they knew God, but they wouldn't worship him as God or even give him thanks. And they began to think up foolish ideas of what God was like. As a result, their minds became dark and confused. ²² Claiming to be wise, they instead became utter fools. ²³ And instead of worshipping the glorious, ever-living God, they worshiped idols made to look like mere people and birds and animals and reptiles.

²⁴ So God abandoned them to do whatever shameful things their hearts desired. As a result, they did vile and degrading things with each other's bodies. ²⁵ They traded the truth about God for a lie. So they worshiped and served the things God created instead of the Creator himself, who is worthy of eternal praise! Amen. ²⁶ That is why God abandoned them to their shameful desires. Even the women turned against the natural way to have sex and instead indulged in sex with each other. ²⁷ And the men, instead of having normal sexual relations with women, burned with lust for each other. Men did shameful things with other men, and as a result of this sin, they suffered within themselves the penalty they deserved.

²⁸ Since they thought it foolish to acknowledge God, he abandoned them to their foolish thinking and let them do things that should never be done. ²⁹ Their lives became full of every kind of wickedness, sin, greed, hate, envy, murder, quarreling, deception, malicious behavior, and gossip. ³⁰ They are backstabbers, haters of God, insolent, proud, and boastful. They invent new ways of sinning, and they disobey their parents. ³¹ They refuse to understand, break their promises, are heartless, and have no mercy.³² They know God's justice requires that those who do these things deserve to die, yet they do them anyway. Worse yet, they encourage others to do them, too.

Chapter 2

God's Judgment of Sin

You may think you can condemn such people, but you are just as bad, and you have no excuse! When you say they are wicked and should be punished, you are condemning yourself, for you who judge others do these very same things.² And we know that God, in his justice, will punish anyone who does such things.³ Since you judge others for doing these things, why do you think you can avoid God's judgment when you do the same things?⁴ Don't you see how wonderfully kind, tolerant, and patient God is with you? Does this mean nothing to you? Can't you see that his kindness is intended to turn you from your sin?

HOPENOTE

Know His Kindness

Don't you see how wonderfully kind, tolerant, and patient God is with you? Does this mean nothing to you?

Can't you see that his kindness is intended to turn you from your sin? (Romans 2:4).

Is there anything in your life that is keeping you from God? Is there anything that is blocking your relationship with Him? When we have wronged someone, sometimes it's easier to avoid them than to face potential rejection. Most times, we think God is going to treat us the way that other people treat us. But God isn't like that. He's not mad at you; He's waiting for you with open arms. It doesn't matter who you are or what you've done; know that it is His kindness and goodness toward us that leads to repentance.

God doesn't want there to be anything in the way of your relationship with Him. Don't let condemnation keep you from going to God. Know His kindness today. Experience His goodness. Trust His faithfulness. He's promised He'll never leave you nor forsake you. Turn to Him today and let Him pour His loving kindness out upon you today. As you experience His kindness, you'll be empowered and strengthened to live the good life that reflects all God has done for you!

⁵ But because you are stubborn and refuse to turn from your sin, you are storing up terrible punishment for yourself. For a day of anger is coming, when God's righteous judgment will be revealed. ⁶ He will judge everyone according to what they have done. ⁷ He will give eternal life to those who keep on doing good, seeking after the glory and honor and immortality that God offers.⁸ But he will pour out his anger and wrath on those who live for themselves, who refuse to obey the truth and instead live lives of wickedness.⁹ There will be trouble and calamity for everyone who keeps on doing what is evil—for the Jew first and also for the Gentile.*¹⁰ But there will be glory and honor and peace from God for all who do good—for the Jew first and also for the Gentile.¹¹ For God does not show favoritism.

¹² When the Gentiles sin, they will be destroyed, even though they never had God's written law. And the Jews, who do have God's law, will be judged by that law when they fail to obey it.¹³ For merely listening to the law doesn't make us right with God. It is obeying the law that makes us right in his sight.¹⁴ Even Gentiles, who do not have God's written law, show that they know his law when they instinctively obey it, even without having heard it.¹⁵ They demonstrate that God's law is written in their hearts, for their own conscience and thoughts either accuse them or tell them they are doing right.¹⁶ And this is the message I proclaim—that the day is coming when God, through Christ Jesus, will judge everyone's secret life.

The Jews and the Law

¹⁷ You who call yourselves Jews are relying on God's law, and you boast about your special relationship with him.¹⁸ You know what he wants; you know what is right because you have been taught his law.¹⁹ You are convinced that you are a guide for the blind and a light for people who are lost in darkness.²⁰ You think you can instruct the ignorant and teach children the ways of God. For you are certain that God's law gives you complete knowledge and truth.

²¹ Well then, if you teach others, why don't you teach yourself? You tell others not to steal, but do you steal? ²² You say it is wrong to commit adultery, but do you commit adultery? You condemn idolatry, but do you use items stolen from pagan temples? ²³ You are so proud of knowing the law, but you dishonor God by breaking it. ²⁴ No wonder the Scriptures say, "The Gentiles blaspheme the name of God because of you."*

HOPENOTE

Written on Your Heart

They demonstrate that God's law is written in their hearts, for their own conscience and thoughts either accuse them or tell them they are doing right (Romans 2:15).

In the Old Testament, God's commands were written on stone tablets and kept in the tabernacle. Now, we are living according to the New Testament, and when we accept Jesus as our personal Lord and Savior, we become His temple. He lives in us, and He engraves His promises and commands in our hearts.

How can you be sure of this? This verse says that even before you believed, your conscience, or inner man, had a strong knowledge of what is right and what is wrong, what you should and shouldn't do. Now, you are drawn to follow the Word of God. That's the Spirit of God on the inside of you, guiding and directing you. God's Spirit and His Word reinforce your conscience. As you follow His leading, your ability to hear and know Him is strengthened. But if you choose to bypass that prompting on the inside, your heart can become hard, which will affect your ability to hear Him in the future.

Make the decision today to demonstrate that God's law is written on your heart by quickly obeying His leading. As you do, He'll guide you down the path of blessing, and you'll experience the abundant life Jesus promised!

²⁵ The Jewish ceremony of circumcision has value only if you obey God's law. But if you don't obey God's law, you are no better off than an uncircumcised Gentile.²⁶ And if the Gentiles obey God's law, won't God declare them to be his own people? ²⁷ In fact, uncircumcised Gentiles who keep God's law will condemn you Jews who are circumcised and possess God's law but don't obey it.

²⁸ For you are not a true Jew just because you were born of Jewish parents or because you have gone through the ceremony of circumcision. ²⁹ No, a true Jew is one whose heart is right with God. And true circumcision is not merely obeying the letter of the law; rather, it is a change of heart produced by God's Spirit. And a person with a changed heart seeks praise* from God, not from people.

Chapter 3

God Remains Faithful

Then what's the advantage of being a Jew? Is there any value in the ceremony of circumcision?² Yes, there are great benefits! First of all, the Jews were entrusted with the whole revelation of God.*

³ True, some of them were unfaithful; but just because they were unfaithful, does that mean God will be unfaithful?⁴ Of course not! Even if everyone else is a liar, God is true. As the Scriptures say about him,

“You will be proved right in what you say, and you will win your case in court.”*

⁵ “But,” some might say, “our sinfulness serves a good purpose, for it helps people see how righteous God is. Isn't it unfair, then, for him to punish us?” (This is merely a human point of view.)⁶ Of course not! If God were not entirely fair, how would he be qualified to judge the world?⁷ “But,” someone might still argue, “how can God condemn me as a sinner if my dishonesty highlights his truthfulness and brings him more glory?”⁸ And some people even slander us by claiming that we say, “The more we sin, the better it is!” Those who say such things deserve to be condemned.

All People Are Sinners

⁹ Well then, should we conclude that we Jews are better than others? No, not at all, for we have already shown that all people, whether Jews or Gentiles,* are under the power of sin.

¹⁰ As the Scriptures say,

HOPENOTE

The Trustworthy God

True, some of them were unfaithful; but just because they were unfaithful, does that mean God will be unfaithful? (Romans 3:3).

There will always be critics and naysayers in life. It's not what's said about you that affects your life, but what you say and believe about yourself. Have the opinions of other people caused you to water down your dreams? One of the most important things you can learn is that other people don't have to believe in you in order for your dreams to come to pass. Other people don't set the limits for your life—you do. In Romans 3:3, the apostle Paul is saying, "It doesn't matter if other people don't believe. Their unbelief is not going to keep me from believing in His promises. I can still trust God." When God puts a promise in your heart, it's not up to other people to bring it to pass, it's up to you! You don't need everyone to validate you. You have to follow the voice of God for yourself and allow Him to order your steps.

God sees the hidden treasures that you've had buried on the inside of you. He wants to bring those treasures out and make your dreams a reality! As you get rid of old, defeated thoughts and replace them with what God says about you, you will remove the limits and see more and more clearly God's trustworthiness!

"No one is righteous—not even one.

11 No one is truly wise;
no one is seeking God.

12 All have turned away;
all have become useless.

No one does good,
not a single one."*

13 "Their talk is foul, like the stench from an open grave.
Their tongues are filled with lies."

"Snake venom drips from their lips."*

14 "Their mouths are full of cursing and bitterness."*

15 "They rush to commit murder.

16 Destruction and misery always follow them.

17 They don't know where to find peace."*

18 "They have no fear of God at all."*

19 Obviously, the law applies to those to whom it was given, for its purpose is to keep people from having excuses, and to show that the entire world is guilty before God.²⁰ For no one can ever be made right with God by doing what the law commands. The law simply shows us how sinful we are.

Christ Took Our Punishment

²¹ But now God has shown us a way to be made right with him without keeping the requirements of the law, as was promised in the writings of Moses* and the prophets long ago.²² We are made right with God by placing our faith in Jesus Christ. And this is true for everyone who believes, no matter who we are.

²³ For everyone has sinned; we all fall short of God's glorious standard.²⁴ Yet God, with undeserved kindness, declares that we are righteous. He did this through Christ Jesus when he freed us from the penalty for our sins.²⁵ For God presented Jesus as the sacrifice for sin. People are made right with God when they believe that Jesus sacrificed his life, shedding his blood. This sacrifice shows that God was being fair when he held back and did not punish those who sinned in times past,²⁶ for he was looking ahead and including them in what he would do in this present time. God did this to demonstrate his righteousness, for he himself is fair and just, and he declares sinners to be right in his sight when they believe in Jesus.

²⁷ Can we boast, then, that we have done anything to be accepted by God? No, because our acquittal is not based on obeying the law. It is based on faith.²⁸ So we are made right with God through faith and not by obeying the law.

²⁹ After all, is God the God of the Jews only? Isn't he also the God of the Gentiles? Of course he is. ³⁰ There is only one God, and he makes people right with himself only by faith, whether they are Jews or Gentiles.* ³¹ Well then, if we emphasize faith, does this mean that we can forget about the law? Of course not! In fact, only when we have faith do we truly fulfill the law.

Chapter 4

The Faith of Abraham

Abraham was, humanly speaking, the founder of our Jewish nation. What did he discover about being made right with God? ² If his good deeds had made him acceptable to God, he would have had something to boast about. But that was not God's way. ³ For the Scriptures tell us, "Abraham believed God, and God counted him as righteous because of his faith."*

⁴ When people work, their wages are not a gift, but something they have earned. ⁵ But people are counted as righteous, not because of their work, but because of their faith in God who forgives sinners. ⁶ David also spoke of this when he described the happiness of those who are declared righteous without working for it:

⁷ "Oh, what joy for those whose disobedience is forgiven, whose sins are put out of sight.

⁸ Yes, what joy for those whose record the LORD has cleared of sin.”*

9 Now, is this blessing only for the Jews, or is it also for uncircumcised Gentiles? Well, we have been saying that Abraham was counted as righteous by God because of his faith.¹⁰ But how did this happen? Was he counted as righteous only after he was circumcised, or was it before he was circumcised? Clearly, God accepted Abraham before he was circumcised!

¹¹ Circumcision was a sign that Abraham already had faith and that God had already accepted him and declared him to be righteous—even before he was circumcised. So Abraham is the spiritual father of those who have faith but have not been circumcised. They are counted as righteous because of their faith. ¹² And Abraham is also the spiritual father of those who have been circumcised, but only if they have the same kind of faith Abraham had before he was circumcised.

HOPENOTE

Consider God

Even when there was no reason for hope, Abraham kept hoping—believing that he would become the father of many nations. For God had said to him, “That’s how many descendants you will have!” (Romans 4:18).

Abraham, who is known as our father in the faith, had many obstacles coming against the promise of God in his life. God told him that he would be “the father of many nations.” Abraham was over 90 years old before he ever saw that promise begin to come to pass. This passage tells us that he didn’t consider his body. He didn’t think and meditate on all the reasons he couldn’t be the father of many nations. No, he considered and thought about the strength and ability of God! He thought about God’s faithfulness and gave praise and glory to Him! That faith that Abraham exercised enabled God to move on his behalf and fulfill the promise in his life.

What are you believing God for today? Does it seem impossible? Has it taken a long time? Consider your God. Consider His Word. Consider His faithfulness. Just like Abraham, you’ll grow strong in faith as you give glory to God. Your faith will open the door for God to move in your life. Don’t dwell on how big your mountains are, but instead remember how big your God is!

13 Clearly, God’s promise to give the whole earth to Abraham and his descendants was based not on his obedience to God’s law, but on a right relationship with God that comes by faith. 14 If God’s promise is only for those who obey the law, then faith is not necessary and the promise is pointless. 15 For the law always brings punishment on those who try to obey it. (The only way to avoid breaking the law is to have no law to break!)

HOPENOTE

Faith in Action

Abraham never wavered in believing God's promise. In fact, his faith grew stronger, and in this he brought glory to God (Romans 4:20)

Praise is powerful! Praise is putting your faith in action. And just as putting your physical body into action makes it grow strong, putting your faith into action through prayer and thanksgiving will cause it to grow strong, too!

I love what this verse says about Abraham—he never wavered in believing God's promises. What does it mean to waver? To waver actually means to go back and forth. It's a very unsteady posture. Spiritual wavering is when we go back and forth in believing the promises of God. Wavering shows up in our words and actions. When you speak contrary to God's promises, you are wavering and unsteady. Notice this verse didn't say that Abraham never had unbelief or thoughts of doubt. It basically says that he didn't let it control him or cause him to waver in his words, actions, and thinking. He took captive every thought and stood strong through his praise and worship!

Praise makes you stable. It makes you strong. Decide today to put your faith into action by thanking and praising Him all throughout the day! As you do, the very foundation of your life will become steady, and you will grow in all wisdom and knowledge of the Lord.

16 So the promise is received by faith. It is given as a free gift. And we are all certain to receive it, whether or not we live according to the law of Moses, if we have faith like Abraham's. For Abraham is the father of all who believe. 17 That is what the Scriptures mean when God told him, "I have made you the father of many nations."* This happened because Abraham believed in the God who brings the dead back to life and who creates new things out of nothing.

18 Even when there was no reason for hope, Abraham kept hoping—believing that he would become the father of many nations. For God had said to him, "That's how many descendants you will have!"* 19 And Abraham's faith did not weaken, even though, at about 100 years of age, he figured his body was as good as dead—and so was Sarah's womb.

20 Abraham never wavered in believing God's promise. In fact, his faith grew stronger, and in this he brought glory to God. 21 He was fully convinced that God is able to do whatever he promises. 22 And because of Abraham's faith, God counted him as righteous. 23 And when God counted him as righteous, it wasn't just for Abraham's benefit. It was recorded 24 for our benefit, too, assuring us that God will also count us as righteous if we believe in him, the one who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead.²⁵ He was handed over to die because of our sins, and he was raised to life to make us right with God.

Chapter 5

Faith Brings Joy

Therefore, since we have been made right in God's sight by faith, we have peace with God because of what Jesus Christ our Lord has done for us.² Because of our faith, Christ has brought us into this place of undeserved privilege where we now stand, and we confidently and joyfully look forward to sharing God's glory.

³ We can rejoice, too, when we run into problems and trials, for we know that they help us develop endurance.⁴ And endurance develops strength of character, and character strengthens our confident hope of salvation.⁵ And this hope will not lead to disappointment. For we know how dearly God loves us, because he has given us the Holy Spirit to fill our hearts with his love.

⁶ When we were utterly helpless, Christ came at just the right time and died for us sinners.⁷ Now, most people would not be willing to die for an upright person, though someone might perhaps be willing to die for a person who is especially good.⁸ But God showed his great love for us by sending Christ to die for us while we were still sinners.⁹ And since we have been made right in God's sight by the blood of Christ, he will certainly save us from God's condemnation.¹⁰ For since our friendship with God was restored by the death of his Son while we were still his enemies, we will certainly be saved through the life of his Son.¹¹ So now we can rejoice in our wonderful new relationship with God because our Lord Jesus Christ has made us friends of God.

HOPENOTE

Unfailing Hope

And this hope will not lead to disappointment. For we know how dearly God loves us, because he has given us the Holy Spirit to fill our hearts with his love (Romans 5:5).

Even Christians can sometimes feel hopeless and powerless to overcome adversities. Maybe you feel trapped in your job, or your marriage is in trouble, and there doesn't seem to be an answer for your situation. You may have a child who is on the wrong path, or maybe you are single and have given up any hope of ever meeting the right person. But no matter where you are, God can turn your situation around—and it could happen today.

Dare to get your hope back. Dare to get your dreams back. God's hope is such a powerful thing that it can keep you going when practically nothing else can. Faith gives substance to things you are hoping for. You can't have faith if you don't first have hope. Let this promise sink down into your heart today. God is working to develop a healthy, established sense of hope in you today, and His hope never fails and never disappoints!

Adam and Christ Contrasted

¹² When Adam sinned, sin entered the world. Adam's sin brought death, so death spread to everyone, for everyone sinned. ¹³ Yes, people sinned even before the law was given. But it was not counted as sin because there was not yet any law to break. ¹⁴ Still, everyone died—from the time of Adam to the time of Moses—even those who did not disobey an explicit commandment of God, as Adam did. Now Adam is a symbol, a representation of Christ, who was yet to come. ¹⁵ But there is a great difference between Adam's sin and God's gracious gift. For the sin of this one man, Adam, brought death to many. But even greater is God's wonderful grace and his gift of forgiveness to many through this other man, Jesus Christ. ¹⁶ And the result of God's gracious gift is very different from the result of that one man's sin. For Adam's sin led to condemnation, but God's free gift leads to our being made right with God, even though we are guilty of many sins. ¹⁷ For the sin of this one man, Adam, caused death to rule over many. But even greater is God's wonderful grace and his gift of righteousness, for all who receive it will live in triumph over sin and death through this one man, Jesus Christ.

¹⁸ Yes, Adam's one sin brings condemnation for everyone, but Christ's one act of righteousness brings a right relationship with God and new life for everyone.¹⁹ Because one person disobeyed God, many became sinners. But because one other person obeyed God, many will be made righteous.

²⁰ God's law was given so that all people could see how sinful they were. But as people sinned more and more, God's wonderful grace became more abundant.²¹ So just as sin ruled over all people and brought them to death, now God's wonderful grace rules instead, giving us right standing with God and resulting in eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Chapter 6

Sin's Power Is Broken

Well then, should we keep on sinning so that God can show us more and more of his wonderful grace?² Of course not! Since we have died to sin, how can we continue to live in it?³ Or have you forgotten that when we were joined with Christ Jesus in baptism, we joined him in his death?⁴ For we died and were buried with Christ by baptism. And just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glorious power of the Father, now we also may live new lives.

⁵ Since we have been united with him in his death, we will also be raised to life as he was.⁶ We know that our old sinful selves were crucified with Christ so that sin might lose its power in our lives. We are no longer slaves to sin.⁷ For when we died with Christ we were set free from the power of sin.⁸ And since we died with Christ, we know we will also live with him.⁹ We are sure of this because Christ was raised from the dead, and he will never die again. Death no longer has any power over him.¹⁰ When he died, he died once to break the power of sin. But now that he lives, he lives for the glory of God.¹¹ So you also should consider yourselves to be dead to the power of sin and alive to God through Christ Jesus.

¹² Do not let sin control the way you live; * do not give in to sinful desires.¹³ Do not let any part of your body become an instrument of evil to serve sin. Instead, give yourselves completely to God, for you were dead, but now you have new life. So use your whole body as an instrument to do what is right for the glory of God.¹⁴ Sin is no longer your master, for you no longer live under the requirements of the law. Instead, you live under the freedom of God's grace.

¹⁵ Well then, since God's grace has set us free from the law, does that mean we can go on sinning? Of course not! ¹⁶ Don't you realize that you become the slave of whatever you choose to obey? You can be a slave to sin, which leads to death, or you can choose to obey God, which leads to righteous living.¹⁷ Thank God! Once you were slaves of sin, but now you wholeheartedly obey this teaching we have given you.¹⁸ Now you are free from your slavery to sin, and you have become slaves to righteous living.

¹⁹ Because of the weakness of your human nature, I am using the illustration of slavery to help you understand all this. Previously, you let yourselves be slaves to impurity and lawlessness, which led ever deeper into sin. Now you must give yourselves to be slaves to righteous living so that you will become holy.

²⁰ When you were slaves to sin, you were free from the obligation to do right.²¹ And what was the result? You are now ashamed of the things you used to do, things that end in eternal doom.²² But now you are free from the power of sin and have become slaves of God. Now you do those things that lead to holiness and result in eternal life.²³ For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life through Christ Jesus our Lord.

HOPENOTE

Set Apart

But now you are free from the power of sin and have become slaves of God. Now you do those things that lead to holiness and result in eternal life (Romans 6:22).

Holiness is a powerful force in our lives. It leads us to eternal life. Holiness simply means being “set apart.” You are set apart when you accept Jesus as your Lord and Savior. He makes His home in you, and His holiness lives on the inside of you, too.

The Bible tells us that without holiness, no one can see God. God sets us apart and calls us His own, but it’s up to us to continue living a life that is set apart from sin and destructive influences. We have to set ourselves apart from our old ways, old behaviors, and old mindsets. Remember, God chose to set you apart for Himself because He loves you. He doesn't want anything to keep you from His promises and blessings. Make the decision to let go of anything that would hold you back today. Maybe it is a group of friends that are tempting you to do the wrong things, or a habit or addiction that keeps you from moving forward. Remember, you are set apart for God's purposes. You have a divine destiny. You were created for greatness. You are filled with purpose, power, and possibilities.

Chapter 7

No Longer Bound to the Law

Now, dear brothers and sisters*—you who are familiar with the law—don't you know that the law applies only while a person is living? ² For example, when a woman marries, the law binds her to her husband as long as he is alive. But if he dies, the laws of marriage no longer apply to her. ³ So while her husband is alive, she would be committing adultery if she married another man. But if her husband dies, she is free from that law and does not commit adultery when she remarries.

HOPENOTE

Choose to Follow the Spirit

I don't really understand myself, for I want to do what is right, but I don't do it. Instead, I do what I hate (Romans 7:15).

Do you ever struggle to completely follow God, but sometimes feel like you're fighting against yourself? Paul understood, because he wanted to do what he knew was right, but he often ended up doing the very thing he resisted. Why is that? First of all, understand that you are a three-part being made in the image of a three-part God. You are a spirit—that's the eternal part of you that connects with God; you have a soul—that's your mind, will, and emotions; and you live in a physical body. Ephesians tells us that the enemy comes against us in our minds and our souls. His goal is to drag us down and keep us from making right choices. But when you've spent time connecting with God through prayer, worship, and study of the Word, your spirit is strong, and you can make good decisions. When your spirit is strong, you will be able to hear God more clearly, and you will overcome temptation. Everyone is tempted by the enemy, but you don't have to follow temptation. God has empowered you by His Spirit to live as an overcomer in every area of your life. Choose to follow the Spirit, and you'll move forward in the victory God has prepared for you.

⁴ So, my dear brothers and sisters, this is the point: You died to the power of the law when you died with Christ. And now you are united with the one who was raised from the dead. As a result, we can produce a harvest of good deeds for God. ⁵ When we were controlled by our old nature,* sinful desires were at work within us, and the law aroused these evil desires that produced a harvest of sinful deeds, resulting in death. ⁶ But now we have been released from the law, for we died to it and are no longer captive to its power. Now we can serve God, not in the old way of obeying the letter of the law, but in the new way of living in the Spirit.

HOPEFORTODAY

Keep Growing

I want to do what is good, but I don't. I don't want to do what is wrong, but I do it anyway (Romans 7:19).

I know we all have areas that we've struggled with for years and years, and I'd love to tell you that you only have to quote one Scripture or pray one prayer and it'll go away. But unfortunately, most of the time, that's not the way it works. God changes us little by little. Just as you didn't grow up physically overnight, you won't instantly grow up spiritually overnight. So be determined, stick with it, and keep making right decisions.

We've all heard that saying, "Practice makes perfect." And that's true, but I've found sometimes we're practicing the wrong things. I've had people tell me, "Victoria, I'm just a real negative person. My parents were negative. My grandparents were negative. This is just who I am." But with all due respect, that's not who you really are. That's not the way God made you. God made you to be free. He didn't make us to be bound by addictions, unorganized, and hot-tempered, going around frustrated and negative. No, God made each one of us to be a person of excellence. He made you to be happy, healthy, and whole. But too often, we've developed wrong mindsets. We go around telling ourselves, "I can't change. I can't break this habit. This is just who I am." No, the problem is we're practicing the wrong things.

The apostle Paul said in Romans chapter 7, "The things I want to do I don't. And the things I don't want to do, I end up doing." He was having this same struggle of doing the right thing. And in verse 19, a couple of verses down, he gives us insight into why he's having this struggle. He basically said, "For I failed to practice the things I desire to do." He was saying, I haven't developed good habits in these areas. I'm not practicing what I know I should be doing. The truth is, we are all practicing something. And the way we develop good habits is by practicing the right things, the right way. Some people are really good at losing their tempers because they practice it a couple of times a week. Some people are good at being impatient because they practice it every morning on the drive to work. I know people who are good at being negative because they constantly fill their mind with negative thoughts. Remember, repetition is what forms a habit. That's what puts us on autopilot. So, purpose in your heart today to begin practicing the things you want in your life. Practice happiness. Smile at a few people today, you might be surprised how they respond. Practice giving. When you give to others, you will soon discover that you are the one that is truly receiving the blessings.

God's Law Reveals Our Sin

⁷ Well then, am I suggesting that the law of God is sinful? Of course not! In fact, it was the law that showed me my sin. I would never have known that coveting is wrong if the law had not said, "You must not covet."^{*} ⁸ But sin used this command to arouse all kinds of covetous desires within me! If there were no law, sin would not have that power. ⁹ At one time I lived without understanding the law. But when I learned the command not to covet, for instance, the power of sin came to life, ¹⁰ and I died. So I discovered that the law's commands, which were supposed to bring life, brought spiritual death instead. ¹¹ Sin took advantage of those commands and deceived me; it used the commands to kill me. ¹² But still, the law itself is holy, and its commands are holy and right and good.

¹³ But how can that be? Did the law, which is good, cause my death? Of course not! Sin used what was good to bring about my condemnation to death. So we can see how terrible sin really is. It uses God's good commands for its own evil purposes.

Struggling with Sin

¹⁴ So the trouble is not with the law, for it is spiritual and good. The trouble is with me, for I am all too human, a slave to sin. ¹⁵ I don't really understand myself, for I want to do what is right, but I don't do it. Instead, I do what I hate. ¹⁶ But if I know that what I am doing is wrong, this shows that I agree that the law is good. ¹⁷ So I am not the one doing wrong; it is sin living in me that does it.

¹⁸ And I know that nothing good lives in me, that is, in my sinful nature.* I want to do what is right, but I can't. ¹⁹ I want to do what is good, but I don't. I don't want to do what is wrong, but I do it anyway. ²⁰ But if I do what I don't want to do, I am not really the one doing wrong; it is sin living in me that does it.

²¹ I have discovered this principle of life—that when I want to do what is right, I inevitably do what is wrong. ²² I love God's law with all my heart. ²³ But there is another power* within me that is at war with my mind. This power makes me a slave to the sin that is still within me. ²⁴ Oh, what a miserable person I am! Who will free me from this life that is dominated by sin and death? ²⁵ Thank God! The answer is in Jesus Christ our Lord. So you see how it is: In my mind I really want to obey God's law, but because of my sinful nature I am a slave to sin.

Chapter 8

Life in the Spirit

So now there is no condemnation for those who belong to Christ Jesus.² And because you belong to him, the power* of the life-giving Spirit has freed you* from the power of sin that leads to death.³ The law of Moses was unable to save us because of the weakness of our sinful nature.* So God did what the law could not do. He sent his own Son in a body like the bodies we sinners have. And in that body God declared an end to sin's control over us by giving his Son as a sacrifice for our sins.⁴ He did this so that the just requirement of the law would be fully satisfied for us, who no longer follow our sinful nature but instead follow the Spirit.

HOPENOTE

No Condemnation

So now there is no condemnation for those who belong to Christ Jesus (Romans 8:1).

Jesus came to break the curse of sin, shame and condemnation in our lives. He came so that we could see things the way God sees them. Do you know how God sees you? He sees you as valuable. He sees you as strong. He sees you as capable, talented, and trustworthy. The voice of condemnation says exactly the opposite. Condemnation is a loss of value. It's the accusing voice of the enemy that says, "You're not good enough. You'll never be good enough. You're a failure." Condemnation is never from God. The Bible tells us there is no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus.

When you embrace and declare God's truth in your life, you activate His power to overcome the voice of condemnation. No matter how you may be feeling, wake up every morning and declare that the Greater One lives in you. Declare that you are strong in the Lord and in the power of His might. Declare that He loves you and has called you according to His purpose. Embrace His truth so you can overcome condemnation. Choose to see yourself as valuable, the way God sees you.

⁵ Those who are dominated by the sinful nature think about sinful things, but those who are controlled by the Holy Spirit think about things that please the Spirit. ⁶ So letting your sinful nature control your mind leads to death. But letting the Spirit control your mind leads to life and peace. ⁷ For the sinful nature is always hostile to God. It never did obey God's laws, and it never will. ⁸ That's why those who are still under the control of their sinful nature can never please God.

HOPENOTE

The Power of the Resurrection

The Spirit of God, who raised Jesus from the dead, lives in you. And just as God raised Christ Jesus from the dead, he will give life to your mortal bodies by this same Spirit living within you (Romans 8:11).

As Christians, we worship the One who conquered death, hell, and the grave. Christ's resurrection and the hope it brings separate the Christian faith from all others. We are continually amazed at the power that was displayed at the Resurrection!

When you accept Jesus as your Lord and Savior, that same power lives inside of you! Because Christ conquered all things, you can conquer all things through His power. With God living in you, all things are possible! You are more than a conqueror! You have a champion living on the inside of you. Stand strong in faith, knowing that He has equipped you with everything you need to have victory in every area of your life.

⁹ But you are not controlled by your sinful nature. You are controlled by the Spirit if you have the Spirit of God living in you. (And remember that those who do not have the Spirit of Christ living in them do not belong to him at all.)¹⁰ And Christ lives within you, so even though your body will die because of sin, the Spirit gives you life* because you have been made right with God.¹¹ The Spirit of God, who raised Jesus from the dead, lives in you. And just as God raised Christ Jesus from the dead, he will give life to your mortal bodies by this same Spirit living within you.

¹² Therefore, dear brothers and sisters,* you have no obligation to do what your sinful nature urges you to do.¹³ For if you live by its dictates, you will die. But if through the power of the Spirit you put to death the deeds of your sinful nature,* you will live.¹⁴ For all who are led by the Spirit of God are children* of God.

HOPENOTE

Led By the Spirit

For all who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God (Romans 8:14).

Have you ever started to do something when you had a little nudging on the inside of you telling you to do something completely different? Sometimes it's easy to override that little inward voice, but that small voice deep on the inside of you is often how God speaks to you. It's how He leads you by His Spirit. When you follow the Spirit's leading by faith—even when it doesn't make sense—you are making a declaration with your actions that you are a child of the Most High God. Those who are led by the Spirit of God are the sons and daughters of God. The more you yield yourself to His leading, the easier it becomes to follow Him. You'll hear His voice in the midnight hour giving you direction about which steps to take. You'll hear His voice affirming you and guiding you into everlasting peace.

Remember, God leads us by peace and joy. He's never condemning, but He always leads you into truth. Take time today to tune out the other voices so that you can be led by His Spirit into the life of victory the Lord has in store for you!

¹⁵ So you have not received a spirit that makes you fearful slaves. Instead, you received God's Spirit when he adopted you as his own children.* Now we call him, "Abba, Father."* ¹⁶ For his Spirit joins with our spirit to affirm that we are God's children. ¹⁷ And since we are his children, we are his heirs. In fact, together with Christ we are heirs of God's glory. But if we are to share his glory, we must also share his suffering.

The Future Glory

¹⁸ Yet what we suffer now is nothing compared to the glory he will reveal to us later. ¹⁹ For all creation is waiting eagerly for that future day when God will reveal who his children really are. ²⁰ Against its will, all creation was subjected to God's curse.

But with eager hope,²¹ the creation looks forward to the day when it will join God's children in glorious freedom from death and decay.²² For we know that all creation has been groaning as in the pains of childbirth right up to the present time.²³ And we believers also groan, even though we have the Holy Spirit within us as a foretaste of future glory, for we long for our bodies to be released from sin and suffering. We, too, wait with eager hope for the day when God will give us our full rights as his adopted children,* including the new bodies he has promised us.²⁴ We were given this hope when we were saved. (If we already have something, we don't need to hope* for it.²⁵ But if we look forward to something we don't yet have, we must wait patiently and confidently.)

²⁶ And the Holy Spirit helps us in our weakness. For example, we don't know what God wants us to pray for. But the Holy Spirit prays for us with groanings that cannot be expressed in words.²⁷ And the Father who knows all hearts knows what the Spirit is saying, for the Spirit pleads for us believers* in harmony with God's own will.²⁸ And we know that God causes everything to work together* for the good of those who love God and are called according to his purpose for them.²⁹ For God knew his people in advance, and he chose them to become like his Son, so that his Son would be the firstborn* among many brothers and sisters.³⁰ And having chosen them, he called them to come to him. And having called them, he gave them right standing with himself. And having given them right standing, he gave them his glory.

HOPENOTE

On Your Side

And we know that God causes everything to work together for the good of those who love God and are called according to his purpose for them (Romans 8:28).

God is always at work behind the scenes in your life. No matter what you may be facing today, no matter what trial you may be going through, God has a plan to turn things around in your favor. Right now, He is working out a plan for your good. Right now, He is orchestrating the right people to come across your path. He is lining up the right opportunities for you. You may not see it in the natural, but look with your eyes of faith. Keep standing. Keep believing. Keep hoping. Keep following His Word. Focus on His goodness in your life, knowing that He rewards the people who diligently seek after Him. As you meditate on the faithfulness of God and show your love for Him by following His Word, you will see His plan come to pass. Because “The LORD will withhold no good thing from those who do what is right” (Psalm 84:11).

Nothing Can Separate Us from God's Love

³¹ What shall we say about such wonderful things as these? If

God is for us, who can ever be against us? ³² Since he did not spare even his own Son but gave him up for us all, won't he also give us everything else? ³³ Who dares accuse us whom God has chosen for his own? No one—for God himself has given us right standing with himself. ³⁴ Who then will condemn us? No one—for Christ Jesus died for us and was raised to life for us, and he is sitting in the place of honor at God's right hand, pleading for us.

³⁵ Can anything ever separate us from Christ's love? Does it mean he no longer loves us if we have trouble or calamity, or are persecuted, or hungry, or destitute, or in danger, or threatened with death? ³⁶ (As the Scriptures say, "For your sake we are killed every day; we are being slaughtered like sheep.") ³⁷ No, despite all these things, overwhelming victory is ours through Christ, who loved us.

HOPENOTE

God Is for You

What shall we say about such wonderful things as these? If God is for us, who can ever be against us? (Romans 8:31).

As a believer in Jesus and His child, God is on your side today! If you haven't thought about it yet today, remember, you are created for greatness. You have the seed of Almighty God inside of you. There is no obstacle that can stop you. There is no disadvantage that can hold you back. You're in the palm of God's hand, and He has equipped and empowered you for everything. When God is on your side, He sets the right people in your path. In fact, He's already released favor into your future. He's planning for you to come in to new seasons of increase.

Have you given up on a dream? God is on your side, and He wants to resurrect it. Have you given up on a family member? God is on your side, and He wants to restore that relationship. God is on your side, and He has a plan for victory in every area of your life. Let that sink down into your heart today. Begin to expect His favor. Expect Him to work in your life. Focus on the fact that God has equipped you. He has anointed you. Your best days are still out in front of you! If God is for you, no one can rise against you! As you meditate on this promise, it will become real to you. You will walk in God's favor and victory!

38 And I am convinced that nothing can ever separate us from God's love. Neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons,* neither our fears for today nor our worries about tomorrow—not even the powers of hell can separate us from God's love. 39 No power in the sky above or in the earth below—indeed, nothing in all creation will ever be able to separate us from the love of God that is revealed in Christ Jesus our Lord.

God's Selection of Israel

With Christ as my witness, I speak with utter truthfulness. My conscience and the Holy Spirit confirm it.² My heart is filled with bitter sorrow and unending grief³ for my people, my Jewish brothers and sisters.* I would be willing to be forever cursed—cut off from Christ!—if that would save them.⁴ They are the people of Israel, chosen to be God's adopted children.* God revealed his glory to them. He made covenants with them and gave them his law. He gave them the privilege of worshiping him and receiving his wonderful promises.⁵ Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob are their ancestors, and Christ himself was an Israelite as far as his human nature is concerned. And he is God, the one who rules over everything and is worthy of eternal praise! Amen.*

HOPENOTE

Inseparable

And I am convinced that nothing can ever separate us from God's love. Neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither our fears for today nor our worries about tomorrow—not even the powers of hell can separate us from God's love (Romans 8:38).

God's love goes way beyond any human love you have ever experienced! People may come and go from your life, but God is always with you. He will never leave you nor forsake you. Human love may be conditional, but God's love is supernatural; it's unconditional, and it knows no limits. There's nothing you can do to earn His love, and nothing you can do to stop His love.

The Scripture tells us that His love is patient and kind; His love believes the best in you. His love redeems and restores you. No matter what you've been told, or what you may think about yourself today, you are His most prized possession. There's nothing that can separate you from His love! Remember, faith is activated by love. As you allow Him to flood you with His love, your faith will be ignited, and you'll be empowered to live the abundant life He has for you!

⁶ Well then, has God failed to fulfill his promise to Israel? No, for not all who are born into the nation of Israel are truly members of God's people! ⁷ Being descendants of Abraham doesn't make them truly Abraham's children. For the Scriptures say, "Isaac is the son through whom your descendants will be counted,"* though Abraham had other children, too. ⁸ This means that Abraham's physical descendants are not necessarily children of God. Only the children of the promise are considered to be Abraham's children. ⁹ For God had promised, "I will return about this time next year, and Sarah will have a son.”*

10 This son was our ancestor Isaac. When he married Rebekah, she gave birth to twins.* 11 But before they were born, before they had done anything good or bad, she received a message from God. (This message shows that God chooses people according to his own purposes; 12 he calls people, but not according to their good or bad works.) She was told, “Your older son will serve your younger son.”* 13 In the words of the Scriptures, “I loved Jacob, but I rejected Esau.”*

14 Are we saying, then, that God was unfair? Of course not!
15 For God said to Moses,

“I will show mercy to anyone I choose, and I will show compassion to anyone I choose.”*

16 So it is God who decides to show mercy. We can neither choose it nor work for it.

17 For the Scriptures say that God told Pharaoh, “I have appointed you for the very purpose of displaying my power in you and to spread my fame throughout the earth.”* 18 So you see, God chooses to show mercy to some, and he chooses to harden the hearts of others so they refuse to listen.

19 Well then, you might say, “Why does God blame people for not responding? Haven’t they simply done what he makes them do?”

20 No, don’t say that. Who are you, a mere human being, to argue with God? Should the thing that was created say to the one who created it, “Why have you made me like this?” 21 When a potter makes jars out of clay, doesn’t he have a right to use the same lump of clay to make one jar for decoration and another to throw garbage into? ²² In the same way, even though God has the right to show his anger and his power, he is very patient with those on whom his anger falls, who are destined for destruction. ²³ He does this to make the riches of his glory shine even brighter on those to whom he shows mercy, who were prepared in advance for glory. ²⁴ And we are among those whom he selected, both from the Jews and from the Gentiles.

²⁵ Concerning the Gentiles, God says in the prophecy of Hosea,

“Those who were not my people,
I will now call my people.
And I will love those whom I did not love before.”*

²⁶ And,

“Then, at the place where they were told,
‘You are not my people,’ there they will be called ‘children of the living God.’”*

²⁷ And concerning Israel, Isaiah the prophet cried out,

“Though the people of Israel are as numerous as the sand of the seashore,
only a remnant will be saved.

²⁸ For the LORD will carry out his sentence upon the earth quickly and with finality.”*

29 And Isaiah said the same thing in another place:

“If the LORD of Heaven’s Armies had not spared a few of our children, we would have been wiped out like Sodom, destroyed like Gomorrah.”*

Israel’s Unbelief

30 What does all this mean? Even though the Gentiles were not trying to follow God’s standards, they were made right with God. And it was by faith that this took place. 31 But the people of Israel, who tried so hard to get right with God by keeping the law, never succeeded. 32 Why not? Because they were trying to get right with God by keeping the law* instead of by trusting in him. They stumbled over the great rock in their path.

33 God warned them of this in the Scriptures when he said,

“I am placing a stone in Jerusalem* that makes people stumble, a rock that makes them fall.
But anyone who trusts in him will never be disgraced.”*

Chapter 10

Dear brothers and sisters,* the longing of my heart and my prayer to God is for the people of Israel to be saved. 2 I know what enthusiasm they have for God, but it is misdirected zeal. 3 For they don’t understand God’s way of making people right with himself. Refusing to accept God’s way, they cling to their own way of getting right with God by trying to keep the law. ⁴ For Christ has already accomplished the purpose for which the law was given.* As a result, all who believe in him are made right with God.

Salvation Is for Everyone

⁵ For Moses writes that the law's way of making a person right with God requires obedience to all of its commands.* ⁶ But faith's way of getting right with God says, "Don't say in your heart, 'Who will go up to heaven?' (to bring Christ down to earth). ⁷ And don't say, 'Who will go down to the place of the dead?' (to bring Christ back to life again)." ⁸ In fact, it says,

"The message is very close at hand;
it is on your lips and in your heart."*

And that message is the very message about faith that we preach: ⁹ If you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. ¹⁰ For it is by believing in your heart that you are made right with God, and it is by confessing with your mouth that you are saved. ¹¹ As the Scriptures tell us, "Anyone who trusts in him will never be disgraced."* ¹² Jew and Gentile* are the same in this respect. They have the same Lord, who gives generously to all who call on him. ¹³ For "Everyone who calls on the name of the LORD will be saved."*

HOPENOTE

Confess and Believe

If you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved (Romans 10:9).

Salvation comes when you confess that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that He was raised from the dead. In the same way, God's Word becomes alive in our hearts when we confess and believe it.

What are you confessing today? What are you saying about your situation? Are you confessing the Word and believing that God is at work behind the scenes, working things out in your favor? Or do you talk about your problems and always believe the worst? Whatever you confess and put your faith in will come to pass in your life. If you've been saying the wrong things, simply repent today (which literally means "turn around"). You can turn around and start confessing and believing the Word. Don't just let your mind and mouth wander any longer. Write down some Scripture verses and take them with you. Be determined to speak the Word. As you allow His truth to sink down into your heart, you will live out the salvation God has provided in Christ.

¹⁴ But how can they call on him to save them unless they believe in him? And how can they believe in him if they have never heard about him? And how can they hear about him unless someone tells them? ¹⁵ And how will anyone go and tell them without being sent? That is why the Scriptures say, “How beautiful are the feet of messengers who bring good news!”*

¹⁶ But not everyone welcomes the Good News, for Isaiah the prophet said, “LORD, who has believed our message?”* ¹⁷ So faith comes from hearing, that is, hearing the Good News about Christ. ¹⁸ But I ask, have the people of Israel actually heard the message? Yes, they have:

“The message has gone throughout the earth, and the words to all the world.”*

HOPENOTE

How Faith Comes

So faith comes from hearing, that is, hearing the Good News about Christ (Romans 10:17).

Do you want more faith in your life? Well, the good news is that your faith in God can grow and increase. Notice the Scripture doesn't say, “Faith comes by having heard the Word of God one time.” It's hearing—in the present, continual tense. Sure, God's Word can transform us in an instant, but we also need to hear God's principles and promises over and over again before they become active in our lives. The truth of God's Word chisels away at the doubt and unbelief that's been built up over the years. God's truth sets us free and sets His plan for our lives in motion.

Just as a seed needs water daily to grow, your spirit needs the Word of God poured into it daily. The more you hear God's promises, the more you know Him, the more you will be able to believe Him! I encourage you to select a few scriptures to meditate on daily. Write them down and carry them in your purse or wallet. The more you hear the Word of God, the more your faith will grow, and you will move forward living by God's principles and experiencing the power that comes from a life of obedience.

19 But I ask, did the people of Israel really understand? Yes, they did, for even in the time of Moses, God said,

“I will rouse your jealousy through people who are not even a nation.

I will provoke your anger through the foolish Gentiles.”*

20 And later Isaiah spoke boldly for God, saying,

“I was found by people who were not looking for me.

I showed myself to those who were not asking for me.”*

21 But regarding Israel, God said,

“All day long I opened my arms to them, but they were disobedient and rebellious.”*

Chapter 11

God's Mercy on Israel

I ask, then, has God rejected his own people, the nation of Israel? Of course not! I myself am an Israelite, a descendant of Abraham and a member of the tribe of Benjamin.

2 No, God has not rejected his own people, whom he chose from the very beginning. Do you realize what the Scriptures say about this? Elijah the prophet complained to God about the people of Israel and said,³ “LORD, they have killed your prophets and torn down your altars. I am the only one left, and now they are trying to kill me, too.”*

4 And do you remember God's reply? He said, “No, I have 7,000 others who have never bowed down to Baal!”*

5 It is the same today, for a few of the people of Israel* have remained faithful because of God's grace—his undeserved kindness in choosing them.⁶ And since it is through God's kindness, then it is not by their good works. For in that case, God's grace would not be what it really is—free and undeserved.

7 So this is the situation: Most of the people of Israel have not found the favor of God they are looking for so earnestly. A few have—the ones God has chosen—but the hearts of the rest were hardened.⁸ As the Scriptures say, “God has put them into a deep sleep.

To this day he has shut their eyes so they do not see,
and closed their ears so they do not hear.”*

⁹ Likewise, David said,

“Let their bountiful table become a snare,
a trap that makes them think all is well.
Let their blessings cause them to stumble, and let them get what they deserve.

¹⁰ Let their eyes go blind so they cannot see,
and let their backs be bent forever.”*

¹¹ Did God’s people stumble and fall beyond recovery? Of course not! They were disobedient, so God made salvation available to the Gentiles. But he wanted his own people to become jealous and claim it for themselves. ¹² Now if the Gentiles were enriched because the people of Israel turned down God’s offer of salvation, think how much greater a blessing the world will share when they finally accept it.

¹³ I am saying all this especially for you Gentiles. God has appointed me as the apostle to the Gentiles. I stress this, ¹⁴ for I want somehow to make the people of Israel jealous of what you Gentiles have, so I might save some of them. ¹⁵ For since their rejection meant that God offered salvation to the rest of the world, their acceptance will be even more wonderful. It will be life for those who were dead! ¹⁶ And since Abraham and the other patriarchs were holy, their descendants will also be holy—just as the entire batch of dough is holy because the portion given as an offering is holy. For if the roots of the tree are holy, the branches will be, too.

17 But some of these branches from Abraham's tree—some of the people of Israel—have been broken off. And you Gentiles, who were branches from a wild olive tree, have been grafted in. So now you also receive the blessing God has promised Abraham and his children, sharing in the rich nourishment from the root of God's special olive tree. 18 But you must not brag about being grafted in to replace the branches that were broken off. You are just a branch, not the root.

19 "Well," you may say, "those branches were broken off to make room for me." 20 Yes, but remember—those branches were broken off because they didn't believe in Christ, and you are there because you do believe. So don't think highly of yourself, but fear what could happen. 21 For if God did not spare the original branches, he won't* spare you either.

22 Notice how God is both kind and severe. He is severe toward those who disobeyed, but kind to you if you continue to trust in his kindness. But if you stop trusting, you also will be cut off. 23 And if the people of Israel turn from their unbelief, they will be grafted in again, for God has the power to graft them back into the tree. 24 You, by nature, were a branch cut from a wild olive tree. So if God was willing to do something contrary to nature by grafting you into his cultivated tree, he will be far more eager to graft the original branches back into the tree where they belong.

God's Mercy Is for Everyone

25 I want you to understand this mystery, dear brothers and sisters,* so that you will not feel proud about yourselves. Some of the people of Israel have hard hearts, but this will last only until the full number of Gentiles comes to Christ.²⁶ And so all Israel will be saved. As the Scriptures say,

“The one who rescues will come from Jerusalem,* and he will turn Israel* away from ungodliness.

²⁷ And this is my covenant with them, that I will take away their sins.”*

²⁸ Many of the people of Israel are now enemies of the Good News, and this benefits you Gentiles. Yet they are still the people he loves because he chose their ancestors Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.²⁹ For God’s gifts and his call can never be withdrawn.³⁰ Once, you Gentiles were rebels against God, but when the people of Israel rebelled against him, God was merciful to you instead.³¹ Now they are the rebels, and God’s mercy has come to you so that they, too, will share* in God’s mercy.³² For God has imprisoned everyone in disobedience so he could have mercy on everyone.

³³ Oh, how great are God’s riches and wisdom and knowledge! How impossible it is for us to understand his decisions and his ways!

³⁴ For who can know the LORD’s thoughts?

Who knows enough to give him advice?*

³⁵ And who has given him so much that he needs to pay it back?*

³⁶ For everything comes from him and exists by his power and is intended for his glory. All glory to him forever! Amen.

Chapter 12

A Living Sacrifice to God

And so, dear brothers and sisters,* I plead with you to give your bodies to God because of all he has done for you. Let them be a living and holy sacrifice—the kind he will find acceptable. This is truly the way to worship him.* ² Don't copy the behavior and customs of this world, but let God transform you into a new person by changing the way you think. Then you will learn to know God's will for you, which is good and pleasing and perfect.

³ Because of the privilege and authority* God has given me, I give each of you this warning: Don't think you are better than you really are. Be honest in your evaluation of yourselves, measuring yourselves by the faith God has given us.* ⁴ Just as our bodies have many parts and each part has a special function,⁵ so it is with Christ's body. We are many parts of one body, and we all belong to each other.

HOPEFORTODAY

Give Yourself Completely to Him

And so, dear brothers and sisters, I plead with you to give your bodies to God because of all he has done for you. Let them be a living and holy sacrifice—the kind he will find acceptable. This is truly the way to worship him (Romans 12:1).

There are a lot of times we don't realize it's our own thinking that's keeping us from being our best. God is constantly trying to plant new seeds in our heart, telling us that we can accomplish our dreams, we can break addictions, and we can overcome the past. We begin moving forward in the path of victory by presenting ourselves completely to God.

But too often because of the condition of our hearts, our internal soil, those seeds cannot take root. Instead of agreeing with God and thinking “can do” thoughts, “possibility” thoughts, “well able” thoughts, we do just the opposite. We think, “I can't do that. I'm not talented. I'm too old. I've been through too much.” Our heart soil is contaminated by negative thinking. That's why it's so important to examine your thought life. What are you thinking about? Have you allowed negative strongholds to form?

That's the point made in Romans 12:2, that the way we think can be changed by the Word of God. You have to reprogram your internal “software” with what God says about you. You have to give your thought life over to Him. When negative thoughts come, thoughts contrary to the Word of God, just be quick to say, “No, thanks. That's not for me. That may be the way it's been, but that's not the way it's going to stay. I know who I am—a child of the Most High God.” Have an attitude of victory. Declare what God says about you. Know deep down that you are well able to do all that God has called you to do.

Remember, you are created in the image of Almighty God. You are His masterpiece. He has crowned you with honor and favor. He has equipped you with talent, creativity, and potential. You're not meant to go through life with addictions, small dreams, low self-esteem, or a defeated mindset. That's not who you really are. That may be the way you've been trained, but the good news is you can be retrained. You can renew your mind and experience the kind of life that Jesus came to give.

⁶ In his grace, God has given us different gifts for doing certain things well. So if God has given you the ability to prophesy, speak out with as much faith as God has given you. ⁷ If your gift is serving others, serve them well. If you are a teacher, teach well. ⁸ If your gift is to encourage others, be encouraging. If it is giving, give generously. If God has given you leadership ability, take the responsibility seriously. And if you have a gift for showing kindness to others, do it gladly.

HOPENOTE

Transform Your Thinking

Don't copy the behavior and customs of this world, but let God transform you into a new person by changing the way you think. Then you will learn to know God's will for you, which is good and pleasing and perfect (Romans 12:2).

Did you know that your life will move in the direction of your most dominant thoughts? You can choose to think according to the world's system or according to God's system. The world's system says to "look out for number one," to do whatever you can to get ahead and make yourself happy. But God's system says to "consider others as more important than yourself," you find happiness and blessing by serving and putting others first.

God doesn't want us to have an attitude that is self-centered or jealous or greedy. He knows that those thoughts end in destruction. God wants us to live a blessed and prosperous life. That's why the Scripture tells us to renew our minds, or transform our thinking. We have to make sure our thoughts are the same as God's thoughts. Just like a computer, whatever you allow into your mind is what will come out in your attitude and actions. The more you meditate on God's Word, the more you will transform your thinking to be like God's thinking. Choose today to focus on the Word of God and allow your mind to be renewed.

HOPENOTE

Made with a Purpose

In his grace, God has given us different gifts for doing certain things well. So if God has given you the ability to prophesy, speak out with as much faith as God has given you (Romans 12:6).

God put each of us here with gifts, talents, and abilities for a specific purpose. Your gifts and your purpose go hand in hand. There's nothing more exciting than to discover and live out your purpose.

Your purpose starts with worshiping God and following His commands. God is constantly at work in you! He has an amazing plan for your life, and He will reveal it to you step by step. As you keep your heart open to Him, He will lead and guide you.

Don't let the enemy convince you that you've been forgotten or left out. The Scripture promises us that God has given each of us gifts. You have talents, you have abilities, you have natural strengths, and you need to be aware of what they are. There is something important that only you can accomplish for God. There are people that only you can reach. There are people who need your love. They need your gifts. Find out what you enjoy. Find out what you're good at; then use those gifts for His glory. Remember, the Bible says that your gifts will make room for you (Proverbs 18:16). As you step out in your gifts, doors will be open for you, and you will move forward into the destiny He has uniquely prepared for you.

⁹ Don't just pretend to love others. Really love them. Hate what is wrong. Hold tightly to what is good. ¹⁰ Love each other with genuine affection,* and take delight in honoring each other. ¹¹ Never be lazy, but work hard and serve the Lord enthusiastically.* ¹² Rejoice in our confident hope. Be patient in trouble, and keep on praying. ¹³ When God's people are in need, be ready to help them. Always be eager to practice hospitality.

HOPENOTE

Live in Harmony

Live in harmony with each other. Don't be too proud to enjoy the company of ordinary people. And don't think you know it all! (Romans 12:16).

The Scripture says in Romans 12:16 that we need to “live in harmony.” In music, the harmony isn’t the same line as the melody. The harmony line compliments the melody to enhance the music. In the same way, when we live in harmony with the people around us, it doesn’t mean we have to be exactly like everyone else. It means we find a way to work with them so that our lives can be a pleasing song to the Lord.

In most cases, living in harmony is going to require us to start making some adjustments, not focusing on other people’s faults, not magnifying what you don’t like about them, but instead, giving them some grace. We need to expect the best of others. We need to practice the skill of lovingly overlooking some faults in others. If we do that, we will enjoy life a whole lot more.

But many times, this goes against our grain. We think, “Well, I don’t want to adapt. I want my husband to change. He’s the one leaving the dirty clothes on the floor. When he picks them up, then I’ll be happy.” No, sometimes you’re going to have to just swallow your pride, pick it up, and move on. And here’s the key, you have got to do it with a good attitude.

Really, it boils down to this—if you’re going to be in relationship with anyone, no matter how loving and kind, you’re going to have to put up with some things. But remember, they are going to have to put up with you, too. As you allow God’s grace to govern your actions, as you walk in love, your life will be a song of praise to our living God, a song that is filled with sounds of amazing harmony.

¹⁴ Bless those who persecute you. Don't curse them; pray that God will bless them. ¹⁵ Be happy with those who are happy, and weep with those who weep. ¹⁶ Live in harmony with each other. Don't be too proud to enjoy the company of ordinary people. And don't think you know it all!

¹⁷ Never pay back evil with more evil. Do things in such a way that everyone can see you are honorable. ¹⁸ Do all that you can to live in peace with everyone.

¹⁹ Dear friends, never take revenge. Leave that to the righteous anger of God. For the Scriptures say,

“I will take revenge;
I will pay them back,”*
says the LORD.

²⁰ Instead,

“If your enemies are hungry, feed them.
If they are thirsty, give them something to drink.
In doing this, you will heap burning coals of shame on their heads.”*

²¹ Don't let evil conquer you, but conquer evil by doing good.

Chapter 13

Respect for Authority

Everyone must submit to governing authorities. For all authority comes from God, and those in positions of authority have been placed there by God.² So anyone who rebels against authority is rebelling against what God has instituted, and they will be punished.³ For the authorities do not strike fear in people who are doing right, but in those who are doing wrong. Would you like to live without fear of the authorities? Do what is right, and they will honor you.⁴ The authorities are God's servants, sent for your good. But if you are doing wrong, of course you should be afraid, for they have the power to punish you. They are God's servants, sent for the very purpose of punishing those who do what is wrong.⁵ So you must submit to them, not only to avoid punishment, but also to keep a clear conscience.

⁶ Pay your taxes, too, for these same reasons. For government workers need to be paid. They are serving God in what they do.⁷ Give to everyone what you owe them: Pay your taxes and government fees to those who collect them, and give respect and honor to those who are in authority.

Love Fulfills God's Requirements

⁸ Owe nothing to anyone—except for your obligation to love one another. If you love your neighbor, you will fulfill the requirements of God's law.⁹ For the commandments say, "You must not commit adultery. You must not murder. You must not steal. You must not covet."* These—and other such commandments—are summed up in this one commandment: "Love your neighbor as yourself."*¹⁰ Love does no wrong to others, so love fulfills the requirements of God's law.

¹¹ This is all the more urgent, for you know how late it is; time is running out. Wake up, for our salvation is nearer now than when we first believed. ¹² The night is almost gone; the day of salvation will soon be here. So remove your dark deeds like dirty clothes, and put on the shining armor of right living. ¹³ Because we belong to the day, we must live decent lives for all to see. Don't participate in the darkness of wild parties and drunkenness, or in sexual promiscuity and immoral living, or in quarreling and jealousy. ¹⁴ Instead, clothe yourself with the presence of the Lord Jesus Christ. And don't let yourself think about ways to indulge your evil desires.

Chapter 14

The Danger of Criticism

Accept other believers who are weak in faith, and don't argue with them about what they think is right or wrong. ² For instance, one person believes it's all right to eat anything. But another believer with a sensitive conscience will eat only vegetables. ³ Those who feel free to eat anything must not look down on those who don't. And those who don't eat certain foods must not condemn those who do, for God has accepted them. ⁴ Who are you to condemn someone else's servants? Their own master will judge whether they stand or fall. And with the Lord's help, they will stand and receive his approval.

HOPENOTE

Fulfilling God's Requirements

Owe nothing to anyone—except for your obligation to love one another. If you love your neighbor, you will fulfill the requirements of God's law (Romans 13:8).

Love is such a powerful force. When we love others, we are fulfilling everything that God requires of us. In the Old Testament, people tried to follow the Ten Commandments. In the New Testament, under the New Covenant, we have only two laws to follow—to love God with our whole heart and love others as we love ourselves (Mark 12:29-31). That's because when you choose love, you won't steal, you'll honor your parents, and you'll put God first. When you choose love, you will automatically desire to follow all of His commands.

Love is the mark of true believers. Jesus said, "Your love for one another will prove to the world that you are my disciples" (John 13:35). And we all have people in our lives who are difficult to love. But love is a choice no matter how we may feel about someone. First Corinthians 13 tells us what love is. You can choose to be patient even when you don't feel like being patient. You can choose to be kind, even when it's difficult. Most times, the people who are the hardest to love are the ones who need it the most. You will be amazed at how much things will change if you just take that first step of faith and choose to love the difficult people around you. Remember, you are the hands and feet of Jesus. When you love others, you are extending the love of Jesus to them and fulfilling His purpose in the earth.

⁵ In the same way, some think one day is more holy than another day, while others think every day is alike. You should each be fully convinced that whichever day you choose is acceptable. ⁶ Those who worship the Lord on a special day do it to honor him. Those who eat any kind of food do so to honor the Lord, since they give thanks to God before eating. And those who refuse to eat certain foods also want to please the Lord and give thanks to God. ⁷ For we don't live for ourselves or die for ourselves. ⁸ If we live, it's to honor the Lord. And if we die, it's to honor the Lord. So whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord. ⁹ Christ died and rose again for this very purpose—to be Lord both of the living and of the dead.

¹⁰ So why do you condemn another believer*? Why do you look down on another believer? Remember, we will all stand before the judgment seat of God. ¹¹ For the Scriptures say,

“‘As surely as I live,’ says the LORD,
‘every knee will bend to me,
and every tongue will confess and give praise to God.*’”

¹² Yes, each of us will give a personal account to God. ¹³ So let's stop condemning each other. Decide instead to live in such a way that you will not cause another believer to stumble and fall.

¹⁴ I know and am convinced on the authority of the Lord

Jesus that no food, in and of itself, is wrong to eat. But if someone believes it is wrong, then for that person it is wrong. ¹⁵ And if another believer is distressed by what you eat, you are not acting in love if you eat it. Don't let your eating ruin someone for whom Christ died. ¹⁶ Then you will not be criticized for doing something you believe is good. ¹⁷ For the Kingdom of God is not a matter of what we eat or drink, but of living a life of goodness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit. ¹⁸ If you serve Christ with this attitude, you will please God, and others will approve of you, too. ¹⁹ So then, let us aim for harmony in the church and try to build each other up.

²⁰ Don't tear apart the work of God over what you eat. Remember, all foods are acceptable, but it is wrong to eat something if it makes another person stumble. ²¹ It is better not to eat meat or drink wine or do anything else if it might cause another believer to stumble. ²² You may believe there's nothing wrong with what you are doing, but keep it between yourself and God. Blessed are those who don't feel guilty for doing something they have decided is right. ²³ But if you have doubts about whether or not you should eat something, you are sinning if you go ahead and do it. For you are not following your convictions. If you do anything you believe is not right, you are sinning.

Chapter 15

Living to Please Others

We who are strong must be considerate of those who are sensitive about things like this. We must not just please ourselves.² We should help others do what is right and build them up in the Lord.³ For even Christ didn't live to please himself. As the Scriptures say, "The insults of those who insult you, O God, have fallen on me."⁴ Such things were written in the Scriptures long ago to teach us. And the Scriptures give us hope and encouragement as we wait patiently for God's promises to be fulfilled.

HOPENOTE

Be a People Builder

We should help others do what is right and build them up in the Lord (Romans 15:2).

Everywhere Jesus went, He encouraged the people around Him. He was constantly sowing seeds of life and leaving people better off than they were before. He never embarrassed or belittled those who served Him. He overlooked their faults and limitations and celebrated their strengths.

When you encounter people, what kind of deposits do you leave behind in their life? A simple smile, an encouraging word, a meaningful touch are all ways we can encourage the people around us.

We are the ambassadors of Jesus and should look for opportunities to build up the people around us. I believe that when we focus on the strengths and gifts of others, we will begin to see God's favor poured out on our own life in an even greater way. We'll rise up higher, and we will experience each and every victory that He has in store for us.

5 May God, who gives this patience and encouragement, help you live in complete harmony with each other, as is fitting for followers of Christ Jesus. 6 Then all of you can join together with one voice, giving praise and glory to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

7 Therefore, accept each other just as Christ has accepted you so that God will be given glory. 8 Remember that Christ came as a servant to the Jews* to show that God is true to the promises he made to their ancestors. 9 He also came so that the Gentiles might give glory to God for his mercies to them. That is what the psalmist meant when he wrote:

“For this, I will praise you among the Gentiles;
I will sing praises to your name.”*

10 And in another place it is written,

“Rejoice with his people, you Gentiles.”*

11 And yet again,

“Praise the LORD, all you Gentiles.

Praise him, all you people of the earth.”*

12 And in another place Isaiah said,

“The heir to David’s throne* will come,
and he will rule over the Gentiles.
They will place their hope on him.”*

13 I pray that God, the source of hope, will fill you completely with joy and peace because you trust in him. Then you will overflow with confident hope through the power of the Holy Spirit.

Paul’s Reason for Writing

14 I am fully convinced, my dear brothers and sisters,* that you are full of goodness. You know these things so well you can teach each other all about them. 15 Even so, I have been bold enough to write about some of these points, knowing that all you need is this reminder. For by God’s grace, 16 I am a special messenger from Christ Jesus to you Gentiles. I bring you the Good News so that I might present you as an acceptable offering to God, made holy by the Holy Spirit. 17 So I have reason to be enthusiastic about all Christ Jesus has done through me in my service to God. 18 Yet I dare not boast about anything except what Christ has done through me, bringing the Gentiles to God by my message and by the way I worked among them. 19 They were convinced by the power of miraculous signs and wonders and by the power of God’s Spirit.* In this way, I have fully presented the Good News of Christ from Jerusalem all the way to Illyricum.*

²⁰ My ambition has always been to preach the Good News where the name of Christ has never been heard, rather than where a church has already been started by someone else. ²¹ I have been following the plan spoken of in the Scriptures, where it says,

“Those who have never been told about him will see,
and those who have never heard of him will understand.”*

²² In fact, my visit to you has been delayed so long because I have been preaching in these places.

Paul's Travel Plans

²³ But now I have finished my work in these regions, and after all these long years of waiting, I am eager to visit you. ²⁴ I am planning to go to Spain, and when I do, I will stop off in Rome. And after I have enjoyed your fellowship for a little while, you can provide for my journey.

²⁵ But before I come, I must go to Jerusalem to take a gift to the believers* there. ²⁶ For you see, the believers in Macedonia and Achaia* have eagerly taken up an offering for the poor among the believers in Jerusalem. ²⁷ They were glad to do this because they feel they owe a real debt to them. Since the Gentiles received the spiritual blessings of the Good News from the believers in Jerusalem, they feel the least they can do in return is to help them financially. ²⁸ As soon as I have delivered this money and completed this good deed of theirs, I will come to see you on my way to Spain. ²⁹ And I am sure that when I come, Christ will richly bless our time together.

³⁰ Dear brothers and sisters, I urge you in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to join in my struggle by praying to God for me. Do this because of your love for me, given to you by the Holy Spirit. ³¹ Pray that I will be rescued from those in Judea who refuse to obey God. Pray also that the believers there will be willing to accept the donation* I am taking to Jerusalem. ³² Then, by the will of God, I will be able to come to you with a joyful heart, and we will be an encouragement to each other.

³³ And now may God, who gives us his peace, be with you all. Amen.*

Chapter 16

Paul Greets His Friends

I commend to you our sister Phoebe, who is a deacon in the church in Cenchrea. ² Welcome her in the Lord as one who is worthy of honor among God's people. Help her in whatever she needs, for she has been helpful to many, and especially to me.

³ Give my greetings to Priscilla and Aquila, my co-workers in the ministry of Christ Jesus. ⁴ In fact, they once risked their lives for me. I am thankful to them, and so are all the Gentile churches. ⁵ Also give my greetings to the church that meets in their home.

Greet my dear friend Epenetus. He was the first person from the province of Asia to become a follower of Christ. ⁶ Give my greetings to Mary, who has worked so hard for your benefit. ⁷ Greet Andronicus and Junia,* my fellow Jews,* who were in prison with me. They are highly respected among the apostles and became followers of Christ before I did. ⁸ Greet Ampliatus, my dear friend in the Lord. ⁹ Greet Urbanus, our co-worker in Christ, and my dear friend Stachys.

¹⁰ Greet Apelles, a good man whom Christ approves. And give my greetings to the believers from the household of Aristobulus. ¹¹ Greet Herodion, my fellow Jew.* Greet the Lord's people from the household of Narcissus. ¹² Give my greetings to Tryphena and Tryphosa, the Lord's workers, and to dear Persis, who has worked so hard for the Lord. ¹³ Greet Rufus, whom the Lord picked out to be his very own; and also his dear mother, who has been a mother to me.

¹⁴ Give my greetings to Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas, and the brothers and sisters* who meet with them. ¹⁵ Give my greetings to Philologus, Julia, Nereus and his sister, and to Olympas and all the believers* who meet with them. ¹⁶ Greet each other in Christian love.* All the churches of Christ send you their greetings.

Paul's Final Instructions

¹⁷ And now I make one more appeal, my dear brothers and sisters. Watch out for people who cause divisions and upset people's faith by teaching things contrary to what you have been taught. Stay away from them. ¹⁸ Such people are not serving Christ our Lord; they are serving their own personal interests. By smooth talk and glowing words they deceive innocent people. ¹⁹ But everyone knows that you are obedient to the Lord. This makes me very happy. I want you to be wise in doing right and to stay innocent of any wrong.²⁰ The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. May the grace of our Lord Jesus* be with you.

²¹ Timothy, my fellow worker, sends you his greetings, as do Lucius, Jason, and Sosipater, my fellow Jews.

²² I, Tertius, the one writing this letter for Paul, send my greetings, too, as one of the Lord's followers.

²³ Gaius says hello to you. He is my host and also serves as host to the whole church. Erastus, the city treasurer, sends you his greetings, and so does our brother Quartus.*

²⁵ Now all glory to God, who is able to make you strong, just as my Good News says. This message about Jesus Christ has revealed his plan for you Gentiles, a plan kept secret from the beginning of time.²⁶ But now as the prophets* foretold and as the eternal God has commanded, this message is made known to all Gentiles everywhere, so that they too might believe and obey him.²⁷ All glory to the only wise God, through Jesus Christ, forever. Amen.

INTRO TO THE BOOK OF

1 and 2 Corinthians

Author:

Paul

Original Audience:

The church in Corinth

Date of Writing:

1 Corinthians in AD 55, 2 Corinthians in AD 55–57

Setting:

Corinth was a major cosmopolitan city, a seaport, and trade center.

Key People:

Paul, Timothy, members of Chloe's family, Titus, false teachers

Key Verses:

I appeal to you, dear brothers and sisters, by the authority of our Lord Jesus Christ, to live in harmony with each other. Let there be no divisions in the church. Rather, be of one mind, united in thought and purpose (1 Corinthians 1:10).

This means that anyone who belongs to Christ has become a new person. The old life is gone; a new life has begun! (2

Finding Hope and Encouragement in 1 and 2 Corinthians

The church at Corinth, founded in AD 50 by Paul, was in trouble. It was full of young believers living in a city that was known for everything sinful. It was a distinctly anti-Christian metropolis. In many respects, the church had taken on the decadency and debauchery of the city. Scholars believe that Paul actually wrote three letters to the church at Corinth. They suggest that the one written between the letters we know as 1 and 2 Corinthians was lost. In 1 Corinthians we see inside a first-century church filled with immature believers. In 2 Corinthians we see inside a first-century Christian, the apostle himself. In 1 Corinthians, Paul deals with moral issues facing the church—factions, incest, lawsuits, and sexual immorality. He instructs them on matters related to mature Christian living such as marriage, etiquette in worship services, the Lord's Supper, and spiritual gifts. In 2 Corinthians, which is the most autobiographical of Paul's letters, he defends his apostleship and denounces those who are twisting the truth (false prophets). We catch a glimpse of Paul's huge heart for God.

Both of these letters had to be extremely difficult to write. Paul had to address people he loved who were acting very ungodly, and he had to defend himself against people who were wrongly attacking him and his ministry.

1 and 2 Corinthians remind us that we still live in a pagan world, and it is easy to be pulled down into a lifestyle that displeases and dishonors God. We need to stand true to God's Word, heeding its instructions, and following the example of the faithful men and women who live righteously and full of hope in a world that desperately needs it.

Chapter 1

Greetings from Paul

This letter is from Paul, chosen by the will of God to be an apostle of Christ Jesus, and from our brother Sosthenes.

² I am writing to God's church in Corinth,* to you who have been called by God to be his own holy people. He made you holy by means of Christ Jesus,* just as he did for all people everywhere who call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, their Lord and ours.

³ May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give you grace and peace.

Paul Gives Thanks to God

⁴ I always thank my God for you and for the gracious gifts he has given you, now that you belong to Christ Jesus. ⁵ Through him, God has enriched your church in every way—with all of your eloquent words and all of your knowledge. ⁶ This confirms that what I told you about Christ is true. ⁷ Now you have every spiritual gift you need as you eagerly wait for the return of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁸ He will keep you strong to the end so that you will be free from all blame on the day when our Lord Jesus Christ returns. ⁹ God will do this, for he is faithful to do what he says, and he has invited you into partnership with his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Divisions in the Church

¹⁰ I appeal to you, dear brothers and sisters,* by the authority of our Lord Jesus Christ, to live in harmony with each other.

Let there be no divisions in the church. Rather, be of one mind, united in thought and purpose.¹¹ For some members of Chloe's household have told me about your quarrels, my dear brothers and sisters.¹² Some of you are saying, "I am a follower of Paul." Others are saying, "I follow Apollos," or "I follow Peter,*" or "I follow only Christ."

¹³ Has Christ been divided into factions? Was I, Paul, crucified for you? Were any of you baptized in the name of Paul? Of course not! ¹⁴ I thank God that I did not baptize any of you except Crispus and Gaius, ¹⁵ for now no one can say they were baptized in my name. ¹⁶ (Oh yes, I also baptized the household of Stephanas, but I don't remember baptizing anyone else.) ¹⁷ For Christ didn't send me to baptize, but to preach the Good News—and not with clever speech, for fear that the cross of Christ would lose its power.

HOPENOTE

He Will Keep You Strong

He will keep you strong to the end so that you will be free from all blame on the day when our Lord Jesus Christ returns (1 Corinthians 1:8).

When difficult times or temptations come, we can stand firm knowing that God Himself is at work in us. He's given us His strength, and He has equipped us with everything we need to live as overcomers in this life. How do you access the strength that God put on the inside of you? In God's system, faith is what opens the door to His power in your life. We believe, therefore we speak (2 Corinthians 4:13). Romans 10:9-10 tells us that when we believe in our hearts and confess with our mouths our faith in Jesus, we are saved. In the same way, God's truth is established in our lives when we believe in our hearts and confess it with our mouths. God's power makes weaklings into warriors (see Joel 3:10).

Learn to say, "God, thank You for Your strength at work in me. I know that with Your help I will overcome any opposition I face. I am strong in the Lord and in the power of Your might." As you declare God's strength over your life, it will be established firmly in your heart. He will give you all the strength you need to fight the good fight of faith!

The Wisdom of God

¹⁸ The message of the cross is foolish to those who are headed for destruction! But we who are being saved know it is the very power of God. ¹⁹ As the Scriptures say,

"I will destroy the wisdom of the wise and discard the intelligence of the intelligent."*

²⁰ So where does this leave the philosophers, the scholars, and the world's brilliant debaters? God has made the wisdom of this world look foolish.²¹ Since God in his wisdom saw to it that the world would never know him through human wisdom, he has used our foolish preaching to save those who believe.²² It is foolish to the Jews, who ask for signs from heaven. And it is foolish to the Greeks, who seek human wisdom.²³ So when we preach that Christ was crucified, the Jews are offended and the Gentiles say it's all nonsense.

²⁴ But to those called by God to salvation, both Jews and Gentiles,* Christ is the power of God and the wisdom of God.²⁵ This foolish plan of God is wiser than the wisest of human plans, and God's weakness is stronger than the greatest of human strength.

²⁶ Remember, dear brothers and sisters, that few of you were wise in the world's eyes or powerful or wealthy* when God called you.²⁷ Instead, God chose things the world considers foolish in order to shame those who think they are wise. And he chose things that are powerless to shame those who are powerful.²⁸ God chose things despised by the world,* things counted as nothing at all, and used them to bring to nothing what the world considers important.²⁹ As a result, no one can ever boast in the presence of God.

³⁰ God has united you with Christ Jesus. For our benefit God made him to be wisdom itself. Christ made us right with God; he made us pure and holy, and he freed us from sin.³¹ Therefore, as the Scriptures say, "If you want to boast, boast only about the LORD."*

Chapter 2

Paul's Message of Wisdom

When I first came to you, dear brothers and sisters,* I didn't use lofty words and impressive wisdom to tell you God's secret plan.* ² For I decided that while I was with you I would forget everything except Jesus Christ, the one who was crucified. ³ I came to you in weakness—timid and trembling. ⁴ And my message and my preaching were very plain. Rather than using clever and persuasive speeches, I relied only on the power of the Holy Spirit. ⁵ I did this so you would trust not in human wisdom but in the power of God.

⁶ Yet when I am among mature believers, I do speak with words of wisdom, but not the kind of wisdom that belongs to this world or to the rulers of this world, who are soon forgotten. ⁷ No, the wisdom we speak of is the mystery of God*—his plan that was previously hidden, even though he made it for our ultimate glory before the world began. ⁸ But the rulers of this world have not understood it; if they had, they would not have crucified our glorious Lord. ⁹ That is what the Scriptures mean when they say,

“No eye has seen, no ear has heard, and no mind has imagined what God has prepared for those who love him.”*

HOPENOTE

God's Deep Secrets

That is what the Scriptures mean when they say, "No eye has seen, no ear has heard, and no mind has imagined what God has prepared for those who love him." But it was to us that God revealed these things by his Spirit. For his Spirit searches out everything and shows us God's deep secrets" (1 Corinthians 2:9-10).

Who do you share your deepest secrets with? Most people only share their inner thoughts with those who are closest to them. People they trust. People they've gone through experiences with. Do you know who God shares His secrets with? This passage goes on to say, "No one can know a person's thoughts except that person's spirit." As believers, God's Spirit lives inside of us, revealing to us the heart and thoughts of God. What a wonderful, amazing thought! We can know God's thoughts because we are one with Him.

¹⁰ But* it was to us that God revealed these things by his Spirit. For his Spirit searches out everything and shows us God's deep secrets. ¹¹ No one can know a person's thoughts except that person's own spirit, and no one can know God's thoughts except God's own Spirit. ¹² And we have received God's Spirit (not the world's spirit), so we can know the wonderful things God has freely given us.

¹³ When we tell you these things, we do not use words that come from human wisdom. Instead, we speak words given to us by the Spirit, using the Spirit's words to explain spiritual truths.* ¹⁴ But people who aren't spiritual* can't receive these truths from God's Spirit. It all sounds foolish to them and they can't understand it, for only those who are spiritual can understand what the Spirit means. ¹⁵ Those who are spiritual can evaluate all things, but they themselves cannot be evaluated by others. ¹⁶ For,

“Who can know the LORD's thoughts?

Who knows enough to teach him?”*

But we understand these things, for we have the mind of Christ.

Chapter 3

Paul and Apollos, Servants of Christ

Dear brothers and sisters,* when I was with you I couldn't talk to you as I would to spiritual people.* I had to talk as though you belonged to this world or as though you were infants in the Christian life.* ² I had to feed you with milk, not with solid food, because you weren't ready for anything stronger. And you still aren't ready, ³ for you are still controlled by your sinful nature. You are jealous of one another and quarrel with each other. Doesn't that prove you are controlled by your sinful nature? Aren't you living like people of the world? ⁴ When one of you says, “I am a follower of Paul,” and another says, “I follow Apollos,” aren't you acting just like people of the world?

⁵ After all, who is Apollos? Who is Paul? We are only God's servants through whom you believed the Good News. Each of us did the work the Lord gave us. ⁶ I planted the seed in your hearts, and Apollos watered it, but it was God who made it grow. ⁷ It's not important who does the planting, or who does the watering. What's important is that God makes the seed grow. ⁸ The one who plants and the one who waters work together with the same purpose. And both will be rewarded for their own hard work. ⁹ For we are both God's workers. And you are God's field. You are God's building.

¹⁰ Because of God's grace to me, I have laid the foundation like an expert builder. Now others are building on it. But whoever is building on this foundation must be very careful. ¹¹ For no one can lay any foundation other than the one we already have—Jesus Christ.

HOPENOTE

Everything Belongs to You

Everything belongs to you, and you belong to Christ, and Christ belongs to God (1 Corinthians 3:22-23).

In this passage, Paul is admonishing the people not to brag about who their teachers or leaders are because ultimately, we all have a direct connection to the divine leader Himself, God in heaven through Jesus Christ.

Everything belongs to us!

Are you ready to receive everything—the full blessing the Lord has waiting for you? The Bible says in Galatians 4:1 that we must be mature in order to receive the inheritance of the Lord. We show maturity by placing our full confidence in Him and obeying His Word instead of our old, natural tendencies. The Bible says in 1 Corinthians 3 that we are unspiritual when we are under the control of ordinary impulses.

God wants you to excel. He wants you to live in victory. He wants to give you everything. But you must do your part to grow in His Word so you can be mature in Christ. The more you grow in His Word, the more God will pour out His blessings in your life.

¹² Anyone who builds on that foundation may use a variety of materials—gold, silver, jewels, wood, hay, or straw. ¹³ But on the judgment day, fire will reveal what kind of work each builder has done. The fire will show if a person's work has any value. ¹⁴ If the work survives, that builder will receive a reward. ¹⁵ But if the work is burned up, the builder will suffer great loss. The builder will be saved, but like someone barely escaping through a wall of flames.

¹⁶ Don't you realize that all of you together are the temple of God and that the Spirit of God lives in* you? ¹⁷ God will destroy anyone who destroys this temple. For God's temple is holy, and you are that temple.

¹⁸ Stop deceiving yourselves. If you think you are wise by this world's standards, you need to become a fool to be truly wise. ¹⁹ For the wisdom of this world is foolishness to God. As the Scriptures say, in the snare of their own cleverness.”*

“He traps the wise

²⁰ And again,

“The LORD knows the thoughts of the wise;
he knows they are worthless.”*

²¹ So don't boast about following a particular human leader. For everything belongs to you—²² whether Paul or Apollos or Peter,* or the world, or life and death, or the present and the future. Everything belongs to you, ²³ and you belong to Christ, and Christ belongs to God.

Chapter 4

Paul's Relationship with the Corinthians

So look at Apollos and me as mere servants of Christ who have been put in charge of explaining God's mysteries. ² Now, a person who is put in charge as a manager must be faithful. ³ As for me, it matters very little how I might be evaluated by you or by any human authority. I don't even trust my own judgment on this point. ⁴ My conscience is clear, but that doesn't prove I'm right. It is the Lord himself who will examine me and decide.

⁵ So don't make judgments about anyone ahead of time—before the Lord returns. For he will bring our darkest secrets to light and will reveal our private motives. Then God will give to each one whatever praise is due.

⁶ Dear brothers and sisters,* I have used Apollos and myself to illustrate what I've been saying. If you pay attention to what I have quoted from the Scriptures,* you won't be proud of one of your leaders at the expense of another. ⁷ For what gives you the right to make such a judgment? What do you have that God hasn't given you? And if everything you have is from God, why boast as though it were not a gift?

HOPENOTE

Be Yourself

As for me, it matters very little how I might be evaluated by you or by any human authority. I don't even trust my own judgment on this point (1 Corinthians 4:3).

Many people today go around feeling guilty and condemned. They take on other people's criticisms; they criticize themselves. But when it came to criticism, Paul knew that he had to take even his own self-evaluation with a grain of salt. The only sure picture of ourselves comes from our Maker.

God loves you so much, and He has equipped you with every gift, talent, and ability you need to be the person He created you to be—not the person the world wants you to be. The enemy may try to make you think you have to conform to the opinions of others, but if you are secure in who God made you to be, you can resist those outside demands and pressures that try to mold you into something you're not. You don't have to rely on the opinions and approval of others. God made each of us with a unique and special purpose. As you continue to grow in your relationship with the Lord through prayer, worship, and fellowship, you will gain confidence in the Lord that will free you from the opinions of man and allow you to be who God called you to be!

⁸ You think you already have everything you need. You think you are already rich. You have begun to reign in God's kingdom without us! I wish you really were reigning already, for then we would be reigning with you. ⁹ Instead, I sometimes think God has put us apostles on display, like prisoners of war at the end of a victor's parade, condemned to die. We have become a spectacle to the entire world—to people and angels alike.

¹⁰ Our dedication to Christ makes us look like fools, but you claim to be so wise in Christ! We are weak, but you are so powerful! You are honored, but we are ridiculed. ¹¹ Even now we go hungry and thirsty, and we don't have enough clothes to keep warm. We are often beaten and have no home. ¹² We work wearily with our own hands to earn our living. We bless those who curse us. We are patient with those who abuse us.

¹⁴ I am not writing these things to shame you, but to warn you as my beloved children. ¹⁵ For even if you had ten thousand others to teach you about Christ, you have only one spiritual father. For I became your father in Christ Jesus when I preached the Good News to you. ¹⁶ So I urge you to imitate me.

¹⁷ That's why I have sent Timothy, my beloved and faithful child in the Lord. He will remind you of how I follow Christ Jesus, just as I teach in all the churches wherever I go.

¹⁸ Some of you have become arrogant, thinking I will not visit you again. ¹⁹ But I will come—and soon—if the Lord lets me, and then I'll find out whether these arrogant people just give pretentious speeches or whether they really have God's power. ²⁰ For the Kingdom of God is not just a lot of talk; it is living by God's power. ²¹ Which do you choose? Should I come with a rod to punish you, or should I come with love and a gentle spirit?

Chapter 5

Paul Condemns Spiritual Pride

I can hardly believe the report about the sexual immorality going on among you—something that even pagans don't do. I am told that a man in your church is living in sin with his stepmother.* ² You are so proud of yourselves, but you should be mourning in sorrow and shame. And you should remove this man from your fellowship.

³ Even though I am not with you in person, I am with you in the Spirit.* And as though I were there, I have already passed judgment on this man⁴ in the name of the Lord Jesus. You must call a meeting of the church.* I will be present with you in spirit, and so will the power of our Lord Jesus.⁵ Then you must throw this man out and hand him over to Satan so that his sinful nature will be destroyed* and he himself* will be saved on the day the Lord* returns.

⁹ When I wrote to you before, I told you not to associate with people who indulge in sexual sin.¹⁰ But I wasn't talking about unbelievers who indulge in sexual sin, or are greedy, or cheat people, or worship idols. You would have to leave this world to avoid people like that.¹¹ I meant that you are not to associate with anyone who claims to be a believer* yet indulges in sexual sin, or is greedy, or worships idols, or is abusive, or is a drunkard, or cheats people. Don't even eat with such people.

¹² It isn't my responsibility to judge outsiders, but it certainly is your responsibility to judge those inside the church who are sinning. ¹³ God will judge those on the outside; but as the Scriptures say, “You must remove the evil person from among you.”*

Chapter 6

Avoiding Lawsuits with Christians

When one of you has a dispute with another believer, how dare you file a lawsuit and ask a secular court to decide the matter instead of taking it to other believers*! ² Don’t you realize that someday we believers will judge the world? And since you are going to judge the world, can’t you decide even these little things among yourselves? ³ Don’t you realize that we will judge angels? So you should surely be able to resolve ordinary disputes in this life. ⁴ If you have legal disputes about such matters, why go to outside judges who are not respected by the church? ⁵ I am saying this to shame you. Isn’t there anyone in all the church who is wise enough to decide these issues? ⁶ But instead, one believer* sues another—right in front of unbelievers!

⁷ Even to have such lawsuits with one another is a defeat for you. Why not just accept the injustice and leave it at that? Why not let yourselves be cheated? ⁸ Instead, you yourselves are the ones who do wrong and cheat even your fellow believers.*

⁹ Don’t you realize that those who do wrong will not inherit the Kingdom of God? Don’t fool yourselves. Those who indulge in sexual sin, or who worship idols, or commit adultery, or are male prostitutes, or practice homosexuality,¹⁰ or are thieves, or greedy people, or drunkards, or are abusive, or cheat people—none of these will inherit the Kingdom of God.¹¹ Some of you were once like that. But you were cleansed; you were made holy; you were made right with God by calling on the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God.

Avoiding Sexual Sin

¹² You say, “I am allowed to do anything”—but not everything is good for you. And even though “I am allowed to do anything,” I must not become a slave to anything.¹³ You say, “Food was made for the stomach, and the stomach for food.” (This is true, though someday God will do away with both of them.) But you can’t say that our bodies were made for sexual immorality. They were made for the Lord, and the Lord cares about our bodies.¹⁴ And God will raise us from the dead by his power, just as he raised our Lord from the dead.

¹⁸ Run from sexual sin! No other sin so clearly affects the body as this one does. For sexual immorality is a sin against your own body.¹⁹ Don’t you realize that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit, who lives in you and was given to you by God? You do not belong to yourself, ²⁰ for God bought you with a high price. So you must honor God with your body.

HOPENOTE

Honor God with Your Body

For God bought you with a high price. So you must honor God with your body (1 Corinthians 6:20).

The Scripture says that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit. We are commanded to honor the Lord with our bodies. How do you do that? You take care of it. You respect it. You treat it as valuable. You use your body to bring Him glory. When you stand strong against temptation, you are honoring the Lord with your body. When you take care of yourself by eating properly and getting enough sleep, you are honoring the Lord with your body. You are saying, “Lord, thank You for this gift of life. I am choosing to take care of myself so that I can serve You with my whole heart, mind, and strength.”

There is no doubt that being in shape spiritually is the most important kind of fitness. But being in shape physically is very important as well. Some people know the Bible inside and out; they pray often and they know what to do, but they don’t have the physical energy to do anything at all. All three parts of your being—physical, emotional, and spiritual—should be healthy and in sync for you to function most productively. Your body is the temple of the Most High God. Seek balance so you can live healthy and honor God in every part of your life.

Chapter 7

Instruction on Marriage

Now regarding the questions you asked in your letter. Yes, it is good to abstain from sexual relations.* ² But because there is so much sexual immorality, each man should have his own wife, and each woman should have her own husband.

⁵ Do not deprive each other of sexual relations, unless you both agree to refrain from sexual intimacy for a limited time so you can give yourselves more completely to prayer. Afterward, you should come together again so that Satan won't be able to tempt you because of your lack of self-control. ⁶ I say this as a concession, not as a command. ⁷ But I wish everyone were single, just as I am. Yet each person has a special gift from God, of one kind or another.

⁸ So I say to those who aren't married and to widows—it's better to stay unmarried, just as I am. ⁹ But if they can't control themselves, they should go ahead and marry. It's better to marry than to burn with lust.

¹⁰ But for those who are married, I have a command that comes not from me, but from the Lord.* A wife must not leave her husband. ¹¹ But if she does leave him, let her remain single or else be reconciled to him. And the husband must not leave his wife.

¹² Now, I will speak to the rest of you, though I do not have a direct command from the Lord. If a Christian man* has a wife who is not a believer and she is willing to continue living with him, he must not leave her. ¹³ And if a Christian woman has a husband who is not a believer and he is willing to continue living with her, she must not leave him. ¹⁴ For the Christian wife brings holiness to her marriage, and the Christian husband* brings holiness to his marriage. Otherwise, your children would not be holy, but now they are holy. ¹⁵ (But if the husband or wife who isn't a believer insists on leaving, let them go. In such cases the Christian husband or wife* is no longer bound to the other, for God has called you* to live in peace.) ¹⁶ Don't you wives realize that your husbands might be saved because of you? And don't you husbands realize that your wives might be saved because of you?

¹⁷ Each of you should continue to live in whatever situation the Lord has placed you, and remain as you were when God first called you. This is my rule for all the churches. ¹⁸ For instance, a man who was circumcised before he became a believer should not try to reverse it. And the man who was uncircumcised when he became a believer should not be circumcised now. ¹⁹ For it makes no difference whether or not a man has been circumcised. The important thing is to keep God's commandments.

20 Yes, each of you should remain as you were when God called you. 21 Are you a slave? Don't let that worry you—but if you get a chance to be free, take it. 22 And remember, if you were a slave when the Lord called you, you are now free in the Lord. And if you were free when the Lord called you, you are now a slave of Christ. 23 God paid a high price for you, so don't be enslaved by the world.* 24 Each of you, dear brothers and sisters,* should remain as you were when God first called you.

25 Now regarding your question about the young women who are not yet married. I do not have a command from the Lord for them. But the Lord in his mercy has given me wisdom that can be trusted, and I will share it with you. 26 Because of the present crisis,* I think it is best to remain as you are. 27 If you have a wife, do not seek to end the marriage. If you do not have a wife, do not seek to get married. 28 But if you do get married, it is not a sin. And if a young woman gets married, it is not a sin. However, those who get married at this time will have troubles, and I am trying to spare you those problems.

29 But let me say this, dear brothers and sisters: The time that remains is very short. So from now on, those with wives should not focus only on their marriage. 30 Those who weep or who rejoice or who buy things should not be absorbed by their weeping or their joy or their possessions. 31 Those who use the things of the world should not become attached to them. For this world as we know it will soon pass away.

32 I want you to be free from the concerns of this life. An unmarried man can spend his time doing the Lord's work and thinking how to please him.³³ But a married man has to think about his earthly responsibilities and how to please his wife.³⁴ His interests are divided. In the same way, a woman who is no longer married or has never been married can be devoted to the Lord and holy in body and in spirit. But a married woman has to think about her earthly responsibilities and how to please her husband.³⁵ I am saying this for your benefit, not to place restrictions on you. I want you to do whatever will help you serve the Lord best, with as few distractions as possible.

³⁶ But if a man thinks that he's treating his fiancée improperly and will inevitably give in to his passion, let him marry her as he wishes. It is not a sin.³⁷ But if he has decided firmly not to marry and there is no urgency and he can control his passion, he does well not to marry.³⁸ So the person who marries his fiancée does well, and the person who doesn't marry does even better.

³⁹ A wife is bound to her husband as long as he lives. If her husband dies, she is free to marry anyone she wishes, but only if he loves the Lord.*⁴⁰ But in my opinion it would be better for her to stay single, and I think I am giving you counsel from God's Spirit when I say this.

Chapter 8

Food Sacrificed to Idols

Now regarding your question about food that has been offered to idols. Yes, we know that "we all have knowledge" about this issue. But while knowledge makes us feel important, it is love that strengthens the church.² Anyone who claims to know all the answers doesn't really know very much.³ But the person who loves God is the one whom God recognizes.*

HOPEFORTODAY

Free to Put Others First

But you must be careful so that your freedom does not cause others with a weaker conscience to stumble (1 Corinthians 8:9).

Freedom is one of the wonderful promises that Jesus offers to us: “If the Son sets you free, you are truly free” (John 8:36). Jesus was talking about the freedom to live under His protection and provision and freedom from the bondage of sin. The world wants to tell us we can be free without restrictions and without regard to anyone else; that ultimate freedom is being able to do anything we want to do. But those who have tried this know that it is a fast road to terrible bondage. A “whatever-I-want” life is really being in slavery to our wants and desires. What we need is the freedom to follow someone who wants what’s the very best for us. We need a freedom that considers the needs of others alongside our own wants. Paul told the Corinthians that one of the marks of mature freedom is the willingness to not exercise it—because when doing so, we might harm someone else. In other words, true freedom still puts others first.

The “weaker conscience” Paul talks about here is the kind of sensitivity people have about what they feel is right in the sight of God based on their experiences as they grow in faith. For example, some people believe women should only wear dresses and skirts. If a woman were to go minister in a country that held this belief, and she didn’t wear a skirt, they most likely wouldn’t receive her message. However, meeting people on their level causes them to be open to the life-changing message of the Gospel that will ultimately set them free.

Here, Paul was using food sacrificed to idols as an example. God said that it was lawful to eat the food, but there were a lot of Christians who didn’t hold to that teaching. For their sake, the one who was free should refrain so that the weaker one wouldn’t follow his example and go against his own inner conscience.

Remember, freedom in Christ is restraint for the sake of others. It pleases God when you put others first.

⁴ So, what about eating meat that has been offered to idols? Well, we all know that an idol is not really a god and that there is only one God. ⁵ There may be so-called gods both in heaven and on earth, and some people actually worship many gods and many lords. ⁶ But we know that there is only one God, the Father, who created everything, and we live for him. And there is only one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom God made everything and through whom we have been given life.

⁷ However, not all believers know this. Some are accustomed to thinking of idols as being real, so when they eat food that has been offered to idols, they think of it as the worship of real gods, and their weak consciences are violated. ⁸ It's true that we can't win God's approval by what we eat. We don't lose anything if we don't eat it, and we don't gain anything if we do.

⁹ But you must be careful so that your freedom does not cause others with a weaker conscience to stumble. ¹⁰ For if others see you—with your “superior knowledge”—eating in the temple of an idol, won't they be encouraged to violate their conscience by eating food that has been offered to an idol? ¹¹ So because of your superior knowledge, a weak believer* for whom Christ died will be destroyed. ¹² And when you sin against other believers* by encouraging them to do something they believe is wrong, you are sinning against Christ. ¹³ So if what I eat causes another believer to sin, I will never eat meat again as long as I live—for I don't want to cause another believer to stumble.

Chapter 9

Paul Gives Up His Rights

Am I not as free as anyone else? Am I not an apostle? Haven't

I seen Jesus our Lord with my own eyes? Isn't it because of my work that you belong to the Lord? ² Even if others think I am not an apostle, I certainly am to you. You yourselves are proof that I am the Lord's apostle.

³ This is my answer to those who question my authority.* ⁴ Don't we have the right to live in your homes and share your meals? ⁵ Don't we have the right to bring a Christian wife with us as the other apostles and the Lord's brothers do, and as Peter* does? ⁶ Or is it only Barnabas and I who have to work to support ourselves?

¹¹ Since we have planted spiritual seed among you, aren't we entitled to a harvest of physical food and drink? ¹² If you support others who preach to you, shouldn't we have an even greater right to be supported? But we have never used this right. We would rather put up with anything than be an obstacle to the Good News about Christ.

¹³ Don't you realize that those who work in the temple get their meals from the offerings brought to the temple? And those who serve at the altar get a share of the sacrificial offerings. ¹⁴ In the same way, the Lord ordered that those who preach the Good News should be supported by those who benefit from it. ¹⁵ Yet I have never used any of these rights. And I am not writing this to suggest that I want to start now. In fact, I would rather die than lose my right to boast about preaching without charge. ¹⁶ Yet preaching the Good News is not something I can boast about. I am compelled by God to do it. How terrible for me if I didn't preach the Good News!

¹⁷ If I were doing this on my own initiative, I would deserve payment. But I have no choice, for God has given me this sacred trust. ¹⁸ What then is my pay? It is the opportunity to preach the Good News without charging anyone. That's why I never demand my rights when I preach the Good News.

¹⁹ Even though I am a free man with no master, I have become a slave to all people to bring many to Christ. ²⁰ When I was with the Jews, I lived like a Jew to bring the Jews to Christ. When I was with those who follow the Jewish law, I too lived under that law. Even though I am not subject to the law, I did this so I could bring to Christ those who are under the law. ²¹ When I am with the Gentiles who do not follow the Jewish law, ^{*} I too live apart from that law so I can bring them to Christ. But I do not ignore the law of God; I obey the law of Christ.

²² When I am with those who are weak, I share their weakness, for I want to bring the weak to Christ. Yes, I try to find common ground with everyone, doing everything I can to save some. ²³ I do everything to spread the Good News and share in its blessings.

²⁴ Don't you realize that in a race everyone runs, but only one person gets the prize? So run to win! ²⁵ All athletes are disciplined in their training. They do it to win a prize that will fade away, but we do it for an eternal prize. ²⁶ So I run with purpose in every step. I am not just shadowboxing. ²⁷ I discipline my body like an athlete, training it to do what it should. Otherwise, I fear that after preaching to others I myself might be disqualified.

HOPENOTE

Living on Purpose

So I run with purpose in every step. I am not just shadowboxing (1 Corinthians 9:26).

When you're living with purpose, there's nothing in this world that can stop you. Paul wholeheartedly accepted that challenge. He wrote earlier, "I do everything to spread the Good News and share in its blessings" (9:23). Now that's a life on purpose, one that we can all embrace!

Develop a vision of victory for your life today, knowing that God has called and equipped you to do great things. He is the Greater One that lives on the inside of you (see 1 John 4:4). Look for His purpose. The enemy can only overwhelm you if you let him. The devil is no match for God. Simply shake off anything that the enemy throws at you, and don't let it hinder or bother you. Lift your eyes to God—when you magnify Him, the obstacles in your life will become so much smaller. In comparison with God's greatness, in every way, nothing and no one else can measure up!

Chapter 10

Lessons from Israel's Idolatry

I don't want you to forget, dear brothers and sisters,* about our ancestors in the wilderness long ago. All of them were guided by a cloud that moved ahead of them, and all of them walked through the sea on dry ground.² In the cloud and in the sea, all of them were baptized as followers of Moses.³ All of them ate the same spiritual food,⁴ and all of them drank the same spiritual water. For they drank from the spiritual rock that traveled with them, and that rock was Christ.⁵ Yet God was not pleased with most of them, and their bodies were scattered in the wilderness.

⁶ These things happened as a warning to us, so that we would not crave evil things as they did,⁷ or worship idols as some of them did. As the Scriptures say, "The people celebrated with feasting and drinking, and they indulged in pagan revelry."* ⁸ And we must not engage in sexual immorality as some of them did, causing 23,000 of them to die in one day.

⁹ Nor should we put Christ* to the test, as some of them did and then died from snakebites. ¹⁰ And don't grumble as some of them did, and then were destroyed by the angel of death. ¹¹ These things happened to them as examples for us. They were written down to warn us who live at the end of the age.

¹² If you think you are standing strong, be careful not to fall. ¹³ The temptations in your life are no different from what others experience. And God is faithful. He will not allow the temptation to be more than you can stand. When you are tempted, he will show you a way out so that you can endure.

¹⁴ So, my dear friends, flee from the worship of idols. ¹⁵ You are reasonable people. Decide for yourselves if what I am saying is true. ¹⁶ When we bless the cup at the Lord's Table, aren't we sharing in the blood of Christ? And when we break the bread, aren't we sharing in the body of Christ? ¹⁷ And though we are many, we all eat from one loaf of bread, showing that we are one body. ¹⁸ Think about the people of Israel. Weren't they united by eating the sacrifices at the altar?

HOPEFORTODAY

A Way Out

The temptations in your life are no different from what others experience. And God is faithful. He will not allow the temptation to be more than you can stand. When you are tempted, he will show you a way out so that you can endure (1 Corinthians 10:13).

Everyone experiences temptations in this life. It's different for each person, but the Bible tells us that we aren't the first to encounter these temptations. But God is faithful. He will always provide a way out for you!

The next time temptation comes knocking on your door, the first thing you need to do is pray. You cannot defeat bad habits in your own strength, but with God, those bad habits cannot defeat you. God promises to make a way out of temptation. Look for His door of escape.

I think of Joseph and Potiphar's wife in the Old Testament. Joseph was just doing his job, minding his own business, when his boss's wife began to flirt with him. She tried to seduce him and lure him away. And I'm sure Joseph was tempted, but do you know what he did? He took God's escape route. He literally ran the other way! And she managed to snatch his cloak and later lied and accused him of attacking her, but God was faithful to Joseph. Even though he went through the fire, he came out stronger, wiser, and better off than before. I believe God honored him because he had a pure heart. He would not give in to temptation.

In order to become everything that God has created you to be, you've got to have a deep resolve like Joseph did. You've got to look for God's escape out of temptation and run for it. So regardless of what temptation may come your way, remember, we serve a faithful God, and He is always right there beside you, working for your good and leading you in paths of victory and strength. You can overcome any obstacle, any challenge, any temptation in Jesus' name!

¹⁹ What am I trying to say? Am I saying that food offered to idols has some significance, or that idols are real gods? ²⁰ No, not at all. I am saying that these sacrifices are offered to demons, not to God. And I don't want you to participate with demons. ²¹ You cannot drink from the cup of the Lord and from the cup of demons, too. You cannot eat at the Lord's Table and at the table of demons, too. ²² What? Do we dare to rouse the Lord's jealousy? Do you think we are stronger than he is?

²³ You say, "I am allowed to do anything"*—but not everything is good for you. You say, "I am allowed to do anything"—but not everything is beneficial. ²⁴ Don't be concerned for your own good but for the good of others.

²⁵ So you may eat any meat that is sold in the marketplace without raising questions of conscience. ²⁶ For "the earth is the LORD's, and everything in it."*

²⁷ If someone who isn't a believer asks you home for dinner, accept the invitation if you want to. Eat whatever is offered to you without raising questions of conscience. ²⁸ (But suppose someone tells you, "This meat was offered to an idol." Don't eat it, out of consideration for the conscience of the one who told you.²⁹ It might not be a matter of conscience for you, but it is for the other person.) For why should my freedom be limited by what someone else thinks?³⁰ If I can thank God for the food and enjoy it, why should I be condemned for eating it?

³¹ So whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do it all for the glory of God.³² Don't give offense to Jews or Gentiles* or the church of God.³³ I, too, try to please everyone in everything I do. I don't just do what is best for me; I do what is best for others so that many may be saved.^{11:1} And you should imitate me, just as I imitate Christ.

Chapter 11

Instructions for Public Worship

² I am so glad that you always keep me in your thoughts, and that you are following the teachings I passed on to you.³ But there is one thing I want you to know: The head of every man is Christ, the head of woman is man, and the head of Christ is God.⁴ A man dishonors his head if he covers his head while praying or prophesying.⁵ But a woman dishonors her head* if she prays or prophesies without a covering on her head, for this is the same as shaving her head.⁶ Yes, if she refuses to wear a head covering, she should cut off all her hair! But since it is shameful for a woman to have her hair cut or her head shaved, she should wear a covering.*

⁷ A man should not wear anything on his head when worshiping, for man is made in God's image and reflects God's glory. And woman reflects man's glory. ⁸ For the first man didn't come from woman, but the first woman came from man. ⁹ And man was not made for woman, but woman was made for man. ¹⁰ For this reason, and because the angels are watching, a woman should wear a covering on her head to show she is under authority.*

¹¹ But among the Lord's people, women are not independent of men, and men are not independent of women. ¹² For although the first woman came from man, every other man was born from a woman, and everything comes from God.

¹³ Judge for yourselves. Is it right for a woman to pray to God in public without covering her head? ¹⁴ Isn't it obvious that it's disgraceful for a man to have long hair? ¹⁵ And isn't long hair a woman's pride and joy? For it has been given to her as a covering. ¹⁶ But if anyone wants to argue about this, I simply say that we have no other custom than this, and neither do God's other churches.

Order at the Lord's Supper

¹⁷ But in the following instructions, I cannot praise you. For it sounds as if more harm than good is done when you meet together. ¹⁸ First, I hear that there are divisions among you when you meet as a church, and to some extent I believe it. ¹⁹ But, of course, there must be divisions among you so that you who have God's approval will be recognized!

²⁰ When you meet together, you are not really interested in the Lord's Supper. ²¹ For some of you hurry to eat your own meal without sharing with others. As a result, some go hungry while others get drunk.²² What? Don't you have your own homes for eating and drinking? Or do you really want to disgrace God's church and shame the poor? What am I supposed to say? Do you want me to praise you? Well, I certainly will not praise you for this!

²³ For I pass on to you what I received from the Lord himself. On the night when he was betrayed, the Lord Jesus took some bread²⁴ and gave thanks to God for it. Then he broke it in pieces and said, "This is my body, which is given for you.* Do this to remember me."²⁵ In the same way, he took the cup of wine after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant between God and his people—an agreement confirmed with my blood. Do this to remember me as often as you drink it."²⁶ For every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, you are announcing the Lord's death until he comes again.

²⁷ So anyone who eats this bread or drinks this cup of the Lord unworthily is guilty of sinning against* the body and blood of the Lord.²⁸ That is why you should examine yourself before eating the bread and drinking the cup.²⁹ For if you eat the bread or drink the cup without honoring the body of Christ,* you are eating and drinking God's judgment upon yourself.³⁰ That is why many of you are weak and sick and some have even died.

³¹ But if we would examine ourselves, we would not be judged by God in this way.³² Yet when we are judged by the Lord, we are being disciplined so that we will not be condemned along with the world.

HOPENOTE

Remember Every Time

For every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, you are announcing the Lord's death until he comes again (1 Corinthians 11:26).

Taking Communion is a wonderful reminder and declaration of our covenant with God through the blood of Jesus that was shed on the cross for the forgiveness of our sins. When we turn our hearts toward the Father and take Communion with a pure heart, we are making a declaration before heaven and earth that we belong to Him. We are showing the whole world that we receive the sacrifice that Jesus made on our behalf. Every time we partake of Communion in remembrance of Jesus, we are opening our hearts to the deeper things of God. We are inviting Him to search our hearts and minds and do a work in our lives.

Sharing in the Lord's Supper should be a delightful habit in our lives. It should never be a casual experience. It can be a quiet, thoughtful time, but it can also be a joyful celebration as you remember what Jesus' sacrifice really means to you. So remember two things each time you take Communion: Jesus died for you, and He's coming again for you. Look back at what He did, and look forward to what He is going to do. Consider His great gift of salvation to you and then anticipate what it will be like to be fully in His presence for all of eternity. Remember that He poured out His life for you and poured that life into you so that you could experience His true freedom.

³³ So, my dear brothers and sisters,* when you gather for the Lord's Supper, wait for each other. ³⁴ If you are really hungry, eat at home so you won't bring judgment upon yourselves when you meet together. I'll give you instructions about the other matters after I arrive.

Chapter 12

Spiritual Gifts

Now, dear brothers and sisters,* regarding your question about the special abilities the Spirit gives us. I don't want you to misunderstand this. ² You know that when you were still pagans, you were led astray and swept along in worshiping speechless idols. ³ So I want you to know that no one speaking by the Spirit of God will curse Jesus, and no one can say Jesus is Lord, except by the Holy Spirit.

⁴ There are different kinds of spiritual gifts, but the same Spirit is the source of them all. ⁵ There are different kinds of service, but we serve the same Lord. ⁶ God works in different ways, but it is the same God who does the work in all of us.

⁷ A spiritual gift is given to each of us so we can help each other.⁸ To one person the Spirit gives the ability to give wise advice^{}; to another the same Spirit gives a message of special knowledge.^{}⁹ The same Spirit gives great faith to another, and to someone else the one Spirit gives the gift of healing.¹⁰ He gives one person the power to perform miracles, and another the ability to prophesy. He gives someone else the ability to discern whether a message is from the Spirit of God or from another spirit. Still another person is given the ability to speak in unknown languages,^{*} while another is given the ability to interpret what is being said.¹¹ It is the one and only Spirit who distributes all these gifts. He alone decides which gift each person should have.

One Body with Many Parts

¹² The human body has many parts, but the many parts make up one whole body. So it is with the body of Christ.¹³ Some of us are Jews, some are Gentiles,^{} some are slaves, and some are free. But we have all been baptized into one body by one Spirit, and we all share the same Spirit.^{}

¹⁴ Yes, the body has many different parts, not just one part.
¹⁵ If the foot says, "I am not a part of the body because I am not a hand," that does not make it any less a part of the body.
¹⁶ And if the ear says, "I am not part of the body because I am not an eye," would that make it any less a part of the body?¹⁷
If the whole body were an eye, how would you hear? Or if your whole body were an ear, how would you smell anything?

HOPEFORTODAY

Stay in Your Gifting

Now, dear brothers and sisters, regarding your question about the special abilities the Spirit gives us. I don't want you to misunderstand this (1 Corinthians 12:1).

Many people live tired and frustrated lives because they are trying to function outside of their natural gifting. They see somebody that's more successful, or something that seems more glamorous, and instead of running their race and being comfortable with who God made them to be, they start comparing themselves. You can't go around copying what everyone else is doing; you have to stay in your strength zone. You're not going to be good at something that you are not equipped to do. And God will help you to become everything He's created you to be, but He will not help you to be something you are not created to be.

The Scripture tells us we have to accept the gift God has given us. It's easy to think, "God, I want that gift." "God, I want to be able to sing." "God, I want to be in management." "I want to be a running back in the NFL." No, quit comparing, and take the pressure off yourself. If you'll stop desiring the gifts of others and start focusing on what God has given you, you'll feel that weight of discontentment lift right off of you. If you are always in competition with a family member, with a friend, with a co-worker, you need to get free today. We're not supposed to be competing against anyone else. Run your own race.

I heard somebody say, "I would rather be a great sergeant than a poor general." We have to realize not everyone is called to be a general. Everyone can't be the leader. Everyone can't be the boss. But a lot of times, because of the pressure we put on ourselves and the desire to impress others, we think, "I've got to do what they're doing. I've got to be in that position so I'll be respected and feel important." But that need to impress others is because we have our worth and value in what we do instead of who we are, or Whose we are! You don't need to impress people in order to feel good about yourself. If you'll quit looking at others and just take what God has given you and be the best you can be, then you can feel good about yourself.

Discovering and using your spiritual gifts can be one of the most exciting adventures in life for Christians. This chapter tells us that as members of Christ's body, we have been designed with a special purpose and function. No one else, no matter how gifted they are, can take your place. It's time for you to step into the life and role God custom-designed for you!

¹⁸ But our bodies have many parts, and God has put each part just where he wants it. ¹⁹ How strange a body would be if it had only one part! ²⁰ Yes, there are many parts, but only one body. ²¹ The eye can never say to the hand, “I don’t need you.” The head can’t say to the feet, “I don’t need you.”

²² In fact, some parts of the body that seem weakest and least important are actually the most necessary. ²³ And the parts we regard as less honorable are those we clothe with the greatest care. So we carefully protect those parts that should not be seen, ²⁴ while the more honorable parts do not require this special care. So God has put the body together such that extra honor and care are given to those parts that have less dignity. ²⁵ This makes for harmony among the members, so that all the members care for each other. ²⁶ If one part suffers, all the parts suffer with it, and if one part is honored, all the parts are glad.

²⁷ All of you together are Christ’s body, and each of you is a part of it. ²⁸ Here are some of the parts God has appointed for the church:

first are apostles,
second are prophets,
third are teachers,
then those who do miracles,
those who have the gift of healing,
those who can help others,
those who have the gift of leadership,
those who speak in unknown languages.

²⁹ Are we all apostles? Are we all prophets? Are we all teachers? Do we all have the power to do miracles? ³⁰ Do we all have the gift of healing? Do we all have the ability to speak in unknown languages? Do we all have the ability to interpret unknown languages? Of course not! ³¹ So you should earnestly desire the most helpful gifts.

But now let me show you a way of life that is best of all.

Chapter 13

Love Is the Greatest

If I could speak all the languages of earth and of angels, but didn't love others, I would only be a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. ² If I had the gift of prophecy, and if I understood all of God's secret plans and possessed all knowledge, and if I had such faith that I could move mountains, but didn't love others, I would be nothing. ³ If I gave everything I have to the poor and even sacrificed my body, I could boast about it; * but if I didn't love others, I would have gained nothing.

HOPEFORTODAY

Excellent Living

But now let me show you a way of life that is best of all (1 Corinthians 12:31).

It doesn't matter what your gifts are, what your skills are, how talented you are; the best way to live life is filtered through God's love.

The Bible says that God is love. He doesn't just have love, He is love. The love we have is an extension of Him. When you invite Jesus to be the Lord of your life, the Bible says that He actually makes His home in your heart. Think about that for a minute. The Creator of the universe, who cannot be contained by anything, chose to make His home on the inside of your heart. That means that perfect love is on the inside of you. When you cooperate with God and submit your will to His, you are allowing His perfect love to flow through you.

First Corinthians 13 tells us what love looks like. When we are walking in God's love, we are patient. We are kind. Verse 5 says that love keeps no record of being wronged. That's simply forgiveness. Love always forgives. That doesn't mean that the other person was right; it only means that you are choosing to let go of the bitterness, hurt, and anger. If you have a mental list of all the people who have hurt or offended you, let it go today. Cooperate with God and let His love work through you. Instead of concentrating on the bad things that may happen to you, spend time thinking about what you can do for others. Love looks for ways to improve someone else's life. Love brings out the best in other people. Don't just get up in the morning thinking about yourself or how you can make your own life better. Think about how you can make someone else's life better. Ask yourself, "Who can I encourage today?" "Who can I build up?" You have something to offer those around you that no one else can give. Someone in your life needs your encouragement. Someone in your life needs to know that you believe in them.

I believe God will hold us responsible for the people He's put in our lives. He's counting on us to bring out the best in our family and friends. Are you improving the lives of those around you? Are you giving them confidence? Ask the Lord to give you creative ways to encourage those around you. As you sow seeds of encouragement and bring out the best in others, you will be living the most excellent way.

⁴ Love is patient and kind. Love is not jealous or boastful or proud ⁵ or rude. It does not demand its own way. It is not irritable, and it keeps no record of being wronged. ⁶ It does not rejoice about injustice but rejoices whenever the truth wins out. ⁷ Love never gives up, never loses faith, is always hopeful, and endures through every circumstance.

⁸ Prophecy and speaking in unknown languages* and special knowledge will become useless. But love will last forever! ⁹ Now our knowledge is partial and incomplete, and even the gift of prophecy reveals only part of the whole picture! ¹⁰ But when the time of perfection comes, these partial things will become useless.

HOPENOTE

Love Never Fails

Prophecy and speaking in unknown languages and special knowledge will become useless. But love will last forever! (1 Corinthians 13:8).

We all have people in our lives that are difficult at times. Maybe it's someone you work with, a family member, or even your spouse. Relationships can be complicated, but remember: Love never fails. The Word of God clearly defines love in 1 Corinthians 13 by listing various characteristics, like patience, kindness, and unselfishness. It says that love doesn't keep a record of wrongs. And most importantly, that love never fails.

Notice that this chapter doesn't talk at all about how you feel. God's love isn't about feelings. It's a choice. You can choose to be patient, even when you don't feel like being patient. You can choose to be kind, even when you don't feel like being kind. No matter what situation you find yourself in, you can choose love. You are never more like God than when you are walking in love. And when you are walking in love, you will never fail, because love never fails. Open your heart to God's love today. Ask Him to show you how to love others better. As you walk in love, you'll find peace and live in favor with God and man.

¹¹ When I was a child, I spoke and thought and reasoned as a child. But when I grew up, I put away childish things. ¹² Now we see things imperfectly, like puzzling reflections in a mirror, but then we will see everything with perfect clarity.* All that I know now is partial and incomplete, but then I will know everything completely, just as God now knows me completely.

¹³ Three things will last forever—faith, hope, and love—and the greatest of these is love.

Chapter 14

Tongues and Prophecy

Let love be your highest goal! But you should also desire the special abilities the Spirit gives—especially the ability to prophesy. ² For if you have the ability to speak in tongues,* you will be talking only to God, since people won't be able to understand you. You will be speaking by the power of the Spirit,* but it will all be mysterious. ³ But one who prophesies strengthens others, encourages them, and comforts them. ⁴ A person who speaks in tongues is strengthened personally, but one who speaks a word of prophecy strengthens the entire church.

⁵ I wish you could all speak in tongues, but even more I wish you could all prophesy. For prophecy is greater than speaking in tongues, unless someone interprets what you are saying so that the whole church will be strengthened.

6 Dear brothers and sisters,* if I should come to you speaking in an unknown language,* how would that help you? But if I bring you a revelation or some special knowledge or prophecy or teaching, that will be helpful. 7 Even lifeless instruments like the flute or the harp must play the notes clearly, or no one will recognize the melody. 8 And if the bugler doesn't sound a clear call, how will the soldiers know they are being called to battle?

9 It's the same for you. If you speak to people in words they don't understand, how will they know what you are saying? You might as well be talking into empty space.

10 There are many different languages in the world, and every language has meaning. 11 But if I don't understand a language, I will be a foreigner to someone who speaks it, and the one who speaks it will be a foreigner to me. 12 And the same is true for you. Since you are so eager to have the special abilities the Spirit gives, seek those that will strengthen the whole church.

13 So anyone who speaks in tongues should pray also for the ability to interpret what has been said. 14 For if I pray in tongues, my spirit is praying, but I don't understand what I am saying.

15 Well then, what shall I do? I will pray in the spirit,* and I will also pray in words I understand. I will sing in the spirit, and I will also sing in words I understand. 16 For if you praise God only in the spirit, how can those who don't understand you praise God along with you? How can they join you in giving thanks when they don't understand what you are saying? ¹⁷ You will be giving thanks very well, but it won't strengthen the people who hear you.

¹⁸ I thank God that I speak in tongues more than any of you.

¹⁹ But in a church meeting I would rather speak five understandable words to help others than ten thousand words in an unknown language.

²⁰ Dear brothers and sisters, don't be childish in your understanding of these things. Be innocent as babies when it comes to evil, but be mature in understanding matters of this kind. ²¹ It is written in the Scriptures*:

“I will speak to my own people through strange languages and through the lips of foreigners.

But even then, they will not listen to me,”*
says the LORD.

²² So you see that speaking in tongues is a sign, not for believers, but for unbelievers. Prophecy, however, is for the benefit of believers, not unbelievers. ²³ Even so, if unbelievers or people who don't understand these things come into your church meeting and hear everyone speaking in an unknown language, they will think you are crazy. ²⁴ But if all of you are prophesying, and unbelievers or people who don't understand these things come into your meeting, they will be convicted of sin and judged by what you say. ²⁵ As they listen, their secret thoughts will be exposed, and they will fall to their knees and worship God, declaring, “God is truly here among you.”

A Call to Orderly Worship

²⁶ Well, my brothers and sisters, let's summarize. When you meet together, one will sing, another will teach, another will tell some special revelation God has given, one will speak in tongues, and another will interpret what is said. But everything that is done must strengthen all of you.

²⁷ No more than two or three should speak in tongues. They must speak one at a time, and someone must interpret what they say. ²⁸ But if no one is present who can interpret, they must be silent in your church meeting and speak in tongues to God privately.

²⁹ Let two or three people prophesy, and let the others evaluate what is said. ³⁰ But if someone is prophesying and another person receives a revelation from the Lord, the one who is speaking must stop. ³¹ In this way, all who prophesy will have a turn to speak, one after the other, so that everyone will learn and be encouraged. ³² Remember that people who prophesy are in control of their spirit and can take turns. ³³ For God is not a God of disorder but of peace, as in all the meetings of God's holy people.*

³⁴ Women should be silent during the church meetings. It is not proper for them to speak. They should be submissive, just as the law says. ³⁵ If they have any questions, they should ask their husbands at home, for it is improper for women to speak in church meetings.*

³⁶ Or do you think God's word originated with you Corinthians? Are you the only ones to whom it was given? ³⁷ If you claim to be a prophet or think you are spiritual, you should recognize that what I am saying is a command from the Lord himself.³⁸ But if you do not recognize this, you yourself will not be recognized.*

³⁹ So, my dear brothers and sisters, be eager to prophesy, and don't forbid speaking in tongues.⁴⁰ But be sure that everything is done properly and in order.

Chapter 15

The Resurrection of Christ

Let me now remind you, dear brothers and sisters,* of the Good News I preached to you before. You welcomed it then, and you still stand firm in it.² It is this Good News that saves you if you continue to believe the message I told you—unless, of course, you believed something that was never true in the first place.*

³ I passed on to you what was most important and what had also been passed on to me. Christ died for our sins, just as the Scriptures said.⁴ He was buried, and he was raised from the dead on the third day, just as the Scriptures said.⁵ He was seen by Peter* and then by the Twelve.⁶ After that, he was seen by more than 500 of his followers* at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died.⁷ Then he was seen by James and later by all the apostles.⁸ Last of all, as though I had been born at the wrong time, I also saw him.⁹ For I am the least of all the apostles. In fact, I'm not even worthy to be called an apostle after the way I persecuted God's church.

¹⁰ But whatever I am now, it is all because God poured out his special favor on me—and not without results. For I have worked harder than any of the other apostles; yet it was not I but God who was working through me by his grace.¹¹ So it makes no difference whether I preach or they preach, for we all preach the same message you have already believed.

The Resurrection of the Dead

¹² But tell me this—since we preach that Christ rose from the dead, why are some of you saying there will be no resurrection of the dead? ¹³ For if there is no resurrection of the dead, then Christ has not been raised either. ¹⁴ And if Christ has not been raised, then all our preaching is useless, and your faith is useless. ¹⁵ And we apostles would all be lying about God—for we have said that God raised Christ from the grave. But that can't be true if there is no resurrection of the dead. ¹⁶ And if there is no resurrection of the dead, then Christ has not been raised. ¹⁷ And if Christ has not been raised, then your faith is useless and you are still guilty of your sins. ¹⁸ In that case, all who have died believing in Christ are lost! ¹⁹ And if our hope in Christ is only for this life, we are more to be pitied than anyone in the world.

²⁰ But in fact, Christ has been raised from the dead. He is the first of a great harvest of all who have died.

²¹ So you see, just as death came into the world through a man, now the resurrection from the dead has begun through another man. ²² Just as everyone dies because we all belong to Adam, everyone who belongs to Christ will be given new life. ²³ But there is an order to this resurrection: Christ was raised as the first of the harvest; then all who belong to Christ will be raised when he comes back.

HOPENOTE

Eternal Hope

And if our hope in Christ is only for this life, we are more to be pitied than anyone in the world (1 Corinthians 15:19).

The hope we have in Christ fills this life with purpose and direction, but it also holds for us the promise of eternal life. Because Christ lives in us, we have eternal hope. Paul told the Corinthians that their hope rested on the truth of Jesus' resurrection. If Jesus had died and not been raised from the dead, then our hope would only go as far as this life. But with His resurrection, He conquered death so that we can live in eternity with Him. Our hope is built on a historical event, not a wishful idea about what happens after death.

Allow this eternal hope to permeate your heart and mind today. It's hope for a brighter future. It's hope for restoration of your broken dreams. It's hope for new beginning. It's hope that gives your faith something to point to. The Bible says that faith gives substance to the things we hope for. You can't have faith unless you first have hope. So get your hopes up today. Meditate on the promises of God and know that He is faithful. I love the words of that old hymn, “My hope is built on nothing less than Jesus blood and righteousness. On Christ the solid Rock I stand, all other ground is sinking sand.”

24 After that the end will come, when he will turn the Kingdom over to God the Father, having destroyed every ruler and authority and power. 25 For Christ must reign until he humbles all his enemies beneath his feet. 26 And the last enemy to be destroyed is death. 27 For the Scriptures say, “God has put all things under his authority.”* (Of course, when it says “all things are under his authority,” that does not include God himself, who gave Christ his authority.) 28 Then, when all things are under his authority, the Son will put himself under God’s authority, so that God, who gave his Son authority over all things, will be utterly supreme over everything everywhere.

29 If the dead will not be raised, what point is there in people being baptized for those who are dead? Why do it unless the dead will someday rise again?

30 And why should we ourselves risk our lives hour by hour? 31 For I swear, dear brothers and sisters, that I face death daily. This is as certain as my pride in what Christ Jesus our Lord has done in you. 32 And what value was there in fighting wild beasts—those people of Ephesus*—if there will be no resurrection from the dead? And if there is no resurrection, “Let’s feast and drink, for tomorrow we die!”* 33 Don’t be fooled by those who say such things, for “bad company corrupts good character.” ³⁴ Think carefully about what is right, and stop sinning. For to your shame I say that some of you don’t know God at all.

The Resurrection Body

³⁵ But someone may ask, “How will the dead be raised? What kind of bodies will they have?” ³⁶ What a foolish question! When you put a seed into the ground, it doesn’t grow into a plant unless it dies first. ³⁷ And what you put in the ground is not the plant that will grow, but only a bare seed of wheat or whatever you are planting. ³⁸ Then God gives it the new body he wants it to have. A different plant grows from each kind of seed. ³⁹ Similarly there are different kinds of flesh—one kind for humans, another for animals, another for birds, and another for fish.

⁴⁰ There are also bodies in the heavens and bodies on the earth. The glory of the heavenly bodies is different from the glory of the earthly bodies. ⁴¹ The sun has one kind of glory, while the moon and stars each have another kind. And even the stars differ from each other in their glory.

⁴² It is the same way with the resurrection of the dead. Our earthly bodies are planted in the ground when we die, but they will be raised to live forever. ⁴³ Our bodies are buried in brokenness, but they will be raised in glory. They are buried in weakness, but they will be raised in strength. ⁴⁴ They are buried as natural human bodies, but they will be raised as spiritual bodies. For just as there are natural bodies, there are also spiritual bodies.

45 The Scriptures tell us, “The first man, Adam, became a living person.”* But the last Adam—that is, Christ—is a life-giving Spirit. 46 What comes first is the natural body, then the spiritual body comes later. 47 Adam, the first man, was made from the dust of the earth, while Christ, the second man, came from heaven. 48 Earthly people are like the earthly man, and heavenly people are like the heavenly man. 49 Just as we are now like the earthly man, we will someday be like* the heavenly man.

50 What I am saying, dear brothers and sisters, is that our physical bodies cannot inherit the Kingdom of God. These dying bodies cannot inherit what will last forever.

51 But let me reveal to you a wonderful secret. We will not all die, but we will all be transformed! 52 It will happen in a moment, in the blink of an eye, when the last trumpet is blown. For when the trumpet sounds, those who have died will be raised to live forever. And we who are living will also be transformed. 53 For our dying bodies must be transformed into bodies that will never die; our mortal bodies must be transformed into immortal bodies.

54 Then, when our dying bodies have been transformed into bodies that will never die,* this Scripture will be fulfilled:

“Death is swallowed up in victory.*

55 O death, where is your victory?

O death, where is your sting?*”

56 For sin is the sting that results in death, and the law gives sin its power. ⁵⁷ But thank God! He gives us victory over sin and death through our Lord Jesus Christ.

⁵⁸ So, my dear brothers and sisters, be strong and immovable. Always work enthusiastically for the Lord, for you know that nothing you do for the Lord is ever useless.

HOPENOTE

You Have the Victory

But thank God! He gives us victory over sin and death through our Lord Jesus Christ (1 Corinthians 15:57).

God desires that you live in victory in every area of your life. The Scripture says He always causes us to triumph through Christ Jesus! No matter what you may be facing today, God wants to make you more than a conqueror. Are you battling sickness? God wants to give you healing. Are you struggling with a broken relationship? God wants to give you restoration and peace. Are you facing a need—physically, spiritually, or emotionally? God wants to give you provision and supply all your needs according to His riches in glory.

Notice this verse starts out by saying, “But thank God!” Many times in the Bible when God’s people were going into battle, the worshipers were out in front of the warriors. When you choose to be thankful and bless the Lord in the midst of your battle, you are making a way for Him to move in your life. Start today by thanking Him for His goodness and the promise to give you the victory. Magnify your God, don't magnify your problems! As you do, you'll see Him move on your behalf, and He'll lead you into victory in every area of your life! Remember, praise always precedes the victory.

Chapter 16

The Collection for Jerusalem

Now regarding your question about the money being collected for God's people in Jerusalem. You should follow the same procedure I gave to the churches in Galatia. ² On the first day of each week, you should each put aside a portion of the money you have earned. Don't wait until I get there and then try to collect it all at once. ³ When I come, I will write letters of recommendation for the messengers you choose to deliver your gift to Jerusalem. ⁴ And if it seems appropriate for me to go along, they can travel with me.

Paul's Final Instructions

⁵ I am coming to visit you after I have been to Macedonia,* for I am planning to travel through Macedonia. ⁶ Perhaps I will stay awhile with you, possibly all winter, and then you can send me on my way to my next destination. ⁷ This time I don't want to make just a short visit and then go right on. I want to come and stay awhile, if the Lord will let me. ⁸ In the meantime,

I will be staying here at Ephesus until the Festival of Pentecost.
9 There is a wide-open door for a great work here, although many oppose me.

HOPENOTE

Great Opportunity, Great Adversity

There is a wide-open door for a great work here, although many oppose me (1 Corinthians 16:9).

God is always giving us opportunities to move forward in life. It is God's desire that you grow and reach your full potential. Anytime you take a step forward, the enemy will try to bring opposition and adversity against you. But God promises that through Him, you can overcome any opposition the enemy brings your way.

When you step out in faith and the opposition comes, stand your ground and keep doing what you know to do. Keep on praying. Keep reading and speaking the Word. Keep going to church. Keep walking in love and forgiveness, and keep your heart tender. When the enemy sees that you are more determined than he is, he'll back down, and you will move forward to new levels of victory! Stay focused and full of joy no matter what comes against you.

¹⁰ When Timothy comes, don't intimidate him. He is doing the Lord's work, just as I am. ¹¹ Don't let anyone treat him with contempt. Send him on his way with your blessing when he returns to me. I expect him to come with the other believers.*

¹² Now about our brother Apollos—I urged him to visit you with the other believers, but he was not willing to go right now. He will see you later when he has the opportunity.

¹³ Be on guard. Stand firm in the faith. Be courageous.* Be strong. ¹⁴ And do everything with love.

¹⁵ You know that Stephanas and his household were the first of the harvest of believers in Greece,* and they are spending their lives in service to God's people. I urge you, dear brothers and sisters,* ¹⁶ to submit to them and others like them who serve with such devotion. ¹⁷ I am very glad that Stephanas, Fortunatus, and Achaicus have come here. They have been providing the help you weren't here to give me. ¹⁸ They have been a wonderful encouragement to me, as they have been to you. You must show your appreciation to all who serve so well.

Paul's Final Greetings

¹⁹ The churches here in the province of Asia* send greetings in the Lord, as do Aquila and Priscilla* and all the others who gather in their home for church meetings. ²⁰ All the brothers and sisters here send greetings to you. Greet each other with Christian love.*

²¹ HERE IS MY GREETING IN MY OWN HANDWRITING—
PAUL.

22 If anyone does not love the Lord, that person is cursed.
Our Lord, come!*

23 May the grace of the Lord Jesus be with you.

24 My love to all of you in Christ Jesus.*

2 Corinthians

See the Introduction for 1 and 2 Corinthians on this page.

Chapter 1

Greetings from Paul

This letter is from Paul, chosen by the will of God to be an apostle of Christ Jesus, and from our brother Timothy.

I am writing to God's church in Corinth and to all of his holy people throughout Greece.*

² May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give you grace and peace.

God Offers Comfort to All

³ All praise to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. God is our merciful Father and the source of all comfort. ⁴ He comforts us in all our troubles so that we can comfort others. When they are troubled, we will be able to give them the same comfort God has given us. ⁵ For the more we suffer for Christ, the more God will shower us with his comfort through Christ. ⁶ Even when we are weighed down with troubles, it is for your comfort and salvation! For when we ourselves are comforted, we will certainly comfort you. Then you can patiently endure the same things we suffer. ⁷ We are confident that as you share in our sufferings, you will also share in the comfort God gives us.

⁸ We think you ought to know, dear brothers and sisters,* about the trouble we went through in the province of Asia. We were crushed and overwhelmed beyond our ability to endure, and we thought we would never live through it.⁹ In fact, we expected to die. But as a result, we stopped relying on ourselves and learned to rely only on God, who raises the dead.¹⁰ And he did rescue us from mortal danger, and he will rescue us again. We have placed our confidence in him, and he will continue to rescue us.¹¹ And you are helping us by praying for us. Then many people will give thanks because God has graciously answered so many prayers for our safety.

Paul's Change of Plans

HOPENOTE

Pass It On

He comforts us in all our troubles so that we can comfort others. When they are troubled, we will be able to give them the same comfort God has given us (2 Corinthians 1:4).

Because God loves us, He chooses to bless us. In the same way when His love is shed abroad in our hearts, it prompts us to give to others. Every gift God gives you is for a purpose. In the natural, when you give something away, you don't have it anymore. But in God's kingdom, the more we give, the more we receive. "Give freely and become more wealthy; be stingy and lose everything"

(Proverbs 11:24). The riches we have in Christ are not diminished by giving them away. The more we experience all that God has for us, the more we want others to experience it, too. And God will bring people across our path who need what we have. He'll give us opportunities to comfort others and share His love with them.

As you go about your day, look for ways that you can meet the needs of others. Look for people who may need some comfort. You are called, you are equipped, and you can make a difference! God wants to bless you, not just because He loves you but because He wants you to be a blessing to others.

¹² We can say with confidence and a clear conscience that we have lived with a God-given holiness* and sincerity in all our dealings. We have depended on God's grace, not on our own human wisdom. That is how we have conducted ourselves before the world, and especially toward you. ¹³ Our letters have been straightforward, and there is nothing written between the lines and nothing you can't understand. I hope someday you will fully understand us, ¹⁴ even if you don't understand us now. Then on the day when the Lord Jesus* returns, you will be proud of us in the same way we are proud of you.

¹⁵ Since I was so sure of your understanding and trust, I wanted to give you a double blessing by visiting you twice—¹⁶ first on my way to Macedonia and again when I returned from Macedonia.* Then you could send me on my way to Judea.

¹⁷ You may be asking why I changed my plan. Do you think I make my plans carelessly? Do you think I am like people of the world who say “Yes” when they really mean “No”? ¹⁸ As surely as God is faithful, our word to you does not waver between “Yes” and “No.” ¹⁹ For Jesus Christ, the Son of God, does not waver between “Yes” and “No.” He is the one whom Silas, * Timothy, and I preached to you, and as God’s ultimate “Yes,” he always does what he says. ²⁰ For all of God’s promises have been fulfilled in Christ with a resounding “Yes!” And through Christ, our “Amen” (which means “Yes”) ascends to God for his glory.

HOPENOTE

Be It unto Me

For all of God’s promises have been fulfilled in Christ with a resounding “Yes!” And through Christ, our “Amen” (which means “Yes”) ascends to God for his glory (2 Corinthians 1:20).

The Scripture tells that God’s promises are “Yes” and “Amen.” A lot of times, people hear this and they think, “Yes, God wants to prosper me. Yes, God wants to bless me. Yes, God wants to heal me.” But “Yes” alone is not enough. You’ve got to add the “Amen” to it. Amen means, “Be it unto me.” In other words, I believe and I receive this by faith. I choose to let this take root in my spirit.

Paul is telling us that it is one thing to know that God wants to heal you. It’s another thing to rise up and say, “God is my Healer. He’s restoring health unto me. I’m saying ‘Yes’ to God’s good plans for me.” It’s one step to know God wants you to be free; but it’s another step to rise up and say, “I am free. This addiction cannot control me.” It’s one thought to realize God wants you to be blessed; but it’s an act of faith to rise up and say, “God is supplying all of my needs. This is my season of increase.” You have to mix the faith in your heart with the knowledge in your head. Add the “Amen” and make it personal. Declare today, “I am blessed. I am prosperous. I have all I need in Christ.”

²¹ It is God who enables us, along with you, to stand firm for Christ. He has commissioned us, ²² and he has identified us as his own by placing the Holy Spirit in our hearts as the first installment that guarantees everything he has promised us.

²³ Now I call upon God as my witness that I am telling the truth. The reason I didn’t return to Corinth was to spare you from a severe rebuke. ²⁴ But that does not mean we want to dominate you by telling you how to put your faith into practice. We want to work together with you so you will be full of joy, for it is by your own faith that you stand firm.

Chapter 2

So I decided that I would not bring you grief with another painful visit. ² For if I cause you grief, who will make me glad? Certainly not someone I have grieved. ³ That is why I wrote to you as I did, so that when I do come, I won't be grieved by the very ones who ought to give me the greatest joy. Surely you all know that my joy comes from your being joyful. ⁴ I wrote that letter in great anguish, with a troubled heart and many tears. I didn't want to grieve you, but I wanted to let you know how much love I have for you.

Forgiveness for the Sinner

⁵ I am not overstating it when I say that the man who caused all the trouble hurt all of you more than he hurt me. ⁶ Most of you opposed him, and that was punishment enough. ⁷ Now, however, it is time to forgive and comfort him. Otherwise he may be overcome by discouragement. ⁸ So I urge you now to reaffirm your love for him.

⁹ I wrote to you as I did to test you and see if you would fully comply with my instructions. ¹⁰ When you forgive this man, I forgive him, too. And when I forgive whatever needs to be forgiven, I do so with Christ's authority for your benefit, ¹¹ so that Satan will not outsmart us. For we are familiar with his evil schemes.

HOPENOTE

Christ's Triumphal Procession

But thank God! He has made us his captives and continues to lead us along in Christ's triumphal procession. Now he uses us to spread the knowledge of Christ everywhere, like a sweet perfume (2 Corinthians 2:14).

Do you know what it means to be one of God's captives? It means He captured you right out of the kingdom of darkness. He snatched you from the jaws of despair. It means you are His most prized possession, His reward, and He's having a parade to celebrate! He's lifting you up as a sign to the world that He is the victor! What a wonderful privilege it is to be chosen by God.

Does your life reflect the honor that is worthy of His triumphal procession? Can people see the celebration on your face? Can they hear it in your voice? Are you wearing the victor's crown of love and compassion? Victory starts in your mind. As you begin to meditate on His promises and embrace a victor's mindset, you'll experience a victor's reward. Remember, God wants to use you to spread the knowledge of Christ everywhere. As you embrace all that He has for you, you'll be empowered through your union with Him to do everything He's called you to do. There is nothing so great that you and God cannot accomplish it together. Keep your trust and hope in Him, because with God all things are possible!

¹² When I came to the city of Troas to preach the Good News of Christ, the Lord opened a door of opportunity for me. ¹³ But I had no peace of mind because my dear brother Titus hadn't yet arrived with a report from you. So I said good-bye and went on to Macedonia to find him.

Ministers of the New Covenant

HOPENOTE

A Sweet Aroma

Our lives are a Christ-like fragrance rising up to God. But this fragrance is perceived differently by those who are being saved and by those who are perishing (2 Corinthians 2:15).

Have you ever walked into a room and there was a smell that reminded you of your grandmother's house or a special time and place in your childhood? Did you know that your life gives off a sweet fragrance to God? When you pray, extend an act of kindness, or give honor to Him, your praise goes up to Him like a sweet aroma, reminding Him of all the amazing and wonderful things that He created you to accomplish.

Think about how a wonderful aroma affects you, personally. When it's springtime and the flowers are blossoming, everything feels new again. The sweet smells in the air are a sign that the world is fresh and alive. They catch your attention! They make you want to take a deep breath and enjoy the moment.

God feels the same way about you! He loves wonderful aromas, and when you are living your life to please Him, it's a beautiful fragrance that captures His attention. Just like the aroma of springtime is a sign that the flowers are alive, the aroma of your life is a sign that Christ is alive in you. It is pleasing to the Father. The next time you experience a fresh fragrance, remember that your life is a fragrance unto God. You can rest in knowing that He is pleased with a heart that seeks after Him.

¹⁴ But thank God! He has made us his captives and continues to lead us along in Christ's triumphal procession. Now he uses us to spread the knowledge of Christ everywhere, like a sweet perfume. ¹⁵ Our lives are a Christ-like fragrance rising up to God. But this fragrance is perceived differently by those who are being saved and by those who are perishing. ¹⁶ To those who are perishing, we are a dreadful smell of death and doom.

But to those who are being saved, we are a life-giving perfume. And who is adequate for such a task as this?

17 You see, we are not like the many hucksters * who preach for personal profit. We preach the word of God with sincerity and with Christ's authority, knowing that God is watching us.

Chapter 3

Are we beginning to praise ourselves again? Are we like others, who need to bring you letters of recommendation, or who ask you to write such letters on their behalf? Surely not! ² The only letter of recommendation we need is you yourselves. Your lives are a letter written in our* hearts; everyone can read it and recognize our good work among you. ³ Clearly, you are a letter from Christ showing the result of our ministry among you. This “letter” is written not with pen and ink, but with the Spirit of the living God. It is carved not on tablets of stone, but on human hearts.

⁴ We are confident of all this because of our great trust in God through Christ. ⁵ It is not that we think we are qualified to do anything on our own. Our qualification comes from God. ⁶ He has enabled us to be ministers of his new covenant. This is a covenant not of written laws, but of the Spirit. The old written covenant ends in death; but under the new covenant, the Spirit gives life.

The Glory of the New Covenant

⁷ The old way, * with laws etched in stone, led to death, though it began with such glory that the people of Israel could not bear to look at Moses' face. For his face shone with the glory of God, even though the brightness was already fading away. ⁸ Shouldn't we expect far greater glory under the new way, now that the Holy Spirit is giving life? ⁹ If the old way, which brings condemnation, was glorious, how much more glorious is the new way, which makes us right with God! ¹⁰ In fact, that first glory was not glorious at all compared with the overwhelming glory of the new way. ¹¹ So if the old way, which has been replaced, was glorious, how much more glorious is the new, which remains forever!

HOPENOTE

Qualified

It is not that we think we are qualified to do anything on our own. Our qualification comes from God (2 Corinthians 3:5).

Paul knew people were talking behind his back and accusing him of overstepping his authority. But he also knew that he had a calling and a message from God to share with others. Because of this, he was confident that the efforts to destroy his reputation or confuse the churches he had planted would not stand. He stood strong knowing that he was appointed and qualified by God.

Like Paul, you also have a calling and a message to deliver. You may not be called to plant churches or travel around the world, but you can deliver a message of hope right where you are. You can speak life and truth to your family, friends, neighbors, and coworkers. God has equipped you and qualified you to be His ambassador in the earth. You have all you need to accomplish all that God requires.

¹² Since this new way gives us such confidence, we can be very bold. ¹³ We are not like Moses, who put a veil over his face so the people of Israel would not see the glory, even though it was destined to fade away. ¹⁴ But the people's minds were hardened, and to this day whenever the old covenant is being read, the same veil covers their minds so they cannot understand the truth. And this veil can be removed only by believing in Christ. ¹⁵ Yes, even today when they read Moses' writings, their hearts are covered with that veil, and they do not understand.

¹⁶ But whenever someone turns to the Lord, the veil is taken away. ¹⁷ For the Lord is the Spirit, and wherever the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. ¹⁸ So all of us who have had that veil removed can see and reflect the glory of the Lord. And the Lord—who is the Spirit—makes us more and more like him as we are changed into his glorious image.

Chapter 4

Treasure in Fragile Clay Jars

Therefore, since God in his mercy has given us this new way,* we never give up.² We reject all shameful deeds and underhanded methods. We don't try to trick anyone or distort the word of God. We tell the truth before God, and all who are honest know this.

³ If the Good News we preach is hidden behind a veil, it is hidden only from people who are perishing. ⁴ Satan, who is the god of this world, has blinded the minds of those who don't believe. They are unable to see the glorious light of the Good News. They don't understand this message about the glory of Christ, who is the exact likeness of God.

⁵ You see, we don't go around preaching about ourselves. We preach that Jesus Christ is Lord, and we ourselves are your servants for Jesus' sake. ⁶ For God, who said, "Let there be light in the darkness," has made this light shine in our hearts so we could know the glory of God that is seen in the face of Jesus Christ.

HOPEFORTODAY

Light Afflictions

For our present troubles are small and won't last very long. Yet they produce for us a glory that vastly outweighs them and will last forever! (2 Corinthians 4:17).

When I'm up against obstacles, I like to remind myself of what God has done in my life. I say things like, "God, I remember how you healed my mother of cancer back in 1981. God, I remember how You gave us this facility for Lakewood Church supernaturally. God, I remember how You protected me on the highway one time when I lost control of my car and that 18-wheeler almost hit me." Before long, I feel encouraged and am filled with hope and expectancy.

When you start to feel down, take a few minutes and just remember all the times God has helped you, and your hope will rise higher. You can rest assured that if God did it for you in the past, He'll do it for you in the future. Second Corinthians 4:17 talks about light, or temporary, afflictions. Notice it says our adversity, our affliction, is actually light. It may feel heavy; and in our mind it may be big. But as long as we are living a life of faith and obedience, we just need to keep the right perspective. No matter what comes our way, no matter how impossible it looks, we have to remind ourselves, "This is just a light affliction." In other words, "It's no big deal. I can handle it. God is still in control."

In the natural, you may have a big obstacle in your path, something that looks like a stumbling block. But if you'll keep the right attitude, God will turn that stumbling block into a stepping stone. Instead of going down, you'll go up. God said you can run through a troop and leap over a wall. That tells me there's no obstacle that you can't overcome. It's not too much for you. The greatest force in the universe resides on the inside. We need to have the attitude, "This adversity is not going to weigh me down. It's not going to sour my life. It's just a light affliction."

I know people who do just the opposite. They make everything a big deal. If they stub their toe, they'll go the next three months complaining about it. If a family member offends them, you'd think it's World War III. Don't let that be you! Start viewing your adversities, your disappointments, your setbacks the way God does, just as light afflictions.

⁷ We now have this light shining in our hearts, but we ourselves are like fragile clay jars containing this great treasure.* This makes it clear that our great power is from God, not from ourselves.

HOPENOTE

Treasures Within

We now have this light shining in our hearts, but we ourselves are like fragile clay jars containing this great treasure. This makes it clear that our great power is from God, not from ourselves (2 Corinthians 4:7).

Have you thought about the treasures that are deep on the inside of you? As a believer in Jesus, the greatest treasure within you is the Spirit of God. You carry the most precious treasure in the universe inside of you! Beyond that, He has deposited many other gifts inside of you. You may not have discovered them yet, but God has given you talents and abilities that are tied directly to your purpose. He has fully equipped you to succeed in this life.

Anything you need in order to move forward, anything you need to break out of your comfort zone and make a lasting impact in this world is on the inside of you. The Bible also says in Proverbs that “understanding is like a well within, and the wise person draws it out.” Draw out those treasures inside of you by speaking words of faith today. Stir up the gift inside of you by praying in the Spirit and thanking Him in worship. As you seek the Lord and submit yourself to His leading, you will discover the treasures within, and you’ll live a life of purpose!

⁸ We are pressed on every side by troubles, but we are not crushed. We are perplexed, but not driven to despair. ⁹ We are hunted down, but never abandoned by God. We get knocked down, but we are not destroyed. ¹⁰ Through suffering, our bodies continue to share in the death of Jesus so that the life of Jesus may also be seen in our bodies.

¹¹ Yes, we live under constant danger of death because we serve Jesus, so that the life of Jesus will be evident in our dying bodies. ¹² So we live in the face of death, but this has resulted in eternal life for you.

HOPENOTE

Give Your Faith a Voice

But we continue to preach because we have the same kind of faith the psalmist had when he said, “I believed in God, so I spoke” (2 Corinthians 4:13).

Every believer has been given a measure of faith. In order to see the promises of God come to pass in your life, you have to give your faith a voice. You must declare what God says about you in His Word. Those seeds of faith inside you are activated when you speak them out into the atmosphere. That’s why Scripture repeatedly tells us to “confess with our mouths” (see Romans 10:9-10). When you give your faith a voice and send forth the Word of God out of your mouth, the Bible says that He watches over His Word to bring it to pass in your life.

Don’t dig up your seed by speaking against His Word. Don’t allow words of defeat or negativity to come out of your mouth. Instead, water your seed by continuing to declare the Word of God over your life and the lives of those around you. When you wake up every morning, thank Him that His promises are coming to pass in your life. Thank Him that you are more than a conqueror, that you can do all things through Christ who strengthens you. Thank Him that there is no weapon formed against you that can prosper. As you declare God's promises over your life, you will see the amazing results of faith come to pass all around you.

13 But we continue to preach because we have the same kind of faith the psalmist had when he said, "I believed in God, so I spoke."* 14 We know that God, who raised the Lord Jesus,* will also raise us with Jesus and present us to himself together with you. 15 All of this is for your benefit. And as God's grace reaches more and more people, there will be great thanksgiving, and God will receive more and more glory.

16 That is why we never give up. Though our bodies are dying, our spirits are* being renewed every day. 17 For our present troubles are small and won't last very long. Yet they produce for us a glory that vastly outweighs them and will last forever! 18 So we don't look at the troubles we can see now; rather, we fix our gaze on things that cannot be seen. For the things we see now will soon be gone, but the things we cannot see will last forever.

HOPENOTE

Temporary Troubles

For our present troubles are small and won't last very long (2 Corinthians 4:17).

Aren't you glad that your troubles and trials are only temporary? This verse tells us they are momentary. Compared with eternity, our troubles won't last long at all! As you stand strong during times of adversity, you are building faith in your life and achieving eternal glory. When you confess your trust and reliance on God, you are passing the test of faith. If you are in the middle of tough times today, look to God. He is the Author and Finisher of your faith. He is the one who writes faith on your heart and then develops it to completion on the inside of you. All you have to do is to open your heart and begin to speak words of faith and victory.

Remember, your words set the course for your life. As you remind yourself that your troubles are only momentary, confess your trust and hope in God, and you will see His hand moving in your life.

HOPENOTE

Opportunities to Rise Higher

So we don't look at the troubles we can see now; rather, we fix our gaze on things that cannot be seen. For the things we see now will soon be gone, but the things we cannot see will last forever (2 Corinthians 4:18).

Sometimes it's so easy to be distracted by the cares of this world, but God wants you to focus on the good things He has for you. These spiritual blessings are far greater than the things you can see around you. Don't lose your focus when you face tough times. In reality, those hardships and trials are opportunities for you to rise higher. Whatever struggles you're going through right now, no matter how large or small, they are subject to change. God is working behind the scenes on your behalf. Your health may not look very good today, but it's subject to change. You may be out of work today, but that's subject to change. Your finances may look dismal today, but that's subject to change! You may be struggling in your relationships or marriage, but that's subject to change, too! No matter what your circumstances might be, you can experience change when you lift your eyes to God. We can get up each day and say, “Lord, I know I can’t see You physically, but I’m looking for all that You will do for me. And I’m looking forward to all that You have in store for me.”

Chapter 5

New Bodies

For we know that when this earthly tent we live in is taken down (that is, when we die and leave this earthly body), we will have a house in heaven, an eternal body made for us by God himself and not by human hands.² We grow weary in our present bodies, and we long to put on our heavenly bodies like new clothing.³ For we will put on heavenly bodies; we will not be spirits without bodies.*⁴ While we live in these earthly bodies, we groan and sigh, but it’s not that we want to die and get rid of these bodies that clothe us. Rather, we want to put on our new bodies so that these dying bodies will be swallowed up by life.⁵ God himself has prepared us for this, and as a guarantee he has given us his Holy Spirit.

HOPENOTE

New Creation

This means that anyone who belongs to Christ has become a new person. The old life is gone; a new life has begun! (2 Corinthians 5:17).

Everyone loves to get something new. But as a believer in Jesus, you're not only getting something new, you are something new. You are a brand new creation! Your eternal being, or the spirit on the inside of you, is recreated in Christ. The old is gone, the new has come.

The Bible says that we are to work out our salvation. That means you have to retrain your body and mind to act, think, speak, and live according to the new spirit within you—instead of according to the old habits you used to have. Don't ever get stuck in a rut thinking, "I'll never change. That's just the way I am." No, the Bible says that the Spirit of God helps us in our weakness. He gives us strength to overcome. He empowers us to live as more than conquerors. Is there something you want to change in your life today? Remember, you are a new creation in Christ. You are empowered to overcome. You are equipped to walk in the new, abundant life the Lord has created in you!

⁶ So we are always confident, even though we know that as long as we live in these bodies we are not at home with the Lord. ⁷ For we live by believing and not by seeing. ⁸ Yes, we are fully confident, and we would rather be away from these earthly bodies, for then we will be at home with the Lord. ⁹ So whether we are here in this body or away from this body, our goal is to please him.¹⁰ For we must all stand before Christ to be judged. We will each receive whatever we deserve for the good or evil we have done in this earthly body.

HOPENOTE

You Are an Ambassador

So we are Christ's ambassadors; God is making his appeal through us. We speak for Christ when we plead, "Come back to God!" (2 Corinthians 5:20).

As believers in Jesus, we are His ambassadors or representatives on the earth. Ambassadors are privileged. They are diplomats with the highest rank. They walk in the authority of the name of the one who sent them.

Ambassadors make decisions and solve problems, but their primary role is to promote diplomatic relationships.

As God's ambassadors on the earth, we walk in His power and authority. We are to promote relationships with Him. The Bible also calls us "ministers of reconciliation" in the earth (see vs. 18-19). That means that we are to share the message of the Gospel—that man's relationship to God has been reconciled through Jesus Christ.

When you see yourself as God's ambassador, it will change the way you live, speak, think, and act. It will change the way you approach people. Remember, you are a representative of Almighty God. Look for ways to bring others to a relationship with Him. Show kindness because His kindness leads people to change. Speak words of healing that will draw people to Him. As you fulfill your role as an ambassador of God, He will honor your faithfulness and pour out His blessing upon you all the days of your life.

HOPENOTE

The Great Exchange

For God made Christ, who never sinned, to be the offering for our sin, so that we could be made right with God through Christ (2 Corinthians 5:21).

If you've accepted Jesus, you are the righteousness of God! That means you are an extension of His virtue. You are approved by Him. You are in right standing with Him. Jesus not only paid the punishment for your sins, but the Bible says He actually became sin. He took it upon Himself and into His being so that you could take God's righteousness upon yourself and into your being. It's the great exchange. Don't let sin hold you back any longer. Don't let the enemy lie to you and make you feel guilty and condemned. First John 1:9 says that if we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

If there is anything in your life that is holding you back today, confess it to God. Let Him cleanse you and make you new. Remember, He paid a precious price so that you could be His righteousness.

We Are God's Ambassadors

¹¹ Because we understand our fearful responsibility to the Lord, we work hard to persuade others. God knows we are sincere, and I hope you know this, too. ¹² Are we commending ourselves to you again? No, we are giving you a reason to be proud of us,* so you can answer those who brag about having a spectacular ministry rather than having a sincere heart. ¹³ If it seems we are crazy, it is to bring glory to God. And if we are in our right minds, it is for your benefit. ¹⁴ Either way, Christ's love controls us.* Since we believe that Christ died for all, we also believe that we have all died to our old life.* ¹⁵ He died for everyone so that those who receive his new life will no longer live for themselves. Instead, they will live for Christ, who died and was raised for them.

¹⁶ So we have stopped evaluating others from a human point of view. At one time we thought of Christ merely from a human point of view. How differently we know him now! ¹⁷ This means that anyone who belongs to Christ has become a new person. The old life is gone; a new life has begun!

¹⁸ And all of this is a gift from God, who brought us back to himself through Christ. And God has given us this task of reconciling people to him. ¹⁹ For God was in Christ, reconciling the world to himself, no longer counting people's sins against them. And he gave us this wonderful message of reconciliation. ²⁰ So we are Christ's ambassadors; God is making his appeal through us. We speak for Christ when we plead, "Come back to God!" ²¹ For God made Christ, who never sinned, to be the offering for our sin,* so that we could be made right with God through Christ.

Chapter 6

As God's partners,* we beg you not to accept this marvelous gift of God's kindness and then ignore it. ² For God says,

"At just the right time, I heard you.

On the day of salvation, I helped you."*

Indeed, the "right time" is now. Today is the day of salvation.

Paul's Hardships

³ We live in such a way that no one will stumble because of us, and no one will find fault with our ministry. ⁴ In everything we do, we show that we are true ministers of God. We patiently endure troubles and hardships and calamities of every kind. ⁵ We have been beaten, been put in prison, faced angry mobs, worked to exhaustion, endured sleepless nights, and gone without food. ⁶ We prove ourselves by our purity, our understanding, our patience, our kindness, by the Holy Spirit within us,* and by our sincere love. ⁷ We faithfully preach the truth. God's power is working in us. We use the weapons of righteousness in the right hand for attack and the left hand for defense. ⁸ We serve God whether people honor us or despise us, whether they slander us or praise us. We are honest, but they call us impostors. ⁹ We are ignored, even though we are well known. We live close to death, but we are still alive. We have been beaten, but we have not been killed. ¹⁰ Our hearts ache, but we always have joy. We are poor, but we give spiritual riches to others. We own nothing, and yet we have everything.

¹¹ Oh, dear Corinthian friends! We have spoken honestly with you, and our hearts are open to you. ¹² There is no lack of love on our part, but you have withheld your love from us. ¹³ I am asking you to respond as if you were my own children. Open your hearts to us!

The Temple of the Living God

¹⁴ Don't team up with those who are unbelievers. How can righteousness be a partner with wickedness? How can light live with darkness? ¹⁵ What harmony can there be between Christ and the devil*? How can a believer be a partner with an unbeliever? ¹⁶ And what union can there be between God's temple and idols? For we are the temple of the living God. As God said:

“I will live in them and walk among them.
I will be their God,
and they will be my people.*

- 17 Therefore, come out from among unbelievers, and separate yourselves from them, says the LORD.
Don't touch their filthy things, and I will welcome you.*
- 18 And I will be your Father, and you will be my sons and daughters, says the LORD Almighty.*”

Chapter 7

Because we have these promises, dear friends, let us cleanse ourselves from everything that can defile our body or spirit. And let us work toward complete holiness because we fear God.

2 Please open your hearts to us. We have not done wrong to anyone, nor led anyone astray, nor taken advantage of anyone. 3 I'm not saying this to condemn you. I said before that you are in our hearts, and we live or die together with you. 4 I have the highest confidence in you, and I take great pride in you. You have greatly encouraged me and made me happy despite all our troubles.

Paul's Joy at the Church's Repentance

5 When we arrived in Macedonia, there was no rest for us. We faced conflict from every direction, with battles on the outside and fear on the inside. 6 But God, who encourages those who are discouraged, encouraged us by the arrival of Titus. 7 His presence was a joy, but so was the news he brought of the encouragement he received from you. When he told us how much you long to see me, and how sorry you are for what happened, and how loyal you are to me, I was filled with joy!

⁸ I am not sorry that I sent that severe letter to you, though I was sorry at first, for I know it was painful to you for a little while. ⁹ Now I am glad I sent it, not because it hurt you, but because the pain caused you to repent and change your ways. It was the kind of sorrow God wants his people to have, so you were not harmed by us in any way. ¹⁰ For the kind of sorrow God wants us to experience leads us away from sin and results in salvation. There's no regret for that kind of sorrow. But worldly sorrow, which lacks repentance, results in spiritual death.

¹¹ Just see what this godly sorrow produced in you! Such earnestness, such concern to clear yourselves, such indignation, such alarm, such longing to see me, such zeal, and such a readiness to punish wrong. You showed that you have done everything necessary to make things right. ¹² My purpose, then, was not to write about who did the wrong or who was wronged. I wrote to you so that in the sight of God you could see for yourselves how loyal you are to us. ¹³ We have been greatly encouraged by this.

In addition to our own encouragement, we were especially delighted to see how happy Titus was about the way all of you welcomed him and set his mind* at ease. ¹⁴ I had told him how proud I was of you—and you didn't disappoint me. I have always told you the truth, and now my boasting to Titus has also proved true! ¹⁵ Now he cares for you more than ever when he remembers the way all of you obeyed him and welcomed him with such fear and deep respect.¹⁶ I am very happy now because I have complete confidence in you.

Chapter 8

A Call to Generous Giving

Now I want you to know, dear brothers and sisters,* what God in his kindness has done through the churches in Macedonia.² They are being tested by many troubles, and they are very poor. But they are also filled with abundant joy, which has overflowed in rich generosity.

³ For I can testify that they gave not only what they could afford, but far more. And they did it of their own free will.⁴ They begged us again and again for the privilege of sharing in the gift for the believers* in Jerusalem.⁵ They even did more than we had hoped, for their first action was to give themselves to the Lord and to us, just as God wanted them to do.

⁶ So we have urged Titus, who encouraged your giving in the first place, to return to you and encourage you to finish this ministry of giving.⁷ Since you excel in so many ways—in your faith, your gifted speakers, your knowledge, your enthusiasm, and your love from us*—I want you to excel also in this gracious act of giving.

⁸ I am not commanding you to do this. But I am testing how genuine your love is by comparing it with the eagerness of the other churches.

⁹ You know the generous grace of our Lord Jesus Christ. Though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, so that by his poverty he could make you rich.

¹⁰ Here is my advice: It would be good for you to finish what you started a year ago. Last year you were the first who wanted to give, and you were the first to begin doing it. ¹¹ Now you should finish what you started. Let the eagerness you showed in the beginning be matched now by your giving. Give in proportion to what you have. ¹² Whatever you give is acceptable if you give it eagerly. And give according to what you have, not what you don't have. ¹³ Of course, I don't mean your giving should make life easy for others and hard for yourselves. I only mean that there should be some equality. ¹⁴ Right now you have plenty and can help those who are in need. Later, they will have plenty and can share with you when you need it. In this way, things will be equal. ¹⁵ As the Scriptures say,

“Those who gathered a lot had nothing left over,

HOPENOTE

Excel in Giving

Since you excel in so many ways—in your faith, your gifted speakers, your knowledge, your enthusiasm, and your love from us—I want you to excel also in this gracious act of giving (2 Corinthians 8:7).

As a born-again believer, you have unlimited potential. Because of Christ in you, you can walk in unlimited faith, knowledge, love, and victory. The Bible encourages you to excel and grow in these areas, and as you do, you will begin to experience that overcoming life of victory that God has in store for you. How do you excel in life? Just as a muscle grows when you exercise it, your faith grows when you exercise it; your love grows when you exercise it, and the grace to give grows when you exercise it. And there's no better place to start practicing this potential than the area of generosity. Support your local church and other ministries that are meeting people's needs and building the kingdom of God. As you excel in giving, you will bless the heart of God and will find that your life is fuller, richer, and full of purpose.

and those who gathered only a little had enough.”*

Titus and His Companions

¹⁶ But thank God! He has given Titus the same enthusiasm for you that I have. ¹⁷ Titus welcomed our request that he visit you again. In fact, he himself was very eager to go and see you. ¹⁸ We are also sending another brother with Titus. All the churches praise him as a preacher of the Good News. ¹⁹ He was appointed by the churches to accompany us as we take the offering to Jerusalem*—a service that glorifies the Lord and shows our eagerness to help.

²⁰ We are traveling together to guard against any criticism for the way we are handling this generous gift.²¹ We are careful to be honorable before the Lord, but we also want everyone else to see that we are honorable.

²² We are also sending with them another of our brothers who has proven himself many times and has shown on many occasions how eager he is. He is now even more enthusiastic because of his great confidence in you. ²³ If anyone asks about Titus, say that he is my partner who works with me to help you. And the brothers with him have been sent by the churches,* and they bring honor to Christ. ²⁴ So show them your love, and prove to all the churches that our boasting about you is justified.

Chapter 9

The Collection for Christians in Jerusalem

I really don't need to write to you about this ministry of giving for the believers in Jerusalem.* ² For I know how eager you are to help, and I have been boasting to the churches in Macedonia that you in Greece* were ready to send an offering a year ago. In fact, it was your enthusiasm that stirred up many of the Macedonian believers to begin giving.

³ But I am sending these brothers to be sure you really are ready, as I have been telling them, and that your money is all collected. I don't want to be wrong in my boasting about you. ⁴ We would be embarrassed—not to mention your own embarrassment—if some Macedonian believers came with me and found that you weren't ready after all I had told them! ⁵ So

I thought I should send these brothers ahead of me to make sure the gift you promised is ready. But I want it to be a willing gift, not one given grudgingly.

⁶ Remember this—a farmer who plants only a few seeds will get a small crop. But the one who plants generously will get a generous crop. ⁷ You must each decide in your heart how much to give. And don't give reluctantly or in response to pressure. "For God loves a person who gives cheerfully."* ⁸ And God will generously provide all you need. Then you will always have everything you need and plenty left over to share with others. ⁹ As the Scriptures say,

"They share freely and give generously to the poor.
Their good deeds will be remembered forever."*

HOPENOTE

Cheerful Giving

*You must each decide in your heart how much to give.
And don't give reluctantly or in response to pressure.
"For God loves a person who gives cheerfully" (2 Corinthians 9:7).*

God loves a cheerful giver! The Bible encourages each person to give what he decides in his heart. Once you've made that decision, do it cheerfully. Smile as you give. Delight in the promises of God which say, “Give, and you will receive. Your gift will return to you in full—pressed down, shaken together to make room for more, running over, and poured into your lap!” (Luke 6:38).

Every time you give, every time you tithe, every time you sow a seed, you are declaring with your actions that you trust God. You are putting your faith into action. You are making room for God to work in your life. That’s something to get excited about today! That’s something that should ignite hope inside of you today! You can’t out-give God! He promises a harvest of 30, 60, or 100 fold! That’s better than any savings account the world can offer. Trust your resources in the hands of Almighty God. He rewards the people who seek after Him. Know that He is watching your seed, and He will make sure it produces an abundant harvest in your life!

¹⁰ For God is the one who provides seed for the farmer and then bread to eat. In the same way, he will provide and increase your resources and then produce a great harvest of generosity* in you.

¹¹ Yes, you will be enriched in every way so that you can always be generous. And when we take your gifts to those who need them, they will thank God. ¹² So two good things will result from this ministry of giving—the needs of the believers in Jerusalem* will be met, and they will joyfully express their thanks to God.

HOPENOTE

The God of Abundance

And God will generously provide all you need. Then you will always have everything you need and plenty left over to share with others (2 Corinthians 9:8).

We serve a God of abundance! Our God is more than enough! What is it that you have need of today? No matter what is on your “plate” of life, God wants to pour out His grace on you. One of the meanings of grace is God’s good will, loving-kindness, and favor. His grace keeps us, strengthens us, and causes us to increase. In fact, He’s already extending that grace to you right now; all you have to do is open your heart and humbly receive it by faith.

Humility is an important key to receiving God’s grace. If we are prideful and seeking our own ways, it blocks God from working in our lives. But when we are humble and seeking His ways, then He will empower us. “God opposes the proud but favors the humble” (1 Peter 5:5). Notice in this verse, that when He pours out His grace on you, you will have all that you need at all times—that’s living in abundance! And when you are living in abundance, you are equipped to pour out that goodness and blessing on those around you.

¹³ As a result of your ministry, they will give glory to God. For your generosity to them and to all believers will prove that you are obedient to the Good News of Christ. ¹⁴ And they will pray for you with deep affection because of the overflowing grace God has given to you. ¹⁵ Thank God for this gift* too wonderful for words!

Chapter 10

Paul Defends His Authority

Now I, Paul, appeal to you with the gentleness and kindness of Christ—though I realize you think I am timid in person and bold only when I write from far away. ² Well, I am begging you now so that when I come I won't have to be bold with those who think we act from human motives.

HOPENOTE

He Provides Seed

For God is the one who provides seed for the farmer and then bread to eat. In the same way, he will provide and increase your resources and then produce a great harvest of generosity in you (2 Corinthians 9:10).

God has provided everything you need in life. You may not think he has, but all God wants you to do is to use what you have in your hand today. If you are sitting around waiting on God to give you something else, I am here to tell you that God is waiting on you! When you use the gifts, talents, and resources that are at your disposal, it activates the power of God in your life. And God is faithful. He will not only use what you have to do amazing things, but He will continue to provide you all you need to accomplish every dream that He puts in your heart. The more you bless others, the more God will bless you. I call it “Blessed to be a blessing!”

God wants to multiply His favor and abundance on your work, your health, your relationships, and your finances so that you have an abundance to share with others. When you sow the seed of His Word and His love into those around you, it will also produce a harvest that you will share in. In some cases you may not see the final harvest in your lifetime, but His promise is not only for this life, but for your future generations and all eternity.

³ We are human, but we don't wage war as humans do.
^{4*} We use God's mighty weapons, not worldly weapons, to knock down the strongholds of human reasoning and to destroy false arguments.⁵ We destroy every proud obstacle that keeps people from knowing God. We capture their rebellious thoughts and teach them to obey Christ.⁶ And after you have become fully obedient, we will punish everyone who remains disobedient.

⁷ Look at the obvious facts.* Those who say they belong to Christ must recognize that we belong to Christ as much as they do. ⁸ I may seem to be boasting too much about the authority given to us by the Lord. But our authority builds you up; it doesn't tear you down. So I will not be ashamed of using my authority.

⁹ I'm not trying to frighten you by my letters. ¹⁰ For some say, "Paul's letters are demanding and forceful, but in person he is weak, and his speeches are worthless!" ¹¹ Those people should realize that our actions when we arrive in person will be as forceful as what we say in our letters from far away.

¹² Oh, don't worry; we wouldn't dare say that we are as wonderful as these other men who tell you how important they are! But they are only comparing themselves with each other, using themselves as the standard of measurement. How ignorant!

¹³ We will not boast about things done outside our area of authority. We will boast only about what has happened within the boundaries of the work God has given us, which includes our working with you. ¹⁴ We are not reaching beyond these boundaries when we claim authority over you, as if we had never visited you. For we were the first to travel all the way to Corinth with the Good News of Christ.

¹⁵ Nor do we boast and claim credit for the work someone else has done. Instead, we hope that your faith will grow so that the boundaries of our work among you will be extended. ¹⁶

Then we will be able to go and preach the Good News in other places far beyond you, where no one else is working. Then there will be no question of our boasting about work done in someone else's territory. ¹⁷ As the Scriptures say, "If you want to boast, boast only about the LORD."*

¹⁸ When people commend themselves, it doesn't count for much. The important thing is for the Lord to commend them.

Chapter 11

Paul and the False Apostles

I hope you will put up with a little more of my foolishness. Please bear with me. ² For I am jealous for you with the jealousy of God himself. I promised you as a pure bride* to one husband—Christ. ³ But I fear that somehow your pure and undivided devotion to Christ will be corrupted, just as Eve was deceived by the cunning ways of the serpent. ⁴ You happily put up with whatever anyone tells you, even if they preach a different Jesus than the one we preach, or a different kind of Spirit than the one you received, or a different kind of gospel than the one you believed.

⁵ But I don't consider myself inferior in any way to these "super apostles" who teach such things. ⁶ I may be unskilled as a speaker, but I'm not lacking in knowledge. We have made this clear to you in every possible way.

⁷ Was I wrong when I humbled myself and honored you by preaching God's Good News to you without expecting anything in return? ⁸ I "robbed" other churches by accepting their contributions so I could serve you at no cost.⁹ And when I was with you and didn't have enough to live on, I did not become a financial burden to anyone. For the brothers who came from Macedonia brought me all that I needed. I have never been a burden to you, and I never will be.¹⁰ As surely as the truth of Christ is in me, no one in all of Greece* will ever stop me from boasting about this.¹¹ Why? Because I don't love you? God knows that I do.

¹² But I will continue doing what I have always done. This will undercut those who are looking for an opportunity to boast that their work is just like ours.¹³ These people are false apostles. They are deceitful workers who disguise themselves as apostles of Christ.¹⁴ But I am not surprised! Even Satan disguises himself as an angel of light.¹⁵ So it is no wonder that his servants also disguise themselves as servants of righteousness. In the end they will get the punishment their wicked deeds deserve.

Paul's Many Trials

¹⁶ Again I say, don't think that I am a fool to talk like this. But even if you do, listen to me, as you would to a foolish person, while I also boast a little.¹⁷ Such boasting is not from the Lord, but I am acting like a fool.¹⁸ And since others boast about their human achievements, I will, too.¹⁹ After all, you think you are so wise, but you enjoy putting up with fools!²⁰ You put up with it when someone enslaves you, takes everything you have, takes advantage of you, takes control of everything, and slaps you in the face.²¹ I'm ashamed to say that we've been too “weak” to do that!

HOPEFORTODAY

It Came to Pass

If I must boast, I would rather boast about the things that show how weak I am (2 Corinthians 11:30).

I realize sometimes life can feel heavy. Sometimes it feels like the wind has been taken out of our sails. But if we can just believe that God is in control, if we can believe that He's got us in the palm of His hand, then no matter what comes against us, we'll be able to say, "It's just a light affliction. This adversity did not come to stay. It came to pass." Paul had been through all kinds of adversities. He had been shipwrecked several times and spent the night on the open seas. He'd been bitten by snakes, beaten, thrown into prison, been without food and shelter, yet he said, "It's only a light affliction." In other words, he was focused on what was right rather than what was wrong. He knew in the grand scheme of his life that God was still in control.

When we learn to downplay our adversities, it helps us to stay encouraged; it lifts our hopes and gives our faith something to work with. When you go around thinking, “Poor old me. Man, I can’t believe this is happening. It’s so hard. I’ll never get out of it,” all that’s doing is draining your strength, draining your energy. You need to start telling yourself every day, “This adversity is no match for me. It’s just a light affliction.” You’ve got to keep the right perspective.

The Scripture goes on to say, “For our present troubles are small and won’t last very long” (2 Corinthians 4:17). In other words, it’s only temporary. It’s not going to last forever. One of the most common lies that comes to our mind is, “Things are never going to change.” “You’re never going to get well.” “You’re never going to be happy.” “You’re never going to break that addiction.” No, don’t believe the “never” lies. When adversities and disappointments come, instead of getting upset, our first response should be, “This too shall pass. It didn’t come to stay. It’s only temporary.” David put it this way, “Even when I walk through the darkest valley.” He was saying, “We’re not going to stay there. We’re coming through it.”

But if we’re going to have the right perspective, we can’t sit around thinking, “Oh, man. This is never going to change.” And, “I’ve been praying for three years about my child.” And, “I don’t see how I could get out of debt.” No, change your view. It’s only temporary. God is working behind the scenes in your life right now. It’s only a matter of time before you see things change in your favor.

But whatever they dare to boast about—I'm talking like a fool again—I dare to boast about it, too. ²² Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they descendants of Abraham? So am I. ²³ Are they servants of Christ? I know I sound like a madman, but I have served him far more! I have worked harder, been put in prison more often, been whipped times without number, and faced death again and again. ²⁴ Five different times the Jewish leaders gave me thirty-nine lashes. ²⁵ Three times I was beaten with rods. Once I was stoned. Three times I was shipwrecked. Once I spent a whole night and a day adrift at sea. ²⁶ I have traveled on many long journeys. I have faced danger from rivers and from robbers. I have faced danger from my own people, the Jews, as well as from the Gentiles. I have faced danger in the cities, in the deserts, and on the seas. And I have faced danger from men who claim to be believers but are not.* ²⁷ I have worked hard and long, enduring many sleepless nights. I have been hungry and thirsty and have often gone without food. I have shivered in the cold, without enough clothing to keep me warm.

²⁸ Then, besides all this, I have the daily burden of my concern for all the churches. ²⁹ Who is weak without my feeling that weakness? Who is led astray, and I do not burn with anger?

³⁰ If I must boast, I would rather boast about the things that show how weak I am. ³¹ God, the Father of our Lord Jesus, who is worthy of eternal praise, knows I am not lying. ³² When I was in Damascus, the governor under King Aretas kept guards at the city gates to catch me. ³³ I had to be lowered in a basket through a window in the city wall to escape from him.

Chapter 12

Paul's Vision and His Thorn in the Flesh

This boasting will do no good, but I must go on. I will reluctantly tell about visions and revelations from the Lord. ² I* was caught up to the third heaven fourteen years ago. Whether I was in my body or out of my body, I don't know—only God knows. ³ Yes, only God knows whether I was in my body or outside my body. But I do know ⁴ that I was caught up* to paradise and heard things so astounding that they cannot be expressed in words, things no human is allowed to tell.

⁵ That experience is worth boasting about, but I'm not going to do it. I will boast only about my weaknesses. ⁶ If I wanted to boast, I would be no fool in doing so, because I would be telling the truth. But I won't do it, because I don't want anyone to give me credit beyond what they can see in my life or hear in my message, ⁷ even though I have received such wonderful revelations from God. So to keep me from becoming proud, I was given a thorn in my flesh, a messenger from Satan to torment me and keep me from becoming proud.

⁸ Three different times I begged the Lord to take it away. ⁹ Each time he said, “My grace is all you need. My power works best in weakness.” So now I am glad to boast about my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ can work through me.

10 That's why I take pleasure in my weaknesses, and in the insults, hardships, persecutions, and troubles that I suffer for Christ. For when I am weak, then I am strong.

HOPENOTE

Power in Weakness

Each time he said, "My grace is all you need. My power works best in weakness." So now I am glad to boast about my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ can work through me (2 Corinthians 12:9).

Grace is God's unmerited favor. It's kindness from Him that we don't deserve. Grace has a way of empowering and strengthening us. No matter what has happened in your past, you can receive God's grace and forgiveness and start fresh today. You can hold your head up high because His grace is enough, it is sufficient, it is all you need. We may not be perfect, but we are forgiven.

When you go around holding on to your past mistakes or think you have to try to make things up to God, it's like saying that His grace isn't enough. You are saying that the price that Jesus paid on the cross just wasn't enough. But Jesus has already paid in full for your mistakes. All you have to do is receive His grace today. Once you have experienced God's grace, then extend that grace to others.

Do not hold grudges and punish people for their past mistakes; instead, give them favor to start over. Today is a day of new beginnings for each of us. We all have reason to be thankful that we worship and serve the God of second chances.

Paul's Concern for the Corinthians

¹¹ You have made me act like a fool—boasting like this.* You ought to be writing commendations for me, for I am not at all inferior to these “super apostles,” even though I am nothing at all. ¹² When I was with you, I certainly gave you proof that I am an apostle. For I patiently did many signs and wonders and miracles among you. ¹³ The only thing I failed to do, which I do in the other churches, was to become a financial burden to you. Please forgive me for this wrong!

HOPENOTE

Source of Strength

That's why I take pleasure in my weaknesses, and in the insults, hardships, persecutions, and troubles that I suffer for Christ. For when I am weak, then I am strong (2 Corinthians 12:10).

Most people don't go around saying, “Oh, thank you for those insults. I love hardships. I take pleasure in persecutions. Oh yeah—more troubles, bring em' on!" But Paul knew something that most people didn't understand. He had a revelation that when he is at his weakest in the natural, he is fully dependent on God—His strength. See, too often, when things are going well, when we're living on top of the world, so to speak, it's easy to lose sight of how we got there. We feel so pleased and proud of all our hard work. And yes, God does bless hard work, but He wants us to be fully dependent on Him, knowing that He is the source of all blessings. When hard times come, people who haven't prayed in years suddenly decide to get on their knees. Paul was thankful that he could tap into the Source of strength when he was weak. We should follow Paul's example and rejoice even in the hard times, knowing that He is filling us with strength and leading us to the place of victory, but let's also be determined to rejoice and give thanks in the good times, knowing that God is Jehovah Jireh—our Provider.

14 Now I am coming to you for the third time, and I will not be a burden to you. I don't want what you have—I want you. After all, children don't provide for their parents. Rather, parents provide for their children. 15 I will gladly spend myself and all I have for you, even though it seems that the more I love you, the less you love me.

16 Some of you admit I was not a burden to you. But others still think I was sneaky and took advantage of you by trickery.

17 But how? Did any of the men I sent to you take advantage of you? 18 When I urged Titus to visit you and sent our other brother with him, did Titus take advantage of you? No! For we have the same spirit and walk in each other's steps, doing things the same way.

19 Perhaps you think we're saying these things just to defend ourselves. No, we tell you this as Christ's servants, and with God as our witness. Everything we do, dear friends, is to strengthen you. 20 For I am afraid that when I come I won't like what I find, and you won't like my response. I am afraid that I will find quarreling, jealousy, anger, selfishness, slander, gossip, arrogance, and disorderly behavior. 21 Yes, I am afraid that when I come again, God will humble me in your presence. And I will be grieved because many of you have not given up your old sins. You have not repented of your impurity, sexual immorality, and eagerness for lustful pleasure.

Paul's Final Advice

This is the third time I am coming to visit you (and as the Scriptures say, "The facts of every case must be established by the testimony of two or three witnesses"*). 2 I have already warned those who had been sinning when I was there on my second visit. Now I again warn them and all others, just as I did before, that next time I will not spare them.

3 I will give you all the proof you want that Christ speaks through me. Christ is not weak when he deals with you; he is powerful among you. ⁴ Although he was crucified in weakness, he now lives by the power of God. We, too, are weak, just as Christ was, but when we deal with you we will be alive with him and will have God's power.

⁵ Examine yourselves to see if your faith is genuine. Test yourselves. Surely you know that Jesus Christ is among you^{*}; if not, you have failed the test of genuine faith. ⁶ As you test yourselves, I hope you will recognize that we have not failed the test of apostolic authority.

⁷ We pray to God that you will not do what is wrong by refusing our correction. I hope we won't need to demonstrate our authority when we arrive. Do the right thing before we come—even if that makes it look like we have failed to demonstrate our authority. ⁸ For we cannot oppose the truth, but must always stand for the truth. ⁹ We are glad to seem weak if it helps show that you are actually strong. We pray that you will become mature.

¹⁰ I am writing this to you before I come, hoping that I won't need to deal severely with you when I do come. For I want to use the authority the Lord has given me to strengthen you, not to tear you down.

Paul's Final Greetings

¹¹ Dear brothers and sisters,^{*} I close my letter with these last words: Be joyful. Grow to maturity. Encourage each other. Live in harmony and peace. Then the God of love and peace will be with you.

¹² Greet each other with Christian love.* ¹³ All of God's people here send you their greetings.

¹⁴*May the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

INTRO TO THE BOOK OF

Galatians

Author:

Paul

Original Audience:

The churches in southern Galatia

Date of Writing:

AD 49

Setting:

The controversy regarding the church's relationship with new believers, especially the Gentiles' relationship to the Jewish laws

Key People:

Paul, Peter, Barnabas, Titus, Abraham, false teachers

Key Verses:

There is no longer Jew or Gentile, slave or free, male and female. For you are all one in Christ Jesus (3:28).

So Christ has truly set us free. Now make sure that you stay free, and don't get tied up again in slavery to the law (5:1).

Finding Hope and Encouragement in Galatians

The book of Galatians clarifies the gospel message against the subtle but deadly danger of a works salvation, meaning that we have to do more than trust in Jesus' finished work on the cross. Paul reiterates that salvation is through faith in Jesus Christ alone.

This letter came in response to an extreme Jewish faction within the church known as Judaizers, who were teaching that Gentile Christians had to submit to Jewish laws and traditions, in addition to believing in Christ for their salvation. Galatians was written to disprove the Judaizers and to remind the hearers of the true gospel: Salvation is by God's grace through faith in Jesus Christ and nothing else. We cannot do any more through our works to earn God's acceptance.

Galatians stands as a safeguard against all people that teach a salvation by faith plus human effort. Paul reminds us in this letter that there is nothing else that needs to be done. Jesus has done it all for us. We are justified through faith in Him, and Him alone. We have freedom from the law. We have liberty in Jesus Christ. We don't have to do anything to earn a relationship with Him; however, a relationship with Him affects our actions.

Chapter 1

Greetings from Paul

This letter is from Paul, an apostle. I was not appointed by any group of people or any human authority, but by Jesus Christ himself and by God the Father, who raised Jesus from the dead.

² All the brothers and sisters* here join me in sending this letter to the churches of Galatia.

³ May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ* give you grace and peace. ⁴ Jesus gave his life for our sins, just as God our Father planned, in order to rescue us from this evil world in which we live. ⁵ All glory to God forever and ever! Amen.

HOPENOTE

No Reservations

Obviously, I'm not trying to win the approval of people, but of God. If pleasing people were my goal, I would not be Christ's servant (Galatians 1:10).

I like to make people happy. I enjoy doing things for others and watching their countenance change for the better. But there are times when it is impossible or even wrong to please other people. Paul was obviously not worried about trying to please the people around him. It's not that he didn't care about others; it's that he was completely focused on serving the Lord.

Are you worried about what other people think of you? Is it keeping you from following God with your whole heart? Are you more concerned about what other people think of you than what God thinks? Don't let the fear of man keep you from all God has for you. Instead, follow those God-given desires within you, and don't let others hold you back. Don't let small-minded or jealous people drag you down. All that matters in the end is fulfilling God's plan for your life. You are called to serve God without reserve, so fulfill His plan without letting others sidetrack you.

There Is Only One Good News

⁶ I am shocked that you are turning away so soon from God, who called you to himself through the loving mercy of Christ.* You are following a different way that pretends to be the Good News ⁷ but is not the Good News at all. You are being fooled by those who deliberately twist the truth concerning Christ.

⁸ Let God's curse fall on anyone, including us or even an angel from heaven, who preaches a different kind of Good News than the one we preached to you. ⁹ I say again what we have said before: If anyone preaches any other Good News than the one you welcomed, let that person be cursed.

¹⁰ Obviously, I'm not trying to win the approval of people, but of God. If pleasing people were my goal, I would not be Christ's servant.

Paul's Message Comes from Christ

¹¹ Dear brothers and sisters, I want you to understand that the gospel message I preach is not based on mere human reasoning. ¹² I received my message from no human source, and no one taught me. Instead, I received it by direct revelation from Jesus Christ.*

¹³ You know what I was like when I followed the Jewish religion—how I violently persecuted God's church. I did my best to destroy it. ¹⁴ I was far ahead of my fellow Jews in my zeal for the traditions of my ancestors.

¹⁵ But even before I was born, God chose me and called me by his marvelous grace. Then it pleased him ¹⁶ to reveal his Son to me* so that I would proclaim the Good News about Jesus to the Gentiles.

When this happened, I did not rush out to consult with any human being.* ¹⁷ Nor did I go up to Jerusalem to consult with those who were apostles before I was. Instead, I went away into Arabia, and later I returned to the city of Damascus.

¹⁸ Then three years later I went to Jerusalem to get to know Peter,* and I stayed with him for fifteen days. ¹⁹ The only other apostle I met at that time was James, the Lord's brother. ²⁰ I declare before God that what I am writing to you is not a lie.

²¹ After that visit I went north into the provinces of Syria and Cilicia. ²² And still the Christians in the churches in Judea didn't know me personally. ²³ All they knew was that people were saying, "The one who used to persecute us is now preaching the very faith he tried to destroy!" ²⁴ And they praised God because of me.

Chapter 2

The Apostles Accept Paul

Then fourteen years later I went back to Jerusalem again, this time with Barnabas; and Titus came along, too. ² I went there because God revealed to me that I should go. While I was there I met privately with those considered to be leaders of the church and shared with them the message I had been preaching to the Gentiles. I wanted to make sure that we were in agreement, for fear that all my efforts had been wasted and I was running the race for nothing.³ And they supported me and did not even demand that my companion Titus be circumcised, though he was a Gentile.*

⁴ Even that question came up only because of some so-called Christians there—false ones, really*—who were secretly brought in. They sneaked in to spy on us and take away the freedom we have in Christ Jesus. They wanted to enslave us and force us to follow their Jewish regulations.⁵ But we refused to give in to them for a single moment. We wanted to preserve the truth of the gospel message for you.

⁶ And the leaders of the church had nothing to add to what I was preaching. (By the way, their reputation as great leaders made no difference to me, for God has no favorites.)⁷ Instead, they saw that God had given me the responsibility of preaching the gospel to the Gentiles, just as he had given Peter the responsibility of preaching to the Jews.⁸ For the same God who worked through Peter as the apostle to the Jews also worked through me as the apostle to the Gentiles.

⁹ In fact, James, Peter,* and John, who were known as pillars of the church, recognized the gift God had given me, and they accepted Barnabas and me as their co-workers. They encouraged us to keep preaching to the Gentiles, while they continued their work with the Jews.¹⁰ Their only suggestion was that we keep on helping the poor, which I have always been eager to do.

HOPENOTE

The God Kind of Faith

My old self has been crucified with Christ. It is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me. So I live in this earthly body by trusting in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me (Galatians 2:20).

Faith is all around us. People have faith in so many different things: faith that a friend will be true, faith that their job is taking them on a certain career path, faith that the chair they are sitting on is going to hold them up! Faith is simply believing in something. But there are different kinds, or levels, of faith. There's a difference between having faith in God and having the faith of God. When you open your heart to the God kind of faith, you're actually allowing His faith to work through you.

The God kind of faith will cause you to believe for things when you don't even know how they'll happen. It is the kind of faith that will cause you to believe even when everyone around you is telling you it's impossible. And it probably won't make sense in your mind, but you have to allow your spirit to rise higher than your thinking. Don't talk yourself out of believing. Don't focus on all the reasons why not; instead allow God's faith to rise up within you. Meditate on His Word that says “you can do all things through Christ” and “you are strong in the Lord and the power of His might” and “with God all things are possible.” As you allow God’s faith to flow through you, He’ll take you places you’ve never dreamed. As David said, “Take delight in the LORD and He will give you your heart’s desires” (Psalm 37:4).

Paul Confronts Peter

¹¹ But when Peter came to Antioch, I had to oppose him to his face, for what he did was very wrong. ¹² When he first arrived, he ate with the Gentile Christians, who were not circumcised. But afterward, when some friends of James came, Peter wouldn’t eat with the Gentiles anymore. He was afraid of criticism from these people who insisted on the necessity of circumcision. ¹³ As a result, other Jewish Christians followed Peter’s hypocrisy, and even Barnabas was led astray by their hypocrisy.

¹⁴ When I saw that they were not following the truth of the gospel message, I said to Peter in front of all the others, “Since you, a Jew by birth, have discarded the Jewish laws and are living like a Gentile, why are you now trying to make these Gentiles follow the Jewish traditions?”

¹⁵ “You and I are Jews by birth, not ‘sinners’ like the Gentiles. ¹⁶ Yet we know that a person is made right with God by faith in Jesus Christ, not by obeying the law. And we have believed in Christ Jesus, so that we might be made right with God because of our faith in Christ, not because we have obeyed the law. For no one will ever be made right with God by obeying the law.”*

¹⁷ But suppose we seek to be made right with God through faith in Christ and then we are found guilty because we have abandoned the law. Would that mean Christ has led us into sin? Absolutely not! ¹⁸ Rather, I am a sinner if I rebuild the old system of law I already tore down. ¹⁹ For when I tried to keep the law, it condemned me. So I died to the law—I stopped trying to meet all its requirements—so that I might live for God. ²⁰ My old self has been crucified with Christ.* It is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me. So I live in this earthly body by trusting in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me. ²¹ I do not treat the grace of God as meaningless. For if keeping the law could make us right with God, then there was no need for Christ to die.

Chapter 3

The Law and Faith in Christ

Oh, foolish Galatians! Who has cast an evil spell on you? For the meaning of Jesus Christ’s death was made as clear to you as if you had seen a picture of his death on the cross. ² Let me ask you this one question: Did you receive the Holy Spirit by obeying the law of Moses? Of course not! You received the Spirit because you believed the message you heard about Christ. ³ How foolish can you be? After starting your Christian lives in the Spirit, why are you now trying to become perfect by your own human effort? ⁴ Have you experienced* so much for nothing? Surely it was not in vain, was it?

⁵ I ask you again, does God give you the Holy Spirit and work miracles among you because you obey the law? Of course not! It is because you believe the message you heard about Christ.

⁶ In the same way, “Abraham believed God, and God counted him as righteous because of his faith.”* ⁷ The real children of Abraham, then, are those who put their faith in God.

HOPENOTE

Faith and Righteousness

*In the same way, “Abraham believed God, and God counted him as righteous because of his faith”

So many people today are looking for ways to be righteous or to be in “right standing” with God. The Bible simply says that when we believe God, that faith is credited to us as righteousness.

The proof, or evidence, of our faith in Him is found in our actions, the way we live. The Bible says that faith without works is dead. That means, when we really believe something, our actions will support what we believe. Because Abraham believed God, he obeyed His word and left his father's land even when he didn't even know where he was going. In the same way, when we believe God, we have to leave some things behind in order to embrace the new life He has in store. As you let go of the old and, by faith, embrace God's promises, know that He is leading you down paths of righteousness for His name's sake! Keep believing, keep stepping out, knowing that your best days are ahead.

⁸ What's more, the Scriptures looked forward to this time when God would declare the Gentiles to be righteous because of their faith. God proclaimed this good news to Abraham long ago when he said, "All nations will be blessed through you."*
⁹ So all who put their faith in Christ share the same blessing Abraham received because of his faith.

¹⁰ But those who depend on the law to make them right with God are under his curse, for the Scriptures say, "Cursed is everyone who does not observe and obey all the commands that are written in God's Book of the Law."* ¹¹ So it is clear that no one can be made right with God by trying to keep the law. For the Scriptures say, "It is through faith that a righteous person has life."* ¹² This way of faith is very different from the way of law, which says, "It is through obeying the law that a person has life."*

¹³ But Christ has rescued us from the curse pronounced by the law. When he was hung on the cross, he took upon himself the curse for our wrongdoing. For it is written in the Scriptures, “Cursed is everyone who is hung on a tree.”* ¹⁴ Through Christ Jesus, God has blessed the Gentiles with the same blessing he promised to Abraham, so that we who are believers might receive the promised* Holy Spirit through faith.

The Law and God's Promise

¹⁵ Dear brothers and sisters,* here's an example from everyday life. Just as no one can set aside or amend an irrevocable agreement, so it is in this case. ¹⁶ God gave the promises to Abraham and his child.* And notice that the Scripture doesn't say “to his children,*” as if it meant many descendants. Rather, it says “to his child”—and that, of course, means Christ. ¹⁷ This is what I am trying to say: The agreement God made with Abraham could not be canceled 430 years later when God gave the law to Moses. God would be breaking his promise. ¹⁸ For if the inheritance could be received by keeping the law, then it would not be the result of accepting God's promise. But God graciously gave it to Abraham as a promise.

¹⁹ Why, then, was the law given? It was given alongside the promise to show people their sins. But the law was designed to last only until the coming of the child who was promised. God gave his law through angels to Moses, who was the mediator between God and the people. ²⁰ Now a mediator is helpful if more than one party must reach an agreement. But God, who is one, did not use a mediator when he gave his promise to Abraham.

HOPENOTE

The Seed of Abraham

And now that you belong to Christ, you are the true children of Abraham. You are his heirs, and God's promise to Abraham belongs to you (Galatians 3:29).

It says in Galatians, "If you belong to Christ, then you are the seed of Abraham, and heirs according to the promise." That means that because of what God has done, we now have a right to have total victory. We have a right to the blessings of Abraham. That's why you can't listen to those lies of the enemy that keep telling you, "You come from the wrong family. You're never going to be successful. You're depressed because your mother was depressed." Or, "You've got a problem with alcohol because of your father or your grandfather. You'll never change." Or maybe, "There is divorce all through your family line. Now you're headed down that same direction." No, those are lies. When you accept Jesus as your Savior, you become a part of God's family. You've entered into a new bloodline. You have a right to be free! If God were looking at you, He'd say what He said to the crippled woman (see Luke 13:16) and to Zacchaeus (see Luke 19:1-9), "Should not this man be free from this addiction, seeing that he is a son of Abraham? Should not this lady live in total victory, seeing that she is a daughter of Abraham?” God is saying the same thing to you today. “Shouldn’t you be free because of all I have done for you?”

21 Is there a conflict, then, between God’s law and God’s promises? * Absolutely not! If the law could give us new life, we could be made right with God by obeying it. 22 But the Scriptures declare that we are all prisoners of sin, so we receive God’s promise of freedom only by believing in Jesus Christ.

God’s Children through Faith

23 Before the way of faith in Christ was available to us, we were placed under guard by the law. We were kept in protective custody, so to speak, until the way of faith was revealed.

24 Let me put it another way. The law was our guardian until Christ came; it protected us until we could be made right with God through faith. 25 And now that the way of faith has come, we no longer need the law as our guardian.

26 For you are all children * of God through faith in Christ Jesus. 27 And all who have been united with Christ in baptism have put on Christ, like putting on new clothes. * 28 There is no longer Jew or Gentile, * slave or free, male and female. For you are all one in Christ Jesus. 29 And now that you belong to Christ, you are the true children * of Abraham. You are his heirs, and God’s promise to Abraham belongs to you.

Chapter 4

Think of it this way. If a father dies and leaves an inheritance for his young children, those children are not much better off than slaves until they grow up, even though they actually own everything their father had.² They have to obey their guardians until they reach whatever age their father set.³ And that's the way it was with us before Christ came. We were like children; we were slaves to the basic spiritual principles* of this world.

⁴ But when the right time came, God sent his Son, born of a woman, subject to the law.⁵ God sent him to buy freedom for us who were slaves to the law, so that he could adopt us as his very own children.* ⁶ And because we* are his children, God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, prompting us to call out, "Abba, Father."* ⁷ Now you are no longer a slave but God's own child.* And since you are his child, God has made you his heir.

Paul's Concern for the Galatians

⁸ Before you Gentiles knew God, you were slaves to so-called gods that do not even exist.⁹ So now that you know God (or should I say, now that God knows you), why do you want to go back again and become slaves once more to the weak and useless spiritual principles of this world? ¹⁰ You are trying to earn favor with God by observing certain days or months or seasons or years.¹¹ I fear for you. Perhaps all my hard work with you was for nothing.¹² Dear brothers and sisters,* I plead with you to live as I do in freedom from these things, for I have become like you Gentiles—free from those laws.

You did not mistreat me when I first preached to you.¹³ Surely you remember that I was sick when I first brought you the Good News.¹⁴ But even though my condition tempted you to reject me, you did not despise me or turn me away. No, you took me in and cared for me as though I were an angel from God or even Christ Jesus himself.¹⁵ Where is that joyful and grateful spirit you felt then? I am sure you would have taken out your own eyes and given them to me if it had been possible.¹⁶ Have I now become your enemy because I am telling you the truth?

¹⁷ Those false teachers are so eager to win your favor, but their intentions are not good. They are trying to shut you off from me so that you will pay attention only to them.¹⁸ If someone is eager to do good things for you, that's all right; but let them do it all the time, not just when I'm with you.

¹⁹ Oh, my dear children! I feel as if I'm going through labor pains for you again, and they will continue until Christ is fully developed in your lives.²⁰ I wish I were with you right now so I could change my tone. But at this distance I don't know how else to help you.

Abraham's Two Children

²¹ Tell me, you who want to live under the law, do you know what the law actually says? ²² The Scriptures say that Abraham had two sons, one from his slave wife and one from his freeborn wife.* ²³ The son of the slave wife was born in a human attempt to bring about the fulfillment of God's promise.

But the son of the freeborn wife was born as God's own fulfillment of his promise.

24 These two women serve as an illustration of God's two covenants. The first woman, Hagar, represents Mount Sinai where people received the law that enslaved them. 25 And now Jerusalem is just like Mount Sinai in Arabia,* because she and her children live in slavery to the law. 26 But the other woman, Sarah, represents the heavenly Jerusalem. She is the free woman, and she is our mother. 27 As Isaiah said, “Rejoice, O childless woman, you who have never given birth!

Break into a joyful shout,
you who have never been in labor!
For the desolate woman now has more children than the woman who lives with her husband!”*

28 And you, dear brothers and sisters, are children of the promise, just like Isaac. 29 But you are now being persecuted by those who want you to keep the law, just as Ishmael, the child born by human effort, persecuted Isaac, the child born by the power of the Spirit.

30 But what do the Scriptures say about that? “Get rid of the slave and her son, for the son of the slave woman will not share the inheritance with the free woman's son.”* 31 So, dear brothers and sisters, we are not children of the slave woman; we are children of the free woman.

Chapter 5

Freedom in Christ

So Christ has truly set us free. Now make sure that you stay free, and don't get tied up again in slavery to the law.

² Listen! I, Paul, tell you this: If you are counting on circumcision to make you right with God, then Christ will be of no benefit to you. ³ I'll say it again. If you are trying to find favor with God by being circumcised, you must obey every regulation in the whole law of Moses. ⁴ For if you are trying to make yourselves right with God by keeping the law, you have been cut off from Christ! You have fallen away from God's grace.

⁵ But we who live by the Spirit eagerly wait to receive by faith the righteousness God has promised to us. ⁶ For when we place our faith in Christ Jesus, there is no benefit in being circumcised or being uncircumcised. What is important is faith expressing itself in love.

HOPENOTE

Set Free, Stay Free

So Christ has truly set us free. Now make sure that you stay free, and don't get tied up again in slavery to the law (Galatians 5:1).

All through life things are going to come against you to try and take away your freedom. The apostle Paul said, “You have been set free; now, stay free!” You have to make sure you stay free. No matter what may come against you, don’t give in to wrong thinking; don’t quit living a life of obedience to God. Don’t get lazy and say, “Oh, it’s just me. This is the way I’ve always been. My family struggled with these same problems.” No, you’ve got to be aggressive if you’re going to hold onto the freedom that rightly belongs to you. Maybe you can look back in your family line and see a long history of defeat, mediocrity, and addictions. Maybe your parents or relatives were good people, but they struggled with some of the same things that are trying to hold you back today. But the good news is, when you came to Christ, you entered into a new bloodline. You have the DNA of the Most High God, the Creator of the Universe. Your spiritual bloodline is more powerful than your natural bloodline. You are free from your past, free from condemnation, free from guilt and shame, so live free and stay free in Jesus’ name!

⁷ You were running the race so well. Who has held you back from following the truth? ⁸ It certainly isn’t God, for he is the one who called you to freedom. ⁹ This false teaching is like a little yeast that spreads through the whole batch of dough! ¹⁰ I am trusting the Lord to keep you from believing false teachings. God will judge that person, whoever he is, who has been confusing you.

¹¹ Dear brothers and sisters,* if I were still preaching that you must be circumcised—as some say I do—why am I still being persecuted? If I were no longer preaching salvation through the cross of Christ, no one would be offended. ¹² I just wish that those troublemakers who want to mutilate you by circumcision would mutilate themselves.*

HOPENOTE

Get Your Hopes Up

But we who live by the Spirit eagerly wait to receive by faith the righteousness God has promised to us (Galatians 5:5).

What are you expecting in life? Good things? Bad things? Big things? Little things? Anything at all? God wants you to get your hopes up! The Bible says, “Faith is the substance of things hoped for.” One definition of hope is confident expectancy. You can’t even have faith if you don’t first have hope. Hope is the very substance, the very foundation of our faith!

Your expectations set the limits for your life. If you never expect anything good, you’re never going to receive anything good. If you don’t expect things to get better, then nothing will get better. God promises to meet you at your level of expectancy. That's why Jesus said in Matthew 9:29: "Because of your faith, it will happen." This phrase can also be expressed, "You can have what your faith expects."

Make the decision to expect the favor of God in your life. Start expecting to overcome every challenge you face. Start expecting God to meet all of your needs. Live every day of your life filled with anticipation that God is going to bless you exceedingly, abundantly above and beyond what you could ever ask, think, or imagine!

13 For you have been called to live in freedom, my brothers and sisters. But don't use your freedom to satisfy your sinful nature. Instead, use your freedom to serve one another in love. 14 For the whole law can be summed up in this one command: "Love your neighbor as yourself."* 15 But if you are always biting and devouring one another, watch out! Beware of destroying one another.

Living by the Spirit's Power

HOPENOTE

Choose His Spirit

So I say, let the Holy Spirit guide your lives. Then you *won't be doing what your sinful nature craves

The quality of your life is determined by the quality of your decisions. Researchers estimate that we make over 2,500 choices every day. Because of that, choosing to live according to the principles in God's Word is the most important decision you can make. One way God speaks to you is through your spirit, or conscience. When you choose to obey God's leading, that "inner prompting" you have will often be the Holy Spirit helping you to make the right choice!

It says in 1 John 3:21 that a guilty conscience hinders communication with our Heavenly Father. That's why it is so important to stay true to your conscience and quickly repent if you've made a mistake. Remember, Jeremiah 29:11 says that God has great plans in store for you. Listen carefully to His voice. Follow His leading. When you do, you will live the life of victory that God has in store for you.

¹⁶ So I say, let the Holy Spirit guide your lives. Then you won't be doing what your sinful nature craves. ¹⁷ The sinful nature wants to do evil, which is just the opposite of what the Spirit wants. And the Spirit gives us desires that are the opposite of what the sinful nature desires. These two forces are constantly fighting each other, so you are not free to carry out your good intentions. ¹⁸ But when you are directed by the Spirit, you are not under obligation to the law of Moses.

¹⁹ When you follow the desires of your sinful nature, the results are very clear: sexual immorality, impurity, lustful pleasures, ²⁰ idolatry, sorcery, hostility, quarreling, jealousy, outbursts of anger, selfish ambition, dissension, division, ²¹ envy, drunkenness, wild parties, and other sins like these. Let me tell you again, as I have before, that anyone living that sort of life will not inherit the Kingdom of God.

²² But the Holy Spirit produces this kind of fruit in our lives: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, ²³ gentleness, and self-control. There is no law against these things!

²⁴ Those who belong to Christ Jesus have nailed the passions and desires of their sinful nature to his cross and crucified them there. ²⁵ Since we are living by the Spirit, let us follow the Spirit's leading in every part of our lives. ²⁶ Let us not become conceited, or provoke one another, or be jealous of one another.

Chapter 6

We Harvest What We Plant

Dear brothers and sisters, if another believer* is overcome by some sin, you who are godly* should gently and humbly help that person back onto the right path. And be careful not to fall into the same temptation yourself.² Share each other's burdens, and in this way obey the law of Christ.³ If you think you are too important to help someone, you are only fooling yourself. You are not that important.

⁴ Pay careful attention to your own work, for then you will get the satisfaction of a job well done, and you won't need to compare yourself to anyone else. ⁵ For we are each responsible for our own conduct.

⁶ Those who are taught the word of God should provide for their teachers, sharing all good things with them.

⁷ Don't be misled—you cannot mock the justice of God. You will always harvest what you plant. ⁸ Those who live only to satisfy their own sinful nature will harvest decay and death from that sinful nature. But those who live to please the Spirit will harvest everlasting life from the Spirit. ⁹ So let's not get tired of doing what is good. At just the right time we will reap a harvest of blessing if we don't give up. ¹⁰ Therefore, whenever we have the opportunity, we should do good to everyone—especially to those in the family of faith.

Paul's Final Advice

¹¹ NOTICE WHAT LARGE LETTERS I USE AS I WRITE THESE CLOSING WORDS IN MY OWN HANDWRITING.

¹² Those who are trying to force you to be circumcised want to look good to others. They don't want to be persecuted for teaching that the cross of Christ alone can save. ¹³ And even those who advocate circumcision don't keep the whole law themselves. They only want you to be circumcised so they can boast about it and claim you as their disciples.

HOPENOTE

Harvest Always Comes

Don't be misled—you cannot mock the justice of God. You will always harvest what you plant (Galatians 6:7).

Have you ever looked at a large, old tree and wondered how long it has been there? It's amazing to think that at one point, that gigantic tree was merely a little seed. In the same way, our words and actions are seeds, and we will always reap a harvest on what we sow.

What are you sowing into the lives around you? What are you sowing into your future? Are you sowing encouragement, hope, blessing, love? Then that's what you'll reap in the future. But if you've been sowing criticism, judgment, and anger, it's time to start changing your seed. Pray and ask God to help you uproot those negative seeds and begin to sow good seed for your future. Keep the light of God's Word shining on your seed, and allow the refreshing water of His Spirit to pour over you. Keep planting the seeds of faith, and soon you'll see growth and enjoy the harvest of blessing God promises.

HOPENOTE

Keep Doing

So let's not get tired of doing what is good. At just the right time we will reap a harvest of blessing if we don't give up (Galatians 6:9).

Are you doing good today? Are you obeying God's Word, showing love to others, staying faithful in prayer? Then don't give up, your harvest time is coming! In the natural, you wouldn't plant a seed in the ground and then go dig it up to see if the root was growing. No, you'd just keep doing what you know to do, believing that it's all working under the soil until one day that green shoot pops through the ground! In the same way, don't get discouraged when you don't see things change right away. God is working in the soil of your life. That seed is taking root. It's growing up through the soil. There's harvest on the way!

Remember, the enemy is prowling around looking for those who he thinks will give up on their harvest. Don't let that be you! Don't dig up your seed with words of defeat and negativity. Stand strong on the truth of God's Word. When the enemy knows you aren't going to budge, he'll be forced to back down so you can move forward.

¹⁴ As for me, may I never boast about anything except the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ. Because of that cross,* my interest in this world has been crucified, and the world's interest in me has also died. ¹⁵ It doesn't matter whether we have been circumcised or not. What counts is whether we have been transformed into a new creation. ¹⁶ May God's peace and mercy be upon all who live by this principle; they are the new people of God.*

¹⁷ From now on, don't let anyone trouble me with these things. For I bear on my body the scars that show I belong to Jesus.

¹⁸ Dear brothers and sisters,* may the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

INTRO TO THE BOOK OF

Ephesians

Author:

Paul

Original Audience:

The church at Ephesus and surrounding churches

Date of Writing:

AD 60

Setting:

Written during Paul's imprisonment in Rome and sent with Tychicus to strengthen and encourage the churches in the area

Key People:

Paul, Tychicus

Key Verses:

God saved you by his grace when you believed. And you can't take credit for this; it is a gift from God. Salvation is not a reward for the good things we have done, so none of us can boast about it (2:8-9).

For there is one body and one Spirit, just as you have been called to one glorious hope for the future (4:4).

Finding Hope and Encouragement in Ephesians

Ephesians, Philippians, Colossians, and Philemon are sometimes referred to as the Prison Epistles, since they were written by Paul when imprisoned in Rome. The events behind these letters serve as a reminder that the Romans could imprison Paul, but they could not imprison the spread of the gospel.

The book of Ephesians was probably a circular letter, meaning that it was not written to one particular congregation but was intended to be circulated among many congregations in the province of Asia where Ephesus was the capital. Reasons for this assumption include (1) the omission of the words “at Ephesus” in 1:1 in many manuscripts; (2) the absence of controversy, which is the reason for so many of Paul’s other letters; and (3) the absence of personal names, which again, was a common feature of his other letters.

Ephesians is a letter of encouragement. Paul seeks to strengthen these churches to function as the living body of Christ in the world, in other words, how to be the church. Chapters 1–3 address the church, such as election, salvation by grace through faith, and the unity of the body. Chapters 4–6 describe how these spiritual truths are reflected in a believer’s conduct and the spiritual conflict with forces of evil.

This letter emphasizes that the church is diverse and needs to be unified. As believers we need each other, and the church needs believers to live Christlike in the world.

Chapter 1

Greetings from Paul

This letter is from Paul, chosen by the will of God to be an apostle of Christ Jesus.

I am writing to God's holy people in Ephesus,* who are faithful followers of Christ Jesus.

² May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give you grace and peace.

Spiritual Blessings

³ All praise to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly realms because we are united with Christ. ⁴ Even before he made the world, God loved us and chose us in Christ to be holy and without fault in his eyes. ⁵ God decided in advance to adopt us into his own family by bringing us to himself through Jesus Christ. This is what he wanted to do, and it gave him great pleasure. ⁶ So we praise God for the glorious grace he has poured out on us who belong to his dear Son.* ⁷ He is so rich in kindness and grace that he purchased our freedom with the blood of his Son and forgave our sins. ⁸ He has showered his kindness on us, along with all wisdom and understanding.

HOPENOTE

Every Spiritual Blessing

All praise to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly realms because we are united with Christ (Ephesians 1:3).

Have you thought about what it means to be blessed with every spiritual blessing? Seriously? Can you think of what that really means to be blessed with “every spiritual blessing”? What a great promise! Some blessings in your life are easy to see, and you’re probably thankful for them each and every day—your health and your family, a place to live, food on the table.

But beyond the blessing of living life, God has given you blessings in the form of talents, contentment, favor, peace, compassion, and abundance. The Bible says that you are blessed when you come in and when you go out. You are blessed with confidence and assurance that your God is who He says He is. You are kept safe and secure in the hands of God as He divinely protects you and your family. Think about all of the blessings that God has given you. Every spiritual blessing is yours, so take hold of them by faith today!

HOPENOTE

Chosen to Be Holy

Even before he made the world, God loved us and chose us in Christ to be holy and without fault in his eyes (Ephesians 1:4).

Did you know that God had a plan for you before the foundation of the earth? He created you to be holy and blameless in His sight. Why did He do that? He chose you to be His ambassador, His representative on the earth. God created you to reflect His glory. He created you to reflect His character, His righteousness, and His holiness. Think about that for a moment. Part of your purpose on this earth is to be a representative for the King of kings and the Lord of lords. Let that sink in for just a minute. Knowing that should make you want to walk a little differently. It should make you want to talk differently. That should make you think a little more carefully about where you go and what you choose to do with your time. Are you representing God's holiness today? Remember what God's called you to do, what He's equipped you to do. If there are things in your life that aren't holy, God wants to empower you to overcome those things. Receive His strength and might today so that you can walk in holiness.

⁹ God has now revealed to us his mysterious plan regarding Christ, a plan to fulfill his own good pleasure. ¹⁰ And this is the plan: At the right time he will bring everything together under the authority of Christ—everything in heaven and on earth. ¹¹ Furthermore, because we are united with Christ, we have received an inheritance from God,* for he chose us in advance, and he makes everything work out according to his plan.

¹² God's purpose was that we Jews who were the first to trust in Christ would bring praise and glory to God. ¹³ And now you Gentiles have also heard the truth, the Good News that God saves you. And when you believed in Christ, he identified you as his own* by giving you the Holy Spirit, whom he promised long ago. ¹⁴ The Spirit is God's guarantee that he will give us the inheritance he promised and that he has purchased us to be his own people. He did this so we would praise and glorify him.

Paul's Prayer for Spiritual Wisdom

HOPEFORTODAY

A Life of Praise

God's purpose was that we Jews who were the first to trust in Christ would bring praise and glory to God (Ephesians 1:12).

The apostle Paul said, "We should bring praise and glory to God." In this passage, he's not just saying that we should give God praise with our words, although that's important. The point he's making is that our life should be a gift of praise. Every bit of our existence should bring Him glory and honor. When you understand your value and not only who you are, but Whose you are, then your very presence is giving God praise. You're saying in effect, "God, thank You for making me, me." "I don't wish I had green eyes. Thank you for these brown eyes." "I don't wish I had a different personality. I like my personality." "I don't wish that I was taller. I believe I'm the right height."

When you're secure in who God made you to be and you go out each day determined to do your best with a smile on your face, your life is giving God praise. In other words, driving to work, you're giving God praise. Mowing the lawn, you're giving God praise. Going to the grocery store, you're giving God praise. Walking through the mall, you're giving God praise. I can hear Victoria saying, "Joel, I'm going to the mall. I've got to give God praise."

Honor God today by accepting yourself. You are valuable. You are one of a kind. Be the best that you can be. Don't ever wish that you were something else. If God wanted you to be different, He would have made you that way. Get up every morning and say things like, "I'm the apple of God's eye. I'm His masterpiece. His fingerprints are all over me." Get your mind going in the right direction. See yourself the way God sees you—full of hope, promise, and purpose!

Remember, you don't get your value from what you look like or from what you can do. God Himself breathed His life into you! So don't ever go around and think, "Well, I'm just a business person." "I'm just a school teacher." "I'm just a stay-at-home mom." No, you're not just anything. You're a child of the Most High God. Put your shoulders back. Hold your head up high, and give Him praise by a life well lived.

¹⁵ Ever since I first heard of your strong faith in the Lord Jesus and your love for God's people everywhere,* ¹⁶ I have not stopped thanking God for you. I pray for you constantly, ¹⁷ asking God, the glorious Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, to give you spiritual wisdom* and insight so that you might grow in your knowledge of God. ¹⁸ I pray that your hearts will be flooded with light so that you can understand the confident hope he has given to those he called—his holy people who are his rich and glorious inheritance.*

HOPENOTE

Prearranged Blessing

Furthermore, because we are united with Christ, we have received an inheritance from God, for he chose us in advance, and he makes everything work out according to his plan (Ephesians 1:11).

Little things and big things, God has already marked your moments. Because the Lord knows everything about us: our qualities, shortcomings, mistakes, and victories, we can quit worrying. We don't have to lose any sleep! God has you, and everything about you, in the palm of His hand. There's nothing that you're facing right now, and nothing you will ever face in the future, that God's not already aware of. He's already got it figured out. The Scripture says, "'For I know the plans I have for you,' says the LORD. 'They are plans for good and not for disaster, to give you a future and a hope'" (Jeremiah 29:11). One verse says, "God has prearranged for you to live the good life." That means for every setback, God has prearranged a comeback. For every failure, God has prearranged victory. For every disappointment, God has prearranged restoration. For every unfair thing, God has prearranged vindication. Be encouraged today because God sees your future as bright and full of hope!

19 I also pray that you will understand the incredible greatness of God's power for us who believe him. This is the same mighty power²⁰ that raised Christ from the dead and seated him in the place of honor at God's right hand in the heavenly realms.²¹ Now he is far above any ruler or authority or power or leader or anything else—not only in this world but also in the world to come.²² God has put all things under the authority of Christ and has made him head over all things for the benefit of the church.²³ And the church is his body; it is made full and complete by Christ, who fills all things everywhere with himself.

Chapter 2

Made Alive with Christ

HOPENOTE

You Are Alive

Once you were dead because of your disobedience and your many sins (Ephesians 2:1).

Aren't you glad that Jesus came to give us life? Think about that for a minute right now. We used to be dead in our sins and trespasses. We used to have no hope. We used to live in fear. But once you accepted Jesus as your Lord and Savior, you weren't dead in your sin anymore. You now have hope for the future. You are alive in Christ! God wants you to live life to the fullest today.

It doesn't matter how you may feel or what you are facing, start thanking God for giving you life. Even if He didn't do another thing for us, giving us eternal life is more than enough reason to praise and thank Him every day. Thank Him for eyes to see and ears to hear. Thank Him for the air that you breathe. Thank Him for loving you and giving you life today. Praise opens the door to blessing. Praise always precedes the victory! As you thank Him for the little things, you'll begin to see God moving in your life in ways you never thought possible. He'll pour out more of His favor and blessing on you, and you'll live the abundant life that only He can give.

Once you were dead because of your disobedience and your many sins.² You used to live in sin, just like the rest of the world, obeying the devil—the commander of the powers in the unseen world.* He is the spirit at work in the hearts of those who refuse to obey God.³ All of us used to live that way, following the passionate desires and inclinations of our sinful nature. By our very nature we were subject to God's anger, just like everyone else.

HOPENOTE

Take the Limits Off

For he raised us from the dead along with Christ and seated us with him in the heavenly realms because we are united with Christ Jesus. So God can point to us in all future ages as examples of the incredible wealth of his grace and kindness toward us, as shown in all he has done for us who are united with Christ Jesus (Ephesians 2:6-7).

We serve a God of unlimited grace, favor, and blessing. He longs to show you His goodness and pour out His abundance in your life. When God sees you, He sees unlimited possibility. He sees unlimited potential. He sees unlimited resources. God's grace and favor in your life enables you to become what He already made you capable of becoming, but you have to first open your heart and take the limits off.

We limit God in our thinking. Thoughts of doubt, unbelief, and unforgiveness will close the door to His favor. In Mark chapter 6, it says that Jesus could do no mighty works in a particular town because of the unbelief of the people. It works the same way today. But when you choose thoughts of faith and expectancy, you are opening the door for God to work in your life. You are taking the limits off. You are giving Him the opportunity to multiply what you have in your hand. Choose to take the limits off by choosing His thoughts of victory. Choose thoughts of increase and blessing. As you do, the evidences of God's grace in your life will rise higher and higher.

4 But God is so rich in mercy, and he loved us so much, ⁵ that even though we were dead because of our sins, he gave us life when he raised Christ from the dead. (It is only by God's grace that you have been saved!)⁶ For he raised us from the dead along with Christ and seated us with him in the heavenly realms because we are united with Christ Jesus.⁷ So God can point to us in all future ages as examples of the incredible wealth of his grace and kindness toward us, as shown in all he has done for us who are united with Christ Jesus.

⁸ God saved you by his grace when you believed. And you can't take credit for this; it is a gift from God.⁹ Salvation is not a reward for the good things we have done, so none of us can boast about it.¹⁰ For we are God's masterpiece. He has created us anew in Christ Jesus, so we can do the good things he planned for us long ago.

Oneness and Peace in Christ

¹¹ Don't forget that you Gentiles used to be outsiders. You were called "uncircumcised heathens" by the Jews, who were proud of their circumcision, even though it affected only their bodies and not their hearts.¹² In those days you were living apart from Christ. You were excluded from citizenship among the people of Israel, and you did not know the covenant promises God had made to them. You lived in this world without God and without hope.¹³ But now you have been united with Christ Jesus. Once you were far away from God, but now you have been brought near to him through the blood of Christ.

¹⁴ For Christ himself has brought peace to us. He united Jews and Gentiles into one people when, in his own body on the cross, he broke down the wall of hostility that separated us. ¹⁵ He did this by ending the system of law with its commandments and regulations. He made peace between Jews and Gentiles by creating in himself one new people from the two groups. ¹⁶ Together as one body, Christ reconciled both groups to God by means of his death on the cross, and our hostility toward each other was put to death.

¹⁷ He brought this Good News of peace to you Gentiles who were far away from him, and peace to the Jews who were near. ¹⁸ Now all of us can come to the Father through the same Holy Spirit because of what Christ has done for us.

A Temple for the Lord

¹⁹ So now you Gentiles are no longer strangers and foreigners. You are citizens along with all of God's holy people. You are members of God's family. ²⁰ Together, we are his house, built on the foundation of the apostles and the prophets. And the cornerstone is Christ Jesus himself. ²¹ We are carefully joined together in him, becoming a holy temple for the Lord. ²² Through him you Gentiles are also being made part of this dwelling where God lives by his Spirit.

HOPENOTE

He's Planned Good Things

For we are God's masterpiece. He has created us anew in Christ Jesus, so we can do the good things he planned for us long ago (Ephesians 2:10).

God has already prepared paths for you to take in your future! When God laid out the plan for your life, He lined up the right people, the right circumstances, and the right breaks. In your future, He's already released favor, supernatural opportunities, and divine connections. The opportunities you need in life have already been preordained to come across your path. If you will stay in faith and go out each day and be a person of excellence, you'll walk into these divine appointments. It will be just as if you stumbled into God's blessings!

When you really understand this principle, you'll begin to get excited about every single day! You'll have a spring in your step as you think about what blessing is coming next! It could be today. It could be tomorrow. It could be next week. Keep expecting. Keep believing. Stay focused on the fact that God has already released into your future everything you need to be successful. Start declaring seasons of increase over your life. Declare that favor is on you and opportunities are coming your way. As you do, you'll move forward into the favor and blessing God has ordered for you!

Chapter 3

God's Mysterious Plan Revealed

When I think of all this, I, Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus for the benefit of you Gentiles* . . .² assuming, by the way, that you know God gave me the special responsibility of extending his grace to you Gentiles.³ As I briefly wrote earlier, God himself revealed his mysterious plan to me.⁴ As you read what I have written, you will understand my insight into this plan regarding Christ.⁵ God did not reveal it to previous generations, but now by his Spirit he has revealed it to his holy apostles and prophets.

⁷ By God's grace and mighty power, I have been given the privilege of serving him by spreading this Good News.

⁸ Though I am the least deserving of all God's people, he graciously gave me the privilege of telling the Gentiles about the endless treasures available to them in Christ.⁹ I was chosen to explain to everyone* this mysterious plan that God, the Creator of all things, had kept secret from the beginning.

¹⁰ God's purpose in all this was to use the church to display his wisdom in its rich variety to all the unseen rulers and authorities in the heavenly places.¹¹ This was his eternal plan, which he carried out through Christ Jesus our Lord.

¹² Because of Christ and our faith in him,* we can now come boldly and confidently into God's presence.¹³ So please don't lose heart because of my trials here. I am suffering for you, so you should feel honored.

Paul's Prayer for Spiritual Growth

¹⁴ When I think of all this, I fall to my knees and pray to the Father,* ¹⁵ the Creator of everything in heaven and on earth.*

¹⁶ I pray that from his glorious, unlimited resources he will empower you with inner strength through his Spirit. ¹⁷ Then Christ will make his home in your hearts as you trust in him. Your roots will grow down into God's love and keep you strong. ¹⁸ And may you have the power to understand, as all God's people should, how wide, how long, how high, and how deep his love is. ¹⁹ May you experience the love of Christ, though it is too great to understand fully. Then you will be made complete with all the fullness of life and power that comes from God.

²⁰ Now all glory to God, who is able, through his mighty power at work within us, to accomplish infinitely more than we might ask or think. ²¹ Glory to him in the church and in Christ Jesus through all generations forever and ever! Amen.

HOPENOTE

Deep Roots in Love

Then Christ will make his home in your hearts as you trust in him. Your roots will grow down into God's love and keep you strong (Ephesians 3:17).

There is tremendous power in love. In the same way that a tree will grow taller and stronger when its roots grow deep, you'll be stronger and have more of God's power operating in your life when you are rooted and established in love.

Faith is ignited by love, and 1 Corinthians 13 gives us a picture of what that looks like. Among other things, love is patient and kind. It does not seek its own way. It is not jealous or boastful or proud. When you choose love instead of choosing your own way, you are showing that God is first place in your life. The more you choose to walk in love, the deeper and stronger your roots will grow. When your roots run deep, you are able to stand strong when the winds of adversity and uncertainty begin to blow. And when you are established in love, you'll have more of God's favor and blessing upon your life! Choose love today, and let it be firm within you. Love always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres. Love never fails! (1 Corinthians 13:6-8)

His Power at Work

Now all glory to God, who is able, through his mighty power at work within us, to accomplish infinitely more than we might ask or think (Ephesians 3:20).

God is able to do more than you could ever ask or imagine! But notice that this verse says it's according to the power that is at work within you. How does God's power work within you? God's power works in you when you are walking in love. God's power is at work in you when you choose to forgive those who have wronged you. God's power is at work in you when you worship Him with a humble heart. He is at work in you when you are serving others by putting their needs above your own.

Remember, God wants to move on your behalf. He loves to bless you! Choose today to let God's power work in and through you. As you allow Him to work in your life, He promises blessing beyond your wildest dreams! He will do immeasurably more than you can ask or imagine.

Chapter 4

Unity in the Body

Therefore I, a prisoner for serving the Lord, beg you to lead a life worthy of your calling, for you have been called by God.² Always be humble and gentle. Be patient with each other, making allowance for each other's faults because of your love.³ Make every effort to keep yourselves united in the Spirit, binding yourselves together with peace.⁴ For there is one body and one Spirit, just as you have been called to one glorious hope for the future.⁵ There is one Lord, one faith, one baptism,⁶ and one God and Father, who is over all and in all and living through all.

⁷ However, he has given each one of us a special gift* through the generosity of Christ.⁸ That is why the Scriptures say,

HOPENOTE

Make Allowances

Always be humble and gentle. Be patient with each other, making allowance for each other's faults because of your love (Ephesians 4:2).

Paul begins the second half of Ephesians by turning a corner and getting really practical. He basically says, "Now, if everything I just wrote you is true, then this is how you should live!" He begins by spelling out the qualities that should be in relationships among believers. Not only that, we should treat non-believers with the same set of gracious skills this verse describes.

That means if a co-worker or boss is rude to you for no reason at all, don't take it personally. Show some mercy. You don't know what they're going through at home. You don't know what kind of issues they're dealing with.

Believe the best in people. After all, anybody can get offended. Anybody can be rude back to someone that was rude first. That's easy. But love always takes the high road. Love is always a part of the solution and not the problem.

The Scripture says in Ephesians 4:2, we have to “be patient with each other, making allowance for each other's faults.” That means we're going to have to put up with some things. And throughout the day, we're going to come across people who are inconsiderate, people who are selfish, people who are rude, people who are angry. We can either let them poison us and drag us down or we can show mercy and help to lift them up. Make the choice to be gentle and humble. Remember, you're sowing seeds for your future. Sow seeds of love so you can reap a harvest of blessing in return.

“When he ascended to the heights, he led a crowd of captives and gave gifts to his people.”*

⁹ Notice that it says “he ascended.” This clearly means that Christ also descended to our lowly world.* ¹⁰ And the same one who descended is the one who ascended higher than all the heavens, so that he might fill the entire universe with himself.

HOPENOTE

God-Given Gifts

He makes the whole body fit together perfectly. As each part does its own special work, it helps the other parts grow, so that the whole body is healthy and growing and full of love (Ephesians 4:16).

God's Word clearly tells you He has given you unique gifts and abilities to be used in the body of Christ. You may not know what those gifts are, or how you can use them in your local church, but God designed believers to work together. And, when we work together in unity, the Bible tells us that it causes us to grow to full maturity. It builds us up in love. When we work in unity, God commands blessings on us.

There are many opportunities to use your gifts in your place of worship. Can you share a smile? Be an usher. Do you have a heart for children? Join the children's ministry. If you love to entertain, join a hospitality committee or allow a small Bible study group to meet in your home. Even if you're not sure where to be involved, God will help you find your place. Step out in faith, and God will order your steps. He'll make sure you are in the right place growing in your gift.

¹¹ Now these are the gifts Christ gave to the church: the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, and the pastors and teachers. ¹² Their responsibility is to equip God's people to do his work and build up the church, the body of Christ. ¹³ This will continue until we all come to such unity in our faith and knowledge of God's Son that we will be mature in the Lord, measuring up to the full and complete standard of Christ.

HOPENOTE

The Power of Words

Don't use foul or abusive language. Let everything you say be good and helpful, so that your words will be an encouragement to those who hear them (Ephesians 4:29).

Your words have creative power. They have the power to pollute or purify. If you constantly complain, you release poison into your life. Complaining isn't about your circumstances; it's about the attitude of your heart. If you will keep the right attitude during your time of adversity, God will honor you. When you truly trust God, there are times you will have unanswered questions—but don't let that keep you from fulfilling your destiny.

When you have a heart full of gratitude, there is no room left for complaining. You can always find something to thank God for, no matter what is going on around you. Thank Him for life, thank Him for hope, thank Him for sending His Son, Jesus, to save us. Decide today to live a life of gratitude! Don't allow the poison of complaining prevent you from receiving all God has for you!

¹⁴ Then we will no longer be immature like children. We won't be tossed and blown about by every wind of new teaching. We will not be influenced when people try to trick us with lies so clever they sound like the truth. ¹⁵ Instead, we will speak the truth in love, growing in every way more and more like Christ, who is the head of his body, the church. ¹⁶ He makes the whole body fit together perfectly. As each part does its own special work, it helps the other parts grow, so that the whole body is healthy and growing and full of love.

Living as Children of Light

¹⁷ With the Lord's authority I say this: Live no longer as the Gentiles do, for they are hopelessly confused. ¹⁸ Their minds are full of darkness; they wander far from the life God gives because they have closed their minds and hardened their hearts against him. ¹⁹ They have no sense of shame. They live for lustful pleasure and eagerly practice every kind of impurity.

HOPENOTE

Get Rid of Bitterness

Get rid of all bitterness, rage, anger, harsh words, and slander, as well as all types of evil behavior (Ephesians 4:31).

Bitterness is an extremely destructive force. It seeps into the depths of your heart when you choose not to forgive someone. When you harbor unforgiveness, it closes the door to God's working in your life. The Bible even tells us that if we choose not to forgive others, our prayers are hindered, and God cannot forgive us. Thank God that He has empowered us to forgive and release bitterness! You have the choice to get rid of bitterness, anger, and resentment so you can live in freedom.

You may have been through unfair situations, but it's not over until God says it's over. God always has the final say, and He is a God of justice. God sees every wrong that's ever been done to you. He sees every unfair situation. If you will stay in faith and keep your hopes up, He will make your wrongs right. He'll bring justice into your life. Your attitude should be, "It may have been unfair. They may have done me wrong. But I refuse to get bitter. I know my time of victory is coming." As you choose forgiveness and keep your thoughts focused on the Word of God, you'll experience His healing in your life so you can walk in complete freedom!

²⁰ But that isn't what you learned about Christ. ²¹ Since you have heard about Jesus and have learned the truth that comes from him, ²² throw off your old sinful nature and your former way of life, which is corrupted by lust and deception. ²³ Instead, let the Spirit renew your thoughts and attitudes. ²⁴ Put on your new nature, created to be like God—truly righteous and holy.

²⁵ So stop telling lies. Let us tell our neighbors the truth, for we are all parts of the same body. ²⁶ And “don't sin by letting anger control you.”* Don't let the sun go down while you are still angry, ²⁷ for anger gives a foothold to the devil.

²⁸ If you are a thief, quit stealing. Instead, use your hands for good hard work, and then give generously to others in need. ²⁹ Don't use foul or abusive language. Let everything you say be good and helpful, so that your words will be an encouragement to those who hear them.

³⁰ And do not bring sorrow to God's Holy Spirit by the way you live. Remember, he has identified you as his own,* guaranteeing that you will be saved on the day of redemption.

³¹ Get rid of all bitterness, rage, anger, harsh words, and slander, as well as all types of evil behavior. ³² Instead, be kind to each other, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, just as God through Christ has forgiven you.

Chapter 5

Living in the Light

Imitate God, therefore, in everything you do, because you are his dear children.² Live a life filled with love, following the example of Christ. He loved us* and offered himself as a sacrifice for us, a pleasing aroma to God.

³ Let there be no sexual immorality, impurity, or greed among you. Such sins have no place among God's people. ⁴ Obscene stories, foolish talk, and coarse jokes—these are not for you. Instead, let there be thankfulness to God. ⁵ You can be sure that no immoral, impure, or greedy person will inherit the Kingdom of Christ and of God. For a greedy person is an idolater, worshiping the things of this world.

⁶ Don't be fooled by those who try to excuse these sins, for the anger of God will fall on all who disobey him. ⁷ Don't participate in the things these people do. ⁸ For once you were full of darkness, but now you have light from the Lord. So live as people of light! ⁹ For this light within you produces only what is good and right and true.

¹⁰ Carefully determine what pleases the Lord. ¹¹ Take no part in the worthless deeds of evil and darkness; instead, expose them. ¹² It is shameful even to talk about the things that ungodly people do in secret. ¹³ But their evil intentions will be exposed when the light shines on them, ¹⁴ for the light makes everything visible. This is why it is said,

HOPENOTE

A Life Filled with Love

Live a life filled with love, following the example of Christ. He loved us and offered himself as a sacrifice for us, a pleasing aroma to God (Ephesians 5:2).

Do you delight in those around you? Do you esteem and honor the people God has placed in your life? Sometimes it's easy to take for granted your family and close friends, but it's so important to honor and value those closest to you. You are God's representative on the earth and when you proactively bless and encourage the people in your life, you are displaying God's love for them. Not only are you showing God's love to others, the Bible says that when you reach out to others, you are reaching out to God. You are also loving God Himself! Notice this verse doesn't say, "Walk in love as long as everyone acts the way you want them to." It doesn't say, "Esteem others as long as they treat you right." No, it simply says, "Live a life filled with love, following the example of Christ." There are no conditions to God's love, and there should be no conditions to our love for others. Make the choice to love others unconditionally today.

"Awake, O sleeper, rise up from the dead,
and Christ will give you light."

Living by the Spirit's Power

¹⁵ So be careful how you live. Don't live like fools, but like those who are wise. ¹⁶ Make the most of every opportunity in these evil days. ¹⁷ Don't act thoughtlessly, but understand what the Lord wants you to do. ¹⁸ Don't be drunk with wine, because that will ruin your life. Instead, be filled with the Holy Spirit, ¹⁹ singing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs among yourselves, and making music to the Lord in your hearts. ²⁰ And give thanks for everything to God the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

HOPENOTE

Use Time Wisely

So be careful how you live. Don't live like fools, but like those who are wise (Ephesians 5:15).

Time is one of the most valuable assets that God has given us. There are only 24 hours in a day, and once they are gone, they are gone forever. You can never live this day over again. Ephesians 5:15 encourages us to “be careful how you live,” making the most of your time. I want to challenge you to take inventory of your life. How are you spending your time? Examine your week: Do you have your priorities in order? Are you spending time with the Lord every day? Are you investing in solid relationships with your family and friends? Are you pursuing God's unique purpose for your life? Are you taking time to fulfill the desires that God has put in your heart?

If you realize that your life has lost its God-given focus, don't wait another day to get back on course. It's never too late to change direction. Regardless of any past mistakes, today is a new day. You can have a new beginning.

God wants you to live a focused, disciplined life, full of purpose and hope. When you start each day asking the Lord what He would have you to do, there is no limit to what you will accomplish.

Spirit-Guided Relationships: Wives and Husbands

²¹ And further, submit to one another out of reverence for Christ.

²² For wives, this means submit to your husbands as to the Lord. ²³ For a husband is the head of his wife as Christ is the head of the church. He is the Savior of his body, the church. ²⁴ As the church submits to Christ, so you wives should submit to your husbands in everything.

²⁵ For husbands, this means love your wives, just as Christ loved the church. He gave up his life for her ²⁶ to make her holy and clean, washed by the cleansing of God's word. * ²⁷ He did this to present her to himself as a glorious church without a spot or wrinkle or any other blemish. Instead, she will be holy and without fault.²⁸ In the same way, husbands ought to love their wives as they love their own bodies. For a man who loves his wife actually shows love for himself.²⁹ No one hates his own body but feeds and cares for it, just as Christ cares for the church.³⁰ And we are members of his body.

³¹ As the Scriptures say, “A man leaves his father and mother and is joined to his wife, and the two are united into one.”* ³² This is a great mystery, but it is an illustration of the way Christ and the church are one. ³³ So again I say, each man must love his wife as he loves himself, and the wife must respect her husband.

Chapter 6

Children and Parents

Children, obey your parents because you belong to the Lord,* for this is the right thing to do.² “Honor your father and mother.” This is the first commandment with a promise:³ If you honor your father and mother, “things will go well for you, and you will have a long life on the earth.”*

⁴ Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger by the way you treat them. Rather, bring them up with the discipline and instruction that comes from the Lord.

Slaves and Masters

⁵ Slaves, obey your earthly masters with deep respect and fear. Serve them sincerely as you would serve Christ. ⁶ Try to please them all the time, not just when they are watching you. As slaves of Christ, do the will of God with all your heart.⁷ Work with enthusiasm, as though you were working for the Lord rather than for people.⁸ Remember that the Lord will reward each one of us for the good we do, whether we are slaves or free.

HOPENOTE

Be Strong

A final word: Be strong in the Lord and in his mighty power (Ephesians 6:10).

Everyone has times when they feel weak or discouraged in life. But you don't have to live that way! You can be strong in the Lord and in His power. You don't have to walk around defeated and depressed. You can have joy today! In fact, the Bible tells us that the joy of the Lord is our strength (see Nehemiah 8:10). God's joy isn't based on circumstances. It isn't based on the news, the stock market, or the economy. God's joy is based on Him. And our God is the same yesterday, today, and forever. His joy is constant and sufficient.

When you think about what He's done for you—that He has given you life, that He has cast your sins as far as the east is from the west—you can't help but get happy!

You can't help but have joy inside of you. That supernatural joy will give you supernatural strength. The enemy can't take away what God has given you deep on the inside. So put a smile on your face today and rejoice in the Lord no matter what battles you may be facing, knowing that victory is on the way!

⁹ Masters, treat your slaves in the same way. Don't threaten them; remember, you both have the same Master in heaven, and he has no favorites.

The Whole Armor of God

¹⁰ A final word: Be strong in the Lord and in his mighty power.

¹¹ Put on all of God's armor so that you will be able to stand firm against all strategies of the devil. ¹² For we* are not fighting against flesh-and-blood enemies, but against evil rulers and authorities of the unseen world, against mighty powers in this dark world, and against evil spirits in the heavenly places.

HOPENOTE

Peace for Every Step

For shoes, put on the peace that comes from the Good News so that you will be fully prepared (Ephesians 6:15).

The Bible talks about how we have to put on the armor of God. One of the easily overlooked pieces is our shoes of peace. After all, how much protection can you really get from a pair of sandals? I've found too many people are going around barefooted. They're always upset and bent out of shape about something, offended at the neighbor because they weren't invited to play little league, offended at the department store because they wouldn't take something back, offended at their spouse because they left in such a hurry. What's the problem? They're not putting on their shoes of peace.

You have to make a decision every morning that no matter what offense comes against you, you're not going to get upset. You're not going to get offended. Make up your mind to stay in peace. Have the attitude, "If somebody ignores me, that's all right. They're probably just having a bad day. I'm going to give them the benefit of the doubt. Somebody is rude to me? No big deal. I'm an eagle; I can rise above it. Somebody is talking behind my back, trying to make me look bad? That's all right. God is my vindicator. I'm not going to sink down to their level or start arguing. I know God will fight my battles for me." Make a decision to walk in peace each day. Just like the Scripture says, when you do this, you'll be prepared for whatever comes your way.

¹³ Therefore, put on every piece of God's armor so you will be able to resist the enemy in the time of evil. Then after the battle you will still be standing firm. ¹⁴ Stand your ground, putting on the belt of truth and the body armor of God's righteousness. ¹⁵ For shoes, put on the peace that comes from the Good News so that you will be fully prepared.* ¹⁶ In addition to all of these, hold up the shield of faith to stop the fiery arrows of the devil.* ¹⁷ Put on salvation as your helmet, and take the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.

HOPEFORTODAY

Standing Strong in the Battle

For we are not fighting against flesh-and-blood enemies, but against evil rulers and authorities of the unseen world, against mighty powers in this dark world, and against evil spirits in the heavenly places (Ephesians 6:12).

God has fully equipped you today with everything you need to stand strong in the midst of every battle you are facing. He's provided His full armor to protect your heart and mind. Ephesians 6:14-17 tells us about God's spiritual armor that covers us—He's given us the belt of truth; the breastplate of righteousness; the shoes of the gospel of peace; the shield of faith, which stops the fiery darts of the enemy; the helmet of salvation; and the sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God. When you receive God's truth, righteousness, peace, faith, salvation, and His Word, you are fully protected to resist the enemy and stand firm. Every morning, when you first get up, get your mind going in the right direction. Start with thoughts like, "I'm ready for this day. I'm equipped. I'm empowered. I've got my armor on, and I'm speaking God's Word."

What are we doing when we mentally review our armor? We're receiving God's strength. We're getting empowered for the day. But so many times when we wake up, first thing we say is, "Oh Lord, is it already time to get up?" "I don't want to go to work today. Man, I got so many problems. My back is still hurting. Do I have to go to school?" All that's doing is just the opposite—draining our strength and draining our energy. The battle is taking place in our minds. Many people don't realize they're making plans to have a lousy day. They wonder why they can't live in victory and why they can't overcome obstacles. It's because they're defeated in their thoughts. "I can't do this. It's too much for me. I don't have what it takes."

Get rid of that negative way of thinking, and reprogram the computer of your mind. All through the day, we should be thinking thoughts like, "I am well able. I can do what I need to do. Nothing's too hard for me. I'm more than a conqueror. God always causes me to triumph. I am strong in the Lord.” When you do that, you’ll have strength, determination, and perseverance. That “can do” spirit will rise up, and you’ll live in the victory God has promised you.

¹⁸ Pray in the Spirit at all times and on every occasion. Stay alert and be persistent in your prayers for all believers everywhere.*

¹⁹ And pray for me, too. Ask God to give me the right words so I can boldly explain God’s mysterious plan that the Good News is for Jews and Gentiles alike.* ²⁰ I am in chains now, still preaching this message as God’s ambassador. So pray that I will keep on speaking boldly for him, as I should.

Final Greetings

²¹ To bring you up to date, Tychicus will give you a full report about what I am doing and how I am getting along. He is a beloved brother and faithful helper in the Lord’s work. ²² I have sent him to you for this very purpose—to let you know how we are doing and to encourage you.

²³ Peace be with you, dear brothers and sisters,* and may God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give you love with faithfulness. ²⁴ May God’s grace be eternally upon all who love our Lord Jesus Christ.

(4:4).

Finding Hope and Encouragement in

Philippians

Philippians is a thank-you letter written by Paul to the church at Philippi for the monetary gift sent to him in the care of Epaphroditus. The dominant theme of the letter is joy, which comes through knowing Christ in a deep and personal way. His command to be joyful whatever the circumstances is both amazing and inspiring, considering that Paul wrote this letter while in prison awaiting news that could result in his death. The concept of joy or rejoicing appears 16 times, reminding us to be joyful regardless of the circumstances.

Philippi was a cosmopolitan Roman colony in Greece located on the Egnatian Way, a major east-west highway. The church, established by Paul on his second missionary journey, was the first established on the continent of Europe. Paul had a very special relationship with these people. This letter reflects his love and affection for them.

Paul's heartfelt letter reminds us that we are partners in communicating the gospel. To do it effectively, the church needs to be unified, living in harmony with one another. In addition, we need to know Christ more and more. As you read, reflect on the fact that Paul was in prison writing about joy in spite of suffering, with a focus on the finish line of life when he would be with Christ, forevermore. His example should motivate and inspire us to live joyfully no matter where we are.

Chapter 1

Greetings from Paul

This letter is from Paul and Timothy, slaves of Christ Jesus.

I am writing to all of God's holy people in Philippi who belong to Christ Jesus, including the elders* and deacons.

² May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give you grace and peace.

Paul's Thanksgiving and Prayer

³ Every time I think of you, I give thanks to my God.⁴ Whenever I pray, I make my requests for all of you with joy,⁵ for you have been my partners in spreading the Good News about Christ from the time you first heard it until now.⁶ And I am certain that God, who began the good work within you, will continue his work until it is finally finished on the day when Christ Jesus returns.

⁷ So it is right that I should feel as I do about all of you, for you have a special place in my heart. You share with me the special favor of God, both in my imprisonment and in defending and confirming the truth of the Good News.⁸ God knows how much I love you and long for you with the tender compassion of Christ Jesus.

⁹ I pray that your love will overflow more and more, and that you will keep on growing in knowledge and understanding.¹⁰ For I want you to understand what really matters, so that you may live pure and blameless lives until the day of Christ's return.¹¹ May you always be filled with the fruit of your salvation—the righteous character produced in your life by Jesus Christ*—for this will bring much glory and praise to God.

Paul's Joy That Christ Is Preached

¹² And I want you to know, my dear brothers and sisters,* that everything that has happened to me here has helped to spread the Good News.¹³ For everyone here, including the whole palace guard,* knows that I am in chains because of Christ.¹⁴

And because of my imprisonment, most of the believers* here have gained confidence and boldly speak God's message* without fear.

¹⁵ It's true that some are preaching out of jealousy and rivalry. But others preach about Christ with pure motives. ¹⁶ They preach because they love me, for they know I have been appointed to defend the Good News. ¹⁷ Those others do not have pure motives as they preach about Christ. They preach with selfish ambition, not sincerely, intending to make my chains more painful to me. ¹⁸ But that doesn't matter. Whether their motives are false or genuine, the message about Christ is being preached either way, so I rejoice. And I will continue to rejoice. ¹⁹ For I know that as you pray for me and the Spirit of Jesus Christ helps me, this will lead to my deliverance.

HOPENOTE

God Is at Work in You

And I am certain that God, who began the good work within you, will continue his work until it is finally finished on the day when Christ Jesus returns (Philippians 1:6).

Do you have dreams that have not yet come to pass? Are you standing on God's promises for your health, finances, or relationships? Know this: God is a God of completion.

He wants to finish what He's started in your life. No matter how long you've been praying, don't let the enemy tempt you into thinking that it's never going to happen. Be encouraged today because God is called the Author and the Finisher of your faith. That means He's working behind the scenes on your behalf. Anything He begins, any dream He puts in your heart, He is well able to finish. Stand strong on this promise. Be confident even when it looks like it's not going to happen. No matter how long it takes, stay in faith and keep your hopes up because God has promised to finish the good work He started in your life!

Paul's Life for Christ

²⁰ For I fully expect and hope that I will never be ashamed, but that I will continue to be bold for Christ, as I have been in the past. And I trust that my life will bring honor to Christ, whether I live or die. ²¹ For to me, living means living for Christ, and dying is even better. ²² But if I live, I can do more fruitful work for Christ. So I really don't know which is better. ²³ I'm torn between two desires: I long to go and be with Christ, which would be far better for me. ²⁴ But for your sakes, it is better that I continue to live.

HOPEFORTODAY

Perfectly Complete

Every time I think of you, I give thanks to my God (Philippians 1:3).

Paul began his letter to the Philippians as he began most of his letters—with a prayer for the Christians in that church. He had high hopes for them. And he wanted them to know how confident he was that God was busy working out His plans among them.

Verse 6 says that God is constantly working behind the scenes in our lives. Why? So He can bring His promises to completion. I have found in my own life that when I see God working the least, He is actually working the most behind the scenes for my ultimate good and His glory. When we get negative, when we quit believing and quit praying, we block the blessing of God. But understand God's dream is to bring to completion every promise He's placed inside of you. He wants to give you the desires of your heart. Circumstances may be trying to push you down. But you've got to know, God can make a way even when it looks like there is no way. And when you're tempted to be discouraged, remind yourself Who's at work in your life. God is more than enough! He is the God who provides. Your enemies may be powerful, but our God is all powerful. No one can stand against Him. No circumstance is too difficult. When you believe, all the forces of darkness cannot keep God from bringing your dreams to pass.

The word confident, or certain, is used in the original language in a way that can either mean Paul was confident or he wanted the Philippians to be confident. Probably both. It says, "Be confident of this." What are we to be confident about? The fact that God is a God of completion. It's saying, in effect, you may have some doubts in other areas, but be sure of this one thing: Beyond a shadow of a doubt, what God started in your life, He will bring to completion.

See, God is in the finishing business. The dream that's in your heart, the promise that's on the inside, God not only put it there, He has every intention of bringing it to pass. He already has solutions. He's constantly working, arranging things in your favor. I'm asking you today to get in agreement with God. Believe that your best days are still in front of you. Expect good things.

The Scripture tells us that God will continually work on our behalf until we are finally or perfectly complete. Not halfway complete, not three-fourths of the way. God doesn't want you to be a little happy, a little blessed, a little healthy. He doesn't want part of your dreams to come to pass. God wants you to realize the fulfillment of everything that He's placed in your heart. He wants you to be perfectly complete. God will not stop until He accomplishes His purpose.

²⁵ Knowing this, I am convinced that I will remain alive so I can continue to help all of you grow and experience the joy of your faith. ²⁶ And when I come to you again, you will have even more reason to take pride in Christ Jesus because of what he is doing through me.

Live as Citizens of Heaven

²⁷ Above all, you must live as citizens of heaven, conducting yourselves in a manner worthy of the Good News about Christ. Then, whether I come and see you again or only hear about you, I will know that you are standing together with one spirit and one purpose, fighting together for the faith, which is the Good News. ²⁸ Don't be intimidated in any way by your enemies. This will be a sign to them that they are going to be destroyed, but that you are going to be saved, even by God himself. ²⁹ For you have been given not only the privilege of trusting in Christ but also the privilege of suffering for him. ³⁰ We are in this struggle together. You have seen my struggle in the past, and you know that I am still in the midst of it.

HOPENOTE

No Matter What

And I want you to know, my dear brothers and sisters, that everything that has happened to me here has helped to spread the Good News (Philippians 1:12).

We can learn quite a bit from the apostle Paul. He was deliriously content and joyful because of what Christ had done in his life. Even when he was chained and shackled in a dark prison because of his faith, Paul praised God and remained enthusiastic about delivering the message of the gospel. Paul says in Philippians 1 that he knew he was suffering for a purpose and that he rejoiced because of the advancement of God's message, even when he couldn't be out preaching the gospel.

Paul could not be defeated. You simply can't defeat a person who gives God praise no matter what! And the best part is that God wants to work in your life the same way He worked in Paul's. God can turn some of the worst possible situations into some of the most worthwhile experiences if you have the right attitude. Praise God today—no matter what!

Chapter 2

Have the Attitude of Christ

Is there any encouragement from belonging to Christ? Any comfort from his love? Any fellowship together in the Spirit?

Are your hearts tender and compassionate? ² Then make me truly happy by agreeing wholeheartedly with each other, loving one another, and working together with one mind and purpose.

³ Don't be selfish; don't try to impress others. Be humble, thinking of others as better than yourselves. ⁴ Don't look out only for your own interests, but take an interest in others, too.

⁵ You must have the same attitude that Christ Jesus had.

⁶ Though he was God,*

he did not think of equality with God
as something to cling to.

⁷ Instead, he gave up his divine privileges*;

he took the humble position of a slave* and was born as a human being.

When he appeared in human form,*

⁸ he humbled himself in obedience to God and died a criminal's death on a cross.

⁹ Therefore, God elevated him to the place of highest honor and gave him the name above all other names,

HOPENOTE

A Heart of Compassion

*Is there any encouragement from belonging to Christ?
Any comfort from his love? Any fellowship together in the* *Spirit? Are your hearts tender and compassionate?

(Philippians 2:1).*

Is your heart of compassion open? Do you take time to make a difference in the lives of others? God has given each one of us a heart of compassion, but we have to decide to keep it open and allow the love of God to flow through us. In order to experience God's abundant life, keep your focus on helping other people. Don't allow the enemy to keep you so busy that you overlook the needs of those around you. Make a decision to show God's love and goodness wherever you go. Be on the lookout for people you can bless. Go out of your way to show God's compassion and ignite hope in the hearts of the hopeless.

- ¹⁰ that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, ¹¹ and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Shine Brightly for Christ

¹² Dear friends, you always followed my instructions when I was with you. And now that I am away, it is even more important. Work hard to show the results of your salvation, obeying God with deep reverence and fear. ¹³ For God is working in you, giving you the desire and the power to do what pleases him.

- ¹⁴ Do everything without complaining and arguing, ¹⁵ so that no one can criticize you. Live clean, innocent lives as children of God, shining like bright lights in a world full of crooked and perverse people. ¹⁶ Hold firmly to the word of life; then, on the day of Christ's return, I will be proud that I did not run the race in vain and that my work was not useless. ¹⁷ But I will rejoice even if I lose my life, pouring it out like a liquid offering to God,* just like your faithful service is an offering to God. And I want all of you to share that joy. ¹⁸ Yes, you should rejoice, and I will share your joy.

Paul Commends Timothy

¹⁹ If the Lord Jesus is willing, I hope to send Timothy to you soon for a visit. Then he can cheer me up by telling me how you are getting along. ²⁰ I have no one else like Timothy, who genuinely cares about your welfare. ²¹ All the others care only for themselves and not for what matters to Jesus Christ. ²² But you know how Timothy has proved himself. Like a son with his father, he has served with me in preaching the Good News. ²³ I hope to send him to you just as soon as I find out what is going to happen to me here. ²⁴ And I have confidence from the Lord that I myself will come to see you soon.

Paul Commends Epaphroditus

HOPEFORTODAY

The Mind of Christ

You must have the same attitude that Christ Jesus had (Philippians 2:5).

When you reflect something, you are exhibiting its likeness. You are displaying its characteristics. Like a mirror, the Bible tells us that we should reflect the character and likeness of Jesus. We should have His same attributes.

That may sound like a pretty tall order; after all, Jesus was the Son of God. But remember, when we accept Him as our Lord and Savior, we become sons and daughters of the Most High God, too. We become empowered by the same Spirit that raised Christ from the dead. That means we have access to the same spirit of humility—the same strength, the same love, the same power. We are empowered to follow His example and do what He did. When Jesus walked the earth, the Scripture says He went around doing good and bringing healing to others, physically, spiritually, and emotionally. That's what we should be doing, too.

The Bible says that because Jesus lowered Himself, He is given the name above every other name. He is exalted because He chose to lay down His life. That is the example that He wants you to follow. Jesus laid down His own life. What are you willing to lay down so that others may experience His life-transforming power? Can you lay down your own way? Can you lay down the need to be right? Can you lay down your desires? As you invite Christ to invade your heart and mind, He will transform your actions. You'll display His likeness and reflect His character in your every step!

25 Meanwhile, I thought I should send Epaphroditus back to you. He is a true brother, co-worker, and fellow soldier. And he was your messenger to help me in my need. 26 I am sending him because he has been longing to see you, and he was very distressed that you heard he was ill. 27 And he certainly was ill; in fact, he almost died. But God had mercy on him—and also on me, so that I would not have one sorrow after another.

HOPENOTE

The Desire to Please Him

For God is working in you, giving you the desire and the power to do what pleases him (Philippians 2:13).

Do you make it a priority to live a life that is pleasing to God? When you become a believer, God begins working in you. He changes your desires from self-seeking to God-seeking. When you make a wrong choice or do something that displeases Him, most times, you know it immediately. There is an uneasiness on the inside of you. You might even feel a little sick to your stomach. That's because the desire to please God is built into you. That's the Spirit's gentle conviction that keeps us on the right path.

But notice He didn't just give you the desire to please Him; He gave you the power to please Him, too. He didn't just call you; He equipped you! Follow that inner prompting so that your actions will line up with your heart's desires. And remember, even when you make a mistake, even when you have a setback, God is ready for you to return to Him. He loves you so much, and He wants the best for you. He wants you to continue growing spiritually. God says in the Bible that His plans and purposes for your life are wonderful. And nothing can stop the Almighty God from accomplishing great things in and through you!

28 So I am all the more anxious to send him back to you, for I know you will be glad to see him, and then I will not be so worried about you. 29 Welcome him with Christian love* and with great joy, and give him the honor that people like him deserve. 30 For he risked his life for the work of Christ, and he was at the point of death while doing for me what you couldn't do from far away.

Chapter 3

The Priceless Value of Knowing Christ

Whatever happens, my dear brothers and sisters,* rejoice in the Lord. I never get tired of telling you these things, and I do it to safeguard your faith.

² Watch out for those dogs, those people who do evil, those mutilators who say you must be circumcised to be saved. ³ For we who worship by the Spirit of God* are the ones who are truly circumcised. We rely on what Christ Jesus has done for us. We put no confidence in human effort, ⁴ though I could have confidence in my own effort if anyone could. Indeed, if others have reason for confidence in their own efforts, I have even more!

⁵ I was circumcised when I was eight days old. I am a pure-blooded citizen of Israel and a member of the tribe of Benjamin—a real Hebrew if there ever was one! I was a member of the Pharisees, who demand the strictest obedience to the Jewish law. ⁶ I was so zealous that I harshly persecuted the church. And as for righteousness, I obeyed the law without fault.

⁷ I once thought these things were valuable, but now I consider them worthless because of what Christ has done. ⁸ Yes, everything else is worthless when compared with the infinite value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have discarded everything else, counting it all as garbage, so that I could gain Christ ⁹ and become one with him. I no longer count on my own righteousness through obeying the law; rather, I become righteous through faith in Christ.* For God's way of making us right with himself depends on faith. ¹⁰ I want to know Christ and experience the mighty power that raised him from the dead. I want to suffer with him, sharing in his death, ¹¹ so that one way or another I will experience the resurrection from the dead!

Pressing toward the Goal

¹² I don't mean to say that I have already achieved these things or that I have already reached perfection. But I press on to possess that perfection for which Christ Jesus first possessed me. ¹³ No, dear brothers and sisters, I have not achieved it,* but I focus on this one thing: Forgetting the past and looking forward to what lies ahead, ¹⁴ I press on to reach the end of the race and receive the heavenly prize for which God, through Christ Jesus, is calling us.

HOPENOTE

Strong in Purpose

I want to know Christ and experience the mighty power that raised him from the dead. I want to suffer with him, sharing in his death (Philippians 3:10).

God has many great things in store for you, but you will never go to a new level of victory without opposition. That's why you must stay focused and committed to what God is calling you to do. You must continually stay in fellowship with your Heavenly Father through prayer, worship, study of His Word, and fellowship with other believers. By doing this, your purpose in Christ stays strong.

To know Christ takes time and commitment. But the exciting thing about knowing Christ is also knowing that no matter what comes across your path, He has a plan and a purpose for you. He has a life full of abundance prepared for you. The same mighty power that raised Christ from the grave is available to you right now, today, because of His Holy Spirit. It's that same power that helps us accomplish all things through Christ. It's that same power that helps us break addictions, overcome strongholds, walk in love, and go the extra mile when we feel like we can't take another step.

I love Paul's honest desire, "I want to know Christ and experience the mighty power that raised him from the dead." Is that your desire today? If you've never prayed that before, I encourage you to make that a daily request before God. And when you do, get ready for your life to change!

¹⁵ Let all who are spiritually mature agree on these things. If you disagree on some point, I believe God will make it plain to you. ¹⁶ But we must hold on to the progress we have already made.

HOPENOTE

Take It All

I don't mean to say that I have already achieved these things or that I have already reached perfection. But I press on to possess that perfection for which Christ Jesus first possessed me (Philippians 3:12).

The Scripture tells us to take hold of, or possess, all that Christ paid for. Sometimes, people will take hold of three or four promises—they'll be real strong with certain things—but in another area, they're passive. They aren't even trying. For instance, you may be a hard worker. You get to work on time every day. You give it your best. But maybe you tend to be negative and critical. Well, don't go the next twenty years like that. If you're going to live in total victory, you have to stir yourself up and say, "That's it. I'm not going to sit back and live with this negative mindset or with these addictions or with low self-esteem. I'm going to take hold of everything that Christ died and rose again for. I'm going to believe for total victory."

You can imagine how God must feel when He sees us allowing things to control us, keeping us in mediocrity. He's already paid the ultimate price. Don't let His payment be in vain. Remember Paul's expression, "I press on," each time you consider giving up. Until the day you leave this earth, follow Paul's example and make the decision to continue to strive to be the best that you can be.

HOPEFORTODAY

Press On

Ifocus on this one thing: Forgetting the past and looking forward to what lies ahead, Ipress on to reach the end of the race and receive the heavenly prize for which God, through Christ Jesus, is calling us (Philippians 3:13-14).

My family and I enjoy watching the Olympics on television. As we watch history being made and new records being set, it is obvious that success requires more than skill to become an Olympic-caliber athlete. It takes dedication and determination. It takes a “can do” attitude. It takes a willingness to shake off past failures and defeat. It takes a great determination and resolve to try again and again until you succeed. And that’s exactly what it takes in order for you to be a champion in life! All of us have faced defeats in the past. Maybe your emotions have been injured or you have experienced a devastating setback in a relationship, your health, or a job. Regardless of your past defeats, I have good news for you: You are not disqualified from competing in the race of life. God has great things in store for you, and your best days are just ahead. You may have missed Plan

A for your life, but God has a Plan B, a Plan C, a Plan D—He has whatever it takes to get you moving forward into the destiny He has prepared for you. He promises to help you get across the finish line and onto the winner's platform.

Start your training by deciding to forget what lies behind. I know many people don't fully understand what it means to forget the past. They wonder, "How can I forget something that's happened to me?" But the word forget in this instance means "to disregard intentionally" or "to overlook." You have to intentionally disregard your past so that it doesn't keep you from moving forward. That means the good and the bad. Sometimes, our past victories keep us from rising higher as much as our past failures. If we don't let go of the old, we'll never be able to embrace the new. It doesn't matter what's happened in your history, it's time to forget what lies behind and look forward to the future that God has planned just for you.

¹⁷ Dear brothers and sisters, pattern your lives after mine, and learn from those who follow our example. ¹⁸ For I have told you often before, and I say it again with tears in my eyes, that there are many whose conduct shows they are really enemies of the cross of Christ. ¹⁹ They are headed for destruction. Their god is their appetite, they brag about shameful things, and they think only about this life here on earth. ²⁰ But we are citizens of heaven, where the Lord Jesus Christ lives. And we are eagerly waiting for him to return as our Savior. ²¹ He will take our weak mortal bodies and change them into glorious bodies like his own, using the same power with which he will bring everything under his control.

Chapter 4

Therefore, my dear brothers and sisters,* stay true to the Lord. I love you and long to see you, dear friends, for you are my joy and the crown I receive for my work.

Words of Encouragement

² Now I appeal to Euodia and Syntyche. Please, because you belong to the Lord, settle your disagreement. ³ And I ask you, my true partner,* to help these two women, for they worked hard with me in telling others the Good News. They worked along with Clement and the rest of my co-workers, whose names are written in the Book of Life.

⁴ Always be full of joy in the Lord. I say it again—rejoice! ⁵ Let everyone see that you are considerate in all you do. Remember, the Lord is coming soon.

⁶ Don't worry about anything; instead, pray about everything. Tell God what you need, and thank him for all he has done. ⁷ Then you will experience God's peace, which exceeds anything we can understand. His peace will guard your hearts and minds as you live in Christ Jesus.

HOPENOTE

Rejoice Always

Always be full of joy in the Lord. I say it again—rejoice! (Philippians 4:4).

Did you know that you can rejoice always? In fact, as believers, we are commanded to rejoice. Rejoicing opens the door for victory in your life. When you rejoice and worship the Lord, you are making a declaration that your God is bigger than your problems! You are making a declaration that you trust Him!

Now you may be thinking, “How can I rejoice if I don’t feel like rejoicing?” Well, the word “rejoice” in the original Greek is chairo, and it is actually a verb, an action word. You can choose to rejoice with your words and with your actions, no matter what you may be feeling. You may have to do what David did in Psalm 103 and actually tell yourself, “Let all that I am praise the LORD; with my whole heart, I will praise his holy name.” When you make the choice to rejoice always, God will pour out His supernatural joy and strength upon you so you can live in victory. So I say it to you again, make the life-changing choice to rejoice!

⁸ And now, dear brothers and sisters, one final thing. Fix your thoughts on what is true, and honorable, and right, and pure, and lovely, and admirable. Think about things that are excellent and worthy of praise. ⁹ Keep putting into practice all you learned and received from me—everything you heard from me and saw me doing. Then the God of peace will be with you.

Paul's Thanks for Their Gifts

¹⁰ How I praise the Lord that you are concerned about me again. I know you have always been concerned for me, but you didn't have the chance to help me. ¹¹ Not that I was ever in need, for I have learned how to be content with whatever I have. ¹² I know how to live on almost nothing or with everything. I have learned the secret of living in every situation, whether it is with a full stomach or empty, with plenty or little. ¹³ For I can do everything through Christ,* who gives me strength. ¹⁴ Even so, you have done well to share with me in my present difficulty.

HOPENOTE

Practice Contentment

Not that I was ever in need, for I have learned how to be content with whatever I have (Philippians 4:11).

Are you enjoying life? If not, maybe it's because you are taking for granted what you already have. You may think, “Well, I can’t enjoy my life. I’ve got too many problems.” Each time we say that, we are sharpening our skill at discontentment. Don’t learn to become an expert in unhappiness. Like Paul, learn how to be content.

Let me encourage you not to focus on what you don’t have and to begin focusing on the good things in your life instead. Take just a moment today and thank God for your health and strength. If you suddenly lost your health and felt miserable, you would be overjoyed to be in the same position you are today. Thank God for your job. It may be difficult at times, but it’s one source of God’s provision for your needs.

Thank God for the blessings you have right now. Make the decision that you’re going to start being happy right where you are. Learn to enjoy every stage of your life’s journey. Practice a grateful attitude, and be content no matter where you are, because your attitude determines your altitude. When you have the right attitude, you’ll rise higher and higher into the place of blessing He has for you.

¹⁵ As you know, you Philippians were the only ones who gave me financial help when I first brought you the Good News and then traveled on from Macedonia. No other church did this. ¹⁶ Even when I was in Thessalonica you sent help more than once. ¹⁷ I don’t say this because I want a gift from you.

Rather, I want you to receive a reward for your kindness.

HOPEFORTODAY

Fix Your Mind

And now, dear brothers and sisters, one final thing. Fix your thoughts on what is true, and honorable, and right, and pure, and lovely, and admirable. Think about things that are excellent and worthy of praise (Philippians 4:8).

What you think about determines the quality and direction of your life? Naturally, people who think positive, uplifting thoughts have happier, healthier, longer lives. They are less stressed, more vibrant, and enjoy better sleep. That's why the Scripture encourages us to think on good things—things that are true, noble, and lovely. Some translations say to “fix your mind” on them. When you fix your mind on noble things, you close the door to the negative voices and open your heart to allow God to work in your life.

Many people wonder, “Why am I not receiving God's best? My boss is mean, my house is old, and my spouse doesn't treat me right. It doesn't seem like my prayers are ever answered!” When someone says that, I usually encourage them to look at what they just said. Perhaps the answer lies in their attitude. Given the choice to worry about a situation or pray about it, too many people feel it's much more effective to worry! And worry always highlights what we can't control rather than what we can control. Prayer begins by admitting we're not in control!

Have you ever considered that maybe the Lord is waiting for you to be thankful for what you have before He will bless you with more?

The Word instructs us to pray with thanksgiving in every circumstance. Develop an "attitude of gratitude" and see what God will begin to do. Let the screensaver in your mind always flash, "Thanks, Lord," in every situation.

Choose today to fix your mind on good things. Do whatever you need to do in order to keep those good thoughts before you. Write them on note cards and put them in a place where you can see them. Confess God's promises for your life and declare His blessing on a daily basis. As you fix your mind on the goodness of God, you will rise higher in every area of your life. You will be filled with His peace and victory, and you'll see the dreams and desires in your heart come to pass.

18 At the moment I have all I need—and more! I am generously supplied with the gifts you sent me with Epaphroditus. They are a sweet-smelling sacrifice that is acceptable and pleasing to God.¹⁹ And this same God who takes care of me will supply all your needs from his glorious riches, which have been given to us in Christ Jesus.

²⁰ Now all glory to God our Father forever and ever! Amen.

Paul's Final Greetings

²¹ Give my greetings to each of God's holy people—all who belong to Christ Jesus. The brothers who are with me send you their greetings. ²² And all the rest of God's people send you greetings, too, especially those in Caesar's household.

²³ May the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit.

HOPEFORTODAY

Strength for All Things

For I can do everything through Christ, who gives me strength (Philippians 4:13).

This is one of my favorite Scriptures. It reminds me that although I may have difficulties, through Christ I have been empowered with strength for every battle that may try to defeat me. You can do all things through Christ! You are equipped to do whatever God has called or commanded you to do! If He's put it in your heart, He'll put whatever you need in your hand, and the Scripture promises that everything you set your hand to will prosper. What an amazing promise we have.

Depending on Christ's strength is a very freeing way to live. We can relax knowing that no matter what comes our way, we're up for it, we're equipped, we're well able, and we're anointed. There is absolutely nothing that can keep you from fulfilling your God-given destiny.

Almighty God has infused His "can do" power into you. And I believe even as you read these words, your faith is growing; dreams are coming back alive; new vision is being planted, and hope is being stirred. Something deep down inside is saying, "This is who I really am. I am more than a conqueror. I have strength for all things in Jesus' name!"

Colossians

Author:

Paul

Original Audience:

The church at Colosse, a city in Asia Minor

Date of Writing:

AD 60

Setting:

Written during Paul's imprisonment in Rome to confront false teachings and affirm the sufficiency of Christ

Key People:

Paul, Timothy, Tychicus, Onesimus, Aristarchus, Mark, Epaphras

Key Verses:

For in Christ lives all the fullness of God in a human body.
So you also are complete through your union with Christ, who is the head over every ruler and authority (2:9-10).

Finding Hope and Encouragement in

Colossians

Colossians was written to suppress a wrong and destructive teaching that was creeping into the church at Colosse, a declining commercial center about 100 miles east of Ephesus. The false teaching involved adding ideas from other philosophies and religions, including paganism, strains of Judaism, and Greek thought, to the Christian faith. The heresy became known as Gnosticism, a religious approach which denied Christ as God and Savior. It emphasized a deeper knowledge of God, reserved for a special few. This “superior knowledge” threatened the Christian faith and believers’ dependence on Christ alone for the fullness of life they desired.

Even though Paul never traveled to Colosse, he wrote to the church to combat this threat by emphasizing the supremacy and all-sufficiency of Christ. Jesus was God, and His sacrificial death on the cross for sin was complete. He rules over the universe. He has authority over all powers. He gives fullness of life.

The issue that Paul dealt with in this letter still exists today, though it goes by other names. Religions add more to the Christian faith and deny the deity of Christ. We should beware of false teachings and look toward the sufficiency of Christ alone for salvation and fullness of life.

Chapter 1

Greetings from Paul

This letter is from Paul, chosen by the will of God to be an apostle of Christ Jesus, and from our brother Timothy.

² We are writing to God’s holy people in the city of Colosse, who are faithful brothers and sisters* in Christ.

May God our Father give you grace and peace.

Paul’s Thanksgiving and Prayer

³ We always pray for you, and we give thanks to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁴ For we have heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and your love for all of God's people, ⁵ which come from your confident hope of what God has reserved for you in heaven. You have had this expectation ever since you first heard the truth of the Good News.

⁶ This same Good News that came to you is going out all over the world. It is bearing fruit everywhere by changing lives, just as it changed your lives from the day you first heard and understood the truth about God's wonderful grace.

⁷ You learned about the Good News from Epaphras, our beloved co-worker. He is Christ's faithful servant, and he is helping us on your behalf.* ⁸ He has told us about the love for others that the Holy Spirit has given you.

⁹ So we have not stopped praying for you since we first heard about you. We ask God to give you complete knowledge of his will and to give you spiritual wisdom and understanding. ¹⁰ Then the way you live will always honor and please the Lord, and your lives will produce every kind of good fruit. All the while, you will grow as you learn to know God better and better.

¹¹ We also pray that you will be strengthened with all his glorious power so you will have all the endurance and patience you need. May you be filled with joy,* ¹² always thanking the Father. He has enabled you to share in the inheritance that belongs to his people, who live in the light. ¹³ For he has rescued us from the kingdom of darkness and transferred us into the Kingdom of his dear Son, ¹⁴ who purchased our freedom* and forgave our sins.

HOPENOTE

Not of This World

For he has rescued us from the kingdom of darkness and transferred us into the Kingdom of his dear Son (Colossians 1:13).

As a believer in Christ, you are now a citizen of God's kingdom. You have been rescued from the kingdom of darkness and lifted to a place of safety and privilege. Are you living today as a full citizen of the kingdom of God?

Yes, you still live in this world, but you are not of this world. You are an ambassador of heaven. You have diplomatic immunity. That means that even though the world is full of hopelessness, sin, worry, and fear, you aren't subject to these things. You are subject to God's laws. You are free from the bondage of sin. You are free from worry and fear. You can do all things through Christ who gives you strength! You have instant access to Him in prayer. As an ambassador of heaven, you represent God on the earth. Reflect Him well by living in the peace, freedom, and forgiveness He died for. Your feet may still walk on earth, but let your heart and mind continuously focus on Him, soaking in His Word and practicing what

He has commanded.

Christ Is Supreme

¹⁵ Christ is the visible image of the invisible God.

He existed before anything was created and is supreme over all creation,* ¹⁶ for through him God created everything in the heavenly realms and on earth.

He made the things we can see and the things we can't see—such as thrones, kingdoms, rulers, and authorities in the unseen world.

Everything was created through him and for him.

HOPENOTE

Through Him, For Him

Christ is the visible image of the invisible God. He existed before anything was created and is supreme over all creation (Colossians 1:15).

As you read the apostle Paul's letters, you may notice he had a pattern in his writing. Paul liked to start with the big picture. He would begin with God and His plan and would then write about how we are to live as part of that plan.

First, he lifts up God's purposes; then he gives practical ways we can respond to them.

Colossians 1:15-20 is a hymn written about Jesus and His worthiness as God's Son, a member of the Trinity. The Scripture talks a lot about Jesus' relationship with us, but here we get a glimpse of Jesus' relationship with everything else. "Through him, God created everything" (1:16a). A little later it says, "Everything was created through him and for him" (1:16c). Animals were created through Him, for Him. Trees were created through Him, for Him. The sunset was created through Him, for Him. You were created through Jesus, for Jesus. God loves all of creation!

Sin entered the world through Adam, but Jesus came so that "through him, God reconciled everything to himself" (1:20a). All of creation benefits by what Jesus did on the cross. He is making all things new and right in their time. That includes us! For His great and wonderful works, let everything that has breath praise the Lord!

17 He existed before anything else, and he holds all creation together.

18 Christ is also the head of the church, which is his body.

He is the beginning, supreme over all who rise from the dead.*

So he is first in everything.

¹⁹ For God in all his fullness was pleased to live in Christ, ²⁰ and through him God reconciled everything to himself.
He made peace with everything in heaven and on earth
by means of Christ's blood on the cross.

²¹ This includes you who were once far away from God. You were his enemies, separated from him by your evil thoughts and actions. ²² Yet now he has reconciled you to himself through the death of Christ in his physical body. As a result, he has brought you into his own presence, and you are holy and blameless as you stand before him without a single fault.

²³ But you must continue to believe this truth and stand firmly in it. Don't drift away from the assurance you received when you heard the Good News. The Good News has been preached all over the world, and I, Paul, have been appointed as God's servant to proclaim it.

Paul's Work for the Church

²⁴ I am glad when I suffer for you in my body, for I am participating in the sufferings of Christ that continue for his body, the church. ²⁵ God has given me the responsibility of serving his church by proclaiming his entire message to you. ²⁶ This message was kept secret for centuries and generations past, but now it has been revealed to God's people. ²⁷ For God wanted them to know that the riches and glory of Christ are for you Gentiles, too. And this is the secret: Christ lives in you. This gives you assurance of sharing his glory.

²⁸ So we tell others about Christ, warning everyone and teaching everyone with all the wisdom God has given us. We want to present them to God, perfect* in their relationship to Christ. ²⁹ That's why I work and struggle so hard, depending on Christ's mighty power that works within me.

Chapter 2

I want you to know how much I have agonized for you and for the church at Laodicea, and for many other believers who have never met me personally. ² I want them to be encouraged and knit together by strong ties of love. I want them to have complete confidence that they understand God's mysterious plan, which is Christ himself. ³ In him lie hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

⁴ I am telling you this so no one will deceive you with well-crafted arguments. ⁵ For though I am far away from you, my heart is with you. And I rejoice that you are living as you should and that your faith in Christ is strong.

Freedom from Rules and New Life in Christ

⁶ And now, just as you accepted Christ Jesus as your Lord, you must continue to follow him. ⁷ Let your roots grow down into him, and let your lives be built on him. Then your faith will grow strong in the truth you were taught, and you will overflow with thankfulness.

Don't Just Think Your Thanks

And now, just as you accepted Christ Jesus as your Lord, you must continue to follow him. Let your roots grow down into him, and let your lives be built on him. Then your faith will grow strong in the truth you were taught, and you will overflow with thankfulness (Colossians 2:6-7).

Our lives as Christians should be overflowing with thankfulness. Is your thankfulness spilling out on to the people around you? Don't just think your thanks, show it! Don't let the kindness of others go unnoticed. Sometimes it's easy to take for granted the people who are closest to us, but those are the people we should appreciate and thank the most. Your family and your friends, the ones who love and support you are the ones who should feel your thankfulness the most.

And notice this verse tells us to be rooted in Christ and grow in Him. When you build yourself up by studying the Word and praying in the Spirit, then the second part of the verse will just come naturally—you will be strengthened in your faith, and your heart will be filled with thankfulness. Take a step of faith today and begin to show your thankfulness to those around you. Sow good seeds and watch the harvest of blessing come in your own life in return.

⁸ Don't let anyone capture you with empty philosophies and high-sounding nonsense that come from human thinking and from the spiritual powers* of this world, rather than from Christ. ⁹ For in Christ lives all the fullness of God in a human body.* ¹⁰ So you also are complete through your union with Christ, who is the head over every ruler and authority.

¹¹ When you came to Christ, you were "circumcised," but not by a physical procedure. Christ performed a spiritual circumcision—the cutting away of your sinful nature.* ¹² For you were buried with Christ when you were baptized. And with him you were raised to new life because you trusted the mighty power of God, who raised Christ from the dead.

¹³ You were dead because of your sins and because your sinful nature was not yet cut away. Then God made you alive with Christ, for he forgave all our sins. ¹⁴ He canceled the record of the charges against us and took it away by nailing it to the cross. ¹⁵ In this way, he disarmed* the spiritual rulers and authorities. He shamed them publicly by his victory over them on the cross.

¹⁶ So don't let anyone condemn you for what you eat or drink, or for not celebrating certain holy days or new moon ceremonies or Sabbaths. ¹⁷ For these rules are only shadows of the reality yet to come. And Christ himself is that reality. ¹⁸

Don't let anyone condemn you by insisting on pious self-denial or the worship of angels,* saying they have had visions about these things. Their sinful minds have made them proud,¹⁹ and they are not connected to Christ, the head of the body. For he holds the whole body together with its joints and ligaments, and it grows as God nourishes it.

²⁰ You have died with Christ, and he has set you free from the spiritual powers of this world. So why do you keep on following the rules of the world, such as,²¹ "Don't handle! Don't taste! Don't touch!"? ²² Such rules are mere human teachings about things that deteriorate as we use them. ²³ These rules may seem wise because they require strong devotion, pious self-denial, and severe bodily discipline. But they provide no help in conquering a person's evil desires.

Chapter 3

Living the New Life

Since you have been raised to new life with Christ, set your sights on the realities of heaven, where Christ sits in the place of honor at God's right hand. ² Think about the things of heaven, not the things of earth. ³ For you died to this life, and your real life is hidden with Christ in God. ⁴ And when Christ, who is your* life, is revealed to the whole world, you will share in all his glory.

HOPENOTE

Look Higher

Think about the things of heaven, not the things of earth (Colossians 3:2).

Faith is confident obedience to the will and purposes of God, regardless of the apparent consequences or our circumstances. Faith is simply seeing what God sees. It's choosing God's way, even when things look differently in the natural. When you set your thoughts on higher things, you are looking at life through your eyes of faith. For example, you may have a financial need today, but when you look higher, you see God's promise to supply all your needs according to His riches in glory. You may have sickness in your body today, but when you look higher, you see that Jesus paid for your sickness and disease. You may feel lonely today, but when you look higher, you see that God has promised to never leave you nor forsake you.

As you study the Word of God, you are setting your thoughts on higher things. As you set your thoughts on higher things, your faith will become stronger, and you will begin to see those things become reality in your life.

HOPENOTE

Clothed in Compassion

Since God chose you to be the holy people he loves, you must clothe yourselves with tenderhearted mercy, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience (Colossians 3:12).

In recent years, the Gulf State Region has experienced several devastating hurricanes. And although many people lost everything and had to start all over, I've heard many stories about good things that have come about in the midst of such tragedy. Many people have told me that although they didn't know their neighbors before the storm hit, they have since become friends. After the storm, when the power was out, they helped each other and gave each other water. They helped clear debris and watched each other's children. I heard about one woman who, before the storm, never even took the time to cook her own meals, but afterwards prepared dinner for 25 neighbors in her RV because she was the only one who had a working stove.

Sometimes, tragedy brings out the best in people. We can be very generous when the need is desperate and obvious. But we need to remember that there are people all around us who are facing the desperate storms of life everyday. Their needs might not be so obvious. You may have to look a little bit harder to see what they need so you can determine how to help.

Keep your eyes and your heart open to the people you encounter each day. Focus on how you can be a blessing to others. That's clothing yourself with compassion the way Jesus did. Maybe it is something as simple as speaking a kind word or taking groceries to someone. Look for opportunities for random acts of kindness; these are expressions of God's love to the world.

⁵ So put to death the sinful, earthly things lurking within you. Have nothing to do with sexual immorality, impurity, lust, and evil desires. Don't be greedy, for a greedy person is an idolater, worshiping the things of this world. ⁶ Because of these sins, the anger of God is coming.* ⁷ You used to do these things when your life was still part of this world. ⁸ But now is the time to get rid of anger, rage, malicious behavior, slander, and dirty language. ⁹ Don't lie to each other, for you have stripped off your old sinful nature and all its wicked deeds. ¹⁰ Put on your new nature, and be renewed as you learn to know your Creator and become like him. ¹¹ In this new life, it doesn't matter if you are a Jew or a Gentile,* circumcised or uncircumcised, barbaric, uncivilized,* slave, or free. Christ is all that matters, and he lives in all of us.

HOPENOTE

A Life of Peace

And let the peace that comes from Christ rule in your hearts. For as members of one body you are called to live in peace. And always be thankful (Colossians 3:15).

As believers, God is looking for us to have a thankful heart. Thankfulness will often automatically come when you allow the peace of God to rule your heart. Did you know that you can choose to have peace? You don't have to let things upset you. You don't have to live anxious and worried. That word peace means "to set at one again." When you set your mind to be at one with God and His Word, you will have peace—a peace that surpasses all understanding.

God also leads us by peace. If you don't have peace about a decision, wait and seek God until that peace fills your heart again. And when you have peace, you can't help but be thankful! You will have a song in your heart and a spring in your step. Choose today to let the peace of Christ rule in your heart and have an attitude of gratitude toward the Lord. Even if you have things that are upsetting you, take a step of faith and begin to thank God for His goodness in your life. Thank Him for working behind the scenes on your behalf. Thank Him, knowing that He promises to work all things together for your good and His glory. And always thank Him for the peace He makes possible for you through Christ.

HOPENOTE

Pursue Excellence

And whatever you do or say, do it as a representative of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks through him to God the Father (Colossians 3:17).

What would you do if you found out that your favorite celebrity was going to come to your house for dinner tonight? You'd probably clean the house a little bit more, pull out your best dishes, and plan the perfect meal. You'd wear your best clothes, or perhaps buy new ones. Maybe leave work early to get your hair done. I'm sure you'd plan something special, and you'd put forth extra effort to try to make sure everything was perfect!

In the same way, we should strive to live life with our "best foot forward" simply because we belong to the Most High God. We are His ambassadors, and we should do everything as unto the Lord. Be your best at work, even when no one is looking. If the clerk at the grocery store gives you too much change, do the right thing. When you make a commitment to your friends or local church, keep that commitment. Follow through. Be early. Be dependable. Christians should be known as the most faithful, hardest working, most trustworthy, kindest, most fun people on the planet! Would it make a big difference if Jesus had the desk next to yours, or if He walked into the kitchen with you, or sat beside you as you drove? When you put your whole heart into whatever it is you're doing and do it as unto the Lord, God will honor and bless you for it. Strive for and pursue excellence in everything you do!

HOPEFORTODAY

Work Willingly

Work willingly at whatever you do, as though you were working for the Lord rather than for people (Colossians 3:23).

How many times have you volunteered for a task or project, gotten about halfway through, and decided this wasn't for you anymore? We've all had times when we didn't necessarily enjoy what we were doing, but

Scripture tells us that we should work willingly at whatever we do. One definition of willing in Webster's Dictionary is "prompt to act or respond." Notice it doesn't say, "prompt to act if it's something you want," or "prompt to act if you feel like it." No, our will is separate from our emotions, and we can work willingly even when we don't feel like it!

When you are working for the Lord, there will be a joy on the inside of you. Deep down in your spirit, you will feel a sense of accomplishment. You'll live the best life that God intended for you. If you'll live a focused life with your priorities in order and clear goals for the future, there's no limit to what God will do! Your deepest desire should be to know and then to follow God's perfect will, so that one day you can look back and say, "This is why God put me here."

Living a life of excellence is possible when you begin to understand and act out this passage. Don't work just for your boss or for a paycheck. Instead, work with a willing attitude as unto the Lord.

¹² Since God chose you to be the holy people he loves, you must clothe yourselves with tenderhearted mercy, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience. ¹³ Make allowance for each other's faults, and forgive anyone who offends you. Remember, the Lord forgave you, so you must forgive others. ¹⁴ Above all, clothe yourselves with love, which binds us all together in perfect harmony. ¹⁵ And let the peace that comes from Christ rule in your hearts. For as members of one body you are called to live in peace. And always be thankful.

¹⁶ Let the message about Christ, in all its richness, fill your lives. Teach and counsel each other with all the wisdom he gives. Sing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs to God with thankful hearts. ¹⁷ And whatever you do or say, do it as a representative of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks through him to God the Father.

Instructions for Christian Households

¹⁸ Wives, submit to your husbands, as is fitting for those who belong to the Lord.

¹⁹ Husbands, love your wives and never treat them harshly.

²⁰ Children, always obey your parents, for this pleases the Lord. ²¹ Fathers, do not aggravate your children, or they will become discouraged.

²² Slaves, obey your earthly masters in everything you do. Try to please them all the time, not just when they are watching you. Serve them sincerely because of your reverent fear of the Lord. ²³ Work willingly at whatever you do, as though you were working for the Lord rather than for people. ²⁴ Remember that the Lord will give you an inheritance as your reward, and that the Master you are serving is Christ.* ²⁵ But if you do what is wrong, you will be paid back for the wrong you have done. For God has no favorites.

Chapter 4

Masters, be just and fair to your slaves. Remember that you also have a Master—in heaven.

An Encouragement for Prayer

² Devote yourselves to prayer with an alert mind and a thankful heart.³ Pray for us, too, that God will give us many opportunities to speak about his mysterious plan concerning Christ. That is why I am here in chains.⁴ Pray that I will proclaim this message as clearly as I should.

HOPENOTE

God Will Open Doors

Pray for us, too, that God will give us many opportunities to speak about his mysterious plan concerning Christ. That is why I am here in chains (Colossians 4:3).

Paul was writing these words while he was in chains in prison. Everything in his surroundings shouted “limitations,” but Paul kept his eyes on his limitless God. He kept looking for the open door of opportunity that God would have for him next. He knew his imprisonment was only temporary. He was passionate about his purpose and nothing was going to hold him back!

God will never lead you into something that you can’t handle in His strength. He has equipped you with His power. He's promised to walk with you all the days of your life. When doors look closed all around you, when your surroundings look limited, when you feel like you're in chains, remember, God is still at work in your life. Like Paul, keep your hopes up. Keep expecting. Keep believing. Pray for those opportunities to be opened to you. If you fall, get right back up and press forward with even greater determination to accomplish the dreams that God has planted in your heart. The prayer of the righteous avails much, so keep praying because He promises to open doors of opportunity in your life that no man can shut.

⁵ Live wisely among those who are not believers, and make the most of every opportunity. ⁶ Let your conversation be gracious and attractive* so that you will have the right response for everyone.

Paul's Final Instructions and Greetings

⁷ Tychicus will give you a full report about how I am getting along. He is a beloved brother and faithful helper who serves with me in the Lord's work. ⁸ I have sent him to you for this very purpose—to let you know how we are doing and to encourage you. ⁹ I am also sending Onesimus, a faithful and beloved brother, one of your own people. He and Tychicus will tell you everything that's happening here.

¹⁰ Aristarchus, who is in prison with me, sends you his greetings, and so does Mark, Barnabas's cousin. As you were instructed before, make Mark welcome if he comes your way. ¹¹ Jesus (the one we call Justus) also sends his greetings. These are the only Jewish believers among my co-workers; they are working with me here for the Kingdom of God. And what a comfort they have been!

¹² Epaphras, a member of your own fellowship and a servant of Christ Jesus, sends you his greetings. He always prays earnestly for you, asking God to make you strong and perfect, fully confident that you are following the whole will of God. ¹³ I can assure you that he prays hard for you and also for the believers in Laodicea and Hierapolis.

¹⁴ Luke, the beloved doctor, sends his greetings, and so does Demas. ¹⁵ Please give my greetings to our brothers and sisters* at Laodicea, and to Nympha and the church that meets in her house.

¹⁶ After you have read this letter, pass it on to the church at Laodicea so they can read it, too. And you should read the letter I wrote to them.

¹⁷ And say to Archippus, “Be sure to carry out the ministry the Lord gave you.”

¹⁸ HERE IS MY GREETING IN MY OWN HANDWRITING—
PAUL.

Remember my chains.

May God’s grace be with you.

INTRO TO THE BOOK OF

1 and 2 Thessalonians

Author:

Paul

Original Audience:

The church at Thessalonica

Date of Writing:

1 Thessalonians was written in AD 51, one of Paul's earliest letters. 2 Thessalonians was written a few months later.

Setting:

The young church at Thessalonica needed to mature in the faith and was confused about Christ's promised return.

Key People:

Paul, Timothy, Silas

Key Verses:

For since we believe that Jesus died and was raised to life again, we also believe that when Jesus returns, God will bring back with him the believers who have died (1 Thessalonians 4:14).

May the Lord lead your hearts into a full understanding and expression of the love of God and the patient endurance that comes from Christ (2 Thessalonians 3:5).

Finding Hope and Encouragement in 1 and 2 Thessalonians

Two of Paul's earliest letters he wrote from Corinth to encourage the young church at Thessalonica, one of the wealthiest trade centers of the Roman Empire. It was the capital and largest city of the province of Macedonia, with a population of 200,000. Strategically located, it became the hub for the spreading of the gospel in Macedonia and Greece.

Paul's first letter to the Thessalonians defended his ministry, reviewed the basics of the Christian faith, and addressed the second coming of Christ. Many scholars believe that 1 Thessalonians reveals the primary message Paul preached during his second missionary journey. This letter contains the most significant explanation of Christ's return.

Unfortunately, the readers of the first letter misunderstood Paul's teaching about the return of Christ. They interpreted Paul's words to indicate that Jesus' return was imminent, so they had stopped working and were simply waiting for the Lord. Paul wrote his second letter to the Thessalonians to clarify his meaning and correct the misunderstanding of his first letter.

In 1 Thessalonians, Paul emphasizes the suddenness of the Lord's return, while 2 Thessalonians highlights some of the events that will occur before Jesus returns.

Today, we stand closer to the return of Christ than ever before. Let us be prepared and be watchful, but also, let us be faithful and diligent in our efforts to see that people come to know the Lord before His coming again.

Chapter 1

Greetings from Paul

This letter is from Paul, Silas,* and Timothy.

We are writing to the church in Thessalonica, to you who belong to God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

May God give you grace and peace.

The Faith of the Thessalonian Believers

² We always thank God for all of you and pray for you constantly. ³ As we pray to our God and Father about you, we think of your faithful work, your loving deeds, and the enduring hope you have because of our Lord Jesus Christ.

HOPENOTE

Let His Love Show

We know, dear brothers and sisters, that God loves you and has chosen you to be his own people (1 Thessalonians 1:4).

Paul started his letter to the Thessalonians with a compliment and exhortation about how well they were living. He could see God's love in them. He told them that the way they responded to the Gospel and the way the Holy Spirit confirmed their faith was evidence that God was holding them in high esteem.

When others look at your life, do they know that God loves you? Can they see that you are a follower of His? Is there evidence in your words and actions? The most important thing you could ever know in your life is that God loves you. His love changes us. His love empowers us. His love takes us to new levels. His love gives us eternal life. I am telling you the same thing Paul told the Thessalonians. “God loves you and has chosen you to be His own.” Receive His love today. Then live your life in a way that shows your appreciation for all He has done. Honor Him with your life.

⁴ We know, dear brothers and sisters, * that God loves you and has chosen you to be his own people.⁵ For when we brought you the Good News, it was not only with words but also with power, for the Holy Spirit gave you full assurance* that what we said was true. And you know of our concern for you from the way we lived when we were with you.⁶ So you received the message with joy from the Holy Spirit in spite of the severe suffering it brought you. In this way, you imitated both us and the Lord.⁷ As a result, you have become an example to all the believers in Greece—throughout both Macedonia and Achaia.*

⁸ And now the word of the Lord is ringing out from you to people everywhere, even beyond Macedonia and Achaia, for wherever we go we find people telling us about your faith in God. We don't need to tell them about it,⁹ for they keep talking about the wonderful welcome you gave us and how you turned away from idols to serve the living and true God.¹⁰ And they speak of how you are looking forward to the coming of God's Son from heaven—Jesus, whom God raised from the dead. He is the one who has rescued us from the terrors of the coming judgment.

Chapter 2

Paul Remembers His Visit

You yourselves know, dear brothers and sisters,* that our visit to you was not a failure.² You know how badly we had been treated at Philippi just before we came to you and how much we suffered there. Yet our God gave us the courage to declare his Good News to you boldly, in spite of great opposition.³ So you can see we were not preaching with any deceit or impure motives or trickery.

⁴ For we speak as messengers approved by God to be entrusted with the Good News. Our purpose is to please God, not people. He alone examines the motives of our hearts.⁵ Never once did we try to win you with flattery, as you well know. And God is our witness that we were not pretending to be your friends just to get your money!⁶ As for human praise, we have never sought it from you or anyone else.

⁷ As apostles of Christ we certainly had a right to make some demands of you, but instead we were like children* among you. Or we were like a mother feeding and caring for her own children.⁸ We loved you so much that we shared with you not only God's Good News but our own lives, too.

HOPENOTE

Share Your Life

We loved you so much that we shared with you not only God's Good News but our own lives, too (1 Thessalonians 2:8).

Relationships are important to God: first, our relationship with Him, and then our relationships with other people. In this day and age, we have so many modern conveniences. We communicate through our computers, PDAs, and cell phones. We email and text and check off our lists. But to have a genuine relationship you have to do so much more than send a text and emails. Relationships are about sharing your life with others. It's about allowing others to get to know you for who you are, to help you grow, and to hold you accountable, and then doing the same for them. Don't allow life to be so busy that you aren't sharing and connecting with the people who are closest to you. Life is a group experience. Sometimes we need to shut down our computers and start up a relationship.

⁹ Don't you remember, dear brothers and sisters, how hard we worked among you? Night and day we toiled to earn a living so that we would not be a burden to any of you as we preached God's Good News to you. ¹⁰ You yourselves are our witnesses—and so is God—that we were devout and honest and faultless toward all of you believers. ¹¹ And you know that we treated each of you as a father treats his own children. ¹² We pleaded with you, encouraged you, and urged you to live your lives in a way that God would consider worthy. For he called you to share in his Kingdom and glory.

¹³ Therefore, we never stop thanking God that when you received his message from us, you didn't think of our words as mere human ideas. You accepted what we said as the very word of God—which, of course, it is. And this word continues to work in you who believe.

HOPENOTE

God Is at Work

Therefore, we never stop thanking God that when you received his message from us, you didn't think of our words as mere human ideas. You accepted what we said as the very word of God—which, of course, it is. And this word continues to work in you who believe (1 Thessalonians 2:13).

When you receive the truth of God's Word in your heart, it automatically takes root and begins to work in your life! You may not always see it right away. You may not always feel it, but know that God began a good work in you, and He is faithful to complete it. When you humbly receive His Word, it opens the door for Him to begin to work.

The Bible tells us that the Word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword. That means, if there's any confusion in your life, or if your decisions are unclear, the Word of God will divide the truth from the lies. The Word of God will direct your steps and light your path. The psalmist talks about loving the Word of God and making it your meditation all the day (Psalm 119:97). I encourage you to find a few Scriptures that seem to "stick out" to you and write them on note cards. Meditate on them throughout the day. Ask the Lord to make those verses come alive in your heart. As you faithfully put God and His Word first, you will see His hand working in every facet of your life.

14 And then, dear brothers and sisters, you suffered persecution from your own countrymen. In this way, you imitated the believers in God's churches in Judea who, because of their belief in Christ Jesus, suffered from their own people, the Jews. 15 For some of the Jews killed the prophets, and some even killed the Lord Jesus. Now they have persecuted us, too. They fail to please God and work against all humanity 16 as they try to keep us from preaching the Good News of salvation to the Gentiles. By doing this, they continue to pile up their sins. But the anger of God has caught up with them at last.

Timothy's Good Report about the Church

¹⁷ Dear brothers and sisters, after we were separated from you for a little while (though our hearts never left you), we tried very hard to come back because of our intense longing to see you again. ¹⁸ We wanted very much to come to you, and I, Paul, tried again and again, but Satan prevented us. ¹⁹ After all, what gives us hope and joy, and what will be our proud reward and crown as we stand before our Lord Jesus when he returns? It is you! ²⁰ Yes, you are our pride and joy.

Chapter 3

Finally, when we could stand it no longer, we decided to stay alone in Athens, ² and we sent Timothy to visit you. He is our brother and God's co-worker* in proclaiming the Good News of Christ. We sent him to strengthen you, to encourage you in your faith, ³ and to keep you from being shaken by the troubles you were going through. But you know that we are destined for such troubles. ⁴ Even while we were with you, we warned you that troubles would soon come—and they did, as you well know. ⁵ That is why, when I could bear it no longer, I sent Timothy to find out whether your faith was still strong. I was afraid that the tempter had gotten the best of you and that our work had been useless.

⁶ But now Timothy has just returned, bringing us good news about your faith and love. He reports that you always remember our visit with joy and that you want to see us as much as we want to see you.⁷ So we have been greatly encouraged in the midst of our troubles and suffering, dear brothers and sisters,* because you have remained strong in your faith.⁸ It gives us new life to know that you are standing firm in the Lord.

⁹ How we thank God for you! Because of you we have great joy as we enter God's presence.¹⁰ Night and day we pray earnestly for you, asking God to let us see you again to fill the gaps in your faith.

¹¹ May God our Father and our Lord Jesus bring us to you very soon.¹² And may the Lord make your love for one another and for all people grow and overflow, just as our love for you overflows.¹³ May he, as a result, make your hearts strong, blameless, and holy as you stand before God our Father when our Lord Jesus comes again with all his holy people. Amen.

Chapter 4

Live to Please God

Finally, dear brothers and sisters,* we urge you in the name of the Lord Jesus to live in a way that pleases God, as we have taught you. You live this way already, and we encourage you to do so even more.² For you remember what we taught you by the authority of the Lord Jesus.

³ God's will is for you to be holy, so stay away from all sexual sin.⁴ Then each of you will control his own body* and live in holiness and honor—⁵ not in lustful passion like the pagans who do not know God and his ways. ⁶ Never harm or cheat a Christian brother in this matter by violating his wife,* for the Lord avenges all such sins, as we have solemnly warned you before. ⁷ God has called us to live holy lives, not impure lives. ⁸ Therefore, anyone who refuses to live by these rules is not disobeying human teaching but is rejecting God, who gives his Holy Spirit to you.

⁹ But we don't need to write to you about the importance of loving each other,* for God himself has taught you to love one another. ¹⁰ Indeed, you already show your love for all the believers* throughout Macedonia. Even so, dear brothers and sisters, we urge you to love them even more.

¹¹ Make it your goal to live a quiet life, minding your own business and working with your hands, just as we instructed you before. ¹² Then people who are not Christians will respect the way you live, and you will not need to depend on others.

HOPENOTE

Daily Life

Make it your goal to live a quiet life, minding your own business and working with your hands, just as we instructed you before (1 Thessalonians 4:11).

When people first begin to read the Bible for themselves, they often remark how practical God's Word actually turns out to be. It includes delightful promises that cover all areas of life and reveals many wonders about God that we wouldn't know any other way. But the Bible also speaks about our day-to-day living, the way that He intends for us to live.

God promises to prosper and promote those who are depending on Him and busy with their hands. God opens doors for those who are walking with Him. Even in the little things, God is working out His greater purposes. When we are faithful with the little, when we honor the Lord in our daily living, God will increase what we have in our hands. Paul's counsel to the Thessalonians is to find balance in everyday life: Live quietly, attentively and do honest work. We are all reminded to engage in a steadfast life that honors Him.

The Hope of the Resurrection

¹³ And now, dear brothers and sisters, we want you to know what will happen to the believers who have died* so you will not grieve like people who have no hope. ¹⁴ For since we believe that Jesus died and was raised to life again, we also believe that when Jesus returns, God will bring back with him the believers who have died.

¹⁵ We tell you this directly from the Lord: We who are still living when the Lord returns will not meet him ahead of those who have died.* ¹⁶ For the Lord himself will come down from heaven with a commanding shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trumpet call of God. First, the Christians who have died* will rise from their graves. ¹⁷ Then, together with them, we who are still alive and remain on the earth will be caught up in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. Then we will be with the Lord forever. ¹⁸ So encourage each other with these words.

Chapter 5

HOPENOTE

Urge Others Forward

So encourage each other and build each other up, just as you are already doing (1 Thessalonians 5:11).

God designed us to live in close community with others. He wants us to help each other grow. None of us will reach our highest potential by ourselves. We need people in our lives to encourage us, and we need to encourage the people in our lives and help them reach their potential, as well. The word encourage means “to urge forward.” Many times, you can see things in other people that they don’t see themselves. You can see their strengths and talents. You can see that God has a special plan for them even though they may be going through a difficult time.

Don't assume that people automatically see for themselves what you see in them. Take a moment and encourage them either with a kind word or a simple note. There might be a special gift you can give that will remind them of their goal or dream. In whatever way you can, urge the people in your life to keep their trust in the Lord and to move forward with confidence that He who began a good work in them will continue to perfect it until the day of Christ Jesus (Philippians 1:6).

Now concerning how and when all this will happen, dear brothers and sisters,* we don't really need to write you.² For you know quite well that the day of the Lord's return will come unexpectedly, like a thief in the night.³ When people are saying, "Everything is peaceful and secure," then disaster will fall on them as suddenly as a pregnant woman's labor pains begin. And there will be no escape.

HOPENOTE

Always Do Good

See that no one pays back evil for evil, but always try to do good to each other and to all people (1 Thessalonians 5:15).

Are you kind and considerate to people? Do you walk in love and prefer others above yourself? This passage tells us to be proactive! In another translation, the Scripture uses words like “aim” and “seek.” You must be on the lookout to share God’s mercy and kindness and be good to people. The way you treat others has a great impact on how much of the blessings and favor of God you’re going to experience in your life. Aim for kindness and seek to do good. And don’t forget, if you ever feel like you’re struggling in this area, just ask God for help. He’ll come immediately to your side, enabling you to do all things through Him!

4 But you aren’t in the dark about these things, dear brothers and sisters, and you won’t be surprised when the day of the Lord comes like a thief.* 5 For you are all children of the light and of the day; we don’t belong to darkness and night. 6 So be on your guard, not asleep like the others. Stay alert and be clearheaded. 7 Night is the time when people sleep and drinkers get drunk. 8 But let us who live in the light be clearheaded, protected by the armor of faith and love, and wearing as our helmet the confidence of our salvation.

9 For God chose to save us through our Lord Jesus Christ, not to pour out his anger on us. 10 Christ died for us so that, whether we are dead or alive when he returns, we can live with him forever. 11 So encourage each other and build each other up, just as you are already doing.

Paul's Final Advice

¹² Dear brothers and sisters, honor those who are your leaders in the Lord's work. They work hard among you and give you spiritual guidance. ¹³ Show them great respect and wholehearted love because of their work. And live peacefully with each other.

¹⁵ See that no one pays back evil for evil, but always try to do good to each other and to all people.

¹⁶ Always be joyful. ¹⁷ Never stop praying. ¹⁸ Be thankful in all circumstances, for this is God's will for you who belong to Christ Jesus.

¹⁹ Do not stifle the Holy Spirit. ²⁰ Do not scoff at prophecies, ²¹ but test everything that is said. Hold on to what is good. ²² Stay away from every kind of evil.

HOPENOTE

Pray Always

Never stop praying (1 Thessalonians 5:17).

If there is a common thread that should run through the life of a Christian each day, that thread is prayer. Now, that doesn't mean that you can't do anything else but pray. But it does mean that you are always ready and willing to go before God with any concern or praise. Nothing is too small or too big for prayer. Prayer is simply opening your heart and connecting with God. It's taking His promises and applying them to your life. Prayer processes the plan of God. You should bathe your life in prayer. Pray for wisdom, peace, and patience. Pray for your relationships, your job, and your children. Pray for your country and leaders. Pray with others, knowing that when two or more are gathered in His name, He is there.

Paul's Final Greetings

²³ Now may the God of peace make you holy in every way, and may your whole spirit and soul and body be kept blameless until our Lord Jesus Christ comes again. ²⁴ God will make this happen, for he who calls you is faithful.

²⁵ Dear brothers and sisters, pray for us.

²⁶ Greet all the brothers and sisters with Christian love.*

²⁷ I command you in the name of the Lord to read this letter to all the brothers and sisters.

²⁸ May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

2 Thessalonians

See the Introduction for 1 and 2 Thessalonians on this page.

Chapter 1

Greetings from Paul

This letter is from Paul, Silas,* and Timothy.

We are writing to the church in Thessalonica, to you who belong to God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

² May God our Father* and the Lord Jesus Christ give you grace and peace.

Encouragement during Persecution

³ Dear brothers and sisters,* we can't help but thank God for you, because your faith is flourishing and your love for one another is growing. ⁴ We proudly tell God's other churches about your endurance and faithfulness in all the persecutions and hardships you are suffering. ⁵ And God will use this persecution to show his justice and to make you worthy of his Kingdom, for which you are suffering. ⁶ In his justice he will pay back those who persecute you.

⁷ And God will provide rest for you who are being persecuted and also for us when the Lord Jesus appears from heaven. He will come with his mighty angels, ⁸ in flaming fire, bringing judgment on those who don't know God and on those who refuse to obey the Good News of our Lord Jesus. ⁹ They will be punished with eternal destruction, forever separated from the Lord and from his glorious power. ¹⁰ When he comes on that day, he will receive glory from his holy people—praise from all who believe. And this includes you, for you believed what we told you about him.

¹¹ So we keep on praying for you, asking our God to enable you to live a life worthy of his call. May he give you the power to accomplish all the good things your faith prompts you to do.

¹² Then the name of our Lord Jesus will be honored because of the way you live, and you will be honored along with him. This is all made possible because of the grace of our God and Lord, Jesus Christ.*

HOPENOTE

The Gift of Grace and Peace

May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give you grace and peace (2 Thessalonians 1:2).

People often skip over the first few verses in Paul's letters. For one thing, letters from that time started with the signature. You knew who had written a letter because they put their name right at the beginning. Paul's opening thoughts are significant. He always offered his readers "grace" and "peace" from God.

Peace and grace are what people all over the world are searching for. They are powerful forces in the life of every believer. First of all, we are saved by God's grace through faith. We don't deserve and can't earn His grace and forgiveness. But His grace doesn't stop there. His grace gives us a supernatural ability to live the life God has called us to.

Peace is not just a feeling; it's a state of being. Peace means "to set at one again." When we are at one with the Father, we can have true peace on the inside. We are settled internally. And nothing externally can move us from our position of peace.

One of the greatest blessings we can speak over someone else is that they have grace and peace in every area of their lives. It is our prayer that the grace of our Lord and His peace that surpasses all understanding would guard your heart and mind today and every day.

Chapter 2

Events prior to the Lord's Second Coming

Now, dear brothers and sisters,* let us clarify some things about the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and how we will be gathered to meet him.² Don't be so easily shaken or alarmed by those who say that the day of the Lord has already begun. Don't believe them, even if they claim to have had a spiritual vision, a revelation, or a letter supposedly from us.³ Don't be fooled by what they say. For that day will not come until there is a great rebellion against God and the man of lawlessness* is revealed—the one who brings destruction.*⁴ He will exalt himself and defy everything that people call god and every object of worship. He will even sit in the temple of God, claiming that he himself is God.

⁵ Don't you remember that I told you about all this when I was with you? ⁶ And you know what is holding him back, for he can be revealed only when his time comes. ⁷ For this lawlessness is already at work secretly, and it will remain secret until the one who is holding it back steps out of the way. ⁸ Then the man of lawlessness will be revealed, but the Lord Jesus will kill him with the breath of his mouth and destroy him by the splendor of his coming.

⁹ This man will come to do the work of Satan with counterfeit power and signs and miracles. ¹⁰ He will use every kind of evil deception to fool those on their way to destruction, because they refuse to love and accept the truth that would save them. ¹¹ So God will cause them to be greatly deceived, and they will believe these lies. ¹² Then they will be condemned for enjoying evil rather than believing the truth.

Believers Should Stand Firm

¹³ As for us, we can't help but thank God for you, dear brothers and sisters loved by the Lord. We are always thankful that God chose you to be among the first* to experience salvation—a salvation that came through the Spirit who makes you holy and through your belief in the truth. ¹⁴ He called you to salvation when we told you the Good News; now you can share in the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

¹⁵ With all these things in mind, dear brothers and sisters, stand firm and keep a strong grip on the teaching we passed on to you both in person and by letter.

16 Now may our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who loved us and by his grace gave us eternal comfort and a wonderful hope, 17 comfort you and strengthen you in every good thing you do and say.

Chapter 3

Paul's Request for Prayer

Finally, dear brothers and sisters,* we ask you to pray for us. Pray that the Lord's message will spread rapidly and be honored wherever it goes, just as when it came to you. 2 Pray, too, that we will be rescued from wicked and evil people, for not everyone is a believer. 3 But the Lord is faithful; he will strengthen you and guard you from the evil one.* 4 And we are confident in the Lord that you are doing and will continue to do the things we commanded you. 5 May the Lord lead your hearts into a full understanding and expression of the love of God and the patient endurance that comes from Christ.

An Exhortation to Proper Living

6 And now, dear brothers and sisters, we give you this command in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ: Stay away from all believers* who live idle lives and don't follow the tradition they received* from us. 7 For you know that you ought to imitate us. We were not idle when we were with you. 8 We never accepted food from anyone without paying for it. We worked hard day and night so we would not be a burden to any of you. ⁹ We certainly had the right to ask you to feed us, but we wanted to give you an example to follow. ¹⁰ Even while we were with you, we gave you this command: “Those unwilling to work will not get to eat.”

¹¹ Yet we hear that some of you are living idle lives, refusing to work and meddling in other people’s business. ¹² We command such people and urge them in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ to settle down and work to earn their own living. ¹³ As for the rest of you, dear brothers and sisters, never get tired of doing good.

¹⁴ Take note of those who refuse to obey what we say in this letter. Stay away from them so they will be ashamed. ¹⁵ Don’t think of them as enemies, but warn them as you would a brother or sister.*

Paul’s Final Greetings

¹⁶ Now may the Lord of peace himself give you his peace at all times and in every situation. The Lord be with you all.

¹⁸ May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

HOPENOTE

Be a Contributor

Even while we were with you, we gave you this command: “Those unwilling to work will not get to eat” (2 Thessalonians 3:10).

It is not always the best thing to rescue somebody and make their life easy. It's not always best to solve other people's problems for them. The Bible says, “If you don't work, you won't eat.” People need to see that their own efforts produce results. And yes, God gives us supernatural favor, but that doesn't mean we just sit around and don't do anything. He promises to bless the work of our hands. There are rewards for doing what we are supposed to and consequences when we don't.

In this passage, Paul was teaching the young Thessalonian Christians a lesson we all have to learn—and pass on to future generations. I heard somebody say that there are two important qualities all of our children need to have. They need to learn to be grateful, and they need to be eager. If they're not grateful, they will take everything for granted. They will expect everybody to give them what they need on a silver platter.

They also need to be eager—eager to learn, eager to serve, eager to achieve, eager to help others, eager to be better than they are currently. Sometimes as parents, we like to make life easy for our children. But chores around the house don't just help Mom and Dad; they are also preparing children to be productive adults. When children are learning responsibility, they will develop the right habits and mindsets, and they'll be productive in the community and better prepared to fulfill their God-given destiny.

INTRO TO THE BOOK OF

1 and 2 Timothy

Author:

Paul

Original Audience:

Timothy, a young church leader and Paul's apprentice

Date of Writing:

1 Timothy was written in AD 64. 2 Timothy was written between AD 66 and 67, Paul's final letter.

Setting:

As a close companion and early leader in the church, Paul provides practical advice.

Key People:

Paul, Timothy, Luke, Mark

Key Verses:

So that if I am delayed, you will know how people must conduct themselves in the household of God. This is the church of the living God, which is the pillar and foundation of the truth (1 Timothy 3:15).

Work hard so you can present yourself to God and receive his approval. Be a good worker, one who does not need to be ashamed and who correctly explains the word of truth (2 Timothy 2:15).

Finding Hope and Encouragement in 1 and 2 Timothy

Timothy was Paul's protégé. Having chosen Timothy to accompany him and Silas on the second missionary journey, Paul writes to his son in the faith. Timothy, a leader in the church at Ephesus for a time, was in his early forties, which was considered young for such leadership. Paul offers counsel and encouragement in these very personal letters. These two letters, along with Titus, are called "pastoral epistles" because they contain principles for the pastoral leadership and care of churches. In addition, they outline the qualifications for ministers.

First Timothy provides many lessons for faithful leadership in the church. Paul encourages Timothy to fight the good fight. Second Timothy is Paul's last letter. Paul, in prison, knows that soon he will be executed. He writes his final thoughts, passing on the torch of leadership. He gives insight for facing persecution and supporting others who are persecuted. He encourages Timothy to be a good soldier of Christ Jesus. He also shows how to give away leadership and how to assume it at the right time.

As you read these two letters, be mindful that these are the last words of a great man to a younger person he deeply loves and appreciates. It has been said that the last words are the most tender and the most important. Read and take courage and confidence as you face your battles and your next chapter of life.

Chapter 1

Greetings from Paul

This letter is from Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus, appointed by the command of God our Savior and Christ Jesus, who gives us hope.

² I am writing to Timothy, my true son in the faith.

May God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord give you grace, mercy, and peace.

Warnings against False Teachings

³ When I left for Macedonia, I urged you to stay there in Ephesus and stop those whose teaching is contrary to the truth. ⁴ Don't let them waste their time in endless discussion of myths and spiritual pedigrees. These things only lead to meaningless speculations,* which don't help people live a life of faith in God.*

⁵ The purpose of my instruction is that all believers would be filled with love that comes from a pure heart, a clear conscience, and genuine faith. ⁶ But some people have missed this whole point. They have turned away from these things and spend their time in meaningless discussions. ⁷ They want to be known as teachers of the law of Moses, but they don't know what they are talking about, even though they speak so confidently.

⁸ We know that the law is good when used correctly. ⁹ For the law was not intended for people who do what is right. It is for people who are lawless and rebellious, who are ungodly and sinful, who consider nothing sacred and defile what is holy, who kill their father or mother or commit other murders. ¹⁰

The law is for people who are sexually immoral, or who practice homosexuality, or are slave traders,* liars, promise breakers, or who do anything else that contradicts the wholesome teaching¹¹ that comes from the glorious Good News entrusted to me by our blessed God.

Paul's Gratitude for God's Mercy

¹² I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who has given me strength to do his work. He considered me trustworthy and appointed me to serve him,¹³ even though I used to blaspheme the name of Christ. In my insolence, I persecuted his people. But God had mercy on me because I did it in ignorance and unbelief.¹⁴ Oh, how generous and gracious our Lord was! He filled me with the faith and love that come from Christ Jesus.

HOPENOTE

Overwhelming Goodness

Oh, how generous and gracious our Lord was! He filled me with the faith and love that come from Christ Jesus (1 Timothy 1:14).

Have you ever had an experience where you were just overwhelmed and amazed by God's grace and blessing? Paul described in his letters just how astonished he was by God's grace. The fact that He died for us is overwhelming enough! We serve a God who is so full of goodness, grace, blessing, forgiveness, and mercy—we cannot even begin to comprehend all that He has for us. Sometimes, all you can do is stand back overwhelmed by His deep, abiding love. Take some time to recognize God’s abundant goodness in your life. The more you meditate on His goodness with a grateful attitude, the more you make room in your life for all the blessings He has in store for you.

¹⁵ This is a trustworthy saying, and everyone should accept it: “Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners”—and I am the worst of them all. ¹⁶ But God had mercy on me so that Christ Jesus could use me as a prime example of his great patience with even the worst sinners. Then others will realize that they, too, can believe in him and receive eternal life. ¹⁷ All honor and glory to God forever and ever! He is the eternal King, the unseen one who never dies; he alone is God. Amen.

Timothy’s Responsibility

¹⁸ Timothy, my son, here are my instructions for you, based on the prophetic words spoken about you earlier. May they help you fight well in the Lord’s battles. ¹⁹ Cling to your faith in Christ, and keep your conscience clear. For some people have deliberately violated their consciences; as a result, their faith has been shipwrecked. ²⁰ Hymenaeus and Alexander are two examples. I threw them out and handed them over to Satan so they might learn not to blaspheme God.

Chapter 2

Instructions about Worship

I urge you, first of all, to pray for all people. Ask God to help them; intercede on their behalf, and give thanks for them.² Pray this way for kings and all who are in authority so that we can live peaceful and quiet lives marked by godliness and dignity.³ This is good and pleases God our Savior,⁴ who wants everyone to be saved and to understand the truth.⁵ For there is only one God and one Mediator who can reconcile God and humanity—the man Christ Jesus.⁶ He gave his life to purchase freedom for everyone. This is the message God gave to the world at just the right time.⁷ And I have been chosen as a preacher and apostle to teach the Gentiles this message about faith and truth. I'm not exaggerating—just telling the truth.

HOPENOTE

Perfect Timing

He gave his life to purchase freedom for everyone. This is the message God gave to the world at just the right time (1 Timothy 2:6).

I have heard it said that God is never late, but He is seldom early. You have to have faith that God's timing is always perfect. The Bible tells us that Jesus came at just the right time. According to God's plan, in the middle of history, Jesus came to earth (see Galatians 4:4) and gave His life as the ransom for all of mankind.

And God's timing is perfect in your life, too. Every time you have ever heard the Gospel, it was ordained by God Himself. Every opportunity to realize how much God loves you was prepared by Him. Blessings were prepared for you long before you even had any idea there was such a thing as God's blessing! And if you have never accepted the freedom and forgiveness from sin that Jesus purchased for you, perhaps in God's timing, that moment is right now. You will never regret placing your life in God's hands for safekeeping.

⁸ In every place of worship, I want men to pray with holy hands lifted up to God, free from anger and controversy.

⁹ And I want women to be modest in their appearance.* They should wear decent and appropriate clothing and not draw attention to themselves by the way they fix their hair or by wearing gold or pearls or expensive clothes. ¹⁰ For women who claim to be devoted to God should make themselves attractive by the good things they do.

¹¹ Women should learn quietly and submissively. ¹² I do not let women teach men or have authority over them.* Let them listen quietly. ¹³ For God made Adam first, and afterward he made Eve. ¹⁴ And it was not Adam who was deceived by Satan. The woman was deceived, and sin was the result. ¹⁵ But women will be saved through childbearing,* assuming they continue to live in faith, love, holiness, and modesty.

Chapter 3

Leaders in the Church

This is a trustworthy saying: “If someone aspires to be an elder,* he desires an honorable position.” ² So an elder must be a man whose life is above reproach. He must be faithful to his wife.* He must exercise self-control, live wisely, and have a good reputation. He must enjoy having guests in his home, and he must be able to teach. ³ He must not be a heavy drinker* or be violent. He must be gentle, not quarrelsome, and not love money. ⁴ He must manage his own family well, having children who respect and obey him. ⁵ For if a man cannot manage his own household, how can he take care of God’s church?

⁶ An elder must not be a new believer, because he might become proud, and the devil would cause him to fall.* ⁷ Also, people outside the church must speak well of him so that he will not be disgraced and fall into the devil’s trap.

⁸ In the same way, deacons must be well respected and have integrity. They must not be heavy drinkers or dishonest with money. ⁹ They must be committed to the mystery of the faith now revealed and must live with a clear conscience. ¹⁰ Before they are appointed as deacons, let them be closely examined. If they pass the test, then let them serve as deacons.

¹¹ In the same way, their wives* must be respected and must not slander others. They must exercise self-control and be faithful in everything they do.

¹² A deacon must be faithful to his wife, and he must manage his children and household well. ¹³ Those who do well as deacons will be rewarded with respect from others and will have increased confidence in their faith in Christ Jesus.

The Truths of Our Faith

¹⁴ I am writing these things to you now, even though I hope to be with you soon, ¹⁵ so that if I am delayed, you will know how people must conduct themselves in the household of God. This is the church of the living God, which is the pillar and foundation of the truth.

¹⁶ Without question, this is the great mystery of our faith*:

Christ* was revealed in a human body and vindicated by the Spirit.*

He was seen by angels and announced to the nations.

He was believed in throughout the world and taken to heaven in glory.

Chapter 4

Warnings against False Teachers

Now the Holy Spirit tells us clearly that in the last times some will turn away from the true faith; they will follow deceptive spirits and teachings that come from demons. ² These people are hypocrites and liars, and their consciences are dead.*

³ They will say it is wrong to be married and wrong to eat certain foods. But God created those foods to be eaten with thanks by faithful people who know the truth.⁴ Since everything God created is good, we should not reject any of it but receive it with thanks.⁵ For we know it is made acceptable* by the word of God and prayer.

HOPENOTE

Don't Waste Time

Do not waste time arguing over godless ideas and old wives' tales. Instead, train yourself to be godly (1 Timothy 4:7).

The enemy wants to distract you and try to get you off course. He'll make sure that your co-worker disagrees with you; he'll make sure your family member wants to argue with you. He's trying to steal your joy and peace. Paul said that he wasn't going to waste his time thinking about or participating in anything that would keep him from achieving his goals and fulfilling his destiny. That's the attitude of victory we should all have in our daily lives! But God wants to help you make good decisions. He wants to keep you from falling into that trap! God has chosen you for greatness—a life filled with victory. Have the positive attitude of Paul. Stay focused. Take the high road. Don't allow yourself to be bothered by insignificant arguing; rise above the pettiness in this world, and see the spiritual destiny God has in store for you.

A Good Servant of Christ Jesus

6 If you explain these things to the brothers and sisters,* Timothy, you will be a worthy servant of Christ Jesus, one who is nourished by the message of faith and the good teaching you have followed. 7 Do not waste time arguing over godless ideas and old wives' tales. Instead, train yourself to be godly. 8 "Physical training is good, but training for godliness is much better, promising benefits in this life and in the life to come." 9 This is a trustworthy saying, and everyone should accept it. 10 This is why we work hard and continue to struggle,* for our hope is in the living God, who is the Savior of all people and particularly of all believers.

HOPENOTE

Training for Godliness

Physical training is good, but training for godliness is much better, promising benefits in this life and in the life to come (1 Timothy 4:8).

When an Olympic runner is training for the games, they don't just work out once or twice a week. They don't eat cake and ice cream every day and sit around watching TV. No, they focus on their goal with unwavering determination. They change their habits to make sure they can be the very best. They train for years sometimes. They are disciplined. They get good sleep. They eat right. They do whatever they have to in order to be ready on the day of the race. And they aren't thinking about just finishing, just getting it done, barely squeaking by. No, they have their eye on the prize. They are running to win!

Physical training is good. It's good to be healthy and in shape. But, training for godliness is much more important. Its results are eternal. Just like that Olympic athlete, we need to be focused and determined. We need to train daily to grow spiritually. When we take the time to train for godliness and holiness, these benefits will follow us for the rest of our lives. When we choose to grow in God, we have more peace, more joy, and more love. We have strength and the ability to endure to the end no matter what comes our way.

Make it your goal to train spiritually. Challenge yourself to know God's Word. Challenge yourself to memorize Scripture, and keep a journal of answered prayers and blessings. Chart how God has brought about goals, dreams, and desires. Pass down your legacy of faith to your family. As you train for godliness, you are having an eternal impact, both on your life and in the lives of generations to come.

HOPENOTE

Exercise Your Gift

Do not neglect the spiritual gift you received through the prophecy spoken over you when the elders of the church laid their hands on you (1 Timothy 4:14).

You are created and designed for a specific purpose. God has placed gifts inside of you to equip and enable you to fulfill your purpose. Do you know what those gifts are?

What are you passionate about? What can you do better than other people? What would you choose to do if there were no obstacles? These questions are a good place to start in identifying God's gifts in you.

God wants you to develop and pursue the gift that He has placed inside of you. Your gift is a part of your destiny. But the gifts God gives aren't for us. He gives us gifts to help build the kingdom of God. He gives to us so that we can give to others. You have a specific role to play in the body of Christ. That doesn't necessarily mean God's going to send you to a Third World country or make you preach. But, there are people only you can reach. Are you using your gift to build the kingdom? Are you serving in your local church? Even if you are still discovering what your gifts are, simply take a step and volunteer. Everyone has something to give. You can give a smile, a handshake, or an encouraging word. As you step out and serve others, you'll soon discover that you are the one that is being blessed!

¹¹ Teach these things and insist that everyone learn them. ¹² Don't let anyone think less of you because you are young. Be an example to all believers in what you say, in the way you live, in your love, your faith, and your purity. ¹³ Until I get there, focus on reading the Scriptures to the church, encouraging the believers, and teaching them.

¹⁴ Do not neglect the spiritual gift you received through the prophecy spoken over you when the elders of the church laid their hands on you. ¹⁵ Give your complete attention to these matters. Throw yourself into your tasks so that everyone will see your progress. ¹⁶ Keep a close watch on how you live and on your teaching. Stay true to what is right for the sake of your own salvation and the salvation of those who hear you.

Chapter 5

Advice about Widows, Elders, and Slaves

Never speak harshly to an older man,* but appeal to him respectfully as you would to your own father. Talk to younger men as you would to your own brothers. ² Treat older women as you would your mother, and treat younger women with all purity as you would your own sisters.

³ Take care of* any widow who has no one else to care for her. ⁴ But if she has children or grandchildren, their first responsibility is to show godliness at home and repay their parents by taking care of them. This is something that pleases God.

⁵ Now a true widow, a woman who is truly alone in this world, has placed her hope in God. She prays night and day, asking God for his help. ⁶ But the widow who lives only for pleasure is spiritually dead even while she lives. ⁷ Give these instructions to the church so that no one will be open to criticism.

⁹ A widow who is put on the list for support must be a woman who is at least sixty years old and was faithful to her husband.* ¹⁰ She must be well respected by everyone because of the good she has done. Has she brought up her children well? Has she been kind to strangers and served other believers humbly?* Has she helped those who are in trouble? Has she always been ready to do good?

¹¹ The younger widows should not be on the list, because their physical desires will overpower their devotion to Christ and they will want to remarry. ¹² Then they would be guilty of breaking their previous pledge. ¹³ And if they are on the list, they will learn to be lazy and will spend their time gossiping from house to house, meddling in other people's business and talking about things they shouldn't.¹⁴ So I advise these younger widows to marry again, have children, and take care of their own homes. Then the enemy will not be able to say anything against them.¹⁵ For I am afraid that some of them have already gone astray and now follow Satan.

¹⁶ If a woman who is a believer has relatives who are widows, she must take care of them and not put the responsibility on the church. Then the church can care for the widows who are truly alone.

HOPENOTE

Church and Family

If a woman who is a believer has relatives who are widows, she must take care of them and not put the responsibility on the church. Then the church can care for the widows who are truly alone (1 Timothy 5:16).

In Paul's day, there weren't government programs or other safety nets provided by society. When families failed or when tragedy struck and a woman was widowed, she had little to fall back on except her brothers and sisters in the faith.

Although our times seem more advanced in many ways, the human needs are still the same. Perhaps more than ever, families are failing to function and falling apart.

Hurting people often feel they have nowhere to turn. These are opportunities for the family of God to reach out in love and provide a safety net of care for the hurting, lonely, and abandoned.

Take inventory of the people around you today. Is there anyone who's widowed or without family? Make a decision to be the hands, feet, and heart of Jesus to those around you in need of family.

¹⁷ Elders who do their work well should be respected and paid well,* especially those who work hard at both preaching and teaching. ¹⁸ For the Scripture says, "You must not muzzle an ox to keep it from eating as it treads out the grain." And in another place, "Those who work deserve their pay!"

HOPENOTE

Good Deeds Done in Secret

In the same way, the good deeds of some people are obvious. And the good deeds done in secret will someday come to light (1 Timothy 5:25).

When you do something nice for someone, when you go out of your way to help someone in need, are you looking for recognition and a pat on the back? If you are, the Bible says that is the extent of your reward. But, when you show kindness when nobody is looking, when you give in secret, God Himself will reward you openly. He'll brag about your good deeds one day.

The true test of kindness is when we do things and no one seems to notice. Do we get discouraged and give up because no one trumpeted our generosity? Or do we relax knowing that God doesn't miss anything and "the good deeds done in secret will someday come to light"?

No matter who notices, keep being kind. Keep showing love. Keep giving. One day we will understand how much delight God has in His children when they take the time and effort to help others. It is our hope that one day God will say to you and me, "Well done, My good and faithful servant."

¹⁹ Do not listen to an accusation against an elder unless it is confirmed by two or three witnesses. ²⁰ Those who sin should be reprimanded in front of the whole church; this will serve as a strong warning to others.

²² Never be in a hurry about appointing a church leader.* Do not share in the sins of others. Keep yourself pure.

²³ Don't drink only water. You ought to drink a little wine for the sake of your stomach because you are sick so often.

²⁴ Remember, the sins of some people are obvious, leading them to certain judgment. But there are others whose sins will not be revealed until later. ²⁵ In the same way, the good deeds of some people are obvious. And the good deeds done in secret will someday come to light.

Chapter 6

All slaves should show full respect for their masters so they will not bring shame on the name of God and his teaching. ² If the masters are believers, that is no excuse for being disrespectful. Those slaves should work all the harder because their efforts are helping other believers* who are well loved.

False Teaching and True Riches

HOPENOTE

True Wealth

*Yet true godliness with contentment is itself great wealth
(1 Timothy 6:6).*

Back in chapter 4 of this letter, Paul encouraged Timothy to pursue training in godliness alongside physical training. Here he points to the deep truth that a healthy and growing relationship with God creates a central deposit of richness in a person's life that goes far beyond anything that money can buy! Jesus told us to seek His kingdom and His righteousness first, and God would provide everything else we need. We can enjoy much or little from the world's point of view as long as we are enriched by the greatest gift of all—having the knowledge that we are fully known and completely loved by Him.

Teach these things, Timothy, and encourage everyone to obey them.³ Some people may contradict our teaching, but these are the wholesome teachings of the Lord Jesus Christ. These teachings promote a godly life.⁴ Anyone who teaches something different is arrogant and lacks understanding. Such a person has an unhealthy desire to quibble over the meaning of words. This stirs up arguments ending in jealousy, division, slander, and evil suspicions.⁵ These people always cause trouble. Their minds are corrupt, and they have turned their backs on the truth. To them, a show of godliness is just a way to become wealthy.

HOPEFORTODAY

Proper Perspective on Money

For the love of money is the root of all kinds of evil. And some people, craving money, have wandered from the true faith and pierced themselves with many sorrows (1 Timothy 6:10).

Loving and craving after wealth leads to all kinds of evil. In this verse, Paul was helping us see that there is a profound difference between managing money and being managed by money. Money itself is neither good nor bad; it's your heart attitude that God is looking at. And you don't have to have money to love and crave after it. There are greedy people who have money and greedy people who don't have money.

Paul was concerned here about the love of money and the danger to those who crave it. He was directing his words to believers, those who could “wander from the faith” if they became consumed by the quest for money. Jesus said, we can't serve both God and money (see Matthew 6:24). He said that, in practice, we would end up choosing one over the other. Money is a very poor substitute for God. Those who end up loving money with all their hearts, souls, minds, and strength are sure to be “pierced with sorrows”—deeply disappointed. Those who grow in their love for God with all their hearts, all their souls, all their minds, and all their strength, can fully expect God to open the windows of heaven and pour out a blessing that they can't even contain!

After all, we brought nothing with us when we came into the world, and we can't take anything with us when we leave it. ⁸ So if we have enough food and clothing, let us be content.

⁹ But people who long to be rich fall into temptation and are trapped by many foolish and harmful desires that plunge them into ruin and destruction. ¹⁰ For the love of money is the root of all kinds of evil. And some people, craving money, have wandered from the true faith and pierced themselves with many sorrows.

Paul's Final Instructions

¹¹ But you, Timothy, are a man of God; so run from all these evil things. Pursue righteousness and a godly life, along with faith, love, perseverance, and gentleness. ¹² Fight the good fight for the true faith. Hold tightly to the eternal life to which God has called you, which you have confessed so well before many witnesses. ¹³ And I charge you before God, who gives life to all, and before Christ Jesus, who gave a good testimony before Pontius Pilate, ¹⁴ that you obey this command without wavering. Then no one can find fault with you from now until our Lord Jesus Christ comes again. ¹⁵ For at just the right time Christ will be revealed from heaven by the blessed and only almighty God, the King of all kings and Lord of all lords. ¹⁶ He alone can never die, and he lives in light so brilliant that no human can approach him. No human eye has ever seen him, nor ever will. All honor and power to him forever! Amen.

¹⁷ Teach those who are rich in this world not to be proud and not to trust in their money, which is so unreliable. Their trust should be in God, who richly gives us all we need for our enjoyment. ¹⁸ Tell them to use their money to do good. They should be rich in good works and generous to those in need, always being ready to share with others. ¹⁹ By doing this they will be storing up their treasure as a good foundation for the future so that they may experience true life.

²⁰ Timothy, guard what God has entrusted to you. Avoid godless, foolish discussions with those who oppose you with their so-called knowledge. ²¹ Some people have wandered from the faith by following such foolishness.

May God's grace be with you all.

2 Timothy

Chapter 1

Greetings from Paul

This letter is from Paul, chosen by the will of God to be an apostle of Christ Jesus. I have been sent out to tell others about the life he has promised through faith in Christ Jesus.

² I am writing to Timothy, my dear son.

May God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord give you grace, mercy, and peace.

Encouragement to Be Faithful

³ Timothy, I thank God for you—the God I serve with a clear conscience, just as my ancestors did. Night and day I constantly remember you in my prayers. ⁴ I long to see you again, for I remember your tears as we parted. And I will be filled with joy when we are together again.

⁵ I remember your genuine faith, for you share the faith that first filled your grandmother Lois and your mother, Eunice. And I know that same faith continues strong in you. ⁶ This is why I remind you to fan into flames the spiritual gift God gave you when I laid my hands on you. ⁷ For God has not given us a spirit of fear and timidity, but of power, love, and self-discipline.

⁸ So never be ashamed to tell others about our Lord. And don't be ashamed of me, either, even though I'm in prison for him. With the strength God gives you, be ready to suffer with me for the sake of the Good News.⁹ For God saved us and called us to live a holy life. He did this, not because we deserved it, but because that was his plan from before the beginning of time—to show us his grace through Christ Jesus.¹⁰ And now he has made all of this plain to us by the appearing of Christ Jesus, our Savior. He broke the power of death and illuminated the way to life and immortality through the Good News.¹¹ And God chose me to be a preacher, an apostle, and a teacher of this Good News.

¹² That is why I am suffering here in prison. But I am not ashamed of it, for I know the one in whom I trust, and I am sure that he is able to guard what I have entrusted to him* until the day of his return.

HOPENOTE

Stir It Up

This is why I remind you to fan into flames the spiritual gift God gave you when I laid my hands on you (2 Timothy 1:6).

What are the gifts that God has placed in your heart? Are there dreams inside you that are lying dormant? Are there gifts and abilities that He's given to you that have been buried deep inside? I encourage you today to stir it up!

Locate those almost-burned-out coals in the fire of your heart, and let God's Spirit blow them into a mighty flame!

Sometimes, it's easy for the busyness of life and the cares of this world to distract you and take you off course. But you have to make the choice to encourage yourself and stir up the gift inside. You can do this by talking about it with a friend or being around others who are doing what's in your heart to do. Find something that symbolizes that dream in your heart, and focus on it every day. Find that determination inside to hold onto everything that God has placed in your heart. It doesn't matter if it's been 10 years, 20 years or even 30 years, God can still bring it to pass. Maybe you gave up yesterday, but today is a new day. Today you can stir it up again. Go out filled with faith and expectancy, believing that every promise God has placed in your heart will come to pass! Start with Paul's instruction to the Philippians: "Pray about everything. Tell God what you need, and thank him for all he has done" (Philippians 4:6).

¹³ Hold on to the pattern of wholesome teaching you learned from me—a pattern shaped by the faith and love that you have in Christ Jesus. ¹⁴ Through the power of the Holy Spirit who lives within us, carefully guard the precious truth that has been entrusted to you.

¹⁵ As you know, everyone from the province of Asia has deserted me—even Phygelus and Hermogenes.

¹⁶ May the Lord show special kindness to Onesiphorus and all his family because he often visited and encouraged me. He was never ashamed of me because I was in chains. ¹⁷ When he came to Rome, he searched everywhere until he found me. ¹⁸ May the Lord show him special kindness on the day of Christ's return. And you know very well how helpful he was in Ephesus.

HOPENOTE

Keep the Truth

Through the power of the Holy Spirit who lives within us, carefully guard the precious truth that has been entrusted to you (2 Timothy 1:14).

The truth of God's Word is a precious treasure entrusted to us. It empowers us to overcome every obstacle. It's important to keep this truth in your heart and establish it in your life. How do you establish the Word in your life? When you make a habit of praying and reading God's Word, it becomes more and more alive to you. When you choose to obey it, you are guarding and keeping the truth. For example, the Bible says that love covers an offense. When you choose to walk in love even when someone has offended you, you are guarding the truth. When you choose God's way instead of the world's way, you are guarding the truth.

Society has so many different ideas of what is right and acceptable. We have to always choose God's way. And when you choose God's way, you get God's results! God's results include a blessed and happy life. Start today by asking the Lord to show you His truth.

HOPENOTE

The Seed Must Lead

And hardworking farmers should be the first to enjoy the fruit of their labor (2 Timothy 2:6).

Can you imagine a farmer who just decides one year that he really doesn't feel like planting? He tells himself he's so tired that he is just going to wait around and hope that the harvest will come. But even people who aren't farmers know that is ridiculous! A farmer has to plant some seeds in the ground if he ever wants to see a harvest.

Seedtime always precedes harvest time—and that's true in our lives, as well. In other words, if you want to continue reaping blessings, then sow some seeds by blessing others. If you want to see a harvest of blessing in your finances, then sow financially. If you want to reap the blessing of true friendship, then be a true friend to others first. A seed produces after its own kind. Take inventory of the seeds in your storehouse, and start looking for good ground to sow those seeds. Stay faithful and keep believing, and you'll enjoy God's supernatural harvest in every area of your life!

Chapter 2

A Good Soldier of Christ Jesus

Timothy, my dear son, be strong through the grace that God gives you in Christ Jesus.² You have heard me teach things that have been confirmed by many reliable witnesses. Now teach these truths to other trustworthy people who will be able to pass them on to others.

³ Endure suffering along with me, as a good soldier of Christ Jesus.⁴ Soldiers don't get tied up in the affairs of civilian life, for then they cannot please the officer who enlisted them.⁵ And athletes cannot win the prize unless they follow the rules.⁶ And hardworking farmers should be the first to enjoy the fruit of their labor.⁷ Think about what I am saying. The Lord will help you understand all these things.

⁸ Always remember that Jesus Christ, a descendant of King David, was raised from the dead. This is the Good News I preach.⁹ And because I preach this Good News, I am suffering and have been chained like a criminal. But the word of God cannot be chained.¹⁰ So I am willing to endure anything if it will bring salvation and eternal glory in Christ Jesus to those God has chosen.

¹¹ This is a trustworthy saying:

If we die with him,
we will also live with him.

¹² If we endure hardship,
we will reign with him.

If we deny him,
he will deny us.

¹³ If we are unfaithful,
he remains faithful,
for he cannot deny who he is.

¹⁴ Remind everyone about these things, and command them in God's presence to stop fighting over words. Such arguments are useless, and they can ruin those who hear them.

An Approved Worker

¹⁵ Work hard so you can present yourself to God and receive his approval. Be a good worker, one who does not need to be ashamed and who correctly explains the word of truth. ¹⁶ Avoid worthless, foolish talk that only leads to more godless behavior. ¹⁷ This kind of talk spreads like cancer,* as in the case of Hymenaeus and Philetus. ¹⁸ They have left the path of truth, claiming that the resurrection of the dead has already occurred; in this way, they have turned some people away from the faith.

¹⁹ But God's truth stands firm like a foundation stone with this inscription: "The LORD knows those who are his,"* and

“All who belong to the LORD must turn away from evil.”*

²⁰ In a wealthy home some utensils are made of gold and silver, and some are made of wood and clay. The expensive utensils are used for special occasions, and the cheap ones are for everyday use. ²¹ If you keep yourself pure, you will be a special utensil for honorable use. Your life will be clean, and you will be ready for the Master to use you for every good work.

²² Run from anything that stimulates youthful lusts. Instead, pursue righteous living, faithfulness, love, and peace. Enjoy the companionship of those who call on the Lord with pure hearts.

HOPENOTE

Separate Yourself

If you keep yourself pure, you will be a special utensil for honorable use. Your life will be clean, and you will be ready for the Master to use you for every good work (2 Timothy 2:21).

Are there people or activities in your life that you know you need to separate yourself from? The Bible says that bad company will corrupt good morals. God wants you to constantly be growing and rising higher in life. That's why this verse encourages us to separate ourselves from corrupting influences. And those influences are more than just the people in your everyday life. The influences are anything that will have an impact on your thinking. Be careful about what you are allowing into your mind. Be careful about what you read and what you watch on TV or the Internet. Don't fill your mind with things that are going to drag you down.

Choose to separate yourself today. Remember, God wants you to live an abundant life. He wants you be separate so that He can work through you and fulfill His purposes in your life.

²³ Again I say, don't get involved in foolish, ignorant arguments that only start fights. ²⁴ A servant of the Lord must not quarrel but must be kind to everyone, be able to teach, and be patient with difficult people. ²⁵ Gently instruct those who oppose the truth. Perhaps God will change those people's hearts, and they will learn the truth. ²⁶ Then they will come to their senses and escape from the devil's trap. For they have been held captive by him to do whatever he wants.

Chapter 3

The Dangers of the Last Days

You should know this, Timothy, that in the last days there will be very difficult times. ² For people will love only themselves and their money. They will be boastful and proud, scoffing at God, disobedient to their parents, and ungrateful. They will consider nothing sacred.³ They will be unloving and unforgiving; they will slander others and have no self-control. They will be cruel and hate what is good.⁴ They will betray their friends, be reckless, be puffed up with pride, and love pleasure rather than God.⁵ They will act religious, but they will reject the power that could make them godly. Stay away from people like that!

⁶ They are the kind who work their way into people's homes and win the confidence of* vulnerable women who are burdened with the guilt of sin and controlled by various desires.⁷ (Such women are forever following new teachings, but they are never able to understand the truth.)⁸ These teachers oppose the truth just as Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses. They have depraved minds and a counterfeit faith.⁹ But they won't get away with this for long. Someday everyone will recognize what fools they are, just as with Jannes and Jambres.

Paul's Charge to Timothy

¹⁰ But you, Timothy, certainly know what I teach, and how I live, and what my purpose in life is. You know my faith, my patience, my love, and my endurance.¹¹ You know how much persecution and suffering I have endured. You know all about how I was persecuted in Antioch, Iconium, and Lystra—but the Lord rescued me from all of it.¹² Yes, and everyone who wants to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will suffer persecution.¹³ But evil people and impostors will flourish. They will deceive others and will themselves be deceived.

¹⁴ But you must remain faithful to the things you have been taught. You know they are true, for you know you can trust those who taught you. ¹⁵ You have been taught the holy Scriptures from childhood, and they have given you the wisdom to receive the salvation that comes by trusting in Christ Jesus. ¹⁶ All Scripture is inspired by God and is useful to teach us what is true and to make us realize what is wrong in our lives. It corrects us when we are wrong and teaches us to do what is right. ¹⁷ God uses it to prepare and equip his people to do every good work.

HOPENOTE

It's in There

All Scripture is inspired by God and is useful to teach us what is true and to make us realize what is wrong in our lives. It corrects us when we are wrong and teaches us to do what is right. God uses it to prepare and equip his people to do every good work (2 Timothy 3:16-17).

Want to become a better mom or dad? Look in God's Word. Want to become a better friend? A better spouse? A better student or son or daughter? Look in God's Word. Do you have an addiction you need help breaking? Look in God's Word.

All the wisdom and knowledge you'll ever need in life are found in the Word of God. Many times people are in desperate need for a direct word from God. Most often, God speaks directly to us through the multifaceted Word of God. God's Word is alive. It's active. It's as relevant today as it was thousands of years ago. Just like Paul says in this verse, "All Scripture is inspired by God and is useful to teach us." When you read the Bible with an open heart, it's like God is speaking directly to you! Make His Word a priority in your life. As you do, God will empower you to live the abundant life He's called you to.

Chapter 4

I solemnly urge you in the presence of God and Christ Jesus, who will someday judge the living and the dead when he appears to set up his Kingdom: ² Preach the word of God. Be prepared, whether the time is favorable or not. Patiently correct, rebuke, and encourage your people with good teaching.

³ For a time is coming when people will no longer listen to sound and wholesome teaching. They will follow their own desires and will look for teachers who will tell them whatever their itching ears want to hear. ⁴ They will reject the truth and chase after myths.

HOPEFORTODAY

The Long, Good Fight

I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, and I have remained faithful (2 Timothy 4:7).

While he was imprisoned in Rome prior to his execution, the apostle Paul wrote to his young protégé, Timothy. Paul knew that his death was near, but he had lived his life with such passion and dedication to Jesus Christ that he had no regrets. Paul did not store up treasure here on earth, but he fixed his eyes on heaven. He gave his all to further the message of the Gospel, and he used every ounce of talent and potential that God gave him. Because he used his gifts to the fullest, he had no regrets. In fact, Paul was fulfilling his God-given destiny right up until his death.

If we're going to experience the abundant life He has for us, we have to keep our dreams in front of us. We have to see that reason to get up each day. You've got to know you are a person of destiny. You have a purpose. You didn't just accidentally show up on planet Earth. God knew you before you were formed in your mother's womb. He has an assignment for you. There's something God wants you to accomplish. Somebody needs what you have. Somebody needs your love. Somebody needs your smile. Somebody needs your encouragement. You were created to make a difference, to impact our society, to make this world a better place. On the inside of you right now, there are dreams and desires put there by the Creator of the universe. But over time, life will try to push those dreams down. Just little by little: a disappointment here, a setback there, a failed relationship, a dream that didn't work out. Suddenly, if you're not careful, you'll wake up and realize one day that you're not pressing forward anymore. You're letting opportunities pass you by. What's the problem? You are allowing life to wither you.

Today, make the decision to live like Paul. Live a life of no regret. Find your purpose. Pursue it with a passion. Give it everything you've got. Remember, God will lead you, guide you, and prosper everything you put your hand to. He'll pour out His favor and blessings, and you too will live to fulfill your divine destiny.

⁵ But you should keep a clear mind in every situation. Don't be afraid of suffering for the Lord. Work at telling others the Good News, and fully carry out the ministry God has given you.

⁶ As for me, my life has already been poured out as an offering to God. The time of my death is near. ⁷ I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, and I have remained faithful. ⁸ And now the prize awaits me—the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give me on the day of his return. And the prize is not just for me but for all who eagerly look forward to his appearing.

Paul's Final Words

⁹ Timothy, please come as soon as you can. ¹⁰ Demas has deserted me because he loves the things of this life and has gone to Thessalonica. Crescens has gone to Galatia, and Titus has gone to Dalmatia. ¹¹ Only Luke is with me. Bring Mark with you when you come, for he will be helpful to me in my ministry. ¹² I sent Tychicus to Ephesus. ¹³ When you come, be sure to bring the coat I left with Carpus at Troas. Also bring my books, and especially my papers.*

¹⁴ Alexander the coppersmith did me much harm, but the Lord will judge him for what he has done. ¹⁵ Be careful of him, for he fought against everything we said.

¹⁶ The first time I was brought before the judge, no one came with me. Everyone abandoned me. May it not be counted against them. ¹⁷ But the Lord stood with me and gave me strength so that I might preach the Good News in its entirety for all the Gentiles to hear. And he rescued me from certain death.* ¹⁸ Yes, and the Lord will deliver me from every evil attack and will bring me safely into his heavenly Kingdom. All glory to God forever and ever! Amen.

HOPENOTE

Let God Judge

Alexander the coppersmith did me much harm, but the Lord will judge him for what he has done (2 Timothy 4:14).

The Scripture talks about how Paul had to work to keep offenses out of his life. People were always coming against him, doing him wrong, but he refused to take the bait of offense. Paul seems to say, “Alexander the coppersmith did me great wrong, but I’m not worried about it. I know God will pay him back.” That’s the attitude we need to have. Somebody does you wrong, maybe at work they take advantage of you or cheat you out of your commission. Don’t live your life offended. Don’t go around all upset. Do what Paul did and just turn it over to God, knowing that He’s promised He’ll make your wrongs right. Stay focused on what you’re called to do and let God be the judge.

Paul’s Final Greetings

¹⁹ Give my greetings to Priscilla and Aquila and those living in the household of Onesiphorus. ²⁰ Erastus stayed at Corinth, and I left Trophimus sick at Miletus.

²¹ Do your best to get here before winter. Eubulus sends you greetings, and so do Pudens, Linus, Claudia, and all the brothers and sisters.*

²² May the Lord be with your spirit. And may his grace be with all of you.

Key Verse:

I left you on the island of Crete so you could complete our work there and appoint elders in each town as I instructed you (1:5).

Finding Hope and Encouragement in Titus

Titus is an important New Testament book for church organization and leadership. It provides guidelines for elders, pastors, and other believers. Paul wrote this book to his longtime companion, Titus. Titus was tough as nails and was often called upon to handle the messiest and most difficult situations. He was a Gentile converted under the ministry of Paul, who stood before the Jewish leaders in the church at Jerusalem to testify of God's work among the Gentiles. He delivered Paul's "severe" letter to the church at Corinth.

When Paul wrote him, he was leading the church on the island of Crete. Crete was a large island in the Mediterranean known for its prosperous agriculture and trading economy. But its prosperity fostered a great deal of excess.

This letter highlights a strategy for church leadership; it presents a clear statement about God's grace; it provides practical instruction about the roles of men and women.

From this letter, one can gain insight into the life and organization of the early church while garnering principles to lead and to structure today's church. It will challenge us either to be a trainer or a trainee in the ongoing work of the church to communicate God's grace to spiritually lost men and women.

Chapter 1

Greetings from Paul

This letter is from Paul, a slave of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ. I have been sent to proclaim faith to* those God has chosen and to teach them to know the truth that shows them how to live godly lives.² This truth gives them confidence that they have eternal life, which God—who does not lie—promised them before the world began.³ And now at just the right time he has revealed this message, which we announce to everyone. It is by the command of God our Savior that I have been entrusted with this work for him.

⁴ I am writing to Titus, my true son in the faith that we share.

May God the Father and Christ Jesus our Savior give you grace and peace.

HOPEFORTODAY

A Renewed Name

Everything is pure to those whose hearts are pure. But nothing is pure to those who are corrupt and unbelieving, because their minds and consciences are corrupted (Titus 1:15).

The Scripture says that to the pure all things are pure. When your heart is right, you can't help but see the best in people. When you have a pure heart, you're not going to be judgmental and critical. You're not going to go around complaining or finding fault in everything. And a good way for you to determine what kind of heart you have is in how you approach other people. I found that if you're a trusting person, you'll see other people as being trustworthy. But if you're negative and critical, you're going to view others as being negative and critical, too.

To the pure, all things are pure. We don't necessarily see things the way they are. We see them from our own frame of thinking or perception. That means if your stream has become contaminated, then everything you see is going to be filtered through those murky waters. It will affect you everywhere you go.

I heard about this grandfather who fell asleep in his living room one day. His grandkids decided to play a little joke on him. They found some really strong smelling cheese in the refrigerator. And while he was sleeping, they snuck up and just very gently rubbed some of this cheese on his mustache. A few minutes later, his nose began to twitch. He kind of tossed and turned a little. Then all of a sudden, he sat straight up in that chair and he said to himself, "Man, something really stinks." So he left that room and went into the kitchen hoping to get some relief. He sniffed here and sniffed there. Same thing, "Man, it stinks in here, too" he thought. So he decided to go outside and get some fresh air. He thought for sure that would do it. Once outside, he took a deep breath of air, shook his head in desperation and said, "You know what? The whole world stinks!" My point is that if you're the one carrying around the stink, it's going to pollute you wherever you go. You're not going to be able to get away from it.

We have to be willing to change. We have to keep our own stream pure. At some point, we need to find the common denominator. I mean if you see everybody as being critical, that means you're probably critical. I'm asking you today to stop blaming other people. Put your foot down and say, "You know what? I recognize that I may be the problem. I recognize that I have these issues, and I'm not going to bury them. I'm going to take them to God and ask Him to help me." And again, if you get the inside fixed, then the outside will begin to change. When you have a pure stream, it doesn't matter where you are, doesn't matter what's going on around you; you're going to be happy, positive, and hopeful all the days of your life!

⁵ I left you on the island of Crete so you could complete our work there and appoint elders in each town as I instructed you.

⁶ An elder must live a blameless life. He must be faithful to his wife,* and his children must be believers who don't have a reputation for being wild or rebellious. ⁷ An elder* is a manager of God's household, so he must live a blameless life. He must not be arrogant or quick-tempered; he must not be a heavy drinker,* violent, or dishonest with money.

⁸ Rather, he must enjoy having guests in his home, and he must love what is good. He must live wisely and be just. He must live a devout and disciplined life. ⁹ He must have a strong belief in the trustworthy message he was taught; then he will be able to encourage others with wholesome teaching and show those who oppose it where they are wrong.

¹⁰ For there are many rebellious people who engage in useless talk and deceive others. This is especially true of those who insist on circumcision for salvation.¹¹ They must be silenced, because they are turning whole families away from the truth by their false teaching. And they do it only for money.¹² Even one of their own men, a prophet from Crete, has said about them, “The people of Crete are all liars, cruel animals, and lazy gluttons.”*¹³ This is true. So reprimand them sternly to make them strong in the faith.¹⁴ They must stop listening to Jewish myths and the commands of people who have turned away from the truth.

¹⁵ Everything is pure to those whose hearts are pure. But nothing is pure to those who are corrupt and unbelieving, because their minds and consciences are corrupted.¹⁶ Such people claim they know God, but they deny him by the way they live. They are detestable and disobedient, worthless for doing anything good.

Chapter 2

Promote Right Teaching

As for you, Titus, promote the kind of living that reflects wholesome teaching.² Teach the older men to exercise self-control, to be worthy of respect, and to live wisely. They must have sound faith and be filled with love and patience.

³ Similarly, teach the older women to live in a way that honors God. They must not slander others or be heavy drinkers.* Instead, they should teach others what is good.⁴ These older women must train the younger women to love their husbands and their children,⁵ to live wisely and be pure, to work in their homes,* to do good, and to be submissive to their husbands. Then they will not bring shame on the word of God.

⁶ In the same way, encourage the young men to live wisely.
⁷ And you yourself must be an example to them by doing good works of every kind. Let everything you do reflect the integrity and seriousness of your teaching.⁸ Teach the truth so that your teaching can't be criticized. Then those who oppose us will be ashamed and have nothing bad to say about us.

⁹ Slaves must always obey their masters and do their best to please them. They must not talk back¹⁰ or steal, but must show themselves to be entirely trustworthy and good. Then they will make the teaching about God our Savior attractive in every way.

¹¹ For the grace of God has been revealed, bringing salvation to all people.¹² And we are instructed to turn from godless living and sinful pleasures. We should live in this evil world with wisdom, righteousness, and devotion to God,¹³ while we look forward with hope to that wonderful day when the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ, will be revealed.¹⁴ He gave his life to free us from every kind of sin, to cleanse us, and to make us his very own people, totally committed to doing good deeds.

¹⁵ You must teach these things and encourage the believers to do them. You have the authority to correct them when necessary, so don't let anyone disregard what you say.

Chapter 3

Do What Is Good

Remind the believers to submit to the government and its officers. They should be obedient, always ready to do what is good.² They must not slander anyone and must avoid quarreling. Instead, they should be gentle and show true humility to everyone.

³ Once we, too, were foolish and disobedient. We were misled and became slaves to many lusts and pleasures. Our lives were full of evil and envy, and we hated each other.

⁴ But—"When God our Savior revealed his kindness and love,⁵ he saved us, not because of the righteous things we had done, but because of his mercy. He washed away our sins, giving us a new birth and new life through the Holy Spirit.* ⁶ He generously poured out the Spirit upon us through Jesus Christ our Savior.⁷ Because of his grace he declared us righteous and gave us confidence that we will inherit eternal life."⁸ This is a trustworthy saying, and I want you to insist on these teachings so that all who trust in God will devote themselves to doing good. These teachings are good and beneficial for everyone.

⁹ Do not get involved in foolish discussions about spiritual pedigrees* or in quarrels and fights about obedience to Jewish laws. These things are useless and a waste of time.¹⁰ If people are causing divisions among you, give a first and second warning. After that, have nothing more to do with them.¹¹ For people like that have turned away from the truth, and their own sins condemn them.

Paul's Final Remarks and Greetings

¹² I am planning to send either Artemas or Tychicus to you. As soon as one of them arrives, do your best to meet me at Nicopolis, for I have decided to stay there for the winter. ¹³ Do everything you can to help Zenas the lawyer and Apollos with their trip. See that they are given everything they need. ¹⁴ Our people must learn to do good by meeting the urgent needs of others; then they will not be unproductive.

¹⁵ Everybody here sends greetings. Please give my greetings to the believers—all who love us.

May God's grace be with you all.

HOPENOTE

Our Source of Salvation

He saved us, not because of the righteous things we had done, but because of his mercy. He washed away our sins, giving us a new birth and new life through the Holy Spirit (Titus 3:5).

What a wonderful gift to know we don't have to save ourselves! What a reassuring discovery to know that we don't have to create a new life for ourselves, but that God has created the possibility of a new life for us! What truly frees us and motivates us is not what we can do, but what God has already done! He washed away our sins; He set us on a high place; He continually reminds us that He has a purpose and plan that He is working out in our lives. Reasons for hope don't get any better than when they come from God!

So we step into each day confident, knowing that we can go farther and higher and do better when our starting point is God, not ourselves. We are winners and overcomers because of what God has done in our lives!

INTRO TO THE BOOK OF

Philemon

Author:

Paul

Original Audience:

Philemon, a wealthy leader in the church of Colosse

Date of Writing:

AD 60

Setting:

Paul appealed to Philemon to forgive and accept Onesimus, a runaway slave, as a brother in Christ.

Key People:

Paul, Philemon, Onesimus

Key Verses:

It seems you lost Onesimus for a little while so that you could have him back forever. He is no longer like a slave to you. He is more than a slave, for he is a beloved brother, especially to me. Now he will mean much more to you, both as a man and as a brother in the Lord (15-16).

Finding Hope and Encouragement in Philemon

The apostle Paul wrote a letter to Philemon about Onesimus, a runaway slave owned by Philemon. The letter is the only private letter that we have of Paul's; in fact, it reads more like a postcard. Yet in 25 verses, Paul shares some tender thoughts and powerful applications about grace, forgiveness, and acceptance.

Slavery was a common practice in the first century. Paul does not condemn slavery in his writings, but he makes a profound appeal to Philemon about receiving Onesimus back as a brother in Christ.

Onesimus had stolen from his master and run away to Rome. In that great city, he came into the company of Paul, and as a result, he was converted to Christ. Under Roman law, Philemon had the right to brand a return slave and even kill him. Paul sent Onesimus back to Philemon appealing for his acceptance and forgiveness of Onesimus.

This letter reminds us that Christianity has the power to heal hurting hearts and to repair broken people, putting them back on their feet. It instructs us that, when given the chance, we are to participate in a revolutionary thing called grace and forgiveness leading to reconciliation. We can stem the tide against cruelty and hatred by doing for others what Paul asked Philemon to do for Onesimus.

Greetings from Paul

This letter is from Paul, a prisoner for preaching the Good News about Christ Jesus, and from our brother Timothy.

I am writing to Philemon, our beloved co-worker,² and to our sister Apphia, and to our fellow soldier Archippus, and to the church that meets in your* house.

³ May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give you grace and peace.

Paul's Thanksgiving and Prayer

⁴ I always thank my God when I pray for you, Philemon, ⁵ because I keep hearing about your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love for all of God's people. ⁶ And I am praying that you will put into action the generosity that comes from your faith as you understand and experience all the good things we have in Christ. ⁷ Your love has given me much joy and comfort, my brother, for your kindness has often refreshed the hearts of God's people.

HOPENOTE

Put It into Action

And I am praying that you will put into action the generosity that comes from your faith as you understand and experience all the good things we have in Christ (Philemon 6).

The Bible tells us that faith without works is dead. That means if you don't put your faith into action, it's not really faith at all; it's just nice ideas. When God truly does a work in our lives, it affects everything about us—our words, our thoughts, our actions. How do you know someone is generous? By their actions. How do you know someone is kind? By their actions. How do you know someone is gentle? By their actions. How do you know someone is a follower of Christ? By their actions!

Can people tell by your actions that you belong to God? We all have areas that we can come up higher in, but the good news is that God is at work in our lives to mold us and make us more like Him. Ask Him to search your heart and mind today. Surrender any area of your life that isn't pleasing to Him. Invite Him to have His way in your life, and allow Him to finish His perfect work in you!

Paul's Appeal for Onesimus

⁸ That is why I am boldly asking a favor of you. I could demand it in the name of Christ because it is the right thing for you to do. ⁹ But because of our love, I prefer simply to ask you. Consider this as a request from me—Paul, an old man and now also a prisoner for the sake of Christ Jesus.*

¹⁰ I appeal to you to show kindness to my child, Onesimus. I became his father in the faith while here in prison. ¹¹ Onesimus* hasn't been of much use to you in the past, but now he is very useful to both of us. ¹² I am sending him back to you, and with him comes my own heart.

¹³ I wanted to keep him here with me while I am in these chains for preaching the Good News, and he would have helped me on your behalf. ¹⁴ But I didn't want to do anything without your consent. I wanted you to help because you were willing, not because you were forced. ¹⁵ It seems you lost Onesimus for a little while so that you could have him back forever. ¹⁶ He is no longer like a slave to you. He is more than a slave, for he is a beloved brother, especially to me. Now he will mean much more to you, both as a man and as a brother in the Lord.

¹⁷ So if you consider me your partner, welcome him as you would welcome me. ¹⁸ If he has wronged you in any way or owes you anything, charge it to me. ¹⁹ I, PAUL, WRITE THIS WITH MY OWN HAND: I WILL REPAY IT. AND I WON'T MENTION THAT YOU OWE ME YOUR VERY SOUL!

²⁰ Yes, my brother, please do me this favor* for the Lord's sake. Give me this encouragement in Christ.

²¹ I am confident as I write this letter that you will do what I ask and even more! ²² One more thing—please prepare a guest room for me, for I am hoping that God will answer your prayers and let me return to you soon.

Paul's Final Greetings

²³ Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in Christ Jesus, sends you his greetings. ²⁴ So do Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke, my co-workers.

²⁵ May the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit.

INTRO TO THE BOOK OF

Hebrews

Author:

Many, including Paul, have been suggested, but the author remains unknown

Original Audience:

Hebrew Christians who may have been considering a return to Judaism

Date of Writing:

Probably before the destruction of the Temple in Jerusalem in AD 70

Setting:

Jewish believers in Jesus were undergoing fierce harassment for their faith.

Key People:

Old Testament men and women of faith

Key Verses:

For the word of God is alive and powerful. It is sharper than the sharpest two-edged sword, cutting between soul and spirit, between joint and marrow. It exposes our innermost thoughts and desires (4:12).

So let us come boldly to the throne of our gracious God.

There we will receive his mercy, and we will find grace to help us when we need it most (4:16).

Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a huge crowd of witnesses to the life of faith, let us strip off every weight that slows us down, especially the sin that so easily trips us up. And let us run with endurance the race God has set before us. We do this by keeping our eyes on Jesus, the champion who initiates and perfects our faith. Because of the joy awaiting him, he endured the cross, disregarding its shame. Now he is seated in the place of honor beside God's throne (12:1-2).

Finding Hope and Encouragement in Hebrews

The book of Hebrews was written to Jewish people who were in spiritual danger. They were being persecuted for their faith by Nero; they had many questions about their newfound faith that the Old Testament did not answer; they were in danger of reverting back to Judaism. For many, believing in Christ was a life or death proposition. Now, they were second-guessing their conversion to Christ.

The writer goes to great lengths to prove that Jesus Christ has no equal in any religion, even Judaism. The superiority of Christ and thus of Christianity is the theme of the book. Jesus is superior in His person (chapters 1-4), His priesthood (chapters 5-10), and His power (chapters 11-13). We find in Christ One who is completely sufficient for our salvation. The author of Hebrews offers convincing proofs and compelling examples of others who trusted in Christ to encourage his Jewish readers to hang onto the faith and not give up.

While no one knows the original author, the book won its place in the New Testament by its encouragement to the early believers to keep holding onto the faith, trusting in Christ, and supporting one another.

Chapter 1

Jesus Christ Is God's Son

Long ago God spoke many times and in many ways to our ancestors through the prophets. ² And now in these final days, he has spoken to us through his Son. God promised everything to the Son as an inheritance, and through the Son he created the universe. ³ The Son radiates God's own glory and expresses the very character of God, and he sustains everything by the mighty power of his command. When he had cleansed us from our sins, he sat down in the place of honor at the right hand of the majestic God in heaven. ⁴ This shows that the Son is far greater than the angels, just as the name God gave him is greater than their names.

The Son Is Greater Than the Angels

⁵ For God never said to any angel what he said to Jesus:

“You are my Son.

Today I have become your Father.*”

God also said,

“I will be his Father,
and he will be my Son.”*

⁶ And when he brought his supreme* Son into the world, God said,*

“Let all of God's angels worship him.”*

7 Regarding the angels, he says,

“He sends his angels like the winds, his servants like flames of fire.”*

8 But to the Son he says,

“Your throne, O God, endures forever and ever.
You rule with a scepter of justice.

9 You love justice and hate evil.

Therefore, O God, your God has anointed you, pouring out the oil of joy on you more than on anyone else.”*

10 He also says to the Son,

“In the beginning, Lord, you laid the foundation of the earth and made the heavens with your hands.

HOPENOTE

The Highest, Safest Place

And God never said to any of the angels, “Sit in the place of honor at my right hand until I humble your enemies, making them a footstool under your feet” (Hebrews 1:13).

What we have in Christ is beyond measure and comprehension. There is no higher, safer place than our union with Him. In fact, God said that He would make our enemies our footstools—in Christ. That means when you have obstacles in your path, instead of them being stumbling blocks to hold you back, God will use them as stepping-stones to take you to a higher level. It's like somebody stuck their foot out to trip you, but God caused you to step right on top of it; so instead of going down, you went up.

You may be facing a sickness today. It was meant to harm you. It was meant to bring you down. But receive these words by faith today: Sickness is not going to defeat you. You have been armed with strength for every battle. The forces that are for you are greater than the forces that are against you. This is a new season for you in your health. The winds are shifting. This sickness may have held you down for a little while, but it's not going to last forever. When all is said and done, you're not going to be decreased; you're going to be increased. You're going to step on top of it and come out stronger, more determined, with a greater faith than you've ever had before. Get a vision for it today in Jesus' name.

¹¹ They will perish, but you remain forever.

They will wear out like old clothing.

¹² You will fold them up like a cloak and discard them like old clothing.

But you are always the same;

you will live forever.”*

13 And God never said to any of the angels,

“Sit in the place of honor at my right hand
until I humble your enemies, making them a footstool under your feet.”*

14 Therefore, angels are only servants—spirits sent to care for people who will inherit salvation.

Chapter 2

A Warning against Drifting Away

So we must listen very carefully to the truth we have heard, or we may drift away from it.² For the message God delivered through angels has always stood firm, and every violation of the law and every act of disobedience was punished.³ So what makes us think we can escape if we ignore this great salvation that was first announced by the Lord Jesus himself and then delivered to us by those who heard him speak?⁴ And God confirmed the message by giving signs and wonders and various miracles and gifts of the Holy Spirit whenever he chose.

Jesus, the Man

⁵ And furthermore, it is not angels who will control the future world we are talking about.⁶ For in one place the Scriptures say,

“What are mere mortals that you should think about them, or a son of man* that you should care for him?

7 Yet you made them only a little lower than the angels and crowned them with glory and honor.*

8 You gave them authority over all things.”*

Now when it says “all things,” it means nothing is left out. But we have not yet seen all things put under their authority. 9 What we do see is Jesus, who was given a position “a little lower than the angels”; and because he suffered death for us, he is now “crowned with glory and honor.” Yes, by God’s grace, Jesus tasted death for everyone. 10 God, for whom and through whom everything was made, chose to bring many children into glory. And it was only right that he should make Jesus, through his suffering, a perfect leader, fit to bring them into their salvation.

11 So now Jesus and the ones he makes holy have the same Father. That is why Jesus is not ashamed to call them his brothers and sisters.* 12 For he said to God,

“I will proclaim your name to my brothers and sisters.
I will praise you among your assembled people.”*

13 He also said,

“I will put my trust in him,”
that is, “I and the children God has given me.”*

14 Because God’s children are human beings—made of flesh and blood—the Son also became flesh and blood. For only as a human being could he die, and only by dying could he break the power of the devil, who had* the power of death. 15 Only in this way could he set free all who have lived their lives as slaves to the fear of dying.

¹⁶ We also know that the Son did not come to help angels; he came to help the descendants of Abraham. ¹⁷ Therefore, it was necessary for him to be made in every respect like us, his brothers and sisters,* so that he could be our merciful and faithful High Priest before God. Then he could offer a sacrifice that would take away the sins of the people. ¹⁸ Since he himself has gone through suffering and testing, he is able to help us when we are being tested.

Chapter 3

Jesus Is Greater Than Moses

And so, dear brothers and sisters who belong to God and* are partners with those called to heaven, think carefully about this Jesus whom we declare to be God's messenger* and High Priest. ² For he was faithful to God, who appointed him, just as Moses served faithfully when he was entrusted with God's entire* house.

³ But Jesus deserves far more glory than Moses, just as a person who builds a house deserves more praise than the house itself. ⁴ For every house has a builder, but the one who built everything is God.

⁵ Moses was certainly faithful in God's house as a servant. His work was an illustration of the truths God would reveal later. ⁶ But Christ, as the Son, is in charge of God's entire house. And we are God's house, if we keep our courage and remain confident in our hope in Christ.*

7 That is why the Holy Spirit says,

“Today when you hear his voice,

8 don’t harden your hearts

as Israel did when they rebelled,

when they tested me in the wilderness.

9 There your ancestors tested and tried my patience,

HOPENOTE

Don’t Harden Your Heart

Remember what it says: “Today when you hear his voice, don’t harden your hearts as Israel did when they rebelled” (Hebrews 3:15).

God desires that you continually rise to new levels. But how high you go in life and how much of God’s favor and blessing you experience is directly related to how obedient you are to His Word. The more obedient you are to His promptings, the more favor and blessing you’ll walk in. When you’re about to make a decision that you shouldn’t, there’s an uneasiness right down inside. That’s God trying to lead and guide you. If you ignore these promptings of His Spirit, eventually your heart becomes hard. It becomes more difficult to hear His voice until you submit yourself to Him again in humble obedience.

Throughout life, God will deal with different areas in your life. He knows what's holding you back, and He wants to see you move forward. He knows what areas you aren't comfortable facing, and He wants to strengthen you to deal with those things. Listen to His voice, and don't allow your heart to be hardened. As you allow Him to work in your life, He will take you to higher levels, and you will walk in His favor and blessing in ways you never thought possible.

even though they saw my miracles for forty years.

10 So I was angry with them, and I said,
‘Their hearts always turn away from me.
They refuse to do what I tell them.’

11 So in my anger I took an oath:
‘They will never enter my place of rest.’”*

12 Be careful then, dear brothers and sisters.* Make sure that your own hearts are not evil and unbelieving, turning you away from the living God. 13 You must warn each other every day, while it is still “today,” so that none of you will be deceived by sin and hardened against God. 14 For if we are faithful to the end, trusting God just as firmly as when we first believed, we will share in all that belongs to Christ. 15 Remember what it says:

“Today when you hear his voice,
don't harden your hearts

as Israel did when they rebelled.”*

16 And who was it who rebelled against God, even though they heard his voice? Wasn't it the people Moses led out of Egypt? 17 And who made God angry for forty years? Wasn't it the people who sinned, whose corpses lay in the wilderness? 18 And to whom was God speaking when he took an oath that they would never enter his rest? Wasn't it the people who disobeyed him? 19 So we see that because of their unbelief they were not able to enter his rest.

Chapter 4

Promised Rest for God's People

God's promise of entering his rest still stands, so we ought to tremble with fear that some of you might fail to experience it. 2 For this good news—that God has prepared this rest—has been announced to us just as it was to them. But it did them no good because they didn't share the faith of those who listened to God.* 3 For only we who believe can enter his rest. As for the others, God said,

“In my anger I took an oath:

“They will never enter my place of rest,””*

even though this rest has been ready since he made the world.

4 We know it is ready because of the place in the Scriptures where it mentions the seventh day: “On the seventh day God rested from all his work.”* 5 But in the other passage God said, “They will never enter my place of rest.”*

⁶ So God's rest is there for people to enter, but those who first heard this good news failed to enter because they disobeyed God. ⁷ So God set another time for entering his rest, and that time is today. God announced this through David much later in the words already quoted:

“Today when you hear his voice,
don't harden your hearts.”*

⁸ Now if Joshua had succeeded in giving them this rest, God would not have spoken about another day of rest still to come. ⁹ So there is a special rest* still waiting for the people of God. ¹⁰ For all who have entered into God's rest have rested from their labors, just as God did after creating the world. ¹¹ So let us do our best to enter that rest. But if we disobey God, as the people of Israel did, we will fall.

¹² For the word of God is alive and powerful. It is sharper than the sharpest two-edged sword, cutting between soul and spirit, between joint and marrow. It exposes our innermost thoughts and desires. ¹³ Nothing in all creation is hidden from God. Everything is naked and exposed before his eyes, and he is the one to whom we are accountable.

Christ Is Our High Priest

¹⁴ So then, since we have a great High Priest who has entered heaven, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold firmly to what we believe. ¹⁵ This High Priest of ours understands our weaknesses, for he faced all of the same testings we do, yet he did not sin. ¹⁶ So let us come boldly to the throne of our gracious God. There we will receive his mercy, and we will find grace to help us when we need it most.

Chapter 5

Every high priest is a man chosen to represent other people in their dealings with God. He presents their gifts to God and offers sacrifices for their sins.² And he is able to deal gently with ignorant and wayward people because he himself is subject to the same weaknesses.³ That is why he must offer sacrifices for his own sins as well as theirs.

HOPENOTE

Hold Fast!

So then, since we have a great High Priest who has entered heaven, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold firmly to what we believe (Hebrews 4:14).

The Scripture tells us to hold fast or hold firmly to what we believe. This phrase indicates that something is trying to pull it away from you, like a tug-of-war. In other words, disappointments are on the other end, pulling and trying to get you to give up. Maybe a plan didn't work out. You didn't get that promotion. You didn't qualify for the new home. "It's never going to happen. Just forget it." Time is on the other end, pulling. “It’s been so long.” Negative voices saying, “You don’t have what it takes. You come from the wrong side of the tracks.” The doctor’s report says you’re not going to make it. All these things are constantly coming against us, bombarding our minds, threatening to loosen our grip on hope. How? By trying to steal the dreams that are in our hearts.

If you’re going to fulfill your destiny and live in the victory God has promised, you have to hold fast. Grip it tightly. That means you keep speaking words of faith, even when you don’t see things happening. It means you have the attitude, “Nothing is going to cause me to give up. God has put this promise in me, and as long as I have breath, I’m going to believe that He will bring it to pass.” Come boldly to His throne of grace in prayer, knowing He has everything you need in the palm of His mighty hand.

⁴ And no one can become a high priest simply because he wants such an honor. He must be called by God for this work, just as Aaron was. ⁵ That is why Christ did not honor himself by assuming he could become High Priest. No, he was chosen by God, who said to him,

“You are my Son.

Today I have become your Father.*”

⁶ And in another passage God said to him,

“You are a priest forever in the order of Melchizedek.”*

⁷ While Jesus was here on earth, he offered prayers and pleadings, with a loud cry and tears, to the one who could rescue him from death. And God heard his prayers because of his deep reverence for God. ⁸ Even though Jesus was God's Son, he learned obedience from the things he suffered. ⁹ In this way, God qualified him as a perfect High Priest, and he became the source of eternal salvation for all those who obey him. ¹⁰ And God designated him to be a High Priest in the order of Melchizedek.

A Call to Spiritual Growth

¹¹ There is much more we would like to say about this, but it is difficult to explain, especially since you are spiritually dull and don't seem to listen. ¹² You have been believers so long now that you ought to be teaching others. Instead, you need someone to teach you again the basic things about God's word.* You are like babies who need milk and cannot eat solid food. ¹³ For someone who lives on milk is still an infant and doesn't know how to do what is right. ¹⁴ Solid food is for those who are mature, who through training have the skill to recognize the difference between right and wrong.

Chapter 6

So let us stop going over the basic teachings about Christ again and again. Let us go on instead and become mature in our understanding. Surely we don't need to start again with the fundamental importance of repenting from evil deeds* and placing our faith in God. ² You don't need further instruction about baptisms, the laying on of hands, the resurrection of the dead, and eternal judgment.³ And so, God willing, we will move forward to further understanding.

⁴ For it is impossible to bring back to repentance those who were once enlightened—those who have experienced the good things of heaven and shared in the Holy Spirit,⁵ who have tasted the goodness of the word of God and the power of the age to come—⁶ and who then turn away from God. It is impossible to bring such people back to repentance; by rejecting the Son of God, they themselves are nailing him to the cross once again and holding him up to public shame.

⁹ Dear friends, even though we are talking this way, we really don't believe it applies to you. We are confident that you are meant for better things, things that come with salvation. ¹⁰ For God is not unjust. He will not forget how hard you have worked for him and how you have shown your love to him by caring for other believers,* as you still do. ¹¹ Our great desire is that you will keep on loving others as long as life lasts, in order to make certain that what you hope for will come true. ¹² Then you will not become spiritually dull and indifferent. Instead, you will follow the example of those who are going to inherit God's promises because of their faith and endurance.

God's Promises Bring Hope

¹³ For example, there was God's promise to Abraham. Since there was no one greater to swear by, God took an oath in his own name, saying:

¹⁴ "I will certainly bless you, and I will multiply your descendants beyond number."*

¹⁵ Then Abraham waited patiently, and he received what God had promised.

¹⁶ Now when people take an oath, they call on someone greater than themselves to hold them to it. And without any question that oath is binding. ¹⁷ God also bound himself with an oath, so that those who received the promise could be perfectly sure that he would never change his mind. ¹⁸ So God has given both his promise and his oath. These two things are unchangeable because it is impossible for God to lie. Therefore, we who have fled to him for refuge can have great confidence as we hold to the hope that lies before us. ¹⁹ This hope is a strong and trustworthy anchor for our souls. It leads us through the curtain into God's inner sanctuary. ²⁰ Jesus has already gone in there for us. He has become our eternal High Priest in the order of Melchizedek.

HOPENOTE

Press toward the Promise

Then you will not become spiritually dull and indifferent. Instead, you will follow the example of those who are going to inherit God's promises because of their faith and endurance (Hebrews 6:12).

Are you facing a challenge today that seems overwhelming? Through faith and patience, you will see God's promises come to pass in your life. Understand that the enemy always fights the hardest when he knows you are closest to your breakthrough. He'd leave you alone if he thought you were going to live in mediocrity. If you keep pressing on toward your promise through faith and patience, you will get there.

Don't be like the Israelites in the Old Testament who were right next to their Promised Land when they talked themselves out of it. They said, "There are giants in the land. It's too big. It will be too difficult." No, don't look at the obstacles in your life today; lift up your eyes because you serve Almighty God. Don't look at how big your mountains are; focus on how big your God is. Follow the example of Abraham, who believed God even when his circumstances looked impossible. Remember, God rewards the people who seek after Him. Stand in faith, keep believing, and press toward the promises He has for you.

Melchizedek Is Greater Than Abraham

This Melchizedek was king of the city of Salem and also a priest of God Most High. When Abraham was returning home after winning a great battle against the kings, Melchizedek met him and blessed him.² Then Abraham took a tenth of all he had captured in battle and gave it to Melchizedek. The name Melchizedek means “king of justice,” and king of Salem means “king of peace.”³ There is no record of his father or mother or any of his ancestors—no beginning or end to his life. He remains a priest forever, resembling the Son of God.

⁴ Consider then how great this Melchizedek was. Even Abraham, the great patriarch of Israel, recognized this by giving him a tenth of what he had taken in battle.⁵ Now the law of Moses required that the priests, who are descendants of Levi, must collect a tithe from the rest of the people of Israel,* who are also descendants of Abraham.⁶ But Melchizedek, who was not a descendant of Levi, collected a tenth from Abraham. And Melchizedek placed a blessing upon Abraham, the one who had already received the promises of God.⁷ And without question, the person who has the power to give a blessing is greater than the one who is blessed.

⁸ The priests who collect tithes are men who die, so Melchizedek is greater than they are, because we are told that he lives on.⁹ In addition, we might even say that these Levites—the ones who collect the tithe—paid a tithe to Melchizedek when their ancestor Abraham paid a tithe to him.¹⁰ For although Levi wasn’t born yet, the seed from which he came was in Abraham’s body when Melchizedek collected the tithe from him.

¹¹ So if the priesthood of Levi, on which the law was based, could have achieved the perfection God intended, why did God need to establish a different priesthood, with a priest in the order of Melchizedek instead of the order of Levi and Aaron?*

¹² And if the priesthood is changed, the law must also be changed to permit it. ¹³ For the priest we are talking about belongs to a different tribe, whose members have never served at the altar as priests. ¹⁴ What I mean is, our Lord came from the tribe of Judah, and Moses never mentioned priests coming from that tribe.

Jesus Is like Melchizedek

¹⁵ This change has been made very clear since a different priest, who is like Melchizedek, has appeared. ¹⁶ Jesus became a priest, not by meeting the physical requirement of belonging to the tribe of Levi, but by the power of a life that cannot be destroyed. ¹⁷ And the psalmist pointed this out when he prophesied,

“You are a priest forever in the order of Melchizedek.”*

¹⁸ Yes, the old requirement about the priesthood was set aside because it was weak and useless. ¹⁹ For the law never made anything perfect. But now we have confidence in a better hope, through which we draw near to God.

²⁰ This new system was established with a solemn oath. Aaron’s descendants became priests without such an oath, ²¹ but there was an oath regarding Jesus. For God said to him,

“The LORD has taken an oath and will not break his vow:

‘You are a priest forever.’”*

22 Because of this oath, Jesus is the one who guarantees this better covenant with God.

23 There were many priests under the old system, for death prevented them from remaining in office. 24 But because Jesus lives forever, his priesthood lasts forever. 25 Therefore he is able, once and forever, to save* those who come to God through him. He lives forever to intercede with God on their behalf.

26 He is the kind of high priest we need because he is holy and blameless, unstained by sin. He has been set apart from sinners and has been given the highest place of honor in heaven.* 27 Unlike those other high priests, he does not need to offer sacrifices every day. They did this for their own sins first and then for the sins of the people. But Jesus did this once for all when he offered himself as the sacrifice for the people’s sins. 28 The law appointed high priests who were limited by human weakness. But after the law was given, God appointed his Son with an oath, and his Son has been made the perfect High Priest forever.

Chapter 8

Christ Is Our High Priest

Here is the main point: We have a High Priest who sat down in the place of honor beside the throne of the majestic God in heaven. 2 There he ministers in the heavenly Tabernacle,* the true place of worship that was built by the Lord and not by human hands.

³ And since every high priest is required to offer gifts and sacrifices, our High Priest must make an offering, too. ⁴ If he were here on earth, he would not even be a priest, since there already are priests who offer the gifts required by the law. ⁵ They serve in a system of worship that is only a copy, a shadow of the real one in heaven. For when Moses was getting ready to build the Tabernacle, God gave him this warning: “Be sure that you make everything according to the pattern I have shown you here on the mountain.”*

⁶ But now Jesus, our High Priest, has been given a ministry that is far superior to the old priesthood, for he is the one who mediates for us a far better covenant with God, based on better promises.

⁷ If the first covenant had been faultless, there would have been no need for a second covenant to replace it. ⁸ But when God found fault with the people, he said:

“The day is coming, says the LORD, when I will make a new covenant with the people of Israel and Judah.

⁹ This covenant will not be like the one
I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand and led them out of the land of Egypt.
They did not remain faithful to my covenant,
so I turned my back on them, says the LORD.

¹⁰ But this is the new covenant I will make with the people of Israel on that day,* says the LORD:

- I will put my laws in their minds, and I will write them on their hearts.
I will be their God,
and they will be my people.
- 11 And they will not need to teach their neighbors, nor will they need to teach their relatives,* saying, ‘You should know the LORD.’
For everyone, from the least to the greatest, will know me already.
- 12 And I will forgive their wickedness, and I will never again remember their sins.”*
- 13 When God speaks of a “new” covenant, it means he has made the first one obsolete. It is now out of date and will soon disappear.

Chapter 9

Old Rules about Worship

That first covenant between God and Israel had regulations for worship and a place of worship here on earth. ² There were two rooms in that Tabernacle.* In the first room were a lampstand, a table, and sacred loaves of bread on the table. This room was called the Holy Place. ³ Then there was a curtain, and behind the curtain was the second room* called the Most Holy Place. ⁴ In that room were a gold incense altar and a wooden chest called the Ark of the Covenant, which was covered with gold on all sides. Inside the Ark were a gold jar containing manna, Aaron’s staff that sprouted leaves, and the stone tablets of the covenant.⁵ Above the Ark were the cherubim of divine glory, whose wings stretched out over the Ark's cover, the place of atonement. But we cannot explain these things in detail now.

⁶ When these things were all in place, the priests regularly entered the first room* as they performed their religious duties. ⁷ But only the high priest ever entered the Most Holy Place, and only once a year. And he always offered blood for his own sins and for the sins the people had committed in ignorance.⁸ By these regulations the Holy Spirit revealed that the entrance to the Most Holy Place was not freely open as long as the Tabernacle* and the system it represented were still in use.

⁹ This is an illustration pointing to the present time. For the gifts and sacrifices that the priests offer are not able to cleanse the consciences of the people who bring them. ¹⁰ For that old system deals only with food and drink and various cleansing ceremonies—physical regulations that were in effect only until a better system could be established.

Christ Is the Perfect Sacrifice

¹¹ So Christ has now become the High Priest over all the good things that have come.* He has entered that greater, more perfect Tabernacle in heaven, which was not made by human hands and is not part of this created world. ¹² With his own blood—not the blood of goats and calves—he entered the Most Holy Place once for all time and secured our redemption forever.

¹³ Under the old system, the blood of goats and bulls and the ashes of a young cow could cleanse people's bodies from ceremonial impurity. ¹⁴ Just think how much more the blood of Christ will purify our consciences from sinful deeds* so that we can worship the living God. For by the power of the eternal Spirit, Christ offered himself to God as a perfect sacrifice for our sins. ¹⁵ That is why he is the one who mediates a new covenant between God and people, so that all who are called can receive the eternal inheritance God has promised them. For Christ died to set them free from the penalty of the sins they had committed under that first covenant.

¹⁶ Now when someone leaves a will,* it is necessary to prove that the person who made it is dead.* ¹⁷ The will goes into effect only after the person's death. While the person who made it is still alive, the will cannot be put into effect.

¹⁸ That is why even the first covenant was put into effect with the blood of an animal. ¹⁹ For after Moses had read each of God's commandments to all the people, he took the blood of calves and goats,* along with water, and sprinkled both the book of God's law and all the people, using hyssop branches and scarlet wool. ²⁰ Then he said, "This blood confirms the covenant God has made with you."* ²¹ And in the same way, he sprinkled blood on the Tabernacle and on everything used for worship. ²² In fact, according to the law of Moses, nearly everything was purified with blood. For without the shedding of blood, there is no forgiveness.

²⁴ For Christ did not enter into a holy place made with human hands, which was only a copy of the true one in heaven. He entered into heaven itself to appear now before God on our behalf. ²⁵ And he did not enter heaven to offer himself again and again, like the high priest here on earth who enters the Most Holy Place year after year with the blood of an animal. ²⁶ If that had been necessary, Christ would have had to die again and again, ever since the world began. But now, once for all time, he has appeared at the end of the age* to remove sin by his own death as a sacrifice.

²⁷ And just as each person is destined to die once and after that comes judgment, ²⁸ so also Christ died once for all time as a sacrifice to take away the sins of many people. He will come again, not to deal with our sins, but to bring salvation to all who are eagerly waiting for him.

Chapter 10

Christ's Sacrifice Once for All

The old system under the law of Moses was only a shadow, a dim preview of the good things to come, not the good things themselves. The sacrifices under that system were repeated again and again, year after year, but they were never able to provide perfect cleansing for those who came to worship. ² If they could have provided perfect cleansing, the sacrifices would have stopped, for the worshipers would have been purified once for all time, and their feelings of guilt would have disappeared.

3 But instead, those sacrifices actually reminded them of their sins year after year. 4 For it is not possible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins. 5 That is why, when Christ* came into the world, he said to God,

“You did not want animal sacrifices or sin offerings.

But you have given me a body to offer.

6 You were not pleased with burnt offerings or other offerings for sin.

7 Then I said, ‘Look, I have come to do your will, O God—as is written about me in the Scriptures.’”*

8 First, Christ said, “You did not want animal sacrifices or sin offerings or burnt offerings or other offerings for sin, nor were you pleased with them” (though they are required by the law of Moses). 9 Then he said, “Look, I have come to do your will.” He cancels the first covenant in order to put the second into effect. 10 For God’s will was for us to be made holy by the sacrifice of the body of Jesus Christ, once for all time.

11 Under the old covenant, the priest stands and ministers before the altar day after day, offering the same sacrifices again and again, which can never take away sins. 12 But our High Priest offered himself to God as a single sacrifice for sins, good for all time. Then he sat down in the place of honor at God’s right hand. 13 There he waits until his enemies are humbled and made a footstool under his feet. 14 For by that one offering he forever made perfect those who are being made holy.

15 And the Holy Spirit also testifies that this is so. For he says, 16 “This is the new covenant I will make with my people on that day,* says the LORD:

I will put my laws in their hearts, and I will write them on their minds.”*

17 Then he says,
“I will never again remember their sins and lawless deeds.”*

HOPENOTE

Meeting Together

And let us not neglect our meeting together, as some people do, but encourage one another, especially now that the day of his return is drawing near (Hebrews 10:25).

When we are in fellowship with other believers and encouraging one another, we are strengthened, and it is easier to keep our focus in the right place. That’s why the Scripture encourages us to stay connected, to keep “meeting together.”

Life is a group activity. We aren’t meant to be alone. We aren’t meant to live the Christian life alone. There’s a different dynamic to the blessing of God when believers gather. Yes, He has blessings in store for us individually, but He also has corporate blessings. When we dwell together in unity, the Scripture tells us that God has commanded blessing (see Psalm 133:1, 3). When we encourage one another, speaking words of faith and love, we ourselves will be built up.

As believers, we are the body of Christ. The hand cannot do its part without the arm, and the arm is useless unless it's connected to the shoulder. The eye can do nothing apart from the head. You are part of the body of Christ. Honor the Lord by connecting with other believers.

HOPENOTE

Be Free to Forgive

For we know the one who said, “I will take revenge. I will pay them back.” He also said, “The LORD will judge his own people” (Hebrews 10:30).

Are you dealing with an “unresolved case” from your past that needs resolution? Are you waiting for your day of justice or repayment?

God promises in His Word that He is our Vindicator. He is our Defender. He will settle your case and restore everything the enemy has stolen. But in order to allow Christ to settle your debts, you have to release your concerns to Him and forgive those who have wronged you. You have to allow Jesus to take on the debt they owe you, in the same way that He took on your debt for sin. That's true forgiveness—freeing others, so that you can be free.

¹⁸ And when sins have been forgiven, there is no need to offer any more sacrifices.

A Call to Persevere

¹⁹ And so, dear brothers and sisters,* we can boldly enter heaven's Most Holy Place because of the blood of Jesus. ²⁰ By his death,* Jesus opened a new and life-giving way through the curtain into the Most Holy Place. ²¹ And since we have a great High Priest who rules over God's house, ²² let us go right into the presence of God with sincere hearts fully trusting him. For our guilty consciences have been sprinkled with Christ's blood to make us clean, and our bodies have been washed with pure water.

²³ Let us hold tightly without wavering to the hope we affirm, for God can be trusted to keep his promise. ²⁴ Let us think of ways to motivate one another to acts of love and good works. ²⁵ And let us not neglect our meeting together, as some people do, but encourage one another, especially now that the day of his return is drawing near.

²⁶ Dear friends, if we deliberately continue sinning after we have received knowledge of the truth, there is no longer any sacrifice that will cover these sins. ²⁷ There is only the terrible expectation of God's judgment and the raging fire that will consume his enemies. ²⁸ For anyone who refused to obey the law of Moses was put to death without mercy on the testimony of two or three witnesses. ²⁹ Just think how much worse the punishment will be for those who have trampled on the Son of God, and have treated the blood of the covenant, which made us holy, as if it were common and unholy, and have insulted and disdained the Holy Spirit who brings God's mercy to us. ³⁰ For we know the one who said,

"I will take revenge.

I will pay them back."*

He also said,

"The LORD will judge his own people."*

Better Things Ahead

You suffered along with those who were thrown into jail, and when all you owned was taken from you, you accepted it with joy. You knew there were better things waiting for you that will last forever (Hebrews 10:34).

The Hebrews didn't complain even when their physical possessions were taken away from them, because they knew they had something far better waiting in heaven. When you keep your focus on the better things that are ahead, it will help you keep your perspective in the right place. You won't get upset about temporary things. You'll learn to love others better knowing that your love is eternal.

The next time something goes wrong in your day, just say, "That's okay. This is only temporary. My treasures are in heaven. There are better things waiting for me that will last forever."

HOPEFORTODAY

Persevere Until You See the Promise

Patient endurance is what you need now, so that you will continue to do God's will. Then you will receive all that he has promised (Hebrews 10:36).

What are you believing God for today? Promotion? Healing? Stronger relationships? Deliverance from some addiction or bad habit? God has promised all these things to you in His Word because it's His desire for you to live in wholeness all the days of your life.

When you do the will of God by obeying His Word and precepts, it opens the door for His promises to be fulfilled in your life. You may be doing all the right things today—don't give up! Perseverance will carry you to the promise. Perseverance means that you are focused and believing in what God says about your situation. It's looking away from distractions and any negative, defeating thoughts. Perseverance looks away from discouragement and looks to the Word of God. Perseverance has a voice, and it says things like, "No weapon formed against me shall prosper; if God is for me, who can be against me! I am more than a conqueror through Jesus!" Whatever you are believing God for today, keep believing. Stand strong and fight the good fight of faith. Ask God to give you endurance, perseverance, and patience so that you can see His promises fulfilled in every area of your life!

³¹ It is a terrible thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

³² Think back on those early days when you first learned about Christ.* Remember how you remained faithful even though it meant terrible suffering. ³³ Sometimes you were exposed to public ridicule and were beaten, and sometimes you helped others who were suffering the same things. ³⁴ You suffered along with those who were thrown into jail, and when all you owned was taken from you, you accepted it with joy. You knew there were better things waiting for you that will last forever.

³⁵ So do not throw away this confident trust in the Lord. Remember the great reward it brings you! ³⁶ Patient endurance is what you need now, so that you will continue to do God's will. Then you will receive all that he has promised.

³⁷ "For in just a little while, the Coming One will come and not delay.

³⁸ And my righteous ones will live by faith.*

But I will take no pleasure in anyone who turns away."*

³⁹ But we are not like those who turn away from God to their own destruction. We are the faithful ones, whose souls will be saved.

Chapter 11

Great Examples of Faith

Faith is the confidence that what we hope for will actually happen; it gives us assurance about things we cannot see.² Through their faith, the people in days of old earned a good reputation.

³ By faith we understand that the entire universe was formed at God's command, that what we now see did not come from anything that can be seen.

⁴ It was by faith that Abel brought a more acceptable offering to God than Cain did. Abel's offering gave evidence that he was a righteous man, and God showed his approval of his gifts. Although Abel is long dead, he still speaks to us by his example of faith.

⁵ It was by faith that Enoch was taken up to heaven without dying—“he disappeared, because God took him.”* For before he was taken up, he was known as a person who pleased God. ⁶ And it is impossible to please God without faith. Anyone who wants to come to him must believe that God exists and that he rewards those who sincerely seek him.

⁷ It was by faith that Noah built a large boat to save his family from the flood. He obeyed God, who warned him about things that had never happened before. By his faith Noah condemned the rest of the world, and he received the righteousness that comes by faith.

HOPENOTE

Faith, Hope, and Love

Faith is the confidence that what we hope for will actually happen; it gives us assurance about things we cannot see (Hebrews 11:1).

Faith is simply believing that God is who He says He is, and that He is a rewarder of the people who seek after Him (see Hebrews 11:6). Faith is believing in God and His goodness. And this Scripture tells us that faith gives substance to the things we hope for. In other words, we can't have faith unless we first have hope. Hope gives our faith a target. And the Bible also tells us that faith works by love (see Galatians 5:6). If hope is the target and faith is the arrow, then love is the bow. Love is what releases faith in our lives.

So where does faith come from? Romans tells us that faith comes by hearing the Word of God. Faith begins where the will of God is known. When you know it's God's will for you to be saved, it opens your heart to receive salvation by faith. When you know it's God's will for you to be healed, it opens your heart to receive healing by faith. When you know God wants to see you blessed, your faith is ignited and you open the door for Him to move in your life.

Always remember, God is the Author and Finisher of your faith (Hebrews 12:2). He first deposited faith in your heart, and He's watching over His Word to continue building that faith. He's working with you and in you to complete what He started!

⁸ It was by faith that Abraham obeyed when God called him to leave home and go to another land that God would give him as his inheritance. He went without knowing where he was going. ⁹ And even when he reached the land God promised him, he lived there by faith—for he was like a foreigner, living in tents. And so did Isaac and Jacob, who inherited the same promise. ¹⁰ Abraham was confidently looking forward to a city with eternal foundations, a city designed and built by God.

¹¹ It was by faith that even Sarah was able to have a child, though she was barren and was too old. She believed* that God would keep his promise.¹² And so a whole nation came from this one man who was as good as dead—a nation with so many people that, like the stars in the sky and the sand on the seashore, there is no way to count them.

¹³ All these people died still believing what God had promised them. They did not receive what was promised, but they saw it all from a distance and welcomed it. They agreed that they were foreigners and nomads here on earth.¹⁴ Obviously people who say such things are looking forward to a country they can call their own.¹⁵ If they had longed for the country they came from, they could have gone back.¹⁶ But they were looking for a better place, a heavenly homeland. That is why God is not ashamed to be called their God, for he has prepared a city for them.

¹⁷ It was by faith that Abraham offered Isaac as a sacrifice when God was testing him. Abraham, who had received God's promises, was ready to sacrifice his only son, Isaac,¹⁸ even though God had told him, "Isaac is the son through whom your descendants will be counted."¹⁹ Abraham reasoned that if Isaac died, God was able to bring him back to life again. And in a sense, Abraham did receive his son back from the dead.

²⁰ It was by faith that Isaac promised blessings for the future to his sons, Jacob and Esau.

²¹ It was by faith that Jacob, when he was old and dying, blessed each of Joseph's sons and bowed in worship as he leaned on his staff.

²² It was by faith that Joseph, when he was about to die, said confidently that the people of Israel would leave Egypt.

He even commanded them to take his bones with them when they left.

²³ It was by faith that Moses' parents hid him for three months when he was born. They saw that God had given them an unusual child, and they were not afraid to disobey the king's command.

HOPENOTE

Move Forward in Faith

And it is impossible to please God without faith. Anyone who wants to come to him must believe that God exists and that he rewards those who sincerely seek him (Hebrews 11:6).

God is always giving us opportunities to grow and move forward in this life. But in order to experience God's best, you must be bold and willingly step out in faith to do what God says to do!

Do you have a "play-it-safe" mentality? Are you avoiding risks because you're afraid you might fail? Or do you think that what you're dreaming about might be too difficult? The Bible says that faith pleases God. It brings pleasure to the heart of God when He knows that you trust Him enough to step out and obey Him. You may not always know what will happen, and you may not always feel qualified. But the Bible says in Joshua 1:9, “Be strong and courageous! Do not be afraid or discouraged. For the LORD your God is with you wherever you go.” God promises He will always be with you—and with God on your side, you are more than a conqueror!

²⁴ It was by faith that Moses, when he grew up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh’s daughter. ²⁵ He chose to share the oppression of God’s people instead of enjoying the fleeting pleasures of sin. ²⁶ He thought it was better to suffer for the sake of Christ than to own the treasures of Egypt, for he was looking ahead to his great reward. ²⁷ It was by faith that Moses left the land of Egypt, not fearing the king’s anger. He kept right on going because he kept his eyes on the one who is invisible. ²⁸ It was by faith that Moses commanded the people of Israel to keep the Passover and to sprinkle blood on the doorposts so that the angel of death would not kill their firstborn sons.

²⁹ It was by faith that the people of Israel went right through the Red Sea as though they were on dry ground. But when the Egyptians tried to follow, they were all drowned.

³⁰ It was by faith that the people of Israel marched around Jericho for seven days, and the walls came crashing down.

³¹ It was by faith that Rahab the prostitute was not destroyed with the people in her city who refused to obey God. For she had given a friendly welcome to the spies.

³² How much more do I need to say? It would take too long to recount the stories of the faith of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, David, Samuel, and all the prophets.³³ By faith these people overthrew kingdoms, ruled with justice, and received what God had promised them. They shut the mouths of lions,³⁴ quenched the flames of fire, and escaped death by the edge of the sword. Their weakness was turned to strength. They became strong in battle and put whole armies to flight.³⁵ Women received their loved ones back again from death.

But others were tortured, refusing to turn from God in order to be set free. They placed their hope in a better life after the resurrection.³⁶ Some were jeered at, and their backs were cut open with whips. Others were chained in prisons.³⁷ Some died by stoning, some were sawed in half,* and others were killed with the sword. Some went about wearing skins of sheep and goats, destitute and oppressed and mistreated.³⁸ They were too good for this world, wandering over deserts and mountains, hiding in caves and holes in the ground.

³⁹ All these people earned a good reputation because of their faith, yet none of them received all that God had promised.
⁴⁰ For God had something better in mind for us, so that they would not reach perfection without us.

Chapter 12

God's Discipline Proves His Love

Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a huge crowd of witnesses to the life of faith, let us strip off every weight that slows us down, especially the sin that so easily trips us up.

And let us run with endurance the race God has set before us.² We do this by keeping our eyes on Jesus, the champion who initiates and perfects our faith.* Because of the joy* awaiting him, he endured the cross, disregarding its shame. Now he is seated in the place of honor beside God's throne.³ Think of all the hostility he endured from sinful people;* then you won't become weary and give up.⁴ After all, you have not yet given your lives in your struggle against sin.

HOPENOTE

Eyes Fixed on Jesus

We do this by keeping our eyes on Jesus, the champion who initiates and perfects our faith. Because of the joy awaiting him, he endured the cross, disregarding its shame. Now he is seated in the place of honor beside God's throne (Hebrews 12:2).

Are your eyes fixed on Jesus today? It's so easy to let the distractions of the world and the cares of everyday life change your focus. And whatever you fix your eyes on, you open your spirit to. You can choose to fix your eyes on Jesus no matter what distractions are going on around you. You see, when you fix your eyes on Jesus, you are opening yourself to the Healer. You are opening yourself to the Deliverer. You are opening yourself to the Prince of Peace, the Mighty God, the Everlasting Father, the Provider, the Redeemer, the Strong Tower of refuge.

What do you need in your life today? Peace? Fix your eyes on Jesus. Do you need healing? Fix your eyes on Jesus. Do you need a safe retreat? Fix your eyes on Jesus. Now, you may have to turn off other things that you've been watching so that you can fix your eyes on Him. But remember, He is your source of life and the Author and Perfector of your faith. Fix your eyes on Him and allow Him to work in your life so that you can experience the victory He has in store for you.

5 And have you forgotten the encouraging words God spoke to you as his children? * He said, “My child, * don't make light of the LORD's discipline, and don't give up when he corrects you.

6 For the LORD disciplines those he loves, and he punishes each one he accepts as his child.” *

HOPENOTE

God Improves Us

For our earthly fathers disciplined us for a few years, doing the best they knew how. But God's discipline is always good for us, so that we might share in his holiness (Hebrews 12:10).

Aren't you glad that the God of this universe loves us enough to discipline and shape our character? A dictionary defines discipline as training that corrects, molds, or perfects mental faculties or moral character. God improves our character through His discipline. While you are on this earth, you are constantly in spiritual training. Your faith, your character, and your heart are being molded to be more like Him. God is continually working in us so that we can be holy, or set apart, in our mind, will, and emotions. We have to be set apart, or holy, because the Bible says that without holiness, we won't be able to see Him. And God doesn't want anything to come between you and Him. He wants to be with you. That's why He chose to make His home in your heart. When you allow Him to shape, train, and improve your character, you will become holy, and you will see Him. Receive His loving guidance today as He shapes and trains your character. Let Him work in your life, and be willing to respond to His tender leading.

⁷ As you endure this divine discipline, remember that God is treating you as his own children. Who ever heard of a child who is never disciplined by its father? ⁸ If God doesn't discipline you as he does all of his children, it means that you are illegitimate and are not really his children at all. ⁹ Since we respected our earthly fathers who disciplined us, shouldn't we submit even more to the discipline of the Father of our spirits, and live forever?*

¹⁰ For our earthly fathers disciplined us for a few years, doing the best they knew how. But God's discipline is always good for us, so that we might share in his holiness. ¹¹ No discipline is enjoyable while it is happening—it's painful! But afterward there will be a peaceful harvest of right living for those who are trained in this way.

¹² So take a new grip with your tired hands and strengthen your weak knees. ¹³ Mark out a straight path for your feet so that those who are weak and lame will not fall but become strong.

A Call to Listen to God

¹⁴ Work at living in peace with everyone, and work at living a holy life, for those who are not holy will not see the Lord. ¹⁵ Look after each other so that none of you fails to receive the grace of God. Watch out that no poisonous root of bitterness grows up to trouble you, corrupting many. ¹⁶ Make sure that no one is immoral or godless like Esau, who traded his birthright as the firstborn son for a single meal. ¹⁷ You know that afterward, when he wanted his father's blessing, he was rejected. It was too late for repentance, even though he begged with bitter tears.

¹⁸ You have not come to a physical mountain,* to a place of flaming fire, darkness, gloom, and whirlwind, as the Israelites did at Mount Sinai. ¹⁹ For they heard an awesome trumpet blast and a voice so terrible that they begged God to stop speaking.

20 They staggered back under God's command: "If even an animal touches the mountain, it must be stoned to death."* 21 Moses himself was so frightened at the sight that he said, "I am terrified and trembling."*

22 No, you have come to Mount Zion, to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to countless thousands of angels in a joyful gathering. 23 You have come to the assembly of God's firstborn children, whose names are written in heaven. You have come to God himself, who is the judge over all things. You have come to the spirits of the righteous ones in heaven who have now been made perfect. 24 You have come to Jesus, the one who mediates the new covenant between God and people, and to the sprinkled blood, which speaks of forgiveness instead of crying out for vengeance like the blood of Abel.

HOPENOTE

Choose Peace

Work at living in peace with everyone, and work at living a holy life, for those who are not holy will not see the Lord (Hebrews 12:14).

Notice, this verse starts by saying that we should live in peace with the people around us. When we have peace in our lives, in our homes, and in our relationships, it opens the door for God to work. But when we have strife, bitterness, anger, or resentment in our relationships, it blocks God's blessing. Remember, when it comes to disagreements in relationships, it doesn't always matter who is right; it matters what is right. Choosing peace is always right.

Is there someone in your life today that you need to restore peace with? A simple act of kindness, a note, or small gift can open the door for restoration in your relationships. Step out today and let peace create a foundation for the blessing God desires for you!

25 Be careful that you do not refuse to listen to the One who is speaking. For if the people of Israel did not escape when they refused to listen to Moses, the earthly messenger, we will certainly not escape if we reject the One who speaks to us from heaven! 26 When God spoke from Mount Sinai his voice shook the earth, but now he makes another promise: "Once again I will shake not only the earth but the heavens also."* 27 This means that all of creation will be shaken and removed, so that only unshakable things will remain.

HOPENOTE

Thankful for the Kingdom

Since we are receiving a Kingdom that is unshakable, let us be thankful and please God by worshiping him with holy fear and awe (Hebrews 12:28).

Thank God, we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken! The kingdom is simply God's system. It's His way of doing things. The Bible tells us that His kingdom is "living a life of goodness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit" (Romans 14:17). In God's kingdom, when you give, it shall be given back to you, pressed down, shaken together, and running over. In God's kingdom, you can have an abundance of peace and prosperity in your spirit, mind, and body no matter what's happening around you.

And just like the verse says, His kingdom cannot be shaken! That means, if the stock market goes down, God's kingdom is still strong. If the housing market goes down, God's kingdom is still strong. If gas prices go up, God's kingdom is still strong! You can live in God's kingdom that cannot be shaken—no matter what's happening here on earth.

28 Since we are receiving a Kingdom that is unshakable, let us be thankful and please God by worshiping him with holy fear and awe. 29 For our God is a devouring fire.

Chapter 13

Concluding Words

Keep on loving each other as brothers and sisters.* ² Don't forget to show hospitality to strangers, for some who have done this have entertained angels without realizing it! ³ Remember those in prison, as if you were there yourself. Remember also those being mistreated, as if you felt their pain in your own bodies.

⁴ Give honor to marriage, and remain faithful to one another in marriage. God will surely judge people who are immoral and those who commit adultery.

⁵ Don't love money; be satisfied with what you have. For God has said,

“I will never fail you.

I will never abandon you.”*

⁶ So we can say with confidence,

“The LORD is my helper,

so I will have no fear.

What can mere people do to me?”*

⁷ Remember your leaders who taught you the word of God. Think of all the good that has come from their lives, and follow the example of their faith.

⁸ Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever. ⁹ So do not be attracted by strange, new ideas. Your strength comes from God's grace, not from rules about food, which don't help those who follow them.

¹⁰ We have an altar from which the priests in the Tabernacle* have no right to eat. ¹¹ Under the old system, the high priest brought the blood of animals into the Holy Place as a sacrifice for sin, and the bodies of the animals were burned outside the camp. ¹² So also Jesus suffered and died outside the city gates to make his people holy by means of his own blood. ¹³ So let us go out to him, outside the camp, and bear the disgrace he bore. ¹⁴ For this world is not our permanent home; we are looking forward to a home yet to come.

¹⁵ Therefore, let us offer through Jesus a continual sacrifice of praise to God, proclaiming our allegiance to his name. ¹⁶ And don't forget to do good and to share with those in need. These are the sacrifices that please God.

¹⁷ Obey your spiritual leaders, and do what they say. Their work is to watch over your souls, and they are accountable to God. Give them reason to do this with joy and not with sorrow. That would certainly not be for your benefit.

¹⁸ Pray for us, for our conscience is clear and we want to live honorably in everything we do. ¹⁹ And especially pray that I will be able to come back to you soon.

²⁰ Now may the God of peace—who brought up from the dead our Lord Jesus,

HOPENOTE

Praise Your Way to Victory

Therefore, let us offer through Jesus a continual sacrifice of praise to God, proclaiming our allegiance to his name (Hebrews 13:15).

Praise is more than just singing songs in church on Sunday. In fact, praise is more than just singing songs. It's a heart attitude. Praise can be manifest in many different ways—your words, your actions, your daily life. When your actions or words declare your allegiance to His name, that's giving God praise. Praise is a powerful weapon. Many times in the Old Testament, when God's people would go into battle, they would send the worshipers out first. That's because praise precedes the victory. The Scripture tells us that God inhabits the praises of His people. When we praise, God's presence manifests itself, and the enemy must flee!

That's something to get excited about today! That's something that will give you joy in the midst of your difficulty. That's something that will make you put on a garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness (see Isaiah 61:3). If you are going through a tough time today, praise your way to victory! Let God arise, and let His enemies be scattered! Greater is He who is in you than he who is in the world. When the praises go up, the blessings come down. Celebrate the victory He's promised you, today.

the great Shepherd of the sheep, and ratified an eternal covenant with his blood—21 may he equip you with all you need for doing his will.

May he produce in you,*
through the power of Jesus Christ,
every good thing that is pleasing to him.
All glory to him forever and ever! Amen.

22 I urge you, dear brothers and sisters,* to pay attention to what I have written in this brief exhortation.

23 I want you to know that our brother Timothy has been released from jail. If he comes here soon, I will bring him with me to see you.

24 Greet all your leaders and all the believers there.* The believers from Italy send you their greetings.

25 May God's grace be with you all.

INTRO TO THE BOOK OF

James

Author:

James, brother of Jesus and leader of the church in Jerusalem

Original Audience:

First-century Jewish Christians living in Gentile communities outside of Palestine

Date of Writing:

Probably AD 49

Setting:

Concern for persecuted Christians who were once part of church in Jerusalem

Key People:

James, Job, Elijah

Key Verses:

Now someone may argue, “Some people have faith; others have good deeds.” But I say, “How can you show me your faith if you don’t have good deeds? I will show you my faith by my good deeds” (2:18).

Finding Hope and Encouragement in James

James can be considered as perhaps the most practical book in the New Testament, reading like a “how to” book on living the Christian faith. It tells us how to put our faith into action every day.

Of the four men that bear the name James in the New Testament, it is believed that James, the half-brother of Jesus, is the author. He is known as “James the Just.” He started following Jesus after His resurrection and, in time, became the leader of the church at Jerusalem. He probably oversaw the council in Jerusalem that decided that Gentiles did not have to become Jews before they could be Christians. He died a martyr in AD 62.

This book, believed to be one of the first written in the New Testament, is concerned with the practical aspects of Christian conduct more than being a treatise on doctrine. The major issue is faith and works. James believed that true saving faith is one that is working, resulting in a changed life. False faith is one that does not work, and therefore is dead. In other words, a faith that is not demonstrated by loving acts stands on shaky ground. This faith is reflected in our trials, our speech, our wisdom, our patience, our prayers, and our service.

The book is not addressed to a particular congregation; instead, it is addressed to all Christians. It is therefore called a General Epistle, along with 1 and 2 Peter; 1, 2, and 3 John; and Jude.

This book challenges us to live out our faith daily. It compels us to show our faith by the way we live. If you need instructions on how to live the Christian life, you have found the tools in this helpful and hopeful book.

Chapter 1

Greetings from James

This letter is from James, a slave of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ.

I am writing to the “twelve tribes”—Jewish believers scattered abroad.

Greetings!

Faith and Endurance

² Dear brothers and sisters,* when troubles come your way, consider it an opportunity for great joy. ³ For you know that when your faith is tested, your endurance has a chance to grow. ⁴ So let it grow, for when your endurance is fully developed, you will be perfect and complete, needing nothing.

⁵ If you need wisdom, ask our generous God, and he will give it to you. He will not rebuke you for asking. ⁶ But when you ask him, be sure that your faith is in God alone. Do not waver, for a person with divided loyalty is as unsettled as a wave of the sea that is blown and tossed by the wind. ⁷ Such people should not expect to receive anything from the Lord. ⁸ Their loyalty is divided between God and the world, and they are unstable in everything they do.

⁹ Believers who are* poor have something to boast about, for God has honored them. ¹⁰ And those who are rich should boast that God has humbled them. They will fade away like a little flower in the field. ¹¹ The hot sun rises and the grass withers; the little flower droops and falls, and its beauty fades away. In the same way, the rich will fade away with all of their achievements.

¹² God blesses those who patiently endure testing and temptation. Afterward they will receive the crown of life that God has promised to those who love him.¹³ And remember, when you are being tempted, do not say, “God is tempting me.” God is never tempted to do wrong,* and he never tempts anyone else.¹⁴ Temptation comes from our own desires, which entice us and drag us away.¹⁵ These desires give birth to sinful actions. And when sin is allowed to grow, it gives birth to death.

¹⁶ So don’t be misled, my dear brothers and sisters.¹⁷ Whatever is good and perfect comes down to us from God our Father, who created all the lights in the heavens.* He never changes or casts a shifting shadow.¹⁸ He chose to give birth to us by giving us his true word. And we, out of all creation, became his prized possession.

HOPENOTE

Ask for Wisdom

If you need wisdom, ask our generous God, and he will give it to you. He will not rebuke you for asking (James 1:5).

Do you need wisdom for something today? Ask God. He loves it when you call upon Him, and He longs to give generously to you. Do you need wisdom to lead your family? Do you need wisdom on your job? Do you need wisdom for a decision you have to make in life? Ask God!

The next verse goes on to say that when you ask, you must ask in faith without wavering. That means you have to be absolutely determined to get your answer from Him. You can't just ask and then decide to do things your own way, or doubt that He will give you the answer. That's being double-minded. When you're double-minded, the Bible says you won't be able to receive anything from the Lord. Don't let that be you! Have a one-track mind that's focused on God and His promises. Believe that He is going to generously bless you with His wisdom. Decide that no matter what, you'll keep an attitude of faith and expectancy. Ask in faith for God's wisdom today, and He will answer!

Listening and Doing

¹⁹ Understand this, my dear brothers and sisters: You must all be quick to listen, slow to speak, and slow to get angry. ²⁰ Human anger* does not produce the righteousness* God desires. ²¹ So get rid of all the filth and evil in your lives, and humbly accept the word God has planted in your hearts, for it has the power to save your souls.

HOPENOTE

He Gives Good Gifts

Whatever is good and perfect comes down to us from God our Father, who created all the lights in the heavens. He never changes or casts a shifting shadow (James 1:17).

God has so many good and perfect gifts in store for you. Not only does He offer eternal life through His Son, Jesus, but the Bible is filled with His generous and abundant promises in this life. He wants to bless you with provision and supply all your needs according to His riches in glory. He wants to pour out His abundant favor on you and cause everything you do to prosper. He wants to bless you with spiritual gifts to make you strong and productive. He wants you to enjoy your work and be proud of your accomplishments at the end of the day. These are all gifts from God.

Every good gift from God is meant to draw us closer to Him. Often times, people have a picture of God shaped by experiences that have happened in the past, or experiences with their earthly father. In many cases this is good. I had a great father who loved me unconditionally. He was my greatest fan and best friend. But I know that many of you have come from broken or abusive homes. If that's you, I want to encourage you to let go of any past perceptions and see God according to His Word. He is good and faithful, He has a bright future in store for you, and He rewards those who diligently seek Him!

22 But don't just listen to God's word. You must do what it says. Otherwise, you are only fooling yourselves. 23 For if you listen to the word and don't obey, it is like glancing at your face in a mirror. 24 You see yourself, walk away, and forget what you look like. 25 But if you look carefully into the perfect law that sets you free, and if you do what it says and don't forget what you heard, then God will bless you for doing it.

26 If you claim to be religious but don't control your tongue, you are fooling yourself, and your religion is worthless. 27 Pure and genuine religion in the sight of God the Father means caring for orphans and widows in their distress and refusing to let the world corrupt you.

Chapter 2

A Warning against Prejudice

My dear brothers and sisters,* how can you claim to have faith in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ if you favor some people over others?

2 For example, suppose someone comes into your meeting* dressed in fancy clothes and expensive jewelry, and another comes in who is poor and dressed in dirty clothes. 3 If you give special attention and a good seat to the rich person, but you say to the poor one, "You can stand over there, or else sit on the floor"—well, 4 doesn't this discrimination show that your judgments are guided by evil motives?

5 Listen to me, dear brothers and sisters. Hasn't God chosen the poor in this world to be rich in faith? Aren't they the ones who will inherit the Kingdom he promised to those who love him? ⁶ But you dishonor the poor! Isn't it the rich who oppress you and drag you into court? ⁷ Aren't they the ones who slander Jesus Christ, whose noble name* you bear?

⁸ Yes indeed, it is good when you obey the royal law as found in the Scriptures: "Love your neighbor as yourself."* ⁹ But if you favor some people over others, you are committing a sin. You are guilty of breaking the law.

¹⁰ For the person who keeps all of the laws except one is as guilty as a person who has broken all of God's laws. ¹¹ For the same God who said, "You must not commit adultery," also said, "You must not murder."* So if you murder someone but do not commit adultery, you have still broken the law.

¹² So whatever you say or whatever you do, remember that you will be judged by the law that sets you free. ¹³ There will be no mercy for those who have not shown mercy to others. But if you have been merciful, God will be merciful when he judges you.

Faith without Good Deeds Is Dead

¹⁴ What good is it, dear brothers and sisters, if you say you have faith but don't show it by your actions? Can that kind of faith save anyone? ¹⁵ Suppose you see a brother or sister who has no food or clothing, ¹⁶ and you say, "Good-bye and have a good day; stay warm and eat well"—but then you don't give that person any food or clothing. What good does that do?

¹⁷ So you see, faith by itself isn't enough. Unless it produces good deeds, it is dead and useless.

18 Now someone may argue, “Some people have faith; others have good deeds.” But I say, “How can you show me your faith if you don’t have good deeds? I will show you my faith by my good deeds.”

19 You say you have faith, for you believe that there is one God.* Good for you! Even the demons believe this, and they tremble in terror. 20 How foolish! Can’t you see that faith without good deeds is useless?

HOPEFORTODAY

Stay Full of Mercy

There will be no mercy for those who have not shown mercy to others. But if you have been merciful, God will be merciful when he judges you (James 2:13).

I was at a grocery store one time, and there was a girl up at the register who was very sour. You could tell she did not want to be there. She was unfriendly and cold. She acted like everybody was bothering her. I watched person after person in that line get offended. They were taking her poison left and right, leaving upset and agitated. When the young girl handed the receipt to one lady, she just wadded it up and threw it back down. She said, “I don’t need that,” and stormed out of there. Well, when it was my time to check out, I was just my normal, friendly self. I said, “Hi. How’s everything going?”

She said very coldly, “Terrible.”

I said, “Well, I’m so sorry. If you don’t mind I would love to pray with you. I believe God can turn any situation around.” She looked up at me so surprised. Her whole countenance changed.

She said, “Are you serious?”

I said, “I am.”

She said, “I would love for you to pray for me. My little girl is in the hospital. We don’t have insurance. My husband and I, we’re not getting along. I don’t know what I’m going to do.” Right there at the cash register we prayed. When I left she had big tears running down her cheeks. She said, “You’ll never know what that meant to me.”

Most of the time, when somebody is rude or inconsiderate like that, they’ve got much deeper issues. They’ve got problems and heartaches we know nothing about. If we allow them to offend us and get upset, all we’re doing is allowing our lives to be pulled down by their problems. You know what I’ve found? There’s not enough mercy in our world. Where is the love that will overlook a fault? Where is the grace that will give someone the benefit of the doubt? Where is the compassion that will lift the fallen? Let’s learn to be more understanding. What happened that day? I looked beyond the surface to her heart. When somebody is dishing out that kind of poison, you can be assured they're crying out for help on the inside. Don't be like everybody else. Instead, sow a seed of hope. When you're kind to someone who is rude to you, when you're good to them even though they didn't deserve it, you're sowing seeds of God's mercy, grace, love, and compassion. I believe the number one thing that's going to keep our hearts free from being offended is when we can see others through God's eyes.

²¹ Don't you remember that our ancestor Abraham was shown to be right with God by his actions when he offered his son Isaac on the altar? ²² You see, his faith and his actions worked together. His actions made his faith complete. ²³ And so it happened just as the Scriptures say: "Abraham believed God, and God counted him as righteous because of his faith."* He was even called the friend of God.* ²⁴ So you see, we are shown to be right with God by what we do, not by faith alone.

²⁵ Rahab the prostitute is another example. She was shown to be right with God by her actions when she hid those messengers and sent them safely away by a different road. ²⁶ Just as the body is dead without breath,* so also faith is dead without good works.

HOPENOTE

Friend of God

And so it happened just as the Scriptures say: “Abraham believed God, and God counted him as righteous because of his faith.” He was even called the friend of God (James 2:23).

The all-knowing, all-powerful Creator of the universe wants to be your friend today. He wants to walk with you and talk with you and share life with you. That’s why He created you—first and foremost—for fellowship. It’s as simple as opening your heart of faith to Him. If you have faith in God today, then just like Abraham, you are God’s friend. And the Bible says that God is a friend that sticks closer than a brother. That means He is faithful to you. He will never leave you. He will never forsake you. He is with you always. He is mindful of you—He is always thinking of you. What an honor and privilege it is to be called God’s friend!

Let that truth sink down into your heart today. The next time the enemy tries to tell you that you are alone in this world, or that no one else understands what you are going through, just say out loud, “I am a friend of God.” With God as your friend, He’ll walk forward with you down the path of victory He has prepared for you!

Chapter 3

Controlling the Tongue

Dear brothers and sisters,* not many of you should become teachers in the church, for we who teach will be judged more strictly. ² Indeed, we all make many mistakes. For if we could control our tongues, we would be perfect and could also control ourselves in every other way.

³ We can make a large horse go wherever we want by means of a small bit in its mouth. ⁴ And a small rudder makes a huge ship turn wherever the pilot chooses to go, even though the winds are strong. ⁵ In the same way, the tongue is a small thing that makes grand speeches.

But a tiny spark can set a great forest on fire. ⁶ And the tongue is a flame of fire. It is a whole world of wickedness, corrupting your entire body. It can set your whole life on fire, for it is set on fire by hell itself.*

⁷ People can tame all kinds of animals, birds, reptiles, and fish, ⁸ but no one can tame the tongue. It is restless and evil, full of deadly poison. ⁹ Sometimes it praises our Lord and Father, and sometimes it curses those who have been made in the image of God. ¹⁰ And so blessing and cursing come pouring out of the same mouth. Surely, my brothers and sisters, this is not right! ¹¹ Does a spring of water bubble out with both fresh water and bitter water? ¹² Does a fig tree produce olives, or a grapevine produce figs? No, and you can't draw fresh water from a salty spring.*

True Wisdom Comes from God

¹³ If you are wise and understand God's ways, prove it by living an honorable life, doing good works with the humility that comes from wisdom. ¹⁴ But if you are bitterly jealous and there is selfish ambition in your heart, don't cover up the truth with boasting and lying. ¹⁵ For jealousy and selfishness are not God's kind of wisdom. Such things are earthly, unspiritual, and demonic. ¹⁶ For wherever there is jealousy and selfish ambition, there you will find disorder and evil of every kind.

¹⁷ But the wisdom from above is first of all pure. It is also peace loving, gentle at all times, and willing to yield to others. It is full of mercy and good deeds. It shows no favoritism and is always sincere. ¹⁸ And those who are peacemakers will plant seeds of peace and reap a harvest of righteousness.*

HOPENOTE

Declare That You Are Blessed

And a small rudder makes a huge ship turn wherever the pilot chooses to go, even though the winds are strong. In the same way, the tongue is a small thing that makes grand speeches. But a tiny spark can set a great forest on fire (James 3:4-5).

Like the rudder on a ship, your tongue sets the direction of your life. It does not matter how hard the wind may blow, the rudder keeps the ship on its course. No matter how hard the winds of life may sometimes blow, you need to guard the words that come out of your mouth. If you speak words of defeat, don't be surprised if your life continues on a course of defeat. But, when you choose to speak overcoming words of victory, you will experience victory.

It's not enough to refrain from speaking negative things. You must proactively say positive and encouraging things about yourself and your family. As you speak words of blessing over your life, you will find that they become a self-fulfilling prophecy. You can change your world by changing your words.

The Bible says in Proverbs 18:21, "The tongue can bring death or life; those who love to talk will reap the consequences." Make sure that the fruit your tongue produces is sweet. Declare that you are blessed and that whatever you do will succeed. Begin to speak those words of faith and victory over your life and over your loved ones, and you will reap a harvest that will bless your family for generations.

Chapter 4

Drawing Close to God

HOPENOTE

Blessing Others

And so blessing and cursing come pouring out of the same mouth. Surely, my brothers and sisters, this is not right! (James 3:10).

The Bible encourages us to use our words to bless people. “To bless” means to speak well of, to pronounce favor, and to declare good things. And everyone has someone in their life that needs to receive our blessing.

Are you giving your children the blessings of love, affection, and encouragement? Are you speaking words that build them up and bless their future? You may not have received this kind of approval from your own parents. Perhaps there wasn’t a lot of love in your home. Perhaps your mom or dad always talked down to you. You can be the one to break that stronghold over your family. Decide today that you are going to stop talking down to one another. Choose instead to encourage each other. Stop focusing on what others are doing wrong, and start thanking them for what they are doing right. Begin right now to bless each other’s future. Speak goodness into their lives.

Your decision to be a positive influence will have a greater impact on the people around you than you could ever imagine. It will affect generations to come. Speak these blessings over your family, your children, and those whom you love and care for. If you will bless others, God promises to bless your own life beyond what you ever hoped or dreamed.

What is causing the quarrels and fights among you? Don't they come from the evil desires at war within you? ² You want what you don't have, so you scheme and kill to get it. You are jealous of what others have, but you can't get it, so you fight and wage war to take it away from them. Yet you don't have what you want because you don't ask God for it. ³ And even when you ask, you don't get it because your motives are all wrong—you want only what will give you pleasure.

HOPENOTE

Make Peace a Priority

For wherever there is jealousy and selfish ambition, there you will find disorder and evil of every kind (James 3:16).

Strife is a powerfully destructive force that the enemy uses to try to bring confusion and turmoil into our lives. Marriages are torn apart, businesses are destroyed, and lifelong friends are divided by strife. The enemy will make sure that you have plenty of opportunity each day to get upset with those whom you care about the most. Things often happen on a daily basis that can aggravate you and make you want to be rude or angry toward your family and those around you.

But you don't have to fall for that trap. You don't have to live aggravated and frustrated. You are above that. You are a child of the Most High God. He's given you peace in the midst of the storm, so let go of jealousy and selfish ambition, and make room for His peace that passes understanding. Make peace a priority in your life. Don't give the enemy a foothold. If you will do your part and honor God by being a maker and maintainer of peace, God will honor you. He will fight your battles, and your relationships will be strong, fruitful, happy, and whole because of it.

⁴ You adulterers!* Don't you realize that friendship with the world makes you an enemy of God? I say it again: If you want to be a friend of the world, you make yourself an enemy of God. ⁵ What do you think the Scriptures mean when they say that the spirit God has placed within us is filled with envy?* ⁶ But he gives us even more grace to stand against such evil desires.

As the Scriptures say,

“God opposes the proud but favors the humble.”*

Bold Prayer

And even when you ask, you don't get it because your motives are all wrong—you want only what will give you pleasure (James 4:3).

The Bible has plenty to say about praying bold prayers. God's desire for your life is so much bigger than your own. He wants to do extraordinary things. If we're going to see His favor, we have to learn to pray bold prayers.

A lot of times, we think we're not supposed to ask for too much. After all, we don't want to be greedy. We don't want to be selfish. I have people tell me, “Joel, if God wants me to be blessed, He'll bless me. He's God.” But that's not the way it works. God expects us to ask. The Scripture says, “Yet you don't have what you want because you don't ask God for it” (see verse 2). If you're not asking for God's favor, His blessings, His increase, then you're not releasing your faith. As you keep your heart right with God, you can bring anything to Him in prayer. We can boldly approach His throne and receive His grace. Remember, the righteous are as bold as a lion, so boldly make your requests known to the Father today.

⁷ So humble yourselves before God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. ⁸ Come close to God, and God will come close to you. Wash your hands, you sinners; purify your hearts, for your loyalty is divided between God and the world. ⁹ Let there be tears for what you have done. Let there be sorrow and deep grief. Let there be sadness instead of laughter, and gloom instead of joy. ¹⁰ Humble yourselves before the Lord, and he will lift you up in honor.

Warning against Judging Others

¹¹ Don't speak evil against each other, dear brothers and sisters.* If you criticize and judge each other, then you are criticizing and judging God's law. But your job is to obey the law, not to judge whether it applies to you. ¹² God alone, who gave the law, is the Judge. He alone has the power to save or to destroy. So what right do you have to judge your neighbor?

Warning about Self-Confidence

HOPENOTE

Draw Close to God

Come close to God, and God will come close to you. Wash your hands, you sinners; purify your hearts, for your loyalty is divided between God and the world (James 4:8).

God promises that He will draw close to you when you draw closer to Him. How do we draw closer to Him? First of all, the Bible says that we are to come into His presence with thanksgiving in our hearts and give Him praise (see Psalm 95:2). When you have a thankful heart, you are drawing closer to Him. The Bible also tells us that God opposes the proud but gives grace to the humble (James 4:6). When you have a humble heart before Him, you are drawing closer to Him. And the Bible says that when you seek Him with your whole heart, you will find Him. Seek God today by reading your Bible, praying, meditating on His promises, and worshiping Him. With an open heart, you can draw near to God just as you are, no matter where you are, and He will draw you to Himself.

The Treasure of Life

How do you know what your life will be like tomorrow? Your life is like the morning fog—it's here a little while, then it's gone (James 4:14).

I know a man who complained year after year about driving in traffic. It took him an hour to get to work each day. He would get so stressed and so frustrated. But one day, he had an accident and almost lost his life. He was in the hospital for several months, and it's amazing how that changed his attitude. He said, "Now I treasure every moment sitting in the traffic. I wave at total strangers, smile at everyone, I practically blow them kisses."

What happened? He realized every day is a precious gift from God. We have no guarantee that we're going to be here tomorrow. I hope we are, but life is fragile. It says in James we're like a vapor; we're here one moment, and then we're gone. We need to live every day like it could be our last. Don't put off enjoying your life. Don't put off your relationship with God the Father. The sad thing is that if you don't enjoy it today, you may not be here tomorrow to enjoy it. I know too many people who are planning to enjoy their life "someday"—when they get out of college, when they get married, when they pay their house off, when they retire. No, make a decision that you're going to enjoy your life today, right where you are. Make this day a masterpiece. Find the good in every situation. Treasure your moments as a gift from God!

¹³ Look here, you who say, “Today or tomorrow we are going to a certain town and will stay there a year. We will do business there and make a profit.” ¹⁴ How do you know what your life will be like tomorrow? Your life is like the morning fog—it’s here a little while, then it’s gone. ¹⁵ What you ought to say is, “If the Lord wants us to, we will live and do this or that.” ¹⁶ Otherwise you are boasting about your own plans, and all such boasting is evil.

¹⁷ Remember, it is sin to know what you ought to do and then not do it.

Chapter 5

Warning to the Rich

Look here, you rich people: Weep and groan with anguish because of all the terrible troubles ahead of you. ² Your wealth is rotting away, and your fine clothes are moth-eaten rags. ³ Your gold and silver have become worthless. The very wealth you were counting on will eat away your flesh like fire. This treasure you have accumulated will stand as evidence against you on the day of judgment. ⁴ For listen! Hear the cries of the field workers whom you have cheated of their pay. The wages you held back cry out against you. The cries of those who harvest your fields have reached the ears of the LORD of Heaven’s Armies.

⁵ You have spent your years on earth in luxury, satisfying your every desire. You have fattened yourselves for the day of slaughter. ⁶ You have condemned and killed innocent people, * who do not resist you.*

Patience and Endurance

⁷ Dear brothers and sisters,* be patient as you wait for the Lord's return. Consider the farmers who patiently wait for the rains in the fall and in the spring. They eagerly look for the valuable harvest to ripen.⁸ You, too, must be patient. Take courage, for the coming of the Lord is near.

⁹ Don't grumble about each other, brothers and sisters, or you will be judged. For look—the Judge is standing at the door!

¹⁰ For examples of patience in suffering, dear brothers and sisters, look at the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord.¹¹ We give great honor to those who endure under suffering. For instance, you know about Job, a man of great endurance. You can see how the Lord was kind to him at the end, for the Lord is full of tenderness and mercy.

¹² But most of all, my brothers and sisters, never take an oath, by heaven or earth or anything else. Just say a simple yes or no, so that you will not sin and be condemned.

The Power of Prayer

Confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed. The earnest prayer of a righteous person has great power and produces wonderful results (James 5:16).

Relationships are so important in the eyes of God. As His children, He desires that we live in unity and stay connected with one another. When we are transparent and pray for each other, something supernatural takes place. We open the door for God to pour out His abundant blessing and healing in our own lives. When we walk in love and unity, our prayers become more effective, and His power is released through us.

All throughout the Bible, you can see just how powerful and life changing prayer is. The best news about prayer is that the same power you read about in the Bible is available to you right now, right where you are. God intended prayer to change lives. Through your prayers, you can tap into God's incredible, inexhaustible power, and you can also be a great encouragement and blessing to those who need prayer around you. James says that prayer can heal and restore people. Make a choice today and every day to pray earnestly, knowing that your prayers produce wonderful results.

The Power of Prayer

¹³ Are any of you suffering hardships? You should pray. Are any of you happy? You should sing praises. ¹⁴ Are any of you sick? You should call for the elders of the church to come and pray over you, anointing you with oil in the name of the Lord.

¹⁵ Such a prayer offered in faith will heal the sick, and the Lord will make you well. And if you have committed any sins, you will be forgiven.

¹⁶ Confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed. The earnest prayer of a righteous person has great power and produces wonderful results. ¹⁷ Elijah was as human as we are, and yet when he prayed earnestly that no rain would fall, none fell for three and a half years! ¹⁸ Then, when he prayed again, the sky sent down rain and the earth began to yield its crops.

Restore Wandering Believers

¹⁹ My dear brothers and sisters, if someone among you wanders away from the truth and is brought back, ²⁰ you can be sure that whoever brings the sinner back will save that person from death and bring about the forgiveness of many sins.

INTRO TO THE BOOK OF

1 and 2 Peter

Author:

The apostle Peter

Original Audience:

Jewish Christians scattered due to persecution

Date of Writing:

1 Peter was penned between AD 62–64. 2 Peter was written about AD 67, three years later.

Setting:

Peter was writing in Rome where he eventually was executed. Christians were scattering throughout the Mediterranean world.

Key People:

Peter, Silvanus (Silas), Mark, Paul

Key Verses:

These trials will show that your faith is genuine. It is being tested as fire tests and purifies gold—though your faith is far more precious than mere gold. So when your faith remains strong through many trials, it will bring you much praise and glory and honor on the day when Jesus Christ is revealed to the whole world (1 Peter 1:7).

By his divine power, God has given us everything we need for living a godly life. We have received all of this by coming to know him, the one who called us to himself by means of his marvelous glory and excellence (2 Peter 1:3).

Finding Hope and Encouragement in 1 and 2 Peter

Peter wrote his letters to encourage the Christians who were scattered due to the persecution. The readers were predominately of the Gentile background rather than Jewish background. They were suffering, and Peter wanted to explain why suffering occurs, to remind them to be faithful to the end, to confront those who were twisting the truth of the Gospel.

Peter, the author, was in Rome (which he calls Babylon). There he would be executed by crucifixion, choosing to hang upside-down, tradition says, because he felt unworthy to die in the same manner as his Lord.

These are not bleak letters, but rather, they are filled with hope and practical counsel on how to endure. In the first letter, he encourages believers to be faithful even in the midst of hardships coming from external sources. In the second letter, he provides guidelines for discerning false teachings that arise internally. His motive and intent is to keep believers on the right path and to keep them going through the tough times.

These letters remind us that following Christ can, at times, be difficult and costly. Yet, we should rejoice that we are considered worthy to suffer for Christ's sake. We are to hold fast to the truth.

Chapter 1

Greetings from Peter

This letter is from Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ.

I am writing to God's chosen people who are living as foreigners in the provinces of Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia.* ² God the Father knew you and chose you long ago, and his Spirit has made you holy. As a result, you have obeyed him and have been cleansed by the blood of Jesus Christ.

May God give you more and more grace and peace.

The Hope of Eternal Life

³ All praise to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. It is by his great mercy that we have been born again, because God raised Jesus Christ from the dead. Now we live with great expectation,⁴ and we have a priceless inheritance—an inheritance that is kept in heaven for you, pure and undefiled, beyond the reach of change and decay.⁵ And through your faith, God is protecting you by his power until you receive this salvation, which is ready to be revealed on the last day for all to see.

⁶ So be truly glad.* There is wonderful joy ahead, even though you have to endure many trials for a little while.⁷ These trials will show that your faith is genuine. It is being tested as fire tests and purifies gold—though your faith is far more precious than mere gold. So when your faith remains strong through many trials, it will bring you much praise and glory and honor on the day when Jesus Christ is revealed to the whole world.

⁸ You love him even though you have never seen him. Though you do not see him now, you trust him; and you rejoice with a glorious, inexpressible joy. ⁹ The reward for trusting him will be the salvation of your souls.

¹⁰ This salvation was something even the prophets wanted to know more about when they prophesied about this gracious salvation prepared for you. ¹¹ They wondered what time or situation the Spirit of Christ within them was talking about when he told them in advance about Christ's suffering and his great glory afterward.

HOPENOTE

Set Your Hope

So think clearly and exercise self-control. Look forward to the gracious salvation that will come to you when Jesus Christ is revealed to the world (1 Peter 1:13).

If you have made the choice to receive salvation in Jesus Christ, then set your hope on all that He has for you! One way to translate this verse is “anticipate more and more of God’s favor.” As part of being saved, there is a whole world of blessings, benefits, and power that comes as part of our salvation in Him. God’s dream is to pour out His goodness and grace upon you. He wants to help you get ahead in this life. He wants to lead you to the right job. He wants to lead you to the right relationship. But here's the key: We have to be on the lookout for more of God's favor. We have to realize it's available to us, just like His salvation has been made available.

Don't ever think that you can't rise any higher. God wants to do more than you can even ask or think. It says in Ephesians that He wants to show us the immeasurable, limitless, surpassing greatness of His free favor. In other words, God wants to go far and above what we're used to! He wants to show you favor in unusual and extraordinary ways. Set your hopes higher today. Increase your expectations of what God will do in your life. As you open your heart and mind to His unlimited favor, you will experience His abundance in your life!

¹² They were told that their messages were not for themselves, but for you. And now this Good News has been announced to you by those who preached in the power of the Holy Spirit sent from heaven. It is all so wonderful that even the angels are eagerly watching these things happen.

A Call to Holy Living

¹³ So think clearly and exercise self-control. Look forward to the gracious salvation that will come to you when Jesus Christ is revealed to the world. ¹⁴ So you must live as God's obedient children. Don't slip back into your old ways of living to satisfy your own desires. You didn't know any better then. ¹⁵ But now you must be holy in everything you do, just as God who chose you is holy. ¹⁶ For the Scriptures say, "You must be holy because I am holy."*

¹⁷ And remember that the heavenly Father to whom you pray has no favorites. He will judge or reward you according to what you do. So you must live in reverent fear of him during your time as "foreigners in the land." ¹⁸ For you know that God paid a ransom to save you from the empty life you inherited from your ancestors. And the ransom he paid was not mere gold or silver. ¹⁹ It was the precious blood of Christ, the sinless, spotless Lamb of God. ²⁰ God chose him as your ransom long before the world began, but he has now revealed him to you in these last days.

HOPENOTE

The Eternal, Living Word

For you have been born again, but not to a life that will quickly end. Your new life will last forever because it comes from the eternal, living word of God (1 Peter 1:23).

In Genesis, God spoke the world into existence, and His words produced life. His words are continuing to produce life today. In fact, the eternal life of the believer is because of the eternal, living Word of God which was made flesh and dwelt among us, Jesus (John 1:14). In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. That passage in John 1 goes on to say in verse 4 that in Him was life, and the life was the light of men. Friend, when the Word of God shines in your heart, it shows up on your face. It shows up in your actions and words. That light is evidence that Christ lives in you!

When you receive Jesus, the eternal Living Word, as your Lord and Savior, you have a new life that doesn't end when your physical body shuts down. It continues forever because it comes from the eternal Word living inside of you!

21 Through Christ you have come to trust in God. And you have placed your faith and hope in God because he raised Christ from the dead and gave him great glory.

22 You were cleansed from your sins when you obeyed the truth, so now you must show sincere love to each other as brothers and sisters.* Love each other deeply with all your heart.*

23 For you have been born again, but not to a life that will quickly end. Your new life will last forever because it comes from the eternal, living word of God. 24 As the Scriptures say,

“People are like grass;
their beauty is like a flower in the field.
The grass withers and the flower fades.

25 But the word of the Lord remains forever.”*

And that word is the Good News that was preached to you.

Chapter 2

So get rid of all evil behavior. Be done with all deceit, hypocrisy, jealousy, and all unkind speech. ² Like newborn babies, you must crave pure spiritual milk so that you will grow into a full experience of salvation. Cry out for this nourishment, ³ now that you have had a taste of the Lord’s kindness.

Living Stones for God’s House

⁴ You are coming to Christ, who is the living cornerstone of God’s temple. He was rejected by people, but he was chosen by God for great honor.

⁵ And you are living stones that God is building into his spiritual temple. What’s more, you are his holy priests.* Through the mediation of Jesus Christ, you offer spiritual sacrifices that please God. ⁶ As the Scriptures say,

“I am placing a cornerstone in Jerusalem,* chosen for great honor, and anyone who trusts in him
will never be disgraced.”*

⁷ Yes, you who trust him recognize the honor God has given him. But for those who reject him,

“The stone that the builders rejected
has now become the cornerstone.”*

⁸ And,

“He is the stone that makes people stumble, the rock that makes them fall.”*

They stumble because they do not obey God’s word, and so they meet the fate that was planned for them.

⁹ But you are not like that, for you are a chosen people. You are royal priests,* a holy nation, God’s very own possession. As a result, you can show others the goodness of God, for he called you out of the darkness into his wonderful light.

¹⁰ “Once you had no identity as a people;
now you are God’s people.
Once you received no mercy;
now you have received God’s mercy.”*

¹¹ Dear friends, I warn you as “temporary residents and foreigners” to keep away from worldly desires that wage war against your very souls. ¹² Be careful to live properly among your unbelieving neighbors. Then even if they accuse you of doing wrong, they will see your honorable behavior, and they will give honor to God when he judges the world.*

Respecting People in Authority

¹⁵ It is God’s will that your honorable lives should silence those ignorant people who make foolish accusations against you. ¹⁶ For you are free, yet you are God's slaves, so don't use your freedom as an excuse to do evil. ¹⁷ Respect everyone, and love your Christian brothers and sisters.* Fear God, and respect the king.

HOPENOTE

Work Out Your Salvation

Dear friends, I warn you as “temporary residents and foreigners” to keep away from worldly desires that wage war against your very souls (1 Peter 2:11).

When you surrender your life to God by making Jesus the Lord of your heart, some things will change in your life immediately, and other things will be worked out over time. You may have addictions or sickness that you are instantly freed from, but yet, you may have wrong attitudes or other areas that still need to be renewed.

That's because God is doing a work both in you and with you. He reveals His power to us and then gives us the opportunity to work with Him in the process of restoring and renewing our lives. That's what it means to work out your salvation (Philippians 2:12). When you cooperate with God by obeying His Word and surrendering every area of your life to Him, you are working out your salvation. When you choose to do the right thing, even when it's difficult, you are working out your salvation.

What are worldly desires? Anything that is contrary to God's character—things like selfishness, greed, lust, jealousy. Notice these worldly desires, or temptations, war against your soul—which is your mind, your will, and your emotions. When you stand strong in your mind, when you choose God's thoughts, when you speak His Word over your life, you are resisting temptation, and you will have the victory. Remember, God is at work in you, and His power is inside of you to overcome temptation. But don't make it difficult on yourself! Be careful what you watch on TV and the Internet; be careful what you listen to. Don't hang around people who are going to drag you down. Keep away from worldly desires so that you can live the abundant life God has for you.

Slaves

¹⁸ You who are slaves must accept the authority of your masters with all respect.* Do what they tell you—not only if they are kind and reasonable, but even if they are cruel. ¹⁹ For God is pleased with you when you do what you know is right and patiently endure unfair treatment. ²⁰ Of course, you get no credit for being patient if you are beaten for doing wrong. But if you suffer for doing good and endure it patiently, God is pleased with you.

²¹ For God called you to do good, even if it means suffering, just as Christ suffered* for you. He is your example, and you must follow in his steps.

22 He never sinned,
nor ever deceived anyone.*

23 He did not retaliate when he was insulted, nor threaten revenge when he suffered.
He left his case in the hands of God, who always judges fairly.

24 He personally carried our sins in his body on the cross so that we can be dead to sin and live for what is right.
By his wounds
you are healed.

25 Once you were like sheep who wandered away.
But now you have turned to your Shepherd,
the Guardian of your souls.

Chapter 3

Wives

In the same way, you wives must accept the authority of your husbands. Then, even if some refuse to obey the Good News, your godly lives will speak to them without any words. They will be won over ² by observing your pure and reverent lives.

³ Don't be concerned about the outward beauty of fancy hairstyles, expensive jewelry, or beautiful clothes. ⁴ You should clothe yourselves instead with the beauty that comes from within, the unfading beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is so precious to God.⁵ This is how the holy women of old made themselves beautiful. They trusted God and accepted the authority of their husbands.⁶ For instance, Sarah obeyed her husband, Abraham, and called him her master. You are her daughters when you do what is right without fear of what your husbands might do.

HOPENOTE

Let Your Life Do the Talking

In the same way, you wives must accept the authority of your husbands. Then, even if some refuse to obey the Good News, your godly lives will speak to them without any words. They will be won over (1 Peter 3:1).

This portion of Scripture is addressing women who received salvation after they were married and had husbands who were not yet believers. But the message of this Scripture also applies to every believer.

Oftentimes, we try to “win” people over by telling them about what we know and how they should act, but Peter is basically saying, “Don’t try to convince them with your speech. Let your life of excellence and integrity speak to them.” As believers, the first thing people should notice about us is our love, our patience, our kindness, our gentleness, our strength, and our joy. When they see the difference Christ has made in our lives, they will want what we have. The Scripture says that God's kindness leads people to repentance, not our nagging. So, let your light shine, be fun to be around, be good-natured. Make people want what you have. Behind the scenes, pray for their salvation, and be ready to share the message of the Gospel when the time is right. Remember, actions speak louder than words, so let your life start doing the talking!

Husbands

⁷ In the same way, you husbands must give honor to your wives. Treat your wife with understanding as you live together. She may be weaker than you are, but she is your equal partner in God's gift of new life. Treat her as you should so your prayers will not be hindered.

HOPENOTE

Unhindered Prayers

In the same way, you husbands must give honor to your wives. Treat your wife with understanding as you live together. She may be weaker than you are, but she is your equal partner in God's gift of new life. Treat her as you should so your prayers will not be hindered (1 Peter 3:7).

Did you know that how you treat people has a direct impact on the effectiveness of your prayers? The Bible says that the prayer of the righteous person avails much (see James 5:16), but if we aren't treating others with honor, kindness, and respect, we aren't allowing God's righteousness to operate in us. It closes the door to His power in our lives and hinders our prayers. This is especially true in a marriage relationship. Marriage isn't just an agreement between two people to live life together. Marriage is a God-ordained institution that helps us understand love and unity. When two people are married, they become one—physically, spiritually, and emotionally.

This passage is directed to husbands but applies to all believers. We should treat others "with understanding" which means considering others' needs above our own. We have to study the people in our lives and make adjustments in order to have peaceful, healthy relationships. We should always aim to treat others with kindness, dignity, and respect and quickly choose forgiveness. When we keep healthy connections in our relationships with others, we are keeping healthy connections in our relationship with God. Honor others and treat them with respect so that your prayers will be powerful and effective the way God intends!

HOPENOTE

His Ears Are Open

The eyes of the Lord watch over those who do right, and his ears are open to their prayers. But the Lord turns his face against those who do evil (1 Peter 3:12).

When you do what is right, the Lord promises to hear your prayers. Notice it doesn't say, "when you know what is right, but just can't help yourself," or, "when you talk about doing what is right, but you're too busy—He'll understand." No, it says when we do what is right, He hears us! That's because our actions are the evidence that we are His children.

Search your heart and mind today, and ask the Lord to reveal any area that isn't right so that you can make necessary changes. Remember, He loves you with an everlasting love, and He wants you to come to Him. He wants to work through you. He's leaning His ear toward you, ready to act on your behalf. God intended for prayer to change lives. Through your prayers, you have access to God's incredible, inexhaustible power in your life. He's equipped you to be a great encouragement and blessing to those around you. The book of James tells us that prayer heals and restores people. Make the choice today and every day to do what is right because His ears are open to your prayers!

All Christians

⁸ Finally, all of you should be of one mind. Sympathize with each other. Love each other as brothers and sisters.* Be tenderhearted, and keep a humble attitude. ⁹ Don't repay evil for evil. Don't retaliate with insults when people insult you. Instead, pay them back with a blessing. That is what God has called you to do, and he will bless you for it. ¹⁰ For the Scriptures say,

“If you want to enjoy life and see many happy days, keep your tongue from speaking evil and your lips from telling lies.

¹¹ Turn away from evil and do good.

Search for peace, and work to maintain it.

¹² The eyes of the Lord watch over those who do right, and his ears are open to their prayers.

But the Lord turns his face against those who do evil.”*

Suffering for Doing Good

¹³ Now, who will want to harm you if you are eager to do good?

¹⁴ But even if you suffer for doing what is right, God will reward you for it. So don't worry or be afraid of their threats. ¹⁵ Instead, you must worship Christ as Lord of your life. And if someone asks about your Christian hope, always be ready to explain it. ¹⁶ But do this in a gentle and respectful way.* Keep your conscience clear. Then if people speak against you, they will be ashamed when they see what a good life you live because you belong to Christ. ¹⁷ Remember, it is better to suffer for doing good, if that is what God wants, than to suffer for doing wrong!

¹⁸ Christ suffered* for our sins once for all time. He never sinned, but he died for sinners to bring you safely home to God. He suffered physical death, but he was raised to life in the Spirit.*

¹⁹ So he went and preached to the spirits in prison—²⁰ those who disobeyed God long ago when God waited patiently while Noah was building his boat. Only eight people were saved from drowning in that terrible flood.* ²¹ And that water is a picture of baptism, which now saves you, not by removing dirt from your body, but as a response to God from* a clean conscience. It is effective because of the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

²² Now Christ has gone to heaven. He is seated in the place of honor next to God, and all the angels and authorities and powers accept his authority.

Chapter 4

Living for God

So then, since Christ suffered physical pain, you must arm yourselves with the same attitude he had, and be ready to suffer, too. For if you have suffered physically for Christ, you have finished with sin.* ² You won't spend the rest of your lives chasing your own desires, but you will be anxious to do the will of God. ³ You have had enough in the past of the evil things that godless people enjoy—their immorality and lust, their feasting and drunkenness and wild parties, and their terrible worship of idols.

HOPENOTE

Use Your Gifts Well

God has given each of you a gift from his great variety of spiritual gifts. Use them well to serve one another (1 Peter 4:10).

How are you using the gifts God has given you? When we use our gifts, talents, and resources to serve others, we are using them for their intended purpose; we are using them well.

The original Greek language of this verse describes us as “capable of being good stewards of God’s grace.” When God gives us gifts, He expects us to “steward” them, which means using them to meet the purposes for which they were given. The fact that we have been given gifts is evidence of God’s grace in our lives. It’s His empowerment and supernatural favor. When you use your gifts to help and build up others, you are passing God's grace, power and supernatural favor on to them. For example, maybe God has given you a special gift of being able to encourage others. When you exercise that gift, you are "stewarding" God's grace in your life and passing it on to others. And the more you practice "stewarding" your gifts, the more you will see His increase in every area of your life. Be a good steward and use your gifts well. As you honor the Lord and lift Him up, He will pour out His abundant blessing upon you.

⁴ Of course, your former friends are surprised when you no longer plunge into the flood of wild and destructive things they do. So they slander you. ⁵ But remember that they will have to face God, who will judge everyone, both the living and the dead. ⁶ That is why the Good News was preached to those who are now dead*—so although they were destined to die like all people,* they now live forever with God in the Spirit.*

¹⁰ God has given each of you a gift from his great variety of spiritual gifts. Use them well to serve one another. ¹¹ Do you have the gift of speaking? Then speak as though God himself were speaking through you. Do you have the gift of helping others? Do it with all the strength and energy that God supplies. Then everything you do will bring glory to God through Jesus Christ. All glory and power to him forever and ever! Amen.

Suffering for Being a Christian

¹² Dear friends, don't be surprised at the fiery trials you are going through, as if something strange were happening to you.

¹³ Instead, be very glad—for these trials make you partners with Christ in his suffering, so that you will have the wonderful joy of seeing his glory when it is revealed to all the world.

¹⁴ So be happy when you are insulted for being a Christian,* for then the glorious Spirit of God* rests upon you.* ¹⁵ If you suffer, however, it must not be for murder, stealing, making trouble, or prying into other people's affairs. ¹⁶ But it is no shame to suffer for being a Christian. Praise God for the privilege of being called by his name! ¹⁷ For the time has come for judgment, and it must begin with God's household. And if judgment begins with us, what terrible fate awaits those who have never obeyed God's Good News? ¹⁸ And also,

“If the righteous are barely saved, what will happen to godless sinners?”*

¹⁹ So if you are suffering in a manner that pleases God, keep on doing what is right, and trust your lives to the God who created you, for he will never fail you.

Advice for Elders and Young Men

HOPENOTE

Balanced Living

Stay alert! Watch out for your great enemy, the devil. He prowls around like a roaring lion, looking for someone to devour (1 Peter 5:8).

God wants you to experience victory in every area of your life—physically, spiritually, emotionally, financially, and relationally. Living a well-balanced life is the key! This truth is why the Bible insists we stay alert to what is going on around us and in us.

Excess is the enemy's playground. He knows that if he can get you over into extremes in any area, then he can keep you from experiencing God's best. When you get out of balance, you give the enemy a foothold. But when you have your priorities in order, there's security, protection, and safety. When you are taking care of yourself, your family, and your relationship with God, you are going to be strong and healthy, and the enemy won't have a chance! The previous verse tells us to "give all your worries and cares to God, for he cares about you" (5:7). The verse is describing just the kinds of weight that throw us off balance. We need to let God carry that weight for us.

Examine your heart and life today. Ask the Lord to show you if there are areas where you may be out of balance. Ask Him to help you make the right adjustments so that you are able to be effective in every area of your life.

And now, a word to you who are elders in the churches. I, too, am an elder and a witness to the sufferings of Christ. And I, too, will share in his glory when he is revealed to the whole world. As a fellow elder, I appeal to you: ² Care for the flock that God has entrusted to you. Watch over it willingly, not grudgingly—not for what you will get out of it, but because you are eager to serve God. ³ Don't lord it over the people assigned to your care, but lead them by your own good example. ⁴ And when the Great Shepherd appears, you will receive a crown of never-ending glory and honor.

⁵ In the same way, you younger men must accept the authority of the elders. And all of you, serve each other in humility, for “God opposes the proud

but favors the humble.”*

⁶ So humble yourselves under the mighty power of God, and at the right time he will lift you up in honor. ⁷ Give all your worries and cares to God, for he cares about you.

⁸ Stay alert! Watch out for your great enemy, the devil. He prowls around like a roaring lion, looking for someone to devour. ⁹ Stand firm against him, and be strong in your faith. Remember that your Christian brothers and sisters* all over the world are going through the same kind of suffering you are.

¹⁰ In his kindness God called you to share in his eternal glory by means of Christ Jesus. So after you have suffered a little while, he will restore, support, and strengthen you, and he will place you on a firm foundation. ¹¹ All power to him forever! Amen.

Peter's Final Greetings

¹² I have written and sent this short letter to you with the help of Silas,* whom I commend to you as a faithful brother. My purpose in writing is to encourage you and assure you that what you are experiencing is truly part of God's grace for you. Stand firm in this grace.

¹³ Your sister church here in Babylon* sends you greetings, and so does my son Mark. ¹⁴ Greet each other with Christian love.*

Peace be with all of you who are in Christ.

2 Peter

See the Introduction for 1 and 2 Peter on this page.

Chapter 1

Greetings from Peter

This letter is from Simon* Peter, a slave and apostle of Jesus Christ.

I am writing to you who share the same precious faith we have. This faith was given to you because of the justice and fairness* of Jesus Christ, our God and Savior.

² May God give you more and more grace and peace as you grow in your knowledge of God and Jesus our Lord.

Growing in Faith

³ By his divine power, God has given us everything we need for living a godly life. We have received all of this by coming to know him, the one who called us to himself by means of his marvelous glory and excellence.⁴ And because of his glory and excellence, he has given us great and precious promises. These are the promises that enable you to share his divine nature and escape the world's corruption caused by human desires.

⁵ In view of all this, make every effort to respond to God's promises. Supplement your faith with a generous provision of moral excellence, and moral excellence with knowledge,⁶ and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with patient endurance, and patient endurance with godliness,⁷ and godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love for everyone.

⁸ The more you grow like this, the more productive and useful you will be in your knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁹ But those who fail to develop in this way are shortsighted or blind, forgetting that they have been cleansed from their old sins.

¹⁰ So, dear brothers and sisters,* work hard to prove that you really are among those God has called and chosen. Do these things, and you will never fall away. ¹¹ Then God will give you a grand entrance into the eternal Kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

HOPENOTE

Knowing God

May God give you more and more grace and peace as you grow in your knowledge of God and Jesus our Lord. By his divine power, God has given us everything we need for living a godly life. We have received all of this by coming to know him, the one who called us to himself by means of his marvelous glory and excellence (2 Peter 1:2-3).

Are you determined to know God more today than yesterday? Not just to hear about Him or read about Him, but really know Him personally. The Bible tells us that God is love. He is peace. He is truth. When you get to know God, you come to know and experience His love, peace, and truth in your life.

In the same way that you get to know someone in the natural, by spending time in their presence and talking with them, you get to know God by spending time in His presence and talking with Him. And He is closer than you think! The Bible says that when we accept Jesus as our Lord and Savior, He actually makes His home in our own hearts. He is closer than the air you breathe! No matter where you are on the planet, when you begin talking to God, He promises to listen. He wants to reveal Himself to you in new ways each and every day. As you come to know God more and more, you will experience His peace, kindness, strength, and victory. He truly desires to be a friend to you that is closer than a brother.

Paying Attention to Scripture

¹² Therefore, I will always remind you about these things—even though you already know them and are standing firm in the truth you have been taught. ¹³ And it is only right that I should keep on reminding you as long as I live.* ¹⁴ For our Lord Jesus Christ has shown me that I must soon leave this earthly life,* ¹⁵ so I will work hard to make sure you always remember these things after I am gone.

¹⁶ For we were not making up clever stories when we told you about the powerful coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. We saw his majestic splendor with our own eyes ¹⁷ when he received honor and glory from God the Father. The voice from the majestic glory of God said to him, “This is my dearly loved Son, who brings me great joy.”* ¹⁸ We ourselves heard that voice from heaven when we were with him on the holy mountain.

¹⁹ Because of that experience, we have even greater confidence in the message proclaimed by the prophets. You must pay close attention to what they wrote, for their words are like a lamp shining in a dark place—until the Day dawns, and Christ the Morning Star shines* in your hearts. ²⁰ Above all, you must realize that no prophecy in Scripture ever came from the prophet’s own understanding,* ²¹ or from human initiative. No, those prophets were moved by the Holy Spirit, and they spoke from God.

Chapter 2

The Danger of False Teachers

But there were also false prophets in Israel, just as there will be false teachers among you. They will cleverly teach destructive heresies and even deny the Master who bought them. In this way, they will bring sudden destruction on themselves. ² Many will follow their evil teaching and shameful immorality. And because of these teachers, the way of truth will be slandered. ³ In their greed they will make up clever lies to get hold of your money. But God condemned them long ago, and their destruction will not be delayed.

4 For God did not spare even the angels who sinned. He threw them into hell,* in gloomy pits of darkness,* where they are being held until the day of judgment. 5 And God did not spare the ancient world—except for Noah and the seven others in his family. Noah warned the world of God's righteous judgment. So God protected Noah when he destroyed the world of ungodly people with a vast flood. 6 Later, God condemned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah and turned them into heaps of ashes. He made them an example of what will happen to ungodly people. 7 But God also rescued Lot out of Sodom because he was a righteous man who was sick of the shameful immorality of the wicked people around him. 8 Yes, Lot was a righteous man who was tormented in his soul by the wickedness he saw and heard day after day. 9 So you see, the Lord knows how to rescue godly people from their trials, even while keeping the wicked under punishment until the day of final judgment. 10 He is especially hard on those who follow their own twisted sexual desire, and who despise authority.

These people are proud and arrogant, daring even to scoff at supernatural beings* without so much as trembling. 11 But the angels, who are far greater in power and strength, do not dare to bring from the Lord* a charge of blasphemy against those supernatural beings.

12 These false teachers are like unthinking animals, creatures of instinct, born to be caught and destroyed. They scoff at things they do not understand, and like animals, they will be destroyed. 13 Their destruction is their reward for the harm they have done. They love to indulge in evil pleasures in broad daylight. They are a disgrace and a stain among you. They delight in deception* even as they eat with you in your fellowship meals. ¹⁴ They commit adultery with their eyes, and their desire for sin is never satisfied. They lure unstable people into sin, and they are well trained in greed. They live under God's curse. ¹⁵ They have wandered off the right road and followed the footsteps of Balaam son of Beor,* who loved to earn money by doing wrong. ¹⁶ But Balaam was stopped from his mad course when his donkey rebuked him with a human voice.

¹⁷ These people are as useless as dried-up springs or as mist blown away by the wind. They are doomed to blackest darkness. ¹⁸ They brag about themselves with empty, foolish boasting. With an appeal to twisted sexual desires, they lure back into sin those who have barely escaped from a lifestyle of deception. ¹⁹ They promise freedom, but they themselves are slaves of sin and corruption. For you are a slave to whatever controls you. ²⁰ And when people escape from the wickedness of the world by knowing our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and then get tangled up and enslaved by sin again, they are worse off than before. ²¹ It would be better if they had never known the way to righteousness than to know it and then reject the command they were given to live a holy life. ²² They prove the truth of this proverb: "A dog returns to its vomit."* And another says, "A washed pig returns to the mud."

Chapter 3

The Day of the Lord Is Coming

This is my second letter to you, dear friends, and in both of them I have tried to stimulate your wholesome thinking and refresh your memory. ² I want you to remember what the holy prophets said long ago and what our Lord and Savior commanded through your apostles.

³ Most importantly, I want to remind you that in the last days scoffers will come, mocking the truth and following their own desires. ⁴ They will say, “What happened to the promise that Jesus is coming again? From before the times of our ancestors, everything has remained the same since the world was first created.”

⁸ But you must not forget this one thing, dear friends: A day is like a thousand years to the Lord, and a thousand years is like a day. ⁹ The Lord isn’t really being slow about his promise, as some people think. No, he is being patient for your sake. He does not want anyone to be destroyed, but wants everyone to repent. ¹⁰ But the day of the Lord will come as unexpectedly as a thief. Then the heavens will pass away with a terrible noise, and the very elements themselves will disappear in fire, and the earth and everything on it will be found to deserve judgment.*

HOPENOTE

God's Desire

The Lord isn't really being slow about his promise, as some people think. No, he is being patient for your sake. He does not want anyone to be destroyed, but wants everyone to repent (2 Peter 3:9).

In Peter's day, people were beginning to doubt the promise of the Lord's return. They were thinking, "Man, this is taking a long time. Maybe it isn't even real. Maybe He's not coming back." Peter reminded them that God lives outside of time. There are no time constrictions in eternity—a day is like a thousand years and a thousand years is like a day. In other words, He's not looking at things the way we are. His ways are higher than our ways. He has a plan and purpose right now, and He's trying to give as many people as possible the chance to receive His gift of salvation.

Many believers today live their lives looking for the Lord's return. And it's good to keep our minds focused on seeing Him face to face, but we also have to remember why we're here on this planet. We're here to fulfill God's purposes, plans, and desires. He desires that all people come to know Him, and we are the vessels He's using to get His message out!

¹¹ Since everything around us is going to be destroyed like this, what holy and godly lives you should live, ¹² looking forward to the day of God and hurrying it along. On that day, he will set the heavens on fire, and the elements will melt away in the flames. ¹³ But we are looking forward to the new heavens and new earth he has promised, a world filled with God's righteousness.

¹⁵ And remember, our Lord's patience gives people time to be saved. This is what our beloved brother Paul also wrote to you with the wisdom God gave him—¹⁶ speaking of these things in all of his letters. Some of his comments are hard to understand, and those who are ignorant and unstable have twisted his letters to mean something quite different, just as they do with other parts of Scripture. And this will result in their destruction.

Peter's Final Words

¹⁷ I am warning you ahead of time, dear friends. Be on guard so that you will not be carried away by the errors of these wicked people and lose your own secure footing. ¹⁸ Rather, you must grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

All glory to him, both now and forever! Amen.

INTRO TO THE BOOK OF

1, 2, and 3 John

Author:

John the apostle

Original Audience:

1 John: No particular church, but several Gentile congregations; 2 John: A woman described as “chosen lady”; and 3 John: Gaius, a prominent Christian

Date of Writing:

All three letters were written around AD 90.

Setting:

John was older and the only living apostle, encouraging the new generation of believers.

Key People:

John, Jesus, the chosen lady, and Gaius

Key Verses:

I have written this to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, so that you may know you have eternal life (1 John 5:13).

Love means doing what God has commanded us, and he has commanded us to love one another, just as you heard from the beginning (2 John 6).

Dear friend, you are being faithful to God when you care for the traveling teachers who pass through, even though they are strangers to you (3 John 5).

Finding Hope and Encouragement in 1, 2, and 3 John

These three letters were written so one could tell the difference between genuine Christians and those who were not. John exposes the false claims and damaging actions of false teachers and provides strong assurance to those who are consistently in the Christian faith.

John, known as the Apostle of Love, wrote these three short epistles, along with the Gospel of John and Revelation. John witnessed truth and love firsthand. He spent time with Jesus. All of his writings communicate the love of God he had found in a relationship with Jesus Christ.

First John gives practical advice on knowing God and being assured of our salvation. Second John warns believers about false teaching and encourages us to follow and obey God. Third John reminds believers to show hospitality, cling to the truth, and do what is right.

These letters encourage us to live godly lives, always looking to the truth to discern false teachings that seek to discolor the truth and to assist those who are seeking to spread the gospel. Read his letters and be encouraged to truly live for Christ.

Chapter 1

Introduction

We proclaim to you the one who existed from the beginning,* whom we have heard and seen. We saw him with our own eyes and touched him with our own hands. He is the Word of life. ² This one who is life itself was revealed to us, and we have seen him. And now we testify and proclaim to you that he is the one who is eternal life. He was with the Father, and then he was revealed to us. ³ We proclaim to you what we ourselves have actually seen and heard so that you may have fellowship with us. And our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son, Jesus Christ. ⁴ We are writing these things so that you may fully share our joy.*

HOPENOTE

Be Purified

But if we confess our sins to him, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all wickedness (1 John 1:9).

What comes to your mind when you think of the word “pure”? You might think of a young, innocent child or fresh fallen snow. It’s interesting that most people don’t immediately think of themselves as pure even though that’s exactly how God sees us once we receive His forgiveness. The Scripture says that He cleanses us from all unrighteousness. It doesn’t matter what may have happened in the past, the Bible says that He takes our sins and casts them into the sea of forgetfulness. That means He chooses not to remember them. When you ask God for His forgiveness, He forgets your past and moves you forward to your bright future. When God looks at you, He doesn't see your past mistakes and failures; He sees your future. He sees your gifts and talents. He sees you full of hope and potential.

Oftentimes, the enemy will try to hold us back by reminding us of our past. Whenever you start to feel guilty or condemned, remember this Scripture. If you have confessed your sins to the Father and have received His forgiveness, then you have been purified.

Living in the Light

⁵ This is the message we heard from Jesus* and now declare to you: God is light, and there is no darkness in him at all. ⁶ So we are lying if we say we have fellowship with God but go on living in spiritual darkness; we are not practicing the truth. ⁷ But if we are living in the light, as God is in the light, then we have fellowship with each other, and the blood of Jesus, his Son, cleanses us from all sin.

⁸ If we claim we have no sin, we are only fooling ourselves and not living in the truth. ⁹ But if we confess our sins to him, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all wickedness. ¹⁰ If we claim we have not sinned, we are calling God a liar and showing that his word has no place in our hearts.

My dear children, I am writing this to you so that you will not sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an advocate who pleads our case before the Father. He is Jesus Christ, the one who is truly righteous. ² He himself is the sacrifice that atones for our sins—and not only our sins but the sins of all the world.

³ And we can be sure that we know him if we obey his commandments. ⁴ If someone claims, “I know God,” but doesn’t obey God’s commandments, that person is a liar and is not living in the truth. ⁵ But those who obey God’s word truly show how completely they love him. That is how we know we are living in him. ⁶ Those who say they live in God should live their lives as Jesus did.

A New Commandment

⁷ Dear friends, I am not writing a new commandment for you; rather it is an old one you have had from the very beginning. This old commandment—to love one another—is the same message you heard before. ⁸ Yet it is also new. Jesus lived the truth of this commandment, and you also are living it. For the darkness is disappearing, and the true light is already shining.

⁹ If anyone claims, “I am living in the light,” but hates a Christian brother or sister,* that person is still living in darkness. ¹⁰ Anyone who loves another brother or sister* is living in the light and does not cause others to stumble. ¹¹ But anyone who hates another brother or sister is still living and walking in darkness. Such a person does not know the way to go, having been blinded by the darkness.

HOPENOTE

The Sign of Love

But those who obey God's word truly show how completely they love him. That is how we know we are living in him (1 John 2:5).

Love for God manifests itself through true obedience to His Word. One translation says that when we “treasure” the Word, it shows that we love God. When you treasure something, it’s valuable to you. You handle it carefully and protect it. When you treasure a relationship with someone, you give attention to them and think about them constantly!

How much do you treasure the promises in God’s Word for your life? When you treasure the Word of God, you are expressing your love for Him. You meditate on the Word, thinking about it all throughout the day. Remember, your life will go in the direction of your most dominant thoughts. When your dominant thoughts are the Word of God, you will be empowered to follow all of His commands. Make God’s Word a priority in your life today and allow it to shape your thinking. Let your love for God show in your obedience to Him.

- ¹² I am writing to you who are God's children because your sins have been forgiven through Jesus.*
- ¹³ I am writing to you who are mature in the faith*
because you know Christ, who existed from the beginning.
I am writing to you who are young in the faith because you have won your battle with the evil one.
- ¹⁴ I have written to you who are God's children because you know the Father.
I have written to you who are mature in the faith
because you know Christ, who existed from the beginning.
I have written to you who are young in the faith because you are strong.
God's word lives in your hearts, and you have won your battle with the evil one.

Do Not Love This World

¹⁵ Do not love this world nor the things it offers you, for when you love the world, you do not have the love of the Father in you. ¹⁶ For the world offers only a craving for physical pleasure, a craving for everything we see, and pride in our achievements and possessions. These are not from the Father, but are from this world. ¹⁷ And this world is fading away, along with everything that people crave. But anyone who does what pleases God will live forever.

Warning about Antichrists

¹⁸ Dear children, the last hour is here. You have heard that the Antichrist is coming, and already many such antichrists have appeared. From this we know that the last hour has come.¹⁹ These people left our churches, but they never really belonged with us; otherwise they would have stayed with us. When they left, it proved that they did not belong with us.

²⁰ But you are not like that, for the Holy One has given you his Spirit,* and all of you know the truth.²¹ So I am writing to you not because you don't know the truth but because you know the difference between truth and lies.²² And who is a liar? Anyone who says that Jesus is not the Christ.* Anyone who denies the Father and the Son is an antichrist.*²³ Anyone who denies the Son doesn't have the Father, either. But anyone who acknowledges the Son has the Father also.

²⁴ So you must remain faithful to what you have been taught from the beginning. If you do, you will remain in fellowship with the Son and with the Father.²⁵ And in this fellowship we enjoy the eternal life he promised us.

²⁶ I am writing these things to warn you about those who want to lead you astray.²⁷ But you have received the Holy Spirit,* and he lives within you, so you don't need anyone to teach you what is true. For the Spirit* teaches you everything you need to know, and what he teaches is true—it is not a lie. So just as he has taught you, remain in fellowship with Christ.

Living as Children of God

²⁸ And now, dear children, remain in fellowship with Christ so that when he returns, you will be full of courage and not shrink back from him in shame.

²⁹ Since we know that Christ is righteous, we also know that all who do what is right are God's children.

Chapter 3

See how very much our Father loves us, for he calls us his children, and that is what we are! But the people who belong to this world don't recognize that we are God's children because they don't know him.² Dear friends, we are already God's children, but he has not yet shown us what we will be like when Christ appears. But we do know that we will be like him, for we will see him as he really is.³ And all who have this eager expectation will keep themselves pure, just as he is pure.

⁴ Everyone who sins is breaking God's law, for all sin is contrary to the law of God. ⁵ And you know that Jesus came to take away our sins, and there is no sin in him. ⁶ Anyone who continues to live in him will not sin. But anyone who keeps on sinning does not know him or understand who he is.

⁷ Dear children, don't let anyone deceive you about this: When people do what is right, it shows that they are righteous, even as Christ is righteous. ⁸ But when people keep on sinning, it shows that they belong to the devil, who has been sinning since the beginning. But the Son of God came to destroy the works of the devil. ⁹ Those who have been born into God's family do not make a practice of sinning, because God's life* is in them. So they can't keep on sinning, because they are children of God. ¹⁰ So now we can tell who are children of God and who are children of the devil. Anyone who does not live righteously and does not love other believers* does not belong to God.

Love One Another

¹¹ This is the message you have heard from the beginning: We should love one another. ¹² We must not be like Cain, who belonged to the evil one and killed his brother. And why did he kill him? Because Cain had been doing what was evil, and his brother had been doing what was righteous. ¹³ So don't be surprised, dear brothers and sisters,* if the world hates you.

HOPENOTE

Love in Deed

Dear children, let's not merely say that we love each other; let us show the truth by our actions (1 John 3:18).

You are the hands and feet of Jesus in the earth. The Lord wants to bless you today so that you can be a blessing to others. He wants to work through you to show His love and compassion. Notice, this verse tells us that love isn't just about our words or thoughts; it's about our actions. Love is about reaching out and meeting the needs of others. Sometimes, meeting a person's needs is as simple as a smile or sharing a word of encouragement. Other times, it's something more. There are many ways to show the love of God. Can you pay for someone's gas or groceries? Maybe you can visit someone in the hospital or nursing home. Do you see a need in someone's life that you can meet? Look for ways to put your love into action. The Bible says that it's His kindness that leads people to repentance, and the Lord chooses to show His kindness in the earth through you. Step out and sow good seeds of love by meeting the needs of others.

HOPEFORTODAY

Compassion

If someone has enough money to live well and sees a brother or sister in need but shows no compassion—how can God's love be in that person? (1 John 3:17).

Have you ever really thought about what it means to have compassion? Compassion isn't just a feeling. In the original Greek, there are several definitions: a feeling of distress through the ills of others, to suffer with one another, to have mercy and show kindness. Compassion is a verb. God's compassion in us causes action. It prompts us to show His mercy and kindness to the hurting and needy. And the Scripture tells us, whatever we do "for the least" of these, we've done it unto Him. In other words, if our hearts are hard and closed and we don't help our brothers and sisters in need, then we are closing the door to God as well. But when we allow compassion to flow through us and we reach out to those who need us, we are actually reaching out to God Himself.

With this in mind, look for ways to show true compassion. God is wanting you to plant seeds of love and mercy into the hearts of others. Don't allow the enemy to keep you so busy that you overlook the needs of those around you. Make a decision to be an expression of God's love and goodness wherever you go.

¹⁴ If we love our Christian brothers and sisters,* it proves that we have passed from death to life. But a person who has no love is still dead. ¹⁵ Anyone who hates another brother or sister* is really a murderer at heart. And you know that murderers don't have eternal life within them.

¹⁶ We know what real love is because Jesus gave up his life for us. So we also ought to give up our lives for our brothers and sisters. ¹⁷ If someone has enough money to live well and sees a brother or sister* in need but shows no compassion—how can God's love be in that person?

¹⁸ Dear children, let's not merely say that we love each other; let us show the truth by our actions. ¹⁹ Our actions will show that we belong to the truth, so we will be confident when we stand before God. ²⁰ Even if we feel guilty, God is greater than our feelings, and he knows everything.

²¹ Dear friends, if we don't feel guilty, we can come to God with bold confidence. ²² And we will receive from him whatever we ask because we obey him and do the things that please him.

²³ And this is his commandment: We must believe in the name of his Son, Jesus Christ, and love one another, just as he commanded us. ²⁴ Those who obey God's commandments remain in fellowship with him, and he with them. And we know he lives in us because the Spirit he gave us lives in us.

Chapter 4

Discerning False Prophets

Dear friends, do not believe everyone who claims to speak by the Spirit. You must test them to see if the spirit they have comes from God. For there are many false prophets in the world. ² This is how we know if they have the Spirit of God: If a person claiming to be a prophet* acknowledges that Jesus Christ came in a real body, that person has the Spirit of God. ³ But if someone claims to be a prophet and does not acknowledge the truth about Jesus, that person is not from God. Such a person has the spirit of the Antichrist, which you heard is coming into the world and indeed is already here.

⁴ But you belong to God, my dear children. You have already won a victory over those people, because the Spirit who lives in you is greater than the spirit who lives in the world. ⁵ Those people belong to this world, so they speak from the world's viewpoint, and the world listens to them. ⁶ But we belong to God, and those who know God listen to us. If they do not belong to God, they do not listen to us. That is how we know if someone has the Spirit of truth or the spirit of deception.

HOPENOTE

Already a Winner

But you belong to God, my dear children. You have already won a victory over those people, because the Spirit who lives in you is greater than the spirit who lives in the world (1 John 4:4).

Are you facing challenges that seem larger than life? Guess what—you are already a winner! As a believer, you already have victory over the world because of the Spirit that is alive in you. When you constantly rely on God's presence, His victory will be manifested everywhere you go. John reminds us in this verse that we may experience battles, but the war with the evil one is already won. It was won on the cross when Jesus gave His life for you and for me.

Remember, you belong to God; you are His child. He's not worried about what's going to happen tomorrow, so why should you? He's not wondering how your bills are going to get paid, why should you? As His child, trust Him and let Him make a way where there seems to be no way. Walk in the victory and in the fullness that are yours as a child of the Most High God.

Loving One Another

⁷ Dear friends, let us continue to love one another, for love comes from God. Anyone who loves is a child of God and knows God. ⁸ But anyone who does not love does not know God, for God is love.

⁹ God showed how much he loved us by sending his one and only Son into the world so that we might have eternal life through him. ¹⁰ This is real love—not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as a sacrifice to take away our sins.

¹¹ Dear friends, since God loved us that much, we surely ought to love each other. ¹² No one has ever seen God. But if we love each other, God lives in us, and his love is brought to full expression in us.

¹³ And God has given us his Spirit as proof that we live in him and he in us. ¹⁴ Furthermore, we have seen with our own eyes and now testify that the Father sent his Son to be the Savior of the world. ¹⁵ All who confess that Jesus is the Son of God have God living in them, and they live in God. ¹⁶ We know how much God loves us, and we have put our trust in his love.

God is love, and all who live in love live in God, and God lives in them. ¹⁷ And as we live in God, our love grows more perfect. So we will not be afraid on the day of judgment, but we can face him with confidence because we live like Jesus here in this world.

A Picture of God

No one has ever seen God. But if we love each other, God lives in us, and his love is brought to full expression in us (1 John 4:12).

In my house, we have photos all around of treasured times as a family, and you probably do, too. We enjoy showing our photos to friends and family and sharing our special moments with them. What would you do if you could have a picture of God? Where would you put it? Who would you show it to? This passage tells us that even though we haven't seen God with our natural eyes, when we love others, we are creating a picture of who God is because God is Love.

You will experience the love of God in your life to the fullest when you are giving love away. If you love others, then God's love is complete in you. He wants to reveal Himself in and through us. He wants us to display His love and share it with others. Remember, the greatest thing you could ever have or give is love. Everything else will fade away, but His love is a picture that will last forever!

¹⁸ Such love has no fear, because perfect love expels all fear. If we are afraid, it is for fear of punishment, and this shows that we have not fully experienced his perfect love. ¹⁹ We love each other* because he loved us first.

HOPEFORTODAY

Faith to Overcome the World

For every child of God defeats this evil world, and we achieve this victory through our faith. And who can win this battle against the world? Only those who believe that Jesus is the Son of God (1 John 5:4-5).

As a child of God, you have the power within you to overcome the world. The words “defeats,” “victory,” and “win” in this verse all have to do with overcoming what you could never achieve on your own. That includes everything in the world and everything the world brings your way!

The Bible tells us that faith comes by hearing the Word of God (Romans 10:17). As you hear the Word of God and store it in your heart, your faith in God grows stronger. You are an overcomer!

When the enemy tries to attack you through sickness, fear, or worry, activate your faith by declaring the Word of God. Find Scriptures to declare over your life every day. Declare that perfect love casts out all fear! Declare that God shall supply all your needs! Declare that because you are born of God, you have faith in Christ to overcome the world!

Remember this verse—as a believer in Jesus Christ, you have victory over this world and anything that would try to harm you. Make the decision to walk confidently in His victory today and every day of your life.

20 If someone says, “I love God,” but hates a Christian brother or sister,* that person is a liar; for if we don’t love people we can see, how can we love God, whom we cannot see? 21 And he has given us this command: Those who love God must also love their Christian brothers and sisters.*

Chapter 5

Faith in the Son of God

Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ* has become a child of God. And everyone who loves the Father loves his children, too. 2 We know we love God’s children if we love God and obey his commandments. 3 Loving God means keeping his commandments, and his commandments are not burdensome. 4 For every child of God defeats this evil world, and we achieve this victory through our faith.⁵ And who can win this battle against the world? Only those who believe that Jesus is the Son of God.

⁶ And Jesus Christ was revealed as God's Son by his baptism in water and by shedding his blood on the cross*—not by water only, but by water and blood. And the Spirit, who is truth, confirms it with his testimony.⁷ So we have these three witnesses*—⁸ the Spirit, the water, and the blood—and all three agree.⁹ Since we believe human testimony, surely we can believe the greater testimony that comes from God. And God has testified about his Son.¹⁰ All who believe in the Son of God know in their hearts that this testimony is true. Those who don't believe this are actually calling God a liar because they don't believe what God has testified about his Son.

¹¹ And this is what God has testified: He has given us eternal life, and this life is in his Son.¹² Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have God's Son does not have life.

Conclusion

¹³ I have written this to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, so that you may know you have eternal life.¹⁴ And we are confident that he hears us whenever we ask for anything that pleases him.¹⁵ And since we know he hears us when we make our requests, we also know that he will give us what we ask for.

¹⁶ If you see a Christian brother or sister* sinning in a way that does not lead to death, you should pray, and God will give that person life. But there is a sin that leads to death, and I am not saying you should pray for those who commit it.¹⁷ All wicked actions are sin, but not every sin leads to death.

¹⁸ We know that God's children do not make a practice of sinning, for God's Son holds them securely, and the evil one cannot touch them.¹⁹ We know that we are children of God and that the world around us is under the control of the evil one.

²⁰ And we know that the Son of God has come, and he has given us understanding so that we can know the true God.* And now we live in fellowship with the true God because we live in fellowship with his Son, Jesus Christ. He is the only true God, and he is eternal life.

²¹ Dear children, keep away from anything that might take God's place in your hearts.*

HOPENOTE

He Hears Us

And we are confident that he hears us whenever we ask for anything that pleases him (1 John 5:14).

Are you believing that God will do something specific in your life? Do you need a miracle in your health, finances, or a relationship? When you pray God's promises that are found in His Word, you can be confident that He hears your prayers. Praying His Word pleases Him. The Scripture tells us that there is power when two are in agreement, and no matter what you may be facing, you and God are a majority. The Bible promises that if God is for you, who dare be against you (Romans 8:31)? Find the specific Scriptures that address what you are believing for and write them on note cards. Study those Scriptures, read them every day, and make those promises your prayers. If you need healing, you can pray, "Father, You said in Isaiah 53 that by Your stripes I am healed." If you need provision for something, you can pray, "Father, thank You for Your promise in Philippians 4:19 that You will provide all my needs according to Your riches in glory."

Whatever you may need today, the most powerful thing you can do is to believe the Word and pray and declare God's promises. As you do, you can be confident that He hears you and will move mightily on your behalf.

2 John

Greetings

This letter is from John, the elder.*

I am writing to the chosen lady and to her children,* whom I love in the truth—as does everyone else who knows the truth—² because the truth lives in us and will be with us forever.

³ Grace, mercy, and peace, which come from God the Father and from Jesus Christ—the Son of the Father—will continue to be with us who live in truth and love.

Live in the Truth

⁴ How happy I was to meet some of your children and find them living according to the truth, just as the Father commanded.

⁵ I am writing to remind you, dear friends,* that we should love one another. This is not a new commandment, but one we have had from the beginning. ⁶ Love means doing what God has commanded us, and he has commanded us to love one another, just as you heard from the beginning.

⁷ I say this because many deceivers have gone out into the world. They deny that Jesus Christ came* in a real body. Such a person is a deceiver and an antichrist. ⁸ Watch out that you do not lose what we* have worked so hard to achieve. Be diligent so that you receive your full reward. ⁹ Anyone who wanders away from this teaching has no relationship with God. But anyone who remains in the teaching of Christ has a relationship with both the Father and the Son.

¹⁰ If anyone comes to your meeting and does not teach the truth about Christ, don't invite that person into your home or give any kind of encouragement. ¹¹ Anyone who encourages such people becomes a partner in their evil work.

Conclusion

¹² I have much more to say to you, but I don't want to do it with paper and ink. For I hope to visit you soon and talk with you face to face. Then our joy will be complete.

¹³ Greetings from the children of your sister,* chosen by God.

HOPENOTE

Protection from False Teaching

Love means doing what God has commanded us, and he has commanded us to love one another, just as you heard from the beginning (2 John 6).

In John's day, there were false teachers that were coming into the church with a "new revelation." John is reminding all of us through this text that God has not changed. He still commands us to love one another. He's basically saying, "Hey guys, there really isn't anything new about God here. It's the same as it's always been, so go ahead and stick with what you know. Do what He's commanded and love one another."

False teachings are any teachings that renounce total dependence on what Jesus Christ did on the cross. False teachings prey on pride and self-reliance. Anything that teaches that you have total power in and of yourself is extremely dangerous because God opposes the proud. Jesus said, "Apart from me you can do nothing." (John 15:5). Putting others first keeps us humble before the Lord, and our obedience shows our reliance on Him. When we allow God's love to flow through us by loving one another, we will be protected from false teachings.

3 John

See the Introduction for 1, 2, and 3 John on this page.

Greetings

This letter is from John, the elder.*

I am writing to Gaius, my dear friend, whom I love in the truth.

² Dear friend, I hope all is well with you and that you are as healthy in body as you are strong in spirit. ³ Some of the traveling teachers* recently returned and made me very happy by telling me about your faithfulness and that you are living according to the truth. ⁴ I could have no greater joy than to hear that my children are following the truth.

Caring for the Lord's Workers

⁵ Dear friend, you are being faithful to God when you care for the traveling teachers who pass through, even though they are strangers to you. ⁶ They have told the church here of your loving friendship. Please continue providing for such teachers in a manner that pleases God. ⁷ For they are traveling for the Lord,* and they accept nothing from people who are not believers.* ⁸ So we ourselves should support them so that we can be their partners as they teach the truth.

⁹ I wrote to the church about this, but Diotrephes, who loves to be the leader, refuses to have anything to do with us. ¹⁰ When I come, I will report some of the things he is doing and the evil accusations he is making against us. Not only does he refuse to welcome the traveling teachers, he also tells others not to help them. And when they do help, he puts them out of the church.

¹¹ Dear friend, don't let this bad example influence you. Follow only what is good. Remember that those who do good prove that they are God's children, and those who do evil prove that they do not know God.*

¹² Everyone speaks highly of Demetrius, as does the truth itself. We ourselves can say the same for him, and you know we speak the truth.

Conclusion

HOPENOTE

Healthy in Body and Spirit

Dear friend, I hope all is well with you and that you are as healthy in body as you are strong in spirit (3 John 2).

Physical health is as important to fulfilling your destiny as your spiritual health. You can't be as effective for God if you are out of energy, tired, and feeling bad all the time. We have to take care of our physical bodies so that we can do what God has put in our hearts to do. And sometimes sickness comes that seems to be unexplained. If that's you, stand strong and fight the good fight of faith. God paid the price for your sickness and disease already; He has a plan for your healing.

But so many people today make life harder for themselves than it needs to be. They're in a hurry, don't get adequate sleep, and don't eat healthily. They grab a candy bar on the go instead of an apple. They have a couple of donuts in the office and eat dinner at 10:00 p.m. and then stay up until one or two in the morning checking email. They go to sleep with their BlackBerry and wake up to their iPod. Friend, that's not the best way to take care of the temple of the Most High God.

God created you to be active and healthy. He wants you to be well rested and ready for what He has for you. God has great things in store, but you won't be able to accomplish them if you're unhealthy and unprepared. The apostle John is telling us that physical health is just as essential as spiritual health, so begin making whatever changes you need to in order to live in health in your physical body. Being physically healthy is not just a good idea—it's a good spiritual idea!

¹³ I have much more to say to you, but I don't want to write it with pen and ink. ¹⁴ For I hope to see you soon, and then we will talk face to face.

¹⁵*Peace be with you.

Your friends here send you their greetings. Please give my personal greetings to each of our friends there.

INTRO TO THE BOOK OF

Jude

Author:

Jude, James' brother and the half-brother of Jesus

Original Audience:

Jewish followers of Jesus

Date of Writing:

About AD 65

Setting:

A warning against heresy (wrong teaching) in the church

Key People:

Jude, James, Jesus

Key Verses:

Dear friends, I had been eagerly planning to write to you about the salvation we all share. But now I find that I must write about something else, urging you to defend the faith that God has entrusted once for all time to his holy people (3).

Finding Hope and Encouragement in Jude

The book of Jude was written to oppose false teachers and defend the faith. Much of the information in Jude is found also in 2 Peter 2. It seems that one borrowed from the other. This letter would have been used as a sermon in the writer's absence.

The author, Jude, was the brother of James and half-brother of Jesus, although he does not assert this fact. Perhaps his readers were already aware of his relationship with Christ.

While he intended to write a treatise on salvation, pressing circumstances required him to deal instead with the false teachers. The primary focus of the book is on the faith, the believers, and God. Error is assaulted, judgment is threatened, and holiness is encouraged.

We are encouraged to stand firm in the faith and to defend God's Word at all costs.

Greetings from Jude

This letter is from Jude, a slave of Jesus Christ and a brother of James.

I am writing to all who have been called by God the Father, who loves you and keeps you safe in the care of Jesus Christ.*

² May God give you more and more mercy, peace, and love.

The Danger of False Teachers

³ Dear friends, I had been eagerly planning to write to you about the salvation we all share. But now I find that I must write about something else, urging you to defend the faith that God has entrusted once for all time to his holy people. ⁴ I say this because some ungodly people have wormed their way into your churches, saying that God's marvelous grace allows us to live immoral lives. The condemnation of such people was recorded long ago, for they have denied our only Master and

Lord, Jesus Christ.

⁵ So I want to remind you, though you already know these things, that Jesus* first rescued the nation of Israel from Egypt, but later he destroyed those who did not remain faithful. ⁶ And I remind you of the angels who did not stay within the limits of authority God gave them but left the place where they belonged. God has kept them securely chained in prisons of darkness, waiting for the great day of judgment. ⁷ And don't forget Sodom and Gomorrah and their neighboring towns, which were filled with immorality and every kind of sexual perversion. Those cities were destroyed by fire and serve as a warning of the eternal fire of God's judgment.

¹² When these people eat with you in your fellowship meals commemorating the Lord's love, they are like dangerous reefs that can shipwreck you.* They are like shameless shepherds who care only for themselves. They are like clouds blowing over the land without giving any rain. They are like trees in autumn that are doubly dead, for they bear no fruit and have been pulled up by the roots. ¹³ They are like wild waves of the sea, churning up the foam of their shameful deeds. They are like wandering stars, doomed forever to blackest darkness.

¹⁴ Enoch, who lived in the seventh generation after Adam, prophesied about these people. He said, “Listen! The Lord is coming with countless thousands of his holy ones ¹⁵ to execute judgment on the people of the world. He will convict every person of all the ungodly things they have done and for all the insults that ungodly sinners have spoken against him.”*

¹⁶ These people are grumblers and complainers, living only to satisfy their desires. They brag loudly about themselves, and they flatter others to get what they want.

A Call to Remain Faithful

¹⁷ But you, my dear friends, must remember what the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ said. ¹⁸ They told you that in the last times there would be scoffers whose purpose in life is to satisfy their ungodly desires. ¹⁹ These people are the ones who are creating divisions among you. They follow their natural instincts because they do not have God’s Spirit in them.

²⁰ But you, dear friends, must build each other up in your most holy faith, pray in the power of the Holy Spirit,* ²¹ and await the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ, who will bring you eternal life. In this way, you will keep yourselves safe in God’s love.

²² And you must show mercy to* those whose faith is wavering. ²³ Rescue others by snatching them from the flames of judgment. Show mercy to still others,* but do so with great caution, hating the sins that contaminate their lives.*

HOPENOTE

Keep Yourself in God's Love

But you, dear friends, must build each other up in your most holy faith, pray in the power of the Holy Spirit, and await the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ, who will bring you eternal life. In this way, you will keep yourselves safe in God's love (Jude 20-21).

Much of Jude's letter is addressing "the latest ideas," "popular teaching," and perhaps, "best-selling writers" that were diverting the attention of Christians away from the things of God. Jude was not only pointing out errors, he was calling his brothers and sisters in Christ back to the source of mercy, peace, and love. He was encouraging them to stay connected with God through Jesus Christ. This is the purpose and passion of our ministry. We seek to point people to the unconditional love and unending hope found in Jesus. Jesus desires that everyone come to know Him and have the opportunity to experience a life of abundance, blessing, and purpose. We are committed to share the goodness of God with the world, because the Scripture tells us that it's the goodness of God that leads to repentance (see Romans 2:4).

Today, everywhere we turn there are things that would try to pull us from the foundation of true faith. Jude gives us a very helpful clue: When we notice that we've lost mercy, peace, and love along the way, we need to retrace our steps and discover what distracted us from following Jesus. We have to be proactive in our faith and make the effort to keep ourselves in the love of God by loving others, praying in the Holy Spirit, and trusting in Him to fulfill His promises.

A Prayer of Praise

²⁴ Now all glory to God, who is able to keep you from falling away and will bring you with great joy into his glorious presence without a single fault. ²⁵ All glory to him who alone is God, our Savior through Jesus Christ our Lord. All glory, majesty, power, and authority are his before all time, and in the present, and beyond all time! Amen.

Finding Hope and Encouragement in Revelation

The world, as we know it, will eventually come to an end. John warns us of this fact, yet gives us hope, too. Revelation is a highly symbolic book, a recorded vision or apocalypse, which employs an abundance of Old Testament ideas, symbols, names, and themes to paint a picture of Christ's return.

The New Testament Christians waited expectantly for the coming of Jesus Christ. But when? And how? They needed encouragement and exhortation, like we do today. Revelation speaks of divine protection from God's judgment on the world. John wants to reassure us that Jesus controls the course of human events and the climax of history. He will return and establish the promised kingdom.

The traditional full title of the book is "The Revelation of Jesus Christ" (taken from the opening words). It is appropriate, for the central figure in John's vision is Jesus. He is described as the Son of Man, the Lion of Judah, the worthy Lamb, the Son who will rule all, the Bridegroom, the conquering King of kings and Lord of lords, and the rightful Ruler of His earthly and eternal kingdoms.

The book is not so much a prediction of future events as it is an exposé of spiritual realities that affect us now and will bring the world to an end. But God, not humans, is ultimately in control of the events that will lead to the end. Yes, the world will end, but Jesus is still in control.

John shares his divinely-inspired visions regarding God's revealed plan and the prophecies not yet fulfilled. We need to remember that no matter how bad this world gets, God is still in control. In Christ, our victory is assured. Those that trust in Him will be saved. Be blessed as you read.

Chapter 1

Prologue

This is a revelation from* Jesus Christ, which God gave him to show his servants the events that must soon* take place. He sent an angel to present this revelation to his servant John,² who faithfully reported everything he saw. This is his report of the word of God and the testimony of Jesus Christ.

³ God blesses the one who reads the words of this prophecy to the church, and he blesses all who listen to its message and obey what it says, for the time is near.

John's Greeting to the Seven Churches

⁴ This letter is from John to the seven churches in the province of Asia.*

Grace and peace to you from the one who is, who always was, and who is still to come; from the sevenfold Spirit* before his throne; ⁵ and from Jesus Christ. He is the faithful witness to these things, the first to rise from the dead, and the ruler of all the kings of the world.

All glory to him who loves us and has freed us from our sins by shedding his blood for us. ⁶ He has made us a Kingdom of priests for God his Father. All glory and power to him forever and ever! Amen.

⁷ Look! He comes with the clouds of heaven.

And everyone will see him—
even those who pierced him.
And all the nations of the world will mourn for him.
Yes! Amen!

⁸ “I am the Alpha and the Omega—the beginning and the end,”* says the Lord God. “I am the one who is, who always was, and who is still to come—the Almighty One.”

Vision of the Son of Man

⁹ I, John, am your brother and your partner in suffering and in God’s Kingdom and in the patient endurance to which Jesus calls us. I was exiled to the island of Patmos for preaching the word of God and for my testimony about Jesus. ¹⁰ It was the Lord’s Day, and I was worshiping in the Spirit. * Suddenly, I heard behind me a loud voice like a trumpet blast. ¹¹ It said, “Write in a book* everything you see, and send it to the seven churches in the cities of Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamum, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, and Laodicea.”

HOPENOTE

Blessed Is the One Who Reads

God blesses the one who reads the words of this prophecy to the church, and he blesses all who listen to its message and obey what it says, for the time is near (Revelation 1:3).

The book of Revelation starts out with a great, three-part promise of blessing. That promise covers what God commits to do if we read, listen, and obey the message in this book. Notice that the promise doesn't depend on us understanding everything in this book. When it comes to trusting God, obedience is more important than understanding. We don't have to wait to obey until we understand. When Mary was told by an angel that she would be the mother of the Savior even though she was not yet married, she admitted she didn't really understand—but that didn't stop her from obeying. When you take a step of faith, even when you don't understand, God will meet you where you are. Because He loves us, He makes His ways known to us.

So, whether or not you have done this before, read through Revelation with the promise of God's blessing in view. Keep your heart open and look for places that may require obedience from you. Set aside all that you may have heard about what the different elements of the vision mean and focus with your heart on what you are reading and hearing. Ultimately, be willing to obey what God's Spirit reveals to you in the pages of this prophetic book. Remember, even the obedient act of reading Revelation comes with the promise of a blessing.

12 When I turned to see who was speaking to me, I saw seven gold lampstands. 13 And standing in the middle of the lampstands was someone like the Son of Man.* He was wearing a long robe with a gold sash across his chest. 14 His head and his hair were white like wool, as white as snow. And his eyes were like flames of fire.¹⁵ His feet were like polished bronze refined in a furnace, and his voice thundered like mighty ocean waves.¹⁶ He held seven stars in his right hand, and a sharp two-edged sword came from his mouth. And his face was like the sun in all its brilliance.

HOPENOTE

He Holds the Keys

I am the living one. I died, but look—I am alive forever and ever! And I hold the keys of death and the grave (Revelation 1:18).

Revelation is filled with names and titles for Jesus. You can find at least 17 different expressions beginning with Son of Man (1:13) and ending with “bright morning star” (22:16). Many of them begin with “I am,” which in itself is a title God has used from the time of Moses when He instructed the leader of Israel to tell the people, “I AM sent me to lead you out of Egypt.”

When we read Jesus’ words, “I am the Living One,” we are immediately taken back to the night before He was crucified. Jesus told His disciples not to let their hearts be troubled. Then, He went on to say, “I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one can come to the Father except through me” (John 14:6). Jesus was already the eternal, living keeper of the keys even before He went to the cross. Jesus is now, and has always been, our only access to the Father.

If Jesus can unlock death, He can unlock any door. When we trust Him and live in Him, we are not limited by any obstacle we see in the natural—including death. What people see as an impenetrable barrier and an unbeatable enemy in the natural, Jesus sees as no big deal. Let's remember that no matter what we face, the Lord can calmly speak into our hearts, "Don't be afraid, I've already conquered that, and I hold the keys of victory. I'm with you—to the ends of the earth and the end of the age."

17 When I saw him, I fell at his feet as if I were dead. But he laid his right hand on me and said, "Don't be afraid! I am the First and the Last. 18 I am the living one. I died, but look—I am alive forever and ever! And I hold the keys of death and the grave.*

19 "Write down what you have seen—both the things that are now happening and the things that will happen.* 20 This is the meaning of the mystery of the seven stars you saw in my right hand and the seven gold lampstands: The seven stars are the angels* of the seven churches, and the seven lampstands are the seven churches.

Chapter 2

The Message to the Church in Ephesus

“Write this letter to the angel* of the church in Ephesus. This is the message from the one who holds the seven stars in his right hand, the one who walks among the seven gold lampstands:

2 “I know all the things you do. I have seen your hard work and your patient endurance. I know you don’t tolerate evil people. You have examined the claims of those who say they are apostles but are not. You have discovered they are liars. 3 You have patiently suffered for me without quitting.

4 “But I have this complaint against you. You don’t love me or each other as you did at first!* 5 Look how far you have fallen! Turn back to me and do the works you did at first. If you don’t repent, I will come and remove your lampstand from its place among the churches. 6 But this is in your favor: You hate the evil deeds of the Nicolaitans, just as I do.

7 “Anyone with ears to hear must listen to the Spirit and understand what he is saying to the churches. To everyone who is victorious I will give fruit from the tree of life in the paradise of God.

HOPEFORTODAY

Jesus Speaks to the Churches

Anyone with ears to hear must listen to the Spirit and understand what he is saying to the churches. To everyone who is victorious I will give fruit from the tree of life in the paradise of God (Revelation 2:7).

Jesus had John write memos to seven churches. The Lord evaluated their performance as His followers. Have you ever tried to picture what would happen if Jesus showed up in the flesh at your church? Would the atmosphere change? Would the service run the way it has always run, or would there suddenly be some changes? How would your own attitude be affected if you looked across the aisle from your regular spot and noticed Jesus sitting there?

When we read through the “report cards” of these seven churches in Revelation, we notice that only two of the seven escaped a rebuke—Smyrna and Philadelphia. Six of the seven churches had reasons to feel good about the work they were doing, but Jesus had to tell five of these churches that they were also falling short of His expectations. And one of them, the church at Laodicea, was in such a state that Jesus could not mention any positive traits at all.

It’s quite possible that your church fits the profile of one or a combination of these seven churches. Since we are reading Revelation with special attention to points of obedience, let's remember that the character of a local church is made up of the character of its members. Six of these churches had good characteristics like hard work, loyalty to Christ, love, faithfulness, and effectiveness. How are you contributing to the character of your church?

All seven of these churches received instructions from Jesus on how to make changes and improve what they were doing. Notice that five of them were called to repentance. And repentance, whether in a church or in a person, always starts with a serious question: "Is the way I'm going the direction God wants me to go?" If the answer is "no," then it's time to turn around and go God's direction. That's the way of blessing. That's the way of God's abundant favor. That's the way of eternal life!

The Message to the Church in Smyrna

⁸ "Write this letter to the angel of the church in Smyrna. This is the message from the one who is the First and the Last, who was dead but is now alive:

⁹ "I know about your suffering and your poverty—but you are rich! I know the blasphemy of those opposing you. They say they are Jews, but they are not, because their synagogue belongs to Satan. ¹⁰ Don't be afraid of what you are about to suffer. The devil will throw some of you into prison to test you. You will suffer for ten days. But if you remain faithful even when facing death, I will give you the crown of life.

¹¹ “Anyone with ears to hear must listen to the Spirit and understand what he is saying to the churches. Whoever is victorious will not be harmed by the second death.

The Message to the Church in Pergamum

¹² “Write this letter to the angel of the church in Pergamum. This is the message from the one with the sharp two-edged sword:

¹³ “I know that you live in the city where Satan has his throne, yet you have remained loyal to me. You refused to deny me even when Antipas, my faithful witness, was martyred among you there in Satan’s city.

¹⁴ “But I have a few complaints against you. You tolerate some among you whose teaching is like that of Balaam, who showed Balak how to trip up the people of Israel. He taught them to sin by eating food offered to idols and by committing sexual sin. ¹⁵ In a similar way, you have some Nicolaitans among you who follow the same teaching. ¹⁶ Repent of your sin, or I will come to you suddenly and fight against them with the sword of my mouth.

¹⁷ “Anyone with ears to hear must listen to the Spirit and understand what he is saying to the churches. To everyone who is victorious I will give some of the manna that has been hidden away in heaven. And I will give to each one a white stone, and on the stone will be engraved a new name that no one understands except the one who receives it.

The Message to the Church in Thyatira

18 “Write this letter to the angel of the church in Thyatira. This is the message from the Son of God, whose eyes are like flames of fire, whose feet are like polished bronze:

19 “I know all the things you do. I have seen your love, your faith, your service, and your patient endurance. And I can see your constant improvement in all these things.

20 “But I have this complaint against you. You are permitting that woman—that Jezebel who calls herself a prophet—to lead my servants astray. She teaches them to commit sexual sin and to eat food offered to idols. 21 I gave her time to repent, but she does not want to turn away from her immorality.

22 “Therefore, I will throw her on a bed of suffering,* and those who commit adultery with her will suffer greatly unless they repent and turn away from her evil deeds. 23 I will strike her children dead. Then all the churches will know that I am the one who searches out the thoughts and intentions of every person. And I will give to each of you whatever you deserve.

24 “But I also have a message for the rest of you in Thyatira who have not followed this false teaching (‘deeper truths,’ as they call them—depths of Satan, actually). I will ask nothing more of you 25 except that you hold tightly to what you have until I come. 26 To all who are victorious, who obey me to the very end,

To them I will give authority over all the nations.

27 They will rule the nations with an iron rod and smash them like clay pots.*

28 They will have the same authority I received from my Father, and I will also give them the morning star!

29 “Anyone with ears to hear must listen to the Spirit and understand what he is saying to the churches.

Chapter 3

The Message to the Church in Sardis

“Write this letter to the angel* of the church in Sardis. This is the message from the one who has the sevenfold Spirit* of God and the seven stars:

“I know all the things you do, and that you have a reputation for being alive—but you are dead. ² Wake up!
Strengthen what little remains, for even what is left is almost dead. I find that your actions do not meet the requirements of my God. ³ Go back to what you heard and believed at first; hold to it firmly. Repent and turn to me again. If you don’t wake up, I will come to you suddenly, as unexpected as a thief.

⁴ “Yet there are some in the church in Sardis who have not soiled their clothes with evil. They will walk with me in white, for they are worthy. ⁵ All who are victorious will be clothed in white. I will never erase their names from the Book of Life, but I will announce before my Father and his angels that they are mine.

⁶ “Anyone with ears to hear must listen to the Spirit and understand what he is saying to the churches.

The Message to the Church in Philadelphia

⁷ “Write this letter to the angel of the church in Philadelphia.

This is the message from the one who is holy and true, the one who has the key of David.

What he opens, no one can close;
and what he closes, no one can open.*

⁸ “I know all the things you do, and I have opened a door for you that no one can close. You have little strength, yet you obeyed my word and did not deny me. ⁹ Look, I will force those who belong to Satan’s synagogue—those liars who say they are Jews but are not—to come and bow down at your feet. They will acknowledge that you are the ones I love.

¹⁰ “Because you have obeyed my command to persevere, I will protect you from the great time of testing that will come upon the whole world to test those who belong to this world. ¹¹ I am coming soon.* Hold on to what you have, so that no one will take away your crown. ¹² All who are victorious will become pillars in the Temple of my God, and they will never have to leave it. And I will write on them the name of my God, and they will be citizens in the city of my God—the new Jerusalem that comes down from heaven from my God. And I will also write on them my new name.

¹³ “Anyone with ears to hear must listen to the Spirit and understand what he is saying to the churches.

The Message to the Church in Laodicea

¹⁴ “Write this letter to the angel of the church in Laodicea. This is the message from the one who is the Amen—the faithful and true witness, the beginning* of God’s new creation:

¹⁵ “I know all the things you do, that you are neither hot nor cold. I wish that you were one or the other! ¹⁶ But since you are like lukewarm water, neither hot nor cold, I will spit you out of my mouth! ¹⁷ You say, ‘I am rich. I have everything I want. I don’t need a thing!’ And you don’t realize that you are wretched and miserable and poor and blind and naked. ¹⁸ So I advise you to buy gold from me—gold that has been purified by fire. Then you will be rich. Also buy white garments from me so you will not be shamed by your nakedness, and ointment for your eyes so you will be able to see. ¹⁹ I correct and discipline everyone I love. So be diligent and turn from your indifference.

²⁰ “Look! I stand at the door and knock. If you hear my voice and open the door, I will come in, and we will share a meal together as friends. ²¹ Those who are victorious will sit with me on my throne, just as I was victorious and sat with my Father on his throne.

HOPENOTE

Be Hot or Cold

I know all the things you do, that you are neither hot nor cold. I wish that you were one or the other! (Revelation 3:15).

We have been to a local coffee shop and seen the variety of hot drinks, iced coffees, and whipped cappuccinos. But there is one thing that I have never seen on the menu, and that's a cup of "lukewarm coffee." The church in Laodicea was known as the lukewarm church—they were neither on fire for the things of God nor completely cold toward Him. They were just hanging out, going through the motions, and trusting in their wealth and riches, their earthly possessions. Because they had money, they thought they had it all. But it literally made Jesus sick. He doesn't like the taste of mediocrity with one foot in the church and one foot in the world.

But notice that even though His words to Laodicea were the hardest and most direct, Jesus did not give up on them. "Behold, I stand at the door and knock," He said. Because He loved them, He offered them hope in repentance. He wanted to ignite them with the fire of His Spirit once again. He wanted them to serve Him with their whole hearts and "buy" from Him true, spiritual riches that will never fade away.

As you read about the Laodicean church, ask the Holy Spirit to search your own heart and mind. Are you a halfway follower, or do you seek Him with your whole heart? Make the decision to passionately pursue Him. Decide to reject mediocrity and let the fire of the Holy Spirit ignite your heart. Remember, He rewards the people who diligently seek after Him!

22 “Anyone with ears to hear must listen to the Spirit and understand what he is saying to the churches.”

HOPEFORTODAY

Know Who You Are

Then as I looked, I saw a door standing open in heaven, and the same voice I had heard before spoke to me like a trumpet blast. The voice said, “Come up here, and I will show you what must happen after this” (Revelation 4:1).

I hate to disappoint you, but I don’t know all the facts and details about the present day, much less the doctrine of “the end times.”

Now you may ask, “Joel, doesn’t that make you feel inferior? You’re that pastor of a large ministry. Aren’t you embarrassed that you are prophetically challenged?” No, not a bit. I don’t know anyone who is “Mr. Expert-on-Everything-Christian.” I just know what God has called me to do, and the message that He has put in my heart to preach. I may not be able to explain every detail or every doctrine, but I can encourage people. I can plant seeds of hope. I can challenge and inspire you to come higher to live a life of obedience to God.

We have ministers on our staff, and I am friends with other pastors, who have a deep understanding and powerful anointing to teach on prophecy. But it's not me. We all need to know who we are in Christ. God has called me to be an encourager. He has put a message of faith, hope, and purpose in my heart. I am dedicated to help you see and experience the goodness of our God in every area of your life.

Knowing God's Word is important, but living God's Word is what allows us to experience the life of power, purpose, and passion that Jesus came to give.

Chapter 4

Worship in Heaven

Then as I looked, I saw a door standing open in heaven, and the same voice I had heard before spoke to me like a trumpet blast. The voice said, “Come up here, and I will show you what must happen after this.”² And instantly I was in the Spirit,* and I saw a throne in heaven and someone sitting on it.³ The one sitting on the throne was as brilliant as gemstones—like jasper and carnelian. And the glow of an emerald circled his throne like a rainbow.⁴ Twenty-four thrones surrounded him, and twenty-four elders sat on them. They were all clothed in white and had gold crowns on their heads.⁵ From the throne came flashes of lightning and the rumble of thunder. And in front of the throne were seven torches with burning flames. This is the sevenfold Spirit* of God.⁶ In front of the throne was a shiny sea of glass, sparkling like crystal.

In the center and around the throne were four living beings, each covered with eyes, front and back.⁷ The first of these living beings was like a lion; the second was like an ox; the third had a human face; and the fourth was like an eagle in flight.⁸ Each of these living beings had six wings, and their wings were covered all over with eyes, inside and out. Day after day and night after night they keep on saying,

“Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God, the Almighty—the one who always was, who is, and who is still to come.”

⁹ Whenever the living beings give glory and honor and thanks to the one sitting on the throne (the one who lives forever and ever), ¹⁰ the twenty-four elders fall down and worship the one sitting on the throne (the one who lives forever and ever). And they lay their crowns before the throne and say, ¹¹ “You are worthy, O Lord our God, to receive glory and honor and power.

For you created all things, and they exist because you created what you pleased.”

Chapter 5

The Lamb Opens the Scroll

Then I saw a scroll* in the right hand of the one who was sitting on the throne. There was writing on the inside and the outside of the scroll, and it was sealed with seven seals. ² And I saw a strong angel, who shouted with a loud voice: “Who is worthy to break the seals on this scroll and open it?” ³ But no one in heaven or on earth or under the earth was able to open the scroll and read it.

⁴ Then I began to weep bitterly because no one was found worthy to open the scroll and read it. ⁵ But one of the twenty-four elders said to me, “Stop weeping! Look, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the heir to David’s throne,* has won the victory. He is worthy to open the scroll and its seven seals.”

⁶ Then I saw a Lamb that looked as if it had been slaughtered, but it was now standing between the throne and the four living beings and among the twenty-four elders. He had seven horns and seven eyes, which represent the sevenfold Spirit* of God that is sent out into every part of the earth. ⁷ He stepped forward and took the scroll from the right hand of the one sitting on the throne. ⁸ And when he took the scroll, the four living beings and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb. Each one had a harp, and they held gold bowls filled with incense, which are the prayers of God’s people. ⁹ And they sang a new song with these words:

“You are worthy to take the scroll and break its seals and open it.

For you were slaughtered, and your blood has ransomed people for God
from every tribe and language and people and nation.

¹⁰ And you have caused them to become a Kingdom of priests for our God.
And they will reign* on the earth.”

¹¹ Then I looked again, and I heard the voices of thousands and millions of angels around the throne and of the living beings and the elders. ¹² And they sang in a mighty chorus:

“Worthy is the Lamb who was slaughtered—to receive power and riches and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and blessing.”

¹³ And then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea. They sang:

“Blessing and honor and glory and power belong to the one sitting on the throne and to the Lamb forever and ever.”

¹⁴ And the four living beings said, “Amen!” And the twenty-four elders fell down and worshiped the Lamb.

Chapter 6

The Lamb Breaks the First Six Seals

As I watched, the Lamb broke the first of the seven seals on the scroll.* Then I heard one of the four living beings say with a voice like thunder, “Come!” ² I looked up and saw a white horse standing there. Its rider carried a bow, and a crown was placed on his head. He rode out to win many battles and gain the victory.

³ When the Lamb broke the second seal, I heard the second living being say, “Come!” ⁴ Then another horse appeared, a red one. Its rider was given a mighty sword and the authority to take peace from the earth. And there was war and slaughter everywhere.

⁵ When the Lamb broke the third seal, I heard the third living being say, “Come!” I looked up and saw a black horse, and its rider was holding a pair of scales in his hand. ⁶ And I heard a voice from among the four living beings say, “A loaf of wheat bread or three loaves of barley will cost a day’s pay. * And don’t waste* the olive oil and wine.”

⁷ When the Lamb broke the fourth seal, I heard the fourth living being say, “Come!” ⁸ I looked up and saw a horse whose color was pale green. Its rider was named Death, and his companion was the Grave.* These two were given authority over one-fourth of the earth, to kill with the sword and famine and disease* and wild animals.

⁹ When the Lamb broke the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of all who had been martyred for the word of God and for being faithful in their testimony. ¹⁰ They shouted to the Lord and said, “O Sovereign Lord, holy and true, how long before you judge the people who belong to this world and avenge our blood for what they have done to us?” ¹¹ Then a white robe was given to each of them. And they were told to rest a little longer until the full number of their brothers and sisters*—their fellow servants of Jesus who were to be martyred—had joined them.

¹² I watched as the Lamb broke the sixth seal, and there was a great earthquake. The sun became as dark as black cloth, and the moon became as red as blood. ¹³ Then the stars of the sky fell to the earth like green figs falling from a tree shaken by a strong wind. ¹⁴ The sky was rolled up like a scroll, and all of the mountains and islands were moved from their places.

¹⁵ Then everyone—the kings of the earth, the rulers, the generals, the wealthy, the powerful, and every slave and free person—all hid themselves in the caves and among the rocks of the mountains. ¹⁶ And they cried to the mountains and the rocks, “Fall on us and hide us from the face of the one who sits on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb. ¹⁷ For the great day of their wrath has come, and who is able to survive?”

Chapter 7

God’s People Will Be Preserved

Then I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds so they did not blow on the earth or the sea, or even on any tree. ² And I saw another angel coming up from the east, carrying the seal of the living God. And he shouted to those four angels, who had been given power to harm land and sea, ³ “Wait! Don’t harm the land or the sea or the trees until we have placed the seal of God on the foreheads of his servants.”

⁴ And I heard how many were marked with the seal of God—144,000 were sealed from all the tribes of Israel:

5 from Judah

12,000

	from Reuben	12,000
	from Gad	12,000
6	from Asher	12,000
	from Naphtali	12,000
	from Manasseh	12,000
7	from Simeon	12,000
	from Levi	12,000
	from Issachar	12,000
8	from Zebulun	12,000
	from Joseph	12,000
	from Benjamin	12,000

Praise from the Great Crowd

⁹ After this I saw a vast crowd, too great to count, from every nation and tribe and people and language, standing in front of the throne and before the Lamb. They were clothed in white robes and held palm branches in their hands. ¹⁰ And they were shouting with a great roar, “Salvation comes from our God who sits on the throne and from the Lamb!”

¹¹ And all the angels were standing around the throne and around the elders and the four living beings. And they fell before the throne with their faces to the ground and worshiped God. ¹² They sang, “Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and strength belong to our God forever and ever! Amen.”

13 Then one of the twenty-four elders asked me, “Who are these who are clothed in white? Where did they come from?”

14 And I said to him, “Sir, you are the one who knows.”

Then he said to me, “These are the ones who died in* the great tribulation.* They have washed their robes in the blood of the Lamb and made them white.

15 “That is why they stand in front of God’s throne and serve him day and night in his Temple.
And he who sits on the throne will give them shelter.

16 They will never again be hungry or thirsty;
they will never be scorched by the heat of the sun.

17 For the Lamb on the throne* will be their Shepherd.

He will lead them to springs of life-giving water.
And God will wipe every tear from their eyes.”

Chapter 8

The Lamb Breaks the Seventh Seal

When the Lamb broke the seventh seal on the scroll,* there was silence throughout heaven for about half an hour. ² I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and they were given seven trumpets.

3 Then another angel with a gold incense burner came and stood at the altar. And a great amount of incense was given to him to mix with the prayers of God's people as an offering on the gold altar before the throne. 4 The smoke of the incense, mixed with the prayers of God's holy people, ascended up to God from the altar where the angel had poured them out. 5 Then the angel filled the incense burner with fire from the altar and threw it down upon the earth; and thunder crashed, lightning flashed, and there was a terrible earthquake.

The First Four Trumpets

6 Then the seven angels with the seven trumpets prepared to blow their mighty blasts.

7 The first angel blew his trumpet, and hail and fire mixed with blood were thrown down on the earth. One-third of the earth was set on fire, one-third of the trees were burned, and all the green grass was burned.

8 Then the second angel blew his trumpet, and a great mountain of fire was thrown into the sea. One-third of the water in the sea became blood, 9 one-third of all things living in the sea died, and one-third of all the ships on the sea were destroyed.

10 Then the third angel blew his trumpet, and a great star fell from the sky, burning like a torch. It fell on one-third of the rivers and on the springs of water. 11 The name of the star was Bitterness.* It made one-third of the water bitter, and many people died from drinking the bitter water.

12 Then the fourth angel blew his trumpet, and one-third of the sun was struck, and one-third of the moon, and one-third of the stars, and they became dark. And one-third of the day was dark, and also one-third of the night.

¹³ Then I looked, and I heard a single eagle crying loudly as it flew through the air, "Terror, terror, terror to all who belong to this world because of what will happen when the last three angels blow their trumpets."

Chapter 9

The Fifth Trumpet Brings the First Terror

Then the fifth angel blew his trumpet, and I saw a star that had fallen to earth from the sky, and he was given the key to the shaft of the bottomless pit.* ² When he opened it, smoke poured out as though from a huge furnace, and the sunlight and air turned dark from the smoke.

³ Then locusts came from the smoke and descended on the earth, and they were given power to sting like scorpions. ⁴ They were told not to harm the grass or plants or trees, but only the people who did not have the seal of God on their foreheads. ⁵ They were told not to kill them but to torture them for five months with pain like the pain of a scorpion sting. ⁶ In those days people will seek death but will not find it. They will long to die, but death will flee from them!

⁷ The locusts looked like horses prepared for battle. They had what looked like gold crowns on their heads, and their faces looked like human faces. ⁸ They had hair like women's hair and teeth like the teeth of a lion. ⁹ They wore armor made of iron, and their wings roared like an army of chariots rushing into battle.¹⁰ They had tails that stung like scorpions, and for five months they had the power to torment people.¹¹ Their king is the angel from the bottomless pit; his name in Hebrew is Abaddon, and in Greek, Apollyon—the Destroyer.

¹² The first terror is past, but look, two more terrors are coming!

The Sixth Trumpet Brings the Second Terror

¹³ Then the sixth angel blew his trumpet, and I heard a voice speaking from the four horns of the gold altar that stands in the presence of God.¹⁴ And the voice said to the sixth angel who held the trumpet, “Release the four angels who are bound at the great Euphrates River.”¹⁵ Then the four angels who had been prepared for this hour and day and month and year were turned loose to kill one-third of all the people on earth.¹⁶ I heard the size of their army, which was 200 million mounted troops.

¹⁷ And in my vision, I saw the horses and the riders sitting on them. The riders wore armor that was fiery red and dark blue and yellow. The horses had heads like lions, and fire and smoke and burning sulfur billowed from their mouths.¹⁸ One-third of all the people on earth were killed by these three plagues—by the fire and smoke and burning sulfur that came from the mouths of the horses.¹⁹ Their power was in their mouths and in their tails. For their tails had heads like snakes, with the power to injure people.

²⁰ But the people who did not die in these plagues still refused to repent of their evil deeds and turn to God. They continued to worship demons and idols made of gold, silver, bronze, stone, and wood—idols that can neither see nor hear nor walk! ²¹ And they did not repent of their murders or their witchcraft or their sexual immorality or their thefts.

Chapter 10

The Angel and the Small Scroll

Then I saw another mighty angel coming down from heaven, surrounded by a cloud, with a rainbow over his head. His face shone like the sun, and his feet were like pillars of fire. ² And in his hand was a small scroll* that had been opened. He stood with his right foot on the sea and his left foot on the land. ³ And he gave a great shout like the roar of a lion. And when he shouted, the seven thunders answered.

⁴ When the seven thunders spoke, I was about to write. But I heard a voice from heaven saying, “Keep secret* what the seven thunders said, and do not write it down.”

⁵ Then the angel I saw standing on the sea and on the land raised his right hand toward heaven. ⁶ He swore an oath in the name of the one who lives forever and ever, who created the heavens and everything in them, the earth and everything in it, and the sea and everything in it. He said, “There will be no more delay. ⁷ When the seventh angel blows his trumpet, God’s mysterious plan will be fulfilled. It will happen just as he announced it to his servants the prophets.”

⁸ Then the voice from heaven spoke to me again: “Go and take the open scroll from the hand of the angel who is standing on the sea and on the land.”

⁹ So I went to the angel and told him to give me the small scroll. “Yes, take it and eat it,” he said. “It will be sweet as honey in your mouth, but it will turn sour in your stomach!” ¹⁰ So I took the small scroll from the hand of the angel, and I ate it! It was sweet in my mouth, but when I swallowed it, it turned sour in my stomach.

¹¹ Then I was told, “You must prophesy again about many peoples, nations, languages, and kings.”

Chapter 11

The Two Witnesses

Then I was given a measuring stick, and I was told, “Go and measure the Temple of God and the altar, and count the number of worshipers. ² But do not measure the outer courtyard, for it has been turned over to the nations. They will trample the holy city for 42 months. ³ And I will give power to my two witnesses, and they will be clothed in burlap and will prophesy during those 1,260 days.”

⁴ These two prophets are the two olive trees and the two lampstands that stand before the Lord of all the earth. ⁵ If anyone tries to harm them, fire flashes from their mouths and consumes their enemies. This is how anyone who tries to harm them must die. ⁶ They have power to shut the sky so that no rain will fall for as long as they prophesy. And they have the power to turn the rivers and oceans into blood, and to strike the earth with every kind of plague as often as they wish.

⁷ When they complete their testimony, the beast that comes up out of the bottomless pit* will declare war against them, and he will conquer them and kill them. ⁸ And their bodies will lie in the main street of Jerusalem,* the city that is figuratively called “Sodom” and “Egypt,” the city where their Lord was crucified. ⁹ And for three and a half days, all peoples, tribes, languages, and nations will stare at their bodies. No one will be allowed to bury them. ¹⁰ All the people who belong to this world will gloat over them and give presents to each other to celebrate the death of the two prophets who had tormented them.

¹¹ But after three and a half days, God breathed life into them, and they stood up! Terror struck all who were staring at them. ¹² Then a loud voice from heaven called to the two prophets, “Come up here!” And they rose to heaven in a cloud as their enemies watched.

¹³ At the same time there was a terrible earthquake that destroyed a tenth of the city. Seven thousand people died in that earthquake, and everyone else was terrified and gave glory to the God of heaven.

¹⁴ The second terror is past, but look, the third terror is coming quickly.

The Seventh Trumpet Brings the Third Terror

¹⁵ Then the seventh angel blew his trumpet, and there were loud voices shouting in heaven:

“The world has now become the Kingdom of our Lord and of his Christ,* and he will reign forever and ever.”

16 The twenty-four elders sitting on their thrones before God fell with their faces to the ground and worshiped him. 17 And they said,

“We give thanks to you, Lord God, the Almighty, the one who is and who always was,
for now you have assumed your great power and have begun to reign.

18 The nations were filled with wrath, but now the time of your wrath has come.
It is time to judge the dead and reward your servants the prophets, as well as your holy people,
and all who fear your name,
from the least to the greatest.
It is time to destroy all who have caused destruction on the earth.”

19 Then, in heaven, the Temple of God was opened and the Ark of his covenant could be seen inside the Temple. Lightning flashed, thunder crashed and roared, and there was an earthquake and a terrible hailstorm.

Chapter 12

The Woman and the Dragon

Then I witnessed in heaven an event of great significance. I saw a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon beneath her feet, and a crown of twelve stars on her head.² She was pregnant, and she cried out because of her labor pains and the agony of giving birth.

³ Then I witnessed in heaven another significant event. I saw a large red dragon with seven heads and ten horns, with seven crowns on his heads.⁴ His tail swept away one-third of the stars in the sky, and he threw them to the earth. He stood in front of the woman as she was about to give birth, ready to devour her baby as soon as it was born.

⁵ She gave birth to a son who was to rule all nations with an iron rod. And her child was snatched away from the dragon and was caught up to God and to his throne.⁶ And the woman fled into the wilderness, where God had prepared a place to care for her for 1,260 days.

HOPENOTE

The Defeated Accuser

Then I heard a loud voice shouting across the heavens, “It has come at last—salvation and power and the Kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Christ. For the accuser of our brothers and sisters has been thrown down to earth—the one who accuses them before our God day and night (Revelation 12:10).

So many Christians today walk around feeling guilty and condemned, like they don't measure up. This defeated mindset keeps them from fulfilling their destiny in Christ Jesus. But just like Jesus told the woman caught in adultery, your accuser is gone! Why accuse yourself any longer?

This passage in Revelation makes it clear that the power of the devil is broken. Satan may be the accuser, but Jesus is your defender—and He's never once lost a case! The devil can make accusations all he wants, but in Christ, the charges won't stick. Jesus already paid for your sins so that you could be free. It doesn't matter what charges the accuser brings against us because, in Christ, the verdict has been given: You are forgiven!

⁷ Then there was war in heaven. Michael and his angels fought against the dragon and his angels. ⁸ And the dragon lost the battle, and he and his angels were forced out of heaven. ⁹ This great dragon—the ancient serpent called the devil, or Satan, the one deceiving the whole world—was thrown down to the earth with all his angels.

HOPENOTE

His Blood and Our Testimony

And they have defeated him by the blood of the Lamb and by their testimony. And they did not love their lives so much that they were afraid to die (Revelation 12:11).

His blood and our testimony are what give us the victory over every scheme of the enemy. When Jesus died on the cross, the Scripture tells us that He was wounded for our transgressions, bruised for our iniquities, and He paid the punishment for our sickness and shame by shedding His own blood. Sin demands a payment, and that payment is death. But when He was raised from the dead, He conquered death, hell, and the grave once and for all. Romans 10:9-10 says that when we believe this in our heart and confess with our mouth that Jesus is our Lord, we are saved. His blood gives us the power, and our testimony is how we exercise that power. It gives us victory over death and victory over everything that comes against us in this life. We have the power by His blood, and we activate it by our testimony.

The next time the enemy tries to accuse you, remember you have a testimony! Begin to declare, “I am washed clean by the blood of Jesus. I am not condemned because I am in Christ Jesus and called according to His purpose. His plans for me are good!” Exercise the power that is within you, and hold on to the victory that He paid for you to have!

10 Then I heard a loud voice shouting across the heavens,

“It has come at last—salvation and power
and the Kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Christ.*
For the accuser of our brothers and sisters* has been thrown down to earth—the one who accuses them before our God day and night.

11 And they have defeated him by the blood of the Lamb and by their testimony.
And they did not love their lives so much that they were afraid to die.

12 Therefore, rejoice, O heavens!
And you who live in the heavens, rejoice!
But terror will come on the earth and the sea, for the devil has come down to you in great anger, knowing that he has little time.”

13 When the dragon realized that he had been thrown down to the earth, he pursued the woman who had given birth to the male child. 14 But she was given two wings like those of a great eagle so she could fly to the place prepared for her in the wilderness. There she would be cared for and protected from the dragon* for a time, times, and half a time.

15 Then the dragon tried to drown the woman with a flood of water that flowed from his mouth. 16 But the earth helped her by opening its mouth and swallowing the river that gushed out from the mouth of the dragon. 17 And the dragon was angry at the woman and declared war against the rest of her children—all who keep God's commandments and maintain their testimony for Jesus.

¹⁸ Then the dragon took his stand* on the shore beside the sea.

Chapter 13

The Beast out of the Sea

Then I saw a beast rising up out of the sea. It had seven heads and ten horns, with ten crowns on its horns. And written on each head were names that blasphemed God.² This beast looked like a leopard, but it had the feet of a bear and the mouth of a lion! And the dragon gave the beast his own power and throne and great authority.

³ I saw that one of the heads of the beast seemed wounded beyond recovery—but the fatal wound was healed! The whole world marveled at this miracle and gave allegiance to the beast.

⁴ They worshiped the dragon for giving the beast such power, and they also worshiped the beast. “Who is as great as the beast?” they exclaimed. “Who is able to fight against him?”

⁵ Then the beast was allowed to speak great blasphemies against God. And he was given authority to do whatever he wanted for forty-two months. ⁶ And he spoke terrible words of blasphemy against God, slandering his name and his dwelling—that is, those who dwell in heaven.* ⁷ And the beast was allowed to wage war against God's holy people and to conquer them. And he was given authority to rule over every tribe and people and language and nation. ⁸ And all the people who belong to this world worshiped the beast. They are the ones whose names were not written in the Book of Life before the world was made—the Book that belongs to the Lamb who was slaughtered.*

- 9 Anyone with ears to hear should listen and understand.
- 10 Anyone who is destined for prison will be taken to prison.
Anyone destined to die by the sword will die by the sword.

This means that God's holy people must endure persecution patiently and remain faithful.

The Beast out of the Earth

11 Then I saw another beast come up out of the earth. He had two horns like those of a lamb, but he spoke with the voice of a dragon. 12 He exercised all the authority of the first beast. And he required all the earth and its people to worship the first beast, whose fatal wound had been healed. 13 He did astounding miracles, even making fire flash down to earth from the sky while everyone was watching. 14 And with all the miracles he was allowed to perform on behalf of the first beast, he deceived all the people who belong to this world. He ordered the people to make a great statue of the first beast, who was fatally wounded and then came back to life. 15 He was then permitted to give life to this statue so that it could speak. Then the statue of the beast commanded that anyone refusing to worship it must die.

¹⁶ He required everyone—small and great, rich and poor, free and slave—to be given a mark on the right hand or on the forehead. ¹⁷ And no one could buy or sell anything without that mark, which was either the name of the beast or the number representing his name. ¹⁸ Wisdom is needed here. Let the one with understanding solve the meaning of the number of the beast, for it is the number of a man.* His number is 666.*

Chapter 14

The Lamb and the 144,000

Then I saw the Lamb standing on Mount Zion, and with him were 144,000 who had his name and his Father's name written on their foreheads. ² And I heard a sound from heaven like the roar of mighty ocean waves or the rolling of loud thunder. It was like the sound of many harpists playing together.

³ This great choir sang a wonderful new song in front of the throne of God and before the four living beings and the twenty-four elders. No one could learn this song except the 144,000 who had been redeemed from the earth. ⁴ They have kept themselves as pure as virgins,* following the Lamb wherever he goes. They have been purchased from among the people on the earth as a special offering* to God and to the Lamb. ⁵ They have told no lies; they are without blame.

The Three Angels

⁶ And I saw another angel flying through the sky, carrying the eternal Good News to proclaim to the people who belong to this world—to every nation, tribe, language, and people.⁷ “Fear God,” he shouted. “Give glory to him. For the time has come when he will sit as judge. Worship him who made the heavens, the earth, the sea, and all the springs of water.”

⁸ Then another angel followed him through the sky, shouting, “Babylon is fallen—that great city is fallen—because she made all the nations of the world drink the wine of her passionate immorality.”

⁹ Then a third angel followed them, shouting, “Anyone who worships the beast and his statue or who accepts his mark on the forehead or on the hand ¹⁰ must drink the wine of God’s anger. It has been poured full strength into God’s cup of wrath. And they will be tormented with fire and burning sulfur in the presence of the holy angels and the Lamb. ¹¹ The smoke of their torment will rise forever and ever, and they will have no relief day or night, for they have worshiped the beast and his statue and have accepted the mark of his name.”

¹² This means that God’s holy people must endure persecution patiently, obeying his commands and maintaining their faith in Jesus.

¹³ And I heard a voice from heaven saying, “Write this down: Blessed are those who die in the Lord from now on. Yes, says the Spirit, they are blessed indeed, for they will rest from their hard work; for their good deeds follow them!”

The Harvest of the Earth

¹⁴ Then I saw a white cloud, and seated on the cloud was someone like the Son of Man.* He had a gold crown on his head and a sharp sickle in his hand.

¹⁵ Then another angel came from the Temple and shouted to the one sitting on the cloud, “Swing the sickle, for the time of harvest has come; the crop on earth is ripe.” ¹⁶ So the one sitting on the cloud swung his sickle over the earth, and the whole earth was harvested.

¹⁷ After that, another angel came from the Temple in heaven, and he also had a sharp sickle. ¹⁸ Then another angel, who had power to destroy with fire, came from the altar. He shouted to the angel with the sharp sickle, “Swing your sickle now to gather the clusters of grapes from the vines of the earth, for they are ripe for judgment.” ¹⁹ So the angel swung his sickle over the earth and loaded the grapes into the great winepress of God’s wrath. ²⁰ The grapes were trampled in the winepress outside the city, and blood flowed from the winepress in a stream about 180 miles* long and as high as a horse’s bridle.

Chapter 15

The Song of Moses and of the Lamb

Then I saw in heaven another marvelous event of great significance. Seven angels were holding the seven last plagues, which would bring God’s wrath to completion. ² I saw before me what seemed to be a glass sea mixed with fire. And on it stood all the people who had been victorious over the beast and his statue and the number representing his name. They were all holding harps that God had given them. ³ And they were singing the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb:

“Great and marvelous are your works,

O Lord God, the Almighty.

Just and true are your ways,

O King of the nations.*

⁴ Who will not fear you, Lord, and glorify your name?

For you alone are holy.

All nations will come and worship before you, for your righteous deeds have been revealed.”

The Seven Bowls of the Seven Plagues

⁵ Then I looked and saw that the Temple in heaven, God’s Tabernacle, was thrown wide open. ⁶ The seven angels who were holding the seven plagues came out of the Temple. They were clothed in spotless white linen* with gold sashes across their chests. ⁷ Then one of the four living beings handed each of the seven angels a gold bowl filled with the wrath of God, who lives forever and ever. ⁸ The Temple was filled with smoke from God’s glory and power. No one could enter the Temple until the seven angels had completed pouring out the seven plagues.

Chapter 16

Then I heard a mighty voice from the Temple say to the seven angels, “Go your ways and pour out on the earth the seven bowls containing God’s wrath.”

2 So the first angel left the Temple and poured out his bowl on the earth, and horrible, malignant sores broke out on everyone who had the mark of the beast and who worshiped his statue.

3 Then the second angel poured out his bowl on the sea, and it became like the blood of a corpse. And everything in the sea died.

4 Then the third angel poured out his bowl on the rivers and springs, and they became blood. 5 And I heard the angel who had authority over all water saying,

“You are just, O Holy One, who is and who always was, because you have sent these judgments.

6 Since they shed the blood of your holy people and your prophets, you have given them blood to drink.
It is their just reward.”

7 And I heard a voice from the altar,* saying,

“Yes, O Lord God, the Almighty, your judgments are true and just.”

8 Then the fourth angel poured out his bowl on the sun, causing it to scorch everyone with its fire. 9 Everyone was burned by this blast of heat, and they cursed the name of God, who had control over all these plagues. They did not repent of their sins and turn to God and give him glory.

10 Then the fifth angel poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and his kingdom was plunged into darkness. His subjects ground their teeth in anguish,¹¹ and they cursed the God of heaven for their pains and sores. But they did not repent of their evil deeds and turn to God.

¹² Then the sixth angel poured out his bowl on the great Euphrates River, and it dried up so that the kings from the east could march their armies toward the west without hindrance.¹³ And I saw three evil* spirits that looked like frogs leap from the mouths of the dragon, the beast, and the false prophet.¹⁴ They are demonic spirits who work miracles and go out to all the rulers of the world to gather them for battle against the Lord on that great judgment day of God the Almighty.

¹⁵ “Look, I will come as unexpectedly as a thief! Blessed are all who are watching for me, who keep their clothing ready so they will not have to walk around naked and ashamed.”

¹⁶ And the demonic spirits gathered all the rulers and their armies to a place with the He-brew name Armageddon.*

¹⁷ Then the seventh angel poured out his bowl into the air. And a mighty shout came from the throne in the Temple, saying, “It is finished!”¹⁸ Then the thunder crashed and rolled, and lightning flashed. And a great earthquake struck—the worst since people were placed on the earth.¹⁹ The great city of Babylon split into three sections, and the cities of many nations fell into heaps of rubble. So God remembered all of Babylon’s sins, and he made her drink the cup that was filled with the wine of his fierce wrath.²⁰ And every island disappeared, and all the mountains were leveled.²¹ There was a terrible hailstorm, and hailstones weighing as much as seventy-five pounds* fell from the sky onto the people below. They cursed God because of the terrible plague of the hailstorm.

Chapter 17

The Great Prostitute

One of the seven angels who had poured out the seven bowls came over and spoke to me. “Come with me,” he said, “and I will show you the judgment that is going to come on the great prostitute, who rules over many waters.² The kings of the world have committed adultery with her, and the people who belong to this world have been made drunk by the wine of her immorality.”

³ So the angel took me in the Spirit* into the wilderness. There I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast that had seven heads and ten horns, and blasphemies against God were written all over it.⁴ The woman wore purple and scarlet clothing and beautiful jewelry made of gold and precious gems and pearls. In her hand she held a gold goblet full of obscenities and the impurities of her immorality.⁵ A mysterious name was written on her forehead: “Babylon the Great, Mother of All Prostitutes and Obscenities in the World.”⁶ I could see that she was drunk—drunk with the blood of God’s holy people who were witnesses for Jesus. I stared at her in complete amazement.

⁷ “Why are you so amazed?” the angel asked. “I will tell you the mystery of this woman and of the beast with seven heads and ten horns on which she sits.⁸ The beast you saw was once alive but isn't now. And yet he will soon come up out of the bottomless pit* and go to eternal destruction. And the people who belong to this world, whose names were not written in the Book of Life before the world was made, will be amazed at the reappearance of this beast who had died.

9 "This calls for a mind with understanding: The seven heads of the beast represent the seven hills where the woman rules. They also represent seven kings.¹⁰ Five kings have already fallen, the sixth now reigns, and the seventh is yet to come, but his reign will be brief.

¹¹ "The scarlet beast that was, but is no longer, is the eighth king. He is like the other seven, and he, too, is headed for destruction.¹² The ten horns of the beast are ten kings who have not yet risen to power. They will be appointed to their kingdoms for one brief moment to reign with the beast.¹³ They will all agree to give him their power and authority.¹⁴ Together they will go to war against the Lamb, but the Lamb will defeat them because he is Lord of all lords and King of all kings. And his called and chosen and faithful ones will be with him."

¹⁵ Then the angel said to me, "The waters where the prostitute is ruling represent masses of people of every nation and language.¹⁶ The scarlet beast and his ten horns all hate the prostitute. They will strip her naked, eat her flesh, and burn her remains with fire.¹⁷ For God has put a plan into their minds, a plan that will carry out his purposes. They will agree to give their authority to the scarlet beast, and so the words of God will be fulfilled.¹⁸ And this woman you saw in your vision represents the great city that rules over the kings of the world."

Chapter 18

The Fall of Babylon

After all this I saw another angel come down from heaven with great authority, and the earth grew bright with his splendor. ² He gave a mighty shout:

“Babylon is fallen—that great city is fallen!

She has become a home for demons.

She is a hideout for every foul* spirit,

a hideout for every foul vulture and every foul and dreadful animal.*

³ For all the nations have fallen* because of the wine of her passionate immorality.

The kings of the world have committed adultery with her.

Because of her desires for extravagant luxury,

the merchants of the world have grown rich.”

⁴ Then I heard another voice calling from heaven,

“Come away from her, my people.

Do not take part in her sins, or you will be punished with her.

⁵ For her sins are piled as high as heaven, and God remembers her evil deeds.

⁶ Do to her as she has done to others.

Double her penalty* for all her evil deeds.

She brewed a cup of terror for others,

so brew twice as much* for her.

⁷ She glorified herself and lived in luxury, so match it now with torment and sorrow.

She boasted in her heart,
‘I am queen on my throne.
I am no helpless widow,
and I have no reason to mourn.’

⁸ Therefore, these plagues will overtake her in a single day—death and mourning and famine.
She will be completely consumed by fire,
for the Lord God who judges her is mighty.”

⁹ And the kings of the world who committed adultery with her and enjoyed her great luxury will mourn for her as they see the smoke rising from her charred remains. ¹⁰ They will stand at a distance, terrified by her great torment. They will cry out, “How terrible, how terrible for you,

O Babylon, you great city!
In a single moment
God’s judgment came on you.”

¹¹ The merchants of the world will weep and mourn for her, for there is no one left to buy their goods. ¹² She bought great quantities of gold, silver, jewels, and pearls; fine linen, purple, silk, and scarlet cloth; things made of fragrant thiyne wood, ivory goods, and objects made of expensive wood; and bronze, iron, and marble. ¹³ She also bought cinnamon, spice, incense, myrrh, frankincense, wine, olive oil, fine flour, wheat, cattle, sheep, horses, chariots, and bodies—that is, human slaves.

14 “The fancy things you loved so much are gone,” they cry.

“All your luxuries and splendor are gone forever,
never to be yours again.”

15 The merchants who became wealthy by selling her these things will stand at a distance, terrified by her great torment.
They will weep and cry out,

16 “How terrible, how terrible for that great city!
She was clothed in finest purple and scarlet linens, decked out with gold and precious stones and pearls!

17 In a single moment
all the wealth of the city is gone!”

And all the captains of the merchant ships and their passengers and sailors and crews will stand at a distance. 18
They will cry out as they watch the smoke ascend, and they will say, “Where is there another city as great as this?” 19 And they will weep and throw dust on their heads to show their grief. And they will cry out,

“How terrible, how terrible for that great city!
The shipowners became wealthy by transporting her great wealth on the seas.
In a single moment it is all gone.”

20 Rejoice over her fate, O heaven and people of God and apostles and prophets!
For at last God has judged her for your sakes.

21 Then a mighty angel picked up a boulder the size of a huge millstone. He threw it into the ocean and shouted,

“Just like this, the great city Babylon will be thrown down with violence and will never be found again.

22 The sound of harps, singers, flutes, and trumpets will never be heard in you again.

No craftsmen and no trades will ever be found in you again.

The sound of the mill
will never be heard in you again.

23 The light of a lamp will never shine in you again.

The happy voices of brides and grooms will never be heard in you again.

For your merchants were the greatest in the world, and you deceived the nations with your sorceries.

24 In your* streets flowed the blood of the prophets and of God’s holy people and the blood of people slaughtered all over the world.”

Chapter 19

Songs of Victory in Heaven

After this, I heard what sounded like a vast crowd in heaven shouting, “Praise the LORD!*

Salvation and glory and power belong to our God.

2 His judgments are true and just.

He has punished the great prostitute who corrupted the earth with her immorality.

He has avenged the murder of his servants.”

3 And again their voices rang out:

“Praise the LORD!

The smoke from that city ascends forever and ever!”

4 Then the twenty-four elders and the four living beings fell down and worshiped God, who was sitting on the throne. They cried out, “Amen! Praise the LORD!”

5 And from the throne came a voice that said,

“Praise our God,
all his servants,
all who fear him,
from the least to the greatest.”

6 Then I heard again what sounded like the shout of a vast crowd or the roar of mighty ocean waves or the crash of loud thunder:

“Praise the LORD!

For the Lord our God,* the Almighty, reigns.

7 Let us be glad and rejoice, and let us give honor to him.

For the time has come for the wedding feast of the Lamb, and his bride has prepared herself.

⁸ She has been given the finest of pure white linen to wear.”

For the fine linen represents the good deeds of God’s holy people.

⁹ And the angel said to me, “Write this: Blessed are those who are invited to the wedding feast of the Lamb.” And he added, “These are true words that come from God.”

¹⁰ Then I fell down at his feet to worship him, but he said, “No, don’t worship me. I am a servant of God, just like you and your brothers and sisters* who testify about their faith in Jesus. Worship only God. For the essence of prophecy is to give a clear witness for Jesus.*”

The Rider on the White Horse

¹¹ Then I saw heaven opened, and a white horse was standing there. Its rider was named Faithful and True, for he judges fairly and wages a righteous war. ¹² His eyes were like flames of fire, and on his head were many crowns. A name was written on him that no one understood except himself. ¹³ He wore a robe dipped in blood, and his title was the Word of God. ¹⁴ The armies of heaven, dressed in the finest of pure white linen, followed him on white horses. ¹⁵ From his mouth came a sharp sword to strike down the nations. He will rule them with an iron rod. He will release the fierce wrath of God, the Almighty, like juice flowing from a winepress. ¹⁶ On his robe at his thigh* was written this title: King of all kings and Lord of all lords.

¹⁷ Then I saw an angel standing in the sun, shouting to the vultures flying high in the sky: “Come! Gather together for the great banquet God has prepared. ¹⁸ Come and eat the flesh of kings, generals, and strong warriors; of horses and their riders; and of all humanity, both free and slave, small and great.”

¹⁹ Then I saw the beast and the kings of the world and their armies gathered together to fight against the one sitting on the horse and his army. ²⁰ And the beast was captured, and with him the false prophet who did mighty miracles on behalf of the beast—miracles that deceived all who had accepted the mark of the beast and who worshiped his statue. Both the beast and his false prophet were thrown alive into the fiery lake of burning sulfur. ²¹ Their entire army was killed by the sharp sword that came from the mouth of the one riding the white horse. And the vultures all gorged themselves on the dead bodies.

Chapter 20

The Thousand Years

Then I saw an angel coming down from heaven with the key to the bottomless pit* and a heavy chain in his hand. ² He seized the dragon—that old serpent, who is the devil, Satan—and bound him in chains for a thousand years. ³ The angel threw him into the bottomless pit, which he then shut and locked so Satan could not deceive the nations anymore until the thousand years were finished. Afterward he must be released for a little while.

⁴ Then I saw thrones, and the people sitting on them had been given the authority to judge. And I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for their testimony about Jesus and for proclaiming the word of God. They had not worshiped the beast or his statue, nor accepted his mark on their forehead or their hands. They all came to life again, and they reigned with Christ for a thousand years.

⁵ This is the first resurrection. (The rest of the dead did not come back to life until the thousand years had ended.)⁶ Blessed and holy are those who share in the first resurrection. For them the second death holds no power, but they will be priests of God and of Christ and will reign with him a thousand years.

The Defeat of Satan

⁷ When the thousand years come to an end, Satan will be let out of his prison.⁸ He will go out to deceive the nations—called Gog and Magog—in every corner of the earth. He will gather them together for battle—a mighty army, as numberless as sand along the seashore.⁹ And I saw them as they went up on the broad plain of the earth and surrounded God's people and the beloved city. But fire from heaven came down on the attacking armies and consumed them.

¹⁰ Then the devil, who had deceived them, was thrown into the fiery lake of burning sulfur, joining the beast and the false prophet. There they will be tormented day and night forever and ever.

The Final Judgment

¹¹ And I saw a great white throne and the one sitting on it. The earth and sky fled from his presence, but they found no place to hide. ¹² I saw the dead, both great and small, standing before God's throne. And the books were opened, including the Book of Life. And the dead were judged according to what they had done, as recorded in the books. ¹³ The sea gave up its dead, and death and the grave* gave up their dead. And all were judged according to their deeds. ¹⁴ Then death and the grave were thrown into the lake of fire. This lake of fire is the second death. ¹⁵ And anyone whose name was not found recorded in the Book of Life was thrown into the lake of fire.

Chapter 21

The New Jerusalem

Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the old heaven and the old earth had disappeared. And the sea was also gone. ² And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven like a bride beautifully dressed for her husband.

³ I heard a loud shout from the throne, saying, "Look, God's home is now among his people! He will live with them, and they will be his people. God himself will be with them.* ⁴ He will wipe every tear from their eyes, and there will be no more death or sorrow or crying or pain. All these things are gone forever."

⁵ And the one sitting on the throne said, "Look, I am making everything new!" And then he said to me, "Write this down, for what I tell you is trustworthy and true." ⁶ And he also said, "It is finished! I am the Alpha and the Omega—the Beginning and the End. To all who are thirsty I will give freely from the springs of the water of life. ⁷ All who are victorious will inherit all these blessings, and I will be their God, and they will be my children.

⁸ “But cowards, unbelievers, the corrupt, murderers, the immoral, those who practice witchcraft, idol worshipers, and all liars—their fate is in the fiery lake of burning sulfur. This is the second death.”

⁹ Then one of the seven angels who held the seven bowls containing the seven last plagues came and said to me, “Come with me! I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb.”

¹⁰ So he took me in the Spirit* to a great, high mountain, and he showed me the holy city, Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God. ¹¹ It shone with the glory of God and sparkled like a precious stone—like jasper as clear as crystal. ¹² The city wall was broad and high, with twelve gates guarded by twelve angels. And the names of the twelve tribes of Israel were written on the gates. ¹³ There were three gates on each side—east, north, south, and west. ¹⁴ The wall of the city had twelve foundation stones, and on them were written the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

HOPENOTE

Eternal Living

I heard a loud shout from the throne, saying, “Look,

God's home is now among his people! He will live with them, and they will be his people. God himself will be with them" (Revelation 21:3).

Revelation and the Bible itself end with echoes of hope. When the last chapter closes, the never-ending story goes on. Those who are in Christ will be there, but we will be different. We will be at home and have everything we need. And there will be some notable absences, too. Revelation 21:4 says, "He will wipe every tear from their eyes, and there will be no more death or sorrow or crying or pain. All these things are gone forever." Notice that God won't just speak a miracle and eliminate our ability to cry. No, He will wipe every tear away Himself.

I can imagine that as countless angels look on in wonder, Jesus will approach each of those who have kept the faith, and as He wipes away their tears, He will say, "Well done, good and faithful servant." "Then God will give you a grand entrance into the eternal Kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ" (2 Peter 1:11).

15 The angel who talked to me held in his hand a gold measuring stick to measure the city, its gates, and its wall. 16 When he measured it, he found it was a square, as wide as it was long. In fact, its length and width and height were each 1,400 miles.* 17 Then he measured the walls and found them to be 216 feet thick* (according to the human standard used by the angel).

²¹ The twelve gates were made of pearls—each gate from a single pearl! And the main street was pure gold, as clear as glass.

²² I saw no temple in the city, for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are its temple. ²³ And the city has no need of sun or moon, for the glory of God illuminates the city, and the Lamb is its light. ²⁴ The nations will walk in its light, and the kings of the world will enter the city in all their glory. ²⁵ Its gates will never be closed at the end of day because there is no night there. ²⁶ And all the nations will bring their glory and honor into the city. ²⁷ Nothing evil* will be allowed to enter, nor anyone who practices shameful idolatry and dishonesty—but only those whose names are written in the Lamb's Book of Life.

Chapter 22

Then the angel showed me a river with the water of life, clear as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb. ² It flowed down the center of the main street. On each side of the river grew a tree of life, bearing twelve crops of fruit,* with a fresh crop each month. The leaves were used for medicine to heal the nations.

3 No longer will there be a curse upon anything. For the throne of God and of the Lamb will be there, and his servants will worship him. 4 And they will see his face, and his name will be written on their foreheads. 5 And there will be no night there—no need for lamps or sun—for the Lord God will shine on them. And they will reign forever and ever.

6 Then the angel said to me, “Everything you have heard and seen is trustworthy and true. The Lord God, who inspires his prophets,* has sent his angel to tell his servants what will happen soon.*”

Jesus Is Coming

7 “Look, I am coming soon! Blessed are those who obey the words of prophecy written in this book.*”

8 I, John, am the one who heard and saw all these things. And when I heard and saw them, I fell down to worship at the feet of the angel who showed them to me. 9 But he said, “No, don’t worship me. I am a servant of God, just like you and your brothers the prophets, as well as all who obey what is written in this book. Worship only God!”

10 Then he instructed me, “Do not seal up the prophetic words in this book, for the time is near. 11 Let the one who is doing harm continue to do harm; let the one who is vile continue to be vile; let the one who is righteous continue to live righteously; let the one who is holy continue to be holy.”

12 “Look, I am coming soon, bringing my reward with me to repay all people according to their deeds. 13 I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End.”

14 Blessed are those who wash their robes. They will be permitted to enter through the gates of the city and eat the fruit from the tree of life. 15 Outside the city are the dogs—the sorcerers, the sexually immoral, the murderers, the idol worshipers, and all who love to live a lie.

16 “I, Jesus, have sent my angel to give you this message for the churches. I am both the source of David and the heir to his throne.* I am the bright morning star.”

17 The Spirit and the bride say, “Come.” Let anyone who hears this say, “Come.” Let anyone who is thirsty come. Let anyone who desires drink freely from the water of life. 18 And I solemnly declare to everyone who hears the words of prophecy written in this book: If anyone adds anything to what is written here, God will add to that person the plagues described in this book. 19 And if anyone removes any of the words from this book of prophecy, God will remove that person’s share in the tree of life and in the holy city that are described in this book.

20 He who is the faithful witness to all these things says, “Yes, I am coming soon!”

Amen! Come, Lord Jesus!

21 May the grace of the Lord Jesus be with God’s holy people.*

PRAYING OVER Relationships

MY COMMITMENT TO WALK IN LOVE

Father, I thank You that You have poured out Your love into my heart by the Holy Spirit (Romans 5:5).

I pray that You help me be rooted and grounded in love and walk in love with all people (Ephesians 3:17).

I pray that my love would grow more and more in knowledge, discernment and understanding (Philippians 1:9).

Father, I pray that my love would be a reflection of Your love to everyone I meet (John 13:35).

My prayer and confession according to the Bible's definition of love in 1 Corinthians 13:4-8 is: • I am patient.

- I am kind.
- I do not envy.
- I do not boast.
- I am not proud.
- I am not rude.
- I am not self-seeking.
- I am not easily angered.

- I keep no record of being wronged.
- I do not delight in evil, but I rejoice with the truth.
- I always protect, always trust, always hope, and always persevere.

PRAYING OVER Your Children

Proverbs 18:21 tells us the tongue has the power of life and death. As parents, you have the power to speak life or death to your children and over your children. When you choose to speak the Word of God over your children, you are choosing to speak life over them. Jesus said in John 6:63, "And the very words I have spoken to you are spirit and life." The following are scriptural confessions that you can speak over your children and as Isaiah 55:11 says, these words will not return to you empty, but will accomplish and achieve the purpose for which they are sent.

SCRIPTURES TO CONFESS OVER YOUR CHILDREN

Romans 12:2

My children are not being conformed to this world system, but they are constantly being transformed by the renewing of their mind, that they might know what is the good, acceptable, and perfect will of God for their lives.

Psalms 127:3

My children are a reward and gift from the Lord, and I will enjoy them.

1 Corinthians 6:18-19

My children will flee from all sexual immorality and impurity in thought, word, or deed, and they will realize that their body is the temple of the Holy Spirit.

Exodus 20:12

I thank You Father, that my children honor and obey me;
therefore, they please the Lord and will live a long life. (Also found in Ephesians 6:2 and Colossians 3:20.) Psalm 112:2
My children are blessed and will be mighty in the land.

Daniel 1:4

My children are children in whom there is no blemish, but they are well favored. They are skillful in wisdom, cunning in knowledge, and understand science. They have the ability to stand in the king's palace and teach others.

1 Timothy 4:12

My children are examples to others in life, in love, in faith, and in purity.

Psalm 138:8

My children will fulfill God's will and purpose for their lives.

PRAYING OVER Your Health

Use the following Scripture passages to direct and encourage you as you pray for your own healing and the healing of others.

Let all that I am praise the LORD; may I never forget the good things he does for me. He forgives all my sins and heals all my diseases (Psalm 103:2-3).

PRAYING OVER Your Finances

BIBLICAL CONFESSIONS FOR SUCCESS

Proverbs 18:21 says that death and life are in the power of the tongue; therefore, I speak the Word of God concerning my finances: 1. The favor of God surrounds me and precedes me.

(Psalm 5:12; Proverbs 11:27; Proverbs 12:2)

2. The blessings of God are chasing me and overtaking me.

(Deuteronomy 28:1-2; Luke 6:38)

3. Whatever I set my hand to shall prosper.

(Joshua 1:8; Psalm 1:3; Psalm 35:27; 3 John 2) 4. My Heavenly Father gives me power to get wealth.

(Deuteronomy 8:18; Proverbs 8:17-21; 2 Corinthians 8:9)

5. God is liberally supplying all my needs according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus.

(Proverbs 3:9-10; Philippians 4:19; Matthew 6:8, 33) 6. I no longer live under the curse of poverty. The windows of heaven are open to me, and God rebukes the devourer for my sake.

(Malachi 3:8-12; Galatians 3:13-14)

- 7. The Lord has commanded me to be blessed; therefore, I am blessed and cannot be cursed. I am the head and not the tail. I am above only and not beneath. I will lend and not borrow.
(Deuteronomy 28:3-14; Proverbs 10:6)

HOPE FOR Overcomers

BIBLE PASSAGES FOR LIFE'S CIRCUMSTANCES

The more time you spend reading and thinking about God's Word, the more you will discover that He speaks into all of life's situations. Eventually, no matter what tempest, trauma, tragedy, or triumph is going on around you, phrases and statements from the Bible will echo in your mind and show you God understands. Nothing goes on in your life that surprises Him. He's got it all laid out and wants you to travel your journey with hope and joy each day. He has given you everything you need to live as an overcomer!

Below you will find a selection of issues, feelings, and topics that will help you find some of what God's Word says about various aspects of life that you will face. These are suggested starting points. You will discover many more as you let God's Word sink into your life.
